If the Financial Services Authority<sup>5</sup> proposes to impose a relevant requirement on an institution, or imposes such a requirement with immediate effect, it must give written notice to (1) the institution; and (2) if any, the issuer<sup>6</sup> of the financial instrument<sup>7</sup> in question<sup>8</sup>.

The notice must: (a) give details of the relevant requirement<sup>9</sup>; (b) state the Authority's reasons for imposing the requirement and choosing the date on which it took effect or takes effect<sup>10</sup>; (c) inform the recipient that he may make representations to the Authority within such period as may be specified by the notice (whether or not he has referred the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal)<sup>11</sup>; (d) inform him of the date on which the requirement took effect or takes effect<sup>12</sup>; and (e) inform him of his right to refer the matter to the Tribunal and give an indication of the procedure on such a reference<sup>13</sup>.

The Authority may extend the period within which representations may be made to it<sup>14</sup>. If, having considered any representations made to it by the institution or any issuer, the Authority decides to impose the relevant requirement proposed, or if it has been imposed, not to revoke it, it must give the institution and any issuer written notice<sup>15</sup>. If, having considered any representations made to it by the institution or any issuer, the Authority decides not to impose the relevant requirement proposed, or to revoke a requirement which has been imposed, it must give the institution and any issuer written notice<sup>16</sup>.

Where the Authority has imposed a relevant requirement on an institution, and the institution or any issuer of the financial instrument in question has applied for the revocation of the requirement<sup>17</sup>:

1043 (i) if the Authority decides to grant the application, it must give the institution and any issuer written notice of its decision<sup>18</sup>;

1044 (ii) if the Authority proposes to refuse the application, it must give the institution and any issuer a warning notice<sup>19</sup>.

If, having considered any representations made in response to the warning notice, the Authority decides to refuse the application, it must give the institution and any issuer a decision notice<sup>20</sup>.

412. Notification in regard to suspension or removal of financial instruments from trading.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> exercises its power of suspension or removal<sup>2</sup> in relation to a financial instrument<sup>3</sup> traded on a regulated market<sup>4</sup>, it must as soon as reasonably practicable (1) publish its decision in such manner as it considers appropriate<sup>5</sup>; and (2) inform the competent authorities<sup>6</sup> of all other EEA states<sup>7</sup> of its decision<sup>8</sup>.

If the Authority receives notice from a recognised investment exchange<sup>9</sup> that the exchange has suspended or removed a financial instrument from trading on a regulated market operated by it, the Authority must inform the competent authorities of all other EEA states of the action taken by the exchange<sup>10</sup>.

If the Authority receives notice from the competent authority of another EEA state that that authority<sup>11</sup> has required the suspension of a financial instrument from trading<sup>12</sup>, the Authority must (a) require each recognised investment exchange to suspend the instrument from trading on any regulated market operated by the exchange<sup>13</sup>; and (b) require each institution<sup>14</sup> operating a multilateral trading facility<sup>15</sup> to suspend the instrument from trading on that facility<sup>16</sup>, unless such a step would be likely to cause significant damage to the interests of investors or the orderly functioning of the financial markets<sup>17</sup>.

If the Authority receives notice from the competent authority of another EEA state that that authority<sup>18</sup> has required the removal of a financial instrument from trading<sup>19</sup>, the Authority must (i) require each recognised investment exchange to remove the instrument from trading on any regulated market operated by the exchange<sup>20</sup>; and (ii) require each institution operating a multilateral trading facility to remove the instrument from trading on that facility<sup>21</sup>, unless such a step would be likely to cause significant damage to the interests of investors or the orderly functioning of the financial markets<sup>22</sup>.

The competent authority<sup>1</sup> must establish and maintain<sup>2</sup> a register of investors for certain purposes<sup>3</sup>. An individual may not be entered in the register unless he is resident in the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup>, and he meets certain criteria<sup>5</sup>. A company may not be entered in the register unless it falls within the meaning of 'small and medium-sized enterprises' in the Prospectus Directive<sup>6</sup>, and its registered office is in the United Kingdom<sup>7</sup>. A person who does not fall within the provisions above may not be entered in the register<sup>8</sup>.

1 As to the competent authority see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Prospectus Rules (PR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 In accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87R and prospectus rules. As to the meaning of 'prospectus rules' see PARA 385 note 18.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87R(1) (s 87R added by SI 2005/1433). The register is for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 86: see PARA 397.

4 As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87R(2) (as added: see note 3). He must meet at least two of the criteria mentioned in European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/71 (OJ L345, 31.12.2003, p 64) on the prospectus to be published when securities are offered to the public or admitted to trading, art 2.2: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87R(2) (as so added).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(v) Transparency Obligations/A. IN GENERAL/415. Transparency rules generally.

(v) Transparency Obligations

A. IN GENERAL

415. Transparency rules generally.

The competent authority<sup>1</sup> may make rules for the purposes of the Transparency Obligations Directive<sup>2</sup>. The rules may include provision for dealing with any matters arising out of or related to any provision of the Directive<sup>3</sup>.

The competent authority may also make rules (1) for the purpose of ensuring that voteholder information<sup>4</sup> in respect of voting shares<sup>5</sup> traded on a UK market<sup>6</sup> other than a regulated market<sup>7</sup> is made public or notified to the competent authority<sup>8</sup>; (2) providing for persons who hold comparable instruments<sup>9</sup> in respect of voting shares to be treated, in the circumstances specified in the rules, as holding some or all of the voting rights in respect of those shares<sup>10</sup>.

Such rules<sup>11</sup> may, in particular, make provision:

- 1045 (a) specifying how the proportion of (i) the total voting rights in respect of shares in an issuer<sup>12</sup>, or (ii) the total voting rights in respect of a particular class of shares in an issuer, held by a person is to be determined<sup>13</sup>;
- 1046 (b) specifying the circumstances in which, for the purposes of any determination of the voting rights held by a person ('P') in respect of voting shares in an issuer, any voting rights held, or treated<sup>14</sup> as held, by another person in respect of voting shares in the issuer are to be regarded as held by P<sup>15</sup>;
- 1047 (c) specifying the nature of the information which must be included in any notification<sup>16</sup>;
- 1048 (d) about the form of any notification<sup>17</sup>;
- 1049 (e) requiring any notification to be given within a specified period<sup>18</sup>;

- 1050 (f) specifying the manner in which any information is to be made public and the period within which it must be made public<sup>19</sup>;
- 1051 (g) specifying circumstances in which any of the requirements imposed by such rules does not apply<sup>20</sup>.

Transparency rules may impose the same obligations on a person who has applied for the admission of transferable securities<sup>21</sup> to trading on a regulated market without the issuer's consent as they impose on an issuer of transferable securities<sup>22</sup>. Transparency rules that require a person to make information public may include provision authorising the competent authority to make the information public in the event that the person fails to do so<sup>23</sup>. The competent authority may make public any information notified to the authority in accordance with transparency rules<sup>24</sup>. Transparency rules may make provision by reference to any provision of any rules made by the Panel on Takeovers and Mergers<sup>25</sup> under Part 28 of the Companies Act 2006<sup>26</sup>.

1 As to the competent authority see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Disclosure Rules and Transparency Rules (DTR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89A(1) (ss 89A, 89B, 89F, 89G added by the Companies Act 2006 s 1266(1)). Rules under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89A are referred to as 'transparency rules': s 89A(5) (as so added), s 103(1) (s 103 substituted by SI 2005/1433; definition added by the Companies Act 2006 s 1265). The reference to the Transparency Obligations Directive is a reference to European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/109 (OJ L390, 31.12.2004, p 38) relating to the harmonisation of transparency requirements in relation to information about issuers whose securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market. Nothing in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 89A-89G (see also PARAS 416-419) affects the generality of the power to make rules under s 89A: s 89A(6) (as so added). Sections 89A-89G are without prejudice to any other power conferred by Pt VI (ss 72-103) to make Part VI rules: s 89G(5) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'Part VI rules' see PARA 385.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89A(2) (as added: see note 2).

4 'Voteholder information' in respect of voting shares means information relating to the proportion of voting rights held by a person in respect of the shares: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89B(3) (as added: see note 2), s 103(1) (s 103 as substituted (see note 2); definition added by the Companies Act 2006 s 1265).

5 'Voting shares' means shares of an issuer to which voting rights are attached: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89F(4) (as added: see note 2). See also note 10.

6 'UK market' means a market that is situated or operating in the United Kingdom: s 89F(4) (as added: see note 2). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

7 As to the meaning of 'regulated market' see PARA 385 note 13.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89A(3)(a) (as added: see note 2).

9 See note 10 head (3).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89A(3)(b) (as added: see note 2). For the purposes of ss 89A-89G (see also PARAS 416-419):

479 (1) the voting rights in respect of any voting shares are the voting rights attached to those shares (s 89F(1)(a) (as so added));

480 (2) a person is to be regarded as holding the voting rights in respect of the shares (a) if, by virtue of those shares, he is a shareholder within the meaning of European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/109 (OJ L390, 31.12.2004, p 38) art 2.1(e); (b) if, and to the extent that, he is entitled to acquire, dispose of or exercise those voting rights in one or more of the cases mentioned in art 10(a)-(h); (c) if he holds, directly or indirectly, a financial instrument which results in an entitlement to acquire the shares and is an Article 13 instrument (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89F(1)(b) (as so added)); and

- 481 (3) a person holds a 'comparable instrument' in respect of voting shares if he holds, directly or indirectly, a financial instrument in relation to the shares which has similar economic effects to an Article 13 instrument (whether or not the financial instrument results in an entitlement to acquire the shares) (s 89F(1)(c) (as so added)).

As to the meaning of 'financial instrument' see PARA 385 note 12. 'Article 13 instrument' means a financial instrument of a type determined by the European Commission under European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/109 (OJ L390, 31.12.2004, p 38) art 13.2: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89F(4) (as so added).

Transparency rules under s 89A(3)(b) may make different provision for different descriptions of comparable instrument: s 89F(2) (as so added). For the purposes of ss 89A-89G two or more persons may, at the same time, each be regarded as holding the same voting rights: s 89F(3) (as so added).

11 The rules under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89A.

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89A(4)(a)(i) (as added: see note 2). As to the meaning of 'issuer' see PARA 385 note 21.

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89A(4)(a)(ii) (as added: see note 2).

14 The by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89A(3)(b): see head (2) in the text.

15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89A(4)(b) (as added: see note 2).

UPDATE

415 Transparency rules generally

NOTE 10--'Financial instrument' in this context has the meaning given in European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (on markets in financial instruments) art 4.1(17): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89F(4) (definition added by SI 2008/3053).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(v) Transparency Obligations/A. IN GENERAL/416. Provision of voteholder information.

416. Provision of voteholder information.

Transparency rules<sup>1</sup> may make provision for voteholder information<sup>2</sup> in respect of voting shares<sup>3</sup> to be notified, in circumstances specified in the rules to the issuer<sup>4</sup> or to the public, or to both<sup>5</sup>. Transparency rules may also make provision for voteholder information notified to the issuer to be notified at the same time to the competent authority<sup>6</sup>.

Transparency rules may require notification of voteholder information relating to a person (1) initially, not later than such date as may be specified in the rules for the purposes of the transitional provisions of the Transparency Obligations Directive<sup>7</sup>; and (2) subsequently, in accordance with the following provisions<sup>8</sup>.

Transparency rules under head (2) above may require notification of voteholder information relating to a person only where there is a notifiable change<sup>9</sup> in the proportion of (a) the total voting rights in respect of shares in the issuer<sup>10</sup>; or (b) the total voting rights in respect of a particular class of share in the issuer<sup>11</sup>, held by the person<sup>12</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'transparency rules' see PARA 415 note 2. As to transparency rules generally see PARA 415.

2 As to the meaning of 'voteholder information' see PARA 415 note 4.

3 As to the meaning of 'voting shares' see PARA 415 note 5.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89B(1) (s 89B added by the Companies Act 2006 s 1266(1)).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89B(2) (as added: see note 5). As to the competent authority see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Disclosure Rules and Transparency Rules (DTR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89B(4)(a) (as added: see note 5). The reference is to European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/109 (OJ L390, 31.12.2004, p 38) relating to the harmonisation of transparency requirements in relation to information about issuers whose securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market, art 30.2 first indent.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89B(4)(b) (as added: see note 5). The reference is to s 89B(5)-(7): see the text and notes 9-12.

9 For these purposes, there is a 'notifiable change' in the proportion of voting rights held by a person when the proportion changes (1) from being a proportion less than a designated proportion to a proportion equal to or greater than that designated proportion; (2) from being a proportion equal to a designated proportion to a proportion greater or less than that designated proportion; or (3) from being a proportion greater than a designated proportion to a proportion equal to or less than that designated proportion: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89B(6) (as added: see note 5). In s 89B(6) 'designated' means designated by the rules: s 89B(7) (as so added).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89B(5)(a) (as added: see note 5).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89B(5)(b) (as added: see note 5).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89B(5) (as added: see note 5).

LISTING/(v) Transparency Obligations/A. IN GENERAL/417. Provision of information by issuers of transferable securities.

417. Provision of information by issuers of transferable securities.

Transparency rules<sup>1</sup> may make provision requiring the issuer<sup>2</sup> of transferable securities<sup>3</sup>, in circumstances specified in the rules (1) to make public information to which this provision applies<sup>4</sup>; or (2) to notify to the competent authority<sup>5</sup> information to which this provision applies<sup>6</sup>, or to do both<sup>7</sup>.

In the case of every issuer, this provision applies to:

- 1052 (a) information on annual financial reports required by the Transparency Obligations Directive<sup>8</sup>;
- 1053 (b) information relating to the rights attached to the transferable securities, including information about the terms and conditions of those securities which could indirectly affect those rights<sup>9</sup>; and
- 1054 (c) information about new loan issues and about any guarantee or security in connection with any such issue<sup>10</sup>.

In the case of an issuer of debt securities<sup>11</sup>, this provision also applies to information on half-yearly financial reports required by the Transparency Obligations Directive<sup>12</sup>.

In the case of an issuer of shares, this provision also applies to:

- 1055 (i) information on half-yearly financial reports required by the Directive<sup>13</sup>;
- 1056 (ii) information on interim management statements required by the Directive<sup>14</sup>;

418. Notification of voting rights held by issuer.

Transparency rules under head (2) above may require notification of voteholder information relating to the proportion of voting rights held by an issuer in respect of voting shares in the issuer only where there is a notifiable change<sup>8</sup> in the proportion of (a) the total voting rights in respect of shares in the issuer<sup>9</sup>; or (b) the total voting rights in respect of a particular class of share in the issuer<sup>10</sup>, held by the issuer<sup>11</sup>.

B. POWER OF COMPETENT AUTHORITY TO CALL FOR INFORMATION

420. Power to call for information.

The competent authority<sup>1</sup> may by notice in writing given to a person to whom this provision applies<sup>2</sup> require him (1) to provide specified<sup>3</sup> information or information of a specified description<sup>4</sup>; or (2) to produce specified documents or documents of a specified description<sup>5</sup>.

This provision<sup>6</sup> applies to:

- 1060 (1) an issuer<sup>7</sup> in respect of whom transparency rules<sup>8</sup> have effect<sup>9</sup>;
- 1061 (2) a voteholder<sup>10</sup>;
- 1062 (3) an auditor of an issuer<sup>11</sup>, or a voteholder<sup>12</sup>;
- 1063 (4) a person who controls<sup>13</sup> a voteholder<sup>14</sup>;
- 1064 (5) a person controlled by a voteholder<sup>15</sup>;
- 1065 (6) a director or other similar officer of an issuer<sup>16</sup>;
- 1066 (7) a director or other similar officer of a voteholder or, where the affairs of a voteholder are managed by its members, a member of the voteholder<sup>17</sup>.

This provision<sup>18</sup> applies only to information and documents reasonably required in connection with the exercise by the competent authority of functions conferred on it by or under the provisions on transparency rules<sup>19</sup>.

Information or documents required under this provision must be provided or produced (a) before the end of such reasonable period as may be specified<sup>20</sup>; and (b) at such place as may be specified<sup>21</sup>. If a person claims a lien on a document, its production under this provision does not affect the lien<sup>22</sup>.

The competent authority may require an issuer to make public any information provided to the authority<sup>23</sup>. If the issuer fails to comply with this requirement, the competent authority may, after seeking representations from the issuer, make the information public<sup>24</sup>.

1 As to the competent authority see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Disclosure Rules and Transparency Rules (DTR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

422. Public censure of issuer.

If the competent authority<sup>1</sup> finds that an issuer<sup>2</sup> of securities<sup>3</sup> admitted to trading on a regulated market<sup>4</sup> is failing or has failed to comply with an applicable transparency obligation<sup>5</sup>, it may publish a statement to that effect<sup>6</sup>.

If the competent authority proposes to publish a statement, it must give the issuer a warning notice setting out the terms of the proposed statement<sup>7</sup>. If, after considering any representations made in response to the warning notice, the competent authority decides to make the proposed statement, it must give the issuer a decision notice setting out the terms of the statement<sup>8</sup>. Such a notice<sup>9</sup> must inform the issuer of his right<sup>10</sup> to refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>11</sup> and give an indication of the procedure on such a reference<sup>12</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(v) Transparency Obligations/C. POWERS EXERCISABLE WHERE INFRINGEMENT OF TRANSPARENCY OBLIGATION/423. Power to suspend or prohibit trading of securities.

423. Power to suspend or prohibit trading of securities.

The following provision<sup>1</sup> applies to securities<sup>2</sup> admitted to trading on a regulated market<sup>3</sup>. If the competent authority<sup>4</sup> has reasonable grounds for suspecting that an applicable transparency obligation<sup>5</sup> has been infringed by an issuer<sup>6</sup>, it may:

- 1067 (1) suspend trading in the securities for a period not exceeding ten days<sup>7</sup>;
- 1068 (2) prohibit trading in the securities<sup>8</sup>; or
- 1069 (3) make a request to the operator of the market on which the issuer's securities are traded to suspend trading in the securities for a period not exceeding ten days<sup>9</sup>, or to prohibit trading in the securities<sup>10</sup>.

If the competent authority has reasonable grounds for suspecting that a provision required by the Transparency Obligations Directive<sup>11</sup> has been infringed by a voteholder of an issuer, it may (a) prohibit trading in the securities<sup>12</sup>; or (b) make a request to the operator of the market on which the issuer's securities are traded to prohibit trading in the securities<sup>13</sup>. If the competent authority finds that an applicable transparency obligation has been infringed, it may require the market operator to prohibit trading in the securities<sup>14</sup>.

A requirement under the above provision<sup>15</sup> takes effect (i) immediately, if the notice under heads (A) and (B) below<sup>16</sup> states that that is the case<sup>17</sup>; (ii) in any other case, on such date as may be specified in the notice<sup>18</sup>.

If the competent authority (A) proposes to exercise the above powers<sup>19</sup> in relation to a person<sup>20</sup>; or (B) exercises any of those powers in relation to a person with immediate effect<sup>21</sup>, it must give that person written notice<sup>22</sup>.

The competent authority may extend the period within which representations<sup>23</sup> may be made to it<sup>24</sup>. If, having considered any representations made to it, the competent authority decides to maintain, vary or revoke its earlier decision, it must give written notice to that effect to the person mentioned in heads (A) and (B) above<sup>25</sup>.

(vi) Corporate Governance

425. Corporate governance rules.

The competent authority<sup>1</sup> may make rules ('corporate governance rules'):

- 1070 (1) for the purpose of implementing, enabling the implementation of or dealing with matters arising out of or related to, any Community obligation relating to the corporate governance<sup>2</sup> of issuers<sup>3</sup> who have requested or approved admission of their securities<sup>4</sup> to trading on a regulated market<sup>5</sup>;
- 1071 (2) about corporate governance in relation to such issuers for the purpose of implementing, or dealing with matters arising out of or related to, any Community obligation<sup>6</sup>.

The burdens and restrictions imposed by such rules<sup>7</sup> on foreign-traded issuers<sup>8</sup> must not be greater than the burdens and restrictions imposed on UK-traded issuers<sup>9</sup> by (a) such rules<sup>10</sup>; and (b) listing rules<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to the competent authority see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

2 'Corporate governance', in relation to an issuer, includes: (1) the nature, constitution or functions of the organs of the issuer; (2) the manner in which organs of the issuer conduct themselves; (3) the requirements imposed on organs of the issuer; (4) the relationship between the different organs of the issuer; (5) the relationship between the organs of the issuer and the members of the issuer or holders of the issuer's securities: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 89O(3) (s 89O added by the Companies Act 2006 s 1269). ## (vii) Other Listing Matters

426. Sponsors.

Listing rules<sup>1</sup> may require a person to make arrangements with a sponsor<sup>2</sup> for the performance by the sponsor of such services in relation to him as may be specified in the rules<sup>3</sup>. Listing rules<sup>4</sup> may: (1) provide for the competent authority to maintain a list of sponsors<sup>5</sup>; (2) specify services which must be performed by a sponsor<sup>6</sup>; (3) impose requirements on a sponsor in relation to the provision of services or specified services<sup>7</sup>; (4) specify the circumstances in which a person is qualified for being approved as a sponsor<sup>8</sup>. If the competent authority proposes to refuse a person's application for approval as a sponsor, or to cancel a person's approval as a sponsor otherwise than at his request, it must give him a warning notice<sup>9</sup>. If, after considering any representations made in response to the warning notice, the competent authority decides to grant the application for approval, or not to cancel the approval, it must give the person concerned, and any person to whom a copy of the warning notice was given, written notice of its decision<sup>10</sup>. If, after considering any representations made in response to the warning notice, the competent authority decides to refuse to grant the application for approval, or to cancel the approval, it must give the person concerned a decision notice<sup>11</sup>. A person to whom a decision notice is given<sup>12</sup> may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>13</sup>.

Listing rules may make provision for the competent authority, if it considers that a sponsor has contravened a requirement imposed on him<sup>14</sup>, to publish a statement to that effect<sup>15</sup>. If the competent authority proposes to publish a statement it must give the sponsor a warning notice setting out the terms of the proposed statement<sup>16</sup>. If, after considering any representations made in response to the warning notice, the competent authority decides to make the proposed statement, it must give the sponsor a decision notice setting out the terms of the statement<sup>17</sup>. A sponsor to whom a decision notice is given<sup>18</sup> may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>19</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(vii) Other Listing Matters/427. Compensation for false and misleading statements etc.

427. Compensation for false and misleading statements etc.

Any person responsible for listing particulars<sup>1</sup> is liable to pay compensation to a person who has: (1) acquired securities<sup>2</sup> to which the particulars apply<sup>3</sup>; and (2) suffered loss in respect of them as a result of any untrue or misleading statement in the particulars or as a result of the omission from the particulars of any matter required to be included<sup>4</sup>. If listing particulars are required to include information about the absence of a particular matter, the omission from the particulars of that information is to be treated as a statement in the listing particulars that there is no such matter<sup>5</sup>. Any person who fails to comply with the provision relating to supplementary listing particulars<sup>6</sup> is liable to pay compensation to any person who has: (a) acquired securities of the kind in question<sup>7</sup>; and (b) suffered loss in respect of them as a result of the failure<sup>8</sup>. No person will, by reason of being a promoter of a company or otherwise, incur any liability for failing to disclose information which he would not be required to disclose in listing particulars in respect of a company's securities: (i) if he were responsible for those particulars<sup>9</sup>; or (ii) if he is responsible for them, which he is entitled to omit<sup>10</sup>.

The provisions described above do not affect any liability which may otherwise be incurred<sup>11</sup>. These provisions apply with modifications in relation to a prospectus<sup>12</sup>.

The issuer<sup>13</sup> of certain securities<sup>14</sup> is liable to pay compensation to a person who has (A) acquired<sup>15</sup> such securities issued by it<sup>16</sup>; and (B) suffered loss<sup>17</sup> in respect of them as a result of any untrue or misleading statement in certain publications<sup>18</sup>, or the omission from any such publication of any matter required to be included in it<sup>19</sup>. The issuer is so liable only if a person discharging managerial responsibilities<sup>20</sup> within the issuer in relation to the publication (aa) knew the statement to be untrue or misleading or was reckless as to whether it was untrue or misleading<sup>21</sup>; or (bb) knew the omission to be dishonest concealment of a material fact<sup>22</sup>. These provisions<sup>23</sup> do not affect certain powers in regard to restitution<sup>24</sup>, liability for a civil penalty and liability for a criminal offence<sup>25</sup>. The Treasury<sup>26</sup> may by regulations make provision about the liability of issuers of securities traded on a regulated market, and other persons, in respect of information published to holders of securities, to the market or to the public generally<sup>27</sup>.

1 As to listing particulars see PARA 391 et seq. As to the persons responsible for listing particulars see PARA 391. For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90(1), 'listing particulars' includes supplementary listing particulars: s 90(10). As to supplementary listing particulars see PARA 393. See also the Financial Services Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Listing Rules (LR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to the meaning of 'securities' see PARA 385 note 21. References in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90 to the acquisition by a person of securities include references to his contracting to acquire them or any interest in them: s 90(7).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90(4)(b). See note 7.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90(8)(a). The reference in s 90(8) to a person incurring liability includes a reference to any other person being entitled as against that person to be granted any civil remedy or to rescind or repudiate an agreement: s 90(9).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90(8)(b). Particulars may be omitted by virtue of s 82: see PARA 394. See note 9.

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90(6).

12 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90(11) (s 90(11), (12) added by SI 2005/1433). As to prospectuses see PARA 395 et seq. In relation to a prospectus, the references in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90 or in Sch 10 (see PARA 428) to listing particulars are to a prospectus, the references to supplementary listing particulars are to a supplementary prospectus (see PARA 403) and the references to securities are to transferable securities (see PARA 395); and in relation to a prospectus, the references to s 80 or s 81 are to s 87A (see PARA 399) or s 87G (see PARA 403): see s 90(11)(a), (b), (c) (as so added).

A person is not to be subject to civil liability solely on the basis of a summary (including any translation of it) in a prospectus unless the summary is misleading, inaccurate or inconsistent when read with the rest of the prospectus: s 90(12) (as so added).

13 As to the meaning of 'issuer' see PARA 385 note 21.

14 The securities to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90A applies are: (1) securities that are traded on a regulated market situated or operating in the United Kingdom; and (2) securities that (a) are traded on a regulated market situated or operating outside the United Kingdom; and (b) are issued by an issuer for which the United Kingdom is the home member state within the meaning of the Transparency Obligations Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/109 (OJ L390, 31.12.2004, p 38) relating to the harmonisation of transparency requirements in relation to information about issuers whose securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market) art 2.1(i): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90A(2) (ss 90A, 90B added by the Companies Act 2006 s 1270). As to the meaning of 'regulated market' see PARA 385 note 13. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

15 For these purposes, references in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90A to the acquisition by a person of securities include his contracting to acquire them or any interest in them: s 90A(9)(b) (as added: see note 14).

16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90A(3)(a) (as added: see note 14).

17 A loss is not regarded as suffered as a result of the statement or omission in the publication unless the person suffering it acquired the relevant securities (1) in reliance on the information in the publication; and (2) at a time when, and in circumstances in which, it was reasonable for him to rely on that information: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90A(5) (as added: see note 14). Except as mentioned in s 90A(8) (see the text and notes 23-25), (a) the issuer is not subject to any other liability than that provided for by s 90A in respect of loss suffered as a result of reliance by any person on an untrue or misleading statement in a publication to which this section applies, or the omission from any such publication of any matter required to be included in it; and (b) a person other than the issuer is not subject to any liability, other than to the issuer, in respect of any such loss: s 90A(6) (as so added). Any reference in s 90A(6) to a person being subject to a liability includes a reference to another person being entitled as against him to be granted any civil remedy or to rescind or repudiate an agreement: s 90A(7) (as so added).

18 The publications to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90A applies are: (1) any reports and statements published in response to a requirement imposed by a provision implementing the Transparency Obligations Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/109 (OJ L390, 31.12.2004, p 38)) art 4, 5 or 6; and (2) any preliminary statement made in advance of a report or statement to be published in response to a requirement imposed by a provision implementing art 4, to the extent that it contains information that it is intended (a) will appear in the report or statement; and (b) will be presented in the report or statement in substantially the same form as that in which it is presented in the preliminary statement: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90A(1) (as added: see note 14).

19 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90A(3)(b) (as added: see note 14).

20 For these purposes, the following are persons 'discharging managerial responsibilities' in relation to a publication: (1) any director of the issuer (or person occupying the position of director, by whatever name called); (2) in the case of an issuer whose affairs are managed by its members, any member of the issuer; (3) in the case of an issuer that has no persons within heads (1) or (2) above, any senior executive of the issuer having responsibilities in relation to the publication: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90A(9)(a) (as added: see note 14).

21 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90A(4)(a) (as added: see note 14).

27 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 90B(1) (as added: see note 14). Such regulations may amend any primary or subordinate legislation, including any provision of, or made under, the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000: s 90B(2) (as so added). No regulations are to be made under s 90B unless a draft of the regulations has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House: s 429(2) (amended by the Companies Act 2006 Sch 15 Pt 1 paras 1, 12). At the date at which this volume states the law no such regulations had been made.

428. Exemptions.

A person does not incur any liability<sup>1</sup> for loss caused by a statement<sup>2</sup> if he satisfies the court that, at the time when the listing particulars were submitted to the competent authority<sup>3</sup>, he reasonably believed (having made such inquiries, if any, as were reasonable) that the statement was true and not misleading, or the matter whose omission caused the loss was properly omitted, and that one or more of the following conditions are satisfied<sup>4</sup>. The conditions are that: (1) he continued in his belief until the time when the securities<sup>5</sup> in question were acquired<sup>6</sup>; (2) they were acquired before it was reasonably practicable to bring a correction to the attention of persons likely to acquire them<sup>7</sup>; (3) before the securities were acquired, he had taken all such steps as it was reasonable for him to have taken to secure that a correction was brought to the attention of those persons<sup>8</sup>; (4) he continued in his belief until after the commencement of dealings in the securities following their admission to the official list<sup>9</sup> and they were acquired after such a lapse of time that he ought in the circumstances to be reasonably excused<sup>10</sup>.

A person does not incur any liability<sup>11</sup> for loss in respect of any securities caused by a statement<sup>12</sup> which purports to be made by an expert if he satisfies the court that, at the time when the listing particulars were submitted to the competent authority, he reasonably believed that the other person<sup>13</sup> was competent to make or authorise the statement, and had consented to its inclusion in the form and context in which it was included, and that one or more of the following conditions are satisfied<sup>14</sup>. The conditions are that: (a) he continued in his belief until the time when the securities were acquired<sup>15</sup>; (b) they were acquired before it was reasonably practicable to bring the fact that the expert was not competent, or had not consented, to the attention of persons likely to acquire the securities in question<sup>16</sup>; (c) before the securities were acquired he had taken all such steps as it was reasonable for him to have taken to secure that that fact was brought to the attention of those persons<sup>17</sup>; (d) he continued in his belief until after the commencement of dealings in the securities following their admission to the official list and they were acquired after such a lapse of time that he ought in the circumstances to be reasonably excused<sup>18</sup>.

A person does not incur liability<sup>19</sup> for loss caused by a statement<sup>20</sup> by an expert if he satisfies the court that, before the securities in question were acquired, a correction had been published in a manner calculated to bring it to the attention of persons likely to acquire the securities, or that he took all such steps as it was reasonable for him to take to secure such publication and reasonably believed that it had taken place before the securities were acquired<sup>21</sup>.

A person does not incur liability<sup>22</sup> for loss caused by a statement<sup>23</sup> by an expert if he satisfies the court that before the securities in question were acquired, the fact that the expert was not competent or had not consented had been published in a manner calculated to bring it to the attention of persons likely to acquire the securities, or that he took all such steps as it was reasonable for him to take to secure such publication and reasonably believed that it had taken place before the securities were acquired<sup>24</sup>.

A person does not incur any liability<sup>25</sup> for loss resulting from a statement made by an official person which is included in the listing particulars, or a statement contained in a public official document which is included in the listing particulars, if he satisfies the court that the statement is accurately and fairly reproduced<sup>26</sup>.

A person does not incur any liability to pay compensation<sup>27</sup> if he satisfies the court that the person suffering the loss acquired the securities in question with knowledge: (i) that the statement was false or misleading<sup>28</sup>; (ii) of the omitted matter<sup>29</sup>; or (iii) of the change or new matter, as the case may be<sup>30</sup>.

A person does not incur any liability to pay compensation for failing to comply with the provisions relating to supplementary listing particulars<sup>31</sup> if he satisfies the court that he reasonably believed that the change or new matter in question was not such as to call for supplementary listing particulars<sup>32</sup>.

429. Penalties for breach of Part VI rules.

If the competent authority<sup>1</sup> considers that an issuer<sup>2</sup> of listed securities<sup>3</sup>, or an applicant for listing<sup>4</sup>, has contravened any provision of listing rules<sup>5</sup>, it may impose on him a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate<sup>6</sup>.

If the competent authority considers that (1) an issuer who has requested or approved the admission of a financial instrument<sup>7</sup> to trading on a regulated market<sup>8</sup>; (2) a person discharging managerial responsibilities within such an issuer<sup>9</sup>; or (3) a person connected with such a person discharging managerial responsibilities<sup>10</sup>, has contravened any provision of disclosure rules<sup>11</sup>, it may impose on him a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate<sup>12</sup>.

If the competent authority considers that (a) an issuer of transferable securities<sup>13</sup>; (b) a person offering transferable securities to the public<sup>14</sup> or requesting their admission to trading on a regulated market<sup>15</sup>; (c) an applicant for the approval of a prospectus in relation to transferable securities<sup>16</sup>; (d) a person on whom a requirement has been imposed under the provisions on suspension or prohibition of an offer to the public or admission to trading on a regulated market<sup>17</sup>; or (e) any other person to whom a provision of the Prospectus Directive<sup>18</sup> applies<sup>19</sup>, has contravened a provision of Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or of prospectus rules<sup>20</sup>, or a provision otherwise made in accordance with the Prospectus Directive or a requirement imposed on him under such a provision, it may impose on him a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate<sup>21</sup>.

If the competent authority considers (i) that a person has contravened a provision of transparency rules<sup>22</sup> or a provision otherwise made in accordance with the Transparency Obligations Directive<sup>23</sup>, or a provision of corporate governance rules<sup>24</sup>; or (ii) that a person on whom a requirement has been imposed under the provision on the power to suspend or prohibit trading of securities in case of infringement of applicable transparency obligation<sup>25</sup>, has contravened that requirement<sup>26</sup>, it may impose on the person a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate<sup>27</sup>.

If, in the case of contravention by a person referred to in the above provisions<sup>28</sup> ('P'), the competent authority considers that another person who was at the material time a director<sup>29</sup> of P was knowingly concerned in the contravention, it may impose on him a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate<sup>30</sup>. A penalty under these provisions is payable to the competent authority<sup>31</sup>. If the competent authority is entitled to impose a penalty on a person in respect of a particular matter it may, instead of imposing a penalty on him in respect of that matter, publish a statement censuring him<sup>32</sup>. Nothing in these provisions<sup>33</sup> prevents the competent authority from taking any other steps which it has power to take under Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>34</sup>. The competent authority may not take action against a person after the end of the period of two years beginning with the first day on which it knew of the contravention unless proceedings against that person, in respect of the contravention, were begun before the end of that period<sup>35</sup>.

If the competent authority proposes to take action against a person<sup>36</sup>, it must give him a warning notice<sup>37</sup>. A warning notice about a proposal to impose a penalty must state the amount of the proposed penalty<sup>38</sup>. A warning notice about a proposal to publish a statement must set out the terms of the proposed statement<sup>39</sup>.

If the competent authority decides to take action against a person<sup>40</sup> it must give him a decision notice<sup>41</sup>. A decision notice about the imposition of a penalty must state the amount of the penalty<sup>42</sup>. A decision notice about the publication of a statement must set out the terms of the statement<sup>43</sup>. If the competent authority decides to take action against a person<sup>44</sup>, he may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>45</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(vii) Other Listing Matters/430. Statement of policy relating to penalties.

430. Statement of policy relating to penalties.

The competent authority<sup>1</sup> must prepare and issue a statement of its policy with respect to the imposition of penalties<sup>2</sup> and the amount of penalties<sup>3</sup>. The competent authority's policy in determining what the amount of a penalty should be must include having regard to: (1) the seriousness of the contravention in question in relation to the nature of the requirement contravened<sup>4</sup>; (2) the extent to which that contravention was deliberate or reckless<sup>5</sup>; and (3) whether the person on whom the penalty is to be imposed is an individual<sup>6</sup>. The competent authority may at any time alter or replace its policy statement<sup>7</sup>. If its policy statement is altered or replaced, the competent authority must issue the altered or replacement statement<sup>8</sup>.

In exercising, or deciding whether to exercise, its power with respect to penalties<sup>9</sup> in the case of any particular contravention, the competent authority must have regard to any policy statement published<sup>10</sup> and in force at the time when the contravention in question occurred<sup>11</sup>.

The competent authority must publish a policy statement in the way appearing to the competent authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>12</sup>. The competent authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of the statement<sup>13</sup>. The competent authority must, without delay, give the Treasury<sup>14</sup> a copy of any policy statement which it publishes<sup>15</sup>.

Before issuing a policy statement, the competent authority must publish a draft of the proposed statement in the way appearing to the competent authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>16</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about the proposal may be made to the competent authority within a specified time<sup>17</sup>. If the competent authority issues the proposed statement it must publish an account, in general terms, of the representations made to it and its response to them<sup>18</sup>. If the statement differs from the draft in a way which is, in the opinion of the competent authority, significant, the competent authority must publish details of the difference<sup>19</sup>. These requirements also apply to a proposal to alter or replace a statement<sup>20</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(vii) Other Listing Matters/431. Penalty scheme.

431. Penalty scheme.

In determining its policy with respect to the amount of penalties to be imposed by it under Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>1</sup>, the competent authority<sup>2</sup> must take no account of the expenses which it incurs, or expects to incur, in discharging its functions under that Part<sup>3</sup>.

The competent authority must prepare and operate a scheme for ensuring that the amounts paid to it by way of penalties imposed under Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 are applied for the benefit of issuers<sup>4</sup> of securities<sup>5</sup> admitted to the official list<sup>6</sup>, and issuers who have requested or approved the admission of financial instruments<sup>7</sup> to trading on a regulated market<sup>8</sup>. The scheme may, in particular, make different provision with respect to different classes of issuer<sup>9</sup>. Up to date details of the scheme must be set out in a document (the 'scheme details')<sup>10</sup>. The scheme details must be published by the competent authority in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring them to the attention of the public<sup>11</sup>. The competent authority must, without delay, give the Treasury<sup>12</sup> a copy of any scheme details published by it<sup>13</sup>.

Before making the scheme, the competent authority must publish a draft of the proposed scheme in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>14</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about the proposals may be made to the competent authority within a specified time<sup>15</sup>. If the competent authority makes the proposed scheme, it must publish an account, in general terms, of the representations made to it and its response to them<sup>16</sup>. If the scheme differs from the draft in a way which is, in the opinion of the competent authority, significant, the competent authority must publish details of the difference<sup>17</sup>.

The competent authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of a draft or the scheme details<sup>18</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(vii) Other Listing Matters/432. Competition.

432. Competition.

The Treasury<sup>1</sup> may by order provide for regulating provisions<sup>2</sup>, and the practices of the competent authority in exercising its functions under Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ('practices'), to be kept under review<sup>3</sup>. Such provision must require the person responsible for keeping regulating provisions and practices under review to consider: (1) whether any regulating provision or practice has a significantly adverse effect on competition<sup>4</sup>; or (2) whether two or more regulating provisions or practices taken together have, or a particular combination of regulating provisions and practices has, such an effect<sup>5</sup>.

Regulating provisions or practices have a significantly adverse effect on competition if: (a) they have, or are intended or likely to have, that effect<sup>6</sup>; or (b) the effect that they have, or are intended or likely to have, is to require or encourage behaviour which has, or is intended or likely to have, a significantly adverse effect on competition<sup>7</sup>. If regulating provisions or practices have, or are intended or likely to have, the effect of requiring or encouraging exploitation of the strength of a market position they are to be taken to have, or be intended or be likely to have, an adverse effect on competition<sup>8</sup>. In determining whether any of the regulating provisions or practices have, or are intended or likely to have, a particular effect, it may be assumed that the persons to whom the provisions concerned are addressed will act in accordance with them<sup>9</sup>.

433. Obligations of issuers of listed securities.

Listing rules<sup>1</sup> may: (1) specify requirements to be complied with by issuers<sup>2</sup> of listed securities<sup>3</sup>; and (2) make provision with respect to the action that may be taken by the competent authority<sup>4</sup> in the event of non-compliance<sup>5</sup>. If the rules require an issuer to publish information, they may include provision authorising the competent authority to publish it in the event of his failure to do so<sup>6</sup>. The provisions described above apply whenever the listed securities were admitted to the official list<sup>7</sup>.

434. Appointment of persons to carry out investigations.

The competent authority<sup>1</sup> may appoint one or more competent persons to conduct an investigation on its behalf<sup>2</sup> if it appears to the competent authority that there are circumstances suggesting that: (1) there may have been a contravention of a provision of Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>3</sup> or of Part VI rules<sup>4</sup>, or a provision otherwise made in accordance with the Prospectus Directive<sup>5</sup> or the Transparency Obligations Directive<sup>6</sup>; (2) a person who was at the material time a director<sup>7</sup> of certain persons mentioned in the provisions on penalties for breach of Part VI rules<sup>8</sup> has been knowingly concerned in a contravention by that person of a provision of Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or of Part VI rules, or a provision otherwise made in accordance with the Prospectus Directive or the Transparency Obligations Directive<sup>9</sup>; (3) there may have been a contravention of the statutory provisions relating to registration of listing particulars, publication of prospectuses, supplementary prospectuses or advertisements in connection with listing applications<sup>10</sup>.

1 As to the competent authority see PARA 385. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Listing, Prospectus and Disclosure, Listing Rules (LR). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22. See note 2.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 97(2). Part XI (ss 165-177) (see PARA 447 et seq) applies to an investigation under s 97(2) as if: (1) the investigator were appointed under s 167(1) (see PARA 449); (2) references to the investigating authority in relation to him were to the competent authority; (3) references to the offences mentioned in s 168 (see PARA 449) were to those mentioned in the text and note 10; (4) references to an authorised person were references to the person under investigation: s 97(3).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(6) OFFICIAL LISTING/(vii) Other Listing Matters/435. Supervision of periodic accounts and reports of issuers of listed securities.

435. Supervision of periodic accounts and reports of issuers of listed securities.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may make an order appointing a body (the 'prescribed body') to keep under review periodic accounts and reports<sup>2</sup> that are produced by issuers of transferable securities<sup>3</sup> and are required to comply with any accounting requirements imposed by Part VI rules<sup>4</sup>, and, if the prescribed body thinks fit, to inform the Financial Services Authority<sup>5</sup> of any conclusions reached by the body in relation to any such accounts or report<sup>6</sup>.

A body may be appointed if it is a body corporate or an unincorporated association<sup>7</sup> which appears to the Secretary of State to have an interest in, and to have satisfactory procedures directed to, monitoring compliance by issuers of transferable securities with accounting requirements imposed by Part VI rules in relation to periodic accounts and reports produced by such issuers; and otherwise to be a fit and proper body to be appointed<sup>8</sup>. However where the order is to contain any requirements or other provisions<sup>9</sup> relating to the exercise of functions by the prescribed body, the Secretary of State may not appoint a body unless, in addition, it appears to him that the body would, if appointed, exercise its functions as a prescribed body in accordance with any such requirements or provisions<sup>10</sup>.

A body may be appointed either generally or in respect of any of the following, namely (1) any particular class or classes of issuers; (2) any particular class or classes of periodic accounts or reports, and different bodies may be appointed in respect of different classes within either or both of heads (1) and (2)<sup>11</sup>.

Where a body is so appointed, but the Financial Services Authority requests the body to exercise its functions in relation to any particular issuer of transferable securities in relation to whom those functions would not otherwise be exercisable, the body is to exercise those functions in relation to that issuer as well<sup>12</sup>.

Where an appointment is revoked, the revoking order may make such provision as the Secretary of State thinks fit with respect to pending proceedings<sup>13</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 3.

2 'Periodic' accounts and reports means accounts and reports which are required by Part VI rules to be produced periodically: Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 s 14(12) (definition amended by the Companies Act 2006 Sch 15 Pt 2 paras 13, 14(1), (5)(c)). As to the meaning of 'Part VI rules' see note 4.

3 'Issuer', in relation to transferable securities, has the meaning given by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 102A(6)(b) (see PARA 385 note 21); and 'transferable securities' has the meaning given by s 102A(3) (see PARA 385 note 18): Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 s 14(12) (definitions substituted by the Companies Act 2006 Sch 15 Pt 2 paras 13, 14(1), (5)(b), (d)).

4 'Part VI rules' has the meaning given by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 103(1) (see PARA 385): Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 s 14(12) (definition substituted by the Companies Act 2006 Sch 15 Pt 2 paras 13, 14(1), (5)(a)).

5 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

6 Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 s 14(1), (2) (s 14(2) amended by the Companies Act 2006 Sch 15 Pt 2 paras 13, 14(1), (2)(a)). The power to make an order under the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 s 14 is exercisable by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 14(11). As to the prescribed body, see the Supervision of Accounts and Reports (Prescribed Body) Order 2007, SI 2007/2583.

7 If the prescribed body is an unincorporated association, any relevant proceedings may be brought by or against that body in the name of any body corporate whose constitution provides for the establishment of the body; 'relevant proceedings' means proceedings brought in or in connection with the exercise of any function by the body as a prescribed body: Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 s 14(9).

8 Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 s 14(3) (amended by the Companies Act 2006 Sch 15 Pt 2 paras 13, 14(1), (3)(b)).

9 The provisions specified in the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 s 14(8) which provides that an order under s 14 may contain such requirements or other provisions relating to the exercise of functions by the prescribed body as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate.

10 Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 s 14(4).

11 Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 s 14(5). In relation to the appointment of a body in respect of any such class or classes, s 14(2), (3) is to be read as referring to issuers, or (as the case may be) to periodic accounts or reports, of the class or classes concerned: s 14(6).

436. Fees.

Listing rules<sup>1</sup> may require the payment of fees to the competent authority<sup>2</sup> in respect of: (1) applications for listing<sup>3</sup>; (2) the continued inclusion of securities<sup>4</sup> in the official list<sup>5</sup>; (3) applications for approval as a sponsor<sup>6</sup>; and (4) continued inclusion of sponsors in the list of sponsors<sup>7</sup>. In exercising its powers<sup>8</sup> the competent authority may set such fees as it considers will (taking account of the income it expects as the competent authority) enable it: (a) to meet expenses incurred in carrying out its functions under Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>9</sup> or for any incidental purpose<sup>10</sup>; (b) to maintain adequate reserves<sup>11</sup>; and (c) in the case of the Financial Services Authority<sup>12</sup>, to repay the principal of, and pay any interest on, any money which it has borrowed and which has been used for the purpose of meeting expenses incurred in relation to its assumption of functions<sup>13</sup>.

Disclosure rules<sup>14</sup> may require the payment of fees to the competent authority in respect of the continued admission of financial instruments<sup>15</sup> to trading on a regulated market<sup>16</sup>. Prospectus rules<sup>17</sup> may require the payment of fees to the competent authority in respect of (i) applications for approval of a prospectus or a supplementary prospectus<sup>18</sup>; (ii) applications for inclusion in the register of investors<sup>19</sup>; (iii) the continued inclusion of investors in that register<sup>20</sup>; (iv) access to that register<sup>21</sup>. Transparency rules<sup>22</sup> may require the payment of fees to the competent authority in respect of the continued admission of financial instruments to trading on a regulated market<sup>23</sup>.

In fixing the amount of any fee which is to be payable to the competent authority, no account is to be taken of any sums which it receives, or expects to receive, by way of penalties imposed by it under Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>24</sup>.

Any fee which is owed to the competent authority under any provision made by or under Part VI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 may be recovered as a debt due to it<sup>25</sup>.

5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(i) Penalties for Market Abuse/437. Market abuse.

(7) ENFORCEMENT

(i) Penalties for Market Abuse

437. Market abuse.

For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, market abuse is behaviour<sup>1</sup> (whether by one person alone or by two or more persons jointly or in concert) which (1) occurs in relation to (a) qualifying investments<sup>2</sup> admitted to trading on a prescribed market<sup>3</sup>; (b) qualifying investments in respect of which a request for admission to trading on such a market has been made<sup>4</sup>; or (c) in the case of the first or second type of behaviour<sup>5</sup>, investments which are related investments<sup>6</sup> in relation to such qualifying investments<sup>7</sup>; and (2) falls within any one or more of the types of behaviour set out below<sup>8</sup>.

The first type of behaviour is where an insider<sup>9</sup> deals, or attempts to deal<sup>10</sup>, in a qualifying investment or related investment on the basis of inside information<sup>11</sup> relating to the investment in question<sup>12</sup>. The second is where an insider discloses inside information to another person otherwise than in the proper course of the exercise of his employment, profession or duties<sup>13</sup>.

The third is where the behaviour (not falling within the first or second type of behaviour)<sup>14</sup> is based on information which is not generally available to those using the market but which, if available to a regular user<sup>15</sup> of the market, would be, or would be likely to be, regarded by him as relevant when deciding the terms on which transactions in qualifying investments should be effected, and is likely to be regarded by a regular user of the market as a failure on the part of the person concerned to observe the standard of behaviour reasonably expected of a person in his position in relation to the market<sup>16</sup>.

The fourth is where the behaviour consists of effecting transactions or orders to trade (otherwise than for legitimate reasons and in conformity with accepted market practices<sup>17</sup> on the relevant market) which give, or are likely to give, a false or misleading impression as to the supply of, or demand for, or as to the price of, one or more qualifying investments, or secure the price of one or more such investments at an abnormal or artificial level<sup>18</sup>.

The fifth is where the behaviour consists of effecting transactions or orders to trade which employ fictitious devices or any other form of deception or contrivance<sup>19</sup>. The sixth is where the behaviour consists of the dissemination of information by any means which gives, or is likely to give, a false or misleading impression as to a qualifying investment by a person who knew or could reasonably be expected to have known that the information was false or misleading<sup>20</sup>.

The seventh is where the behaviour (not falling within the fourth, fifth or sixth type of behaviour)<sup>21</sup> is likely to give a regular user of the market a false or misleading impression as to the supply of, demand for or price or value of, qualifying investments, or would be, or would be likely to be, regarded by a regular user of the market as behaviour that would distort, or would be likely to distort, the market in such an investment, and the behaviour is likely to be regarded by a regular user of the market as a failure on the part of the person concerned to observe the standard of behaviour reasonably expected of a person in his position in relation to the market<sup>22</sup>.

Behaviour is to be taken into account for the purposes of Part VIII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>23</sup> only if it occurs in the United Kingdom<sup>24</sup>, or in relation to qualifying investments which are admitted to trading on a prescribed market situated in, or operating in, the United Kingdom, qualifying investments for which a request for admission to trading on such a prescribed market has been made, or in the case of the first and second types of behaviour<sup>25</sup>, investments which are related investments in relation to such qualifying investments<sup>26</sup>.

Behaviour does not amount to market abuse for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 if (i) it conforms with a rule which includes a provision to the effect that behaviour conforming with the rule does not amount to market abuse<sup>27</sup>; (ii) it conforms with the relevant provisions of EC legislation relating to exemptions for buy-back programmes and stabilisation of financial instruments<sup>28</sup>; or (iii) it is done by a person acting on behalf of a public authority in pursuit of monetary policies or policies with respect to exchange rates or the management of public debt or foreign exchange reserves<sup>29</sup>. Any reference in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to a person engaged in market abuse is to a person engaged in market abuse either alone or with one or more persons<sup>30</sup>.

1 'Behaviour' includes action or inaction: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 130A(3) (s 130A added by SI 2005/381). See also the Financial Services Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 'Investment' is to be read with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22 and Sch 2 (see PARAS 84-85): s 130A(3) (as added: see note 1).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(1)(a)(i) (s 118 substituted by SI 2005/381).

The Treasury may by order prescribe (whether by name or by description): (1) the markets which are prescribed markets for the purposes of specified provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VIII (ss 118-131A); and (2) the investments which are qualifying investments in relation to the prescribed markets: s 130A(1) (as added: see note 1). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq. 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). An order may prescribe different investments or descriptions of investment in relation to different markets or descriptions of market: s 130A(2) (as so added). As to orders under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 generally see PARA 67 note 1.

There are prescribed, as markets to which the 2000 Act s 118(2), (3), (5)-(7) applies (1) all markets which are established under the rules of a UK recognised investment exchange; (2) the market known as OFEX; (3) all other markets which are regulated markets: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Prescribed Markets and Qualifying Investments) Order 2001, SI 2001/996, art 4(1) (art 4 substituted by SI 2005/381). 'Regulated market' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 4.1.14: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Prescribed Markets and Qualifying Investments) Order 2001, SI 2001/996, art 3 (definition added by SI 2005/381; and amended by SI 2007/126). There are prescribed, as markets to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(4), (8) applies, (a) all markets which are established under the rules of a UK recognised investment exchange; (b) the market known as OFEX: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Prescribed Markets and Qualifying Investments) Order 2001, SI 2001/996, art 4(2) (as so substituted). There are prescribed, as qualifying investments in relation to the markets prescribed by art 4, all financial instruments within the meaning given in European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/6 (OJ L96, 12.4.2003, p 16) on insider dealing and market manipulation (market abuse) art 1(3): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Prescribed Markets and Qualifying Investments) Order 2001, SI 2001/996, art 5 (as so substituted).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(1)(a)(ii) (as substituted: see note 3).

5 Ie in the case of behaviour under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(2), (3).

6 'Related investment' in relation to a qualifying investment, means an investment whose price or value depends on the price or value of the qualifying investment: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 130A(3) (as added: see note 1).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(1)(a)(iii) (as substituted: see note 3).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(1)(b) (as substituted: see note 3). The reference is to s 118(2)-(8). Section 118(4), (8) and the definition of 'regular user' (see note 15) in s 130A(3) cease to have effect on 30 June 2008 and s 118(1)(b) is then to be read as no longer referring to those provisions (ie the reference would be to s 118(2), (3), (5)-(7)): see s 118(9) (as so substituted).

9 As to insiders and inside information see PARA 438.

10 'Dealing', in relation to an investment, means acquiring or disposing of the investment whether as principal or agent or directly or indirectly, and includes agreeing to acquire or dispose of the investment, and entering into and bringing to an end a contract creating it: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 130A(3) (as added: see note 1).

11 See note 9.

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(2) (as substituted: see note 3). See note 3.

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(3) (as substituted: see note 3). See note 3.

14 Ie not falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(2) or (3).

15 'Regular user', in relation to a particular market, means a reasonable person who regularly deals on that market in investments of the kind in question: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 130A(3) (as added: see note 1). See s 118(9); and note 8.

16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(4) (as substituted: see note 3). See s 118(9); and note 8. See also notes 3, 26.

17 'Accepted market practices' means practices that are reasonably expected in the financial market or markets in question and are accepted by the Financial Services Authority or, in the case of a market situated in another EEA state, the competent authority of that EEA state within the meaning of European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/6 (OJ L96, 12.4.2003, p 16) on insider dealing and market manipulation (market abuse): 2000 Act s 130A(3) (as added: see note 1). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

18 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(5) (as substituted: see note 3). See note 3.

19 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(6) (as substituted: see note 3). See note 3.

20 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(7) (as substituted: see note 3). See note 3.

For the purposes of s 118(7), the dissemination of information by a person acting in the capacity of a journalist is to be assessed taking into account the codes governing his profession unless he derives, directly or indirectly, any advantage or profits from the dissemination of the information: s 118A(4) (s 118A added by SI 2005/381).

21 Ie not falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(5), (6) or (7).

22 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(8) (as substituted: see note 3). See s 118(9); and note 8. See also note 26.

23 Ie the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VIII (ss 118-131A).

24 As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

25 Ie in the case of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118(2), (3).

26 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118A(1) (as added: see note 20).

For the purposes of s 118A(1), as it applies in relation to s 118(4) and (8) (ie the third and seventh types of behaviour), a prescribed market accessible electronically in the United Kingdom is to be treated as operating in the United Kingdom: s 118A(2) (as so added). For the purposes of s 118(4) and (8), the behaviour that is to be regarded as occurring in relation to qualifying investments includes behaviour which occurs in relation to anything that is the subject matter, or whose price or value is expressed by reference to the price or value of the qualifying investments, or occurs in relation to investments (whether or not they are qualifying investments) whose subject matter is the qualifying investments: s 118A(3) (as so added). Section 118A(2), (3) ceases to have effect on 30 June 2008: s 118A(6) (as so added).

27 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118A(5)(a) (as added: see note 20).

28 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118A(5)(b) (as added: see note 20). The reference is to EC Commission Regulation 2273/2003 (OJ L336, 23.12.2003, p 33) implementing European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/6 as regards exemptions for buy-back programmes and stabilisation of financial instruments.

29 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 118A(5)(c) (as added: see note 20).

30 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 130A(4) (as added: see note 3).

438. Insiders and inside information.

For the purposes of Part VIII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>1</sup>, an 'insider' is any person who has 'inside information' (1) as a result of his membership of an administrative, management or supervisory body of an issuer of qualifying investments<sup>2</sup>; (2) as a result of his holding in the capital of an issuer of qualifying investments<sup>3</sup>; (3) as a result of having access to the information through the exercise of his employment, profession or duties<sup>4</sup>; (4) as a result of his criminal activities<sup>5</sup>; or (5) which he has obtained by other means and which he knows, or could reasonably be expected to know, is inside information<sup>6</sup>.

In relation to qualifying investments, or related investments<sup>7</sup>, which are not commodity derivatives, inside information is information of a precise nature<sup>8</sup> which (a) is not generally available<sup>9</sup>; (b) relates, directly or indirectly, to one or more issuers of the qualifying investments or to one or more of the qualifying investments<sup>10</sup>; and (c) would, if generally available, be likely to have a significant effect on the price of the qualifying investments or on the price of related investments<sup>11</sup>. In relation to qualifying investments or related investments which are commodity derivatives, inside information is information of a precise nature which (i) is not generally available<sup>12</sup>; (ii) relates, directly or indirectly, to one or more such derivatives<sup>13</sup>; and (iii) users of markets on which the derivatives are traded would expect to receive in accordance with any accepted market practices<sup>14</sup> on those markets<sup>15</sup>.

In relation to a person charged with the execution of orders concerning any qualifying investments or related investments, inside information includes information conveyed by a client and related to the client's pending orders which (A) is of a precise nature<sup>16</sup>; (B) is not generally available<sup>17</sup>; (C) relates, directly or indirectly, to one or more issuers of qualifying investments or to one or more qualifying investments<sup>18</sup>; and (D) would, if generally available, be likely to have a significant effect on the price of those qualifying investments or the price of related investments<sup>19</sup>.

439. The code.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must prepare and issue a code containing such provisions as the Authority considers will give appropriate guidance to those determining whether or not behaviour amounts to market abuse<sup>2</sup>. The code may among other things specify<sup>3</sup>:

1072 (1) descriptions of behaviour that, in the opinion of the Authority, amount to market abuse<sup>4</sup>;

1073 (2) descriptions of behaviour that, in the opinion of the Authority, do not amount to market abuse<sup>5</sup>;

1074 (3) factors that, in the opinion of the Authority, are to be taken into account in determining whether or not behaviour amounts to market abuse<sup>6</sup>.

1075 (4) descriptions of behaviour that are accepted market practices<sup>7</sup> in relation to one or more specified markets<sup>8</sup>;

1076 (5) descriptions of behaviour that are not accepted market practices in relation to one or more specified markets<sup>9</sup>.

The code may make different provision in relation to persons, cases or circumstances of different descriptions<sup>10</sup>. The Authority may at any time alter or replace the code<sup>11</sup>. If the code is altered or replaced, the altered or replacement code must be issued by the Authority<sup>12</sup>.

A code issued under these provisions must be published by the Authority in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>13</sup>. The Authority must, without delay, give the Treasury<sup>14</sup> a copy of any code published<sup>15</sup>. The Authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of the code<sup>16</sup>.

The Authority may include in a code issued by it<sup>17</sup> (the 'Authority's code') provision to the effect that in its opinion behaviour conforming with the City Code on Takeovers and Mergers<sup>18</sup>: (a) does not amount to market abuse; (b) does not amount to market abuse in specified<sup>19</sup> circumstances; or (c) does not amount to market abuse if engaged in by a specified description of person<sup>20</sup>. The Treasury's approval is required before any such provision may be included in the Authority's code<sup>21</sup>.

Before issuing a code<sup>22</sup>, the Authority must publish a draft of the proposed code in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>23</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by: (i) a cost benefit analysis<sup>24</sup>; and (ii) notice that representations about the proposal may be made to the Authority within a specified time<sup>25</sup>. Before issuing the proposed code, the Authority must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with head (ii) above<sup>26</sup>. If the Authority issues the proposed code it must publish an account, in general terms, of the representations made to it and its response to them<sup>27</sup>. If the code differs from the draft in a way which is, in the opinion of the Authority, significant: (A) the Authority must publish details of the difference<sup>28</sup>; and (B) those details must be accompanied by a cost benefit analysis<sup>29</sup>. These provisions<sup>30</sup> also apply to a proposal to alter or replace a code<sup>31</sup>.

If a person behaves in a way which is described in the code in force<sup>32</sup> at the time of the behaviour as behaviour that, in the Authority's opinion, does not amount to market abuse that behaviour of his is to be taken, for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, as not amounting to market abuse<sup>33</sup>; and the code in force<sup>34</sup> at the time when particular behaviour occurs may be relied on so far as it indicates whether or not that behaviour should be taken to amount to market abuse<sup>35</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(i) Penalties for Market Abuse/440. Power to impose penalties.

440. Power to impose penalties.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> is satisfied that a person ('A'): (1) is or has engaged in market abuse<sup>2</sup>; or (2) by taking or refraining from taking any action has required or encouraged another person or persons to engage in behaviour which, if engaged in by A, would amount to market abuse, it may impose on him a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate<sup>3</sup>. However, the Authority may not impose a penalty on a person if, having considered any representations made to it in response to a warning notice<sup>4</sup>, there are reasonable grounds for it to be satisfied that he believed, on reasonable grounds, that his behaviour did not fall within head (1) or head (2) above, or he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid behaving in a way which fell within head (1) or head (2) above<sup>5</sup>. If the Authority is entitled to impose a penalty on a person it may, instead of imposing a penalty on him, publish a statement to the effect that he has engaged in market abuse<sup>6</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(i) Penalties for Market Abuse/441. Statement of policy.

441. Statement of policy.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must prepare and issue a statement of its policy with respect to the imposition of penalties<sup>2</sup> and the amount of those penalties<sup>3</sup>. The Authority's policy in determining what the amount of a penalty should be must include having regard to<sup>4</sup>:

- 1077 (1) whether the behaviour in respect of which the penalty is to be imposed had an adverse effect on the market in question and, if it did, how serious that effect was<sup>5</sup>;
- 1078 (2) the extent to which that behaviour was deliberate or reckless<sup>6</sup>; and
- 1079 (3) whether the person on whom the penalty is to be imposed is an individual<sup>7</sup>.

A statement of policy must include an indication of the circumstances in which the Authority is to be expected to regard a person as: (a) having a reasonable belief that his behaviour did not amount to market abuse<sup>8</sup>; or (b) having taken reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid engaging in market abuse<sup>9</sup>.

The Authority may at any time alter or replace a statement of policy<sup>10</sup>. If a statement is altered or replaced, the Authority must issue the altered or replacement statement<sup>11</sup>.

In exercising, or deciding whether to exercise, its power to impose penalties<sup>12</sup> in the case of any particular behaviour, the Authority must have regard to any statement published and in force at the time when the behaviour concerned occurred<sup>13</sup>. A statement must be published by the Authority in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>14</sup>. The Authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of a published statement<sup>15</sup>. The Authority must, without delay, give the Treasury<sup>16</sup> a copy of any published statement<sup>17</sup>.

Before issuing a statement of policy<sup>18</sup>, the Authority must publish a draft of the proposed statement in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>19</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about the proposal may be made to the Authority within a specified time<sup>20</sup>. Before issuing the proposed statement, the Authority must have regard to any representations made to it<sup>21</sup>. If the Authority issues the proposed statement it must publish an account, in general terms, of the representations made to it<sup>22</sup> and its response to them<sup>23</sup>. If the statement differs from the draft<sup>24</sup> in a way which is, in the opinion of the Authority, significant, the Authority must publish details of the difference<sup>25</sup>. These provisions<sup>26</sup> also apply to a proposal to alter or replace a statement<sup>27</sup>.

442. Procedure.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> proposes to take action against a person<sup>2</sup>, it must give him a warning notice<sup>3</sup>. A warning notice about a proposal to impose a penalty must state the amount of the proposed penalty<sup>4</sup>. A warning notice about a proposal to publish a statement must set out the terms of the proposed statement<sup>5</sup>.

If the Authority decides to take action against a person<sup>6</sup>, it must give him a decision notice<sup>7</sup>. A decision notice about the imposition of a penalty must state the amount of the penalty<sup>8</sup>. A decision notice about the publication of a statement must set out the terms of the statement<sup>9</sup>.

If the Authority decides to take action against a person<sup>10</sup>, that person may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>11</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(i) Penalties for Market Abuse/443. Suspension of investigations.

443. Suspension of investigations.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> considers it desirable or expedient because of the exercise or possible exercise of a power relating to market abuse<sup>2</sup>, it may direct a recognised investment exchange<sup>3</sup> or recognised clearing house<sup>4</sup>: (1) to terminate, suspend or limit the scope of any inquiry which the exchange or clearing house is conducting under its rules; or (2) not to conduct an inquiry which the exchange or clearing house proposes to conduct under its rules<sup>5</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to the meaning of 'market abuse' see PARA 437. The Authority's powers relating to market abuse are its powers: (1) to impose penalties under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 123 (see PARA 440); or (2) to appoint a person to conduct an investigation under s 168 in a case falling within s 168(2)(d) (see PARA 449): s 128(3).

3 As to the meaning of 'recognised investment exchange' see PARA 684 note 1.

4 As to the meaning of 'recognised clearing house' see PARA 684 note 6.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 128(1). A direction under s 128(1) must be given to the exchange or clearing house concerned by notice in writing, and is enforceable, on the application of the Authority, by injunction: s 128(2).

444. Power of the court to impose penalties in cases of market abuse.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may on an application to the court for an injunction or a restitution order<sup>2</sup> request the court to consider whether the circumstances are such that a penalty should be imposed on the person to whom the application relates<sup>3</sup>. The court may, if it considers it appropriate, make an order requiring the person concerned to pay to the Authority a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate<sup>4</sup>.

445. Guidance.

The Treasury<sup>1</sup> may from time to time issue written guidance for the purpose of helping relevant authorities<sup>2</sup> to determine the action to be taken in cases where behaviour occurs which is behaviour: (1) with respect to which the power to impose penalties in cases of market abuse<sup>3</sup> appears to be exercisable; and (2) which appears to involve the commission of an offence relating to misleading statements or insider dealing<sup>4</sup>. The Treasury must obtain the consent of the Attorney General and the Secretary of State before issuing any such guidance<sup>5</sup>.

1 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

2 'Relevant authorities': (1) in relation to England and Wales, means the Secretary of State, the Financial Services Authority, the Director of the Serious Fraud Office and the Director of Public Prosecutions; (2) in relation to Northern Ireland, means the Secretary of State, the Financial Services Authority, the Director of the Serious Fraud Office and the Director of Public Prosecutions for Northern Ireland: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 130(3). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 3 ante. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. As to the Director of the Serious Fraud Office see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(3) (2006 Reissue) PARAS 1067, 1089 et seq. As to the Director of Public Prosecutions see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(3) (2006 Reissue) PARAS 1066, 1079 et seq.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(ii) Information Gathering and Investigations/A. IN GENERAL/447. The Financial Services Authority's power to require information.

(ii) Information Gathering and Investigations

A. IN GENERAL

447. The Financial Services Authority's power to require information.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may, by notice in writing given to an authorised person<sup>2</sup>, require him to provide specified<sup>3</sup> information or information of a specified description or to produce specified documents<sup>4</sup> or documents of a specified description<sup>5</sup>. The information or documents must be provided or produced before the end of such reasonable period as may be specified and at such place as may be specified<sup>6</sup>. An officer<sup>7</sup> who has written authorisation from the Authority to do so may require an authorised person without delay to provide the officer with specified<sup>8</sup> information or information of a specified description or to produce to him specified documents or documents of a specified description<sup>9</sup>. These provisions<sup>10</sup> apply only to information and documents reasonably required in connection with the exercise by the Authority of functions conferred on it by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>11</sup>. The Authority may require any information provided under these provisions to be provided in such form as it may reasonably require<sup>12</sup>. The Authority may require any information provided, whether in a document or otherwise, to be verified in such manner, or any document produced to be authenticated in such manner, as it may reasonably require<sup>13</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 'Authorised person' includes a person who was at any time an authorised person but who has ceased to be an authorised person: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 165(8). As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

3 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 165(1), (2) (see the text to notes 5-6) 'specified' means specified in the notice: s 165(10)(a).

4 As to the meaning of 'document' see PARA 10 note 10.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 165(1). The powers conferred by s 165(1), (3) (see the text to notes 7-9) may also be exercised to impose requirements on: (1) a person who is connected with an authorised person; (2) an operator, trustee or depositary of a scheme recognised under s 270 or s 272 (see PARAS 675-676) who is not an authorised person; (3) a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house: s 165(7). As to the meaning of 'recognised investment exchange' see PARA 684 note 1; and as to the meaning of 'recognised clearing house' see PARA 684 note 6.

For the purposes of s 165, a person is connected with an authorised person ('A') if he is or has at any relevant time been: (a) a member of A's group; (b) a controller of A; (c) any other member of a partnership of which A is a member; or (d) in relation to A, a person mentioned in Sch 15 Pt I (see heads (i)-(vi) below): s 165(11). As to the meaning of 'group' see PARA 351 note 37. As to the meaning of 'controller' see PARA 591 note 16. As to the meaning of 'partnership' see PARA 86 note 11.

The persons mentioned in Sch 15 Pt I are as follows:

- 487 (i) if the authorised person ('BC') is a body corporate, a person who is or has been: (A) an officer or manager of BC or of a parent undertaking of BC; (B) an employee of BC; (C) an agent of BC or of a parent undertaking of BC (Sch 15 para 1);
- 488 (ii) if the authorised person ('PP') is a partnership, a person who is or has been a member, manager, employee or agent of PP (Sch 15 para 2);
- 489 (iii) if the authorised person ('UA') is an unincorporated association of persons which is neither a partnership nor an unincorporated friendly society, a person who is or has been an officer, manager, employee or agent of UA (Sch 15 para 3);
- 490 (iv) if the authorised person ('FS') is a friendly society, a person who is or has been an officer, manager or employee of FS (and, in relation to FS, 'officer' and 'manager' have the same meaning as in the Friendly Societies Act 1992 s 119(1) (see PARA 2115)) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 15 para 4);
- 491 (v) if the authorised person ('BS') is a building society, a person who is or has been an officer or employee of BS (and, in relation to BS, 'officer' has the same meaning as it has in the Building Societies Act 1986 s 119(1) (see PARA 1944)) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 15 para 5);
- 492 (vi) if the authorised person ('IP') is an individual, a person who is or has been an employee or agent of IP (Sch 15 para 6).

As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11. As to the meaning of 'parent undertaking' see PARA 351 note 32. As to the meaning of 'friendly society' see PARA 591 note 13.

For the purposes of ss 171, 172 (see PARA 451), if the person under investigation is not an authorised person the references in Sch 15 Pt I to an authorised person are to be taken to be references to the person under investigation: Sch 15 para 7.

As to the restriction on the production, disclosure or inspection of protected items see PARA 784.

Section 165 is to apply for the purposes of the Regulated Covered Bonds Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346, as it applies for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 but with the modification that for references to 'an authorised person' there is substituted references to 'a person to whom the Regulated Covered Bonds Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346 apply': Schedule para 3. As to the Regulated Covered Bonds Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346, generally see PARA 6 note 1.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 165(2).

7 'Officer' means an officer of the Authority and includes a member of the Authority's staff or an agent of the Authority: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 165(9).

8 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 165(3) 'specified' means specified in the authorisation: s 165(10)(b).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 165(3). See further note 5.

10 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 165.

UPDATE

447 The Financial Services Authority's power to require information

TEXT AND NOTES--The Financial Services Authority has a duty to collect information that it thinks is or may be relevant to the stability of individual financial institutions or one or more aspects of the financial systems of the United Kingdom: Banking Act 2009 s 150(1). The Authority may perform its function under s 150(1) by the exercise of the power in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 165 or in any other way: Banking Act 2009 s 150(2).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(ii) Information Gathering and Investigations/A. IN GENERAL/448. Reports by skilled persons.

448. Reports by skilled persons.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may, by notice in writing given to one of the following persons<sup>2</sup>, require him to provide the Authority with a report on any matter about which the Authority has required or could require the provision of information or production of documents<sup>3</sup>. This provision applies to:

- 1080 (1) an authorised person<sup>4</sup> ('A')<sup>5</sup>;
- 1081 (2) any other member of A's group<sup>6</sup>;
- 1082 (3) a partnership<sup>7</sup> of which A is a member<sup>8</sup>; or
- 1083 (4) a person who has at any relevant time been a person falling within head (1), head (2) or head (3) above, who is, or was at the relevant time, carrying on a business<sup>9</sup>.

The Authority may require the report to be in such form as may be specified in the notice<sup>10</sup>.

The person appointed to make a report<sup>11</sup> must be a person: (a) nominated or approved by the Authority; and (b) appearing to the Authority to have the skills necessary to make a report on the matter concerned<sup>12</sup>. It is the duty of any person who is providing (or who at any time has provided) services to a person falling within heads (1) to (4) above, in relation to a matter on which a report is required, to give a person appointed to provide such a report all such assistance as the appointed person may reasonably require<sup>13</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Supervision Manual (SUP) Ch 5. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 I.e. a person to whom the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 166(2) applies: see the text and notes 4-9.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 166(1). The Authority may make such requirements under s 165: see PARA 447. As to the meaning of 'document' see PARA 10 note 10.

4 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 166(2)(a). See note 3.

Section 166 is to apply for the purposes of the Regulated Covered Bonds Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346, as it applies for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 but with the modification that for the reference in s 166(2)(a) to 'an authorised person' there is substituted a reference to 'a person to whom the Regulated Covered Bond Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346 apply': Schedule para 4. As to the Regulated Covered Bonds Regulations 2008, SI 2008/346, generally see PARA 6 note 1.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 166(2)(b). As to the meaning of 'group' see PARA 351 note 37.

7 As to the meaning of 'partnership' see PARA 86 note 11.

- 8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 166(2)(c).
- 9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 166(2)(d).
- 10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 166(3).
- 11 Is a report required by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 166(1): see the text to notes 1-3.
- 12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 166(4).
- 13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 166(5). The obligation imposed by s 166(5) is enforceable, on the application of the Authority, by an injunction: s 166(6). As to injunctions see CIVIL PROCEDURE vol 11 (2009) PARA 331 et seq.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(ii) Information Gathering and Investigations/A. IN GENERAL/449. Appointment of investigators.

449. Appointment of investigators.

If it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> or the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> (the 'investigating authority') that there is good reason for doing so, the investigating authority may appoint one or more competent persons to conduct an investigation on its behalf into<sup>3</sup>:

- 1084 (1) the nature, conduct or state of the business<sup>4</sup> of a recognised investment exchange<sup>5</sup> or an authorised person<sup>6</sup> or of an appointed representative<sup>7</sup>;
- 1085 (2) a particular aspect of that business<sup>8</sup>; or
- 1086 (3) the ownership or control of a recognised investment exchange or an authorised person<sup>9</sup>.

If a person appointed thinks it necessary for the purposes of his investigation, he may also investigate the business of a person who is or has at any relevant time been: (a) a member of the group<sup>10</sup> of which the person under investigation ('A') is part; or (b) a partnership<sup>11</sup> of which A is a member<sup>12</sup>. The power to appoint persons to carry out investigations<sup>13</sup> may be exercised in relation to a former authorised person (or appointed representative) but only in relation to: (i) business carried on at any time when he was an authorised person (or appointed representative); or (ii) the ownership or control of a former authorised person at any time when he was an authorised person<sup>14</sup>.

In certain circumstances the investigating authority<sup>15</sup> may appoint one or more competent persons to conduct an investigation on its behalf<sup>16</sup>. Similarly, although under different circumstances, the Financial Services Authority may appoint one or more competent persons to conduct an investigation on its behalf<sup>17</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 3.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 167(1).

4 'Business' includes any part of a business even if it does not consist of carrying on regulated activities: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 167(5). As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

5 References in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 167(1) to a recognised investment exchange do not include references to an overseas investment exchange (as defined by s 313(1) (see PARA 711 note 9)): s 167(6) (added by SI 2007/126). As to the meaning of 'recognised investment exchange' see PARA 684 note 1.

6 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 167(1)(a) (s 167(1)(a), (c) amended by SI 2007/126). As to the meaning of 'appointed representative' see PARA 346.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 167(1)(b).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 167(1)(c) (as amended: see note 7).

10 As to the meaning of 'group' see PARA 351 note 37.

11 As to the meaning of 'partnership' see PARA 86 note 11.

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 167(2). If a person appointed under s 167(1) decides to investigate the business of any person under s 167(2) he must give that person written notice of his decision: s 167(3).

13 Is the power conferred by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 167.

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 167(4). An investigator conducting an investigation under s 167 may require the person who is the subject of the investigation (the 'person under investigation') or any person connected with the person under investigation: (1) to attend before the investigator at a specified time and place and answer questions; or (2) otherwise to provide such information as the investigator may require: s 171(1), (5). For these purposes, 'specified' means specified in a notice in writing: s 171(6). For these purposes, a person is connected with the person under investigation ('A') if he is or has at any relevant time been: (a) a member of A's group; (b) a controller of A; (c) a partnership of which A is a member; or (d) in relation to A, a person mentioned in s 171(4), Sch 15 Pt I (see PARA 447 note 5) or Pt II (see below): s 171(4). As to the meaning of 'group' see PARA 351 note 37. As to the meaning of 'controller' see PARA 591 note 16. As to the meaning of 'partnership' see PARA 86 note 11. The persons mentioned in Sch 15 Pt II are: a person who is, or at the relevant time was, the partner, manager, employee, agent, appointed representative, banker, auditor, actuary or solicitor of: (i) the person under investigation ('A'); (ii) a parent undertaking of A; (iii) a subsidiary undertaking of A; (iv) a subsidiary undertaking of a parent undertaking of A; or (v) a parent undertaking of a subsidiary undertaking of A: Sch 15 para 8. As to the meaning of 'manager' see PARA 86 note 11. As to the meanings of 'parent undertaking' and 'subsidiary undertaking' see PARA 351 note 32.

An investigator may also require any person to produce at a specified time and place any specified documents or documents of a specified description: s 171(2). As to the meaning of 'document' see PARA 10 note 10.

A requirement under s 171(1), (2) may be imposed only so far as the investigator concerned reasonably considers the question, provision of information or production of the document to be relevant to the purposes of the investigation: s 171(3).

Where the investigation relates to a recognised investment exchange, an investigator has the additional powers conferred by ss 172 and 173 (and for this purpose references in those provisions to an investigator are to be read accordingly): s 171(3A) (s 171(3A), (7) added by SI 2007/126). The reference in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 171(3A) to a recognised investment exchange does not include a reference to an overseas investment exchange (as defined by s 313(1) (see PARA 711 note 9)): s 171(7) (as so added).

15 'Investigating authority' means the Authority or the Secretary of State: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 168(6).

16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 168(3). Section 168(3) applies if it appears to an investigating authority that there are circumstances suggesting that: (1) a person may have contravened any regulation made under s 142 (insurance business) (see PARA 27); or (2) a person may be guilty of an offence under s 177 (see PARA 455), s 191 (see PARAS 377, 381), s 346 (see PARA 768), s 398(1) (see PARA 569) or under s 31(1)(c), Sch 4 (see PARAS 314, 319): s 168(1). Section 168(3) also applies if it appears to an investigating authority that there are circumstances suggesting that: (a) an offence under s 24(1) (false claims) (see PARA 80) or s 397 (misleading statements or practices) (see PARA 568) or under the Criminal Justice Act 1993 Pt V (ss 52-64) (insider dealing) (see FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS vol 48 (2008) PARA 574A et seq) may have been committed; (b) there may have been a breach of the general prohibition; (c) there may have been a contravention of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21 (see PARA 225) or s 238 (see PARAS 605-606); or (d) market abuse may have taken place: s 168(2). As to the general prohibition see PARA 80. As to the meaning of 'market abuse' see PARA 437.

An investigator appointed as a result of s 168(1) or s 168(4) (see note 17) has the powers conferred by s 171 (see note 14): s 172(1), (4). An investigator may also require a person who is neither the person under investigation nor a person connected with the person under investigation to attend before the investigator at a specified time and place and answer questions, or otherwise to provide such information as the investigator may require for the purposes of the investigation: s 172(2). For these purposes, 'specified' means specified in a notice in writing: s 172(5). A requirement may only be imposed under s 172(2) if the investigator is satisfied that the requirement is necessary or expedient for the purposes of the investigation: s 172(3).

If an investigator appointed under s 168(3) (as a result of s 168(2)) considers that any person ('A') is or may be able to give information which is or may be relevant to the investigation then the investigator may require A to attend before him at a specified time and place and answer questions, or otherwise to provide such information as he may require for the purposes of the investigation: s 173(1), (2), (5). The investigator may also require A to produce at a specified time and place any specified documents or documents of a specified description which appear to the investigator to relate to any matter relevant to the investigation: s 173(3). The investigator may also otherwise require A to give him all assistance in connection with the investigation which A is reasonably able to give: s 173(4).

17 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 168(5). Section 168(5) applies if it appears to the Authority that there are circumstances suggesting that:

- 493 (1) a person may have contravened s 20 (see PARA 83) (s 168(4)(a));
- 494 (2) a person may be guilty of an offence under prescribed regulations relating to money laundering (s 168(4)(b));
- 495 (3) an authorised person may have contravened a rule made by the Authority (s 168(4)(c));
- 496 (4) an individual may not be a fit and proper person to perform functions in relation to a regulated activity carried on by an authorised or exempt person (s 168(4)(d));
- 497 (5) an individual may have performed or agreed to perform a function in breach of a prohibition order (s 168(4)(e));
- 498 (6) an authorised or exempt person may have failed to comply with s 56(6) (see PARA 364) (s 168(4)(f));
- 499 (7) an authorised person may have failed to comply with s 59(1), (2) (see PARA 367) (s 168(4)(g));
- 500 (8) a person in relation to whom the Authority has given its approval under s 59 (see PARA 367) may not be a fit and proper person to perform the function to which that approval relates (s 168(4)(h));
- 501 (9) a person may be guilty of misconduct for the purposes of s 66 (see PARA 374) (s 168(4)(i)); or
- 502 (10) a person may have contravened any provision made by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 for the purpose of implementing the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) or by any directly applicable Community regulation made under that directive (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 168(4)(j) (added by SI 2007/126)).

As to the meaning of 'rule' see PARA 23 note 2. As to the meaning of 'exempt person' see PARA 80 note 4. As to prohibition orders see PARA 364. 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). The regulations prescribed for the purposes of head (2) above are the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157: see PARA 539 et seq. See also the Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/3298. The latter regulations implement in part the Wire Transfers Regulation (ie European Parliament and EC Council Regulation 1781/2006 (OJ L345, 8.12.2006, p 1) on information on the payer accompanying transfers of funds) the purpose of which is to update European legislation to bring it into line with Special Recommendation VII of the international standards on combating money laundering and terrorist financing set out by the Financial Action Task Force (see PARA 550 note 6). The 2007 Regulations are needed to implement the Wire Transfers Regulation art 15 in regard to rules on penalties applicable to infringements of the Regulation, and to provide supervisors with powers effectively to monitor payment institutions' compliance with the Regulation. The 2007 Regulations' supervision and enforcement provisions mirror those of the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, and provide for both civil and criminal penalties for non-compliance with the main requirements of the Wire Transfers Regulation. The Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/3298, cover supervision (see regs 3-5), power to require information and attendance (see reg 7); entry, inspection without a warrant etc (see reg 8); entry under warrant (see reg 9); failure to comply with information requirement (see reg 10); power to impose civil penalties (see reg 11); review procedure (see reg 12); appeals (see reg 13); criminal offences (see regs 14-16); recovery of charges and penalties (see reg 17); and transfers between the United Kingdom and the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man (see reg 18).

As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 generally see PARA 67 note 1. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

As to the powers of a person appointed under s 168(4) see note 16.

UPDATE

449 Appointment of investigators

NOTE 17--SI 2009/3298 amended: SI 2009/1912.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(ii) Information Gathering and Investigations/A. IN GENERAL/450. Assistance to overseas regulators.

450. Assistance to overseas regulators.

At the request of an overseas regulator<sup>1</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> may: (1) exercise the power to require information<sup>3</sup>; or (2) appoint one or more competent persons to investigate any matter<sup>4</sup>. If the request has been made by a competent authority<sup>5</sup> in pursuance of any European Community obligation the Authority must, in deciding whether or not to exercise its investigative power<sup>6</sup>, consider whether its exercise is necessary to comply with any such obligation<sup>7</sup>. In deciding whether or not to exercise its investigative power, the Authority may take into account in particular<sup>8</sup>:

- 1087 (a) whether in the country or territory of the overseas regulator concerned, corresponding assistance would be given to a United Kingdom regulatory authority<sup>9</sup>;
- 1088 (b) whether the case concerns the breach of a law, or other requirement, which has no close parallel in the United Kingdom or involves the assertion of a jurisdiction not recognised by the United Kingdom<sup>10</sup>;
- 1089 (c) the seriousness of the case and its importance to persons in the United Kingdom<sup>11</sup>;
- 1090 (d) whether it is otherwise appropriate in the public interest to give the assistance sought<sup>12</sup>.

The Authority may decide that it will not exercise its investigative powers unless the overseas regulator undertakes to make such contribution towards the cost of its exercise as the Authority considers appropriate<sup>13</sup>.

If the Authority has appointed an investigator in response to a request from an overseas regulator, it may direct the investigator to permit a representative of that regulator to attend, and take part in, any interview conducted for the purposes of the investigation<sup>14</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'overseas regulator' see PARA 457 note 4; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 169(13).

2 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

3 le the power conferred by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 165: see PARA 447.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 169(1). An investigator has the same powers as an investigator appointed under s 168(3) (as a result of s 168(1)) (see PARA 449): s 169(2). 'Investigator' means a person appointed under head (2) in the text: s 169(15).

5 As to the competent authority see PARA 385.

6 'Investigative power' means one of the powers mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 169(1) (see the text to notes 1-4): s 169(14).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 169(3).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 169(4). Section 169(4), (5) does not apply if the Authority considers that the exercise of its investigative powers is necessary to comply with a Community obligation: s 169(6).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 169(4)(a). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 169(4)(b).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 169(4)(c).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 169(4)(d).

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 169(5). See note 8.

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 169(7). A direction under s 169(7) is not to be given unless the Authority is satisfied that any information obtained by an overseas regulator as a result of the interview will be subject to safeguards equivalent to those contained in Pt XXIII (ss 347-354) (see PARA 475 et seq): s 169(8). The Authority must prepare a statement of its policy with respect to the conduct of interviews in relation to which a direction under s 169(7) has been given: s 169(9). The statement requires the approval of the Treasury: s 169(10). If the Treasury approves the statement, the Authority must publish it: s 169(11). No direction may be given under s 169(7) before the statement has been published: s 169(12). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

B. CONDUCT OF INVESTIGATIONS

451. Conduct of investigations.

The following provisions<sup>1</sup> apply if an investigating authority<sup>2</sup> appoints one or more competent persons ('investigators')<sup>3</sup> to conduct an investigation on its behalf<sup>4</sup>.

The investigating authority must give written notice of the appointment of an investigator to the person under investigation<sup>5</sup>. The notice<sup>6</sup> must specify the provisions under which, and as a result of which, the investigator was appointed, and state the reason for his appointment<sup>7</sup>.

Nothing prevents the investigating authority from appointing a person who is a member of its staff as an investigator<sup>8</sup>. An investigator must make a report of his investigation to the investigating authority<sup>9</sup>. The investigating authority may, by a direction to an investigator, control: (1) the scope of the investigation; (2) the period during which the investigation is to be conducted; (3) the conduct of the investigation; and (4) the reporting of the investigation<sup>10</sup>. A direction may in particular: (a) confine the investigation to particular matters; (b) extend the investigation to additional matters; (c) require the investigator to discontinue the investigation or to take only such steps as are specified in the direction; (d) require the investigator to make such interim reports as are so specified<sup>11</sup>. If there is a change in the scope or conduct of the investigation and, in the opinion of the investigating authority, the person subject to investigation is likely to be significantly prejudiced by not being made aware of it, that person must be given written notice of the change<sup>12</sup>.

1    Ie the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 170.

2    'Investigating authority', in relation to an investigator, means: (1) the Financial Services Authority, if the Authority appointed him; (2) the Secretary of State, if the Secretary of State appointed him: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 170(10). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 3. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

3    Ie under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 167 or s 168(3), (5): see PARA 449.

4    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 170(1). As to the powers of investigators see PARA 449.

In addition to the statutory requirements relating to the conduct of investigations, there are obligations in public law, such as the duty to act fairly (see Re Pergamon Press Ltd [1971] Ch 388, [1970] 3 All ER 535, CA). Note that, although all the requirements of natural justice do not apply to investigations (see Herring v Templeman [1973] 3 All ER 569, 72 LGR 162, CA; Moran v Lloyd's [1981] 1 Lloyd's Rep 423, [1981] Com LR 46, CA), the investigator must not act irrationally (ie in the sense of Associated Provincial Picture Houses Ltd v Wednesbury Corp [1948] 1 KB 223, [1947] 2 All ER 680, CA: see JUDICIAL REVIEW vol 61 (2010) PARA 617). As to natural justice and the duty to act fairly see JUDICIAL REVIEW vol 61 (2010) PARA 629 et seq. As to the requirement that the Authority should act proportionately and consistently in exercising its enforcement powers see the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). Consideration must also be given to the right to privacy under the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms (Rome, 4 November 1950; TS 71 (1953); Cmd 8969) art 8(1): see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARAS 110, 150.

5    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 170(2). Section 170(2), (9) does not apply if: (1) the investigator is appointed as a result of s 168(1) or s 168(4) (see PARA 449) and the investigating authority believes that the notice required by s 170(2) or s 170(9) would be likely to result in the investigation being frustrated; or (2) the investigator is appointed as a result of s 168(2) (see PARA 449): s 170(3).

6    Ie the notice under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 170(2): see the text to note 5.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(ii) Information Gathering and Investigations/B. CONDUCT OF INVESTIGATIONS/452. Admissibility of statements made to investigators.

452. Admissibility of statements made to investigators.

A statement made to an investigator<sup>1</sup> by a person in compliance with an information requirement<sup>2</sup> is admissible in evidence in any proceedings, so long as it also complies with any requirements governing the admissibility of evidence in the circumstances in question<sup>3</sup>. However, in criminal proceedings in which that person is charged with certain offences<sup>4</sup> or in proceedings in relation to action to be taken against that person in connection with market abuse<sup>5</sup> no evidence relating to the statement may be adduced, and no question relating to it may be asked, by or on behalf of the prosecution or (as the case may be) the Financial Services Authority<sup>6</sup>, unless evidence relating to it is adduced, or a question relating to it is asked, in the proceedings by or on behalf of that person<sup>7</sup>.

1 'Investigator' means a person appointed under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 167, s 168(3) or s 168(5) (see PARA 449): s 174(4).

2 'Information requirement' means a requirement imposed by an investigator under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 171, s 172, s 173 or s 175 (see PARAS 449, 453): s 174(5).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 174(1).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 174(2) applies to any offence other than one: (1) under s 177(4) (see PARA 455) or s 398 (see PARA 569); (2) under the Perjury Act 1911 s 5 (false statements made otherwise than on oath) (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(2) (2006 Reissue) PARA 717); (3) under the Criminal Law (Consolidation) (Scotland) Act 1995 s 44(2) (false statements made otherwise than on oath); or (4) under the Perjury (Northern Ireland) Order 1979, SI 1979/1714 (NI 19), art 10: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 174(3).

5 Ie under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 123: see PARA 440.

6 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(ii) Information Gathering and Investigations/B. CONDUCT OF INVESTIGATIONS/453. Information and documents.

453. Information and documents.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> or an investigator<sup>2</sup> has power<sup>3</sup> to require a person to produce a document<sup>4</sup> but it appears that the document is in the possession of a third person, that power may be exercised in relation to the third person<sup>5</sup>. If a document is produced in response to a requirement<sup>6</sup>, the person to whom it is produced may: (1) take copies or extracts from the document; or (2) require the person producing the document, or any relevant person<sup>7</sup>, to provide an explanation of the document<sup>8</sup>. If a person who is required<sup>9</sup> to produce a document fails to do so, the Authority or an investigator may require him to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where the document is<sup>10</sup>. A lawyer may be required<sup>11</sup> to furnish the name and address of his client<sup>12</sup>. No person may be required<sup>13</sup> to disclose information or produce a document in respect of which he owes an obligation of confidence by virtue of carrying on the business of banking unless<sup>14</sup>:

- 1091 (a) he is the person under investigation or a member of that person's group<sup>15</sup>;
- 1092 (b) the person to whom the obligation of confidence is owed is the person under investigation or a member of that person's group<sup>16</sup>;
- 1093 (c) the person to whom the obligation of confidence is owed consents to the disclosure or production<sup>17</sup>; or
- 1094 (d) the imposing on him of a requirement with respect to such information or document has been specifically authorised by the investigating authority<sup>18</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 'Investigator' means a person appointed under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 167, s 168(3) or s 168(5) (see PARA 449): s 175(8).

3 Ie under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XI (ss 165-177).

4 As to the meaning of 'document' see PARA 10 note 10.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 175(1). If a person claims a lien on a document, its production under Pt XI does not affect the lien: s 175(6).

6 Ie a requirement under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XI.

7 'Relevant person', in relation to a person who is required to produce a document, means a person who: (1) has been or is or is proposed to be a director or controller of that person; (2) has been or is an auditor of that person; (3) has been or is an actuary, accountant or lawyer appointed or instructed by that person; or (4) has been or is an employee of that person: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 175(7). As to the meaning of 'director' see PARA 86 note 11. As to the meaning of 'controller' see PARA 591 note 16.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(ii) Information Gathering and Investigations/B. CONDUCT OF INVESTIGATIONS/454. Entry of premises under warrant.

454. Entry of premises under warrant.

A justice of the peace<sup>1</sup> may issue a warrant if satisfied on information on oath given by or on behalf of the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> or an investigator<sup>4</sup> that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the first, second or third set of conditions set out below is satisfied<sup>5</sup>.

The first set of conditions is:

- 1095 (1) that a person on whom an information requirement<sup>6</sup> has been imposed has failed (wholly or in part) to comply with it<sup>7</sup>; and
- 1096 (2) that on the premises specified in the warrant there are documents<sup>8</sup> which have been required, or on those premises there is information which has been required<sup>9</sup>.

The second set of conditions is:

- 1097 (a) that the premises specified in the warrant are premises of an authorised person<sup>10</sup> or an appointed representative<sup>11</sup>;
- 1098 (b) that there are on the premises documents or information in relation to which an information requirement could be imposed<sup>12</sup>; and
- 1099 (c) that if such a requirement were to be imposed it would not be complied with, or the documents or information to which it related would be removed, tampered with or destroyed<sup>13</sup>.

The third set of conditions is:

- 1100 (i) that an offence<sup>14</sup> for which the maximum sentence on conviction on indictment is two years or more has been (or is being) committed by any person<sup>15</sup>;
- 1101 (ii) that there are on the premises specified in the warrant documents or information relevant to whether that offence has been (or is being) committed<sup>16</sup>;
- 1102 (iii) that an information requirement could be imposed in relation to those documents or information<sup>17</sup>; and
- 1103 (iv) that if such a requirement were to be imposed it would not be complied with, or the documents or information to which it related would be removed, tampered with or destroyed<sup>18</sup>.

- 1104 (A) to enter the premises specified in the warrant<sup>21</sup>;
- 1105 (B) to search the premises and take possession of any documents or information appearing to be documents or information of a kind in respect of which a warrant was issued (the 'relevant kind') or to take, in relation to any such documents or information, any other steps which may appear to be necessary for preserving them or preventing interference with them<sup>22</sup>;
- 1106 (C) to take copies of, or extracts from, any documents or information appearing to be of the relevant kind<sup>23</sup>;

- 1107 (D) to require any person on the premises to provide an explanation of any document or information appearing to be of the relevant kind or to state where it may be found<sup>24</sup>; and
- 1108 (E) to use such force as may be reasonably necessary<sup>25</sup>.

Any document of which possession is taken may be retained for a period of three months or, if within that period proceedings to which the document is relevant are commenced against any person for any criminal offence, until the conclusion of those proceedings<sup>26</sup>.

Any person who intentionally obstructs the exercise of any rights conferred by a warrant is guilty of an offence<sup>27</sup>.

1 As to justices of the peace see generally MAGISTRATES.

2 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 3.

3 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

4 'Investigator' means a person appointed under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 167, s 168(3) or s 168(5) (see PARA 449): s 176(10).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 176(1). In England and Wales, the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 ss 15(5)-(8), 16 (execution of search warrants and safeguards) (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(2) (2006 Reissue) PARA 880 et seq) apply to warrants issued under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 176: s 176(6). In Northern Ireland, the Police and Criminal Evidence (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, SI 1989/1341 (NI 12), arts 17(5)-(8), 18 apply to warrants issued under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 176: s 176(7).

6 'Information requirement' means a requirement imposed: (1) by the Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 87C (see PARA 401), s 87J (see PARA 405), s 165 (see PARA 447) or s 175 (see PARA 453); or (2) by an investigator under s 171, s 172, s 173 or s 175 (see PARAS 449, 453): s 176(11) (amended by SI 2005/1433).

455. Offences.

If a person other than the investigator (the 'defaulter') fails to comply with a requirement imposed on him under Part XI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>1</sup>, the person imposing the requirement may certify that fact in writing to the High Court<sup>2</sup>. If the court is satisfied that the defaulter failed without reasonable excuse to comply with the requirement, it may deal with the defaulter (and in the case of a body corporate<sup>3</sup>, any director<sup>4</sup> or officer<sup>5</sup>) as if he were in contempt<sup>6</sup>.

A person who knows or suspects that an investigation is being or is likely to be conducted under Part XI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 is guilty of an offence if: (1) he falsifies, conceals, destroys or otherwise disposes of a document<sup>7</sup> which he knows or suspects is or would be relevant to such an investigation; or (2) he causes or permits the falsification, concealment, destruction or disposal of such a document, unless he shows that he had no intention of concealing facts disclosed by the documents from the investigator<sup>8</sup>.

A person who, in purported compliance with a requirement imposed on him under Part XI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000: (a) provides information which he knows to be false or misleading in a material particular; or (b) recklessly provides information which is false or misleading in a material particular, is guilty of an offence<sup>9</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(iii) Power of Intervention in relation to Incoming Firms/A. POWER TO IMPOSE REQUIREMENTS/456. General grounds for interference.

(iii) Power of Intervention in relation to Incoming Firms

A. POWER TO IMPOSE REQUIREMENTS

456. General grounds for interference.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may exercise its power of intervention in respect of an incoming firm<sup>2</sup> if it appears to it that<sup>3</sup>:

- 1109 (1) the firm has contravened, or is likely to contravene, a requirement which is imposed on it by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (in a case where the Authority is responsible for enforcing compliance in the United Kingdom)<sup>4</sup>;
- 1110 (2) the firm has, in purported compliance with any requirement imposed by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, knowingly or recklessly given the Authority information which is false or misleading in a material particular<sup>5</sup>; or
- 1111 (3) it is desirable to exercise the power in order to protect the interests of actual or potential customers<sup>6</sup>.

The Authority may exercise its power of intervention in respect of an incoming EEA firm<sup>7</sup> which is exercising an EEA right<sup>8</sup> to carry on any Consumer Credit Act business<sup>9</sup> in the United Kingdom, if the Office of Fair Trading<sup>10</sup> has informed the Authority that: (a) the firm; (b) any of the firm's employees, agents or associates<sup>11</sup> (whether past or present); or (c) if the firm is a body corporate<sup>12</sup>, a controller<sup>13</sup> of the firm or an associate of such a controller, has done any of the things prohibited for a person seeking a standard licence under the Consumer Credit Act 1974<sup>14</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 If the Authority is entitled to exercise its power of intervention in respect of an incoming firm under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XIII (ss 193-204), it may impose any requirement in relation to the firm which it could impose if: (1) the firm's permission was a Part IV permission; and (2) the Authority was entitled to exercise its power under Pt IV (ss 40-55) (see PARA 348 et seq) to vary that permission: s 196. For the purposes of Pt XIII, 'power of intervention' means the power conferred on the Authority by s 196: s 193(1). 'Incoming firm' means: (a) an EEA firm which is exercising, or has exercised, its right to carry on a regulated activity in the United Kingdom in accordance with s 31(1)(b), Sch 3 (see PARAS 314 et seq, 323 et seq); or (b) a Treaty firm which is exercising, or has exercised, its right to carry on a regulated activity in the United Kingdom in accordance with s 31(1)(c), Sch 4 (see PARAS 314, 319): s 193(1). As to the meaning of 'Part IV permission' see PARA 348. As to the meaning of 'EEA firm' see PARA 315 note 1. As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq. As to the meaning of 'Treaty firm' see PARA 319 note 1. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. In relation to an incoming firm which is an EEA firm, expressions used in Pt XIII and in Sch 3 have the same meaning in Pt XIII as they have in Sch 3: s 193(2).

If the Authority, in exercising its power of intervention, imposes on an incoming firm a requirement of a kind mentioned in s 48(3) (assets requirement) (see PARA 359), the requirement has the same effect in relation to the firm as it would have in relation to an authorised person if it had been imposed on the authorised person by the Authority acting under s 45 (see PARA 355): s 201. As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

456 General grounds for interference

NOTE 14--Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 194(3) further amended: Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 33(7).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(iii) Power of Intervention in relation to Incoming Firms/A. POWER TO IMPOSE REQUIREMENTS/457. Intervention in support of overseas regulator.

457. Intervention in support of overseas regulator.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may exercise its power of intervention<sup>2</sup> in respect of an incoming firm<sup>3</sup> at the request of, or for the purpose of assisting, an overseas regulator<sup>4</sup>. If: (1) a request to the Authority for the exercise of its power of intervention has been made by a home state regulator in pursuance of a Community obligation; or (2) a home state regulator has notified the Authority that an EEA firm's<sup>5</sup> EEA authorisation<sup>6</sup> has been withdrawn, the Authority must, in deciding whether or not to exercise its power of intervention, consider whether exercising it is necessary in order to comply with a European Community obligation<sup>7</sup>. In deciding in any case in which the Authority does not consider that the exercise of its power of intervention is necessary in order to comply with a Community obligation, it may take into account in particular<sup>8</sup>:

- 1112 (a) whether in the country or territory of the overseas regulator concerned, corresponding assistance would be given to a United Kingdom regulatory authority<sup>9</sup>;
- 1113 (b) whether the case concerns the breach of a law, or other requirement, which has no close parallel in the United Kingdom or involves the assertion of a jurisdiction not recognised by the United Kingdom<sup>10</sup>;
- 1114 (c) the seriousness of the case and its importance to persons in the United Kingdom<sup>11</sup>;
- 1115 (d) whether it is otherwise appropriate in the public interest to give the assistance sought<sup>12</sup>.

The Authority may decide not to exercise its power of intervention, in response to a request, unless the regulator concerned undertakes to make such contribution to the cost of its exercise as the Authority considers appropriate<sup>13</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to the meaning of 'power of intervention' see PARA 456 note 2.

3 As to the meaning of 'incoming firm' see PARA 456 note 2.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 195(1). Section 195(1) applies whether or not the Authority's power of intervention is also exercisable as a result of s 194 (see PARA 456): s 195(2).

'Overseas regulator' means an authority in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom: (1) which is a home state regulator; or (2) which exercises any function of a kind mentioned in s 195(4): s 195(3). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. As to the meaning of 'home state regulator' see PARA 315 note 1. The functions mentioned in s 195(4) are:

- 503 (a) a function corresponding to any function of the Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (s 195(4)(a));
- 504 (b) a function corresponding to any function exercised by the competent authority under Pt VI (ss 72-103) (see PARA 385 et seq) (s 195(4)(b) (amended by SI 2005/1433));
- 505 (c) a function corresponding to any function exercised by the Secretary of State under the Companies Acts (as defined in the Companies Act 2006 s 2) (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 16) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 195(4)(c) (amended by SI 2007/2194));
- 506 (d) a function in connection with: (i) the investigation of conduct of the kind prohibited by the Criminal Justice Act 1993 Pt V (ss 52-64) (insider dealing) (see FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS vol 48 (2008) PARA 574A et seq); or (ii) the enforcement of rules (whether or not having the force of law) relating to such conduct (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 195(4)(d));
- 507 (e) a function prescribed by regulations made for the purposes of s 195(4) which, in the opinion of the Treasury, relates to companies or financial services (s 195(4)(e)).

As to the Secretary of State see PARA 3. 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). At the date at which this volume states the law no regulations had been made for the purposes of s 195(4). As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 generally see PARA 67 note 1. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(iii) Power of Intervention in relation to Incoming Firms/A. POWER TO IMPOSE REQUIREMENTS/458. Exercising the power of intervention.

458. Exercising the power of intervention.

A requirement imposed by the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> under its power of intervention<sup>2</sup> takes effect: (1) immediately, if the notice given<sup>3</sup> states that that is the case; (2) on such date as may be specified in the notice; or (3) if no date is specified in the notice, when the matter to which it relates is no longer open to review<sup>4</sup>. A requirement may be expressed to take effect immediately (or on a specified date) only if the Authority, having regard to the ground on which it is exercising its power of intervention, considers that it is necessary for the requirement to take effect immediately (or on that date)<sup>5</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to impose a requirement on an incoming firm<sup>6</sup>, or imposes such a requirement with immediate effect, it must give the firm written notice<sup>7</sup>. The notice must:

- 1116 (a) give details of the requirement<sup>8</sup>;
- 1117 (b) inform the firm of when the requirement takes effect<sup>9</sup>;
- 1118 (c) state the Authority's reasons for imposing the requirement and for its determination as to when the requirement takes effect<sup>10</sup>;
- 1119 (d) inform the firm that it may make representations to the Authority within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not it has referred the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal)<sup>11</sup>; and
- 1120 (e) inform it of its right to refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>12</sup>.

If, having considered any representations made by the firm, the Authority decides to impose the requirement proposed, or, if it has been imposed, not to rescind the requirement, it must give it written notice<sup>13</sup>. If, having considered any representations made by the firm, the Authority decides: (i) not to impose the requirement proposed; (ii) to impose a different requirement from that proposed; or (iii) to rescind a requirement which has effect, it must give the firm written notice<sup>14</sup>.

Injunctions in respect of certain overseas insurance companies.

459. Injunctions in respect of certain overseas insurance companies.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> has received a request made in respect of an incoming EEA firm<sup>2</sup>, the High Court may, on an application made to it by the Authority with respect to the firm, grant an injunction restraining the firm disposing of or otherwise dealing with any of its assets<sup>3</sup>. If the court grants an injunction, it may by subsequent orders make provision for such incidental, consequential and supplementary matters as it considers necessary to enable the Authority to perform any of its functions under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>4</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(iii) Power of Intervention in relation to Incoming Firms/A. POWER TO IMPOSE REQUIREMENTS/460. Additional procedure for EEA firms in certain cases.

460. Additional procedure for EEA firms in certain cases.

If it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> that its power of intervention<sup>2</sup> is exercisable in relation to an EEA firm exercising EEA rights<sup>3</sup> in the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup> (an 'incoming EEA firm'<sup>5</sup>) in respect of the contravention of a relevant requirement<sup>6</sup>, the Authority must, in writing, require the firm to remedy the situation<sup>7</sup>. If the firm fails to comply with this requirement within a reasonable time, the Authority must give a notice to that effect to the firm's home state regulator requesting it: (1) to take all appropriate measures for the purpose of ensuring that the firm remedies the situation which has given rise to the notice; and (2) to inform the Authority of the measures it proposes to take or has taken or the reasons for not taking such measures<sup>8</sup>. The Authority may not exercise its power of intervention before informing the firm's home state regulator<sup>9</sup> and unless satisfied that the firm's home state regulator has failed or refused to take measures for the purpose mentioned in head (1) above, or that the measures taken by the home state regulator have proved inadequate for that purpose<sup>10</sup>. In cases of urgency, the Authority need not comply with these provisions<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to the meaning of 'power of intervention' see PARA 456 note 2.

3 As to the meaning of 'EEA firm' see PARA 315 note 1. As to the meaning of 'EEA right' see PARA 315 note 3.

4 As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

5 See PARA 456 note 2.

6 A requirement is relevant if: (1) it is imposed by the Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000; and (2) as respects its contravention, the Single Market Directive in question provides that a procedure of the kind set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 199(3)-(8) (see the text and notes 7-11) (so far as relevant in the firm's case) is to apply: s 199(2) (amended by SI 2007/126; SI 2007/3253). As to the meaning of 'Single Market Directives' see PARA 86 note 6.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 199(1), (3). See also note 11.

If the firm falls within Sch 3 para 5(da) (a reinsurance undertaking) (see PARA 315 note 1), the Authority must at the same time as it gives notice to the firm under s 199(3) refer its findings to the firm's home state regulator: s 199(3A) (s 199(3A), (3B), (9) added by SI 2007/3253). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 199(4)-(8) (see the text and notes 9-11) applies to an incoming EEA firm other than a firm falling within Sch 3 para 5(da): s 199(3B) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'home state regulator' see PARA 315 note 1.

In the case of a firm falling within Sch 3 para 5(da), the Authority may not exercise its power of intervention before informing the firm's home state regulator and unless satisfied (1) that the firm's home state regulator has failed or refused to take all appropriate measures for the purpose of ensuring that the firm remedies the situation which gave rise to the notice under s 199(3); or (2) that the measures taken by the home state regulator have proved inadequate for that purpose: s 199(9) (as so added).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 199(4). See also note 11.

9 See note 7.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 199(5) (amended by SI 2007/3253). This is expressed to apply except as mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 199(6) (see the text and note 11).

11 If the Authority decides that it should exercise its power of intervention in respect of the incoming EEA firm as a matter of urgency in order to protect the interests of consumers, it may exercise that power: (1) before complying with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 199(3), (4) (see the text to notes 1-9); or (2) where it has complied with those provisions, before it is satisfied as mentioned in s 199(5) (see the text to note 10): s 199(6). In such a case the Authority must at the earliest opportunity inform the firm's home state regulator and the European Commission: s 199(7). If: (a) the Authority has (by virtue of s 199(6)) exercised its power of intervention before complying with s 199(3), (4) or before it is satisfied as mentioned in s 199(5); and (b) the Commission decides under any of the Single Market Directives (other than the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments)) that the Authority must rescind or vary any requirement imposed in the exercise of its power of intervention, the Authority must, in accordance with the decision, rescind or vary the requirement: s 199(8) (amended by SI 2007/126).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(iii) Power of Intervention in relation to Incoming Firms/A. POWER TO IMPOSE REQUIREMENTS/461. Rescission and variation of requirements.

461. Rescission and variation of requirements.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may rescind or vary a requirement imposed in exercise of its power of intervention<sup>2</sup> on its own initiative or on the application of the person subject to the requirement<sup>3</sup>. The power of the Authority on its own initiative to rescind a requirement is exercisable by written notice given by the Authority to the person concerned, which takes effect on the date specified in the notice<sup>4</sup>. If the Authority proposes to refuse an application for the variation or rescission of a requirement, it must give the applicant a warning notice<sup>5</sup>. If the Authority decides to refuse an application for the variation or rescission of a requirement: (1) the Authority must give the applicant a decision notice<sup>6</sup>; and (2) that person may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>7</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to the meaning of 'power of intervention' see PARA 456 note 2.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 200(1). Section 197 (procedure on exercise of power of intervention) (see PARA 458) applies to the exercise of the power of the Authority on its own initiative to vary a requirement as it applies to the imposition of a requirement: s 200(3).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(iii) Power of Intervention in relation to Incoming Firms/A. POWER TO IMPOSE REQUIREMENTS/462. Contravention of a requirement imposed by the Financial Services Authority.

462. Contravention of a requirement imposed by the Financial Services Authority.

Contravention of a requirement imposed by the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> under Part XIII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>2</sup> does not: (1) make a person guilty of an offence; (2) make any transaction void or unenforceable; or (3) give rise to any right of action for breach of statutory duty<sup>3</sup>, although in prescribed cases<sup>4</sup> the contravention is actionable at the suit of a person who suffers loss as a result of the contravention, subject to the defences and other incidents applying to actions for breach of statutory duty<sup>5</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

2 Ie the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XIII (ss 193-204).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 202(1). As to breach of statutory duty see TORT vol 45(2) (Reissue) PARA 395 et seq. See also the Financial Services Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

4 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 417(1). The cases prescribed are those where the following conditions are satisfied: (1) the action would be brought at the suit of: (a) a private person; or (b) a person acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity on behalf of a private person and any remedy would be exclusively for the benefit of that private person and could not be effected through an action brought otherwise than at the suit of the fiduciary or representative; and (2) the contravention is not of a Part XIII financial resources requirement: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 7(1), (2). 'Part XIII financial resources requirement' means a requirement imposed on an incoming firm (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 193(1) (see PARA 456 note 2)) by the Authority under Pt XIII to have or maintain financial resources: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Rights of Action) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2256, reg 2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(iii) Power of Intervention in relation to Incoming Firms/A. POWER TO IMPOSE REQUIREMENTS/463. Contravention by EEA firm of certain directive requirements.

463. Contravention by EEA firm of certain directive requirements.

If a relevant EEA firm<sup>1</sup> has a branch in the United Kingdom<sup>2</sup>, and the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> ascertains that the firm has contravened, or is contravening, a relevant requirement relating to the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>4</sup>, the Authority must give the firm written notice which (1) requires the firm to put an end to the contravention<sup>5</sup>; (2) states that the Authority's power of intervention will become exercisable in relation to the firm if the firm continues the contravention<sup>6</sup>; and (3) indicates any requirements that the Authority proposes to impose on the firm in exercise of its power of intervention in the event of the power becoming exercisable<sup>7</sup>.

The Authority may exercise its power of intervention in respect of the firm if: (a) a reasonable time has expired since the giving of such notice<sup>8</sup>; (b) the firm has failed to put an end to the contravention within that time<sup>9</sup>; and (c) the Authority has informed the firm's home state regulator<sup>10</sup> of its intention to exercise its power of intervention in respect of the firm<sup>11</sup>.

If the Authority has clear and demonstrable grounds for believing that a relevant EEA firm<sup>12</sup> has contravened, or is contravening, a further relevant requirement relating to the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>13</sup>, the Authority must notify the firm's home state regulator of the situation<sup>14</sup>. Such a notice must (i) request that the home state regulator take all appropriate measures for the purpose of ensuring that the firm puts an end to the contravention<sup>15</sup>; (ii) state that the Authority's power of intervention is likely to become exercisable in relation to the firm if the firm continues the contravention<sup>16</sup>; and (iii) indicate any requirements that the Authority proposes to impose on the firm in exercise of its power of intervention in the event of the power becoming exercisable<sup>17</sup>.

The Authority may exercise its power of intervention in respect of the firm if a reasonable time has expired since the giving of the notice<sup>18</sup>; and conditions A to C below are satisfied<sup>19</sup>.

Condition A is that (A) the firm's home state regulator has failed or refused to take measures for the purpose mentioned in head (i) above<sup>20</sup>; or (B) any measures taken by the home state regulator have proved inadequate for that purpose<sup>21</sup>. Condition B is that the firm is acting in a manner which is clearly prejudicial to the interests of investors in the United Kingdom or the orderly functioning of the markets<sup>22</sup>. Condition C is that the Authority has informed the firm's home state regulator of its intention to exercise its power of intervention in respect of the firm<sup>23</sup>.

1 'Relevant EEA firm' means an EEA firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(a) or (b) (see PARA 315 note 1) which is exercising in the United Kingdom an EEA right deriving from the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 194A(1) (s 194A added by SI 2007/126). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. As to the meaning of 'EEA right' see PARA 315 note 3.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 194A(1)(a) (as added: see note 1).

3 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 194A(1)(b) (as added: see note 1). The reference is to a requirement falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 194A(3) (in a case to which the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 62.2 applies). A requirement falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 194A(3) if it is imposed on the firm: (1) by any provision of or made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 which implements the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)); or (2) by any directly applicable Community regulation made under that directive: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 194A(3) (as added: see note 1).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 194A(4)(a) (as added: see note 1).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 194A(4)(b) (as added: see note 1).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 194A(4)(c) (as added: see note 1).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 194A(5)(a) (as added: see note 1). Section 194A(5) applies whether or not the Authority's power of intervention is also exercisable as a result of s 194 (see PARA 456): s 194A(6) (as so added).

If the Authority exercises its power of intervention in respect of a relevant EEA firm by virtue of s 194A(5), it must at the earliest opportunity inform the firm's home state regulator and the European Commission of (1) the fact that the Authority has exercised that power in respect of the firm; and (2) any requirements it has imposed on the firm in exercise of the power: s 194A(7) (as so added). - 13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 195A(1) (as added: see note 12). The reference is to a requirement falling within s 195A(2) (in a case to which Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 62.1 or art 62.3 applies). A requirement falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 195A(2) if it is imposed on the firm (1) by or under any provision adopted in the firm's home state for the purpose of implementing the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)); or (2) by any directly applicable Community regulation made under that directive: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 195A(2) (as so added). 'Home state', in relation to a relevant EEA firm, means (a) in the case of a firm which is a body corporate, the EEA state in which the firm has its registered office or, if it has no registered office, its head office; and (b) in any other case, the EEA state in which the firm has its head office: s 195A(11) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11. As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 3.

If the Authority exercises its power of intervention in respect of a relevant EEA firm by virtue of s 195A(5), it must at the earliest opportunity inform the European Commission of (1) the fact that the Authority has exercised that power in respect of the firm; and (2) any requirements it has imposed on the firm in exercise of the power: s 195A(10) (as so added).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(iii) Power of Intervention in relation to Incoming Firms/B. CONSUMER CREDIT PROHIBITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS/464. Prohibitions and restrictions.

B. CONSUMER CREDIT PROHIBITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

464. Prohibitions and restrictions.

If it appears to the Office of Fair Trading<sup>1</sup> that a consumer credit EEA firm<sup>2</sup> or any of its employees, agents or associates<sup>3</sup> (whether past or present) or, if the firm is a body corporate<sup>4</sup>, any controller<sup>5</sup> of the firm or an associate of any such controller, is, or is likely to be doing any of the things specified in the Consumer Credit Act 1974<sup>6</sup>, it may by written notice given to the firm impose on the firm a consumer credit prohibition<sup>7</sup>. If it appears to the Office of Fair trading that a restriction<sup>8</sup> on an EEA consumer credit firm has not been complied with, it may by written notice given to the firm impose a consumer credit prohibition<sup>9</sup>.

A consumer credit prohibition may be absolute or may be imposed: (1) for such period; (2) until the occurrence of such event; or (3) until such conditions are complied with, as may be specified in the notice<sup>10</sup>. Any period, event or condition so specified may be varied by the Office of Fair Trading on the application of the firm concerned<sup>11</sup>. A consumer credit prohibition may be withdrawn by written notice served by the Office of Fair Trading on the firm concerned, and any such notice takes effect on such date as is specified in the notice<sup>12</sup>. A firm contravening a prohibition is guilty of an offence<sup>13</sup>.

If it appears to the Office of Fair Trading that the situation as respects a consumer credit EEA firm is such that its power to impose a consumer credit prohibition<sup>14</sup> is exercisable, the Office of Fair Trading may, instead of imposing a prohibition, impose such restriction<sup>15</sup> as appears to it desirable<sup>16</sup>. A restriction may be withdrawn, or may be varied with the agreement of the firm concerned, by written notice served by the Office of Fair Trading on the firm, and any such notice takes effect on such date as is specified in the notice<sup>17</sup>. A firm contravening a restriction is guilty of an offence<sup>18</sup>.

If the Office of Fair Trading proposes, in relation to a firm, to impose a prohibition<sup>19</sup>, to impose a restriction<sup>20</sup>, or to vary a restriction otherwise than with the agreement of the firm, the Office of Fair Trading must by notice inform the firm of its proposal, stating its reasons, and invite the firm to submit representations<sup>21</sup>. If it imposes the prohibition or restriction or varies the restriction, the Office of Fair Trading may give directions authorising the firm to carry into effect agreements made before the coming into force of the prohibition, restriction or variation<sup>22</sup>. A prohibition, restriction or variation is not to come into force before the end of the appeal period<sup>23</sup>. If the Office of Fair Trading imposes a prohibition or restriction or varies a restriction, it must serve a copy of the prohibition, restriction or variation on the Financial Services Authority<sup>24</sup> and on the firm's home state regulator<sup>25</sup>.

If the Office of Fair Trading proposes to refuse an application made by a firm for the revocation of a prohibition or restriction, it must by notice inform the firm of the proposed refusal, stating its reasons, and invite the firm to submit representations<sup>26</sup>.

If an invitation is made to submit representations<sup>27</sup>, the Office of Fair Trading must invite the firm, within 21 days after the notice containing the invitation is given to it or such longer period as the Office of Fair Trading may allow, to submit its representations in writing to it, and to give notice to it, if the firm thinks fit, that it wishes to make representations orally<sup>28</sup>. If such notice is given, the Office of Fair Trading must arrange for the oral representations to be heard<sup>29</sup>.

The Office of Fair Trading must give the firm notice of its determination<sup>30</sup>.

1 As to the Office of Fair Trading see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 6 et seq.

2 'Consumer credit EEA firm' means an EEA firm falling within any of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 31(1)(b), Sch 3 para 5(a)-(c) (see PARA 315 note 1) whose EEA authorisation covers any Consumer Credit Act business: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 203(10). As to the meaning of 'EEA firm' see PARA 315 note 1. As to the meaning of 'EEA authorisation' see PARA 318 note 3. ### 466. Financial penalties.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> considers that an authorised person<sup>2</sup> has contravened a requirement imposed on him by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, or by any directly applicable Community regulation made under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>3</sup>, it may impose on him a penalty, in respect of the contravention, of such amount as it considers appropriate<sup>4</sup>. The Authority may not in respect of any contravention both require a person to pay a penalty under these provisions and withdraw his authorisation<sup>5</sup>. A penalty under these provisions is payable to the Authority<sup>6</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(iv) Disciplinary Measures/467. Statements of policy.

467. Statements of policy.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must prepare and issue a statement of its policy with respect to the imposition of penalties in relation to disciplinary measures<sup>2</sup> and the amount of such penalties<sup>3</sup>. The Authority's policy in determining what the amount of a penalty should be must include having regard to<sup>4</sup>:

1121 (1) the seriousness of the contravention in question in relation to the nature of the requirement contravened<sup>5</sup>;

1122 (2) the extent to which that contravention was deliberate or reckless<sup>6</sup>; and

1123 (3) whether the person on whom the penalty is to be imposed is an individual<sup>7</sup>.

In exercising, or deciding whether to exercise, its power to impose a penalty<sup>8</sup> in the case of any particular contravention, the Authority must have regard to any policy statement published and in force at the time when the contravention in question occurred<sup>9</sup>. The Authority may at any time alter or replace a policy statement<sup>10</sup>. If a policy statement is altered or replaced, the Authority must issue the altered or replacement statement<sup>11</sup>. A policy statement must be published by the Authority in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>12</sup>. The Authority must, without delay, give the Treasury<sup>13</sup> a copy of any policy statement which it publishes<sup>14</sup>. The Authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of the statement<sup>15</sup>.

Before issuing a policy statement<sup>16</sup>, the Authority must publish a draft of the proposed statement in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>17</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about the proposal may be made to the Authority within a specified time<sup>18</sup>. Before issuing the proposed statement, the Authority must have regard to any such representations made to it<sup>19</sup>. If the Authority issues the proposed statement it must publish an account, in general terms, of the representations made to it and its response to them<sup>20</sup>. If the statement differs from the draft in a way which is, in the opinion of the Authority, significant, the Authority must publish details of the difference<sup>21</sup>. This procedure<sup>22</sup> also applies to a proposal to alter or replace a statement<sup>23</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(v) Injunctions and Restitution/B. RESTITUTION ORDERS/473. Restitution orders in cases of market abuse.

473. Restitution orders in cases of market abuse.

The High Court may, on the application of the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup>, make a restitution order<sup>2</sup> if it is satisfied that a person (the 'person concerned'): (1) has engaged in market abuse<sup>3</sup>; or (2) by taking or refraining from taking any action has required or encouraged another person or persons to engage in behaviour which, if engaged in by the person concerned, would amount to market abuse, and the following condition<sup>4</sup> is fulfilled<sup>5</sup>, namely that: (a) profits have accrued to the person concerned as a result; or (b) one or more persons have suffered loss or been otherwise adversely affected as a result<sup>6</sup>. The court may not make an order<sup>7</sup> if it is satisfied that: (i) the person concerned believed, on reasonable grounds, that his behaviour did not fall within head (1) or head (2) above; or (ii) he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid behaving in a way which fell within head (1) or head (2) above<sup>8</sup>.

The court may order the person concerned to pay to the Authority such sum as appears to the court to be just having regard: (A) in a case within head (a) above, to the profits appearing to the court to have accrued; (B) in a case within head (b) above, to the extent of the loss or other adverse effect; (c) in a case within both of those heads, to the profits appearing to the court to have accrued and to the extent of the loss or other adverse effect<sup>9</sup>. Any amount paid to the Authority in pursuance of such an order must be paid by it to such qualifying person<sup>10</sup> or distributed by it among such qualifying persons as the court may direct<sup>11</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(v) Injunctions and Restitution/C. FINANCIAL SERVICES AUTHORITY'S POWER TO REQUIRE RESTITUTION/474. Power of Financial Services Authority to require restitution.

C. FINANCIAL SERVICES AUTHORITY'S POWER TO REQUIRE RESTITUTION

474. Power of Financial Services Authority to require restitution.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> has a power to require restitution<sup>2</sup> which it may exercise if it is satisfied that an authorised person<sup>3</sup> (the 'person concerned') has contravened a relevant requirement<sup>4</sup>, or been knowingly concerned in the contravention of such a requirement, and: (1) that profits have accrued to him as a result of the contravention; or (2) that one or more persons have suffered loss or been otherwise adversely affected as a result of the contravention<sup>5</sup>. The Authority may also exercise the power to require restitution<sup>6</sup> if it is satisfied that a person (the 'person concerned'): (a) has engaged in market abuse<sup>7</sup>; or (b) by taking or refraining from taking any action has required or encouraged another person or persons to engage in behaviour which, if engaged in by the person concerned, would amount to market abuse, and (i) that profits have accrued to the person concerned as a result of the market abuse; or (ii) that one or more persons have suffered loss or been otherwise adversely affected as a result of the market abuse<sup>8</sup>. However, the Authority may not exercise the power<sup>9</sup> if, having considered any representations made to it in response to a warning notice, there are reasonable grounds for it to be satisfied that the person concerned believed, on reasonable grounds, that his behaviour did not fall within head (a) or head (b) above, or he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid behaving in a way which fell within head (a) or head (b) above<sup>10</sup>.

The Authority's power to require restitution is a power to require the person concerned, in accordance with such arrangements as the Authority considers appropriate, to pay to the appropriate person<sup>11</sup> or distribute among the appropriate persons such amount as appears to the Authority to be just having regard: (A) in a case within head (1) or head (i) above, to the profits appearing to the Authority to have accrued; (B) in a case within head (2) or head (ii) above, to the extent of the loss or other adverse effect; (c) in a case within heads (1) and (2) or heads (i) and (ii) above, to the profits appearing to the Authority to have accrued and to the extent of the loss or other adverse effect<sup>12</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to exercise the power to require restitution<sup>13</sup> in relation to a person, it must give him a warning notice<sup>14</sup>. The warning notice must specify the amount which the Authority proposes to require the person concerned to pay or distribute<sup>15</sup>.

If the Authority decides to exercise the power to require restitution, it must give a decision notice<sup>16</sup> to the person in relation to whom the power is exercised<sup>17</sup>. The decision notice must state the amount that he is to pay or distribute, identify the person or persons to whom that amount is to be paid or among whom that amount is to be distributed, and state the arrangements in accordance with which the payment or distribution is to be made<sup>18</sup>. If the Authority decides to exercise the power to require restitution, the person in relation to whom it is exercised may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>19</sup>.

A. PUBLIC RECORD

475. The public record.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must maintain a record of every<sup>2</sup>:

- 1124 (1) person who appears to the Authority to be an authorised person<sup>3</sup>;
- 1125 (2) authorised unit trust scheme<sup>4</sup>;
- 1126 (3) authorised open-ended investment company<sup>5</sup>;
- 1127 (4) recognised scheme<sup>6</sup>;
- 1128 (5) recognised investment exchange<sup>7</sup>;
- 1129 (6) recognised clearing house<sup>8</sup>;
- 1130 (7) individual to whom a prohibition order<sup>9</sup> relates<sup>10</sup>;
- 1131 (8) approved person<sup>11</sup>;
- 1132 (9) person to whom the provision on appointed representatives and tied agents applies<sup>12</sup>;
- 1133 (10) person falling within such other class (if any) as the Authority may determine<sup>13</sup>; and
- 1134 (11) certified person in regard to the issue of electronic money<sup>14</sup>.

The record must include such information as the Authority considers appropriate and at least the following information<sup>15</sup>:

- 1135 (a) in the case of a person appearing to the Authority to be an authorised person: (i) information as to the services which he holds himself out as able to provide; and (ii) any address of which the Authority is aware at which a notice or other document<sup>16</sup> may be served on him<sup>17</sup>;
- 1136 (b) in the case of an authorised unit trust scheme, the name and address of the manager and trustee<sup>18</sup> of the scheme<sup>19</sup>;
- 1137 (c) in the case of an authorised open-ended investment company, the name and address of: (i) the company; (ii) if it has only one director<sup>20</sup>, the director; and (iii) its depositary<sup>21</sup> (if any)<sup>22</sup>;
- 1138 (d) in the case of a recognised scheme, the name and address of: (i) the operator<sup>23</sup> of the scheme; and (ii) any representative of the operator in the United Kingdom<sup>24</sup>;
- 1139 (e) in the case of a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house, the name and address of the exchange or clearing house<sup>25</sup>;
- 1140 (f) in the case of an individual to whom a prohibition order relates: (i) his name; and (ii) details of the effect of the order<sup>26</sup>;
- 1141 (g) in the case of a person who is an approved person: (i) his name; (ii) the name of the relevant authorised person<sup>27</sup>; (iii) if the approved person is performing a controlled function<sup>28</sup> under an arrangement<sup>29</sup> with a contractor of the relevant authorised person, the name of the contractor<sup>30</sup>.

The Authority must make the record available for inspection by members of the public in a legible form at such times and in such place or places as the Authority may determine; and on payment of the fee (if any) fixed by the Authority it must provide to any person who asks for it a certified copy of the record, or any part of it, in a form (either written or electronic) in which it is legible to the person asking for it<sup>31</sup>. The Authority may publish the record, or any part of it; and it may exploit commercially the information contained in the record, or any part of that information<sup>32</sup>.

B. RECORD OF UNAUTHORISED PERSONS CARRYING ON INSURANCE MEDIATION ACTIVITIES

476. Duty to maintain record of unauthorised persons carrying on insurance mediation activities.

- 1142 (1) as a result of information obtained by virtue of its rules or by virtue of a direction given, or requirement imposed, under the procedure for applications under Part IV of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>3</sup>, appears to the Authority to be, or has entered into a contract by virtue of which he will be, an appointed representative<sup>4</sup> who carries on any insurance mediation activity<sup>5</sup>; or
- 1143 (2) as a result of information obtained<sup>6</sup>, appears to the Authority to be a relevant member<sup>7</sup> of a designated professional body<sup>8</sup> who carries on, or is proposing to carry on, any insurance mediation activity<sup>9</sup>; and the general prohibition<sup>10</sup> does not (or will not) apply to the carrying on of those activities by virtue of the exemption from the general prohibition<sup>11</sup>.

The record must include:

- 1144 (a) in the case of any recorded insurance intermediary<sup>12</sup>, its address<sup>13</sup>; and
- 1145 (b) in the case of a recorded insurance intermediary which is not an individual, the name of the individuals who are responsible for the management of the business carried on by the intermediary, so far as it relates to insurance mediation activities<sup>14</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

2 'Record' means the record maintained by the Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 347 (public record of authorised persons etc) (see PARA 475): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 92 (arts 92, 93 added by SI 2003/1476).

3 I.e. under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 51(3): see PARA 349. The reference is to Part IV (ss 40-55).

4 As to appointed representatives see PARA 346.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 93(1)(a), (2) (as added: see note 2). Article 91(1) is subject to arts 95, 96: see PARA 478. 'Insurance mediation activity' means any regulated activity of the kind specified by art 21 (see PARA 126), art 25(1) or (2) (see PARA 139), art 39A (see PARA 104) or art 53 (see PARA 174), or, so far as relevant to any of those articles, art 64 (see PARA 221), which is carried on in relation to a contract of insurance: art 92 (as so added). As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3.

6 I.e. by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 94: see PARA 477.

7 'Relevant member', in relation to a designated professional body, means a member (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 325(2): see PARA 750 note 3) of the profession in relation to which that designated professional body is established, or a person who is controlled or managed by one or more such members: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 92 (as added: see note 2). 'Designated professional body' means a body which is for the time being designated by the Treasury under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 326 (designation of professional bodies) (see PARA 749): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 92 (as so added). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

8 See note 7.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 93(1)(b), (3) (a) (as added: see note 2).

10 As to the general prohibition see PARA 80.

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 93(1)(b), (3) (b) (as added: see note 2). The reference to the exemption from the general prohibition is a reference to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 327: see PARA 751.

12 'Recorded insurance intermediary' means a person who is included in the record by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 93(1): arts 92, 93(4) (as added: see note 2).

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 93(5)(a) (as added: see note 2).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Public Record and Disclosure of Information/B. RECORD OF UNAUTHORISED PERSONS CARRYING ON INSURANCE MEDIATION ACTIVITIES/477. Members of designated professional bodies.

477. Members of designated professional bodies.

A designated professional body<sup>1</sup> must, by notice in writing, inform the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> of (1) the name; (2) the address; and (3) in the case of a relevant member<sup>3</sup> which is not an individual, the name of the individuals who are responsible for the management of the business carried on by the member, so far as it relates to insurance mediation activities<sup>4</sup>, of any relevant member who, in accordance with the rules of that body, carries on, or proposes to carry on any insurance mediation activity but does not have, and does not propose to apply for, Part IV permission<sup>5</sup> on the basis that the general prohibition<sup>6</sup> does not (or will not) apply to the carrying on of that activity<sup>7</sup>.

A designated professional body must also, by notice in writing, inform the Authority of any change in relation to the matters specified in heads (1) to (3) above<sup>8</sup>. A designated professional body must inform the Authority when a relevant member<sup>9</sup> ceases, for whatever reason, to carry on insurance mediation activities<sup>10</sup>.

The Authority may give directions to a designated professional body as to the manner in which the above information<sup>11</sup> must be provided<sup>12</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'designated professional body' see PARA 476 note 7.

2 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

3 As to the meaning of 'relevant member' see PARA 476 note 7.

4 As to the meaning of 'insurance mediation activity' see PARA 476 note 5.

5 As to the meaning of 'Part IV permission' see PARA 348.

6 As to the general prohibition see PARA 80.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 94(1), (2) (art 94 added by SI 2003/1476). The non-application would be by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 327: see PARA 751.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 94(3) (as added: see note 7).

9 I.e. a relevant member to whom the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 94(2) applies.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 94(4) (as added: see note 7).

11 I.e. the information referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 94(1), (3), (4).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 94(5) (as added: see note 7).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Public Record and Disclosure of Information/B. RECORD OF UNAUTHORISED PERSONS CARRYING ON INSURANCE MEDIATION ACTIVITIES/478. Exclusion from the record.

478. Exclusion from the record.

If it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> that an appointed representative<sup>2</sup> ('AR') is not a fit and proper person to carry on insurance mediation activities<sup>3</sup>, it may decide not to include him in the record<sup>4</sup> or, if that person is already included in the record, to remove him from the record<sup>5</sup>.

Where the Authority proposes to make such a determination<sup>6</sup>, it must give AR a warning notice<sup>7</sup>. If the Authority makes such a determination, it must give AR a decision notice<sup>8</sup>. If the Authority gives AR such a decision notice<sup>9</sup>, AR may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>10</sup>.

The Authority may, on the application of AR, revoke a determination<sup>11</sup>. If the Authority decides to grant the application, it must give AR written notice of its decision<sup>12</sup>. If the Authority proposes to refuse the application, it must give AR a warning notice<sup>13</sup>. If the Authority decides to refuse the application, it must give AR a decision notice<sup>14</sup>. If the Authority gives AR such a decision notice<sup>15</sup>, AR may refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>16</sup>.

If a person who appears to the Authority to be member of a designated professional body<sup>17</sup> falls within head (1) or head (2) below, the Authority must not include him in the record or, if that person is already included in the record, must remove him from the record<sup>18</sup>. These exclusions are as follows:

- 1146 (1) where, by virtue of a direction given by the Authority<sup>19</sup>, the exemption from the general prohibition<sup>20</sup> does not apply in relation to the carrying on by him of any insurance mediation activity<sup>21</sup>;
- 1147 (2) where the Authority has made an order<sup>22</sup> disapplying the exemption from the general prohibition<sup>23</sup> in relation to the carrying on by him of any insurance mediation activity<sup>24</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Public Record and Disclosure of Information/C. RESTRICTIONS ON DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION/(A) Disclosure of Confidential Information/479. Restrictions on disclosure of confidential information.

C. RESTRICTIONS ON DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

(A) DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

479. Restrictions on disclosure of confidential information.

Confidential information<sup>1</sup> must not be disclosed by a primary recipient, or by any person obtaining the information directly or indirectly from a primary recipient, without the consent of: (1) the person from whom the primary recipient obtained the information; and (2) if different, the person to whom it relates<sup>2</sup>.

This restriction<sup>3</sup> does not prevent a disclosure of confidential information which is made for the purpose of facilitating the carrying out of a public function<sup>4</sup>, and permitted by regulations made by the Treasury under these provisions<sup>5</sup>. The regulations may, in particular, make provision permitting the disclosure of confidential information or of confidential information of a prescribed kind<sup>6</sup>:

- 1148 (a) by prescribed recipients<sup>7</sup>, or recipients of a prescribed description, to any person for the purpose of enabling or assisting the recipient to discharge prescribed public functions<sup>8</sup>;
- 1149 (b) by prescribed recipients, or recipients of a prescribed description, to prescribed persons, or persons of prescribed descriptions, for the purpose of enabling or assisting those persons to discharge prescribed public functions<sup>9</sup>;
- 1150 (c) by the Authority to the Treasury or the Secretary of State for any purpose<sup>10</sup>;
- 1151 (d) by any recipient if the disclosure is with a view to or in connection with prescribed proceedings<sup>11</sup>.

The regulations may also include provision: (i) making any permission to disclose confidential information subject to conditions (which may relate to the obtaining of consents or any other matter); (ii) restricting the uses to which confidential information disclosed under the regulations may be put<sup>12</sup>.

The restriction<sup>13</sup> also does not apply to the disclosure by a recipient<sup>14</sup> of confidential information disclosed to it by the Authority in reliance on the above exception<sup>15</sup>; nor to the disclosure of such information by a person obtaining it directly or indirectly from such a recipient<sup>16</sup>.

A disclosure which satisfies the three following conditions is not to be taken to breach any restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed)<sup>17</sup>. The first condition is that the information or other matter causes the person making the disclosure (the discloser) to know or suspect, or gives him reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting, that another person has engaged in market abuse<sup>18</sup>. The second condition is that the information or other matter disclosed came to the discloser in the course of his trade, profession, business or employment<sup>19</sup>. The third condition is that the disclosure is made to the Authority or to a nominated officer as soon as is practicable after the information or other matter comes to the discloser<sup>20</sup>.

A person who discloses information in contravention of the provisions described above is guilty of an offence<sup>21</sup>. In proceedings for an offence it is a defence for the accused to prove: (A) that he did not know and had no reason to suspect that the information was confidential information; (B) that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence<sup>22</sup>.

The provisions on disclosure of confidential information by the Financial Services Authority and others<sup>23</sup> do not apply to competition information<sup>24</sup>.

1 'Confidential information' means information which: (1) relates to the business or other affairs of any person; (2) was received by the primary recipient for the purposes of, or in the discharge of, any functions of the Financial Services Authority, the competent authority for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VI (ss 72-103) (see PARA 385 et seq) or the Secretary of State under any provision made by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000; and (3) is not prevented from being confidential information by s 348(4) (see below): s 348(2). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 3. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

Each of the following is a primary recipient: (a) the Authority; (b) any person exercising functions conferred by Pt VI on the competent authority (see PARA 385 et seq); (c) the Secretary of State; (d) a person appointed to make a report under s 166 (see PARA 448); (e) any person who is or has been employed by a person mentioned in heads (a)-(c) above; (f) any auditor or expert instructed by a person mentioned in those heads: s 348(5). 'Expert' includes: (i) a competent person appointed by the competent authority under s 97 (see PARA 434); (ii) a competent person appointed by the Authority or the Secretary of State to conduct an investigation under Pt XI (ss 165-177) (see PARA 447); (iii) any body or person appointed under Sch 1 para 6 (see PARA 7) to perform a function on behalf of the Authority: s 348(6).

It is immaterial for the purposes of s 348(2) whether or not the information was received: (A) by virtue of a requirement to provide it imposed by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000; (B) for other purposes as well as purposes mentioned in s 348(2): s 348(3).

Information is not confidential information if: (aa) it has been made available to the public by virtue of being disclosed in any circumstances in which, or for any purposes for which, disclosure is not precluded by s 348; or (bb) it is in the form of a summary or collection of information so framed that it is not possible to ascertain from it information relating to any particular person: s 348(4).

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 348(1). As to disclosure see also Melton Medes Ltd v Securities and Investments Board [1995] Ch 137, [1995] 3 All ER 880 (decided under previous legislation). A person could not be said to obtain information for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 348 if he already had or knew the information: see Real Estate Opportunities Ltd v Aberdeen Asset Managers Jersey Ltd [2007] EWCA Civ 197, [2007] 2 All ER 791. As to the restriction on the production, disclosure or inspection of protected items see PARA 784.

3 Ie the restriction set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 348: see the text and notes 1-2.

4 'Public functions' includes: (1) functions conferred by or in accordance with any provision contained in any enactment or subordinate legislation; (2) functions conferred by or in accordance with any provision contained in the Community Treaties or any Community instrument; (3) similar functions conferred on persons by or under provisions having effect as part of the law of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom; (4) functions exercisable in relation to prescribed disciplinary proceedings: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 349(5). 'Enactment' includes an Act of the Scottish Parliament and Northern Ireland legislation: s 349(6). 'Subordinate legislation' has the meaning given in the Interpretation Act 1978 (see STATUTES vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1381) and also includes an instrument made under an Act of the Scottish Parliament or under Northern Ireland legislation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 349(7). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). The following disciplinary proceedings are prescribed for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 349(5)(d): (1) disciplinary proceedings relating to the exercise by a barrister, solicitor, auditor, accountant, valuer or actuary of his professional duties; (2) disciplinary proceedings relating to the discharge of his duties by an officer or servant of: the Crown, the Authority, the body known as the Panel on Takeovers and Mergers (see PARA 78), the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales (see CHARITIES vol 8 (2010) PARA 538 et seq), the Office of Fair Trading (see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 6 et seq), the Competition Commission (see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 9 et seq), the Insolvency Practitioners Tribunal in relation to its functions under the Insolvency Act 1986 (see BANKRUPTCY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY vol 3(2) (2002 Reissue) PARA 60 et seq), the Occupational Pensions Board in relation to its functions under the Social Security Act 1973 and the Social Security Acts 1975 to 1986 (see SOCIAL SECURITY AND PENSIONS), the organs of the Society of Lloyd's being organs constituted by or under the Lloyd's Act 1982 in relation to their functions under the Lloyd's Acts 1871-1982 and the byelaws made thereunder of the Society of Lloyd's (see PARA 741 et seq), the National Lottery Commission in relation to its functions under the National Lottery etc Act 1993 (see LICENSING AND GAMBLING vol 68 (2008) PARA 687 et seq): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, Sch 3 (amended by virtue of the Enterprise Act 2002 s 2). As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 generally see PARA 67 note 1. This provision does not permit disclosure to a dependent territory regulatory authority or a non-EEA regulatory authority<sup>7</sup> unless the disclosure is provided for by a co-operation agreement<sup>8</sup>.

This provision also does not permit disclosure to certain specified persons<sup>9</sup>:

1164 (1) of information obtained from an EEA competent authority, unless that authority has given its express consent to the disclosure<sup>10</sup>; or

1165 (2) of information obtained in the course of an on-the-spot verification<sup>11</sup> unless the EEA competent authority of the state in which the on-the-spot verification was carried out has given its express consent to the disclosure<sup>12</sup>.

This provision also does not permit disclosure of Markets in Financial Instruments Directive information to a specified person<sup>13</sup> other than certain persons<sup>14</sup> where that information:

- 1166 (a) was obtained from an EEA competent authority under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>15</sup> or an overseas regulatory authority under a cooperation agreement referred to in that directive<sup>16</sup>; and
- 1167 (b) that authority indicated at the time of communication that such information must not be disclosed<sup>17</sup>, unless that authority has given its express consent to the disclosure<sup>18</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to the meaning of 'Authority worker' see PARA 480 note 4.

3 'Single Market Directive information' means confidential information received by the Authority in the course of discharging its functions as the competent authority under any of the Single Market Directives (except for the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) or the Conglomerates Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/87 (OJ L35, 11.2.2003, p 1) on the supplementary supervision of credit institutions, insurance undertakings and investment firms in a financial conglomerate and amending EEC Council Directives 73/239, 79/267, 92/49, 92/96, 93/6, 93/22, and European Parliament and EC Council Directives 98/78 and 2000/12): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, reg 2 (definition amended by SI 2004/1862; SI 2006/3413). As to the meaning of 'confidential information' see PARA 479 note 1. As to the meaning of 'Single Market Directives' see PARA 86 note 6.

4 Ie Markets in Financial Instruments Directive information, where that information has been received from (1) an overseas regulatory authority under a cooperation agreement referred to in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 63; or (2) an EEA competent authority under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 58.1: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, reg 8(b) (reg 8 added by SI 2006/3413). 'Markets in Financial Instruments Directive information' means confidential information received by the Authority in the course of discharging its functions as an EEA competent authority under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, reg 2 (definition added by SI 2006/3413). 'EEA competent authority' means a competent authority of an EEA state other than the United Kingdom for the purposes of any of the Single Market Directives: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, reg 2 (definition amended by SI 2003/2066; SI 2006/3413).

5 Ie a person specified in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, Sch 1 Pt 1 col 1 (Sch 1 Pt 1 amended by SI 2001/3437; SI 2001/3624; SI 2003/2174; SI 2003/2817; SI 2005/3071; SI 2006/3413). Such a person is permitted to disclose Single Market Directive information and certain Markets in Financial Instruments Directive information for the purpose of enabling or assisting him to discharge any of the functions listed for such a person in Sch 1: see reg 10.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, regs 8, 9(1) (reg 8 as substituted (see note 4); reg 9(1) amended by SI 2006/3413). The specified functions are those listed for such a person in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, Sch 1 Pt 1 col 2 (Sch 1 Pt 1 as amended: see note 5).

7 Ie a person specified in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, Sch 1 Pt 3 col 1. 'Dependent territory regulatory authority' means an overseas regulatory authority which exercises its functions in, and in relation to, a dependent territory; and 'dependent territory' means the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man and any territory outside the British Islands for whose external relations the United Kingdom is responsible: reg 2. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. 'Overseas regulatory authority' means: (1) an authority in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom which exercises any function of a kind mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 195(4) (see PARA 457); or (2) an overseas investment exchange or overseas clearing house: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, reg 2. As to overseas investment exchanges and overseas clearing houses see PARA 710.

'Non-EEA regulatory authority' means an overseas regulatory authority other than an EEA regulatory authority or a dependent territory regulatory authority: reg 2. 'EEA regulatory authority' means an EEA competent authority or an overseas regulatory authority which exercises its functions in, and in relation to, an EEA state other than the United Kingdom: reg 2.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, reg 9(2). The co-operation agreement is one of the kind referred to in: (1) the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 63; (2) the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions) art 46; (3) the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1) concerning life assurance) art 16.3; (4) the Third Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 92/49 (OJ L228, 11.8.92, p 1) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of direct insurance other than life assurance, and amending EC Directives 73/239 and 88/357) art 16.3; (5) the UCITS Directive (ie EEC Council Directive 85/611 (OJ L375, 31.12.85, p 3) on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities) art 50.4; or (6) the Reinsurance Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/68 (OJ L323, 9.12.2005, p 1) on reinsurance and amending EEC Council Directives 73/239, 92/49 as well as EC Directives 98/78 and 2002/83) art 26: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, reg 9(2)(a)-(f) (amended by SI 2004/3379; SI 2006/3221; SI 2006/3413; SI 2007/3255). The references to the provisions mentioned in heads (1), (4) and (5) are to those provisions as replaced by European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2000/64 (OJ L290, 17.11.2000, p 27): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, reg 9(2A) (added by SI 2003/693; and amended by SI 2004/3379).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, reg 9(3). The persons referred to in the text are those specified in Sch 1 Pt 4 col 1 (Sch 1 Pt 4 amended by SI 2001/3624).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, reg 9(3)(a).

11 Ie an on-the-spot verification of the kind referred to in: (1) the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1)) art 43; (2) the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1)) art 11; (3) the First Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3)) art 14; or (4) the Reinsurance Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/68 (OJ L323, 9.12.2005, p 1)) art 16: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, reg 9(3)(b) (amended by SI 2004/3379; SI 2006/3221; SI 2006/3413; SI 2007/3255).

13 Ie persons specified in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, Sch 1 col 1 (as amended: see notes 5, 9).

14 Ie other than a person listed in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, reg 9(3B). Such persons are: (1) the Bank of England; (2) the European Central Bank; (3) the central bank of any country or territory outside the United Kingdom; or (4) a body (other than a central bank) in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom having (a) functions as a monetary authority; or (b) responsibility for overseeing payment systems: reg 9(3B) (reg 9(3A), (3B) added by SI 2006/3413). As to the Bank of England see PARA 74; and PARA 793 et seq. As to the European Central Bank and central banks see PARA 807.

15 Ie under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 58.1.

16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Confidential Information) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2188, reg 9(3A)(a) (as added: see note 14). The last reference is to the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 63.

(B) DISCLOSURE BY HM REVENUE AND CUSTOMS

487. Disclosure of information by Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs.

No obligation as to secrecy imposed by statute or otherwise prevents the disclosure of Revenue information<sup>1</sup> to the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> or the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup>, if the disclosure is made for the purpose of assisting in the investigation of a matter<sup>4</sup> or with a view to the appointment of an investigator<sup>5</sup>. A disclosure may only be made<sup>6</sup> by or under the authority of the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs<sup>7</sup>.

Information obtained<sup>8</sup> may not be used except<sup>9</sup>:

- 1170 (1) for the purpose of deciding whether to appoint an investigator<sup>10</sup>;
- 1171 (2) in the conduct of an investigation<sup>11</sup>;
- 1172 (3) in criminal proceedings brought against a person under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or the Criminal Justice Act 1993 as a result of an investigation<sup>12</sup>;
- 1173 (4) for the purpose of taking action under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 against a person as a result of an investigation<sup>13</sup>;
- 1174 (5) in proceedings before the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>14</sup> as a result of action taken as mentioned in head (4) above<sup>15</sup>.

Information obtained<sup>16</sup> may not be disclosed except: (a) by or under the authority of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs; (b) in proceedings mentioned in head (3) or head (5) above or with a view to their institution<sup>17</sup>.

1 'Revenue information' means information held by a person which it would be an offence under the Finance Act 1989 s 182 (see INCOME TAXATION vol 23(2) (Reissue) PARA 1834) for him to disclose: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 350(7). The provisions of s 348 (see PARA 479) do not apply to Revenue information: s 350(3).

2 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

8 Ie as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 350(1): see the text to notes 1-5.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 350(4). A person is guilty of an offence if, in contravention of s 350(4), he uses information which has been disclosed to him in accordance with s 350: s 352(4). A person guilty of an offence under s 352(4) is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or both: s 352(5). As to the standard scale see PARA 27 note 21. As from a day to be appointed, the reference to three months is replaced by a reference to 51 weeks: s 352(5) (prospectively amended by the Criminal Justice Act 2003 Sch 26 para 54(1), (3)). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

17 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 350(5). Section 350(5) does not prevent the disclosure of information obtained as a result of s 350(1) to a person to whom it could have been disclosed under s 350(1): s

350(6). A person who discloses information in contravention of s 350(5) is guilty of an offence: s 352(1). A person guilty of an offence under s 352(1) is liable: (1) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or both; (2) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine, or both: s 352(2). As to the statutory maximum see PARA 56 note 24. In proceedings for an offence under s 352 it is a defence for the accused to prove: (a) that he did not know and had no reason to suspect that the information had been disclosed in accordance with s 350; (b) that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence: s 352(6).

(C) DISCLOSURE PERMITTED BY THE TREASURY

488. Removal of other restrictions on disclosure.

The Treasury<sup>1</sup> may make regulations permitting the disclosure of any information, or of information of a prescribed<sup>2</sup> kind: (1) by prescribed persons for the purpose of assisting or enabling them to discharge prescribed functions under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or any rules or regulations made under it; (2) by prescribed persons, or persons of a prescribed description, to the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> for the purpose of assisting or enabling the Authority to discharge prescribed functions; (3) by the scheme operator to the Office of Fair Trading<sup>4</sup> for the purpose of assisting or enabling that Office to discharge prescribed functions under the Consumer Credit Act 1974<sup>5</sup>. Such regulations may not make any provision in relation to the disclosure of confidential information<sup>6</sup> by primary recipients<sup>7</sup> or by any person obtaining confidential information directly or indirectly from a primary recipient<sup>8</sup>. If a person discloses any information as permitted by the regulations, the disclosure is not to be taken as a contravention of any duty to which he is subject<sup>9</sup>.

1 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

2 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1).

3 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

4 As to the Office of Fair Trading see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 6 et seq.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 353(1) (amended by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 61(9)). As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 generally see PARA 67 note 1.

In relation to: (1) information received by Schedule persons or scheme persons for the purposes of, or in the discharge of, any functions conferred on them by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000; (2) other information received by Schedule persons if the information is, or would have been relevant to the performance of those functions; or (3) the opinions of Schedule persons or scheme persons in relation to such information, Schedule persons and scheme persons are permitted to disclose that information: (a) for the purpose of enabling or assisting them to discharge their functions under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, or any rules or regulations made under that Act; or (b) to the Authority, for the purpose of enabling or assisting the Authority to discharge any of its public functions: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Information by Prescribed Persons) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1857, reg 3(1), (3). 'Schedule person' means a person who is performing or has performed any of the following functions: (i) the verification of information in a manner required by the Authority pursuant to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 165(6)(a) (see PARA 447); (ii) the authentication of a document in a manner required by the Authority pursuant to s 165(6)(b) (see PARA 447); (iii) the making of a report under s 166 (see PARA 448); (iv) the conduct of an investigation under s 113(2) (see PARA 598); (v) the conduct of an investigation under s 167, s 168(3), s 168(5) (see PARA 449) or s 169(1)(b) (see PARA 450); (vi) the conduct of an investigation under s 284 (see PARA 683); (vii) the conduct of an investigation under s 376(10) (see PARA 505); (viii) the conduct of an investigation pursuant to regulations made under s 262 (see PARA 621): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Information by Prescribed Persons) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1857, reg 2, Schedule (amended by SI 2005/272). 'Scheme person' means the scheme manager, the scheme operator, or a member of the panel of ombudsmen appointed by the scheme operator pursuant to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 17 para 4 (see PARA 575): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Information by Prescribed Persons) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1857, reg 2.

Schedule persons are permitted to disclose information in accordance with reg 3(1)(b) (see head (b) above) only if the disclosure is made in good faith, and the person disclosing the information reasonably believes that the information is relevant to the discharge of a public function by the Authority: reg 3(2).

Regulation 3 does not apply to confidential information within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 348(2) (see PARA 479 note 1): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Disclosure of Information by Prescribed Persons) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1857, reg 3(4).

A. VOLUNTARY ARRANGEMENTS

490. Voluntary arrangements.

Where a voluntary arrangement has effect<sup>1</sup> in respect of a company or insolvent partnership which is an authorised person<sup>2</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> may apply to the court<sup>4</sup>. If a person other than the Authority makes an application to the court in relation to the company or insolvent partnership<sup>5</sup>, the Authority is entitled to be heard at any hearing relating to the application<sup>6</sup>.

The Authority is entitled to be heard on an application by an individual who is an authorised person<sup>7</sup>. If such an order is made on the application of such a person then:

1175 (1) a person appointed for the purpose by the Authority is entitled to attend any meeting of creditors of the debtor<sup>8</sup>;

1176 (2) notice of the result of a meeting so summoned is to be given to the Authority by the chairman of the meeting<sup>9</sup>;

1177 (3) the Authority may apply to the court to challenge the meeting's decision<sup>10</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/B. ADMINISTRATION ORDERS/491. Administration orders.

B. ADMINISTRATION ORDERS

491. Administration orders.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may make an administration application<sup>2</sup> in relation to a company<sup>3</sup> or insolvent partnership which: (1) is, or has been, an authorised person<sup>4</sup>; (2) is, or has been, an appointed representative<sup>5</sup>; or (3) is carrying on, or has carried on, a regulated activity<sup>6</sup> in contravention of the general prohibition<sup>7</sup>.

In relation to an administration application made (or a petition presented) by the Authority by virtue of this provision<sup>8</sup>, any of the following is treated<sup>9</sup> as unable to pay its debts:

- 1178 (a) a company or partnership in default on an obligation to pay a sum due and payable under an agreement<sup>10</sup>; and
- 1179 (b) an authorised deposit taker<sup>11</sup> in default on an obligation to pay a sum due and payable in respect of a relevant deposit<sup>12</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 Ie under the Insolvency Act 1986 Sch B1 (see COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY vol 7(3) (2004 Reissue) PARA 212 et seq) (or the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, SI 1989/2405 (NI 19), Sch B1).

3 'Company' means a company: (1) in respect of which an administrator may be appointed under the Insolvency Act 1986 Sch B1 (see COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY vol 7(3) (2004 Reissue) PARA 212 et seq) applies; or (2) in respect of which an administrator may be appointed under the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, SI 1989/2405 (NI 19), Sch B1: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 359(4) (s 359 substituted by the Enterprise Act 2002 Sch 17 paras 53, 55; definition amended by SI 2005/1455).

4 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

5 As to the meaning of 'appointed representative' see PARA 346.

6 As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 359(1) (as substituted (see note 3); amended by SI 2005/1455). As to the general prohibition see PARA 80.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 359(2) (as substituted: see note 3). The reference is to s 359.

9 le for the purposes of the Insolvency Act 1986 Sch B1 para 11(a) (or the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, SI 1989/2405 (NI 19), Sch B1 para 12(a)).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 359(3)(a) (as substituted: see note 3). 'Agreement' means an agreement the making or performance of which constitutes or is part of a regulated activity carried on by the company or partnership: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 359(4) (as so substituted).

11 'Authorised deposit taker' means a person with a Part IV permission to accept deposits (but not a person who has a Part IV permission to accept deposits only for the purpose of carrying on another regulated activity in accordance with that permission): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 359(4) (as substituted: see note 3). As to the meaning of 'Part IV permission' see PARA 348. As to the regulated activity of accepting deposits see PARA 89 et seq.

The definition of 'authorised deposit taker' is construed in accordance with s 22, any relevant order under that provision (see PARA 84), and Sch 2 (see PARA 84 et seq): s 359(5) (as so substituted).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 359(3)(b) (as substituted: see note 3). 'Relevant deposit' is construed, ignoring any restriction on the meaning of deposit arising from the identity of the person making the deposit, in accordance with s 22, any relevant order under that provision (see PARA 84), and Sch 2 (see PARA 84 et seq): s 359(4) (as so substituted).

UPDATE

493 Administrator's duty to report to Financial Services Authority

TEXT AND NOTES--Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 361 modified: SI 2009/317.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/B. ADMINISTRATION ORDERS/494. The Financial Services Authority's powers to participate in proceedings.

494. The Financial Services Authority's powers to participate in proceedings.

If a person other than the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> makes an administration application<sup>2</sup> in relation to a company or partnership which: (1) is, or has been, an authorised person<sup>3</sup>; (2) is, or has been, an appointed representative<sup>4</sup>; or (3) is carrying on, or has carried on, a regulated activity<sup>5</sup> in contravention of the general prohibition<sup>6</sup>, then the Authority is entitled to be heard at the hearing of the administration application and at any other hearing of the court in relation to the company or partnership<sup>7</sup>. This provision<sup>8</sup> also applies in relation to (a) the appointment<sup>9</sup> of an administrator of a company of a kind described in heads (1) to (3) above; or (b) the filing with the court of a copy of notice of intention to appoint an administrator under any of those heads<sup>10</sup>.

Any notice or other document<sup>11</sup> required to be sent to a creditor of the company or partnership must also be sent to the Authority<sup>12</sup>. The Authority may apply to the court under the provisions on challenges to the administrator's conduct of the company<sup>13</sup>. A person appointed for the purpose by the Authority is entitled: (i) to attend any meeting of creditors of the company or partnership summoned under any enactment; (ii) to attend any meeting of a committee<sup>14</sup>; and (iii) to make representations as to any matter for decision at such a meeting<sup>15</sup>. If, during the course of the administration of a company, a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the company and its creditors, or any class of them, the Authority may apply to the court for an order<sup>16</sup>.

In relation to a company of a kind described in heads (1) to (3) above<sup>17</sup>, an administrator of the company may not be appointed<sup>18</sup> without the consent of the Authority<sup>19</sup>. Such consent (A) must be in writing; and (B) must be filed with the court along with the notice of intention to appoint<sup>20</sup>. In a case where no notice of intention to appoint is required head (B) above would not apply, but consent<sup>21</sup> must accompany the notice of appointment filed<sup>22</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/D. VOLUNTARY WINDING UP/496. Voluntary winding up.

D. VOLUNTARY WINDING UP

496. Voluntary winding up.

Where a company: (1) is being wound up voluntarily; (2) is an authorised person<sup>1</sup>; and (3) is not an insurer<sup>2</sup> effecting or carrying out contracts of long-term insurance<sup>3</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup> may apply to the court<sup>5</sup> for a determination<sup>6</sup> in respect of the company<sup>7</sup>. The Authority is entitled to be heard at any hearing of the court in relation to the voluntary winding up of the company<sup>8</sup>. Any notice or other document<sup>9</sup> required to be sent to a creditor of the company must also be sent to the Authority<sup>10</sup>. A person appointed for the purpose by the Authority is entitled: (a) to attend any meeting of creditors of the company summoned under any enactment; (b) to attend any meeting of a committee<sup>11</sup>; and (c) to make representations as to any matter for decision at such a meeting<sup>12</sup>. The voluntary winding up of the company does not bar the right of the Authority to have it wound up by the court<sup>13</sup>. If, during the course of the winding up of the company, a compromise or arrangement is proposed between the company and its creditors, or any class of them, the Authority may apply to the court for an order<sup>14</sup>.

An insurer effecting or carrying out contracts of long-term insurance may not be wound up voluntarily without the consent of the Authority<sup>15</sup>. If notice of a general meeting of such an insurer is given, specifying the intention to propose a resolution for voluntary winding up of the insurer, a director<sup>16</sup> of the insurer must notify the Authority as soon as practicable after he becomes aware of it<sup>17</sup>. A copy of a winding-up resolution<sup>18</sup> forwarded to the registrar of companies<sup>19</sup> must be accompanied by a certificate issued by the Authority stating that it consents to the voluntary winding up of the insurer<sup>20</sup>.

E. WINDING UP BY THE COURT

497. Winding-up petitions.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may present a petition to the court<sup>2</sup> for the winding up of a body<sup>3</sup> which<sup>4</sup>: (1) is, or has been, an authorised person<sup>5</sup>; (2) is, or has been, an appointed representative<sup>6</sup>; or (3) is carrying on, or has carried on, a regulated activity<sup>7</sup> in contravention of the general prohibition<sup>8</sup>. On such a petition, the court may wind up the body if: (a) the body is unable to pay its debts<sup>9</sup>; or (b) the court is of the opinion that it is just and equitable that it should be wound up<sup>10</sup>. If a body is in default on an obligation to pay a sum due and payable under an agreement<sup>11</sup>, it is to be treated for the purpose of head (a) above as unable to pay its debts<sup>12</sup>. If a petition is presented<sup>13</sup> for the winding up of a partnership on the ground mentioned in head (b) above, the court has jurisdiction as if the partnership were an unregistered company<sup>14</sup>.

The Authority may not present a petition to the court<sup>15</sup> for the winding up of: (i) an EEA firm<sup>16</sup> which qualifies for authorisation<sup>17</sup>; or (ii) a Treaty firm<sup>18</sup> which qualifies for authorisation<sup>19</sup>, unless it has been asked to do so by the home state regulator<sup>20</sup> of the firm concerned<sup>21</sup>.

F. BANKRUPTCY

501. Petitions.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may present a petition to the court<sup>2</sup> for a bankruptcy order to be made against an individual<sup>3</sup>. Such a petition may be presented only on the ground that: (1) the individual appears to be unable to pay a regulated activity debt; or (2) the individual appears to have no reasonable prospect of being able to pay a regulated activity debt<sup>4</sup>. An individual appears to be unable to pay a regulated activity debt if he is in default on an obligation to pay a sum due and payable under an agreement<sup>5</sup>. An individual appears to have no reasonable prospect of being able to pay a regulated activity debt if: (a) the Authority has served on him a demand requiring him to establish to the satisfaction of the Authority that there is a reasonable prospect that he will be able to pay a sum payable under an agreement when it falls due<sup>6</sup>; (b) at least three weeks have elapsed since the demand was served; and (c) the demand has been neither complied with nor set aside in accordance with rules<sup>7</sup>.

The petition is made under the Insolvency Act 1986 s 264 (see BANKRUPTCY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY vol 3(2) (2002 Reissue) PARA 124) (or the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, SI 1989/2405 (NI 19), art 238). 'Individual' means an individual: (1) who is, or has been, an authorised person; or (2) who is carrying on, or has carried on, a regulated activity in contravention of the general prohibition: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 372(7). As to authorised persons see PARA 314. As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq. As to the general prohibition see PARA 80.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 372(3). 'Agreement' means an agreement the making or performance of which constitutes or is part of a regulated activity carried on by the individual concerned: s 372(8).

6 A demand made under head (a) in the text is to be treated for the purposes of the Insolvency Act 1986 (or the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, SI 1989/2405 (NI 19)) as if it were a statutory demand under the Insolvency Act 1986 s 268 (see BANKRUPTCY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY vol 3(2) (2002 Reissue) PARA 127) (or the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, SI 1989/2405 (NI 19), art 242): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 372(5).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 372(4). For these purposes, 'rules' means: (1) in England and Wales, rules made under the Insolvency Act 1986 s 412 (see BANKRUPTCY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY vol 3(2) (2002 Reissue) PARA 753); (2) in Northern Ireland, rules made under the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, SI 1989/2405 (NI 19), art 359: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 372(9).

503. The Financial Services Authority's powers to participate in proceedings.

If a person other than the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> presents a petition to the court<sup>2</sup> for a bankruptcy order to be made against an individual<sup>3</sup>, the Authority is entitled to be heard: (1) at the hearing of the petition; and (2) at any other hearing in relation to the individual or entity<sup>4</sup>. A copy of the insolvency practitioner's report<sup>5</sup> must also be sent to the Authority<sup>6</sup>. A person appointed for the purpose by the Authority is entitled: (a) to attend any meeting of creditors of the individual or entity; (b) to attend any meeting of a committee<sup>7</sup>; and (c) to make representations as to any matter for decision at such a meeting<sup>8</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to the meaning of 'court' see PARA 490 note 4.

'Individual' means an individual who: (1) is, or has been, an authorised person; or (2) is carrying on, or has carried on, a regulated activity in contravention of the general prohibition: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 374(5). As to authorised persons see PARA 314. As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq. As to the general prohibition see PARA 80.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 374(1), (2). This provision applies to any other hearing under: (1) the Insolvency Act 1986 Pt IX (ss 264-371) (see BANKRUPTCY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY vol 3(2) (2002 Reissue) PARA 124 et seq); or (2) the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, SI 1989/2405 (NI 19), Pt IX (arts 238-342). 'Entity' means an entity which: (a) is, or has been, an authorised person; or (b) is carrying on, or has carried on, a regulated activity in contravention of the general prohibition: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 374(6).

5 I.e. the report prepared under the Insolvency Act 1986 s 274 (see BANKRUPTCY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY vol 3(2) (2002 Reissue) PARA 202) (or the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, SI 1989/2405 (NI 19), art 248).

5 As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 375(1)(a). As to the general prohibition see PARA 80.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 375(1)(b). An application made under s 375 is to be treated as made on behalf of every victim of the transaction to whom s 375(1)(b) (see head (2) in the text) applies: s 375(2).

UPDATE

504 Provisions against debt avoidance

TEXT AND NOTES--Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 375 modified: SI 2009/317.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/H. INSURERS/505. Continuation of contracts of long-term insurance where the insurer is in liquidation.

H. INSURERS

505. Continuation of contracts of long-term insurance where the insurer is in liquidation.

In relation to the winding up of an insurer<sup>1</sup> which effects or carries out contracts of long-term insurance<sup>2</sup>, unless the court<sup>3</sup> otherwise orders, the liquidator must carry on the insurer's business so far as it consists of carrying out the insurer's contracts of long-term insurance with a view to its being transferred as a going concern to a person who may lawfully carry out those contracts<sup>4</sup>. In carrying on the business, the liquidator: (1) may agree to the variation of any contracts of insurance<sup>5</sup> in existence when the winding up order is made; but (2) must not effect any new contracts of insurance<sup>6</sup>. If the liquidator is satisfied that the interests of the creditors in respect of liabilities of the insurer attributable to contracts of long-term insurance effected by it require the appointment of a special manager, he may apply to the court<sup>7</sup>. On such an application, the court may appoint a special manager to act during such time as the court may direct<sup>8</sup>. The special manager has such powers, including any of the powers of a receiver or manager, as the court may direct<sup>9</sup>. If the court thinks fit, it may reduce the value of one or more of the contracts of long-term insurance effected by the insurer<sup>10</sup>. Any reduction is to be on such terms and subject to such conditions (if any) as the court thinks fit<sup>11</sup>. The court may, on the application of an official<sup>12</sup>, appoint an independent actuary to investigate the insurer's business so far as it consists of carrying out its contracts of long-term insurance and to report to the official: (a) on the desirability or otherwise of that part of the insurer's business being continued; and (b) on any reduction in the contracts of long-term insurance effected by the insurer that may be necessary for successful continuation of that part of the insurer's business<sup>13</sup>. The liquidator may make an application in the name of the insurer and on its behalf<sup>14</sup> without obtaining the permission that would otherwise be required<sup>15</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/H. INSURERS/507. Treatment of assets on winding up.

507. Treatment of assets on winding up.

The Treasury<sup>1</sup> may by regulations provide for the treatment of the assets of an insurer<sup>2</sup> on its winding up<sup>3</sup>. The regulations may, in particular, provide for: (1) assets representing a particular part of the insurer's business to be available only for meeting liabilities attributable to that part of the insurer's business<sup>4</sup>; (2) separate general meetings of the creditors to be held in respect of liabilities attributable to a particular part of the insurer's business<sup>5</sup>.

508. Winding-up rules.

Winding-up rules<sup>1</sup> may include provision: (1) for determining the amount of the liabilities of an insurer<sup>2</sup> to policyholders<sup>3</sup> of any class or description for the purpose of proof in a winding up<sup>4</sup>; and (2) generally for carrying into effect the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 relating to insolvency<sup>5</sup> with respect to the winding up of insurers<sup>6</sup>. Winding-up rules may, in particular, make provision for all or any of the following matters<sup>7</sup>:

- 1184 (a) the identification of assets and liabilities<sup>8</sup>;
- 1185 (b) the apportionment, between assets of different classes or descriptions, of:
(i) the costs, charges and expenses of the winding up; and (ii) any debts of the insurer of a specified<sup>9</sup> class or description<sup>10</sup>;
- 1186 (c) the determination of the amount of liabilities of a specified description<sup>11</sup>;
- 1187 (d) the application of assets for meeting liabilities of a specified description<sup>12</sup>;
- 1188 (e) the application of assets representing any excess of a specified description<sup>13</sup>.

1 'Winding-up rules' means rules made under the Insolvency Act 1986 s 411 (see COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY vol 7(4) (2004 Reissue) PARA 1041) (or the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989, SI 1989/2405 (NI 19), art 359); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 379(4). FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/509. Introduction.

I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY

509. Introduction.

Part VII of the Companies Act 1989<sup>1</sup> has effect for the purposes of safeguarding the operation of certain financial markets by provisions with respect to:

- 1189 (1) the insolvency, winding up or default of a person party<sup>2</sup> to transactions in the market<sup>3</sup>;

- 1190 (2) the effectiveness or enforcement of certain charges<sup>4</sup> given to secure obligations in connection with such transactions<sup>5</sup>; and 1191 (3) rights and remedies in relation to certain property provided as cover for margin<sup>6</sup> in relation to such transactions or subject to such a charge<sup>7</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>8</sup> may by regulations make such further provision as appears to him necessary or expedient for the purposes of Part VII of the Companies Act 1989<sup>9</sup>. Provision may, in particular, be made (a) for integrating the provisions of Part VII<sup>10</sup> with the general law of insolvency<sup>11</sup>; and (b) for adapting the provisions of Part VII in their application to overseas<sup>12</sup> investment exchanges and clearing houses<sup>13</sup>. Such regulations may add to, amend or repeal any of the provisions of Part VII or provide that those provisions have effect subject to such additions, exceptions or adaptations as are specified in the regulations<sup>14</sup>.

Regulations under Part VII of the Companies Act 1989 may make different provision for different cases and may contain such incidental, transitional and other supplementary provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient<sup>15</sup>. Regulations must be made by statutory instrument which are subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament<sup>16</sup>.

Provision has been made as to the application of Part VII of the Act in relation to system charges<sup>17</sup>.

1    Ie the Companies Act 1989 Pt VII (ss 154-191) (see PARA 510 et seq): see s 154.

2    Where a person enters into market contracts in more than one capacity, the provisions of the Companies Act 1989 Pt VII apply (subject as follows) as if the contracts entered into in each different capacity were entered into by different persons: s 187(1). As to the meaning of 'market contract' see PARA 510. References in Pt VII to a market contract to which a person is a party include (subject as follows, and unless the context otherwise requires) contracts to which he is party as agent: s 187(2). The Secretary of State may by regulations (1) modify or exclude the operation of s 187(1), (2) (s 187(3)(a)); and (2) make provision as to the circumstances in which a person is to be regarded for the purposes of those provisions as acting in different capacities (s 187(3)(b)). The functions of the Secretary of State were transferred to the Treasury by the Transfer of Functions (Financial Services) Order 1992, SI 1992/1315: see art 2(1)(c). See the Financial Markets and Insolvency Regulations 1991, SI 1991/880 (amended by SI 1992/716), made under (inter alia) the Companies Act 1989 s 187(3). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

3    Ie the Companies Act 1989 ss 155-172 (see PARAS 510 et seq): see s 154(a).

4    'Charge' means any form of security, including a mortgage: Companies Act 1989 s 190(1).

5    Ie the Companies Act 1989 ss 173-176 (see PARAS 527-530): see s 154(b).

6    In the Companies Act 1989 Pt VII the expressions 'margin' and 'cover for margin' have the same meaning: s 190(3).

7    Ie the Companies Act 1989 ss 177-181 (see PARAS 531-535): see s 154(c).

8    The functions of the Secretary of State are to be exercised jointly with the Treasury: see the Transfer of Functions (Financial Services) Order 1992, SI 1992/1315, art 4, Sch 2, para 7. See also PARA 3.

9    Companies Act 1989 s 185(1). See the Financial Markets and Insolvency Regulations 1991, SI 1991/880; the Financial Markets and Insolvency Regulations 1996, SI 1996/1469 (see note 17); the Financial Markets and Insolvency Regulations 1998, SI 1998/1748, made under (inter alia) the Companies Act 1989 ss 185, 186.

10   References in the Companies Act 1989 s 185 to the provisions of Part VII include any provision made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 301 (see PARA 720): Companies Act 1989 s 185(4) (added by SI 2001/3649).

510. Market contracts.

Part VII of the Companies Act 1989<sup>1</sup> applies to the following descriptions of contract connected with a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>2</sup>. The contracts are referred to in Part VII as 'market contracts'<sup>3</sup>. Subject to an exception<sup>4</sup>, in relation to a recognised investment exchange Part VII applies to:

- 1192 (1) contracts entered into by a member or designated non-member<sup>5</sup> of the exchange with a person other than the exchange which are either:
- 92
161. (a) contracts made on the exchange or on an exchange to whose undertaking the exchange has succeeded whether by amalgamation, merger or otherwise<sup>6</sup>; or
162. (b) contracts in the making of which the member or designated non-member was subject to the rules of the exchange or of an exchange to whose undertaking the exchange has succeeded whether by amalgamation, merger or otherwise<sup>7</sup>; and
- 93
- 1193 (2) contracts entered into by the exchange with its members for the purpose of enabling the rights and liabilities of that member under transactions in investments to be settled<sup>8</sup>.

In relation to a recognised clearing house, Part VII applies to contracts entered into by the clearing house with a member of the clearing house for the purpose of enabling the rights and liabilities of that member under transactions in investments to be settled<sup>9</sup>. The Secretary of State<sup>10</sup> may by regulations make further provision as to the contracts to be treated as 'market contracts', for the purposes of Part VII, in relation to a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>11</sup>.

1 In the Companies Act 1989 Pt VII (ss 154-191) (see PARAS 509, 511 et seq): see s 155(1).

2 Companies Act 1989 s 155(1). As to the meanings of 'recognised clearing house' and 'recognised investment exchange' see PARA 684, definitions applied by virtue of s 190(1) (amended by SI 2001/3649).

3 Companies Act 1989 s 155(1).

4 The Companies Act 1989 Pt VII does not apply to contracts falling within s 155(2)(a) (see the text and notes 5-7) where the exchange in question is a recognised overseas investment exchange: s 155(2A) (added by SI 1991/880). 'Overseas', in relation to an investment exchange or clearing house, means having its head office outside the United Kingdom: Companies Act 1989 s 190(1). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

5 'Designated non-member' means a person in respect of whom action may be taken under the default rules of the exchange but who is not a member of the exchange: Companies Act 1989 s 155(2) (substituted SI 1991/880). In the Companies Act 1989 Pt VII 'default rules' means rules of a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house which provide for the taking of action in the event of a person appearing to be unable, or likely to become unable, to meet his obligations in respect of one or more market contracts connected with the exchange or clearing house: s 188(1). If an exchange or clearing house takes action under its default rules in respect of a person, all subsequent proceedings under its rules for the purposes of or in connection with the settlement of market contracts to which the defaulter is a party must be treated as done under its default rules: s 188(4). In Pt VII 'default proceedings' means proceedings taken by a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house under its default rules: s 188(3). References in Pt VII to a 'defaulter' are to a person in respect of whom action has been taken by a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house under its default rules, whether by declaring him to be a defaulter or otherwise; and references in Pt VII to 'default' must be construed accordingly: s 188(2). References in Pt VII to settlement in relation to a market contract are to the discharge of the rights and liabilities of the parties to the contract, whether by performance, compromise or otherwise: s 190(2).

8 Companies Act 1989 s 155(2)(b) (s 155(2) as substituted (see note 5); and s 155(2)(b) further substituted by SI 1998/1748).

9 Companies Act 1989 s 155(3) (substituted by SI 1998/1748).

10 The functions of the Secretary of State were transferred to the Treasury by the Transfer of Functions (Financial Services) Order 1992, SI 1992/1315: see art 2(1)(c). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

11 Companies Act 1989 s 155(4). The regulations may add to, amend or repeal the provisions of s 155(2), and s 155(3): s 155(5). See the Financial Markets and Insolvency Regulations 1991, SI 1991/880; and PARA 509 note 2.

510 Market contracts

NOTE 5--In the definition of 'default rules', 'person' includes another recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house: Companies Act 1989 s 188(1) (amended by SI 2009/853).

TEXT AND NOTE 8--Head (2) amended; head (3) added as follows: (2) contracts entered into by the exchange, in its capacity as such, with a member of the exchange or with a recognised clearing house or with another recognised investment exchange for the purpose of enabling the rights and liabilities of that member or clearing house or other investment exchange under a transaction to be settled (Companies Act 1989 s 155(b) (substituted by SI 2009/853)); and (3) contracts entered into by the exchange with a member of the exchange or with a recognised clearing house or with another recognised investment exchange for the purpose of providing central counterparty clearing services to that member or clearing house or other investment exchange (Companies Act 1989 s 155(c) (added by SI 2009/853)).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/511. Change in default rules.

511. Change in default rules.

A recognised UK investment exchange<sup>1</sup> or recognised UK clearing house<sup>2</sup> must give the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> at least 14 days' notice of any proposal to amend, revoke or add to its default rules<sup>4</sup>; and the Authority may within 14 days from receipt of the notice direct the exchange or clearing house not to proceed with the proposal, in whole or in part<sup>5</sup>. Such a direction may be varied or revoked<sup>6</sup>. Any amendment or revocation of, or addition to, the default rules of an exchange or clearing house in breach of a direction under this provision is ineffective<sup>7</sup>.

1 'UK', in relation to an investment exchange or clearing house, means having its head office in the United Kingdom: Companies Act 1989 s 190(1). As to meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/512. Modifications of the law of insolvency.

512. Modifications of the law of insolvency.

Subject to specified provisions<sup>1</sup>, the general law of insolvency<sup>2</sup> has effect in relation to market contracts<sup>3</sup>, and action taken under the rules of a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>4</sup> with respect to such contracts<sup>5</sup>. So far as those provisions relate to insolvency proceedings in respect of a person other than a defaulter<sup>6</sup>, they apply in relation to:

- 1194 (1) proceedings in respect of a member or designated non-member<sup>7</sup> of a recognised investment exchange or a member of a recognised clearing house; and
- 1195 (2) proceedings in respect of a party<sup>8</sup> to a market contract begun<sup>9</sup> after a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house has taken action under its default rules<sup>10</sup> in relation to a person party to the contract as principal, but not in relation to any other insolvency proceedings, notwithstanding that rights or liabilities arising from market contracts fall to be dealt with in the proceedings<sup>11</sup>.

- 1 le subject to the provisions of the Companies Act 1989 ss 159-165 (see PARAS 513-519): see s 158(1).
- 2 References in the Companies Act 1989 Part VII (ss 154-191) to the law of insolvency include references to every provision made by or under the Insolvency Act 1986; and in relation to a building society references to insolvency law or to any provision of the Insolvency Act 1986 are to that law or provision as modified by the Building Societies Act 1986: Companies Act 1989 s 190(6). As to the Building Societies Act 1986 generally see PARA 1856 et seq.
- 3 As to the meaning of 'market contract' see PARA 510.
- 4 As to the meanings of 'recognised clearing house' and 'recognised investment exchange' see PARA 510 note 2.
- 5 Companies Act 1989 s 158(1). The Secretary of State may make further provision by regulations modifying the law of insolvency in relation to the matters mentioned in s 158(1): s 158(4). The functions of the Secretary of State are to be exercised jointly with the Treasury: see the Transfer of Functions (Financial Services) Order 1992, SI 1992/1315, art 4, Sch 2 para 7. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq. The regulations may add to, amend or repeal the provisions mentioned in the Companies Act 1989 s 158(1), and any other provision of Pt VII as it applies for the purposes of those provisions, or provide that those provisions have effect subject to such additions, exceptions or adaptations as are specified in the regulations: s 158(5). See the Financial Markets and Insolvency Regulations 1991, SI 1991/880; and PARA 509 note 2.
- 6 As to the meaning of 'defaulter' see PARA 510 note 5.
- 7 As to the meaning of 'designated non-member' see PARA 510 note 5.
- 8 As to parties to market contracts see PARA 509 note 2.
- 9 The reference in the Companies Act 1989 s 158(2)(b) (see head (2) in the text) to the beginning of insolvency proceedings is to (1) the presentation of a bankruptcy petition or a petition for sequestration of a person's estate (s 158(3)(a)); or (2) the application for an administration order or the presentation of a winding-up petition or the passing of a resolution for voluntary winding up (s 158(3)(b) (substituted by the Enterprise Act 2002 s 248(3), Sch 17 paras 43, 44(a))); or (3) the appointment of an administrative receiver (Companies Act 1989 s 158(3)(c)). See generally BANKRUPTCY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY; COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY. In s 158(3)(b) the reference to an application for an administration order must be taken to include a reference to:
  - 516 (a) in a case where an administrator is appointed under the Insolvency Act 1986 Sch B1 para 14 or 22 (appointment by floating charge holder, company or directors) (see COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY vol 7(3) (2004 Reissue) PARAS 228 et seq, 236 et seq) following filing with the court of a copy of a notice of intention to appoint under Sch B1 para 14 or 22, the filing of the copy of the notice (Companies Act 1989 s 158(3A)(a) (s 158(3A) added by the Enterprise Act 2002 s 248(3), Sch 17 paras 43, 44(a))); and
  - 517 (b) in a case where an administrator is appointed under either of the Insolvency Act 1986 Sch B1 para 14 or 22 without a copy of a notice of intention to appoint having been filed with the court, the appointment of the administrator (Companies Act 1989 s 158(3A)(b) (as so added)).

UPDATE

512 Modifications of the law of insolvency

TEXT AND NOTE 11--Head (1) now proceedings in respect of a recognised investment exchange or a member or designated non-member of a recognised investment exchange, and proceedings in respect of a recognised clearing house or a member of a recognised clearing house: Companies Act 1989 s 158(2) (amended by SI 2009/853).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/513. Proceedings of exchange or clearing house take precedence over insolvency procedures.

513. Proceedings of exchange or clearing house take precedence over insolvency procedures.

None of the following must be regarded as to any extent invalid at law on the ground of inconsistency with the law relating to the distribution of the assets of a person on bankruptcy, winding up or sequestration<sup>1</sup>, or in the administration of an insolvent estate:

- 1196 (1) a market contract<sup>2</sup>;
- 1197 (2) the default rules<sup>3</sup> of a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>4</sup>;
- 1198 (3) the rules of a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house as to the settlement<sup>5</sup> of market contracts not dealt with under its default rules<sup>6</sup>.

The powers of a relevant office-holder<sup>7</sup> in his capacity as such, and the powers of the court under the Insolvency Act 1986 must not be exercised in such a way as to prevent or interfere with:

- 1199 (a) the settlement in accordance with the rules of a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house of a market contract not dealt with under its default rules<sup>8</sup>; or
- 1200 (b) any action taken under the default rules of such an exchange or clearing house<sup>9</sup>.

A debt or other liability arising out of a market contract which is the subject of default proceedings<sup>10</sup> may not be proved in a winding up or bankruptcy until the completion of the default proceedings<sup>11</sup>. A debt or other liability which by virtue of this provision may not be proved or claimed cannot be taken into account for the purposes of any set-off until the completion of the default proceedings<sup>12</sup>. However, prior to the completion of default proceedings:

- 1201 (i) where it appears to the chairman of the meeting of creditors that a sum will be certified<sup>13</sup> to be payable, the above provision cannot prevent any proof or claim including or consisting of an estimate of that sum which has been lodged from being admitted for the purpose only of determining the entitlement of a creditor to vote at a meeting of creditors<sup>14</sup>; and
- 1202 (ii) a creditor whose claim or proof has been lodged and admitted for the purpose of determining the entitlement of a creditor to vote at a meeting of creditors and which has not been subsequently wholly withdrawn, disallowed or rejected, is eligible as a creditor to be a member of a liquidation committee or, in bankruptcy proceedings in England and Wales, a creditors' committee<sup>15</sup>.

<sup>1</sup> As to the meaning of 'sequestration' see PARA 512 note 9. See also generally BANKRUPTCY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY; COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY.

- 2 Companies Act 1989 s 159(1)(a). As to the meaning of 'market contract' see PARA 510.
- 3 As to the meaning of 'default rules' see PARA 510 note 5.
- 4 Companies Act 1989 s 159(1)(b). As to the meanings of 'recognised clearing house' and 'recognised investment exchange' see PARA 510 note 2.
- 5 As to 'settlement' in relation to a market contract see PARA 510 note 5.
- 6 Companies Act 1989 s 159(1)(c).
- 7 The following are relevant office-holders for the purposes of the Companies Act 1989 Pt VII (ss 154-191) (see PARAS 509-512, 514 et seq):

- 518 (1) the official receiver (s 189(1)(a));
- 519 (2) any person acting in relation to a company as its liquidator, provisional liquidator, administrator or administrative receiver (s 189(1)(b));
- 520 (3) any person acting in relation to an individual as his trustee in bankruptcy or interim receiver of his property (s 189(1)(c));
- 521 (4) any person acting as administrator of an insolvent estate of a deceased person (s 189(1)(d)).

In s 189(1)(b) 'company' means any company, society, association, partnership or other body which may be wound up under the Insolvency Act 1986: Companies Act 1989 s 189(2). 'Administrative receiver' has the meaning given by the Insolvency Act 1986 s 251 (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 1337): Companies Act 1989 s 190(1).

- 8 Companies Act 1989 s 159(2)(a).
- 9 Companies Act 1989 s 159(2)(b). This does not prevent a relevant office-holder from afterwards seeking to recover any amount under s 163(4) (see PARA 517) or 164(4) (see PARA 518) or prevent the court from afterwards making any such order or decree as is mentioned in s 165(1) (see PARA 519) (but subject to s 165(3), (4)): s 159(2). Nothing in the following provisions of Pt VII may be construed as affecting the generality of the above provisions: s 159(3).
- 10 As to the meaning of 'default proceedings' see PARA 510 note 5.
- 11 Companies Act 1989 s 159(4). For the purposes of s 159(4), (4A) the default proceedings must be taken to be completed in relation to a person when a report is made under s 162 (see PARA 516) stating the sum (if any) certified to be due to or from him: s 159(5) (amended by SI 1991/880).
- 12 Companies Act 1989 s 159(4).
- 13 le under the Companies Act 1989 s 162(1): see PARA 516.
- 14 Companies Act 1989 s 159(4A)(a) (s 159(4A) added by SI 1991/880).
- 15 Companies Act 1989 s 159(4A)(b) (as added: see note 14).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/514. Duty to give assistance for purposes of default proceedings.

514. Duty to give assistance for purposes of default proceedings.

It is the duty of any person who has or had control of any assets of a defaulter<sup>1</sup>, and any person who has or had control of any documents<sup>2</sup> of or relating to a defaulter, to give a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>3</sup> such assistance as it may reasonably require for the purposes of its default proceedings<sup>4</sup>. This applies notwithstanding any duty of that person under the enactments relating to insolvency<sup>5</sup>. A person must not under this provision be required to provide any information or produce any document which he would be entitled to refuse to provide or produce on grounds of legal professional privilege in proceedings in the High Court<sup>6</sup>. Where original documents are supplied in pursuance of this provision, the exchange or clearing house must return them forthwith after the completion of the relevant default proceedings, and must in the meantime allow reasonable access to them to the person by whom they were supplied and to any person who would be entitled to have access to them if they were still in the control of the person by whom they were supplied<sup>7</sup>. The expenses of a relevant office-holder<sup>8</sup> in giving assistance under this provision are recoverable as part of the expenses incurred by him in the discharge of his duties; and he cannot be required under this provision to take any action which involves expenses which cannot be so recovered, unless the exchange or clearing house undertakes to meet them<sup>9</sup>. There must be treated as expenses of his such reasonable sums as he may determine in respect of time spent in giving the assistance, and for the purpose of determining the priority in which his expenses are payable out of the assets, sums in respect of time spent must be treated as his remuneration and other sums must be treated as his disbursements<sup>10</sup>. The Secretary of State<sup>11</sup> may by regulations make further provision as to the duties of persons to give assistance to a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house for the purposes of its default proceedings, and the duties of the exchange or clearing house with respect to information supplied to it<sup>12</sup>.

515. Supplementary provisions as to default proceedings.

If the court is satisfied on an application by a relevant office-holder<sup>1</sup> that a party<sup>2</sup> to a market contract with a defaulter<sup>3</sup> intends to dissipate or apply his assets so as to prevent the office-holder recovering such sums as may become due upon the completion of the default proceedings<sup>4</sup>, the court may grant such interlocutory relief as it thinks fit<sup>5</sup>. A liquidator or trustee of a defaulter cannot (1) declare or pay any dividend to the creditors; or (2) return any capital to contributories, unless he has retained what he reasonably considers to be an adequate reserve in respect of any claims arising as a result of the default proceedings of the exchange or clearing house concerned<sup>6</sup>. The court may on an application by a relevant office-holder make such order as it thinks fit altering or dispensing from compliance with such of the duties of his office as are affected by the fact that default proceedings are pending or could be taken, or have been or could have been taken<sup>7</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/516. Duty to report on completion of default proceedings.

516. Duty to report on completion of default proceedings.

Subject to the following provision a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>1</sup> must, on the completion of proceedings under its default rules<sup>2</sup>, report to the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> on its proceedings stating in respect of each creditor or debtor the sum certified by them to be payable from or to the defaulter<sup>4</sup> or, as the case may be, the fact that no sum is payable<sup>5</sup>. A recognised overseas<sup>6</sup> investment exchange or recognised overseas clearing house must not be subject to the obligation under the above provision unless it has been notified by the Authority that a report is required for the purpose of insolvency proceedings in any part of the United Kingdom<sup>7</sup>. The exchange or clearing house may make a single report or may make reports from time to time as proceedings are completed with respect to the transactions affecting particular persons<sup>8</sup>. The exchange or clearing house must supply a copy of every report under this provision to the defaulter and to any relevant office-holder<sup>9</sup> acting in relation to him or his estate<sup>10</sup>. When a report under this provision is received by the Authority, it must publish notice of that fact in such manner as it thinks appropriate for bringing the report to the attention of creditors and debtors of the defaulter<sup>11</sup>. An exchange or clearing house must make available for inspection by a creditor or debtor of the defaulter so much of any report by it under this provision as relates to the sum (if any) certified to be due to or from him or the method by which that sum was determined<sup>12</sup>. Any such person may require the exchange or clearing house, on payment of such reasonable fee as the exchange or clearing house may determine, to provide him with a copy of any part of a report which he is entitled to inspect<sup>13</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/517. Net sum payable on completion of default proceedings.

517. Net sum payable on completion of default proceedings.

The following provisions apply with respect to the net sum certified by a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>1</sup>, upon proceedings under its default rules<sup>2</sup> being duly completed in accordance with Part VII of the Companies Act 1989<sup>3</sup>, to be payable by or to a defaulter<sup>4</sup>. If, in England and Wales, a bankruptcy or winding-up order has been made, or a resolution for voluntary winding up has been passed, the debt:

1203 (1) is provable in the bankruptcy or winding up or, as the case may be, is payable to the relevant office-holder<sup>5</sup>; and

1204 (2) must be taken into account, where appropriate, under the Insolvency Act 1986<sup>6</sup> or the corresponding provision applicable in the case of winding up, in the same way as a debt due before the commencement of the bankruptcy, the date on which the body corporate goes into liquidation<sup>7</sup> or, in the case of a partnership, the date of the winding-up order<sup>8</sup>. However, where (or to the extent that) a sum is taken into account by virtue of the above provision which arises from a contract entered into at a time when the creditor had notice:

1205 (a) that a bankruptcy petition was pending; or

1206 (b) that a meeting of creditors had been summoned under the Insolvency Act 1986<sup>9</sup> or that a winding-up petition was pending, the value of any profit to him arising from the sum being so taken into account (or being so taken into account to that extent) is recoverable from him by the relevant office-holder unless the court directs otherwise<sup>10</sup>. The above provision does not apply in relation to a sum arising from a contract effected under the default rules of a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>11</sup>. Any sum so recoverable ranks for priority, in the event of the insolvency of the person from whom it is due, immediately before preferential debts<sup>12</sup>.

517 Net sum payable on completion of default proceedings

TEXT AND NOTES 5-8--Companies Act 1989 s 163(2) amended so as to also apply to administration orders: SI 2009/853. A reference to the making of an administration order includes a reference to the appointment of an administrator under the Insolvency Act 1986 Schedule B1 para 14 or 22: Companies Act 1989 s 163(3A) (added by SI 2009/853).

TEXT AND NOTE 10--Add head (c) that an application for an administration order was pending or that any person had given notice of intention to appoint an administrator: Companies Act 1989 s 163(4) (amended by SI 2009/853).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/518. Disclaimer of property, rescission of contracts, etc.

518. Disclaimer of property, rescission of contracts, etc.

The power to disclaim onerous property and the court's power to order the rescission of contracts, etc granted by certain specified provisions of the Insolvency Act 1986<sup>1</sup> do not apply in relation to:

- 1207 (1) a market contract<sup>2</sup>; or
- 1208 (2) a contract effected by the exchange or clearing house for the purpose of realising property provided as margin<sup>3</sup> in relation to market contracts<sup>4</sup>.

The provisions of the Insolvency Act 1986 relating to the avoidance of property dispositions effected after the commencement of winding up or the presentation of a bankruptcy petition<sup>5</sup> do not apply to:

- 1209 (a) a market contract, or any disposition of property in pursuance of such a contract<sup>6</sup>;
- 1210 (b) the provision of margin in relation to market contracts<sup>7</sup>;

- 1211 (c) a contract effected by the exchange or clearing house for the purpose of realising property provided as margin in relation to a market contract, or any disposition of property in pursuance of such a contract<sup>8</sup>; or
- 1212 (d) any disposition of property in accordance with the rules of the exchange or clearing house as to the application of property provided as margin<sup>9</sup>.

However, where:

- 1213 (i) a market contract is entered into by a person who has notice<sup>10</sup> that a petition has been presented for the winding up or bankruptcy of the estate of the other party to the contract; or
- 1214 (ii) margin in relation to a market contract is accepted by a person who has notice that such a petition has been presented in relation to the person by whom or on whose behalf the margin is provided, the value of any profit to him arising from the contract or, as the case may be, the amount or value of the margin is recoverable from him by the relevant office-holder<sup>11</sup> unless the court directs otherwise<sup>12</sup>. Head (i) above does not apply where the person entering into the contract is a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>13</sup> acting in accordance with its rules, or where the contract is effected under the default rules<sup>14</sup> of such an exchange or clearing house; but head (ii) above applies in relation to the provision of margin in relation to such a contract<sup>15</sup>.

UPDATE

519 Adjustment of prior transactions

TEXT AND NOTES 1-6--The provision also applies to (1) the provision of default fund contribution to a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house; (2) any contract effected by a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house for the purpose of realising the property provided as default fund contribution; and (3) any disposition of property in accordance with the rules of the recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house as to the application of property provided as default fund contribution: Companies Act 1989 s 165(5) (added by SI 2009/853). As to the meaning of 'default fund contribution' see PARA 518.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/520. Powers of Secretary of State to give directions.

520. Powers of Secretary of State to give directions.

The powers conferred by the following provision are exercisable in relation to a recognised UK<sup>1</sup> investment exchange or recognised UK clearing house<sup>2</sup>. Where in any case an exchange or clearing house has not taken action under its default rules<sup>3</sup> (1) if it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup> that it could take action, the Authority may direct it to do so<sup>5</sup>; and (2) if it appears to the Authority that it is proposing to take or may take action, the Authority may direct it not to do so<sup>6</sup>. Before giving such a direction the Authority must consult the exchange or clearing house in question; and it cannot give a direction unless it is satisfied, in the light of that consultation:

1215 (a) in the case of a direction to take action, that failure to take action would involve undue risk to investors or other participants in the market<sup>7</sup>; or

1216 (b) in the case of a direction not to take action, that the taking of action would be premature or otherwise undesirable in the interests of investors or other participants in the market<sup>8</sup>.

A direction must specify the grounds on which it is given<sup>9</sup>. A direction not to take action may be expressed to have effect until the giving of a further direction (which may be a direction to take action or simply revoking the earlier direction)<sup>10</sup>. No direction must be given not to take action if, in relation to the person in question:

- 1217 (i) a bankruptcy order or an award of sequestration<sup>11</sup> of his estate has been made, or an interim receiver has been appointed; or
- 1218 (ii) a winding up order has been made, a resolution for voluntary winding up has been passed or an administrator, administrative receiver<sup>12</sup> or provisional liquidator has been appointed, and any previous direction not to take action must cease to have effect on the making or passing of any such order, award or appointment<sup>13</sup>. Where an exchange or clearing house has taken or been directed to take action under its default rules, the Authority may direct it to do or not to do such things (being things which it has power to do under its default rules) as are specified in the direction<sup>14</sup>. The Authority cannot give such a direction unless it is satisfied that the direction will not impede or frustrate the proper and efficient conduct of the default proceedings<sup>15</sup>. A direction under this provision is enforceable, on the application of the Authority, by injunction; and where an exchange or clearing house has not complied with a direction, the court may make such order as it thinks fit for restoring the position to what it would have been if the direction had been complied with<sup>16</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/521. Application to determine whether default proceedings to be taken.

521. Application to determine whether default proceedings to be taken.

Where there has been made or passed in relation to a member or designated non-member<sup>1</sup> of a recognised investment exchange or a member of a recognised clearing house<sup>2</sup>:

- 1219 (1) a bankruptcy order or an award of sequestration<sup>3</sup> of his estate, or an order appointing an interim receiver of his property; or
- 1220 (2) an administration<sup>4</sup> or winding up order, a resolution for voluntary winding up or an order appointing a provisional liquidator, and the exchange or clearing house has not taken action under its default rules<sup>5</sup> in consequence of the order, award or resolution or the matters giving rise to it, a relevant office-holder<sup>6</sup> appointed by, or in consequence of or in connection with, the order, award or resolution may apply to the Financial Services Authority<sup>7</sup>. The application must specify the exchange or clearing house concerned and the grounds on which it is made<sup>8</sup>. On receipt of the application the Authority must notify the exchange or clearing house, and unless within three business days<sup>9</sup> after the day on which the notice is received the exchange or clearing house (a) takes action under its default rules; or (b) notifies the Authority that it proposes to do so forthwith, then, subject as follows, certain specified provisions of the Companies Act 1989<sup>10</sup> do not apply in relation to market contracts<sup>11</sup> to which the member or designated non-member in question is a party<sup>12</sup> or to anything done by the exchange or clearing house for the purposes of, or in connection with, the settlement<sup>13</sup> of any such contract<sup>14</sup>. If the exchange or clearing house notifies the Authority that it proposes to take action under its default rules forthwith, it must do so; and that duty is enforceable, on the application of the Authority, by injunction<sup>15</sup>.

UPDATE

521 Application to determine whether default proceedings to be taken

TEXT AND NOTES 1-7--Companies Act 1989 s 167(1) substituted; s 167(1A), (1B) added: SI 2009/853. The provisions of s 167 apply where a relevant insolvency event has occurred in the case of (1) a recognised investment exchange or a member or designated non-member of a recognised investment exchange; or (2) a recognised clearing house or a member of a recognised clearing house (s 167(1)). A 'relevant insolvency event' occurs where (a) a bankruptcy order is made; (b) an award of sequestration is made; (c) an order appointing an interim receiver is made; (d) an administration or winding up order is made; (e) an administrator is appointed under to the Insolvency Act 1986 Sch B1 para 14 or 22; (f) a resolution for voluntary winding up is passed, or (g) an order appointing a provisional liquidator is made (s 167(1A)). Where in relation to a person in default a recognised investment exchange or a recognised clearing house ('the responsible exchange or clearing house') has power under its default rules to take action in consequence of the relevant insolvency event or the matters giving rise to it, but has not done so, a relevant office-holder appointed in connection with or in consequence of the relevant insolvency event may apply to the Financial Services Authority (s 167(1B)). 'The person in default' means the investment exchange, member, designated non-member or clearing house in whose case a relevant insolvency event has occurred (s 167(1)).

522. Supplementary provisions.

Certain specified provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>1</sup> apply in relation to a failure by a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>2</sup> to comply with an obligation under Part VII of the Companies Act 1989<sup>3</sup> as to a failure to comply with an obligation under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>4</sup>. Where the recognition of an investment exchange or clearing house is revoked under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>5</sup>, the appropriate authority<sup>6</sup> may, before or after the revocation order, give such directions as it thinks fit with respect to the continued application of the provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1989, with such exceptions, additions and adaptations as may be specified in the direction, in relation to cases where a relevant event of any description specified in the directions occurred before the revocation order takes effect<sup>7</sup>. Regulations under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>8</sup> (service of notices) may make provision in relation to a notice, direction or other document required or authorised by or under Part VII of the Companies Act 1989 to be given to or served on any person other than the Treasury or the Financial Services Authority<sup>9</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/523. Certain overseas exchanges and clearing houses.

523. Certain overseas exchanges and clearing houses.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> and the Treasury may by regulations provide that Part VII of the Companies Act 1989<sup>2</sup> applies in relation to contracts connected with an overseas<sup>3</sup> investment exchange or clearing house which is approved by the Treasury in accordance with such procedures as may be specified in the regulations, as satisfying such requirements as may be so specified, as it applies in relation to contracts connected with a recognised investment exchange or clearing house<sup>4</sup>. The Treasury must not approve an overseas investment exchange or clearing house unless satisfied:

- 1221 (1) that the rules and practices of the body, together with the law of the country in which the body's head office is situated, provide adequate procedures for dealing with the default<sup>5</sup> of persons party<sup>6</sup> to contracts connected with the body<sup>7</sup>; and
- 1222 (2) that it is otherwise appropriate to approve the body<sup>8</sup>.

The regulations may apply in relation to the approval of a body under this provision such of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as the Secretary of State considers appropriate<sup>9</sup>. The Secretary of State may make regulations which, in relation to a body which is so approved:

- 1223 (a) apply such of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as the Secretary of State considers appropriate; and
- 1224 (b) provide that the provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1989 apply with such exceptions, additions and adaptations as appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient; and different provision may be made with respect to different bodies or descriptions of body<sup>10</sup>.

Where the regulations apply any provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, they may provide that those provisions apply with such exceptions, additions and adaptations as appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient<sup>11</sup>.

The above provisions may be applied to further descriptions of property in certain circumstances<sup>12</sup>.

1 The functions of the Secretary of State, exercised under the Companies Act 1989 s 170(1) (as amended: see note 4), were transferred to the Treasury, by the Transfer of Functions (Financial Services) Order 1992, SI 1992/1315: see art 2(1)(c). The remainder are to be exercised jointly with the Treasury: see art 4, Sch 2, para 7. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

524. Settlement arrangements provided by the Bank of England.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by regulations provide that Part VII of the Companies Act 1989<sup>2</sup> applies to contracts of any specified description in relation to which settlement<sup>3</sup> arrangements are provided by the Bank of England<sup>4</sup>, as it applies to contracts connected with a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>5</sup>. Regulations under this provision may provide that the provisions of Part VII of the Companies Act 1989 apply with such exceptions, additions and adaptations as appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient<sup>6</sup>. Before making any regulations under this provision, the Secretary of State and the Treasury must consult the Bank of England<sup>7</sup>.

The above provisions may be applied to further descriptions of property in certain circumstances<sup>8</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/525. Settlement finality in payment and securities settlement systems.

525. Settlement finality in payment and securities settlement systems.

Provision is made by regulations implementing certain European legislation<sup>1</sup> on settlement finality and payment systems<sup>2</sup>. The protection afforded by the regulations applies to systems which have been designated by means of a designation order made by the Bank of England or the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup>.

Modifications are made to the law of insolvency in so far as it applies to transfer orders effected through a designated system and to collateral security provided in connection with participation in a designated system<sup>4</sup>. In particular, provision is made to the effect that proceedings of a designated system take precedence over general insolvency proceedings<sup>5</sup>. The modifications to the law of insolvency cease to apply to a transfer order which is entered into a designated system after insolvency, unless the transfer order is carried out on the same day as the insolvency and the relevant persons do not have notice of the insolvency at the time of settlement<sup>6</sup>. Certain provisions of the Companies Act 1989<sup>7</sup> are disapplied to a market contract which is also a transfer order effected through a designated system, and a market charge which is also a collateral security charge<sup>8</sup>.

Where a court makes an insolvency order against a participant in a designated system, it must notify both the relevant designated system and the relevant designating authority that such an order has been made<sup>9</sup>.

The law governing the rights of a person as a holder of collateral security when their entitlement is recorded in a register, account or centralised deposit system is specified as the law of the EEA state (or part of the EEA state) where the register, account or centralised deposit system is located<sup>10</sup>. Any other rights or obligations arising from, or in connection with, participation in a system designated under the European Directive are to be governed by the law governing the system<sup>11</sup>. Further provision is made in relation to insolvency proceedings in other jurisdictions<sup>12</sup>, and systems designated in other EEA states or Gibraltar<sup>13</sup>.

NOTE 3--SI 1999/2979 reg 6 further amended: SI 2009/1972.

NOTES 4, 5--SI 1999/2979 regs 14-16, 19 amended: SI 2009/1972.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/526. Financial collateral arrangements.

526. Financial collateral arrangements.

Certain formalities which apply to the creation of guarantees and security do not apply to financial collateral arrangements<sup>1</sup>.

In addition if a security financial collateral arrangement<sup>2</sup> provides for the collateral-taker to use and dispose of any financial collateral provided under the arrangement, as if it were the owner of it, the collateral-taker may do so in accordance with the terms of the arrangement<sup>3</sup>.

If a collateral-taker exercises such a right of use, it is obliged to replace the original financial collateral by transferring equivalent financial collateral on or before the due date for the performance of the relevant financial obligations covered by the arrangement or, if the arrangement so provides, it may set off the value of the equivalent financial collateral against or apply it in discharge of the relevant financial obligations in accordance with the terms of the arrangement<sup>4</sup>. The equivalent financial collateral which is transferred in discharge of an obligation as so described<sup>5</sup>, is subject to the same terms of the security financial collateral arrangement as the original financial collateral was subject to and is treated as having been provided under the security financial collateral arrangement at the same time as the original financial collateral was first provided<sup>6</sup>.

If a collateral-taker has an outstanding obligation to replace the original financial collateral with equivalent financial collateral when an enforcement event<sup>7</sup> occurs, that obligation may be the subject of a close-out netting provision<sup>8</sup>.

Where a legal or equitable mortgage is the security interest created or arising under a security financial collateral arrangement on terms that include a power for the collateral-taker to appropriate the collateral, the collateral-taker may exercise that power in accordance with the terms of the security financial collateral arrangement, without any order for foreclosure from the courts<sup>9</sup>.

Where a collateral-taker exercises a power contained in a security financial collateral arrangement to appropriate the financial collateral the collateral-taker must value the financial collateral in accordance with the terms of the arrangement and in any event in a commercially reasonable manner<sup>10</sup>.

Where a collateral-taker exercises such a power and the value of the financial collateral appropriated differs from the amount of the relevant financial obligations, then as the case may be, either (1) the collateral-taker must account to the collateral-provider for the amount by which the value of the financial collateral exceeds the relevant financial obligations<sup>11</sup>; or (2) the collateral-provider will remain liable to the collateral-taker for any amount whereby the value of the financial collateral is less than the relevant financial obligations<sup>12</sup>.

1 See the Financial Collateral Arrangements (No 2) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3226, reg 4. 'Financial collateral arrangement' means a title transfer financial collateral arrangement or a security financial collateral arrangement, whether or not these are covered by a master agreement or general terms and conditions: reg 3.

'Title transfer financial collateral arrangement' means an agreement or arrangement, including a repurchase agreement, evidenced in writing, where (1) the purpose of the agreement or arrangement is to secure or otherwise cover the relevant financial obligations owed to the collateral-taker; (2) the collateral-provider transfers legal and beneficial ownership in financial collateral to a collateral-taker on terms that when the relevant financial obligations are discharged the collateral-taker must transfer legal and beneficial ownership of equivalent financial collateral to the collateral-provider; and (3) the collateral-provider and the collateral-taker are both non-natural persons: reg 3. 'Relevant financial obligations' means the obligations which are secured or otherwise covered by a financial collateral arrangement, and such obligations may consist of or include present or future, actual or contingent or prospective obligations (including such obligations arising under a master agreement or similar arrangement; obligations owed to the collateral-taker by a person other than the collateral-provider; obligations of a specified class or kind arising from time to time: reg 3. 'Security financial collateral arrangement' means an agreement or arrangement, evidenced in writing, where: (a) the purpose of the agreement or arrangement is to secure the relevant financial obligations owed to the collateral-taker; (b) the collateral-provider creates or there arises a security interest in financial collateral to secure those obligations; (c) the financial collateral is delivered, transferred, held, registered or otherwise designated so as to be in the possession or under the control of the collateral-taker or a person acting on its behalf; any right of the collateral-provider to substitute equivalent financial collateral or withdraw excess financial collateral does not prevent the financial collateral being in the possession or under the control of the collateral-taker; and (d) the collateral-provider and the collateral-taker are both non-natural persons: Financial Collateral Arrangements (No 2) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3226, reg 3.

'Security interest' means any legal or equitable interest or any right in security, other than a title transfer financial collateral arrangement, created or otherwise arising by way of security including (i) a pledge; (ii) a mortgage; (iii) a fixed charge; (iv) a charge created as a floating charge where the financial collateral charged is delivered, transferred, held, registered or otherwise designated so as to be in the possession or under the control of the collateral-taker or a person acting on its behalf; any right of the collateral-provider to substitute equivalent financial collateral or withdraw excess financial collateral does not prevent the financial collateral being in the possession or under the control of the collateral-taker; or (v) a lien: reg 3.

'Financial collateral' means either cash or financial instruments: reg 3. 'Cash' means money in any currency, credited to an account, or a similar claim for repayment of money and includes money market deposits and sums due or payable to, or received between the parties in connection with the operation of a financial collateral arrangement or a close-out netting provision: reg 3.

'Financial instruments' means (A) shares in companies and other securities equivalent to shares in companies; (B) bonds and other forms of instruments giving rise to or acknowledging indebtedness if these are tradeable on the capital market; and (c) any other securities which are normally dealt in and which give the right to acquire any such shares, bonds, instruments or other securities by subscription, purchase or exchange or which give rise to a cash settlement (excluding instruments of payment); and includes units of a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (see PARA 603), eligible debt securities within the meaning of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3755 (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 421 et seq), money market instruments, claims relating to or rights in or in respect of any of the financial instruments included in this definition and any rights, privileges or benefits attached to or arising from any such financial instruments: Financial Collateral Arrangements (No 2) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3226, reg 3.

'Close-out netting provision' means a term of a financial collateral arrangement, or of an arrangement of which a financial collateral arrangement forms part, or any legislative provision under which on the occurrence of an enforcement event, whether through the operation of netting or set-off or otherwise (aa) the obligations of the parties are accelerated to become immediately due and expressed as an obligation to pay an amount representing the original obligation's estimated current value or replacement cost, or are terminated and replaced by an obligation to pay such an amount; or (bb) an account is taken of what is due from each party to the other in respect of such obligations and a net sum equal to the balance of the account is payable by the party from whom the larger amount is due to the other party: reg 3.

'Equivalent financial collateral' means firstly in relation to cash, a payment of the same amount and in the same currency; and secondly in relation to financial instruments, financial instruments of the same issuer or debtor, forming part of the same issue or class and of the same nominal amount, currency and description or, where the financial collateral arrangement provides for the transfer of other assets following the occurrence of any event relating to or affecting any financial instruments provided as financial collateral, those other assets; and the expression includes the original financial collateral provided under the arrangement: reg 3.

'Non-natural person' means any corporate body, unincorporated firm, partnership or body with legal personality except an individual, including any such entity constituted under the law of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom or any such entity constituted under international law: reg 3. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

In particular the following provisions are rendered inapplicable: the Statute of Frauds (1677) s 4 (which prohibits an action on a guarantee unless in writing and signed by the defendant) (see PARA 1052); the Law of Property Act 1925 s 53(1)(c) (requiring a disposition of an equitable interest to be in writing and signed) (see PARA 1622); the Companies Act 1985 s 395 (prospectively repealed) (providing that certain charges are void unless registered) (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 1296 et seq) (as to replacement provisions see the Companies Act 2006 ss 860(1), 861(5), 870(1), 874); and the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1967 s 4 (requiring late filing of certain information) (see PARA 2454): see the Financial Collateral Arrangements (No 2) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3226, reg 4(1)-(2), (4)-(5).

526 Financial collateral arrangements

TEXT AND NOTES--As from a day to be appointed, the Treasury may make regulations about financial collateral arrangements: Banking Act 2009 s 255(1). 'Financial collateral arrangements' are arrangements under which financial collateral is used as security in respect of a loan or other liability; and for that purpose (1) collateral may be in cash, securities or any other form; (2) use as security may involve transfer of the collateral or the creation or transfer of any kind of right, interest or charge (fixed or floating) in respect of it; and (3) in particular, use as security can include use under arrangements of a kind described commercially as 'title transfer financial collateral arrangements': Banking Act 2009 s 255(2). The regulations may make any provision that the Treasury thinks necessary or desirable for the purpose of, or in connection with, implementation of the European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/47 (but are not restricted to provision required in connection with Directive 2002/47), and may make any provision that the Treasury thinks necessary or desirable for the purpose of enabling financial collateral arrangements, irrespective of whether they have an international element, to be commercially useful and effective: Banking Act 2009 s 255(3). The regulations may do anything done or purported to be done by SI 2003/3226: Banking Act 2009 s 255(5)(a). See further the Banking Act 2009 s 256.

NOTE 3--The application of the Law of Property Act 1925 s 53(1)(c) to dispositions of units in unit trust schemes is modified so as to make transfers of such units possible by electronic communication: see Unit Trusts (Electronic Communications) Order 2009, SI 2009/555.

NOTE 9--See Cukurova Finance International Ltd v Alfa Telecom Turkey Ltd [2009] UKPC 19, [2009] 3 All ER 849 (commercial practicalities require that there should be an overt act evincing the intention to exercise a power of appropriation, communicated to the collateral-provider).

527. Market charges.

In Part VII of the Companies Act 1989<sup>1</sup> 'market charge' means a charge<sup>2</sup>, whether fixed or floating, granted:

- 1225 (1) in favour of a recognised investment exchange<sup>3</sup>, for the purpose of securing debts or liabilities arising in connection with the settlement<sup>4</sup> of market contracts<sup>5</sup>;
- 1226 (2) in favour of The Stock Exchange<sup>6</sup>, for the purpose of securing debts or liabilities arising in connection with short term certificates<sup>7</sup>;
- 1227 (3) in favour of a recognised clearing house<sup>8</sup>, for the purpose of securing debts or liabilities arising in connection with their ensuring the performance of market contracts<sup>9</sup>; or
- 1228 (4) in favour of a person who agrees to make payments as a result of the transfer<sup>10</sup> or allotment of specified securities<sup>11</sup> made through the medium of a computer-based system established by the Bank of England and The Stock Exchange, for the purpose of securing debts or liabilities of the transferee or allottee arising in connection therewith<sup>12</sup>.

Where a charge is granted partly for purposes specified in head (1), (2), (3) or (4) above and partly for other purposes, it is a 'market charge' so far as it has effect for the specified purposes<sup>13</sup>. The Secretary of State<sup>14</sup> may by regulations make further provision as to the charges granted in favour of any such person as is mentioned in head (1), (2) or (3) above which are to be treated as 'market charges' for the purposes of Part VII; and the regulations may add to, amend or repeal the above provisions<sup>15</sup>. The regulations may provide that a charge must or must not be treated as a market charge if or to the extent that it secures obligations of a specified description, is a charge over property of a specified description or contains provisions of a specified description<sup>16</sup>. Before making such regulations in relation to charges granted in favour of a person within head (3) above the Secretary of State and the Treasury must consult the Bank of England<sup>17</sup>.

UPDATE

528 Modifications of the law of insolvency

NOTE 5--SI 1991/880 reg 7 further amended: SI 2009/853.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/529. Administration orders, etc.

529. Administration orders, etc.

Certain specified provisions of the Insolvency Act 1986 do not apply in relation to a market charge<sup>1</sup>. However, where a market charge falls to be enforced after the occurrence of an event to which the following provision applies, and there exists another charge over some or all of the same property ranking in priority to or pari passu with the market charge, on the application of any person interested the court may order that there must be taken after enforcement of the market charge such steps as the court may direct for the purpose of ensuring that the chargee under the other charge is not prejudiced by the enforcement of the market charge<sup>2</sup>. This provision applies to (1) making an administration application<sup>3</sup>; (2) appointing an administrator<sup>4</sup>; (3) filing with the court a copy of notice of intention to appoint an administrator<sup>5</sup>.

1 In the Insolvency Act 1986 s 43 (power of administrative receiver to dispose of charged property) (see COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY vol 7(3) (2004 Reissue) PARA 398), Sch B1 para 41(2) (receiver to vacate office at request of administrator) (see COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY vol 7(3) (2004 Reissue) PARA 262), Sch B1 para 43(2), (3) (restriction on enforcement of security or repossession of goods) (including that provision as applied by Sch B1 para 44 (interim moratorium)) (see COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY vol 7(3) (2004 Reissue) PARAS 231, 239, 263), Sch B1 paras 70, 71, 72 (power of administrator to deal with charged or hire-purchase property) (see COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY vol 7(3) (2004 Reissue) PARA 357 et seq): see the Companies Act 1989 s 175(1), (1A), (3) (s 175(1), (1A) substituted and added by the Enterprise Act 2002, s 248(3), Sch 17 paras 43, 47(1), (2)). Certain further provisions of the Insolvency Act 1986 (ie s 127, s 284 (avoidance of property dispositions effected after commencement of winding up or presentation of bankruptcy petition) (see BANKRUPTCY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY vol 3(2) (2002 Reissue) PARA 217; COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY vol 7(4) (2004 Reissue) PARA 700 et seq)) do not apply to a disposition of property as a result of which the property becomes subject to a market charge or any transaction pursuant to which that disposition is made: Companies Act 1989 s 175(4). However, if a person (other than the chargee under the market charge) who is party to a disposition mentioned in s 175(4) has notice at the time of the disposition that a petition has been presented for the winding up or bankruptcy or sequestration of the estate of the party making the disposition, the value of any profit to him arising from the disposition is recoverable from him by the relevant office-holder unless the court directs otherwise: s 175(5). As to the meaning of 'sequestration' see PARA 512 note 9. As to bankruptcy and winding up generally see BANKRUPTCY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY; COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY. As to the meaning of 'relevant office-holder' see PARA 513 note 7. Any sum recoverable by virtue of s 175(5) ranks for priority, in the event of the insolvency of the person from whom it is due, immediately before preferential debts: s 175(6). In a case falling within both s 175(4) (as a disposition of property as a result of which the property becomes subject to a market charge) and s 164(3) (see PARA 518) (as the provision of margin in relation to a market contract), s 164(4) (see PARA 518) applies with respect to the recovery of the amount or value of the margin and s 175(5) does not apply: s 175(7). As to the meaning of 'court' see the Financial Markets and Insolvency Regulations 1991, SI 1991/880, reg 19(1), (3).

The provisions of the Companies Act 1989 s 175(5), (6) are disapplied in relation to a designated settlement system: see PARA 525.

2 Companies Act 1989 s 175(2) (amended by SI 1991/880; and the Enterprise Act 2002 Sch 17 paras 43, 47(1), (2)).

5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/530. Power to make provision about certain other charges.

530. Power to make provision about certain other charges.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by regulations provide that the general law of insolvency<sup>2</sup> has effect in relation to charges<sup>3</sup> of such descriptions as may be specified in the regulations, and action taken in enforcing them, subject to such provisions as may be specified in the regulations<sup>4</sup>. The regulations may specify any description of charge granted in favour of:

- 1229 (1) an approved body<sup>5</sup>;
- 1230 (2) a person included in the list maintained by the Financial Services Authority for certain specified purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>6</sup>;
- 1231 (3) the Bank of England<sup>7</sup>;
- 1232 (4) a person who has permission under Part 4 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>8</sup> to carry on a relevant regulated activity<sup>9</sup>; or
- 1233 (5) an international securities self-regulating organisation approved for the purposes of an order made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>10</sup>, for the purpose of securing debts or liabilities arising in connection with or as a result of the settlement<sup>11</sup> of contracts or the transfer of assets, rights or interests on a financial market<sup>12</sup>. The regulations may specify any description of charge granted for that purpose in favour of any other person in connection with exchange facilities or clearing services provided by a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>13</sup> or by any such body, person, authority or organisation as is mentioned in the above provision<sup>14</sup>. Where a charge is granted partly for the purpose specified above<sup>15</sup> and partly for other purposes, the power conferred by this provision is exercisable in relation to the charge so far as it has effect for that purpose<sup>16</sup>. The regulations may make the same or similar provision in relation to the charges to which they apply as is made in relation to market charges<sup>17</sup>, or apply specified provisions<sup>18</sup> with such exceptions, additions or adaptations as are specified in the regulations<sup>19</sup>. Before making such regulations relating to a description of charges defined by reference to their being granted in favour of a person included in the list maintained by the Authority<sup>20</sup>, or in connection with exchange facilities or clearing services provided by a person included in that list, the Secretary of State and the Treasury must consult the Authority and the Bank of England<sup>21</sup>. Before making such regulations relating to a description of charges defined by reference to their being granted in favour of the Bank of England, or in connection with settlement arrangements provided by the Bank, the Secretary of State and the Treasury must consult the Bank<sup>22</sup>. Regulations under this section may provide that they apply or do not apply to a charge if or to the extent that it secures obligations of a specified description, is a charge over property of a specified description or contains provisions of a specified description<sup>23</sup>.

The above provisions may be applied to further descriptions of property in certain circumstances<sup>24</sup>.

1 The functions of the Secretary of State are to be exercised jointly with the Treasury: see the Transfer of Functions (Financial Services) Order 1992, SI 1992/1315, art 4, Sch 2, para 7. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

531. Application of margin not affected by certain other interests.

The following provisions have effect with respect to the application by a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>1</sup> of property (other than land) held by the exchange or clearing house as margin<sup>2</sup> in relation to a market contract<sup>3</sup>. So far as necessary to enable the property to be applied in accordance with the rules of the exchange or clearing house, it may be so applied notwithstanding any prior equitable interest or right, or any right or remedy arising from a breach of fiduciary duty, unless the exchange or clearing house had notice of the interest, right or breach of duty at the time the property was provided as margin<sup>4</sup>. No right or remedy arising subsequently to the property being provided as margin may be enforced so as to prevent or interfere with the application of the property by the exchange or clearing house in accordance with its rules<sup>5</sup>. Where an exchange or clearing house has power by virtue of the above provisions to apply property notwithstanding an interest, right or remedy, a person to whom the exchange or clearing house disposes of the property in accordance with its rules takes free from that interest, right or remedy<sup>6</sup>.

The above provisions may be applied to further descriptions of property in certain circumstances<sup>7</sup>.

Where property (other than land) is held by a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>1</sup> as margin<sup>2</sup> in relation to market contracts<sup>3</sup> or is subject to a market charge<sup>4</sup>, no execution or other legal process for the enforcement of a judgment or order may be commenced or continued, and no distress may be levied, against the property by a person not seeking to enforce any interest in or security over the property, except with the consent of<sup>5</sup>:

- 1234 (1) in the case of property provided as cover for margin, the investment exchange or clearing house in question<sup>6</sup>; or
- 1235 (2) in the case of property subject to a market charge, the person in whose favour the charge was granted<sup>7</sup>.

Where consent is given the proceedings may be commenced or continued notwithstanding any provision of the Insolvency Act 1986<sup>8</sup>. Where by virtue of this provision a person would not be entitled to enforce a judgment or order against any property, any injunction or other remedy granted with a view to facilitating the enforcement of any such judgment or order cannot extend to that property<sup>9</sup>.

535. Power to apply provisions to other cases.

A power to which this provision applies<sup>1</sup> includes the power to apply certain specified provisions of the Companies Act 1989<sup>2</sup> to any description of property provided as cover for margin<sup>3</sup> in relation to contracts in relation to which the power is exercised or, as the case may be, property subject to charges<sup>4</sup> in relation to which the power is exercised<sup>5</sup>.

1 The Companies Act 1989 s 181(1) applies to the powers of the Secretary of State and the Treasury to act jointly under (1) s 170 (see PARA 523), s 172 (see PARA 524) and s 176 (see PARA 530); and (2) the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 301 (supervision of certain contracts) (see PARA 720): Companies Act 1989 s 180(3) (added by SI 2001/3649). The functions of the Secretary of State are to be exercised jointly with the Treasury: see the Transfer of Functions (Financial Services) Order 1992, SI 1992/1315, art 4, Sch 2, para 7. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

5 Companies Act 1989 s 181(1) (amended by SI 2001/3649). The regulations may provide that the Companies Act 1989 ss 177-180 (see PARAS 531-534) apply with such exceptions, additions and adaptations as may be specified in the regulations: s 181(2). At the date at which this volume states the law no such regulations had been made.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Insolvency/I. FINANCIAL MARKETS AND INSOLVENCY/536. Powers of court in relation to certain proceedings begun before commencement.

536. Powers of court in relation to certain proceedings begun before commencement.

The powers conferred by this provision are exercisable by the court where insolvency proceedings<sup>1</sup> in respect of (1) a member of a recognised investment exchange or a recognised clearing house<sup>2</sup>; or (2) a person by whom a market charge<sup>3</sup> has been granted, are begun<sup>4</sup> on or after 22 December 1988 and before the commencement of this provision<sup>5</sup>. That person is referred to in this provision as the 'relevant person'<sup>6</sup>. This provision applies in relation to the administration of the insolvent estate of a deceased person as it applies in relation to insolvency proceedings<sup>7</sup>. In such a case references to the beginning of the proceedings must be construed as references to the death of the relevant person<sup>8</sup>.

The court may on an application made, within three months after the commencement of this provision, by (a) a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house; or (b) a person in whose favour a market charge has been granted, make such order as it thinks fit for achieving, except so far as assets of the relevant person have been distributed before the making of the application, the same result as if certain specified provisions<sup>9</sup> had come into force on 22 December 1988<sup>10</sup>. The court may in particular:

- 1236 (i) require the relevant person or a relevant office-holder<sup>11</sup>;
- 94 163. (A) to return property provided as cover for margin<sup>12</sup> or which was subject to a market charge, or to pay to the applicant or any other person the proceeds of realisation of such property<sup>13</sup>; or
164. (B) to pay to the applicant or any other person such amount as the court estimates would have been payable to that person if the relevant provisions had come into force on 22 December 1988 and market contracts had been settled<sup>14</sup> in accordance with the rules of the recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house, or a proportion of that amount if the property of the relevant person or relevant office-holder is not sufficient to meet the amount in full<sup>15</sup>;
- 95 1237 (ii) provide that contracts, rules and dispositions must be treated as not having been void<sup>16</sup>;
- 1238 (iii) modify the functions of a relevant office-holder, or the duties of the applicant or any other person, in relation to the insolvency proceedings, or indemnify any such person in respect of acts or omissions which would have been proper if the relevant provisions had been in force<sup>17</sup>;
- 1239 (iv) provide that conduct which constituted an offence be treated as not having done so<sup>18</sup>;
- 1240 (v) dismiss proceedings which could not have been brought if the relevant provisions had come into force on 22 December 1988, and reverse the effect of any order of a court which could not, or would not, have been made if those provisions had come into force on that date<sup>19</sup>.

An order under this provision cannot be made against a relevant office-holder if the effect would be that his remuneration, costs and expenses could not be met<sup>20</sup>.

1 For the purposes of the Companies Act 1989 s 182 'insolvency proceedings' means proceedings under the Insolvency Act 1986 Pt II (s 8), Pt IV (ss 73-219), Pt V (ss 220-229) or Pt IX (ss 264-371) (administration, winding up and bankruptcy) (see BANKRUPTCY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY; COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY); and references in the Companies Act 1989 s 182 to the beginning of such proceedings are to: (1) the presentation of a petition on which an administration order, winding-up order, bankruptcy order or award of sequestration is made; or (2) the passing of a resolution for voluntary winding up: s 182(2).

As to the meaning of 'sequestration' see PARA 512 note 9. As to bankruptcy and winding up generally see BANKRUPTCY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY; COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY. As to the meaning of 'court' see the Financial Markets and Insolvency Regulations 1991, SI 1991/880, reg 19(1), (3).

The references to insolvency law in the Insolvency Act 1986<sup>1</sup> include, in relation to a part of the United Kingdom<sup>2</sup>, the provisions made by or under Part VII of the Companies Act 1989<sup>3</sup> and, in relation to a relevant country or territory<sup>4</sup>, so much of the law of that country or territory as corresponds to any provisions made by or under Part VII<sup>5</sup>. A court must not, in pursuance of the Insolvency Act 1986<sup>6</sup> or any other enactment or rule of law, recognise or give effect to:

- 1241 (1) any order of a court exercising jurisdiction in relation to insolvency law<sup>7</sup> in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom; or
- 1242 (2) any act of a person appointed in such a country or territory to discharge any functions under insolvency law, in so far as the making of the order or the doing of the act would be prohibited in the case of a court in the United Kingdom or a relevant office-holder<sup>8</sup> by provisions made by or under Part VII<sup>9</sup>.

Where a relevant office-holder<sup>1</sup> takes any action in relation to property of a defaulter<sup>2</sup> which is liable to be dealt with in accordance with the default rules<sup>3</sup> of a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house<sup>4</sup>, and believes and has reasonable grounds for believing that he is entitled to take that action, he is not liable to any person in respect of any loss or damage resulting from his action except in so far as the loss or damage is caused by the office-holder's own negligence<sup>5</sup>. Any failure by a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house to comply with its own rules in respect of any matter cannot prevent that matter being treated for the purposes of Part VII of the Companies Act 1989<sup>6</sup> as done in accordance with those rules so long as the failure does not substantially affect the rights of any person entitled to require compliance with the rules<sup>7</sup>. No recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house, nor any officer or servant or member of the governing body of a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house, is to be liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of any functions to which this provision applies<sup>8</sup> unless the act or omission is shown to have been in bad faith<sup>9</sup>. No person to whom the exercise of any function of a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house is delegated under its default rules, nor any officer or servant of such a person, is to be liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of those functions unless the act or omission is shown to have been in bad faith<sup>10</sup>.

(viii) Anti Money Laundering

539. The Money Laundering Regulations 2007.

The Money Laundering Regulations 2007<sup>1</sup> have been made in order to prevent the use of the financial system for the purposes of money laundering and terrorist financing<sup>2</sup>. Relevant persons<sup>3</sup> must, when undertaking certain activities in the course of business, apply customer due diligence measures<sup>4</sup> where they establish a business relationship, carry out an occasional transaction, suspect money laundering or terrorist finance or doubt the accuracy of customer identification information<sup>5</sup>. Relevant persons also have to undertake ongoing monitoring of their business relationships<sup>6</sup>. There is a general rule on the timing of the verification of the customer's identity subject to certain exceptions<sup>7</sup>. The regulations have specific measures on record-keeping, procedures and training<sup>8</sup>; and also provisions on supervision and registration<sup>9</sup>. There are enforcement powers for certain supervisors, including powers to obtain information and enter and inspect premises<sup>10</sup>. There is also provision for the recovery of penalties and charges through the court, and the imposition of an obligation on certain public authorities to report suspicions of money laundering or terrorist financing<sup>11</sup>.

1 See the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157. The Regulations revoke and replace earlier regulations (the Money Laundering Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3075) (see the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 1(3)) and implement in part European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/60 (OJ L309, 25.11.2005, p 15) on the prevention of the use of the financial system for the purpose of money laundering and terrorist financing. The Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, came into force on 15 December 2007: see reg 1(1). The Regulations are prescribed for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 168(4)(b) (appointment of persons to carry out investigations in particular cases) (see PARA 449) and s 402(1)(b) (power of the Financial Services Authority to institute proceedings for certain other offences) (see PARA 573): Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 1(2).

The Financial Services Authority has as one of its objectives the reduction of financial crime (see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 2(2); and PARA 8) and it may make its own rules as to the prevention and detection of money laundering: see s 146; and PARA 30. As to statutory provisions penalising those assisting in the retention of the proceeds of drug trafficking or criminal conduct and requiring banks and their employees to report to the police suspicions or beliefs of money laundering see the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 Pt 7 (ss 327-340); and CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(2) (2006 Reissue) PARA 789 et seq. As to legislation enacted to prevent the retention or control of terrorist property, including money, see the Terrorism Act 2000; and CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 390 et seq.

2 'Money laundering' means an act which falls within the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 s 340(11) (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(2) (2006 Reissue) PARA 789); Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 2(1). 'Terrorist financing' means an offence under (1) the Terrorism Act 2000 s 15 (fund-raising), s 16 (use and possession), s 17 (funding arrangements), s 18 (money laundering) or s 63 (terrorist finance: jurisdiction) (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 390 et seq); (2) the Anti-Terrorism, Crime and Security Act 2001 Sch 3 para 7(2) or (3) (freezing orders) (see SENTENCING AND DISPOSITION OF OFFENDERS vol 92 (2010) PARA 549); (3) the Terrorism (United Nations Measures) Order 2006, SI 2006/2657, art 7, 8 or 10 (see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS); or (4) the Al-Qaida and Taliban (United Nations Measures) Order 2006, SI 2006/2952, art 7, 8 or 10 (see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS); Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 2(1).

As to the action to be taken where an investigation into money laundering (under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 Pt 7 (ss 326-340)) creates conflicts between the public interest in combating crime and the entitlement of a private body to obtain redress from the courts see Bank of Scotland v A Ltd [2001] EWCA Civ 52, [2001] 3 All ER 58, [2001] 1 All ER (Comm) 1023; Amalgamated Metal Trading Ltd v City of London Police Financial Investigation Unit [2003] EWHC 703 (Comm), [2003] 4 All ER 1225, [2003] 1 All ER (Comm) 900; Tayeb v HSBC Bank plc [2004] EWHC 1529, [2004] 4 All ER 1024, [2004] 2 All ER (Comm) 880; and CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(2) (2006 Reissue) PARA 789 et seq.

3 'Relevant person' means a person to whom in accordance with the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, regs 3, 4 (see PARA 540), the Regulations apply: reg 2(1).

4 See the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 5 et seq; and PARA 542.

5 See the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 7; and PARA 542.

6 See the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 8; and PARA 543.

7 See the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 9; and PARA 543.

8 See the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, Pt 3 (regs 19-21); and PARAS 551, 552.

9 See the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, Pt 4 (regs 22-35); and PARA 553 et seq.

10 See generally the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, Pt 5 (regs 36-47); and PARA 559 et seq. See also PARA 541.

7 'External accountant' means a firm or sole practitioner who by way of business provides accountancy services to other persons, when providing such services: Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, regs 2(1), 3(7).

8 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 3(1)(c). 'Tax adviser', except in reg 11(3) (see PARA 545), means a firm or sole practitioner who by way of business provides advice about the tax affairs of other persons, when providing such services: regs 2(1), 3(8).

9 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 3(1)(d). 'Independent legal professional' means a firm or sole practitioner who by way of business provides legal or notarial services to other persons, when participating in financial or real property transactions concerning: (1) the buying and selling of real property or business entities; (2) the managing of client money, securities or other assets; (3) the opening or management of bank, savings or securities accounts; (4) the organisation of contributions necessary for the creation, operation or management of companies; or (5) the creation, operation or management of trusts, companies or similar structures, and, for this purpose, a person participates in a transaction by assisting in the planning or execution of the transaction or otherwise acting for or on behalf of a client in the transaction: regs 2(1), 3(9).

10 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 3(1)(e). 'Trust or company service provider' means a firm or sole practitioner who by way of business provides any of the following services to other persons: (1) forming companies or other legal persons; (2) acting, or arranging for another person to act as a director or secretary of a company, as a partner of a partnership, or in a similar position in relation to other legal persons; (3) providing a registered office, business address, correspondence or administrative address or other related services for a company, partnership or any other legal person or arrangement; (4) acting, or arranging for another person to act, as a trustee of an express trust or similar legal arrangement, or a nominee shareholder for a person other than a company whose securities are listed on a regulated market, when providing such services: regs 2(1), 3(10).

11 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 3(1)(f). 'Estate agent' means (1) a firm; or (2) sole practitioner, who, or whose employees, carry out estate agency work (within the meaning given by Estate Agents Act 1979 s 1 (estate agency work) (see AGENCY vol 1 (2008) PARA 240), when in the course of carrying out such work): Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, regs 2(1), 3(11).

12 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 3(1)(g). 'High value dealer' means a firm or sole trader who by way of business trades in goods (including an auctioneer dealing in goods), when he receives, in respect of any transaction, a payment or payments in cash of at least 15,000 euros in total, whether the transaction is executed in a single operation or in several operations which appear to be linked: regs 2(1), 3(12). 'Cash' means notes, coins or travellers' cheques in any currency: reg 2(1). In the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, references to amounts in euros include references to equivalent amounts in another currency: reg 2(2).

13 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 3(1)(h). 'Casino' means the holder of a casino operating licence and, for this purpose, a 'casino operating licence' has the meaning given by of the Gambling Act 2005 s 65(2) (nature of licence) (see LICENSING AND GAMBLING vol 67 (2008) PARA 349): Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, regs 2(1), 3(13).

B. CUSTOMER DUE DILIGENCE

542. Due diligence, simplified due diligence.

A relevant person<sup>1</sup> must apply customer due diligence measures<sup>2</sup> when he (1) establishes a business relationship<sup>3</sup>; (2) carries out an occasional transaction<sup>4</sup>; (3) suspects money laundering or terrorist financing<sup>5</sup>; (4) doubts the veracity or adequacy of documents, data or information previously obtained for the purposes of identification or verification<sup>6</sup>. A relevant person must also apply customer due diligence measures at other appropriate times to existing customers on a risk-sensitive basis<sup>7</sup>.

A relevant person who is appointed by the issuer of certain specified instruments or securities<sup>8</sup> as trustee of an issue of such instruments or securities, or whose customer is a trustee of an issue of such instruments or securities, is not required to apply the relevant customer due diligence measure<sup>9</sup> in respect of the holders of such instruments or securities<sup>10</sup>.

A relevant person is not required to apply customer due diligence measures in the circumstances mentioned in head (1), (2) or (4) above where he has reasonable grounds for believing that the customer, transaction or product related to such transaction, falls within any of the following<sup>11</sup>:

- 1256 (a) the customer is (i) a credit or financial institution which is subject to the requirements of the Money Laundering Directive<sup>12</sup>; or (ii) a credit or financial institution<sup>13</sup> (or equivalent institution) which is situated in a non-EEA state which imposes requirements equivalent to those laid down in the Money Laundering Directive; and is supervised for compliance with those requirements<sup>14</sup>;
- 1257 (b) the customer is a company whose securities are listed on a regulated market subject to specified disclosure obligations<sup>15</sup>;
- 1258 (c) the customer is an independent legal professional<sup>16</sup> and the product is an account into which monies are pooled, provided that (i) where the pooled account is held in a non-EEA state that state imposes requirements to combat money laundering and terrorist financing which are consistent with international standards, and the independent legal professional is supervised in that state for compliance with those requirements<sup>17</sup>; and (ii) information on the identity of the persons on whose behalf monies are held in the pooled account is available, on request, to the institution which acts as a depository institution for the account<sup>18</sup>;
- 1259 (d) the customer is a public authority in the United Kingdom<sup>19</sup>;
- 1260 (e) the customer is a public authority which fulfils all of certain specified conditions<sup>20</sup>;
- 1261 (f) the product is (i) a life insurance contract where the annual premium is no more than 1,000 euros or where a single premium of no more than 2,500 euros is paid<sup>21</sup>; (ii) an insurance contract for the purposes of a pension scheme where the contract contains no surrender clause and cannot be used as collateral<sup>22</sup>; (iii) a pension, superannuation or similar scheme which provides retirement benefits to

- employees, where contributions are made by an employer or by way of deduction from an employee's wages and the scheme rules do not permit the assignment of a member's interest under the scheme (other than certain assignments)<sup>23</sup>; or (iv) electronic money<sup>24</sup> where if the device cannot be recharged, the maximum amount stored in the device is no more than 150 euros, or if the device can be recharged, a limit of 2,500 euros is imposed on the total amount transacted in a calendar year, except when an amount of 1,000 euros or more is redeemed in the same calendar year by the bearer<sup>25</sup>;
- 1262 (g) the product and any transaction related to such product fulfil all of certain specified conditions<sup>26</sup>;
- 1263 (h) the product is a child trust fund<sup>27</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'relevant person' see PARA 539 note 3. See also PARA 540. The Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 7 is subject to reg 9 (see PARA 543), reg 10 (see PARA 544), reg 12 (see the text to notes 8-10), reg 13 (see the text to notes 11-27), reg 14 (see PARA 546), reg 16(4) (see PARA 548), reg 17 (see PARA 549): see reg 7(1).

2 'Customer due diligence measures' means: (1) identifying the customer and verifying the customer's identity on the basis of documents, data or information obtained from a reliable and independent source; (2) identifying, where there is a beneficial owner who is not the customer, the beneficial owner and taking adequate measures, on a risk-sensitive basis, to verify his identity so that the relevant person is satisfied that he knows who the beneficial owner is, including, in the case of a legal person, trust or similar legal arrangement, measures to understand the ownership and control structure of the person, trust or arrangement; and (3) obtaining information on the purpose and intended nature of the business relationship: Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, regs 2(1), 5. 'Business relationship' means a business, professional or commercial relationship between a relevant person and a customer, which is expected by the relevant person, at the time when contact is established, to have an element of duration: reg 2(1).

In the case of a body corporate, 'beneficial owner' means any individual who: as respects any body other than a company whose securities are listed on a regulated market, ultimately owns or controls (whether through direct or indirect ownership or control, including through bearer share holdings) more than 25% of the shares or voting rights in the body; or as respects any body corporate, otherwise exercises control over the management of the body: reg 6(1). 'Regulated market' within the EEA, has the meaning given by European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) art 4(1) point 14; and outside the EEA, means a regulated financial market which subjects companies whose securities are admitted to trading to disclosure obligations which are contained in international standards and are equivalent to the specified disclosure obligations: Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157; reg 2(1). 'Specified disclosure obligations' means disclosure requirements consistent with European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/6 (OJ L96, 12.4.2003, p 20) on insider dealing and market manipulation, art 6(1)-(4); European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/71 (OJ L345, 31.12.2003, p 69) on the prospectuses to be published when securities are offered to the public or admitted to trading, arts 3, 5, 7, 8, 10, 14, 16; European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/109 (OJ L390, 31.12.2004, p 43) relating to the harmonisation of transparency requirements in relation to information about issuers whose securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market, arts 4-6, 14, 16-19, 30; or Community legislation made under the provisions previously mentioned: Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 2(1).

In the case of a partnership (other than a limited liability partnership (ie within the meaning of the Limited Liability Partnerships Act 2000: see PARTNERSHIP vol 79 (2008) PARA 234 et seq), 'beneficial owner' means any individual who ultimately is entitled to or controls (whether the entitlement or control is direct or indirect) more than a 25% share of the capital or profits of the partnership or more than 25% of the voting rights in the partnership; or otherwise exercises control over the management of the partnership: regs 2(1), 6(2), (10).

In the case of a trust, 'beneficial owner' means any individual who is entitled to a specified interest in at least 25% of the capital of the trust property; as respects any trust other than one which is set up or operates entirely for the benefit of the said individuals, the class of persons in whose main interest the trust is set up or operates; any individual who has control over the trust: regs 2(1), 6(3). For the purposes of reg 6(3), 'specified interest' means a vested interest which is in possession or in remainder or reversion (or, in Scotland, in fee); and defeasible or indefeasible; 'control' means a power (whether exercisable alone, jointly with another person or with the consent of another person) under the trust instrument or by law to (a) dispose of, advance, lend, invest, pay or apply trust property; (b) vary the trust; (c) add or remove a person as a beneficiary or to or from a class of beneficiaries; (d) appoint or remove trustees; (e) direct, withhold consent to or veto the exercise of a power such as is mentioned in head (a), (b), (c) or (d): reg 6(4).

Also for the purposes of reg 6(3), (i) where an individual is the beneficial owner of a body corporate which is entitled to a specified interest in the capital of the trust property or which has control over the trust, the individual is to be regarded as entitled to the interest or having control over the trust; and (ii) an individual does not have control solely as a result of his consent being required in accordance with the Trustee Act 1925 s 32(1) proviso (c) (power of advancement) (see TRUSTS vol 48 (2007 Reissue) PARA 1050); any discretion delegated to him under the Pensions Act 1995 s 34 (power of investment and delegation) (see SOCIAL SECURITY AND PENSIONS vol 44(2) (Reissue) PARA 803); the power to give a direction conferred on him by the Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996 s 19(2) (appointment and retirement of trustee at instance of beneficiaries) (see TRUSTS vol 48 (2007 Reissue) PARAS 845, 897); or the power exercisable collectively at common law to vary or extinguish a trust where the beneficiaries under the trust are of full age and capacity and (taken together) absolutely entitled to the property subject to the trust: Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 6(5).

In the case of a legal entity or legal arrangement which does not fall within reg 6(1), (2) or (3), 'beneficial owner' means (A) where the individuals who benefit from the entity or arrangement have been determined, any individual who benefits from at least 25% of the property of the entity or arrangement; (B) where the individuals who benefit from the entity or arrangement have yet to be determined, the class of persons in whose main interest the entity or arrangement is set up or operates; (C) any individual who exercises control over at least 25% of the property of the entity or arrangement: regs 2(1), 6(6). For the purposes of reg 6(6), where an individual is the beneficial owner of a body corporate which benefits from or exercises control over the property of the entity or arrangement, the individual is to be regarded as benefiting from or exercising control over the property of the entity or arrangement: reg 6(7).

In the case of an estate of a deceased person in the course of administration, 'beneficial owner' means in England and Wales and Northern Ireland, the executor, original or by representation, or administrator for the time being of a deceased person (see generally EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS): regs 2(1), 6(8). In any other case, 'beneficial owner' means the individual who ultimately owns or controls the customer or on whose behalf a transaction is being conducted: regs 2(1), 6(9).

Throughout reg 6, 'arrangement', 'entity' and 'trust' mean an arrangement, entity or trust which administers and distributes funds: reg 6(10).

7 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 7(2). This is subject to reg 16(4): see note 1 and PARA 548.

A relevant person must (1) determine the extent of customer due diligence measures on a risk-sensitive basis depending on the type of customer, business relationship, product or transaction; and (2) be able to demonstrate to his supervisory authority that the extent of the measures is appropriate in view of the risks of money laundering and terrorist financing: reg 7(3). See also PARA 543. 'Supervisory authority' in relation to any relevant person means the supervisory authority specified for such a person by reg 23 (see PARA 553): reg 2(1). Head (2) does not apply to the National Savings Bank (see PARA 810 et seq) or the Director of Savings (see PARA 1325 et seq): reg 7(5). See further PARA 553.

Where (a) a relevant person is required to apply customer due diligence measures in the case of a trust, legal entity (other than a body corporate) or a legal arrangement (other than a trust); and (b) the class of persons in whose main interest the trust, entity or arrangement is set up or operates is identified as a beneficial owner, the relevant person is not required to identify all the members of the class: reg 7(4).

8 The specified instruments and securities are: (1) instruments which fall within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 77 (see PARA 224); and (2) securities which fall within art 78 (see PARA 224): Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 12(2).

543. Ongoing monitoring, verification.

In respect of the duty<sup>4</sup> to apply the customer due diligence measures relating to identification and verification<sup>5</sup>, a relevant person must verify the identity of the customer (and any beneficial owner<sup>6</sup>) before the establishment of a business relationship or the carrying out of an occasional transaction<sup>7</sup>.

Such verification may be completed during the establishment of a business relationship if (1) this is necessary not to interrupt the normal conduct of business<sup>8</sup>; and (2) there is little risk of money laundering or terrorist financing<sup>9</sup> occurring<sup>10</sup>, provided that the verification is completed as soon as practicable after contact is first established<sup>11</sup>.

The verification of the identity of the beneficiary under a life insurance policy may take place after the business relationship has been established provided that it takes place at or before the time of payout or at or before the time the beneficiary exercises a right vested under the policy<sup>12</sup>.

The verification of the identity of a bank account holder may take place after the bank account has been opened provided that there are adequate safeguards in place to ensure that (a) the account is not closed<sup>13</sup>; and (b) transactions are not carried out by or on behalf of the account holder (including any payment from the account to the account holder)<sup>14</sup>, before verification has been completed<sup>15</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'relevant person' see PARA 539 note 3. See also PARA 540.

2 'Ongoing monitoring' of a business relationship means: (1) scrutiny of transactions undertaken throughout the course of the relationship (including, where necessary, the source of funds) to ensure that the transactions are consistent with the relevant person's knowledge of the customer, his business and risk profile; and (2) keeping the documents, data or information obtained for the purpose of applying customer due diligence measures up-to-date: Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, regs 2(1), 8(2). As to the meaning of 'business relationship' see PARA 542 note 2. As to the meaning of 'customer due diligence measures' see PARA 542 note 2.

3 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 8(1). Regulation 7(3) (see PARA 542 note 7) applies to the duty to conduct ongoing monitoring under reg 8(1) as it applies to customer due diligence measures: reg 8(3). See also note 2.

546. Enhanced due diligence, ongoing monitoring.

A relevant person<sup>1</sup> must apply on a risk-sensitive basis enhanced customer due diligence measures<sup>2</sup> and enhanced ongoing monitoring<sup>3</sup> in accordance with the provisions below<sup>4</sup>; and in any other situation which by its nature can present a higher risk of money laundering or terrorist financing<sup>5</sup>.

Where the customer has not been physically present for identification purposes, a relevant person must take specific and adequate measures to compensate for the higher risk, for example, by applying one or more of the following measures:

- 1270 (1) ensuring that the customer's identity is established by additional documents, data or information<sup>6</sup>;
- 1271 (2) supplementary measures to verify or certify the documents supplied, or requiring confirmatory certification by a credit or financial institution<sup>7</sup> which is subject to the Money Laundering Directive<sup>8</sup>;
- 1272 (3) ensuring that the first payment is carried out through an account opened in the customer's name with a credit institution<sup>9</sup>.

A credit institution (the 'correspondent') which has or proposes to have a correspondent banking relationship with a respondent institution (the 'respondent') from a non-EEA state must:

- 1273 (a) gather sufficient information about the respondent to understand fully the nature of its business<sup>10</sup>;
- 1274 (b) determine from publicly-available information the reputation of the respondent and the quality of its supervision<sup>11</sup>;
- 1275 (c) assess the respondent's anti-money laundering and anti-terrorist financing controls<sup>12</sup>;
- 1276 (d) obtain approval from senior management before establishing a new correspondent banking relationship<sup>13</sup>;
- 1277 (e) document the respective responsibilities of the respondent and correspondent<sup>14</sup>; and
- 1278 (f) be satisfied that, in respect of those of the respondent's customers who have direct access to accounts of the correspondent, the respondent has verified the identity of, and conducts ongoing monitoring in respect of, such customers<sup>15</sup>; and is able to provide to the correspondent, upon request, the documents, data or information obtained when applying customer due diligence measures and ongoing monitoring<sup>16</sup>.

A relevant person who proposes to have a business relationship<sup>17</sup> or carry out an occasional transaction<sup>18</sup> with a politically exposed person<sup>19</sup> must:

- 1279 (i) have approval from senior management for establishing the business relationship with that person<sup>20</sup>;
- 1280 (ii) take adequate measures to establish the source of wealth and source of funds which are involved in the proposed business relationship or occasional transaction<sup>21</sup>; and
- 1281 (iii) where the business relationship is entered into, conduct enhanced ongoing monitoring of the relationship<sup>22</sup>.

19 For these purposes, 'politically exposed person' means a person who is:

529 (1) an individual who is or has, at any time in the preceding year, been entrusted with a prominent public function by (a) a state other than the United Kingdom; (b) a Community institution; or (c) an international body, including a person who falls in any of the following categories (such categories not including middle-ranking or more junior officials): (i) heads of state, heads of government, ministers and deputy or assistant ministers; (ii) members of parliaments; (iii) members of supreme courts, of constitutional courts or of other high-level judicial bodies whose decisions are not generally subject to further appeal, other than in exceptional circumstances; (iv) members of courts of auditors or of the boards of central banks; (v) ambassadors, chargés d'affaires and high-ranking officers in the armed forces; and (vi) members of the administrative, management or supervisory bodies of state-owned enterprises (Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 14(5)(a), Sch 2 para 4(1)(a), (b));

- 530 (2) an immediate family member of a person referred to in head (1) above, including a person who falls in any of the following categories: (a) a spouse; (b) a partner (which means a person who is considered by his national law as equivalent to a spouse); (c) children and their spouses or partners; and (d) parents (reg 14(5)(b), Sch 2 para 4(1)(c), (2));
- 531 (3) a known close associate of a person referred to in head (1) above, including a person who falls in either of the following categories: (a) any individual who is known to have joint beneficial ownership of a legal entity or legal arrangement, or any other close business relations, with a person referred to in head (1); and (b) any individual who has sole beneficial ownership of a legal entity or legal arrangement which is known to have been set up for the benefit of a person referred to in head (1) (reg 14(5)(c), Sch 2 para 4(1)(d)).

For the purpose of deciding whether a person is a known close associate of a person referred to in head (1) above (see head (3) above), a relevant person need only have regard to information which is in his possession or is publicly known: reg 14(6). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

547. Branches and subsidiaries.

A credit or financial institution<sup>1</sup> must require its branches and subsidiary undertakings<sup>2</sup> which are located in a non-EEA state to apply, to the extent permitted by the law of that state, measures at least equivalent to those set out in the Money Laundering Regulations 2007<sup>3</sup> with regard to customer due diligence measures<sup>4</sup>, ongoing monitoring<sup>5</sup> and record-keeping<sup>6</sup>.

Where the law of a non-EEA state does not permit the application of such equivalent measures by the branch or subsidiary undertaking located in that state, the credit or financial institution must: (1) inform its supervisory authority<sup>7</sup> accordingly<sup>8</sup>; and (2) take additional measures to handle effectively the risk of money laundering and terrorist financing<sup>9</sup>.

<sup>2</sup> For these purposes, 'subsidiary undertaking' (1) except in relation to an incorporated friendly society, has the meaning given by the Companies Act 2006 s 1162 (parent and subsidiary undertakings) (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 26) and, in relation to a body corporate in or formed under the law of an EEA state other than the United Kingdom, includes an undertaking which is a subsidiary undertaking within the meaning of any rule of law in force in that state for purposes connected with implementation of the EC Seventh Company Law Directive 83/349 (OJ L193, 18.7.83, p 1) on consolidated accounts; (2) in relation to an incorporated friendly society, means a body corporate of which the society has control within the meaning of the Friendly Societies Act 1992 s 13(9)(a) or (aa) (control of subsidiaries and other bodies corporate) (see PARA 2134): Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 15(3)(a). Before the entry into force of the Companies Act 2006 s 1162 the reference to that provision in head (1) above is treated as a reference to the Companies Act 1985 s 258 (repealed) (parent and subsidiary undertakings) (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 26): Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 15(3)(b). FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(viii) Anti Money Laundering/B. CUSTOMER DUE DILIGENCE/548. Shell banks, anonymous accounts, etc.

548. Shell banks, anonymous accounts, etc.

A credit institution<sup>1</sup> must not enter into, or continue, a correspondent banking relationship with a shell bank<sup>2</sup>. A credit institution must take appropriate measures to ensure that it does not enter into, or continue, a corresponding banking relationship with a bank which is known to permit its accounts to be used by a shell bank<sup>3</sup>. A credit or financial institution<sup>4</sup> carrying on business in the United Kingdom<sup>5</sup> must not set up an anonymous account or an anonymous passbook for any new or existing customer<sup>6</sup>.

As soon as reasonably practicable on or after 15 December 2007 all credit and financial institutions carrying on business in the United Kingdom must apply customer due diligence measures<sup>7</sup> to, and conduct ongoing monitoring<sup>8</sup> of, all anonymous accounts and passbooks in existence on that date and in any event before such accounts or passbooks are used<sup>9</sup>.

- 1 As to the meaning of 'credit institution' see PARA 540 note 3.
- 2 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 16(1). A 'shell bank' means a credit institution, or an institution engaged in equivalent activities, incorporated in a jurisdiction in which it has no physical presence involving meaningful decision-making and management, and which is not part of a financial conglomerate or third-country financial conglomerate: reg 16(5). For these purposes, 'financial conglomerate' and 'third-country financial conglomerate' have the meanings given by the Financial Conglomerates and Other Financial Groups Regulations 2004, SI 2004/1862, regs 1(2), 7(1) (see PARAS 381, 383): Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 16(6).

549. Reliance on certain persons.

A relevant person<sup>1</sup> may rely on a person who falls within the list below<sup>2</sup> (or who the relevant person has reasonable grounds to believe falls within that list) to apply any customer due diligence measures<sup>3</sup> provided that the other person consents to being relied on<sup>4</sup>; and notwithstanding the relevant person's reliance on the other person, the relevant person remains liable for any failure to apply such measures<sup>5</sup>.

- 1282 (1) a credit or financial institution<sup>6</sup> which is an authorised person<sup>7</sup>;
- 1283 (2) a relevant person who is (a) an auditor<sup>8</sup>, insolvency practitioner<sup>9</sup>, external accountant<sup>10</sup>, tax adviser<sup>11</sup> or independent legal professional<sup>12</sup>; and (b) supervised for the purposes of the Money Laundering Regulations 2007<sup>13</sup> by one of certain specified professional bodies<sup>14</sup>;
- 1284 (3) a person who carries on business in another EEA state who is (a) a credit or financial institution, auditor, insolvency practitioner, external accountant, tax adviser or independent legal professional<sup>15</sup>; (b) subject to mandatory professional registration recognised by law<sup>16</sup>; and (c) supervised for compliance with the requirements laid down in the Money Laundering Directive<sup>17</sup>; or
- 1285 (4) a person who carries on business in a non-EEA state who is (a) a credit or financial institution (or equivalent institution), auditor, insolvency practitioner, external accountant, tax adviser or independent legal professional<sup>18</sup>; (b) subject to mandatory professional registration recognised by law<sup>19</sup>; (c) subject to requirements equivalent to those laid down in the Money Laundering Directive<sup>20</sup>; and (d) supervised for compliance with those requirements in a manner equivalent to the Money Laundering Directive<sup>21</sup>.

Nothing in the above provisions<sup>22</sup> prevents a relevant person applying customer due diligence measures by means of an outsourcing service provider or agent provided that the relevant person remains liable for any failure to apply such measures<sup>23</sup>.

UPDATE

550 Directions by the Treasury

TEXT AND NOTES--The Treasury also has power to make a direction relating to terrorist financing and money laundering: Counter-Terrorism Act 2008 Sch 7 (see PARA 550A).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(viii) Anti Money Laundering/B. CUSTOMER DUE DILIGENCE/550A. Power of the Treasury to make a direction relating to terrorist financing and money laundering.

550A. Power of the Treasury to make a direction relating to terrorist financing and money laundering.

The Treasury may give a direction<sup>1</sup> if one or more of the following conditions is met in relation to a country<sup>2</sup>: (1) the Financial Action Task Force has advised that measures should be taken in relation to the country because of the risk of terrorist financing or money laundering activities being carried on in the country, by the government of the country, or by persons resident or incorporated in the country<sup>3</sup>; (2) the Treasury reasonably believes that there is a risk that terrorist financing or money laundering activities are being carried on in the country, by the government of the country, or by persons resident or incorporated in the country, and that this poses a significant risk to the national interests of the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup>; (3) the Treasury reasonably believes that the development or production of nuclear, radiological, biological or chemical weapons in the country, or the doing in the country of anything that facilitates the development or production of any such weapons, poses a significant risk to the national interests of the United Kingdom<sup>5</sup>.

A direction may be given to a particular person operating in the financial sector<sup>6</sup>, any description of persons operating in that sector, or all persons operating in that sector<sup>7</sup>. A direction may impose requirements in relation to transactions or business relationships with a person carrying on business in the country, the government of the country, a person resident or incorporated in the country<sup>8</sup>. Such requirements may relate to customer due diligence<sup>9</sup>, ongoing monitoring<sup>10</sup>, systematic reporting<sup>11</sup>, or limiting or ceasing business<sup>12</sup>.

Officers of the enforcement authorities<sup>13</sup> are given powers to (a) require the provision of information or the production of documents<sup>14</sup>; (b) without a warrant to enter and inspect business premises, observe business activities, inspect documents found on business premises and require an explanation of any document<sup>15</sup>; (c) with a warrant to enter and search premises, take possession of documents, require an explanation of any document and to use such force as may reasonably be necessary<sup>16</sup>. However, these powers are not exercisable in relation to information or documents in respect of which a claim to legal professional privilege could be maintained in legal proceedings<sup>17</sup>. It is an offence to fail to comply with a requirement imposed by a direction<sup>18</sup>, and the enforcement authorities may impose a civil penalty on a person failing to comply with a requirement imposed by a direction<sup>19</sup>.

On an application to set aside a direction, the High Court must apply the principles applicable on an application for judicial review<sup>20</sup>.

The Attorney General may appoint a person as a special advocate to represent the interests of a party to financial restrictions proceedings<sup>21</sup> in any of those proceedings from which the party, and any legal representative of the party, is excluded<sup>22</sup>.

1 See the Counter-Terrorism Act 2008 Sch 7. See the Financial Restrictions (Iran) Order 2009, SI 2009/2725. As to procedural provisions see Sch 7 paras 14-16. The Treasury must make annual reports to Parliament on its exercise of its powers under Sch 7: Sch 7 para 38.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(viii) Anti Money Laundering/C. RECORD-KEEPING, PROCEDURES AND TRAINING/551. Record-keeping.

C. RECORD-KEEPING, PROCEDURES AND TRAINING

551. Record-keeping.

A relevant person<sup>1</sup> must keep the records specified in heads (1) and (2) below<sup>2</sup> for at least the period specified in heads (a) and (b) below<sup>3</sup>.

The records referred to above are: (1) a copy of, or the references to, the evidence of the customer's identity which has been obtained<sup>4</sup>; and (2) the supporting records (consisting of the original documents or copies) in respect of a business relationship<sup>5</sup> or occasional transaction<sup>6</sup> which is the subject of customer due diligence measures<sup>7</sup> or ongoing monitoring<sup>8</sup>. The period referred to above is five years beginning (a) in the case of the records specified in head (1) above, on the date on which the occasional transaction is completed or the business relationship ends<sup>9</sup>; or (b) in the case of the records specified in head (2) above, where the records relate to a particular transaction, on the date on which the transaction is completed; for all other records, on the date on which the business relationship ends<sup>10</sup>.

A relevant person who is relied on by another person must keep the records specified in head (1) above for five years beginning on the date on which he is relied on<sup>11</sup> in relation to any business relationship or occasional transaction<sup>12</sup>.

A person who is a credit or financial institution which is an authorised person or is a member of one of certain specified professions<sup>13</sup> who is relied on by a relevant person must, if requested by the person relying on him within the period referred to above<sup>14</sup> (i) as soon as reasonably practicable make available to the person who is relying on him any information about the customer (and any beneficial owner<sup>15</sup>) which he obtained when applying customer due diligence measures<sup>16</sup>; and (ii) as soon as reasonably practicable forward to the person who is relying on him copies of any identification and verification<sup>17</sup> data and other relevant documents on the identity of the customer (and any beneficial owner) which he obtained when applying those measures<sup>18</sup>.

A relevant person who relies on certain persons carrying on business in another EEA state or in a non-EEA state<sup>19</sup> (a 'third party') to apply customer due diligence measures must take steps to ensure that the third party will, if requested by the relevant person within the period referred to above<sup>20</sup> (A) as soon as reasonably practicable make available to him any information about the customer (and any beneficial owner) which the third party obtained when applying customer due diligence measures<sup>21</sup>; and (B) as soon as reasonably practicable forward to him copies of any identification and verification data and other relevant documents on the identity of the customer (and any beneficial owner) which the third party obtained when applying those measures<sup>22</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(viii) Anti Money Laundering/C. RECORD-KEEPING, PROCEDURES AND TRAINING/552. Policies and procedures to be established, training.

552. Policies and procedures to be established, training.

A relevant person<sup>1</sup> must establish and maintain appropriate and risk-sensitive policies and procedures<sup>2</sup> relating to: (1) customer due diligence measures<sup>3</sup> and ongoing monitoring<sup>4</sup>; (2) reporting<sup>5</sup>; (3) record-keeping<sup>6</sup>; (4) internal control<sup>7</sup>; (5) risk assessment and management<sup>8</sup>; (6) the monitoring and management of compliance with, and the internal communication of, such policies and procedures<sup>9</sup>, in order to prevent activities related to money laundering and terrorist financing<sup>10</sup>.

A credit or financial institution<sup>11</sup> must establish and maintain systems which enable it to respond fully and rapidly to inquiries from accredited financial investigators under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002<sup>12</sup>, persons acting on behalf of the Scottish Ministers in their capacity as an enforcement authority under that Act, officers of Revenue and Customs or constables as to whether it maintains, or has maintained during the previous five years, a business relationship<sup>13</sup> with any person, and the nature of that relationship<sup>14</sup>. A credit or financial institution must communicate where relevant the policies and procedures which it establishes and maintains<sup>15</sup> to its branches and subsidiary undertakings<sup>16</sup> which are located outside the United Kingdom<sup>17</sup>.

A relevant person must take appropriate measures so that all relevant employees of his are (a) made aware of the law relating to money laundering and terrorist financing<sup>18</sup>; and (b) regularly given training in how to recognise and deal with transactions and other activities which may be related to money laundering or terrorist financing<sup>19</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'relevant person' see PARA 539 note 3. See also PARA 540.

2 The policies and procedures referred to include policies and procedures:

532 (1) which provide for the identification and scrutiny of (a) complex or unusually large transactions; (b) unusual patterns of transactions which have no apparent economic or visible lawful purpose; and (c) any other activity which the relevant person regards as particularly likely by its nature to be related to money laundering or terrorist financing (Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 20(2)(a));

- 533 (2) which specify the taking of additional measures, where appropriate, to prevent the use for money laundering or terrorist financing of products and transactions which might favour anonymity (reg 20(2)(b));
- 534 (3) to determine whether a customer is a politically exposed person (reg 20(2)(c));
- 535 (4) under which (a) an individual in the relevant person's organisation is a nominated officer under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 Pt 7 (ss 327-340) (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(2) (2006 Reissue) PARA 789 et seq) and the Terrorism Act 2000 Pt III (ss 14-23) (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 390 et seq); (b) anyone in the organisation to whom information or other matter comes in the course of the business as a result of which he knows or suspects or has reasonable grounds for knowing or suspecting that a person is engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing is required to comply with the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 Pt 7 or, as the case may be, the Terrorism Act 2000 Pt III; and (c) where a disclosure is made to the nominated officer, he must consider it in the light of any relevant information which is available to the relevant person and determine whether it gives rise to knowledge or suspicion or reasonable grounds for knowledge or suspicion that a person is engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing (Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 20(2)(d)). Regulation 20(2)(d) does not apply where the relevant person is an individual who neither employs nor acts in association with any other person: reg 20(3).

As to the meanings of 'money laundering' and 'terrorist financing' see PARA 539 note 2. As to the meaning of 'politically exposed person' see PARA 549 note 19; definition applied by reg 20(6). FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(viii) Anti Money Laundering/D. SUPERVISION AND REGISTRATION/553. Supervisory authorities.

D. SUPERVISION AND REGISTRATION

553. Supervisory authorities.

- 1286 (1) the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> is the supervisory authority for: (a) credit and financial institutions<sup>3</sup> which are authorised persons<sup>4</sup>; (b) trust or company service providers<sup>5</sup> which are authorised persons<sup>6</sup>; (c) Annex I financial institutions<sup>7</sup>;
- 1287 (2) the Office for Fair Trading is the supervisory authority for: (a) consumer credit financial institutions<sup>8</sup>; (b) estate agents<sup>9</sup>;
- 1288 (3) each of certain specified professional bodies<sup>10</sup> is the supervisory authority for relevant persons<sup>11</sup> who are regulated by it<sup>12</sup>;
- 1289 (4) the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs<sup>13</sup> are the supervisory authority for: (a) high value dealers<sup>14</sup>; (b) money service businesses which are not supervised by the Authority<sup>15</sup>; (c) trust or company service providers which are not supervised by the Authority or one of the specified bodies referred to in head (3) above<sup>16</sup>; (d) auditors<sup>17</sup>, external accountants<sup>18</sup> and tax advisers<sup>19</sup> who are not supervised by one of the specified bodies referred to in head (3) above<sup>20</sup>;
- 1290 (5) the Gambling Commission<sup>21</sup> is the supervisory authority for casinos<sup>22</sup>;
- 1291 (6) the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment in Northern Ireland is the supervisory authority for: (a) credit unions in Northern Ireland<sup>23</sup>; (b) insolvency practitioners authorised by it<sup>24</sup>;
- 1292 (7) the Secretary of State<sup>25</sup> is the supervisory authority for insolvency practitioners authorised by him under the Insolvency Act 1986<sup>26</sup>.

Where under the above provisions<sup>27</sup> there is more than one supervisory authority for a relevant person, the supervisory authorities may agree that one of them will act as the supervisory authority for that person<sup>28</sup>. Where such an agreement has been made, the authority which has agreed to act as the supervisory authority must notify the relevant person or publish the agreement in such manner as it considers appropriate<sup>29</sup>. Where no such agreement has been made, the supervisory authorities for a relevant person must cooperate in the performance of their functions under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007<sup>30</sup>.

A supervisory authority must effectively monitor the relevant persons for whom it is the supervisory authority and take necessary measures for the purpose of securing compliance by such persons with the requirements of the Money Laundering Regulations 2007<sup>31</sup>. A supervisory authority which, in the course of carrying out any of its functions under the Regulations, knows or suspects that a person is or has engaged in money laundering or terrorist financing must promptly inform the Serious Organised Crime Agency<sup>32</sup>. The functions of the Financial Services Authority under the Regulations is treated for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>33</sup> as functions conferred on the Authority under that Act<sup>34</sup>.

554 Obligations on public authorities

TEXT AND NOTES--The Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs may disclose to the Financial Services Authority information held in connection with their functions under SI 2007/2157 if the disclosure is made for the purpose of enabling or assisting the Authority to discharge any of its functions under the Payment Services Regulations 2009, SI 2009/209: see SI 2007/2157 reg 49A (added by SI 2009/209).

NOTE 11--Appointed day is 1 October 2009: SI 2009/1604.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(viii) Anti Money Laundering/D. SUPERVISION AND REGISTRATION/555. Registration of high value dealers, money service businesses and trust or company service providers.

555. Registration of high value dealers, money service businesses and trust or company service providers.

The Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs<sup>1</sup> must maintain registers of high value dealers<sup>2</sup>; money service businesses<sup>3</sup> for which they are the supervisory authority<sup>4</sup>; and trust or company service providers<sup>5</sup> for which they are the supervisory authority<sup>6</sup>. The Commissioners may keep the registers in any form they think fit<sup>7</sup>. They may also publish or make available for public inspection all or part of a register maintained in accordance with these provisions<sup>8</sup>.

A person in respect of whom the Commissioners are required to maintain such a register<sup>9</sup> must not act as a high value dealer, money service business or trust or company service provider, unless he is included in the register<sup>10</sup>.

An applicant for registration in such a register must make an application in such manner and provide such information as the Commissioners may specify<sup>11</sup>. The information which the Commissioners may specify includes: (1) the applicant's name and (if different) the name of the business<sup>12</sup>; (2) the nature of the business<sup>13</sup>; (3) the name of the nominated officer (if any)<sup>14</sup>; (4) in relation to a money service business or trust or company service provider, the name of any person who effectively directs or will direct the business and any beneficial owner<sup>15</sup> of the business and information needed by the Commissioners to decide whether they must refuse the application<sup>16</sup>.

At any time after receiving an application and before determining it, the Commissioners may require the applicant to provide, within 21 days beginning with the date of being requested to do so, such further information as they reasonably consider necessary to enable them to determine the application<sup>17</sup>. There are also provisions as to material change affecting the information and where the information contains significant inaccuracy<sup>18</sup>. Any information to be provided to the Commissioners<sup>19</sup> must be in such form or verified in such manner as they may specify<sup>20</sup>.

The Commissioners must refuse to register an applicant as a money service business or trust or company service provider if they are satisfied that (a) the applicant<sup>21</sup>; (b) a person who effectively directs, or will effectively direct, the business or service provider<sup>22</sup>; (c) a beneficial owner of the business or service provider<sup>23</sup>; or (d) the nominated officer of the business or service provider<sup>24</sup>, is not a fit and proper person<sup>25</sup>.

The Commissioners may refuse to register an applicant for registration in a register<sup>26</sup> only if (i) any requirement relating to applications<sup>27</sup> has not been complied with<sup>28</sup>; (ii) it appears to the Commissioners that any information provided<sup>29</sup> is false or misleading in a material particular<sup>30</sup>; or (iii) the applicant has failed to pay a relevant charge<sup>31</sup>. The Commissioners must within 45 days beginning either with the date on which they receive the application or, where applicable, with the date on which they receive any further required information<sup>32</sup>, give the applicant notice of their decision to register the applicant<sup>33</sup>; or of their decision not to register the applicant, the reasons for their decision, the right to require a review<sup>34</sup> and the right to appeal<sup>35</sup>. The Commissioners must, as soon as practicable after deciding to register a person, include him in the relevant register<sup>36</sup>.

The Commissioners must cancel the registration of a money service business or trust or company service provider in a register<sup>37</sup> if, at any time after registration, they are satisfied that he or any person mentioned in head (b), (c) or (d) above is not a fit and proper person<sup>38</sup>. The Commissioners may also cancel a person's registration in such a register if, at any time after registration, it appears to them that they would have had grounds to refuse registration under heads (i) to (iii) above<sup>39</sup>.

Where the Commissioners decide to cancel a person's registration they must give him notice of (A) their decision and<sup>40</sup> the date from which the cancellation takes effect<sup>41</sup>; (B) the reasons for their decision<sup>42</sup>; (C) the right to require a review<sup>43</sup>; and (D) the right to appeal<sup>44</sup>. If the Commissioners consider that the interests of the public require the cancellation of a person's registration to have immediate effect<sup>45</sup>, and they include a statement to that effect and the reasons for it in the above notice<sup>46</sup>, the cancellation takes effect when the notice is given to the person<sup>47</sup>.

10 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 26(1). Regulation 26(1) and reg 29 (see the text and notes 26-36) are subject to the transitional provisions set out in reg 50: reg 26(2).

Regulation 26 does not apply to an existing money service business, an existing trust or company service provider or an existing high value dealer until (1) where it has applied in accordance with reg 27 (see the text to notes 11-18) before the specified date for registration in a register maintained under reg 25(1) (a 'new register') (a) the date it is included in a new register following the determination of its application by the Commissioners; or (b) where the Commissioners give it notice under reg 29(2)(b) (see the text to note 35) of their decision not to register it, the date on which the Commissioners state that the decision takes effect or, where a statement is included in accordance with reg 50(3)(b) (see head (ii) below), the time at which the Commissioners give it such notice; (2) in any other case, the specified date: reg 50(1). 'Existing money service business' and an 'existing high value dealer' mean a money service business or a high value dealer which, immediately before 15 December 2007, was included in a register maintained under the Money Laundering Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3075, reg 10 (revoked); and 'existing trust or company service provider' means a trust or company service provider carrying on business in the United Kingdom immediately before 15 December 2007: Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 50(5). The 'specified date' is: in the case of an existing money service business, 1 February 2008; in the case of an existing trust or company service provider, 1 April 2008; in the case of an existing high value dealer, the first anniversary which falls on or after 1 January 2008 of the date of its registration in a register maintained under the Money Laundering Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3075, reg 10 (revoked): Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 50(2). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

In the case of an application for registration in a new register made before the specified date by an existing money service business, an existing trust or company service provider or an existing high value dealer, the Commissioners must include in a notice given to it under reg 29(2)(b) (see the text to note 35) (i) the date on which their decision is to take effect; or (ii) if the Commissioners consider that the interests of the public require their decision to have immediate effect, a statement to that effect and the reasons for it: reg 50(3).

In the case of an application for registration in a new register made before the specified date by an existing money services business or an existing trust or company service provider, the Commissioners must give it a notice under reg 29(2) (see the text and notes 32-35) by (A) in the case of an existing money service business, 1 June 2008; (B) in the case of an existing trust or company service provider, 1 July 2008; or (C) where applicable, 45 days beginning with the date on which they receive any further information required under reg 27(3) (see the text to note 17): reg 50(4).

13 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 27(2)(b).

14 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 27(2)(c). 'Nominated officer' means a person who is nominated to receive disclosures under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 Pt 7 (ss 327-340) (money laundering) (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(2) (2006 Reissue) PARA 789 et seq) or Terrorism Act 2000 Pt III (ss 14-23) (terrorist property) (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 390 et seq): Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 2(1).

15 As to the meaning of 'beneficial owner' see PARA 542 note 2.

17 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 27(3).

18 See the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 27(4), (5). If at any time after the applicant has provided the Commissioners with any information under reg 27(1) or (3), (1) there is a material change affecting any matter contained in that information; or (2) it becomes apparent to that person that the information contains a significant inaccuracy, he must provide the Commissioners with details of the change or, as the case may be, a correction of the inaccuracy within 30 days beginning with the date of the occurrence of the change (or the discovery of the inaccuracy) or within such later time as may be agreed with the Commissioners: reg 27(4). The obligation in reg 27(4) applies also to material changes or significant inaccuracies affecting any matter contained in any supplementary information provided pursuant to that provision: reg 27(5).

- 25 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 28(1). For these purposes, a person is not a fit and proper person if:
  - 536 (1) he has been convicted of (a) an offence under the Terrorism Act 2000 (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 390 et seq); (b) an offence under the Anti-Terrorism, Crime and Security Act 2001 Sch 3 para 7(2) or (3) (offences) (see SENTENCING AND DISPOSITION OF OFFENDERS vol 92 (2010) PARA 549); (c) an offence under the Terrorism Act 2006 (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 425 et seq); (d) an offence under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 Pt 7 (ss 327-340) (money laundering) (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(2) (2006 Reissue) PARA 789), or listed in Sch 2 (lifestyle offences: England and Wales) (see SENTENCING AND DISPOSITION OF OFFENDERS vol 92 (2010) PARA 390 et seq), Sch 4 (lifestyle offences: Scotland) or Sch 5 (lifestyle offences: Northern Ireland); (e) an offence under the Fraud Act 2006 (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE) or, in Scotland, the common law offence of fraud; (f) an offence under the Value Added Tax Act 1994 s 72(1), (3) or (8) (offences) (see VALUE ADDED TAX vol 49(1) (2005 Reissue) PARA 316 et seq); or (g) the common law offence of cheating the public revenue (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 322) (Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 28(2)(a));
  - 537 (2) he has been adjudged bankrupt or sequestration of his estate has been awarded and (in either case) he has not been discharged (see generally BANKRUPTCY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY) (reg 28(2)(b));
  - 538 (3) he is subject to a disqualification order under the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986 (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 1578 et seq) (Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 28(2)(c));
  - 539 (4) he is or has been subject to a confiscation order under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 (see SENTENCING AND DISPOSITION OF OFFENDERS vol 92 (2010) PARA 390 et seq) (Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 28(2)(d));
  - 540 (5) he has consistently failed to comply with the requirements of the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, the Money Laundering Regulations 2003, SI 2003/3075 (revoked) or the Money Laundering Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3641 (revoked) (Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 28(2)(e));
  - 541 (6) he has consistently failed to comply with the requirements of European Parliament and EC Council Regulation 1781/2006 (OJ L345, 8.12.2006, p 1) on information on the payer accompanying the transfer of funds (Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 28(2)(f));
  - 542 (7) he has effectively directed a business which falls within head (5) or (6) (reg 28(2)(g));
  - 543 (8) he is otherwise not a fit and proper person with regard to the risk of money laundering or terrorist financing (reg 28(2)(h)).

For the above purposes, a conviction for an offence listed in head (1) is to be disregarded if it is spent for the purposes of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (see SENTENCING AND DISPOSITION OF OFFENDERS vol 92 (2010) PARA 660 et seq): Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 28(3). ## UPDATE

555 Registration of high value dealers, money service businesses and trust or company service providers

TEXT AND NOTES 1-6--The Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs must also maintain registers of bill payment service providers for which they are the supervisory authority; and telecommunication, digital and IT payment service providers for which they are the supervisory authority: SI 2007/2157 reg 25(1)(d), (e) (added by SI 2009/209). For the meaning of 'bill payment service provider' and 'telecommunication, digital and IT payment service provider' see PARA 553.

TEXT AND NOTES 9, 10--Such a person must also not act as a bill payment service provider or a telecommunication, digital and IT payment service provider, unless he is included in the register: SI 2007/2157 reg 26(1) (amended by SI 2009/209). For the meaning of 'bill payment service provider' and 'telecommunication, digital and IT payment service provider' see PARA 553. The provision excluding the application of reg 26 is extended to an existing bill payment service provider or an existing telecommunication, digital and IT payment service provider: SI 2007/2157 reg 50(1) (amended by SI 2009/209). 'Existing bill payment service provider' and 'existing telecommunication, digital and IT payment service provider' mean a bill payment service provider or a telecommunication, digital and IT payment service provider carrying on business in the United Kingdom immediately before 1 November 2009: SI 2007/2157 reg 50(5) (definition added by SI 2009/209). The 'specified date' is, in the case of an existing bill payment service provider or an existing telecommunication, digital and IT payment service provider, 1 March 2010: SI 2007/2157 reg 50(2) (amended by SI 2009/209). The provision setting out what the Commissioners must include in a notice under reg 29(2)(b) is extended to an existing bill payment service provider or an existing telecommunication, digital and IT payment service provider: SI 2007/2157 reg 50(3) (amended by SI 2009/209).

556. Requirement on authorised person to inform the Financial Services Authority.

An authorised person<sup>1</sup> whose supervisory authority<sup>2</sup> is the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> must, before acting as a money service business<sup>4</sup> or a trust or company service provider<sup>5</sup> or within 28 days of so doing, inform the Authority that he intends, or has begun, to act as such<sup>6</sup>.

Where an authorised person whose supervisory authority is the Authority ceases to act as a money service business or a trust or company service provider, he must immediately inform the Authority<sup>7</sup>.

Any requirement imposed by this provision<sup>8</sup> is to be treated as if it were a requirement imposed by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>9</sup>. Any information to be provided to the Authority under this provision must be in such form or verified in such manner as it may specify<sup>10</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'authorised person' see PARA 549 note 7.

2 As to the meaning of 'supervisory authority' see PARA 542 note 7. See also PARA 553.

3 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

4 As to the meaning of 'money service business' see PARA 540 note 4.

5 As to the meaning of 'trust or company service provider' see PARA 540 note 6.

6 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 31(1). Regulation 31(1) does not apply to an authorised person who (1) immediately before 15 December 2007 was acting as a money service business or a trust or company service provider and continues to act as such after that date; and (2) before 15 January 2008 informs the Authority that he is or was acting as such: reg 31(2).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(viii) Anti Money Laundering/D. SUPERVISION AND REGISTRATION/557. Registration of Annex I financial institutions, estate agents, etc.

557. Registration of Annex I financial institutions, estate agents, etc.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>5</sup> may maintain a register of Annex I financial institutions<sup>6</sup>. The Office of Fair Trading<sup>7</sup> may maintain registers of consumer credit financial institutions<sup>8</sup>; and estate agents<sup>9</sup>. The Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs<sup>10</sup> may maintain registers of auditors<sup>11</sup>; external accountants<sup>12</sup>; and tax advisers<sup>13</sup>, who are not supervised by the Secretary of State<sup>14</sup>, the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment in Northern Ireland or any of certain specified professional bodies<sup>15</sup>.

Where a supervisory authority decides to maintain such a register<sup>16</sup>, it must take reasonable steps to bring its decision to the attention of those relevant persons<sup>17</sup> in respect of whom the register is to be established<sup>18</sup>. A supervisory authority may keep such a register in any form it thinks fit<sup>19</sup>. A supervisory authority may also publish or make available to public inspection all or part of such a register<sup>20</sup>.

Where a supervisory authority decides to maintain a register<sup>21</sup> in respect of any description of relevant persons and establishes a register for that purpose, a relevant person of that description may not carry on the business or profession in question for a period of more than six months beginning on the date on which the supervisory authority establishes the register unless he is included in the register<sup>22</sup>.

The Authority and the Office of Fair Trading may refuse to register an applicant for registration in a register<sup>26</sup> where: (1) any requirement any requirement relating to applications<sup>27</sup> has not been complied with<sup>28</sup>; (2) it appears to the Authority or the Office of Fair Trading, as the case may be, that any information provided<sup>29</sup> is false or misleading in a material particular<sup>30</sup>; or (3) the applicant has failed to pay a relevant charge imposed by the Authority or the Office of Fair Trading, as the case may be<sup>31</sup>.

The Authority or the Office of Fair Trading, as the case may be, must, within 45 days beginning either with the date on which it receives an application or, where applicable, with the date on which it receives any further information<sup>32</sup>, give the applicant notice of its decision to register the applicant<sup>33</sup>; or that it is minded not to register the applicant, the reasons for being minded not to register him and the right to make representations to it within a specified period (which may not be less than 28 days)<sup>34</sup>. The Authority or the Office of Fair Trading, as the case may be, must then decide, within a reasonable period, whether to register the applicant and it must give the applicant notice of its decision to register the applicant<sup>35</sup>; or of its decision not to register the applicant, the reasons for its decision and the right to appeal<sup>36</sup>. The Authority or the Office of Fair Trading, as the case may be, must, as soon as reasonably practicable after deciding to register a person, include him in the relevant register<sup>37</sup>.

The Authority or the Office of Fair Trading may cancel a person's registration in a register<sup>38</sup> if, at any time after registration, it appears to them that they would have had grounds to refuse registration under heads (1) to (3) above<sup>39</sup>. Where the Authority or the Office of Fair Trading proposes to cancel a person's registration, it must give him notice of (a) its proposal to cancel his registration<sup>40</sup>; (b) the reasons for the proposed cancellation<sup>41</sup>; and (c) the right to make representations to it within a specified period (which may not be less than 28 days)<sup>42</sup>. The Authority or the Office of Fair Trading, as the case may be, must then decide, within a reasonable period, whether to cancel the person's registration and it must give him notice of its decision not to cancel his registration<sup>43</sup>; or of its decision to cancel his registration and<sup>44</sup> the date from which cancellation takes effect, the reasons for its decision and the right to appeal<sup>45</sup>.

If the Authority or the Office of Fair Trading, as the case may be (i) considers that the interests of the public require the cancellation of a person's registration to have immediate effect<sup>46</sup>; and (ii) includes a statement to that effect and the reasons for it in the notice given<sup>47</sup>, the cancellation takes effect when the notice is given to the person<sup>48</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(viii) Anti Money Laundering/D. SUPERVISION AND REGISTRATION/558. Costs of supervision.

558. Costs of supervision.

Such charges<sup>7</sup> must not exceed such amount as the Authority, the Office of Fair Trading or the Commissioners (as the case may be) consider will enable them to meet any expenses<sup>8</sup> reasonably incurred by them in carrying out their functions under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007<sup>9</sup> or for any incidental purpose<sup>10</sup>. Without prejudice to the generality of the above provision<sup>11</sup>, a charge may be levied in respect of each of the premises at which a person carries on (or proposes to carry on) business<sup>12</sup>.

The Authority must apply amounts paid to it by way of penalties<sup>13</sup> towards expenses incurred in carrying out its functions under the Regulations or for any incidental purpose<sup>14</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARA 4, 6 et seq.

2 As to the Office of Fair Trading see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 6 et seq.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(viii) Anti Money Laundering/E. ENFORCEMENT/(A) Powers of Authorities/559. Power to require information and attendance.

E. ENFORCEMENT

(A) POWERS OF AUTHORITIES

559. Power to require information and attendance.

An officer<sup>1</sup> may, by notice to a relevant person<sup>2</sup> or to a person connected with a relevant person<sup>3</sup>, require the relevant person or the connected person, as the case may be (1) to provide such information as may be specified in the notice<sup>4</sup>; (2) to produce such recorded information<sup>5</sup> as may be so specified<sup>6</sup>; or (3) to attend before an officer at a time and place specified in the notice and answer questions<sup>7</sup>.

An officer may exercise the powers<sup>8</sup> only if the information sought to be obtained as a result is reasonably required in connection with the exercise by the designated authority<sup>9</sup> for whom he acts of its functions under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007<sup>10</sup>. In relation to information recorded otherwise than in legible form, the power to require production of it includes a power to require the production of a copy of it in legible form or in a form from which it can readily be produced in visible and legible form<sup>11</sup>. The production of a document does not affect any lien which a person has on the document<sup>12</sup>.

A person may not be required<sup>13</sup> to provide or produce information or to answer questions which he would be entitled to refuse to provide, produce or answer on grounds of legal professional privilege<sup>14</sup> in proceedings in the High Court, except that a lawyer may be required to provide the name and address of his client<sup>15</sup>.

If, on an application made by (a) a designated authority<sup>16</sup>; or (b) a local weights and measures authority or the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment in Northern Ireland pursuant to arrangements made with the Office of Fair Trading by or on behalf of the authority; or by the Department<sup>17</sup>, it appears to the court<sup>18</sup> that a person (the 'information defaulter') has failed to do something that he was required to do<sup>19</sup>, the court may make a order<sup>20</sup>. Such an order may require the information defaulter (i) to do the thing that he failed to do within such period as may be specified in the order<sup>21</sup>; (ii) otherwise to take such steps to remedy the consequences of the failure as may be so specified<sup>22</sup>.

If the information defaulter is a body corporate, a partnership or an unincorporated body of persons which is not a partnership, the order may require any officer of the body corporate, partnership or body, who is (wholly or partly) responsible for the failure to meet such costs of the application as are specified in the order<sup>23</sup>.

1 'Officer', except in the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 40(3) (see the text to note 23), reg 41 (see PARA 562) and reg 47 (see PARA 564) means (1) an officer of the Financial Services Authority, including a member of the Authority's staff or an agent of the Authority; (2) an officer of Revenue and Customs; (3) an officer of the Office of Fair Trading; (4) a relevant officer; or (5) an officer of the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment in Northern Ireland acting for the purposes of its functions under the Regulations in relation to credit unions in Northern Ireland; and 'relevant officer' means: (a) in Great Britain, an officer of a local weights and measures authority; (b) in Northern Ireland, an officer of the Department for Enterprise, Trade and Investment in Northern Ireland acting pursuant to arrangements made with the Office of Fair Trading for the purposes of the Regulations: reg 36. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. As to officers of Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs see CUSTOMS AND EXCISE vol 12(3) (2007 Reissue) PARA 901. As to the Office of Fair Trading see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 6 et seq. As to credit unions generally see PARAS 2395, 2402. As to the meaning of 'Great Britain' see PARA 2 note 3. 3 For these purposes, a person is connected with a relevant person if he is, or has at any time been, in relation to the relevant person, a person listed in the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, Sch 4: reg 37(2). The persons are as follows:

- 544 (1) if the relevant person is a body corporate ('BC'), a person who is or has been (a) an officer or manager of BC or of a parent undertaking of BC; (b) an employee of BC; (c) an agent of BC or of a parent undertaking of BC (Sch 4 para 1);
- 545 (2) if the relevant person is a partnership, a person who is or has been a member, manager, employee or agent of the partnership (Sch 4 para 2);
- 546 (3) if the relevant person is an unincorporated association of persons which is not a partnership, a person who is or has been an officer, manager, employee or agent of the association (Sch 4 para 3);
- 547 (4) if the relevant person is an individual, a person who is or has been an employee or agent of that individual (Sch 4 para 4).

See generally CLUBS; COMPANIES; CORPORATIONS; PARTNERSHIP.

560. Entry, inspection without a warrant.

Where an officer<sup>1</sup> has reasonable cause to believe that any premises<sup>2</sup> are being used by a relevant person<sup>3</sup> in connection with his business or professional activities, he may on producing evidence of his authority at any reasonable time (1) enter the premises<sup>4</sup>; (2) inspect the premises<sup>5</sup>; (3) observe the carrying on of business or professional activities by the relevant person<sup>6</sup>; (4) inspect any recorded information<sup>7</sup> found on the premises<sup>8</sup>; (5) require any person on the premises to provide an explanation of any recorded information or to state where it may be found<sup>9</sup>; (6) in the case of a money service business<sup>10</sup> or a high value dealer<sup>11</sup>, inspect any cash found on the premises<sup>12</sup>. An officer may take copies of, or make extracts from, any recorded information found under the above provisions<sup>13</sup>.

Heads (4) and (5) above and the provision on taking copies<sup>14</sup> do not apply to recorded information which the relevant person would be entitled to refuse to disclose on grounds of legal professional privilege<sup>15</sup> in proceedings in the High Court, except that a lawyer may be required to provide the name and address of his client<sup>16</sup>.

An officer may exercise the above powers<sup>17</sup> only if the information sought to be obtained as a result is reasonably required in connection with the exercise by the designated authority<sup>18</sup> for whom he acts of its functions under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007<sup>19</sup>.

561. Entry of premises under warrant.

A justice<sup>1</sup> may issue a warrant<sup>2</sup> if satisfied on information on oath given by an officer<sup>3</sup> that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the first<sup>4</sup>, second<sup>5</sup> or third set of conditions<sup>6</sup> is satisfied<sup>7</sup>.

A justice may issue a warrant<sup>8</sup> if satisfied on information on oath given by an officer that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that (1) an offence under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007<sup>9</sup> has been, is being or is about to be committed by a relevant person<sup>10</sup>; and (2) there is on the premises specified in the warrant recorded information relevant to whether that offence has been, or is being or is about to be committed<sup>11</sup>.

A warrant issued under the above provisions<sup>12</sup> must authorise an officer<sup>13</sup> (a) to enter the premises specified in the warrant<sup>14</sup>; (b) to search the premises and take possession of any recorded information or anything appearing to be recorded information specified in the warrant or to take, in relation to any such recorded information, any other steps which may appear to be necessary for preserving it or preventing interference with it<sup>15</sup>; (c) to take copies of, or extracts from, any recorded information specified in the warrant<sup>16</sup>; (d) to require any person on the premises to provide an explanation of any recorded information appearing to be of the kind specified in the warrant or to state where it may be found<sup>17</sup>; (e) to use such force as may reasonably be necessary<sup>18</sup>.

1 In the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 39(1), (5), (7), 'justice' means: (1) in relation to England and Wales, a justice of the peace; (2) in relation to Northern Ireland, a lay magistrate: reg 39(8)(a), (c). As to Scotland see reg 39(8)(b) but generally Scottish matters are beyond the scope of this work.

3 As to the meaning of 'officer' see PARA 559 note 1.

4 The first set of conditions is: (1) that there is on the premises specified in the warrant recorded information in relation to which a requirement could be imposed under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 37(1)(b) (see PARA 559); and (2) that if such a requirement were to be imposed (a) it would not be complied with; or (b) the recorded information to which it relates would be removed, tampered with or destroyed: reg 39(2). As to the meaning of 'recorded information' see PARA 559 note 5.

5 The second set of conditions is: (1) that a person on whom a requirement has been imposed under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 37(1)(b) (see PARA 559) has failed (wholly or in part) to comply with it; and (2) that there is on the premises specified in the warrant recorded information which has been required to be produced: reg 39(3).

6 The third set of conditions is: (1) that an officer has been obstructed in the exercise of a power under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 38 (see PARA 560); and (2) that there is on the premises specified in the warrant recorded information or cash which could be inspected under reg 38(1)(d) or (f) (see PARA 560): reg 39(4).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(viii) Anti Money Laundering/E. ENFORCEMENT/(B) Civil Penalties, Review and Appeals/563. Power to impose civil penalties.

(B) CIVIL PENALTIES, REVIEW AND APPEALS

563. Power to impose civil penalties.

A designated authority<sup>1</sup> may impose a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate<sup>2</sup> on a relevant person<sup>3</sup> who fails to comply with any requirement in certain provisions of the Money Laundering Regulations 2007<sup>4</sup> or with a direction where the Financial Action Task Force is applying counter-measures<sup>5</sup>. Such a penalty is payable to the designated authority which imposes it<sup>6</sup>.

The designated authority must not impose such a penalty on a person<sup>7</sup> where there are reasonable grounds for it to be satisfied that the person took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to ensure that the requirement would be complied with<sup>8</sup>.

In deciding whether a person has failed to comply with a requirement of the Regulations, the designated authority must consider whether he followed any relevant guidance which was at the time (1) issued by a supervisory authority or any other appropriate body<sup>9</sup>; (2) approved by the Treasury<sup>10</sup>; and (3) published in a manner approved by the Treasury as suitable in its opinion to bring the guidance to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it<sup>11</sup>.

Where the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs<sup>12</sup> decide to impose a penalty<sup>13</sup>, they must give the person notice of (a) their decision to impose the penalty and its amount<sup>14</sup>; (b) the reasons for imposing the penalty<sup>15</sup>; (c) the right to a review<sup>16</sup>; and (d) the right to appeal<sup>17</sup>.

Where the Financial Services Authority<sup>18</sup>, the Office of Fair Trading<sup>19</sup> or the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment in Northern Ireland proposes to impose a penalty<sup>20</sup>, it must give the person notice of (i) its proposal to impose the penalty and the proposed amount<sup>21</sup>; (ii) the reasons for imposing the penalty<sup>22</sup>; and (iii) the right to make representations to it within a specified period (which may not be less than 28 days)<sup>23</sup>. The Authority, the Office of Fair Trading or the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment in Northern Ireland, as the case may be, must then decide, within a reasonable period, whether to impose a penalty<sup>24</sup> and it must give the person notice of (A) its decision not to impose a penalty<sup>25</sup>; or (B) its decision to impose a penalty and the amount, the reasons for its decision and the right to appeal<sup>26</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'designated authority' see PARA 559 note 9.

2 For this purpose, 'appropriate' means effective, proportionate and dissuasive: see the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 42(1).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(viii) Anti Money Laundering/E. ENFORCEMENT/(B) Civil Penalties, Review and Appeals/564. Review and appeals.

564. Review and appeals.

Any person who is the subject of a decision<sup>1</sup> by the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs<sup>2</sup> may by notice to the Commissioners require them to review that decision<sup>3</sup>. The Commissioners need not review any decision unless the notice requiring the review is given within 45 days beginning with the date on which they first gave notice of the decision to the person requiring the review<sup>4</sup>.

Where the Commissioners are required<sup>5</sup> to review any decision they must either (1) confirm the decision<sup>6</sup>; or (2) withdraw or vary the decision and take such further steps (if any) in consequence of the withdrawal or variation as they consider appropriate<sup>7</sup>. Where the Commissioners do not, within 45 days beginning with the date on which the review was required by a person, give notice to that person of their determination of the review, they are to be taken for the purposes of the Money Laundering Regulations 2007<sup>8</sup> to have confirmed the decision<sup>9</sup>.

A person may appeal from a decision by (a) the Commissioners on a review<sup>10</sup>; and (b) the Financial Services Authority<sup>11</sup>, the Office of Fair Trading<sup>12</sup> or the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment in Northern Ireland in regard to non-registration or cancellation of registration or the imposition or non-imposition of a penalty<sup>13</sup>.

An appeal from a decision (i) by the Commissioners is to a VAT and duties tribunal<sup>14</sup>; (ii) by the Authority is to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>15</sup>; (iii) by the Office of Fair Trading is to the Consumer Credit Appeals Tribunal<sup>16</sup>; and (iv) by the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment in Northern Ireland is to the High Court<sup>17</sup>.

A VAT and duties tribunal hearing an appeal under reg 44(2) has the power to (1) quash or vary any decision of the supervisory authority, including the power to reduce any penalty to such amount (including nil) as it thinks proper; and (2) substitute its own decision for any decision quashed on appeal: reg 44(6). As to the meaning of 'supervisory authority' see PARA 542 note 7. See also PARA 553.

The provisions of the Value Added Tax Act 1994 Pt V (ss 82-87) (appeals) (see VALUE ADDED TAX vol 49(1) (2005 Reissue) PARA 346 et seq), subject to the modifications set out in the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, Sch 5 para 1, apply in respect of appeals to a VAT and duties tribunal made under reg 44 as they apply in respect of appeals made to such a tribunal under the Value Added Tax Act 1994 s 83 (appeals) (see VALUE ADDED TAX vol 49(1) (2005 Reissue) PARA 346): Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 44(3).

The Value Added Tax Act 1994 Pt V (appeals) is modified as follows: (a) s 84 (see VALUE ADDED TAX vol 49(1) (2005 Reissue) PARA 347) is omitted; and (b) in s 87(1)(a), (2)(a), (3)(a) (see VALUE ADDED TAX vol 49(1) (2005 Reissue) PARA 369) the words ', or is recoverable as, VAT' are omitted: Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 44(8), Sch 5 para 1.

15 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 44(2)(b). As to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARA 43 et seq.

The provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt IX (ss 132-137) (hearings and appeals) (see PARAS 43-46, 65, 67-69), subject to the modifications set out in the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, Sch 5 para 2, apply in respect of appeals to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal made under reg 44 as they apply in respect of references made to that Tribunal under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000: Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 44(4).

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt IX (hearings and appeals) is modified as follows: (1) in the application of s 133 (see PARAS 46, 65) and Sch 13 (see PARAS 43-46, 56, 64, 65) to any appeal commenced before the coming into force of the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 55 (see CONSUMER CREDIT; and also note 16), for all the references to 'the Authority', there is substituted 'the Authority or the Office of Fair Trading (as the case may be)'; (2) in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 133(1)(a) (see PARA 46) for the words 'decision notice or supervisory notice in question' there are substituted the words 'notice under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 34(5) or (9) or reg 42(7)'; (3) the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 133(6), (7), (8), (12) (see PARA 46) is omitted; and (4) in s 133(9) (see PARA 46) for the words 'decision notice' in both places where they occur there are substituted the words 'notice under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 34(5) or (9) or reg 42(7)': Sch 5 para 2.

In the application of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal Rules 2001, SI 2001/2476 (see PARA 47 et seq) to any appeal commenced before the coming into force of the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 55, for all the references to 'the Authority' there is substituted 'the Authority or the Office of Fair Trading (as the case may be)': Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, Sch 5 para 3.

16 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 44(2)(c). As to the Consumer Credit Appeals Tribunal see CONSUMER CREDIT.

The Consumer Credit Act 1974 s 40A (the Consumer Credit Appeals Tribunal), s 41 (appeals to the Secretary of State) and s 41A (appeals from the Consumer Credit Appeals Tribunal) (see CONSUMER CREDIT) apply in respect of appeals to the Consumer Credit Appeal Tribunal made under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 44 as they apply in respect of appeals made to that Tribunal under the Consumer Credit Act 1974 s 41: Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 44(5).

Notwithstanding reg 44(2)(c), until the coming into force of the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 55 (the Consumer Credit Appeals Tribunal) (ie 1 December 2007 for certain purposes, and 6 April 2008 for remaining purposes) (s 55 adds the Consumer Credit Act 1974 s 40A), an appeal from a decision by the Office of Fair Trading is to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal and, for these purposes, the coming into force of that provision does not affect (1) the hearing and determination by the Financial Service and Markets Tribunal of an appeal commenced before the coming into force of that provision (the 'original appeal'); or (2) any appeal against the decision of the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal with respect to the original appeal: Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 44(7).

17 Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 44(2)(d). As to the High Court generally see COURTS.

(C) CRIMINAL OFFENCES

565. Offences.

A person who fails to comply with any requirement in certain provisions of the Money Laundering Regulations 2007<sup>1</sup> or with a direction where the Financial Action Task Force is applying counter-measures<sup>2</sup>, is guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine, imprisonment or both<sup>3</sup>.

In deciding whether a person has committed such an offence<sup>4</sup>, the court must consider whether he followed any relevant guidance which was at the time (1) issued by a supervisory authority<sup>5</sup> or any other appropriate body<sup>6</sup>; (2) approved by the Treasury<sup>7</sup>; and (3) published in a manner approved by the Treasury as suitable in its opinion to bring the guidance to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it<sup>8</sup>.

A person is not guilty of such an offence if he took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence<sup>9</sup>. Where a person is convicted of such an offence, he is not also liable to a civil penalty<sup>10</sup>.

If an offence as described above<sup>11</sup> which is committed by a body corporate is shown (a) to have been committed with the consent or the connivance of an officer<sup>12</sup> of the body corporate<sup>13</sup>; or (b) to be attributable to any neglect on his part<sup>14</sup>, the officer as well as the body corporate is guilty of an offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly<sup>15</sup>.

If such an offence committed by a partnership is shown (i) to have been committed with the consent or the connivance of a partner<sup>16</sup>; or (ii) to be attributable to any neglect on his part<sup>17</sup>, the partner as well as the partnership is guilty of an offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly<sup>18</sup>.

If such an offence committed by an unincorporated association (other than a partnership) is shown (A) to have been committed with the consent or the connivance of an officer of the association<sup>19</sup>; or (B) to be attributable to any neglect on his part<sup>20</sup>, that officer as well as the association is guilty of an offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly<sup>21</sup>.

Proceedings for an offence alleged to have been committed by a partnership or an unincorporated association must be brought in the name of the partnership or association (and not in that of its members)<sup>22</sup>. A fine imposed on the partnership or association on its conviction of an offence is to be paid out of the funds of the partnership or association<sup>23</sup>. Rules of court relating to the service of documents are to have effect as if the partnership or association were a body corporate<sup>24</sup>. In proceedings for an offence brought against the partnership or association a number of other legislative provisions apply<sup>25</sup>.

1     I.e. any requirement in the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 7(1), (2) or (3) (see PARA 542), reg 8(1) or (3) (see PARA 543), reg 9(2) (see PARA 543), reg 10(1) (see PARA 544), reg 11(1)(a) (see PARA 545), reg 14(1) (see PARA 546), reg 15(1) or (2) (see PARA 547), reg 16(1), (2), (3) or (4) (see PARA 548), reg 19(1), (4), (5) or (6) (see PARA 551), reg 20(1), (4) or (5) (see PARA 552), reg 21 (see PARA 552), reg 26 (see PARA 555), reg 27(4) (see PARA 555) or reg 33 (see PARA 557): see reg 45(1).

2     I.e. a direction by the Treasury made under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 18 (see PARA 550): see reg 45(1).

3     Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 45(1). Such a person is liable (1) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum; (2) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, to a fine or to both: see reg 45(1). As to the statutory maximum see PARA 56 note 24.

4     I.e. an offence under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2157, reg 45(1).

565 Offences

NOTE 24--CPR Pt 6 substituted: SI 2008/2178.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(viii) Anti Money Laundering/E. ENFORCEMENT/ (C) Criminal Offences/566. Prosecution of offences.

566. Prosecution of offences.

Proceedings for an offence under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007<sup>1</sup> may be instituted by: (1) the Director of Revenue and Customs Prosecutions<sup>2</sup> or by order of the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs<sup>3</sup>; (2) the Office of Fair Trading<sup>4</sup>; (3) a local weights and measures authority<sup>5</sup>; (4) the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment in Northern Ireland<sup>6</sup>; (5) the Director of Public Prosecutions<sup>7</sup>; or (6) the Director of Public Prosecutions for Northern Ireland<sup>8</sup>.

Proceedings for such an offence may be instituted only against a relevant person<sup>9</sup> or, where such a person is a body corporate, a partnership or an unincorporated association, against any person who is liable to be proceeded against<sup>10</sup>.

Where proceedings are instituted<sup>11</sup> by order of the Commissioners, the proceedings must be brought in the name of an officer of Revenue and Customs<sup>12</sup>.

Where a local weights and measures authority in England or Wales proposes to institute proceedings for such an offence<sup>13</sup> it must give the Office of Fair Trading notice of the intended proceedings, together with a summary of the facts on which the charges are to be founded<sup>14</sup>. A local weights and measures authority must also notify the Office of Fair Trading of the outcome of the proceedings after they are finally determined<sup>15</sup>. Such an authority must also, whenever the Office of Fair Trading requires, report in such form and with such particulars as it requires on the exercise of its functions under the Money Laundering Regulations 2007<sup>16</sup>.

Where the Commissioners investigate, or propose to investigate, any matter with a view to determining (a) whether there are grounds for believing that an offence<sup>17</sup> has been committed by any person<sup>18</sup>; or (b) whether such a person should be prosecuted for such an offence<sup>19</sup>, that matter is to be treated as an assigned matter within the meaning of the Customs and Excise Management Act 1979<sup>20</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(ix) Offences/568. Misleading statements and practices.

568. Misleading statements and practices.

A person who: (1) makes a statement, promise or forecast which he knows to be misleading, false or deceptive in a material particular<sup>1</sup>; (2) dishonestly conceals any material facts whether in connection with a statement, promise or forecast made by him or otherwise<sup>2</sup>; or (3) recklessly makes (dishonestly or otherwise) a statement, promise or forecast which is misleading, false or deceptive in a material particular<sup>3</sup>, is guilty of an offence if he makes the statement, promise or forecast or conceals the facts for the purpose of inducing, or is reckless as to whether it may induce, another person (whether or not the person to whom the statement, promise or forecast is made) to enter or offer to enter into, or to refrain from entering or offering to enter into, a relevant agreement<sup>4</sup>, or to exercise, or refrain from exercising, any rights conferred by a relevant investment<sup>5</sup>.

Any person who does any act or engages in any course of conduct which creates a false or misleading impression as to the market in or the price or value of any relevant investments is guilty of an offence if he does so for the purpose of creating that impression and of thereby inducing another person to acquire, dispose of, subscribe for or underwrite those investments or to refrain from doing so or to exercise, or refrain from exercising, any rights conferred by those investments<sup>6</sup>.

A person guilty of an offence under these provisions<sup>7</sup> is liable to imprisonment or a fine or both<sup>8</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 397(1)(a).

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 397(1)(b).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 397(1)(c).

4 'Relevant agreement' means an agreement: (1) the entering into or performance of which by either party constitutes an activity of a specified kind or one which falls within a specified class of activity; and (2) which relates to a relevant investment: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 397(9). 'Specified' means specified in an order made by the Treasury: s 397(14). As to orders under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 generally see PARA 67 note 1. 'Relevant investment' means an investment of a specified kind or one which falls within a prescribed class of investment: s 397(10). 'Investment' includes any asset, right or interest: s 397(13). 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

The following kinds of activity are specified for the purposes of s 397(9)(a) (see head (1) above): (a) a controlled activity; (b) an activity which falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 9 (providing funeral plan contracts) (see PARA 236), or agreeing to carry on such an activity (see PARA 240); (c) an activity which falls within Sch 1 para 10 (providing qualifying credit) (see PARA 237), or agreeing to carry on such an activity (see PARA 240); (d) an activity which falls within Sch 1 para 10A (arranging qualifying credit) (see PARA 237), or agreeing to carry on such an activity (see PARA 240); (e) an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 45 (sending dematerialised instructions) (see PARA 190), art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 171), art 52 (establishing etc a stakeholder pension scheme) (see PARA 187) or art 57 (managing the underwriting capacity of a Lloyd's syndicate) (see PARA 198); (f) (so far as not already specified by head (a) above) art 14 (dealing in investments as principal) (see PARA 112), art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126), art 25(1) or (2) (arranging deals in investments) (see PARA 139), art 39A (assisting in the administration and performance of a contract of insurance) (see PARA 104), art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174), or so far as relevant to any of those articles, art 64 (agreeing) (see PARA 221), so far as it relates to a contract of insurance: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Misleading Statements and Practices) Order 2001, SI 2001/3645, art 3 (amended by SI 2003/1474; SI 2003/1476). 'Controlled activity' means an activity which falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 Pt I other than an activity which falls within Sch 1 para 9, 10, 10A or 10B (see PARAS 236, 237) or Sch 1 para 11 (see PARA 240) so far as relating to Sch 1 para 9, 10, 10A or 10B: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Misleading Statements and Practices) Order 2001, SI 2001/3645, art 2 (definition amended by SI 2003/1474). As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3, definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Misleading Statements and Practices) Order 2001, SI 2001/3645, art 2 (definition added by SI 2003/1476).

The following kinds of investment are specified for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 397(10): (i) a controlled investment; (ii) an investment which falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 para 25 (funeral plan contracts) (see PARA 241); (iii) an investment which falls within Sch 1 para 26 (agreements for qualifying credit) (see PARA 241); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Misleading Statements and Practices) Order 2001, SI 2001/3645, art 4. 'Controlled investment' means an investment which falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, SI 2005/1529, Sch 1 Pt II other than an investment which falls within Sch 1 para 25 or 26 (see PARA 241); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Misleading Statements and Practices) Order 2001, SI 2001/3645, art 2.

The provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 2 (see PARAS 84-85) (except Sch 2 paras 25, 26) apply for the purposes of s 397(9) and s 397(10) with references to s 22 (see PARA 84) being read as references to s 397(9) and s 397(10): s 397(11). Nothing in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 2, as applied by s 397(11), limits the power conferred by s 397(9) or s 397(10): s 397(12).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 397(1), (2). In proceedings for an offence under s 397(2) brought against a person to whom s 397(1) applies as a result of s 397(1)(a) (see head (1) in the text), it is a defence for him to show that the statement, promise or forecast was made in conformity with price stabilising rules, control of information rules or the relevant provisions of EC Commission Regulation 2273/2003 (OJ L336, 23.12.2003, p 33) implementing European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/6 as regards exemptions for buy-back programmes and stabilisation of financial instruments: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 397(4) (amended by SI 2005/381). As to the meaning of 'price stabilising rules' see PARA 28. As to the meaning of 'control of information rules' see PARA 31.

The provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 397(1), (2) do not apply unless: (1) the statement, promise or forecast is made in or from, or the facts are concealed in or from, the United Kingdom or arrangements are made in or from the United Kingdom for the statement, promise or forecast to be made or the facts to be concealed; (2) the person on whom the inducement is intended to or may have effect is in the United Kingdom; or (3) the agreement is or would be entered into or the rights are or would be exercised in the United Kingdom: s 397(6). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. Section 397 preserves the effect of the decision in Secretary of State for Trade v Markus [1976] AC 35, [1975] 1 All ER 958, HL (which applied the Prevention of Fraud (Investments) Act 1958 s 13(1) (now repealed) to acts abroad producing results in the United Kingdom).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 397(3). In proceedings brought against any person for an offence under s 397(3), it is a defence for him to show: (1) that he reasonably believed that his act or conduct would not create an impression that was false or misleading as to the matters mentioned in s 397(3); (2) that he acted or engaged in the conduct: (a) for the purpose of stabilising the price of investments; and (b) in conformity with price stabilising rules; (3) that he acted or engaged in the conduct in conformity with control of information rules; or (4) that he acted or engaged in the conduct in conformity with the relevant provisions of EC Commission Regulation 2273/2003 (OJ L336, 23.12.2003, p 33) implementing European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/6 as regards exemptions for buy-back programmes and stabilisation of financial instruments: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 397(5) (amended by SI 2005/381).

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 397(3) does not apply unless: (i) the act is done, or the course of conduct is engaged in, in the United Kingdom; or (ii) the false or misleading impression is created there: s 397(7).

7 lie under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 397.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 397(8). Such a person is liable: (1) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or both; (2) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding seven years or a fine, or both: see s 397(8). As to the statutory maximum see PARA 56 note 24.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(ix) Offences/569. Misleading the Financial Services Authority.

569. Misleading the Financial Services Authority.

A person who, in purported compliance with any requirement imposed by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, knowingly or recklessly gives the Financial Services

Authority<sup>1</sup> information which is false or misleading in a material particular is guilty of an offence<sup>2</sup>. A person guilty of an offence under these provisions is liable to a fine<sup>3</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 398(1). Section 398(1) applies only to a requirement in relation to which no other provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 creates an offence in connection with the giving of information: s 398(2).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 398(3). Such a person is liable (1) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum; (2) on conviction on indictment, to a fine: see s 398(3). As to the statutory maximum see PARA 56 note 24.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(ix) Offences/571. Offences by bodies corporate and partnerships.

571. Offences by bodies corporate and partnerships.

If an offence under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 committed by a body corporate<sup>1</sup> is shown to have been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer<sup>2</sup>, or to be attributable to any neglect on his part, the officer as well as the body corporate is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly<sup>3</sup>.

If an offence under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 committed by a partnership<sup>4</sup> is shown to have been committed with the consent or connivance of a partner<sup>5</sup>, or to be attributable to any neglect on his part, the partner as well as the partnership is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly<sup>6</sup>.

If an offence under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 committed by an unincorporated association (other than a partnership) is shown to have been committed with the consent or connivance of an officer of the association or a member of its governing body, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of such an officer or member, that officer or member as well as the association is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly<sup>7</sup>.

Regulations may provide for the application of any of the provisions described above, with such modifications as the Treasury<sup>8</sup> considers appropriate, to a body corporate or unincorporated association formed or recognised under the law of a territory outside the United Kingdom<sup>9</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11.

2 'Officer', in relation to a body corporate, means: (1) a director, member of the committee of management, chief executive, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body, or a person purporting to act in any such capacity; and (2) an individual who is a controller of the body: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 400(5). As to the meanings of 'director' and 'manager' see PARA 86 note 11. As to the meaning of 'controller' see PARA 591 note 16.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 400(1). If the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, s 400(1) applies in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with his functions of management as if he were a director of the body: s 400(2).

4 As to the meaning of 'partnership' see PARA 86 note 11.

5 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 400(3), 'partner' includes a person purporting to act as a partner: s 400(4).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(ix) Offences/574. Jurisdiction and procedure in respect of offences.

574. Jurisdiction and procedure in respect of offences.

A fine imposed on an unincorporated association on its conviction of an offence<sup>1</sup> is to be paid out of the funds of the association<sup>2</sup>. Proceedings for an offence alleged to have been committed by an unincorporated association must be brought in the name of the association (and not in that of any of its members)<sup>3</sup>. Rules of court relating to the service of documents<sup>4</sup> are to have effect as if the association were a body corporate<sup>5</sup>. Summary proceedings for an offence may be taken: (1) against a body corporate or unincorporated association at any place at which it has a place of business; (2) against an individual at any place where he is for the time being<sup>6</sup>.

1 'Offence' means an offence under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000: s 403(7).

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 403(1).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 403(2).

4 As to the meaning of 'document' see PARA 10 note 10.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 403(3). As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 403(5). Section 403(5) does not affect any jurisdiction exercisable apart from s 403: s 403(6).

In proceedings for an offence brought against an unincorporated association: (1) the Criminal Justice Act 1925 s 33 and the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 Sch 3 (procedure) (see MAGISTRATES vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 666) apply as they do in relation to a body corporate; (2) the Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 1945 s 18 and the Magistrates' Courts (Northern Ireland) Order 1981, SI 1981/1675 (NI 26), Sch 4 (procedure) apply as they do in relation to a body corporate: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 403(4).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(ix) Offences/574A. The offence of insider dealing.

574A. The offence of insider dealing.

An individual who has information as an insider is guilty of insider dealing if in the specified circumstances<sup>1</sup> he deals in securities<sup>2</sup> that are price-affected securities<sup>3</sup> in relation to the information<sup>4</sup>.

An individual who has information as an insider is also guilty of insider dealing if:

- 1314 (1) he encourages another person to deal in securities that are, whether or not that other knows it, price-affected securities in relation to the information, knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that the dealing would take place in the specified circumstances<sup>5</sup>; or
- 1315 (2) he discloses the information, otherwise than in the proper performance of the functions of his employment, office or profession, to another person<sup>6</sup>.

The circumstances specified are that the acquisition or disposal in question occurs on a regulated market<sup>7</sup> or that the person dealing relies on a professional intermediary<sup>8</sup> or is himself acting as a professional intermediary<sup>9</sup>.

The provisions described above do not apply to anything done by an individual acting on behalf of a public sector body<sup>10</sup> in pursuit of monetary policies or policies with respect to exchange rates or the management of public debt or foreign exchange reserves<sup>11</sup>; and no contract is void or unenforceable by reason only of these provisions<sup>12</sup>.

A person has information as an insider if and only if it is, and he knows that it is, inside information and he has it, and knows that he has it, from an inside source<sup>13</sup>. A person has information from an inside source if and only if:

- 1316 (a) he has it through being a director, employee or shareholder of an issuer<sup>14</sup> of securities or having access to the information by virtue of his employment, office or profession; or
- 1317 (b) the direct or indirect source of his information is a person within head (a) above<sup>15</sup>.

1 le the circumstances mentioned in the Criminal Justice Act 1993 s 52(3): see the TEXT to NOTES 7-9.

2 For these purposes, a person deals in securities if: (1) he acquires or disposes of the securities, whether as principal or agent; or (2) he procures, directly or indirectly, an acquisition or disposal of the securities by any other person: Criminal Justice Act 1993 s 55(1). A person procures an acquisition or disposal of a security if the security is acquired or disposed of by a person who is his agent, his nominee or a person who is acting at his direction, in relation to the acquisition or disposal: s 55(4). Section 55(4) is not, however, exhaustive as to the circumstances in which one person may be regarded as procuring an acquisition or disposal of securities by another: s 55(5). 'Acquire', in relation to a security, includes agreeing to acquire the security and entering into a contract which creates the security (s 55(2)); and 'dispose', in relation to a security, includes agreeing to dispose of the security and bringing to an end a contract which created the security (s 55(3)). For the meaning of 'security' see PARA 574D.

3 For these purposes, securities are 'price-affected securities' in relation to inside information, and inside information is 'price-sensitive information' in relation to securities, if and only if the information would, if made public, be likely to have a significant effect on the price of the securities: Criminal Justice Act 1993 s 56(2). 'Price' includes value: s 56(3). For the meaning of 'inside information' see PARA 574B. For the meaning of 'made public' see PARA 574C.

4 See Criminal Justice Act 1993 s 52(1). Section 52 is subject to s 53 (see PARA 574H): s 52(4). As to the territorial scope of an offence under s 52(1) see PARA 574G; and as to defences see PARA 574H et seq. 7 For these purposes, 'regulated market' means any market, however operated, which, by an order made by the Treasury, is identified, whether by name or by reference to criteria prescribed by the order, as a regulated market for the purposes of Criminal Justice Act 1993 Pt V (ss 52-64): s 60(1). In exercise of the power so conferred the Treasury has made the Insider Dealing (Securities and Regulated Markets) Order 1994, SI 1994/187, art 9 (as amended) which came into force on 1 March 1994 (see art 1). The regulated markets for the purposes of the Criminal Justice Act 1993 Pt V are any market which is established under the rules of one of the following investment exchanges: Amsterdam Stock Exchange; Antwerp Stock Exchange; Athens Stock Exchange; Barcelona Stock Exchange; Bavarian Stock Exchange; Berlin Stock Exchange; Bilbao Stock Exchange; Bologna Stock Exchange; Bremen Stock Exchange; Brussels Stock Exchange; Copenhagen Stock Exchange; the exchange known as COREDEALMTS; Dusseldorf Stock Exchange; the exchange known as EASDAQ; Florence Stock Exchange; Frankfurt Stock Exchange; Genoa Stock Exchange; Hamburg Stock Exchange; Hanover Stock Exchange; Helsinki Stock Exchange; Iceland Stock Exchange; the Irish Stock Exchange Ltd; Lisbon Stock Exchange; LIFFE Administration & Management; the London Stock Exchange Ltd; Luxembourg Stock Exchange; Lyon Stock Exchange; Madrid Stock Exchange; Milan Stock Exchange; Naples Stock Exchange; the exchange known as NASDAQ; the exchange known as Nouveau Marche; OMLX, the London Securities and Derivatives Exchange Ltd; Oporto Stock Exchange; Oslo Stock Exchange; Palermo Stock Exchange; Paris Stock Exchange; Rome Stock Exchange; Stockholm Stock Exchange; Stuttgart Stock Exchange; the exchange known as SWX Swiss Exchange; Trieste Stock Exchange; Turin Stock Exchange; Valencia Stock Exchange; Venice Stock Exchange; Vienna Stock Exchange; virt-x Exchange Ltd; Insider Dealing (Securities and Regulated Markets) Order 1994, SI 1994/187, art 9(a), Schedule (amended by SI 1996/1561; SI 2000/1923; SI 2002/1874). The market known as OFEX is also a regulated market: Insider Dealing (Securities and Regulated Markets) Order 1994, SI 1994/187, art 9(b) (added by SI 2000/1923; amended by SI 2002/1874).

Any power under the Criminal Justice Act 1993 Pt V to make an order is exercisable by statutory instrument (s 64(1)); but no such order may be made unless a draft of it has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament (s 64(2)). Any such order may make different provision for different cases and may contain such incidental, supplemental and transitional provisions as the Treasury considers expedient: s 64(3). As to the Treasury see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARAS 512-517.

9 Criminal Justice Act 1993 s 52(3).

10 For these purposes, 'public sector body' means: (1) the government of the United Kingdom, of Northern Ireland or any country or territory outside the United Kingdom; (2) a local authority in the United Kingdom or elsewhere; (3) any international organisation the members of which include the United Kingdom or another member state; (4) the Bank of England; or (5) the central bank of any sovereign state: Criminal Justice Act 1993 s 60(3)(b). For the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 NOTE 3.

12 See Criminal Justice Act 1993 s 63(2). Cf Chase Manhattan Equities Ltd v Goodman [1991] BCLC 897 (which considered the equivalent provision in the Company Securities (Insider Dealing) Act 1985 (ie s 8(3) (repealed)), which provided that the transaction was not void or voidable by reason only of the contravention of the statutory provisions; the court found that despite s 8(3) (repealed) the transaction was unenforceable). The wording now contained in the Criminal Justice Act 1993 s 63(2) rules out the approach in Chase Manhattan Equities Ltd v Goodman.

14 For these purposes, an 'issuer', in relation to any securities, means any company, public sector body or individual by which or by whom the securities have been or are to be issued: Criminal Justice Act 1993 s 60(2). 'Company' means any body, whether or not incorporated and wherever incorporated or constituted, which is not a public sector body: s 60(3)(a). Information is to be treated as relating to an issuer of securities which is a company not only where it is about the company but also where it may affect the company's business prospects: s 60(4).

574B. Meaning of 'inside information'.

'Inside information' means<sup>1</sup> information which:

- 1318 (1) relates to particular securities<sup>2</sup> or to a particular issuer<sup>3</sup> of securities or to particular issuers of securities and not to securities generally or to issuers of securities generally;
- 1319 (2) is specific or precise;
- 1320 (3) has not been made public<sup>4</sup>; and
- 1321 (4) if it were made public, would be likely to have a significant effect on the price of any securities<sup>5</sup>.

574C. Meaning of 'made public'.

'Made public', in relation to information, is to be construed in accordance with the provisions described below<sup>1</sup>; but these provisions are not exhaustive as to the meaning of that expression<sup>2</sup>. Information is made public if:

- 1322 (1) it is published in accordance with the rules of a regulated market<sup>3</sup> for the purpose of informing investors and their professional advisers;
- 1323 (2) it is contained in records which, by virtue of any enactment, are open to inspection by the public;
- 1324 (3) it can be readily acquired by those likely to deal in any securities<sup>4</sup> to which the information relates or of an issuer to which the information relates; or
- 1325 (4) it is derived from information which has been made public<sup>5</sup>.

Information may be treated as made public, even though:

- 1326 (a) it can be acquired only by persons exercising diligence or expertise;
- 1327 (b) it is communicated to a section of the public and not to the public at large;
- 1328 (c) it can be acquired only by observation;
- 1329 (d) it is communicated only on payment of a fee; or
- 1330 (e) it is published only outside the United Kingdom<sup>6</sup>.

574D. Meaning of 'security'.

'Security' means<sup>1</sup> a security which falls within any of the following heads:

- 1331 (1) shares and stock in the share capital of a company<sup>2</sup> ('shares')<sup>3</sup>;
- 1332 (2) any instrument creating or acknowledging indebtedness which is issued by a company or public sector body<sup>4</sup>, including, in particular, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds and certificates of deposit ('debt securities')<sup>5</sup>;
- 1333 (3) any right, whether conferred by warrant or otherwise, to subscribe for shares or debt securities ('warrants')<sup>6</sup>;
- 1334 (4) the rights under any depositary receipt<sup>7</sup>;
- 1335 (5) any option to acquire<sup>8</sup> or dispose<sup>9</sup> of any security falling within any of heads (1) to (4) above or head (6) or (7) below<sup>10</sup>;
- 1336 (6) rights under a contract for the acquisition or disposal of relevant securities<sup>11</sup> under which delivery is to be made at a future date and at a price agreed<sup>12</sup> when the contract is made<sup>13</sup>;
- 1337 (7) rights under a contract which does not provide for the delivery of securities but whose purpose or pretended purpose is to secure a profit or avoid a loss by reference to fluctuations in a share index or other similar factor connected with relevant securities<sup>14</sup>, the price of particular relevant securities or the interest rate offered on money placed on deposit<sup>15</sup>, and which satisfies any conditions applying to it under an order made by the Treasury for these purposes<sup>16</sup>.

The Treasury may by order amend the provisions described above<sup>17</sup>.

- 6 Criminal Justice Act 1993 Sch 2 para 3.
- 7 Criminal Justice Act 1993 Sch 2 para 4(1). 'Depositary receipt' means a certificate or other record, whether or not in the form of a document, which is issued by or on behalf of a person who holds any relevant securities of a particular issuer, and which acknowledges that another person is entitled to rights in relation to the relevant securities or relevant securities of the same kind: Sch 2 para 4(2). 'Relevant securities' means shares, debt securities and warrants: Sch 2 para 4(3). For the meaning of 'issuer' see PARA 574A NOTE 14.

8 As to the meaning of 'acquire' in relation to a security see PARA 574A NOTE 2.

9 As to the meaning of 'dispose' in relation to a security see PARA 574A NOTE 2.

10 See the Criminal Justice Act 1993 Sch 2 para 5.

11 For these purposes, 'relevant securities' means any security falling within any of Criminal Justice Act 1993 Sch 2 paras 1-5, 7 (see heads (1)-(5), (7) in the TEXT): Sch 2 para 6(2)(b).

12 For these purposes, the references to a future date and to a price agreed when the contract is made include references to a date and a price determined in accordance with terms of the contract: Criminal Justice Act 1993 Sch 2 para 6(2)(a).

13 Criminal Justice Act 1993 Sch 2 para 6(1).

14 For these purposes, 'relevant securities' means any security falling within any of Criminal Justice Act 1993 Sch 2 paras 1-6 (see heads (1)-(6) in the TEXT): Sch 2 para 7(2).

15 Criminal Justice Act 1993 Sch 2 para 7(1).

16 See Criminal Justice Act 1993 s 54(1)(a), (b). In the provisions of Pt V other than Sch 2, any reference to a security is to a security to which Pt V applies: s 54(1).

The Treasury has specified the following conditions:

- 548 (1) in relation to any security which falls within any of Sch 2 paras 1-7 (see heads (1)-(7) in the TEXT), the following condition applies, ie that it is officially listed in a state within the European Economic Area or that it is admitted to dealing on, or has its price quoted on or under the rules of, a regulated market (Insider Dealing (Securities and Regulated Markets) Order 1994, SI 1994/187, arts 3, 4);
- 549 (2) in relation to a warrant, the following alternative condition applies, ie that the right under it is a right to subscribe for any share or debt security of the same class as a share or debt security which satisfies the condition in art 4 (see head (1)) (arts 3, 5);
- 550 (3) in relation to a depositary receipt, the following alternative condition applies, ie that the rights under it are in respect of any share or debt security which satisfies the condition in art 4 (see head (1)) (arts 3, 6);
- 551 (4) in relation to an option or future, the following alternative condition applies, ie that the option or rights under the future are in respect of: (a) any share or debt security which satisfies the condition in art 4 (see head (1)); or (b) any depositary receipt which satisfies the condition in art 4 (see head (1)) or art 6 (see head (3)) (arts 3, 7);
- 552 (5) in relation to a contract for differences, the following alternative condition applies, ie that the purpose or pretended purpose of the contract is to secure a profit or avoid a loss by reference to fluctuations in: (a) the price of any shares or debt securities which satisfy the condition in art 4 (see head (1)); or (b) an index of the price of such shares or debt securities (arts 3, 8).

For the meaning of 'regulated market' see PARA 574A NOTE 7. For these purposes, a 'state within the European Economic Area' means a state which is a member of the European Communities and the Republics of Austria, Finland and Iceland, the Kingdoms of Norway and Sweden and the Principality of Liechtenstein: art 2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(7) ENFORCEMENT/(ix) Offences/574E. Meaning of 'professional intermediary'.

574E. Meaning of 'professional intermediary'.

A 'professional intermediary' is a person:

- 1338 (1) who carries on a business consisting of a specified activity<sup>1</sup> and who holds himself out to the public or any section of the public, including a section of the public constituted by persons such as himself, as willing to engage in any such business; or
- 1339 (2) who is employed by a person falling within head (1) above to carry out any such activity<sup>2</sup>.

The activities specified are:

- 1340 (a) acquiring<sup>3</sup> or disposing<sup>4</sup> of securities<sup>5</sup>, whether as principal or agent; or
- 1341 (b) acting as an intermediary between persons taking part in any dealing in securities<sup>6</sup>.

A person is not, however, to be treated as carrying on a business consisting of a specified activity<sup>7</sup> if the activity in question is merely incidental to some other activity<sup>8</sup> or merely because he occasionally conducts one of those activities<sup>9</sup>.

A person dealing in securities relies on a professional intermediary<sup>10</sup> if and only if a person who is acting as a professional intermediary carries out a specified activity<sup>11</sup> in relation to that dealing<sup>12</sup>.

574G. Territorial scope of insider dealing.

An individual who has information as an insider<sup>1</sup> is not guilty of an offence by dealing in specified circumstances in securities that are price-affected securities in relation to the information<sup>2</sup> unless:

1342 (1) he was within the United Kingdom at the time when he is alleged to have done any act constituting or forming part of the alleged dealing;

1343 (2) the regulated market<sup>3</sup> on which the dealing is alleged to have occurred is one which, by an order of the Treasury, is identified, whether by name or by reference to criteria prescribed by the order, as being regulated in the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup>; or

Nor is an individual who has information as an insider guilty of an offence by encouraging another person to deal in price-affected securities or disclosing the information to another person<sup>7</sup> unless:

- 1345 (a) he was within the United Kingdom at the time when he is alleged to have disclosed the information or encouraged the dealing; or
- 1346 (b) the alleged recipient of the information or encouragement was within the United Kingdom at the time when he is alleged to have received the information or encouragement<sup>8</sup>.

3 For the meaning of 'regulated market' see PARA 574A NOTE 7.

4 The regulated markets which are regulated in the United Kingdom for the purpose of the Criminal Justice Act 1993 Pt V (ss 52-64) are any market which is established under the rules of:

- 553 (1) the London Stock Exchange Ltd;
- 554 (2) LIFFE Administration & Management;
- 555 (3) OMLX, the London Securities and Derivatives Exchange Ltd;
- 556 (4) virt-x Exchange Ltd; and
- 557 (5) the exchange known as COREDEALMTS, together with the market known as OFEX: Insider Dealing (Securities and Regulated Markets) Order 1994, SI 1994/187, art 10 (amended by SI 1996/1561; SI 2000/1923; SI 2002/1874). #### 574H. General defences.

An individual is not guilty of insider dealing<sup>1</sup> by virtue of dealing in securities<sup>2</sup> if he shows:

- 1347 (1) that he did not at the time expect the dealing to result in a profit<sup>3</sup> attributable to the fact that the information in question was price-sensitive information<sup>4</sup> in relation to the securities; or
- 1348 (2) that at the time he believed on reasonable grounds that the information had been disclosed widely enough to ensure that none of those taking part in the dealing would be prejudiced by not having the information; or 1349 (3) that he would have done what he did even if he had not had the information<sup>5</sup>.

An individual is not guilty of insider dealing by virtue of encouraging another person to deal in securities<sup>6</sup> if he shows:

1350 (a) that he did not at the time expect the dealing to result in a profit attributable to the fact that the information in question was price-sensitive information in relation to the securities; or

1351 (b) that at the time he believed on reasonable grounds that the information had been or would be disclosed widely enough to ensure that none of those taking part in the dealing would be prejudiced by not having the information; or 1352 (c) that he would have done what he did even if he had not had the information<sup>7</sup>.

An individual is not guilty of insider dealing by virtue of a disclosure of information<sup>8</sup> if he shows:

1353 (i) that he did not at the time expect any person, because of the disclosure, to deal in securities in the specified circumstances<sup>9</sup>; or

1354 (ii) that, although he had such an expectation at the time, he did not expect the dealing to result in a profit attributable to the fact that the information was price-sensitive information in relation to the securities<sup>10</sup>.

574I. Market makers.

An individual is not guilty of insider dealing<sup>1</sup> by virtue of dealing in securities<sup>2</sup> or encouraging another person to deal if he shows that he acted in good faith in the course of his business as a market maker or his employment in the business of a market maker<sup>3</sup>.

A market maker is a person who:

1355 (1) holds himself out at all normal times in compliance with the rules of a regulated market<sup>4</sup> or an approved organisation<sup>5</sup> as willing to acquire or dispose<sup>6</sup> of securities; and

1356 (2) is recognised as doing so under those rules<sup>7</sup>.

574J. Market information.

An individual is not guilty of insider dealing<sup>1</sup> by virtue of dealing in securities<sup>2</sup> or encouraging another person to deal if he shows that the information which he had as an insider<sup>3</sup> was market information and it was reasonable for an individual in his position to have acted as he did despite having that information as an insider at the time<sup>4</sup>. In determining whether it is reasonable for an individual to do any act despite having market information at the time, there must, in particular, be taken into account the content of the information, the circumstances in which he first had the information and in what capacity and the capacity in which he now acts<sup>5</sup>.

An individual is not guilty of insider dealing by virtue of dealing in securities or encouraging another person to deal if he shows:

- 1357 (1) that he acted in connection with an acquisition<sup>6</sup> or disposal<sup>7</sup> which was under consideration or the subject of negotiation, or in the course of a series of such acquisitions or disposals and with a view to facilitating the accomplishment of the acquisition or disposal or the series of acquisitions or disposals; and
- 1358 (2) that the information which he had as an insider was market information arising directly out of his involvement in the acquisition or disposal or series of acquisitions or disposals<sup>8</sup>.

For these purposes, 'market information' is information consisting of one or more of the following facts:

- 1359 (a) that securities of a particular kind have been or are to be acquired or disposed of, or that their acquisition or disposal is under consideration or the subject of negotiation;
- 1360 (b) that securities of a particular kind have not been or are not to be acquired or disposed of;
- 1361 (c) the number of securities acquired or disposed of or to be acquired or disposed of or whose acquisition or disposal is under consideration or the subject of negotiation;
- 1362 (d) the price, or range of prices, at which securities have been or are to be acquired or disposed of or the price, or range of prices, at which securities whose acquisition or disposal is under consideration or the subject of negotiation may be acquired or disposed of;
- 1363 (e) the identity of the persons involved or likely to be involved in any capacity in an acquisition or disposal<sup>9</sup>.

574L. Investigations into insider dealing.

If it appears to an investigating authority<sup>1</sup> that there are circumstances suggesting that an offence relating to insider dealing<sup>2</sup> may have been committed, that authority may appoint one or more competent persons to conduct an investigation on its behalf<sup>3</sup>. If a person so appointed ('the investigator') considers that any person is or may be able to give information relevant to the investigation, the investigator may require such person to attend before him and answer questions, or otherwise to provide information, provide documents or give such assistance in connection with the investigation as that person is reasonably able to give<sup>4</sup>.

1 'Investigating authority' means the Financial Services Authority or the Secretary of State: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 168(6). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARA 574N; and PARAS 4, 6 et seq. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 3.

2 Is an offence under the Criminal Justice Act 1993 Pt V (ss 52-64): see PARA 574A.

574N. Prosecutions.

The Criminal Justice Act 1993 provides that proceedings for the offence of insider dealing<sup>1</sup> may not be instituted in England and Wales except by or with the consent of the Secretary of State or the Director of Public Prosecutions<sup>2</sup>. Under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> may institute proceedings for the offence of insider dealing<sup>4</sup>; but in exercising such power the Authority must comply with any conditions or restrictions imposed in writing by the Treasury<sup>5</sup>. Both the Department of Trade and Industry<sup>6</sup> and the Serious Fraud Office<sup>7</sup> may also be involved in prosecutions for such an offence.

The Financial Services Authority has further powers, including the power to impose penalties, in relation to behaviour which constitutes market abuse<sup>8</sup>.

1 lie an offence under the Criminal Justice Act 1993 Pt V (ss 52-64): see PARA 574A et seq. As to penalties for insider dealing see PARA 574F.

2 Criminal Justice Act 1993 s 61(2). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 3. As to the Director of Public Prosecutions see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(3) (2006 Reissue) PARAS 1066, 1079 et seq. Summary proceedings for an offence of insider dealing may be brought against an individual at any place at which the individual is for the time being: Criminal Justice Act 1993 s 61A(1) (s 61A(1), (2), (5) added by SI 2009/1941). An information relating to an offence of insider dealing that is triable by a magistrates' court in England and Wales may be so tried if it is laid (1) at any time within three years after the commission of the offence; and (2) within twelve months after the date on which evidence sufficient in the opinion of the Director of Public Prosecutions or the Secretary of State to justify the proceedings comes to that person's knowledge: Criminal Justice Act 1993 s 61A(2). For the purposes of s 61A, a certificate of the Director of Public Prosecutions, the Lord Advocate, the Director of Public Prosecutions for Northern Ireland or the Secretary of State as to the date on which such evidence as is referred to in s 61A(2) came to that person's notice is conclusive evidence: Criminal Justice Act 1993 s 61A(5).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(8) OMBUDSMAN AND COMPENSATION SCHEMES/(i) The Ombudsman Scheme/575. The ombudsman scheme and scheme operator.

(8) OMBUDSMAN AND COMPENSATION SCHEMES

(i) The Ombudsman Scheme

575. The ombudsman scheme and scheme operator.

Part XVI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>1</sup> provides for a scheme under which certain disputes may be resolved quickly and with minimum formality by an independent person<sup>2</sup>. The scheme is administered by a body corporate<sup>3</sup> (the 'scheme operator')<sup>4</sup>, established by the Financial Services Authority<sup>5</sup> to exercise the functions conferred on the scheme operator by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>6</sup>. The Authority must take such steps as are necessary to ensure that the scheme operator is, at all times, capable of exercising those functions<sup>7</sup>. The scheme is to be operated under a name chosen by the scheme operator but is referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as the 'ombudsman scheme'<sup>8</sup>.

The constitution of the scheme operator must provide for it to have a chairman and a board (which must include the chairman) whose members are the scheme operator's directors<sup>9</sup>. The chairman and other members of the board must be persons appointed, and liable to removal from office, by the Authority (acting, in the case of the chairman, with the approval of the Treasury)<sup>10</sup>. However, the terms of their appointment (and in particular those governing removal from office) must be such as to secure their independence from the Authority in the operation of the scheme<sup>11</sup>. Certain functions<sup>12</sup> may be exercised only by the board<sup>13</sup>.

The scheme operator must appoint and maintain a panel<sup>14</sup> of persons, appearing to it to have appropriate qualifications and experience, to act as ombudsmen<sup>15</sup> for the purposes of the scheme<sup>16</sup>. A person's appointment to the panel is to be on such terms (including terms as to the duration and termination of his appointment and as to remuneration) as the scheme operator considers consistent with the independence of the person appointed, and otherwise appropriate<sup>17</sup>. The scheme operator must appoint one member of the panel to act as Chief Ombudsman<sup>18</sup>, who is to be appointed on such terms (including terms as to the duration and termination of his appointment) as the scheme operator considers appropriate<sup>19</sup>.

The scheme operator is not to be regarded as exercising functions on behalf of the Crown<sup>20</sup> and the scheme operator's board members, officers and staff are not to be regarded as Crown servants<sup>21</sup>. Appointment as Chief Ombudsman or to the panel or as a deputy ombudsman does not confer the status of Crown servant<sup>22</sup>.

At least once a year the scheme operator and the Chief Ombudsman must make a report to the Authority on the discharge of their functions<sup>23</sup>. Each report must distinguish between functions in relation to the scheme's compulsory jurisdiction, functions in relation to its consumer credit jurisdiction and functions in relation to its voluntary jurisdiction<sup>24</sup>. Each report must also comply with any requirements specified in rules made by the Authority<sup>25</sup>. The scheme operator must publish each report in the way it considers appropriate<sup>26</sup>.

The scheme operator may publish guidance consisting of such information and advice as it considers appropriate and may charge for it or distribute it free of charge<sup>27</sup>.

The scheme operator must, before the start of each of its financial years, adopt an annual budget which has been approved by the Authority<sup>28</sup>. The scheme operator may, with the approval of the Authority, vary the budget for a financial year at any time after its adoption<sup>29</sup>. The annual budget must include an indication of the distribution of resources deployed in the operation of the scheme, and the amounts of income of the scheme operator arising or expected to arise from the operation of the scheme, distinguishing between the scheme's compulsory, consumer credit and voluntary jurisdiction<sup>30</sup>.

5    As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Redress, Dispute Resolution: Complaints (DISP) Ch 5. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

6    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 225(4), Sch 17 para 2(1). For the purpose of funding the establishment of the ombudsman scheme (whenever any relevant expense is incurred), and its operation in relation to the compulsory jurisdiction, the Financial Services Authority may make rules requiring the payment to it or to the scheme operator, by authorised persons or any class of authorised person of specified amounts (or amounts calculated in a specified way): s 234(1). 'Specified' means specified in the rules: s 234(2). As to the meaning of 'rule' see PARA 23 note 2. As to the compulsory jurisdiction see PARA 576. As to authorised persons see PARA 314 et seq.

For the purpose of funding (1) the establishment of the ombudsman scheme so far as it relates to the consumer credit jurisdiction (whenever any relevant expense is incurred); and (2) its operation in relation to the consumer credit jurisdiction, the scheme operator may from time to time with the approval of the Authority determine a sum which is to be raised by way of contributions under s 234A: s 234A(1) (s 234A added by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 60). A sum determined under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 234A(1) may include a component to cover the costs of the collection of contributions to that sum ('collection costs') under s 234A: s 234A(2) (as so added). As to the consumer credit jurisdiction see PARA 577.

The scheme operator must notify the Office of Fair Trading of every determination under s 234A(1): s 234A(3) (as so added). The Office of Fair Trading must give general notice of every determination so notified: s 234A(4) (as so added). The Office of Fair Trading may by general notice impose requirements on licensees to whom s 234A applies, or persons who make applications to which s 234A applies, to pay contributions to the Office of Fair Trading for the purpose of raising sums determined under s 234A(1): s 234A(5) (as so added). The amount of the contribution payable by a person under such a requirement must be the amount specified in or determined under the general notice; and must be paid before the end of the period or at the time so specified or determined: s 234A(6) (as so added). A general notice under s 234A(5) may (a) impose requirements only on descriptions of licensees or applicants specified in the notice; (b) provide for exceptions from any requirement imposed on a description of licensees or applicants; (c) impose different requirements on different descriptions of licensees or applicants; (d) make provision for refunds in specified circumstances: s 234A(7) (as so added).

Contributions received by the Office of Fair Trading must be paid to the scheme operator: s 234A(8) (as so added). As soon as practicable after the end of (i) each financial year of the scheme operator; or (ii) if the Office of Fair Trading and the scheme operator agree that this head is to apply instead of head (i) above for the time being, each period agreed by them, the scheme operator must pay to the Office an amount representing the extent to which collection costs are covered in accordance with s 234A(2) by the total amount of the contributions paid by the Office of Fair Trading to it during the year or (as the case may be) the agreed period: s 234A(9) (as so added).

Amounts received by the Office of Fair Trading from the scheme operator are to be retained by it for the purpose of meeting its costs: s 234A(10) (as so added). The Secretary of State may by order provide that the functions of the Office of Fair Trading under s 235A are for the time being to be carried out by the scheme operator: s 234A(11) (as so added). An order under s 235A(11) may provide that while the order is in force s 235A has effect subject to such modifications as may be set out in the order: s 234A(12) (as so added). The licensees to whom s 235A applies are licensees under standard licences which cover to any extent the carrying on of a type of business specified in an order under s 226A(2)(e) (see PARA 577): s 234A(13) (as so added). The applications to which this section applies are applications for (A) standard licences covering to any extent the carrying on of a business of such a type; (B) the renewal of standard licences on terms covering to any extent the carrying on of a business of such a type: s 234A(14) (as so added). Expressions used in the Consumer Credit Act 1974 (see CONSUMER CREDIT) have the same meaning in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 235A as they have in the Consumer Credit Act 1974: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 234A(15) (as so added). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 3. As to the Office of Fair Trading see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 6 et seq. ## UPDATE

575 The ombudsman scheme and scheme operator

NOTE 6--For the purpose of funding the establishment of the ombudsman scheme and its operation in relation to the compulsory jurisdiction, the Financial Services Authority may also make rules imposing the requirements mentioned on any payment service provider within the meaning of the Payment Services Regulations 2009, SI 2009/209 (PARA 1399): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 234(1) (amended by SI 2009/209). The scheme under which a fee is payable by a company subject to an investigation by the ombudsman is not unlawful notwithstanding the fact that the ombudsman is entitled to dismiss a complaint without a detailed investigation: Financial Services Ombudsman v Heather Moor & Edgecomb Ltd [2008] EWCA Civ 643, [2009] 1 All ER 328.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(8) OMBUDSMAN AND COMPENSATION SCHEMES/(i) The Ombudsman Scheme/576. Compulsory jurisdiction.

576. Compulsory jurisdiction.

A complaint which relates to an act or omission of a person (the 'respondent') in carrying on an activity to which compulsory jurisdiction rules<sup>1</sup> apply is to be dealt with under the ombudsman scheme<sup>2</sup> if the following conditions are satisfied<sup>3</sup>: (1) the complainant is eligible and wishes to have the complaint dealt with under the scheme; (2) the respondent was an authorised person<sup>4</sup> at the time of the act or omission to which the complaint relates; and (3) the act or omission to which the complaint relates occurred at a time when compulsory jurisdiction rules were in force in relation to the activity in question<sup>5</sup>. A complainant is eligible, in relation to the compulsory jurisdiction of the ombudsman scheme, if he falls within a class of person specified in the rules as eligible<sup>6</sup>. The rules may include provision for persons other than individuals to be eligible, but may not provide for authorised persons to be eligible except in specified circumstances or in relation to complaints of a specified kind<sup>7</sup>.

The jurisdiction of the scheme which results from the provisions described above is referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as the 'compulsory jurisdiction'<sup>8</sup>.

The Financial Services Authority must make rules providing that a complaint is not to be entertained unless the complainant has referred it under the ombudsman scheme before the applicable time limit (determined in accordance with the rules) has expired<sup>9</sup>. The rules may provide that an ombudsman<sup>10</sup> may extend that time limit in specified circumstances<sup>11</sup>. The Authority may make rules providing that a complaint is not to be entertained (except in specified circumstances) if the complainant has not previously communicated its substance to the respondent and given him a reasonable opportunity to deal with it<sup>12</sup>. The Authority may make rules requiring an authorised person who may become subject to the compulsory jurisdiction as a respondent to establish such procedures as the Authority considers appropriate for the resolution of complaints which may be referred to the scheme and arise out of activity to which the Authority's powers<sup>13</sup> do not apply<sup>14</sup>.

The scheme operator<sup>15</sup> must make rules (known as 'scheme rules'), which are to set out the procedure for reference of complaints and for their investigation, consideration and determination by an ombudsman<sup>16</sup>. Scheme rules may, among other things:

- 1364 (a) specify matters which are to be taken into account in determining whether an act or omission was fair and reasonable<sup>17</sup>;
- 1365 (b) provide that a complaint may, in specified circumstances, be dismissed without consideration of its merits<sup>18</sup>;
- 1366 (c) provide for the reference of a complaint, in specified circumstances and with the consent of the complainant, to another body with a view to its being determined by that body instead of by an ombudsman<sup>19</sup>;
- 1367 (d) make provision as to the evidence which may be required or admitted, the extent to which it should be oral or written, and the consequences of a person's failure to produce any information or document<sup>20</sup> which he has been required<sup>21</sup> to produce<sup>22</sup>;
- 1368 (e) allow an ombudsman to fix time limits for any aspect of the proceedings and to extend a time limit<sup>23</sup>;
- 1369 (f) provide for certain things in relation to the reference, investigation or consideration (but not determination) of a complaint to be done by a member of the scheme operator's staff instead of by an ombudsman<sup>24</sup>;
- 1370 (g) make different provision in relation to different kinds of complaint<sup>25</sup>.

If the scheme operator proposes to make any scheme rules it must publish a draft of the proposed rules in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring them to the attention of persons appearing to it to be likely to be affected<sup>26</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by a statement that representations about the proposals may be made to the scheme operator within a time specified in the statement<sup>27</sup>. The consent of the Authority is required before any scheme rules may be made<sup>28</sup>.

Scheme rules may require a respondent to pay to the scheme operator such fees as may be specified in the rules<sup>29</sup>.

A money award, including interest, which has been registered in accordance with scheme rules, if a county court so orders, may be recovered by execution issued from the county court (or otherwise) as if it were payable under an order of that court<sup>30</sup>.

No person is liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge, or purported discharge, of any functions under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 in relation to the compulsory jurisdiction or to the consumer jurisdiction<sup>31</sup>.

For the purposes of the law relating to defamation, proceedings in relation to a complaint which is subject to the compulsory jurisdiction or to the consumer credit jurisdiction are to be treated as if they were proceedings before a court<sup>32</sup>.

576 Compulsory jurisdiction

TEXT AND NOTE 5--Head (2). Such a complaint is also to be dealt with under the ombudsman scheme if the respondent was a payment services provider within the meaning of the Payment Services Regulations 2009, SI 2009/209 (PARA 1399) at the time of the act or omission to which the complaint relates: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 226(2) (amended by SI 2009/209).

TEXT AND NOTE 14--The Authority may also make rules imposing such requirements on a payment service provider within the meaning of the Payment Services Regulations 2009, SI 2009/209 (PARA 1399) who may become subject to the compulsory jurisdiction as a respondent: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 17 para 13(4) (amended by SI 2009/209).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(8) OMBUDSMAN AND COMPENSATION SCHEMES/(i) The Ombudsman Scheme/577. Consumer credit jurisdiction.

577. Consumer credit jurisdiction.

A complaint which relates to an act or omission of a person (the 'respondent') is to be dealt with under the ombudsman scheme<sup>1</sup> if the following conditions are satisfied<sup>2</sup>: (1) the complainant is eligible and wishes to have the complaint dealt with under the scheme<sup>3</sup>; (2) the complaint falls within a description specified in consumer credit rules<sup>4</sup>; (3) at the time of the act or omission the respondent was the licensee under a standard licence or was authorised to carry on an activity by virtue of the rules regarding the winding-up of a standard licensee's business<sup>5</sup>; (4) the act or omission occurred in the course of a business being carried on by the respondent which was of a specified type<sup>6</sup>; (5) at the time of the act or omission that type of business was specified in an order made by the Secretary of State<sup>7</sup>; and (6) the complaint cannot be dealt with under the compulsory jurisdiction<sup>8</sup>. The types of business referred to in head (4) above are (a) a consumer credit business<sup>9</sup>; (b) a consumer hire business<sup>10</sup>; (c) a business so far as it comprises or relates to credit brokerage<sup>11</sup>; (d) a business so far as it comprises or relates to debt-adjusting<sup>12</sup>; (e) a business so far as it comprises or relates to debt-counselling<sup>13</sup>; (f) a business so far as it comprises or relates to debt-collecting<sup>14</sup>; (g) a business so far as it comprises or relates to debt administration<sup>15</sup>; (h) a business so far as it comprises or relates to the provision of credit information services<sup>16</sup>; and (i) a business so far as it comprises or relates to the operation of a credit reference agency<sup>17</sup>. A complainant is eligible if he is either an individual or a surety in relation to a security provided to the respondent in connection with the business mentioned in head (4), and he falls within a class of person specified in consumer credit rules<sup>18</sup>. The jurisdiction of the scheme which results from the above provisions is referred to as the 'consumer credit jurisdiction'<sup>19</sup>.

Consumer credit rules (i) must provide that a complaint is not to be entertained unless the complainant has referred it under the ombudsman scheme before the applicable time limit (determined in accordance with the rules) has expired<sup>20</sup>; (ii) may provide that an ombudsman may extend that time limit in specified circumstances<sup>21</sup>; (iii) may provide that a complaint is not to be entertained (except in specified circumstances) if the complainant has not previously communicated its substance to the respondent and given him a reasonable opportunity to deal with it<sup>22</sup>; and (iv) may make provision about the procedure for the reference of complaints and for their investigation, consideration and determination by an ombudsman<sup>23</sup>.

Consumer credit rules may require persons who are licensed by a standard licence to carry on to any extent a business of a type specified in an order under head (5) above to establish such procedures as the scheme operator considers appropriate for the resolution of complaints which may be referred to the scheme<sup>24</sup>. Consumer credit rules may require a respondent to pay to the scheme operator such fees as may be specified in the rules<sup>25</sup>. A money award, including interest, which has been registered in accordance with consumer credit rules may, if a county court so orders, be recovered by execution issued from the county court (or otherwise) as if it were payable under an order of that court<sup>26</sup>.

If the scheme operator makes any consumer credit rules, it must give a copy of them to the Financial Services Authority without delay<sup>27</sup>, and if the operator revokes any such rules, it must give written notice to the Authority without delay<sup>28</sup>. The power to make such rules is exercisable in writing<sup>29</sup>. Immediately after the making of such rules, the scheme operator must arrange for them to be printed and made available to the public<sup>30</sup>. The scheme operator may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of any such rules<sup>31</sup>.

The production of a printed copy of consumer credit rules purporting to be made by the scheme operator on which there is endorsed a certificate signed by a member of the scheme operator's staff authorised by the scheme operator for that purpose, and which contains the required statements, is evidence of the facts stated in the certificate<sup>32</sup>. The required statements are that the rules were made by the scheme operator, that the copy is a true copy of the rules, and that, on a specified date, the rules were made available to the public<sup>33</sup>. A certificate purporting to be signed as so mentioned is to be taken to have been duly signed unless the contrary is shown<sup>34</sup>.

If the scheme operator proposes to make consumer credit rules, it must publish a draft of the proposed rules in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring the draft to the attention of the public<sup>35</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by an explanation of the proposed rules and a statement that representations about the proposals may be made to the scheme operator within a specified time<sup>36</sup>. Before making any consumer credit rules, the scheme operator must have regard to any such representations made to it<sup>37</sup>. If consumer credit rules made by the scheme operator differ from the draft in a way which the scheme operator considers significant, the scheme operator must publish a statement of the difference<sup>38</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(8) OMBUDSMAN AND COMPENSATION SCHEMES/(i) The Ombudsman Scheme/578. Voluntary jurisdiction.

578. Voluntary jurisdiction.

A complaint which relates to an act or omission of a person (the 'respondent') in carrying on an activity to which voluntary jurisdiction rules<sup>1</sup> apply is to be dealt with under the ombudsman scheme<sup>2</sup> if the following conditions are satisfied<sup>3</sup>: (1) the complainant is eligible and wishes to have the complaint dealt with under the scheme<sup>4</sup>; (2) at the time of the act or omission to which the complaint relates, the respondent was participating in the scheme<sup>5</sup>; (3) at the time when the complaint is referred under the scheme, the respondent has not withdrawn from the scheme in accordance with its provisions<sup>6</sup>; (4) the act or omission to which the complaint relates occurred at a time when voluntary jurisdiction rules were in force in relation to the activity in question<sup>7</sup>; and (5) the complaint cannot be dealt with under the compulsory jurisdiction<sup>8</sup>. A complainant is eligible, in relation to the voluntary jurisdiction of the ombudsman scheme, if he falls within a class of person specified in the rules as eligible<sup>9</sup>. The rules may include provision for persons other than individuals to be eligible<sup>10</sup>. A person qualifies for participation in the ombudsman scheme if he falls within a class of person specified in the rules in relation to the activity in question<sup>11</sup>. Provision may be made in the rules for persons other than authorised persons<sup>12</sup> to participate in the ombudsman scheme<sup>13</sup>. The rules may make different provision in relation to complaints arising from different activities<sup>14</sup>.

The jurisdiction of the scheme which results from the provisions described above is referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as the 'voluntary jurisdiction'<sup>15</sup>.

Complaints are to be dealt with and determined under the voluntary jurisdiction on standard terms fixed by the scheme operator with the approval of the Financial Services Authority<sup>16</sup>. Different standard terms may be fixed with respect to different matters or in relation to different cases<sup>17</sup>. The standard terms may, in particular: (a) require the making of payments to the scheme operator by participants in the scheme of such amounts, and at such times, as may be determined by the scheme operator<sup>18</sup>; (b) make provision as to the award of costs on the determination of a complaint<sup>19</sup>. The scheme operator may not vary any of the standard terms or add or remove terms without the approval of the Authority<sup>20</sup>. The standard terms may include provision to the effect that (unless acting in bad faith) none of the following is to be liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of functions in connection with the voluntary jurisdiction: (i) the scheme operator<sup>21</sup>; (ii) any member of its governing body<sup>22</sup> (iii) any member of its staff<sup>23</sup>; (iv) any person acting as an ombudsman<sup>24</sup> for the purposes of the scheme<sup>25</sup>.

The scheme operator may make arrangements with a relevant body<sup>26</sup>: (A) for the exercise by that body of any part of the voluntary jurisdiction of the ombudsman scheme on behalf of the scheme<sup>27</sup>; or (B) for the exercise by the scheme of any function of that body as if it were part of the voluntary jurisdiction of the scheme<sup>28</sup>. Such arrangements require the approval of the Authority<sup>29</sup>.

If the scheme operator makes voluntary jurisdiction rules, it must give a copy to the Authority without delay<sup>30</sup>; and if the scheme operator revokes any such rules, it must give written notice to the Authority without delay<sup>31</sup>. The power to make voluntary jurisdiction rules is exercisable in writing<sup>32</sup>. Immediately after making voluntary jurisdiction rules, the scheme operator must arrange for them to be printed and made available to the public<sup>33</sup>. The scheme operator may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of any voluntary jurisdiction rules<sup>34</sup>.

The production of a printed copy of voluntary jurisdiction rules purporting to be made by the scheme operator on which is indorsed a certificate signed by a member of the scheme operator's staff authorised by the scheme operator for that purpose, and which contains the required statements<sup>35</sup>, is evidence of the facts stated in the certificate<sup>36</sup>.

If the scheme operator proposes to make voluntary jurisdiction rules, it must publish a draft of the proposed rules in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring them to the attention of the public<sup>37</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by an explanation of the proposed rules and a statement that representations about the proposals may be made to the scheme operator within a specified time<sup>38</sup>. If voluntary jurisdiction rules made by the scheme operator differ from the draft in a way which the scheme operator considers significant, the scheme operator must publish a statement of the difference<sup>39</sup>.

1 'Voluntary jurisdiction rules' means rules: (1) made by the scheme operator for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 227; and (2) specifying the activities to which they apply: s 227(3). As to the scheme operator see PARA 575. The only activities which may be specified in the rules are activities which are, or could be, specified in compulsory jurisdiction rules: s 227(4). As to the compulsory jurisdiction rules see PARA 576. Activities may be specified by reference to specified categories (however described): s 227(5). The rules require the Financial Services Authority's approval: s 227(6). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Redress, Dispute Resolution: Complaints (DISP) Ch 2. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

In such circumstances as may be specified in voluntary jurisdiction rules, a complaint (1) which relates to an act or omission occurring at a time before the rules came into force; and (2) which could have been dealt with under a scheme which has to any extent been replaced by the voluntary jurisdiction, is to be dealt with under the ombudsman scheme even though head (2) or head (4) in the text would otherwise prevent that: s 227(13). In such circumstances as may be specified in voluntary jurisdiction rules, a complaint is to be dealt with under the ombudsman scheme even though head (2) or head (4) in the text would otherwise prevent that, and the complaint is not brought within the scheme as a result of s 227(13), but only if the respondent has agreed that complaints of that kind were to be dealt with under the scheme: s 227(14).

579. Determination under the compulsory jurisdiction.

In relation to the compulsory jurisdiction<sup>1</sup> only<sup>2</sup>, a complaint is to be determined by reference to what is, in the opinion of the ombudsman<sup>3</sup>, fair and reasonable in all the circumstances of the case<sup>4</sup>. When the ombudsman has determined a complaint he must give a written statement of his determination to the respondent and to the complainant<sup>5</sup>. The statement must: (1) give the ombudsman's reasons for his determination<sup>6</sup>; (2) be signed by him<sup>7</sup>; and (3) require the complainant to notify him in writing, before a date specified in the statement, whether he accepts or rejects the determination<sup>8</sup>. If the complainant notifies the ombudsman that he accepts the determination, it is binding on the respondent and the complainant and final<sup>9</sup>. If, by the specified date, the complainant has not notified the ombudsman of his acceptance or rejection of the determination he is to be treated as having rejected it<sup>10</sup>. The ombudsman must notify the respondent of the outcome<sup>11</sup>. A copy of the determination on which appears a certificate signed by an ombudsman is evidence that the determination was made under the scheme<sup>12</sup>. Such a certificate purporting to be signed by an ombudsman is to be taken to have been duly signed unless the contrary is shown<sup>13</sup>.

579 Determination under the compulsory jurisdiction

TEXT AND NOTE 2--Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 228(1) amended: Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 61(3).

NOTE 4--It is not appropriate for the ombudsman to rely on his own knowledge in the context of rare or complex financial products: R (on the application of Williams) v Financial Ombudsman Service [2008] All ER (D) 35 (Jul).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(8) OMBUDSMAN AND COMPENSATION SCHEMES/(i) The Ombudsman Scheme/580. Awards under the compulsory jurisdiction and consumer credit jurisdiction.

580. Awards under the compulsory jurisdiction and consumer credit jurisdiction.

In relation to the compulsory jurisdiction<sup>1</sup> and the consumer credit jurisdiction<sup>2</sup> only<sup>3</sup>, if a complaint which has been dealt with under the scheme<sup>4</sup> is determined in favour of the complainant, the determination may include: (1) a money award (that is, an award against the respondent of such amount as the ombudsman<sup>5</sup> considers fair compensation for loss or damage<sup>6</sup> suffered by the complainant)<sup>7</sup>; (2) a direction that the respondent take such steps in relation to the complainant as the ombudsman considers just and appropriate (whether or not a court could order those steps to be taken)<sup>8</sup>. A money award may compensate for financial loss, or any other loss, or any damage, of a specified<sup>9</sup> kind<sup>10</sup>. A money award may not exceed the monetary limit<sup>11</sup>, but the ombudsman may, if he considers that fair compensation requires payment of a larger amount, recommend that the respondent pay the complainant the balance<sup>12</sup>. A money award may provide for the amount payable under the award to bear interest at a rate and as from a date specified in the award, and is enforceable by the complainant<sup>13</sup>.

1 As to the compulsory jurisdiction see PARA 576. See also the Financial Services Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Redress, Dispute Resolution: Complaints (DISP) Ch 3. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to the consumer credit jurisdiction see PARA 577.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 229(1) (amended by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 61(3)).

4 As to the scheme see PARA 575.

5 As to the ombudsman see PARA 575.

6 The loss or damage of a kind falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 229(3): see the text to notes 9-10.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 229(2)(a).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 229(2)(b). Compliance with a direction under s 229(2)(b) is enforceable by an injunction: s 229(9). Only the complainant may bring proceedings for an injunction: s 229(10). As to injunctions see generally CIVIL PROCEDURE vol 11 (2009) PARA 331 et seq.

As to whether a direction is challengeable only by judicial review and the extent of the ombudsman's powers see Bunney v Burns Anderson plc; Cahill v Timothy James & Partners Ltd [2007] EWHC 1240 (Ch), [2007] 4 All ER 246.

9 The specified in compulsory jurisdiction rules, or consumer credit rules: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 229(11) (s 229(11) substituted and s 229(12) added by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 61(7)). Consumer credit rules under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 229 may make different provision for different cases: s 229(12) (as so added). As to the compulsory jurisdiction rules see PARA 576. As to the consumer credit rules see PARA 577.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 229(3). The Financial Services Authority may specify for the purposes of the compulsory jurisdiction the maximum amount which may be regarded as fair compensation for a particular kind of loss or damage specified under s 229(3)(b): s 229(4) (amended by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 61(4)). The scheme operator may specify for the purposes of the consumer credit jurisdiction the maximum amount which may be regarded as fair compensation for a particular kind of loss or damage specified under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 229(3)(b): s 229(4A) (added by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 61(5)). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. As to the scheme operator see PARA 575.

11 The monetary limit is such amount as may be specified: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 229(6). Different amounts may be specified in relation to different kinds of complaint: s 229(7).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 229(5).

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 229(8) (amended by the Consumer Credit Act 2006 s 61(6)). The award is enforceable in accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 17 Pt III (paras 12-16) (see PARA 576) or (as the case may be) Sch 17 Pt IIIA (paras 16A-16G) (see PARA 577).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(8) OMBUDSMAN AND COMPENSATION SCHEMES/(i) The Ombudsman Scheme/581. Costs.

581. Costs.

The scheme operator<sup>1</sup> may by rules provide for an ombudsman<sup>2</sup> to have power, on determining a complaint under the compulsory jurisdiction<sup>3</sup> or the consumer credit jurisdiction<sup>4</sup> to award costs in accordance with the provisions of the rules<sup>5</sup>. These rules are known as 'costs rules'. Costs rules require the approval of the Financial Services Authority<sup>6</sup>. Costs rules may not provide for the making of an award against the complainant in respect of the respondent's costs<sup>7</sup>. However, they may provide for the making of an award against the complainant in favour of the scheme operator, for the purpose of providing a contribution to resources deployed in dealing with the complaint, if in the opinion of the ombudsman: (1) the complainant's conduct was improper or unreasonable<sup>8</sup>; or (2) the complainant was responsible for an unreasonable delay<sup>9</sup>. Costs rules may authorise an ombudsman making an award in accordance with the rules to order that the amount payable under the award bears interest at a rate and as from a date specified in the order<sup>10</sup>. An amount due under an award made in favour of the scheme operator is recoverable as a debt due to the scheme operator<sup>11</sup>. Any other award made against the respondent is to be treated as a money award and may be recovered by execution<sup>12</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(8) OMBUDSMAN AND COMPENSATION SCHEMES/(i) The Ombudsman Scheme/582. Information.

582. Information.

An ombudsman<sup>1</sup> may, by notice in writing given to a party to a complaint, require that party: (1) to provide specified<sup>2</sup> information or information of a specified description<sup>3</sup>; or (2) to produce specified documents<sup>4</sup> or documents of a specified description<sup>5</sup>. The information or documents must be provided or produced before the end of such reasonable period as may be specified and, in the case of information, in such manner or form as may be specified<sup>6</sup>. If a document is produced in response to such a requirement, the ombudsman may take copies or extracts from the document, or require the person producing the document to provide an explanation of the document<sup>7</sup>. If a person who is required to produce a document fails to do so, the ombudsman may require him to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where the document is<sup>8</sup>. If a person claims a lien on a document, its production<sup>9</sup> does not affect the lien<sup>10</sup>.

If a person (the 'defaulter') fails to comply with a requirement to provide information or documents<sup>11</sup>, the ombudsman may certify that fact in writing to the High Court and the court may inquire into the case<sup>12</sup>. If the court is satisfied that the defaulter failed without reasonable excuse to comply with the requirement, it may deal with the defaulter (and, in the case of a body corporate<sup>13</sup>, any director<sup>14</sup> or officer<sup>15</sup>) as if he were in contempt<sup>16</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(8) OMBUDSMAN AND COMPENSATION SCHEMES/(ii) The Financial Services Compensation Scheme/583. The scheme manager.

(ii) The Financial Services Compensation Scheme

583. The scheme manager.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> has established a body corporate<sup>2</sup> (the 'scheme manager') to exercise the functions conferred on the scheme manager by or under Part XV of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>3</sup>. The Authority must take such steps as are necessary to ensure that the scheme manager is, at all times, capable of exercising those functions<sup>4</sup>. The constitution of the scheme manager must provide for it to have a chairman and a board (which must include the chairman) whose members are the scheme manager's directors<sup>5</sup>. The chairman and other members of the board must be persons appointed, and liable to removal from office, by the Authority (acting, in the case of the chairman, with the approval of the Treasury)<sup>6</sup>. However, the terms of their appointment (and in particular those governing removal from office) must be such as to secure their independence from the Authority in the operation of the compensation scheme<sup>7</sup>. The scheme manager is not to be regarded as exercising functions on behalf of the Crown<sup>8</sup> and the scheme manager's board members, officers and staff are not to be regarded as Crown servants<sup>9</sup>.

At least once a year, the scheme manager must make a report to the Authority on the discharge of its functions<sup>10</sup>. The report must: (1) include a statement setting out the value of each of the funds established by the compensation scheme<sup>11</sup>; and (2) comply with any requirements specified in rules<sup>12</sup> made by the Authority<sup>13</sup>. The scheme manager must publish each report in the way it considers appropriate<sup>14</sup>.

Neither the scheme manager nor any person who is, or who is acting as, its board member, officer or member of staff is liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge, or purported discharge, of the scheme manager's functions<sup>15</sup>.

The amount which the scheme manager may recover, from the sums levied under the scheme, as management expenses<sup>16</sup> attributable to a particular period may not exceed such amount as may be fixed by the scheme as the limit applicable to that period<sup>17</sup>.

Section 222(1) does not apply: (1) if the act or omission is shown to have been in bad faith; or (2) so as to prevent an award of damages made in respect of an act or omission on the ground that the act or omission was unlawful as a result of the Human Rights Act 1998 s 6(1) (see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 222(2).

16 'Management expenses' means expenses incurred, or expected to be incurred, by the scheme manager in connection with its functions under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 other than those incurred: (1) in paying compensation; (2) as a result of any provision of the scheme made by virtue of s 216(3), (4) (continuity of long-term insurance policies) (see PARA 587) or s 217(1), (6) (insurers in financial difficulties) (see PARA 588): s 223(3).

17 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 223(1). In calculating the amount of any levy to be imposed by the scheme manager, no amount may be included to reflect management expenses unless the limit mentioned in s 223(1) has been fixed by the scheme: s 223(2).

UPDATE*583 The scheme manager

TEXT AND NOTES--The scheme manager may arrange for any of its functions to be discharged on its behalf by another person (a 'scheme agent'): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 221A(1) (s 221A added by the Banking Act 2009 s 179(1)). Before entering into arrangements the scheme manager must be satisfied that the scheme agent is competent to discharge the function and has been given sufficient directions to enable the agent to take any decisions required in the course of exercising the function in accordance with policy determined by the scheme manager: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 221A(2). Arrangements may include provision for payments to be made by the scheme manager to the scheme agent, which payments are management expenses of the scheme manager: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 221A(3).

A reference in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XV to functions of the scheme manager includes a reference to functions conferred by or under the Banking Act 2009: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 224A (added by the Banking Act 2009 s 180).

TEXT AND NOTE 15--Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 222(1) amended: Banking Act 2009 s 179(2).

TEXT AND NOTES 16, 17--As to provision enabling the Financial Services Compensation Scheme to invest the levies collected to build up contingency funds in the National Loans Fund and providing for that investment to be treated as money borrowed by the Treasury see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 223A (added by the Banking Act 2009 s 172 (not yet in force)). As to provision empowering the Treasury to make loans from the National Loans Fund to the Financial Services Compensation Scheme and to make regulations about the amount that can be borrowed and the collection of levies to secure its repayment see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 223B (added by the Banking Act 2009 s 173)). Payments made by the scheme manager in error, apart from those made in bad faith, may be provided for in setting a levy by virtue of the 2000 Act s 213, 214A, 214B or 223B: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 223C (added by the Banking Act 2009 s 177).

NOTE 16--Also, head (3) under the 2000 Act s 214B (see PARA 585 TEXT AND NOTES): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 223(3) (amended by the Banking Act 2009 s 171(2)).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(8) OMBUDSMAN AND COMPENSATION SCHEMES/(ii) The Financial Services Compensation Scheme/584. The compensation scheme.

584. The compensation scheme.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must by rules<sup>2</sup> establish a scheme for compensating persons in cases where relevant persons<sup>3</sup> are unable, or are likely to be unable, to satisfy claims against them<sup>4</sup>. The rules are known as the Financial Services Compensation Scheme<sup>5</sup>.

The compensation scheme must, in particular, provide for the scheme manager<sup>6</sup>: (1) to assess and pay compensation, in accordance with the scheme, to claimants in respect of claims made in connection with regulated activities<sup>7</sup> carried on (whether or not with permission) by relevant persons<sup>8</sup>; and (2) to have power to impose levies on authorised persons, or any class of authorised person, for the purpose of meeting its expenses (including, in particular, expenses incurred, or expected to be incurred, in paying compensation, borrowing or insuring risks)<sup>9</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

2 As to the meaning of 'rule' see PARA 23 note 2.

3 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XV (ss 212-224) (except in s 219, s 220 or s 224: see PARA 589), 'relevant person' means a person who was: (1) an authorised person at the time the act or omission giving rise to the claim against him took place; or (2) an appointed representative at that time: s 213(9). As to authorised persons see PARA 314. As to the meaning of 'appointed representative' see PARA 346. However, a person who, at that time: (a) qualified for authorisation under s 31(1)(b), Sch 3 (EEA passport rights) (see PARAS 314-318, 323-329); and (b) fell within a prescribed category, is not to be regarded as a relevant person in relation to any activities for which he had permission as a result of any provision of, or made under, Sch 3 unless he had elected to participate in the scheme in relation to those activities at that time: s 213(10). As to elections to participate see PARA 585. 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). For the purposes of s 213(10), the following categories are prescribed: (i) any investment firm; (ii) any credit institution; (iii) any insurance intermediary; and (iv) any relevant management company: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Compensation Scheme: Electing Participants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1783, reg 2 (amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2003/2066). 'Investment firm' has the meaning given by European Parliament and EC Council Directive 97/9 (OJ L84, 26.3.97, p 22) on investor-compensation schemes, art 1.1; and 'credit institution' has the meaning given by the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions) art 4.1: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Compensation Scheme: Electing Participants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1783, reg 1(2) (definition of 'credit institution' amended by SI 2006/3221). 'Insurance intermediary' means an insurance intermediary, within the meaning of the Insurance Mediation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/92 (OJ L9, 15.1.2003, p3) on insurance mediation) art 2(5) or a reinsurance intermediary within the meaning of art 2(6); and 'relevant management company' means an EEA firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(f) (see PARA 315 note 1) which is authorised by its home state regulator to provide services of the kind specified by the UCITS Directive (ie EEC Council Directive 85/611 (OJ L375, 31.12.85, p3) on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities) art 5.3(a) (management of portfolios of investments), and which is providing those services in the United Kingdom: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Compensation Scheme: Electing Participants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1783, reg 1(2) (definitions added by SI 2003/1476; SI 2003/2066). As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 213(1). The provisions of ss 214-217 (see PARAS 585-588) make further provision about the scheme but are not to be taken as limiting the power conferred on the Authority by s 213(1): s 213(7). See R v Investors Compensation Scheme Ltd, ex p Bowden [1996] AC 261, [1995] 3 All ER 605, HL; Deposit Protection Board v Dalia [1994] 2 AC 367, [1994] 2 All ER 577, HL (cases relating to previous similar schemes under the Financial Services Act 1986). An insured company which claims the costs of defending an action brought against it is entitled to claim an indemnity from the Financial Services Compensation Scheme where the insurer has become insolvent: R (on the application of Geologistics Ltd) v Financial Services Compensation Scheme [2003] EWCA Civ 1905, [2004] 3 All ER 39, [2004] 1 All ER (Comm) 943.

6 As to the scheme manager see PARA 583.

7 As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 213(3)(a). See note 9.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 213(3)(b). In making any provision of the scheme by virtue of s 213(3)(b), the Authority must take account of the desirability of ensuring that the amount of the levies imposed on a particular class of authorised person reflects, so far as practicable, the amount of the claims made, or likely to be made, in respect of that class of person: s 213(5).

The compensation scheme may provide for the scheme manager to have power to impose levies on authorised persons, or any class of authorised person, for the purpose of recovering the cost (whenever incurred) of establishing the scheme: s 213(4). An amount payable to the scheme manager as a result of any provision of the scheme made by virtue of s 213(3)(b) or s 213(4) may be recovered as a debt due to the scheme manager: s 213(6).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(8) OMBUDSMAN AND COMPENSATION SCHEMES/(ii) The Financial Services Compensation Scheme/585. Provision made by the compensation scheme.

585. Provision made by the compensation scheme.

The compensation scheme<sup>1</sup> may, in particular, make provision:

- 1371 (1) as to the circumstances in which a relevant person<sup>2</sup> is to be taken (for the purposes of the scheme) to be unable, or likely to be unable, to satisfy claims made against him<sup>3</sup>;
- 1372 (2) for the establishment of different funds for meeting different kinds of claim<sup>4</sup>;
- 1373 (3) for the imposition of different levies in different cases<sup>5</sup>;
- 1374 (4) limiting the levy payable by a person in respect of a specified<sup>6</sup> period<sup>7</sup>;
- 1375 (5) for repayment of the whole or part of a levy in specified circumstances<sup>8</sup>;
- 1376 (6) for a claim to be entertained only if it is made by a specified kind of claimant<sup>9</sup>;
- 1377 (7) for a claim to be entertained only if it falls within a specified kind of claim<sup>10</sup>;
- 1378 (8) as to the procedure to be followed in making a claim<sup>11</sup>;
- 1379 (9) for the making of interim payments before a claim is finally determined<sup>12</sup>;
- 1380 (10) limiting the amount payable on a claim to a specified maximum amount or a maximum amount calculated in a specified manner<sup>13</sup>;
- 1381 (11) for payment to be made, in specified circumstances, to a person other than the claimant<sup>14</sup>.

Different provision may be made with respect to different kinds of claim<sup>15</sup>. The scheme may provide for the determination and regulation of matters relating to the scheme by the scheme manager<sup>16</sup>. The scheme, or particular provisions of the scheme, may be made so as to apply only in relation to: (a) activities carried on<sup>17</sup>; (b) claimants<sup>18</sup>; (c) matters arising<sup>19</sup>; or (d) events occurring<sup>20</sup>, in specified territories, areas or localities<sup>21</sup>.

The scheme may provide for a person who qualifies for authorisation<sup>22</sup>, and falls within a prescribed category<sup>23</sup>, to elect to participate in the scheme in relation to some or all of the activities for which he has permission<sup>24</sup>.

The scheme may provide for the scheme manager to have power in specified circumstances, but only if the scheme manager is satisfied that the claimant is entitled to receive a payment in respect of his claim under a scheme which is comparable to the compensation scheme, or as the result of a guarantee given by a government or other authority, to make a full payment of compensation to the claimant and recover the whole or part of the amount of that payment from the other scheme or under that guarantee<sup>25</sup>.

The compensation scheme<sup>26</sup> is not to provide for the compensation of persons in respect of claims made in connection with the issuing of electronic money<sup>27</sup>.

23 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 417(1). For the purposes of s 214(5), the following categories are prescribed: (1) any investment firm or relevant management company which has established a branch in the United Kingdom in exercise of an EEA right and is a member of a home state investor-compensation scheme which meets the condition that the scope or level (including percentage) of the protection afforded to investors by the Financial Services Compensation

Scheme exceeds that afforded by the home state investor-compensation scheme; (2) any credit institution which has established a branch in the United Kingdom in exercise of an EEA right and is a member of a home state deposit-guarantee scheme which meets the condition that the scope or level (including percentage) of the protection afforded to depositors by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme exceeds that afforded by the home state deposit-guarantee scheme; and (3) any insurance intermediary which is not an investment firm or credit institution: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Compensation Scheme: Electing Participants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1783, reg 3 (amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2003/2066). As to the meanings of 'investment firm', 'relevant management company', 'credit institution' and 'insurance intermediary' see PARA 584 note 3. As the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. 'Home state investor-compensation scheme' means: (a) in relation to a credit institution which is exempted by the EEA state in which that institution has its head office from the obligation to belong to an investor-compensation scheme by virtue of European Parliament and EC Council Directive 97/9 (OJ L84, 26.3.97, p 22) on investor-compensation schemes, art 2.1 (participation in a system that protects the credit institution), that system; and (b) in all other cases, the investor-compensation scheme officially recognised by that EEA state for the purposes of art 2.1: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Compensation Scheme: Electing Participants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1783, reg 1(2). 'Home state deposit-guarantee scheme' means: (i) in relation to a credit institution which is exempted by the EEA state in which that institution has its head office from the obligation to belong to a deposit-guarantee scheme by virtue of belonging to a system which protects the credit institution as mentioned in European Parliament and EC Council Directive 94/19 (OJ L135, 31.5.94, p 5) on deposit-guarantee schemes, art 3, that system; and (ii) in all other cases, the deposit-guarantee scheme officially recognised by that EEA state for the purposes of art 3.1: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Compensation Scheme: Electing Participants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1783, reg 1(2). ## UPDATE

TEXT AND NOTES--The Treasury may make regulations permitting the scheme manager to impose levies under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 213 for the purpose of maintaining contingency funds from which possible expenses may be paid: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 214A (added by the Banking Act 2009 s 170(1) (not yet in force)). Where (1) a stabilisation power under the Banking Act 2009 Pt 1 (ss 1-89) (see PARA 791) has been exercised in respect of a bank, building society or credit union; and (2) the Treasury thinks that the bank, building society or credit union was, or, but for the exercise of the stabilisation power, would have become, unable to satisfy claims against it, the Treasury may require the scheme manager to make payments in connection with the exercise of the stabilisation power, and payments are to be treated as expenditure under the scheme for all purposes (including levies, contingency funds and borrowing): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 214B(1), (2) (s 214B added by the Banking Act 2009 s 171(1)). The Treasury must make regulations (a) specifying what expenses the scheme manager may be required to incur for that purpose; (b) providing for independent verification of the nature and amount of expenses incurred in connection with the exercise of the stabilisation power (which may include provision about appointment and payment of an auditor); and (c) providing for the method by which amounts to be paid are to be determined: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 214B(3). See further s 214B(4)-(9). See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Contribution to Costs of Special Resolution Regime) Regulations 2009, SI 2009/807.

NOTE 3--A reference in any enactment or instrument to a claim or claimant under the 2000 Act Pt XV includes a reference to a deemed claim or claimant in accordance with s 214(1A) (see NOTE 11): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 214(1B) (added by the Banking Act 2009 s 174(1)).

NOTE 11--Rules by virtue of the 2000 Act s 214(1)(h) may, in particular, allow the scheme manager to treat persons who are or may be entitled to claim under the scheme as if they had done so: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 214(1A) (added by the Banking Act 2009 s 174(1)).

NOTE 13--Rules by virtue of the 2000 Act s 214(1)(j) may, in particular, allow, or be subject to rules which allow, the scheme manager to settle a class of claim by payment of sums fixed without reference to, or by modification of, the normal rules for calculation of maximum entitlement for individual claims: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 214(1C) (added by the Banking Act 2009 s 174(1)).

NOTE 23--Head (i). Directive 94/19 amended: European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/1 (OJ L79, 24.3.2005, p 9); European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2009/14 (OJ L68, 13.3.2009, p 3).

586. Rights in relevant person's insolvency.

The compensation scheme<sup>1</sup> may, in particular, make provision: (1) as to the effect of a payment of compensation under the scheme in relation to rights or obligations arising out of the claim against a relevant person<sup>2</sup> in respect of which the payment was made<sup>3</sup>; (2) for conferring on the scheme manager<sup>4</sup> a right of recovery against that person<sup>5</sup>. Such a right of recovery conferred by the scheme does not, in the event of the relevant person's insolvency, exceed such right (if any) as the claimant would have had in that event<sup>6</sup>. If a person other than the scheme manager makes an administration application<sup>7</sup> in relation to a company or partnership<sup>8</sup> which is a relevant person, the scheme manager has the same rights as are conferred on the Financial Services Authority<sup>9</sup>. If a person other than the scheme manager presents a petition for the winding up of a body which is a relevant person, the scheme manager has the same rights to participate in the proceedings as are conferred on the Authority<sup>10</sup>. If a person other than the scheme manager presents a bankruptcy petition<sup>11</sup> to the court in relation to an individual who, or an entity which, is a relevant person, the scheme manager has the same rights to participate in the proceedings as are conferred on the Authority<sup>12</sup>. Insolvency rules<sup>13</sup> may be made for the purpose of integrating any procedure for which provision is made by the compensation scheme<sup>14</sup> into the general procedure on the administration of a company or partnership or on a winding-up or bankruptcy<sup>15</sup>.

587. Insurance.

The compensation scheme<sup>1</sup> may, in particular, include provision requiring the scheme manager<sup>2</sup> to make arrangements for securing continuity of insurance for policyholders<sup>3</sup>, or policyholders of a specified<sup>4</sup> class, of relevant long-term insurers<sup>5</sup>. The scheme may provide for the scheme manager to take such measures as appear to him to be appropriate: (1) for securing or facilitating the transfer of a relevant long-term insurer's business so far as it consists of the carrying out of contracts of long-term insurance, or of any part of that business, to another authorised person<sup>6</sup>; (2) for securing the issue by another authorised person to the policyholders concerned of policies in substitution for their existing policies<sup>7</sup>. The scheme may also provide for the scheme manager to make payments to the policyholders concerned: (a) during any period while he is seeking to make arrangements for continuity of insurance<sup>8</sup>; (b) if it appears to him that it is not reasonably practicable to make such arrangements<sup>9</sup>. The scheme<sup>10</sup> may include power to impose levies for the purpose of meeting expenses of the scheme manager incurred in taking measures<sup>11</sup> or in making payments as mentioned above<sup>12</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(8) OMBUDSMAN AND COMPENSATION SCHEMES/(ii) The Financial Services Compensation Scheme/588. Insurers in financial difficulties.

588. Insurers in financial difficulties.

The compensation scheme<sup>1</sup> may, in particular, include provision for the scheme manager<sup>2</sup> to have power to take measures for safeguarding policyholders<sup>3</sup>, or policyholders of a specified<sup>4</sup> class, of relevant insurers<sup>5</sup>. The measures may include such measures as the scheme manager considers appropriate for: (1) securing or facilitating the transfer of a relevant insurer's business so far as it consists of the carrying out of contracts of insurance, or of any part of that business, to another authorised person<sup>6</sup>; (2) giving assistance to the relevant insurer to enable it to continue to effect or carry out contracts of insurance<sup>7</sup>.

The scheme may provide:

- 1382 (a) that if measures of a kind mentioned in head (1) above are to be taken, they should be on terms appearing to the scheme manager to be appropriate, including terms reducing, or deferring payment of, any of the things to which any of those who are eligible policyholders<sup>8</sup> in relation to the relevant insurer are entitled in their capacity as such<sup>9</sup>;
- 1383 (b) that if measures of a kind mentioned in head (2) above are to be taken, they should be conditional on the reduction of, or the deferment of the payment of, the things to which any of those who are eligible policyholders in relation to the relevant insurer are entitled in their capacity as such<sup>10</sup>;
- 1384 (c) for ensuring that measures of a kind mentioned in head (2) above do not benefit to any material extent persons who were members of a relevant insurer when it began to be in financial difficulties<sup>11</sup> or who had any responsibility for, or who may have profited from, the circumstances giving rise to its financial difficulties, except in specified circumstances<sup>12</sup>;
- 1385 (d) for requiring the scheme manager to be satisfied that any measures he proposes to take are likely to cost less than it would cost to pay compensation under the scheme if the relevant insurer became unable, or likely to be unable, to satisfy claims made against him<sup>13</sup>.

The scheme may provide for the Financial Services Authority<sup>14</sup> to have power: (i) to give such assistance to the scheme manager as it considers appropriate for assisting the scheme manager to determine what measures are practicable or desirable in the case of a particular relevant insurer<sup>15</sup>; (ii) to impose constraints on the taking of measures by the scheme manager in the case of a particular relevant insurer<sup>16</sup>; (iii) to require the scheme manager to provide it with information about any particular measures which the scheme manager is proposing to take<sup>17</sup>.

The scheme may include provision for the scheme manager to have power to make interim payments in respect of eligible policyholders of a relevant insurer and to indemnify any person making payments to eligible policyholders of a relevant insurer<sup>18</sup>.

A provision of the scheme<sup>19</sup> may include power to impose levies for the purpose of meeting expenses of the scheme manager incurred in taking the above measures<sup>20</sup>, and making the above payments or giving the above indemnities<sup>21</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(8) OMBUDSMAN AND COMPENSATION SCHEMES/(ii) The Financial Services Compensation Scheme/589. Information and documents.

589. Information and documents.

The scheme manager<sup>1</sup> may, by notice in writing given to the relevant person<sup>2</sup> in respect of whom a claim is made under the scheme or to a person otherwise involved<sup>3</sup>, require that person to provide specified<sup>4</sup> information or information of a specified description or to produce specified documents<sup>5</sup> or documents of a specified description<sup>6</sup>. The information or documents must be provided or produced before the end of such reasonable period as may be specified and, in the case of information, in such manner or form as may be specified<sup>7</sup>. This power applies only to information and documents the provision or production of which the scheme manager considers to be necessary for the fair determination of the claim, or to be necessary (or likely to be necessary) for the fair determination of other claims made (or which it expects may be made) in respect of the relevant person concerned<sup>8</sup>.

If a document is produced in response to a requirement imposed under these provisions, the scheme manager may take copies or extracts from the document or require the person producing the document to provide an explanation of the document<sup>9</sup>. If a person who is required to produce a document fails to do so, the scheme manager may require the person to state, to the best of his knowledge and belief, where the document is<sup>10</sup>. If a person claims a lien on a document, its production<sup>11</sup> does not affect the lien<sup>12</sup>.

For the purpose of assisting the scheme manager to discharge its functions in relation to a claim made in respect of an insolvent relevant person<sup>13</sup>, the administrative receiver, administrator, liquidator or trustee in bankruptcy<sup>14</sup> of an insolvent relevant person must permit a person authorised by the scheme manager to inspect relevant documents<sup>15</sup>. A person inspecting such a document may take copies of, or extracts from, the document<sup>16</sup>.

If a person (the 'defaulter') fails to comply with a requirement<sup>17</sup>, or fails to permit documents to be inspected<sup>18</sup>, the scheme manager may certify that fact in writing to the High Court and the court may inquire into the case<sup>19</sup>. If the court is satisfied that the defaulter failed without reasonable excuse to comply with the requirement (or to permit the documents to be inspected), it may deal with the defaulter (and, in the case of a body corporate<sup>20</sup>, any director or officer<sup>21</sup>) as if he were in contempt<sup>22</sup>.

If, as a result of the insolvency or bankruptcy of a relevant person<sup>23</sup>, any documents have come into the possession of the Official Receiver, the Official Receiver for Northern Ireland or the Accountant in Bankruptcy, he must permit any person authorised by the scheme manager to inspect the documents for the purpose of establishing: (1) the identity of persons to whom the scheme manager may be liable to make a payment in accordance with the compensation scheme<sup>24</sup>; or (2) the amount of any payment which the scheme manager may be liable to make<sup>25</sup>. A person inspecting a document may take copies or extracts from the document<sup>26</sup>.

1 As to the scheme manager see PARA 583. See also the Financial Services Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Redress, Compensation (COMP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 For these purposes, 'relevant person' has the same meaning as in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 224 (see note 23): s 219(8).

3 A person is involved in a claim made under the scheme if he was knowingly involved in the act or omission giving rise to the claim: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 219(10).

4 As specified in the notice given under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 219(1): s 219(9).

5 As to the meaning of 'document' see PARA 10 note 10.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 219(1). If the relevant person is insolvent, no requirement may be imposed under s 219 on a person to whom s 220 (see the text to notes 13-16) or s 224 (see the text and notes 23-26) applies: s 219(6).

13 For these purposes, 'relevant person' has the same meaning as in Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 224 (see note 23): s 220(5).

14 The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 220 does not apply to a liquidator, administrator or trustee in bankruptcy who is: (1) the Official Receiver (see BANKRUPTCY AND INDIVIDUAL INSOLVENCY vol 3(2) (2002 Reissue) PARA 31 et seq); (2) the Official Receiver for Northern Ireland; or (3) the Accountant in Bankruptcy: s 220(4).

- 19 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 221(1), (3).
- 20 As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11.
- 21 'Officer', in relation to a limited liability partnership, means a member of the limited liability partnership: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 221(2) (amended by SI 2001/1090). As to limited liability partnerships see PARTNERSHIP vol 79 (2008) PARA 234 et seq.
- 22 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 221(2). As to contempt of court see generally CONTEMPT OF COURT.
- 23 'Relevant person' means a person who was: (1) an authorised person at the time the act or omission which may give rise to the liability mentioned in head (1) in the text took place; or (2) an appointed representative at that time: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 224(3). As to authorised persons see PARA 314. As to the meaning of 'appointed representative' see PARA 346. However, a person who, at that time: (a) qualified for authorisation under s 31(1)(b), Sch 3 (EEA passport rights) (see PARAS 314-318, 323-329); and (b) fell within a prescribed category, is not to be regarded as a relevant person for the purposes of s 224 in relation to any activities for which he had permission as a result of any provision of, or made under, Sch 3 unless he had elected to participate in the scheme in relation to those activities at that time: s 224(4). 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1).
- For the purposes of s 224(4), the following categories are prescribed: (i) any investment firm; (ii) any credit institution; (iii) any insurance intermediary; and (iv) any relevant management company: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Compensation Scheme: Electing Participants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1783, reg 4 (amended by SI 2003/1476; SI 2003/2066). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 provides that no insurance business transfer scheme<sup>1</sup> or banking business transfer scheme<sup>2</sup> is to have effect unless an order sanctioning the scheme<sup>3</sup> has been made in relation to it<sup>4</sup>. At the date at which this volume states the law, this provision had been brought into force in relation to insurance business transfer schemes only<sup>5</sup>.

1 As to insurance business transfer schemes see PARA 591. See also the Financial Services Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Supervision Manual (SUP) Ch 18. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to banking business transfer schemes see PARA 592.

3 Ie under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 111(1): see PARA 594.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 104. Section 104 has been brought into force for the purpose of insurance business transfer schemes only: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Commencement No 7) Order 2001, SI 2001/3538, art 2(1), (2).

The Treasury may by regulations: (1) provide for prescribed provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VII (ss 104-117) to have effect in relation to prescribed cases with such modifications as may be prescribed; (2) make such amendments to any of those statutory provisions as it considers appropriate for the more effective operation of that or any other provision relating to the control of business transfers: s 117. 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Motor Insurance) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/2403, have been made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 117 which, among other things, amended Sch 12 para 6 (see PARA 595). Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(i) Control of Business Transfers/590A. Dormant bank and building society accounts.

590A. Dormant bank and building society accounts.

Where a bank or building society transfers to an authorised reclaim fund the balance of a dormant account that a person ('the customer') holds with it, and the reclaim fund consents to the transfer, after the transfer the customer no longer has any right against the bank or building society to payment of the balance, but he has against the reclaim fund whatever right to payment of the balance he would have against the bank or building society if the transfer had not happened: Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 1(1), (2). The reference to an account that a person holds is to be read as including an account held by a deceased individual immediately before his death and in such a case, a reference to the customer is to be read as a reference to the person to whom the right to payment of the balance has passed: Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 1(3).

A 'reclaim fund' is a company the objects of which are restricted by its articles of association to the following: (1) the meeting of repayment claims; (2) the management of dormant account funds in such a way as to enable the company to meet whatever repayment claims it is prudent to anticipate; (3) the transfer of money to the bodies specified in the Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 16(1), subject to the need for the company (a) to have access at any given time to enough money to meet whatever repayment claims it is prudent to anticipate; (b) to comply with any requirement with regard to its financial resources that is imposed on it by or under any enactment, and (c) to defray its expenses; and (4) objects that are incidental or conducive to, or otherwise connected with, any of the above (including in particular the prudent investment of dormant account funds): Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 5(1). 'Company' has the meaning given by the Companies Act 2006 s 1(1) (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 1); 'dormant account funds' means money paid to a reclaim fund by banks and by building societies in respect of dormant accounts; and 'repayment claims' means claims made by virtue of the 2008 Act s 1(2)(b) or 2(2)(b): Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 5(6). As to further provisions regarding the articles of association of reclaim funds see Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 5(2)-(5), Sch 1.

'Bank' means an authorised deposit-taker that has its head office, or one or more branches, in the United Kingdom, but a bank does not include a building society, a person who is specified, or is within a class of persons specified, by an order under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 38 (see PARA 330), a credit union or a friendly society: see Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 7. The balance of a person's account at any particular time is the amount owing to the person in respect of the account at that time, after the appropriate adjustments have been made for such things as interest due and fees and charges payable: see Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 8. 'Account' means an account that has at all times consisted only of money provided by the bank or building society as part of its activity of accepting deposits: Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 9(1), (2). In relation to a building society, 'account' includes an account representing shares in the society, other than (i) preferential shares; or (ii) deferred shares within the meaning given in the Building Societies Act 1986 s 119(1) (see PARA 1906): Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 9(3). An account is 'dormant' at a particular time if the account has been open throughout the period of 15 years ending at that time, but during that period no transactions have been carried out in relation to the account by or on the instructions of the holder of the account: see Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 10.

An alternative scheme is established for smaller institutions which meet the assets-limit condition, involving the transfer of balances to charities with a proportion to an authorised reclaim fund: see Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 2. A bank or a building society meets the assets-limit condition if the aggregate of the amounts shown in its balance sheet as assets on the last day of the latest financial year for which it has prepared accounts is less than £7,000m: see Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 3. Where the directors of a company that is a bank are required by the Companies Act 2006 s 415(1) (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 816) to prepare a report for a particular financial year and in that year the company made transfers in relation to which the 2008 Act s 2 applied, the report must identify each of the charities concerned and specify the amount transferred to each of them: Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 13.

Provision is also made for the preservation of the customer's rights on the insolvency of a bank or building society (Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 11), the disclosure of information to an authorised reclaim fund to enable it to deal with claims (s 12), and review by the Treasury of the operation of the 2008 Act Pt 1 (ss 1-15) (s 14).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(i) Control of Business Transfers/591. Insurance business transfer schemes.

591. Insurance business transfer schemes.

- 1386 (a) the whole or part of the business carried on in one or more member states by a UK authorised person<sup>5</sup> who has permission to effect or carry out contracts of insurance<sup>6</sup> (the 'authorised person concerned') is to be transferred to another body (the 'transferee')<sup>7</sup>;
- 1387 (b) the whole or part of the business, so far as it consists of reinsurance<sup>8</sup>, carried on in the United Kingdom through an establishment there by an EEA firm which is an insurance undertaking qualifying for authorisation<sup>9</sup> (the 'authorised person concerned') is to be transferred to another body (the 'transferee')<sup>10</sup>;
- 1388 (c) the whole or part of the business carried on in the United Kingdom by an authorised person who is neither a UK authorised person nor an EEA firm but who has permission to effect or carry out contracts of insurance (the 'authorised person concerned') is to be transferred to another body (the 'transferee')<sup>11</sup>.

A scheme is an excluded scheme for these purposes if it falls within any of the following cases:

- 1389 (i) Case 1 is where the authorised person concerned is a friendly society<sup>12</sup>;
- 1390 (ii) Case 2 is where: (A) the authorised person concerned is a UK authorised person; (B) the authorised person is not a reinsurance undertaking<sup>13</sup>; (C) the business to be transferred under the scheme is business which consists of the effecting or carrying out of contracts of reinsurance in one or more EEA states other than the United Kingdom; and (D) the scheme has been approved by a court in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom or by the host state regulator<sup>14</sup>;

1391 (iii) Case 3 is where: (A) the authorised person concerned is a UK authorised person; (B) the business to be transferred under the scheme is carried on in one or more countries or territories (none of which is an EEA state) and does not include policies of insurance against risks arising in an EEA state; and (C) the scheme has been approved by a court in a country or territory other than an EEA state or by the authority responsible for the supervision of that business in a country or territory in which it is carried on;

1392 (iv) Case 4 is where (A) the business to be transferred under the scheme is the whole of the business of the authorised person concerned; (B) all the policyholders<sup>15</sup> are controllers<sup>16</sup> of the firm or of firms within the same group<sup>17</sup> as the firm which is the transferee; and (C) all of the policyholders who will be affected by the transfer have consented to it;

1   Ie the conditions set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 105(2): see the text and notes 4-10.

The expression 'scheme' has a broad meaning and includes any arrangement the predominant purpose of which is to transfer an insurance business transfer: see Re the Standard Life Assurance Company [2007] SCLR 581.

2   'Establishment' means, in relation to a person, his head office or a branch of his: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 105(9).

3   As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1.

4   Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 105(1). As to excluded schemes see the text and notes 12-19. See also the Financial Services Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Supervision Manual (SUP) Ch 18. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

5   'UK authorised person' means a body which is an authorised person and which: (1) is incorporated in the United Kingdom; or (2) is an unincorporated association formed under the law of any part of the United Kingdom: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 105(8). As to authorised persons see PARA 314. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

6   As to the meaning of 'contracts of insurance' see PARA 351 note 13.

7   Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 105(2)(a).

8   In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, references to 'reinsurance' are to be read with s 22 and Sch 2 (see PARA 84 et seq): s 424(1)(b).

9   Ie an EEA firm falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(d) (see PARA 315 note 1) and qualifying for authorisation under Sch 3 (see PARA 314 et seq).

10   Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 105(2)(b) (amended by SI 2007/3253).

11   Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 105(2)(c).

12   'Friendly society' means an incorporated or registered friendly society: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 417(1).

13   Ie a reinsurance undertaking within the meaning of the Reinsurance Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/68 (OJ L323, 9.12.2005, p 1) on reinsurance and amending EEC Council Directives 73/239, 92/49 as well as EC Directives 98/78 and 2002/83) art 2.1(c).

14 As to the meaning of 'host state regulator' see PARA 323 note 10.

15 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, 'policyholder', in relation to a contract of insurance, has such meaning as the Treasury may by order specify: s 424(2). The Treasury has ordered that, for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 424(2), 'policyholder' means the person who for the time being is the legal holder of the policy, and includes any person to whom, under the policy, a sum is due, a periodic payment is payable or any other benefit is to be provided or to whom such a sum, payment or benefit is contingently due, payable or to be provided: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Meaning of 'Policy' and 'Policyholder') Order 2001, SI 2001/2362, art 3. As to the meaning of 'policy' see PARA 595 note 13. As to orders made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 see PARA 67 note 1. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

16 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (except Pt XVIII Ch IA (ss 301A-301G): see PARA 725 et seq), 'controller', in relation to an undertaking ('A'), means a person who falls within any of the following cases, namely where the person: (1) holds 10% or more of the shares in A; (2) is able to exercise significant influence over the management of A by virtue of his shareholding in A; (3) holds 10% or more of the shares in a parent undertaking ('P') of A; (4) is able to exercise significant influence over the management of P by virtue of his shareholding in P; (5) is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, 10% or more of the voting power in A; (6) is able to exercise significant influence over the management of A by virtue of his voting power in A; (7) is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, 10% or more of the voting power in P; or (8) is able to exercise significant influence over the management of P by virtue of his voting power in P: s 422(1), (2) (s 422(1) amended by SI 2007/126). For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 422(2), the 'person' means: (a) the person; (b) any of the person's associates; or (c) the person and any of his associates: s 422(3). 'Associate', in relation to a person ('H') holding shares in an undertaking ('C') or entitled to exercise or control the exercise of voting power in relation to another undertaking ('D'), means: (i) the spouse or civil partner of H; (ii) a child or stepchild of H (if under 18); (iii) the trustee of any settlement under which H has a life interest in possession; (iv) an undertaking of which H is a director; (v) a person who is an employee or partner of H; (vi) if H is an undertaking: (A) a director of H; (B) a subsidiary undertaking of H; (C) a director or employee of such a subsidiary undertaking; and (vii) if H has with any other person an agreement or arrangement with respect to the acquisition, holding or disposal of shares or other interests in C or D or under which they undertake to act together in exercising their voting power in relation to C or D, that other person: s 422(4) (amended by the Civil Partnership Act 2004 Sch 27 para 165). As to the meanings of 'parent undertaking' and 'subsidiary undertaking' see PARA 351 note 32. For the purposes of head (iii) above, 'settlement' includes any disposition or arrangement under which property is held on trust (or subject to a comparable obligation): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 422(5). 'Shares', in relation to an undertaking with a share capital, means allotted shares; in relation to an undertaking with capital but no share capital, means rights to share in the capital of the undertaking; in relation to an undertaking without capital, means interests conferring any right to share in the profits, or liability to contribute to the losses, of the undertaking; or giving rise to an obligation to contribute to the debts or expenses of the undertaking in the event of a winding up: s 422(6). 'Voting power', in relation to an undertaking which does not have general meetings at which matters are decided by the exercise of voting rights, means the right under the constitution of the undertaking to direct the overall policy of the undertaking or alter the terms of its constitution: s 422(7). The Treasury may by order amend s 422 by varying, or removing, any of the cases in which a person is treated as being a controller of a person or by adding a case: s 192(e). No order is to be made under s 192(e) unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House: s 429(1)(a).

17 As to the meaning of 'group' see PARA 351 note 37.

18 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 2: see PARA 595.

19 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 105(3) (amended by SI 2007/3253). The parties to a scheme which falls within Case 2, 3, 4 or 5 may apply to the court for an order sanctioning the scheme as if it were an insurance business transfer scheme: s 105(4) (amended by SI 2007/3253).

If the scheme involves a compromise or arrangement falling within the Companies Act 2006 Pt 27 (ss 902-941) (mergers and divisions of public companies), the provisions of Pt 27 (and Pt 26 (ss 895-901)) (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 1425 et seq) apply accordingly but this does not affect the operation of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VII (ss 104-117) in relation to the scheme: s 105(5) (substituted by SI 2008/948).

592. Banking business transfer schemes.

A scheme is a banking business transfer scheme if it: (1) satisfies one of the conditions described below<sup>1</sup>; (2) is one under which the whole or part of the business to be transferred includes the accepting of deposits; and (3) is not an excluded scheme<sup>2</sup>. The conditions are that:

- 1394 (a) the whole or part of the business carried on by a UK authorised person<sup>3</sup> who has permission to accept deposits (the 'authorised person concerned') is to be transferred to another body (the 'transferee')<sup>4</sup>;
- 1395 (b) the whole or part of the business carried on in the United Kingdom by an authorised person who is not a UK authorised person but who has permission to accept deposits (the 'authorised person concerned') is to be transferred to another body which will carry it on in the United Kingdom (the 'transferee')<sup>5</sup>.

A scheme is an excluded scheme for these purposes if: (i) the authorised person concerned is a building society<sup>6</sup> or a credit union<sup>7</sup>; or (ii) the scheme is a compromise or arrangement to which the statutory provisions relating to mergers and divisions of public companies<sup>8</sup> applies<sup>9</sup>.

592 Banking business transfer schemes

TEXT AND NOTES--See also Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 106A (added by Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 Sch 2 para 2), which makes provision for reclaim fund business transfer schemes. A scheme is a reclaim fund business transfer scheme if, under the scheme, the whole or part of the business carried on by a reclaim fund is to be transferred to one or more other reclaim funds: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 106A(1). 'Reclaim fund' has the meaning given by Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 s 5(1) (see PARA 590A): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 106A(2).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(i) Control of Business Transfers/593. Application for an order sanctioning a business transfer scheme.

593. Application for an order sanctioning a business transfer scheme.

An application may be made to the High Court for an order sanctioning an insurance business transfer scheme<sup>1</sup> or a banking business transfer scheme<sup>2</sup>. An application may be made by: (1) the authorised person<sup>3</sup> concerned; (2) the transferee; or (3) both<sup>4</sup>. The application must be made: (a) if the authorised person concerned and the transferee are registered or have their head offices in the same jurisdiction, to the court in that jurisdiction; (b) if the authorised person concerned and the transferee are registered or have their head offices in different jurisdictions, to the court in either jurisdiction; (c) if the transferee is not registered in the United Kingdom<sup>5</sup> and does not have his head office there, to the court which has jurisdiction in relation to the authorised person concerned<sup>6</sup>.

The Treasury<sup>7</sup> may by regulations impose requirements on applicants under the provisions described above<sup>8</sup>, and the court may not determine an application<sup>9</sup> if the applicant has failed to comply with prescribed<sup>10</sup> requirements<sup>11</sup>. The regulations may, in particular, include provision: (i) as to the persons to whom, and periods within which, notice of an application must be given; (ii) enabling the court to waive a requirement of the regulations in prescribed circumstances<sup>12</sup>.

On an application<sup>13</sup>, the following are also entitled to be heard: (A) the Financial Services Authority; and (B) any person (including an employee of the authorised person concerned or of the transferee) who alleges that he would be adversely affected by the carrying out of the scheme<sup>14</sup>.

1 As to insurance business transfer schemes see PARA 591. An application under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 107 in respect of an insurance business transfer scheme must be accompanied by a report on the terms of the scheme (a 'scheme report'): s 109(1). A scheme report may be made only by a person: (1) appearing to the Financial Services Authority to have the skills necessary to enable him to make a proper report; and (2) nominated or approved for the purpose by the Authority: s 109(2). A scheme report must be made in a form approved by the Authority: s 109(3). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Supervision Manual (SUP) Ch 18. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 107(1), (4). As to banking business transfer schemes see PARA 592. An objector to such an application, which generally involves a change in the legal rights of members and/or creditors of the applicant, has no right to his costs, the right order being no order as to costs: Re Alliance Assurance Co Ltd; Re British Engine Insurance Ltd [2006] EWHC 2947 (Ch), [2006] All ER (D) 196 (Oct).

7 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 108(1). As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 see PARA 67 note 1.

An applicant under s 107 (see the text and notes 1-6) for an order sanctioning an insurance business transfer scheme (the 'scheme') must comply with the following requirements (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Control of Business Transfers) (Requirements on Applicants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3625, reg 3(1)):

- 560 (1) a notice stating that the application has been made must be: (a) published (i) in the London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes; (ii) in two national newspapers in the United Kingdom; and (iii) where, as regards any policy (other than a contract of reinsurance) included in the proposed transfer, an EEA state other than the United Kingdom is the state of the commitment or the state in which the risk is situated, in two national newspapers in that EEA state; and (iv) where, as regards any policy included in the proposed transfer which evidences a contract of reinsurance, an EEA state other than the United Kingdom is the state in which the establishment of the policyholder to which the policy relates is situated at the date when the contract was entered into, in one business newspaper which is published or circulated in that EEA State; and (b) sent to every policyholder of the parties (reg 3(2) (amended by SI 2007/3255));
- 561 (2) the notices mentioned in head (1) above must be approved by the Authority prior to publication (or, as the case may be, being sent), and must contain the address from which the documents mentioned in head (3) below may be obtained (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Control of Business Transfers) (Requirements on Applicants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3625, reg 3(3));
- 562 (3) a copy of the report and a statement setting out the terms of the scheme and containing a summary of the report must be given free of charge to any person who requests them (reg 3(4));
- 563 (4) a copy of the application, the report and the statement mentioned in head (3) above must be given free of charge to the Authority (reg 3(5));
- 564 (5) in the case of any such scheme as is mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 105(5) (see PARA 591), copies of the documents listed in the Companies Act 2006 ss 910(1), 911(3), 925(1), 926(3) (formerly the Companies Act 1985 Sch 15B para 6(1)) (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARAS 1459, 1460, 1472, 1473) or in the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6), Sch 15B para 6(1) (application of provisions about compromises and arrangements to mergers and divisions of public companies) must be given to the Authority by the beginning of the period referred to in the Companies Act 2006 ss 908, 909, 911, 912, 923-927 (formerly the Companies Act 1985 Sch 15B para 3(e)) (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARAS 1457 et seq, 1470-1474) or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986, SI 1986/1032 (NI 6), Sch 15B para 3(e) (see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Control of Business Transfers) (Requirements on Applicants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3625, reg 3(6)).

'State of the commitment' and 'state in which the risk is situated' have the meanings given by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 6 (see PARA 595): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Control of Business Transfers) (Requirements on Applicants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3625, reg 1(2). As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. As to the meaning of 'reinsurance' see PARA 591 note 8.

An applicant under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 107 for an order sanctioning a banking business transfer scheme (the 'scheme') must comply with the following requirements (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Control of Business Transfers) (Requirements on Applicants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3625, reg 5(1)):

- 565 (A) a notice stating that the application has been made must be published in the London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes, and in two national newspapers in the United Kingdom (reg 5(2));
- 566 (B) the notice mentioned in head (A) above must be approved by the Authority prior to its publication, and must contain the address from which the statement mentioned in head (C) below may be obtained (reg 5(3));
- 567 (C) a statement setting out the terms of the scheme must be given free of charge to any person who requests it (reg 5(4));

568 (D) copies of the application and the statement mentioned in head (iii) above must be given free of charge to the Authority (reg 5(5)).

9 le under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 107: see the text and notes 1-6.

10 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 417(1). See notes 8, 11.

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 108(2). The court may not determine an application under s 107 (see the text and notes 1-6) for an order sanctioning an insurance business transfer scheme: (1) where the applicant has failed to comply with the requirements in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Control of Business Transfers) (Requirements on Applicants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3625, reg 3(2), (3), (6) (see note 8); and (2) until a period of not less than 21 days has elapsed since the Authority was given the documents mentioned in reg 3(5) (see note 8): reg 4(1). The court may not determine an application under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 107 for an order sanctioning a banking business transfer scheme: (a) where the applicant has failed to comply with the requirements in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Control of Business Transfers) (Requirements on Applicants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3625, reg 5(2), (3) (see note 8); and (b) until a period of not less than 21 days has elapsed since the Authority was given the documents mentioned in reg 5(5) (see note 8): reg 6(1).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 108(3). Certain of the requirements as to publication in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Control of Business Transfers) (Requirements on Applicants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3625, regs 3, 5 (see note 8) may be waived by the court in such circumstances and subject to such conditions as the court considers appropriate: see regs 4(2), 6(2) (reg 4(2) amended by SI 2007/3255). However the requirement in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Control of Business Transfers) (Requirements on Applicants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3625, reg 3(2)(a)(iv) (see note 8 head (1)(a)(iv)) must be waived where an applicant demonstrates that he has notified all policyholders of contracts of reinsurance: reg 4(3) (added by SI 2007/3255).

UPDATE

593 Application for an order sanctioning a business transfer scheme

NOTES 1, 12--On an application for the sanction of an insurance business transfer scheme, it is not necessary for the claim form to be accompanied by a scheme report, so long as the report is available to the court and policyholders well before the court sanctions the scheme; it follows that where the report will be so available, the court has jurisdiction to make a waiver under SI 2001/3625 reg 4(2): Re Names at Lloyd's represented by Equitas Ltd; Re Speyford Ltd [2008] EWHC 2960 (Ch), [2009] Bus LR 509, [2008] All ER (D) 54 (Dec).

TEXT AND NOTE 2--An application may also be made to the High Court for an order sanctioning a reclaim fund business transfer scheme (see PARA 592): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 107(1) (amended by Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 Sch 2 para 3).

NOTES 8, 11--The requirements in SI 2001/3625 regs 5, 6 also apply to a reclaim fund business transfer scheme (see PARA 592): SI 2001/3625 regs 5(1), 6(1) (amended by SI 2009/1390).

NOTE 8--Also, head (1)(c) sent (i) to every reinsurer of the authorised person concerned (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 105(2)) (see PARA 591) any of whose contracts of reinsurance (in whole or part) are to be transferred by the scheme; or (ii) in a case where such a contract has been placed with or through a person authorised to act on behalf of the reinsurer, then to that person; or (iii) in a case where such a contract has been placed with more than one reinsurer, then to the person or persons authorised to act on behalf of those reinsurers or groups of reinsurers: SI 2001/3625 reg 3(2) (amended by SI 2008/1467).

594. Conditions to be met before business transfer schemes are sanctioned.

The following conditions must be satisfied before the court may make an order<sup>1</sup> sanctioning an insurance business transfer scheme<sup>2</sup> or a banking business transfer scheme<sup>3</sup>. The court must be satisfied that: (1) the appropriate certificates have been obtained<sup>4</sup>; (2) the transferee has the authorisation required (if any) to enable the business, or part, which is to be transferred to be carried on in the place to which it is to be transferred (or will have it before the scheme takes effect)<sup>5</sup>. The court must consider that, in all the circumstances of the case, it is appropriate to sanction the scheme<sup>6</sup>.

595. Certificates for insurance business transfer schemes.

- 1396 (1) a certificate as to margin of solvency<sup>3</sup> (that is to say, the excess of the value of the assets of the transferee over the amount of its liabilities<sup>4</sup>), given by the relevant authority<sup>5</sup>, or in a case where there is no relevant authority, by the Financial Services Authority<sup>6</sup>;
- 1397 (2) if the authorised person concerned is a UK authorised person<sup>7</sup> which has received authorisation<sup>8</sup> from the Authority, and the establishment from which the business is to be transferred under the proposed insurance business transfer scheme is in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>9</sup>, a certificate as to consent<sup>10</sup>;
- 1398 (3) if (a) the authorised person concerned has received authorisation<sup>11</sup> from the Authority; (b) the proposed transfer relates to business which consists of the effecting or carrying out of contracts of long-term insurance<sup>12</sup>; and (c) as regards any policy<sup>13</sup> which is included in the proposed transfer and which evidences a contract of insurance<sup>14</sup> (other than reinsurance<sup>15</sup>), an EEA state other than the United Kingdom is the state of the commitment<sup>16</sup>, a certificate as to long-term business<sup>17</sup>;
- 1399 (4) if (a) the authorised person concerned has received authorisation<sup>18</sup> from the Authority; (b) the business to which the proposed insurance business transfer scheme relates is business which consists of the effecting or carrying out of contracts of general insurance<sup>19</sup>; and (c) as regards any policy which is included in the proposed transfer and which evidences a contract of insurance (other than reinsurance), the risk is situated in an EEA state<sup>20</sup> other than the United Kingdom, a certificate as to general business<sup>21</sup>;
- 1400 (5) if (a) the authorised person concerned has received authorisation<sup>22</sup> from the Authority; and (b) the proposed transfer is to a branch or agency, in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom, authorised under the same provision<sup>23</sup>, certificates as to legality and as to consent<sup>24</sup>.

4    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 2(5).

5    A certificate given under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 1(a) by the relevant authority is one certifying that, taking the proposed transfer into account: (1) the transferee possesses, or will possess before the scheme takes effect, the necessary margin of solvency; or (2) there is no necessary margin of solvency applicable to the transferee: Sch 12 para 2(2). 'Relevant authority' means: (a) if the transferee is an EEA firm falling within Sch 3 para 5(d) or (da) (see PARA 315 note 1), its home state regulator; (b) if the transferee is a non-EEA branch, the competent authorities of the EEA state in which the transferee is situated or, where appropriate, the competent authorities of an EEA state which supervise the state of solvency of the entire business of the transferee's agencies and branches within the EEA in accordance with the First Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of direct insurance other than life assurance) art 26 or the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1) concerning life assurance) art 56; (c) if the transferee is a Swiss general insurer, the authority responsible in Switzerland for supervising persons who effect or carry out contracts of insurance; (d) if the transferee is an authorised person not falling within head

(a), (b) or (c) above, the Financial Services Authority: Sch 12 para 2(6) (amended by SI 2007/3253). As to the meanings of 'EEA firm', 'EEA state' and 'home state regulator' see PARA 315 note 1. As to authorised persons see PARA 314. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. 'Competent authorities' has the same meaning as in the Insurance Directives: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 2(7A) (added by SI 2007/3253). As to the meaning of 'Insurance Directives' see PARA 86 note 6. 'Non-EEA branch means' a branch or agency which has received authorisation under the First Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3)) art 23 or the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1)) art 51: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 2(9) (added by SI 2007/3253). 'Swiss general insurer' means a body whose head office is in Switzerland, which has permission to carry on regulated activities consisting of the effecting and carrying out of contracts of general insurance, and whose permission is not restricted to the effecting or carrying out of contracts of reinsurance: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 2(8). As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq. For the purposes of Sch 12 para 2(6), any reference to a transferee of a particular description includes a reference to a transferee who will be of that description if the proposed scheme takes effect: Sch 12 para 2(7). 'Necessary margin of solvency' means the margin of solvency required in relation to the transferee, taking the proposed transfer into account, under the law which it is the responsibility of the relevant authority to apply: Sch 12 para 2(4).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 2(1). A certificate given by the Financial Services Authority is one certifying that the Authority has received from the authority which it considers to be the authority responsible for supervising persons who effect or carry out contracts of insurance in the place to which the business is to be transferred that, taking the proposed transfer into account: (1) the transferee possesses or will possess before the scheme takes effect the margin of solvency required under the law applicable in that place; or (2) there is no such margin of solvency applicable to the transferee: Sch 12 para 2(3).

7 As to the meaning of 'UK authorised person' see PARA 358 note 3.

8 Ie under the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1)) art 4 or the First Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3)) art 6.

9 As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 paras 1(1)(b), (2), 3 (Sch 12 para 1(2) amended by SI 2004/3379). A certificate as to consent is one given by the Authority and certifying that the host state regulator has been notified of the proposed scheme and that: (1) that regulator has responded to the notification; or (2) it has not responded but the period of three months beginning with the notification has elapsed: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 3. As to the meaning of 'host state regulator' see PARA 323 note 10.

11 Ie under the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1)) art 4 or art 51.

12 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, references to 'contracts of long-term insurance' are to be read with s 22 and Sch 2 (see PARA 84 et seq): s 424(1)(c).

13 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, 'policy', in relation to a contract of insurance, has such meaning as the Treasury may by order specify: s 424(2). The Treasury has ordered that, for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 424(2), 'policy' means, as the context requires, a contract of insurance, including one under which an existing liability has already accrued, or any instrument evidencing such a contract: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Meaning of 'Policy' and 'Policyholder') Order 2001, SI 2001/2362, art 2. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

15 As to references to 'contracts of reinsurance' see PARA 591 note 8.

16 'State of the commitment', in relation to a commitment entered into at any date, means: (1) if the policyholder is an individual, the state in which he had his habitual residence at that date; (2) if the policyholder is not an individual, the state in which the establishment of the policyholder to which the commitment relates was situated at that date: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 6(1). As to the meaning of 'policyholder' see PARA 591 note 15. 'Commitment' means a commitment represented by contracts of insurance of a prescribed class: Sch 12 para 6(2). 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: s 417(1). See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Control of Business Transfers) (Requirements on Applicants) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/3625; and PARA 593. As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 see PARA 67 note 1.

17 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 paras 1(1)(c), (3), 4 (Sch 12 para 1(3) amended by SI 2004/3379; SI 2007/3253). A certificate as to long-term business is one given by the Authority and certifying that the authority responsible for supervising persons who effect or carry out contracts of insurance in the state of the commitment has been notified of the proposed scheme and that: (1) that authority has consented to the proposed scheme; or (2) the period of three months beginning with the notification has elapsed and that authority has not refused its consent: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 4.

18 Ie under the First Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3)) art 6 or art 23.

19 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, references to 'contracts of general insurance' are to be read with s 22 and Sch 2 (see PARA 84 et seq): s 424(1)(d).

20 References to the EEA state in which a risk is situated are: (1) if the insurance relates to a building or to a building and its contents (so far as the contents are covered by the same policy), to the EEA state in which the building is situated; (2) if the insurance relates to a vehicle of any type, to the EEA state of registration; (3) in the case of policies of a duration of four months or less covering travel or holiday risks (whatever the class concerned), to the EEA state in which the policyholder took out the policy; (4) in a case not covered by heads (1)-(3) above: (a) if the policyholder is an individual, to the EEA state in which he has his habitual residence at the date when the contract is entered into; and (b) otherwise, to the EEA state in which the establishment of the policyholder to which the policy relates is situated at that date: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 6(3). If the insurance relates to a vehicle dispatched from one EEA state to another, in respect of the period of 30 days beginning with the day on which the purchaser accepts delivery a reference to the EEA state in which a risk is situated is a reference to the state of destination (and not, as provided by head (2) above, to the state of registration): Sch 12 para 6(4) (added by SI 2007/2403).

21 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 paras 1(1)(d), (4), 5 (Sch 12 para 1(4) amended by SI 2007/3253). A certificate as to general business is one given by the Authority and certifying that the authority responsible for supervising persons who effect or carry out contracts of insurance in the EEA state in which the risk is situated has been notified of the proposed scheme and that: (1) that authority has consented to the proposed scheme; or (2) the period of three months beginning with the notification has elapsed and that authority has not refused its consent: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 5.

23 Ie under the same article of the relevant directive: see note 22.

24 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 paras 1(1)(e), (5), 5A (added by SI 2007/3253). The relevant certificates are to be given, in the case of the certificate as to consent, by the Authority; and, in the case of the certificate as to legality, by the relevant authority: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 5A(1) (as so added). A certificate as to consent is one certifying that the relevant authority has been notified of the proposed scheme and that (1) the relevant authority has consented to the proposed scheme; or (2) the period of three months beginning with the notification has elapsed and that relevant authority has not refused its consent: Sch 12 para 5A(2) (as so added). A certificate as to legality is one certifying that the law of the EEA state in which the transferee is set up permits such a transfer: Sch 12 para 5A(3) (as so added). For these purposes, 'relevant authority' means the competent authorities (within the meaning of the Insurance Directives) of the EEA state in which the transferee is set up: Sch 12 para 5A(4) (as so added).

596 Certificates for banking business transfer schemes

TEXT AND NOTES--The appropriate certificate in relation to a reclaim fund business transfer scheme (see PARA 592) is a certificate given by the Financial Services Authority certifying that, taking the proposed transfer into account, the transferee possesses, or will possess before the scheme takes effect, adequate financial resources: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 para 9A (added by Dormant Bank and Building Society Accounts Act 2008 Sch 2 para 5).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(i) Control of Business Transfers/597. Effect of order sanctioning business transfer scheme.

597. Effect of order sanctioning business transfer scheme.

If the court makes an order<sup>1</sup>, it may by that or any subsequent order make such provision (if any) as it thinks fit<sup>2</sup>:

- 1401 (1) for the transfer to the transferee of the whole or any part of the undertaking concerned and of any property<sup>3</sup> or liabilities<sup>4</sup> of the authorised person<sup>5</sup> concerned<sup>6</sup>;
- 1402 (2) for the allotment or appropriation by the transferee of any shares<sup>7</sup>, debentures<sup>8</sup>, policies or other similar interests in the transferee which under the scheme are to be allotted or appropriated to or for any other person<sup>9</sup>;

- 1403 (3) for the continuation by (or against) the transferee of any pending legal proceedings by (or against) the authorised person concerned<sup>10</sup>;
- 1404 (4) with respect to such incidental, consequential and supplementary matters as are, in its opinion, necessary to secure that the scheme is fully and effectively carried out<sup>11</sup>.

If an order<sup>12</sup> makes provision for the transfer of property or liabilities, the property is transferred to and vests in, and the liabilities are transferred to and become liabilities of, the transferee as a result of the order<sup>13</sup>. However, if any property or liability included in the order is governed by the law of any country or territory outside the United Kingdom<sup>14</sup>, the order may require the authorised person concerned, if the transferee so requires, to take all necessary steps for securing that the transfer to the transferee of the property or liability is fully effective under the law of that country or territory<sup>15</sup>. Property transferred<sup>16</sup> may, if the court so directs, vest in the transferee free from any charge<sup>17</sup> which is (as a result of the scheme) to cease to have effect<sup>18</sup>. An order<sup>19</sup> which makes provision for the transfer of property is to be treated as an instrument of transfer<sup>20</sup>.

If the court makes an order<sup>21</sup> in relation to an insurance business transfer scheme<sup>22</sup>, it may by that or any subsequent order make such provision (if any) as it thinks fit: (a) for dealing with the interests of any person who, within such time and in such manner as the court may direct, objects to the scheme; (b) for the dissolution, without winding up, of the authorised person concerned; (c) for the reduction, on such terms and subject to such conditions (if any) as it thinks fit, of the benefits payable under any description of policy<sup>23</sup>, or policies generally, entered into by the authorised person concerned and transferred as a result of the scheme<sup>24</sup>. If, in the case of an insurance business transfer scheme, the authorised person concerned is not an EEA firm<sup>25</sup>, it is, for certain purposes<sup>26</sup>, immaterial that the law applicable to any of the contracts of insurance<sup>27</sup> included in the transfer is the law of an EEA state<sup>28</sup> other than the United Kingdom<sup>29</sup>.

The transferee must, if an insurance or banking business transfer scheme<sup>30</sup> is sanctioned by the court, deposit two office copies of the order with the Financial Services Authority<sup>31</sup> within ten days of the making of the order<sup>32</sup>.

597 Effect of order sanctioning business transfer scheme

NOTE 6--The power under head (1) is to be taken to include the power to transfer property or liabilities which would not otherwise be capable of being transferred or assigned: see Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 112(2A)-(2C) (added by SI 2008/1468). Certain rights arising as a result of something done or likely to be done by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 112 Pt 7 (ss 104-117) will only be enforceable after the order under s 112(1) has been made and the court has made provision to that effect in that order: s 112A (added by SI 2008/1468).

598. Appointment of an actuary in relation to the reduction of benefits.

If an order<sup>1</sup> has been made sanctioning an insurance business transfer scheme<sup>2</sup> or a banking business transfer scheme<sup>3</sup>, the court making the order may, on the application of the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup>, appoint an independent actuary: (1) to investigate the business transferred under the scheme; and (2) to report to the Authority on any reduction in the benefits payable under policies entered into by the authorised person<sup>5</sup> concerned that, in the opinion of the actuary, ought to be made<sup>6</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(i) Control of Business Transfers/599. Rights of certain policyholders in insurance business transfer scheme.

599. Rights of certain policyholders in insurance business transfer scheme.

The provisions described below<sup>1</sup> apply in relation to an insurance business transfer scheme<sup>2</sup> if: (1) the authorised person<sup>3</sup> concerned is an authorised person other than an EEA firm<sup>4</sup> qualifying for authorisation<sup>5</sup>; (2) the court has made an order<sup>6</sup> sanctioning the scheme; and (3) an EEA state<sup>7</sup> other than the United Kingdom<sup>8</sup> is, as regards any policy<sup>9</sup> included in the transfer which evidences a contract of insurance (other than a contract of reinsurance)<sup>10</sup>, the state of the commitment<sup>11</sup> or the EEA state in which the risk is situated<sup>12</sup> (the 'EEA state concerned')<sup>13</sup>.

The court must direct that notice of the making of the order, or the execution of any instrument, giving effect to the transfer must be published by the transferee in the EEA state concerned<sup>14</sup>. Such a notice must specify such period as the court may direct as the period during which the policyholder<sup>15</sup> may exercise any right which he has to cancel the policy<sup>16</sup>. The order or instrument<sup>17</sup> does not bind the policyholder if: (a) the notice required is not published; or (b) the policyholder cancels the policy during the period specified in the notice<sup>18</sup>. The law of the EEA state concerned governs: (i) whether the policyholder has a right to cancel the policy; and (ii) the conditions, if any, subject to which any such right may be exercised<sup>19</sup>.

601. Insurance business transfers outside the United Kingdom.

Provision is made with respect to certificates which the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may issue in relation to insurance business transfers<sup>2</sup> taking place outside the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup>.

The provisions described below<sup>4</sup> apply to a proposal to execute under provisions corresponding to Part VII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>5</sup> in a country or territory other than the United Kingdom an instrument transferring all the rights and obligations of the transferor under general or long-term insurance policies<sup>6</sup>, or under such descriptions of such policies as may be specified in the instrument, to the transferee if any of the following conditions<sup>7</sup> is met in relation to it<sup>8</sup>. The conditions are:

- 1405 (1) the transferor is an EEA firm<sup>9</sup> and the transferee is an authorised person<sup>10</sup> whose margin of solvency<sup>11</sup> is supervised by the Authority<sup>12</sup>;
- 1406 (2) the transferor is a company authorised in an EEA state<sup>13</sup> other than the United Kingdom<sup>14</sup> and the transferee is a UK authorised person<sup>15</sup> which has received authorisation<sup>16</sup>;
- 1407 (3) the transferor is a Swiss general insurer<sup>17</sup> and the transferee is a UK authorised person which has received authorisation<sup>18</sup>.

In relation to such a proposed transfer, the Authority may, if it is satisfied that the transferee possesses the necessary margin of solvency<sup>19</sup>, issue a certificate to that effect<sup>20</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(i) Control of Business Transfers/602. Effect of insurance business transfers authorised in other EEA states.

602. Effect of insurance business transfers authorised in other EEA states.

The provisions described below<sup>1</sup> apply if, as a result of an authorised transfer<sup>2</sup>, an EEA firm<sup>3</sup> transfers to another body all its rights and obligations under any UK policies<sup>4</sup> and if, as a result of an authorised transfer<sup>5</sup>, a company authorised in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom<sup>6</sup> transfers to another body all its rights and obligations under any UK policies<sup>7</sup>.

If appropriate notice<sup>8</sup> of the execution of an instrument giving effect to the transfer is published, the instrument has the effect in law: (1) of transferring to the transferee all the transferor's rights and obligations under the UK policies to which the instrument applies; and (2) if the instrument so provides, of securing the continuation by or against the transferee of any legal proceedings by or against the transferor which relate to those rights and obligations<sup>9</sup>.

1 ie the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 116.

2 For these purposes, 'authorised transfer' means a transfer authorised in the home state of the EEA firm in accordance with: (1) the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1) concerning life assurance) art 14; (2) the Third Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 92/49 (OJ L228, 11.8.92, p 1) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of direct insurance other than life assurance, and amending EC Directives 73/239 and 88/357) art 12; or (3) the Reinsurance Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/68 (OJ L323, 9.12.2005, p 1) on reinsurance and amending EEC Council Directives 73/239, 92/49 as well as EC Directives 98/78 and 2002/83) art 18: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 116(5)(a) (amended by SI 2004/3379; SI 2007/3253). 4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 116(1) (amended by SI 2007/3253). 'UK policy' means (1) in the case of an authorised transfer within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 116(5)(a)(i) or (ii) (see note 2 heads (1), (2)) or s 116(5)(b)(i) or (ii) (see note 5 heads (1), (2)), a policy evidencing a contract of insurance (other than a contract of reinsurance) for which the applicable law is the law of a part of the United Kingdom; (2) in the case of an authorised transfer within the meaning of s 116(5)(a)(iii) (see note 2 head (3)) or s 116(5)(b)(iii) (see note 5 head (3)), a policy evidencing a contract of reinsurance to which the applicable law is the law of a part of the United Kingdom: s 116(6) (substituted by SI 2007/3253). As to the meaning of 'policy' see PARA 595 note 13. As to the meaning of 'contracts of insurance' see PARA 351 note 13. As to the meaning of 'contract of reinsurance' see PARA 591 note 8. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

5 For these purposes, 'authorised transfer' means a transfer authorised in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom in accordance with: (1) the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1)) art 53; (2) the First Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of direct insurance other than life assurance) art 28a; or (3) the provisions in the law of that EEA state which provide for the authorisation of transfers of all or part of a portfolio of contracts of an undertaking authorised to carry out reinsurance activities in its territory (as mentioned in the Reinsurance Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/68 (OJ L323, 9.12.2005, p 1)) art 49): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 116(5)(b) (amended by SI 2004/3379; SI 2007/3253). As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1.

6    le (1) an undertaking authorised in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom under the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12.2002, p 1)) art 51; (2) an undertaking authorised in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom under the First Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EC Council Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3)) art 23; (3) an undertaking, whose head office is not within the EEA, authorised under the law of an EEA state other than the United Kingdom to carry out reinsurance activities in its territory (as mentioned in the Reinsurance Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2005/68 (OJ L323, 9.12.2005, p 1)) art 49).

7    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 116(2) (substituted by SI 2007/3253).

8    'Appropriate notice' means: (1) if the UK policy evidences a contract of insurance in relation to which an EEA state other than the United Kingdom is the state of the commitment, notice given in accordance with the law of that state; (2) if the UK policy evidences a contract of insurance where the risk is situated in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom, notice given in accordance with the law of that EEA state; (3) in any other case, notice given in accordance with the applicable law: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 116(7). As to the meanings of 'state of the commitment' and 'commitment', and as to references to the EEA state in which the risk is situated, see PARA 595 notes 17, 21; definitions applied by s 116(8).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/A. INTRODUCTION/603. Definitions.

(ii) Collective Investment Schemes

A. INTRODUCTION

603. Definitions.

'Collective investment scheme' means any arrangements with respect to property of any description, including money, the purpose or effect of which is to enable persons taking part in the arrangements (whether by becoming owners of the property or any part of it or otherwise) to participate in or receive profits or income arising from the acquisition, holding, management or disposal of the property or sums paid out of such profits or income<sup>1</sup>. The arrangements must be such that the persons who are to participate ('participants') do not have day-to-day control over the management of the property, whether or not they have the right to be consulted or to give directions<sup>2</sup>. The arrangements must also have either or both of the following characteristics: (1) the contributions of the participants and the profits or income out of which payments are to be made to them are pooled; (2) the property is managed as a whole by or on behalf of the operator of the scheme<sup>3</sup>. If arrangements provide for such pooling as is mentioned in head (1) above in relation to separate parts of the property, the arrangements are not to be regarded as constituting a single collective investment scheme unless the participants are entitled to exchange rights in one part for rights in another<sup>4</sup>. The Treasury may by order provide that arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme in specified circumstances or if the arrangements fall within a specified category of arrangement<sup>5</sup>.

'Open-ended investment company' means a collective investment scheme which satisfies both the property condition and the investment condition<sup>6</sup>. The property condition is that the property belongs beneficially to, and is managed by or on behalf of, a body corporate<sup>7</sup> ('BC') having as its purpose the investment of its funds with the aim of spreading investment risk and giving its members the benefit of the results of the management of those funds by or on behalf of that body<sup>8</sup>. The investment condition is that, in relation to BC, a reasonable investor would, if he were to participate in the scheme: (a) expect that he would be able to realise, within a period appearing to him to be reasonable, his investment in the scheme (represented, at any given time, by the value of shares in, or securities of, BC held by him as a participant in the scheme); and (b) be satisfied that his investment would be realised on a basis calculated wholly or mainly by reference to the value of property in respect of which the scheme makes arrangements<sup>9</sup>. The Treasury may by order amend the definition of an open-ended investment company<sup>10</sup>.

'Authorised open-ended investment company' means a body incorporated by virtue of regulations<sup>11</sup> in respect of which an authorisation order is in force under any provision made in such regulations<sup>12</sup>.

'Unit trust scheme' means a collective investment scheme under which the property is held on trust for the participants<sup>13</sup>. 'Units' means the rights or interests (however described) of the participants in a collective investment scheme<sup>14</sup>. 'Authorised unit trust scheme' means a unit trust scheme which is authorised for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 by an authorisation order<sup>15</sup>.

'Recognised scheme' means a scheme recognised as a scheme constituted in another EEA state<sup>16</sup>, a scheme authorised in a designated country or territory<sup>17</sup> or an individually recognised overseas scheme<sup>18</sup>.

- 572 (1) the property to which the arrangements relate (other than cash awaiting investment) consists of shares (Schedule para 2(1)(a));
- 573 (2) the arrangements constitute a complying fund (Schedule para 2(1)(b));
- 574 (3) each participant is entitled to a part of the property to which the arrangements relate and:
  - 67. (a) to the extent that the property to which he is entitled comprises relevant shares of a class which are admitted to official listing in an EEA state or to dealings on a recognised investment exchange, he is entitled to withdraw it at any time after the end of the period of five years beginning with the date on which the shares in question were issued;
  - 68. (b) to the extent that the property to which he is entitled comprises other relevant shares, he is entitled to withdraw it at any time after the end of the period of seven years beginning with the date on which the shares in question were issued;
    - 68
  - 69. (c) to the extent that the property to which he is entitled comprises shares other than relevant shares, he is entitled to withdraw it at any time after the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which the shares in question ceased to be relevant shares; and
    - 69
  - 70. (d) to the extent that the property comprises cash which the operator has agreed (conditionally or unconditionally) to apply in subscribing for shares,
    - 70
- 575 he is entitled to withdraw it at any time (Schedule para 2(1)(c)); and

- 576 (4) the arrangements would meet the conditions described in Schedule para 1(c) (see note 2 head (3)) were it not for the fact that the operator is entitled to exercise all or any of the rights conferred by shares included in the property to which the arrangements relate (Schedule para 2(1)(d)).

'Shares' means investments of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 76 (see PARA 224) and shares are to be regarded as relevant shares if and so long as they are shares in respect of which neither: (i) a claim for relief made in accordance with the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 s 306 (repealed with respect to 2007-08 and subsequent income tax years) (see INCOME TAXATION vol 23(2) (Reissue) PARA 1149) has been disallowed; nor (ii) an assessment has been made pursuant to s 307 (repealed with respect to 2007-08 and subsequent income tax years) (see INCOME TAXATION vol 23(2) (Reissue) PARA 1150) withdrawing or refusing relief by reason of the body corporate in which the shares are held having ceased to be a body corporate which is a qualifying company for the purposes of that Act: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 2(2)(a). 'Complying fund' means arrangements which provide that: (A) the operator will, so far as is practicable, make investments each of which, subject to each participant's individual circumstances, qualify for relief by virtue of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988 Pt VII Ch III (ss 289-312) (repealed with respect to 2007-08 and subsequent income tax years) (see INCOME TAXATION vol 23(2) (Reissue) PARA 1137 et seq); and (B) the minimum contribution to the arrangements which each participant must make is not less than £2,000: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 2(2)(b).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 3. Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if the whole amount of each participant's contribution is a deposit which is accepted by an authorised person with permission to carry on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 5 (accepting deposits) (see PARA 89) or a person who is an exempt person in relation to such an activity: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 3.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 4. Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if they are operated otherwise than by way of business: Schedule para 4.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 5. Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if they are arrangements under which the rights or interests of participants are, except as provided in Schedule para 5(2) (see below), represented by investments of one, and only one, of the following descriptions:

- 577 (1) investments of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 77 (instruments creating or acknowledging indebtedness) (see PARA 224) which are:

71. (a) issued by a single body corporate other than an open-ended investment company; or

72. (b) issued by a single issuer who is not a body corporate and which are guaranteed by the government of the United Kingdom, the Scottish Administration, the Executive Committee of the Northern Ireland Assembly, the National Assembly for Wales or the government of any country or territory outside the United Kingdom,
72

578 and which are not convertible into or exchangeable for investments of any other description (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 5(1)(a));

579 (2) investments falling within head (1)(a) or head (1)(b) above (the 'former investments') which are convertible into or exchangeable for investments of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 76 (see PARA 224) (the 'latter investments') provided that the latter investments are issued by the same person who issued the former investments or are issued by a single other issuer (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 5(1)(b));

580 (3) investments of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 78 (government and public securities) (see PARA 224) which are issued by a single issuer (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 5(1)(c)); or

- 581 (4) investments of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 79 (instruments giving entitlement to investments) (see PARA 224) which are issued otherwise than by an open-ended investment company and which confer rights in respect of investments, issued by the same issuer, of the kind specified by art 76 or within any of heads (1)-(3) above (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 5(1)(d)).

As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. Arrangements which would otherwise not amount to a collective investment scheme by virtue of the provisions of heads (1)-(4) above are not to be regarded as amounting to such a scheme by reason only that one or more of the participants (the 'counterparty') is a person: (i) whose ordinary business involves him in carrying on activities of the kind specified by any of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (dealing in investments as principal) (see PARA 112), art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126), art 25 (arranging deals in investments) (see PARA 139), art 25D (operating a multilateral trading facility) (see PARA 139); art 37 (managing investments) (see PARA 152), art 40 (safeguarding and administering investments) (see PARA 160), art 45 (sending dematerialised instructions) (see PARA 190), art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 171), art 52 (establishing etc a stakeholder pension scheme) (see PARA 187) and art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174) or, so far as relevant to any of those articles, art 64 (agreeing to carry on specified kinds of activities) (see PARA 221), or would do so apart from any exclusion from any of those articles made by that order; and (ii) whose rights or interests in the arrangements are or include rights or interests under a swap arrangement: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 5(2) (amended by SI 2006/3384). 'Swap arrangement' means an arrangement the purpose of which is to facilitate the making of payments to participants whether in a particular amount or currency or at a particular time or rate of interest or all or any combination of those things, being an arrangement under which the counterparty: (A) is entitled to receive amounts, whether representing principal or interest, payable in respect of any property subject to the arrangements or sums determined by reference to such amounts; and (B) makes payments, whether or not of the same amount or in the same currency as the amounts or sums referred to in head (A) above, which are calculated in accordance with an agreed formula by reference to those amounts or sums: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 5(3).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 6. Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if: (1) they are arrangements under which the rights or interests of participants are rights to or interests in money held in a common account; and (2) that money is held in the account on the understanding that an amount representing the contribution of each participant is to be applied: (a) in making payments to him; (b) in satisfaction of sums owed by him; or (c) in the acquisition of property for him or the provision of services to him: Schedule para 6.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 7 (substituted by SI 2007/800). Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if the rights or interests of the participants are rights or interests (1) in a fund which is a trust fund within the meaning of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1987 s 42(1) (see LANDLORD AND TENANT vol 27(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 352) or which would be such a fund if the landlord were not an exempt landlord within the meaning of s 58(1) (see LANDLORD AND TENANT vol 27(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 354); or (2) in money held in a designated account by the scheme administrator under a tenancy deposit scheme within the meaning of the Housing Act 2004 s 212(2) (see HOUSING): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 7 (as so substituted).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 8. Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if they are operated by a person ('A'), a member of the same group as A, or a relevant trustee for the purpose of enabling or facilitating: (1) transactions in shares in, or debentures issued by, A between, or for the benefit of, any of the persons mentioned in Schedule para 8(2); or (2) the holding of such shares or debentures by, or for the benefit of, any such persons: Schedule para 8(1). The persons referred to in Schedule para 8(1) are: (a) the bona fide employees or former employees of A or of another member of the same group; or (b) the wives, husbands, widows, widowers, civil partners, surviving civil partners, or children or step-children under the age of 18 of such employees or former employees: Schedule para 8(2) (amended by SI 2005/2114). 'Shares' and 'debentures' have the meaning given by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 71(6)(a) (see PARA 123); and 'relevant trustee' means a person who, in pursuance of the arrangements, holds shares in or debentures issued by A: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 8(3).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 9 (amended by SI 2001/3650; SI 2006/3384). Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if each of the participants: (1) carries on a business other than the business of engaging in any regulated activity of the kind specified by any of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 (see PARA 112), art 21 (see PARA 126), art 25 (see PARA 139), art 25D (see PARA 139), art 37 (see PARA 152), art 40 (see PARA 160), art 45 (see PARA 190), arts 51-53 (see PARAS 171, 174, 187) or, so far as relevant to any of those articles, art 64 (see PARA 221); and (2) enters into the arrangements for commercial purposes related to that business: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 9(1) (as so amended). Schedule para 9(1) does not apply where the person will carry on the business in question by virtue of being a participant in the arrangements: Schedule para 9(2).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 10. Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if each of the participants is a body corporate in the same group as the operator: Schedule para 10. As to the meaning of the 'operator' see PARA 606 note 16; definition applied by art 2.

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 11. Franchise arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme: Schedule para 11. 'Franchise arrangements' means arrangements under which a person earns profits or income by exploiting a right conferred by the arrangements to use a trade mark or design or other intellectual property or the goodwill attached to it: art 2.

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 12. Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if: (1) the purpose of the arrangements is that participants should receive, by way of reward, payments or other benefits in respect of the introduction by any person of other persons who become participants; (2) the arrangements are such that the payments or other benefits referred to in head (1) above are to be wholly or mainly funded out of the contributions of other participants; and (3) the only reason why the arrangements have either or both of the characteristics mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 235(3) (see PARA 603 heads (1), (2)) is because, pending their being used to fund those payments or other benefits, contributions of participants are managed as a whole by or on behalf of the operator of the scheme: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 12.

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 13. Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if the rights or interests of the participants are timeshare rights: Schedule para 13. 'Timeshare rights' has the meaning given by the Timeshare Act 1992 s 1 (see SALE OF GOODS AND SUPPLY OF SERVICES vol 41 (2005 Reissue) PARA 868): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, art 2.

15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 14. Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if: (1) the predominant purpose of the arrangements is to enable the participants to share in the use or enjoyment of property or to make its use or enjoyment available gratuitously to others; and (2) the property to which the arrangements relate does not consist of the currency of any country or territory and does not consist of or include any investment of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, Pt III (arts 73-89) (see PARA 224) or which would be of such a kind apart from any exclusion made by Pt III: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 14.

16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 15. Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if the rights or interests of the participants are investments of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 80 (certificates representing certain securities) (see PARA 224): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 15.

17 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 16. Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if their purpose is the provision of clearing services and they are operated by an authorised person, a recognised clearing house or a recognised investment exchange: Schedule para 16.

18 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 17. A contract of insurance does not amount to a collective investment scheme: Schedule para 17. As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3; definition applied by art 2.

19 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 18 (substituted by SI 2001/3650). Arrangements do not amount to a collective investment scheme if they consist of, or are made pursuant to: (1) a funeral plan contract; or (2) a contract which would be a funeral plan contract but for the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 59(2) proviso, or the exclusion in art 60 (see PARA 201): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 18 (as so substituted). As to the meaning of 'funeral plan contract' see PARA 200 note 1; definition applied by art 2.

20 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 19. An individual pension account does not amount to a collective investment scheme: Schedule para 19. 'Individual pension account' has the meaning given by the Personal Pension Schemes (Restriction on Discretion to Approve) (Permitted Investments) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/117, reg 4 (see SOCIAL SECURITY AND PENSIONS); definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, art 2.

21 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 20. An occupational pension scheme does not amount to a collective investment scheme: Schedule para 20(1). A personal pension scheme does not amount to a collective investment scheme: Schedule para 20(2). Schedule para 20(2) does not extend to a personal pension unit trust which is constituted as a feeder fund or comprises feeder funds: Schedule para 20(3). 'Occupational pension scheme' has the meaning given by the Pension Schemes Act 1993 s 1 but with para (b) of the definition omitted (see SOCIAL SECURITY AND PENSIONS vol 44(2) (Reissue) PARAS 710, 741); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, art 2 (definition substituted by SI 2006/1969). 'Personal pension scheme' means a scheme or arrangement which is not an occupational pension scheme and which is comprised in one or more instruments or agreements, having or capable of having effect so as to provide benefits to or in respect of people (1) on retirement; (2) on having reached a particular age; or (3) on termination of service in an employment: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, art 2 (definition substituted by SI 2006/1969). 'Personal pension unit trust' means a personal pension scheme which is an authorised unit trust scheme of a kind mentioned in the Personal Pension Schemes (Appropriate Schemes) Regulations 1997, SI 1997/470, Sch 1 Pt I (see SOCIAL SECURITY AND PENSIONS vol 44(2) (Reissue) PARA 886); Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, art 2. 'Feeder fund' means an authorised unit trust scheme the sole object of which is investment in units of a single authorised unit trust scheme or shares in a single open-ended investment company: art 2.

22 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 21 (substituted by SI 2001/3650). No body incorporated under the law of, or any part of, the United Kingdom relating to building societies or industrial and provident societies or registered under any such law relating to friendly societies, and no other body corporate other than an open-ended investment company, amounts to a collective investment scheme: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes) Order 2001, SI 2001/1062, Schedule para 21(1) (as so substituted). This does not apply to any body incorporated as a limited liability partnership: Schedule para 21(2) (as so substituted). As to building societies see PARA 1856 et seq; as to industrial and provident societies see PARA 2394 et seq; as to friendly societies see PARA 2081 et seq; and as to limited liability partnerships see PARTNERSHIP vol 79 (2008) PARA 234 et seq.

UPDATE

604 Arrangements not amounting to a collective investment scheme

NOTE 10--SI 2001/1062 Schedule para 9 substituted by SI 2008/1641; and amended by SI 2008/1813.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/B. RESTRICTION ON PROMOTION/605. Main restriction.

B. RESTRICTION ON PROMOTION

605. Main restriction.

An authorised person<sup>1</sup> must not communicate<sup>2</sup> an invitation or inducement to participate<sup>3</sup> in a collective investment scheme<sup>4</sup>.

2 'Communicate' includes causing a communication to be made: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 238(9).

3 'Participate', in relation to a collective investment scheme, means become a participant (within the meaning given by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 235(2) (see PARA 603)) in the scheme: s 238(11). As to the meaning of 'collective investment scheme' see PARA 603.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 238(1). This provision is subject to ss 238(3)-(8), 239 (see PARA 606): s 238(2). An unauthorised person cannot communicate such an invitation or inducement by virtue of s 21: see PARA 225.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/B. RESTRICTION ON PROMOTION/606. Qualifications to main restriction.

606. Qualifications to main restriction.

The main restriction applies in the case of a communication<sup>3</sup> originating outside the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup> only if the communication is capable of having an effect in the United Kingdom<sup>5</sup>. It does not apply in relation to: (1) an authorised unit trust scheme<sup>6</sup>; (2) a scheme constituted by an authorised open-ended investment company<sup>7</sup>; or (3) a recognised scheme<sup>8</sup>, nor does it apply to anything done in accordance with rules<sup>9</sup> made by the Financial Services Authority<sup>10</sup> for the purpose of exempting<sup>11</sup> the promotion otherwise than to the general public<sup>12</sup> of schemes of specified descriptions<sup>13</sup>.

The Treasury may by order specify circumstances in which the main restriction does not apply<sup>14</sup>. Such an order may, in particular, provide that the main restriction does not apply in relation to communications: (a) of a specified description; (b) originating in a specified country or territory outside the United Kingdom; (c) originating in a country or territory which falls within a specified description of country or territory outside the United Kingdom; or (d) originating outside the United Kingdom<sup>15</sup>.

The Treasury may by regulations make provision for exempting single property schemes<sup>16</sup> from the main restriction<sup>17</sup>. If such regulations are made, the Authority may make rules imposing duties or liabilities on the operator and (if any) the trustee or depositary<sup>18</sup> of a scheme exempted by the regulations<sup>19</sup>.

An authorised person may not approve<sup>20</sup> the content of a communication relating to a collective investment scheme if he would be prohibited<sup>21</sup> from effecting the communication himself or from causing it to be communicated<sup>22</sup>.

1 As to the main restriction see PARA 605.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 238(2).

3 As to the meaning of 'communicate' see PARA 605 note 2.

4 As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 238(3). The Treasury may by order repeal s 238(3): s 238(8). At the date at which this volume states the law no such order had been made. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

If an authorised person contravenes a requirement imposed on him by s 238, then s 150 (action for damages) (see PARA 33) applies to the contravention as it applies to a contravention mentioned in s 150: s 241.

6 As to the meaning of 'authorised unit trust scheme' see PARA 603.

7 As to the meaning of 'authorised open-ended investment company' see PARA 603.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 238(4). See note 5. As to the meaning of 'recognised scheme' see PARA 603.

9 As to the meaning of 'rule' see PARA 23 note 2.

10 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

11 Ie from the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 238(1): see PARA 605.

12 'Promotion otherwise than to the general public' includes promotion in a way designed to reduce, so far as possible, the risk of participation by persons for whom participation would be unsuitable: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 238(10). As to the meaning of 'participate' see PARA 603.

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 238(5). See note 5.

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 238(6). As to the order that has been made see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060; and PARA 607. As to orders made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 see PARA 67 note 1.

15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 238(7). See note 14.

16 For these purposes, a single property scheme is a scheme which has the characteristics mentioned below and satisfies such other requirements as are prescribed by the regulations conferring the exemption: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 239(2). The characteristics are: (1) that the property subject to the scheme (apart from cash or other assets held for management purposes) consists of: (a) a single building (or a single building with ancillary buildings) managed by or on behalf of the operator of the scheme; or (b) a group of adjacent or contiguous buildings managed by him or on his behalf as a single enterprise, with or without ancillary land and with or without furniture, fittings or other contents of the building or buildings in question; and (2) that the units of the participants in the scheme are either dealt in on a recognised investment exchange or offered on terms such that any agreement for their acquisition is conditional on their admission to dealings on such an exchange: s 239(3). 'Operator', in relation to a unit trust scheme with a separate trustee, means the manager; and, in relation to an open-ended investment company, means that company: s 237(2). 'Trustee', in relation to a unit trust scheme, means the person holding the property in question on trust for the participants: s 237(2). As to the meanings of 'units', 'unit trust scheme' and 'open-ended investment company' see PARA 603. As to the meaning of 'recognised investment exchange' see PARA 684 note 1.

17 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 239(1). At the date at which this volume states the law no such regulations had been made.

18 'Depository', in relation to: (1) a collective investment scheme which is constituted by a body incorporated by virtue of regulations under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 262 (see PARA 621); or (2) any other collective investment scheme which is not a unit trust scheme, means any person to whom the property subject to the scheme is entrusted for safekeeping: s 237(2).

19 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 239(4). The rules may include, to such extent as the Authority thinks appropriate, provision for purposes corresponding to those for which provision can be made under s 248 (see PARA 615) in relation to authorised unit trust schemes: s 239(5).

20 Ie for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 21: see PARA 225.

21 Ie by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 238(1): see PARA 605.

22 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 240(1). For the purposes of determining in any case whether there has been a contravention of s 21(1) (see PARA 225), an approval given in contravention of s 240(1) is to be regarded as not having been given: s 240(2). If an authorised person contravenes a requirement imposed on him by s 240, then s 150 (action for damages) (see PARA 33) applies to the contravention as it applies to a contravention mentioned in s 150: s 241.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/B. RESTRICTION ON PROMOTION/607. Exemptions from restriction.

607. Exemptions from restriction.

The scheme promotion restriction<sup>1</sup> does not apply to any communication<sup>2</sup>: (1) which is made (whether from inside or outside the United Kingdom) to a person who receives the communication outside the United Kingdom; or (2) which is directed (whether from inside or outside the United Kingdom) only at persons outside the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup>. This exemption does not apply to an unsolicited real time communication unless it is made from a place outside the United Kingdom, and it relates to an overseas scheme<sup>4</sup>.

The scheme promotion restriction does not apply to any solicited real time communication<sup>5</sup> which is made from outside the United Kingdom and which relates to units in an overseas scheme<sup>6</sup>.

The scheme promotion restriction does not apply to a non-real time or unsolicited real time communication which is made from outside the United Kingdom by an authorised person to a previously overseas customer<sup>7</sup> of his, and which relates to units in an overseas scheme<sup>8</sup>.

The scheme promotion restriction does not apply to an incoming electronic commerce communication<sup>9</sup>.

The following are also exempted from the scheme promotion restriction:

- 1429 (a) follow up non-real time communications and solicited real time communications<sup>10</sup>;
- 1430 (b) introductions<sup>11</sup>;
- 1431 (c) generic promotions<sup>12</sup>;
- 1432 (d) communications made only to investment professionals<sup>13</sup>;
- 1433 (e) one off non-real time communications and solicited real time communications<sup>14</sup>;
- 1434 (f) one off unsolicited real time communications<sup>15</sup>;
- 1435 (g) communications required or authorised by enactments other than the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>16</sup>;
- 1436 (h) communications to persons in the business of placing promotional material<sup>17</sup>;
- 1437 (i) communications to existing participants in an unregulated scheme<sup>18</sup>;
- 1438 (j) communications made by one body corporate in a group to another body corporate in the same group<sup>19</sup>;
- 1439 (k) communications to persons in the business of disseminating information<sup>20</sup>;
- 1440 (l) communications to certified high net worth individuals<sup>21</sup>;
- 1441 (m) communications to high net worth companies, unincorporated associations or partnerships or trustees of high value trusts<sup>22</sup>;
- 1442 (n) communications to certified sophisticated investors<sup>23</sup>;
- 1443 (o) non-real time communications or solicited real time communications to associations of high net worth or sophisticated investors<sup>24</sup>;
- 1444 (p) communications to settlors, trustees and personal representatives if the communication is made for the purposes of the trust or estate<sup>25</sup>;
- 1445 (q) communications to beneficiaries of trusts, wills or intestacy if the communication relates to the management or distribution of the trust fund or estate<sup>26</sup>;

- 1446 (r) communications made or directed by a person for the purpose of enabling any injustice<sup>27</sup> to be remedied<sup>28</sup>;
- 1447 (s) any communication received by a person who receives the publication in which the communication is contained because he has himself placed an advertisement in that publication<sup>29</sup>;
- 1448 (t) a scheme constituted by an authorised Northern Ireland open-ended investment company<sup>30</sup>;
- 1449 (u) any communication which is made by an EEA management company<sup>31</sup>.

Nothing in the provisions relating to exemptions from the scheme promotion restriction<sup>32</sup> is to be construed as preventing a person from relying on more than one exemption in respect of the same communication<sup>33</sup>.

1 'Scheme promotion restriction' means the restriction imposed by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 238(1) (see PARA 605): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 2(2).

2 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060: (1) any reference to a communication is a reference to the communication, by an authorised person in the course of business, of an invitation or inducement to participate in an unregulated scheme; (2) any reference to a communication being made to another person is a reference to a communication being addressed, whether verbally or in legible form, to a particular person or persons (eg where it is contained in a telephone call or letter); (3) any reference to a communication being directed at persons is a reference to a communication being addressed to persons generally (eg where it is contained in a television broadcast or website); (4) 'communicate' includes causing a communication to be made; (5) a 'recipient' of a communication is a person to whom the communication is made or, in the case of a non-real time communication which is directed at persons generally, any person who reads or hears the communication; (6) 'electronic commerce communication' means a communication the making of which constitutes the provision of an information society service; (7) 'incoming electronic commerce communication' means an electronic commerce communication made from an establishment in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom; (8) 'outgoing electronic commerce communication' means an electronic commerce communication made from an establishment in the United Kingdom to a person in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom: art 3 (amended by SI 2002/2157). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. As to outgoing electronic commerce communications see also the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 5A (added by SI 2002/2157).

References to a 'real time communication' are references to any communication made in the course of a personal visit, telephone conversation or other interactive dialogue: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 4(1). A 'non-real time communication' is a communication not falling within art 4(1): art 4(2). Non-real time communications include communications made by letter or e-mail or contained in a publication: art 4(3). 'Publication' means: (a) a newspaper, journal, magazine or other periodical publication; (b) a website or similar system for the electronic display of information; (c) any programme forming part of a service consisting of the broadcast or transmission of television or radio programmes; and (d) any teletext service, that is to say a service consisting of television transmissions consisting of a succession of visual displays (with or without accompanying sound) capable of being selected and held for separate viewing or other use: art 2(1) (definition amended by SI 2002/1310). The following factors are to be treated as indications that a communication is a non-real time communication: (i) the communication is made to or directed at more than one recipient in identical terms (save for details of the recipient's identity); (ii) the communication is made or directed by way of a system which in the normal course constitutes or creates a record of the communication which is available to the recipient to refer to at a later time; (iii) the communication is made or directed by way of a system which in the normal course does not enable or require the recipient to respond immediately to it: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 4(4), (5).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 8(1) (amended by SI 2002/2157). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 8(1) does not apply to an outgoing electronic commerce communication: art 8(7) (added by SI 2002/2157).

For the purposes of head (1) in the text: (1) if the conditions set out in heads (a), (b), (c) and (d) below are met, a communication directed from a place inside the United Kingdom is to be regarded as directed only at persons outside the United Kingdom; (2) if the conditions set out in heads (c) and (d) below are met, a communication directed from a place outside the United Kingdom is to be regarded as directed only at persons outside the United Kingdom; (3) in any other case where one or more of the conditions in heads (a)-(e) below are met, that fact must be taken into account in determining whether the communication is to be regarded as directed only at persons outside the United Kingdom (but a communication may still be regarded as directed only at persons outside the United Kingdom even if none of the conditions in heads (a)-(e) below is met): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 8(3). The conditions are that: (a) the communication is accompanied by an indication that it is directed only at persons outside the United Kingdom; (b) the communication is accompanied by an indication that it must not be acted upon by persons in the United Kingdom; (c) the communication is not referred to in, or directly accessible from, any other communication which is made to a person or directed at persons in the United Kingdom by or on behalf of the same person; (d) there are in place proper systems and procedures to prevent recipients in the United Kingdom (other than those to whom the communication might otherwise lawfully have been made or directed) acquiring from the person directing the communication, a close relative of his or a company in the same group, units in the scheme to which the communication relates; (e) the communication is included in: (i) a website, newspaper, journal, magazine or periodical publication which is principally accessed in or intended for a market outside the United Kingdom; (ii) a radio or television broadcast or teletext service transmitted principally for reception outside the United Kingdom: art 8(4). As to the meaning of 'units' see PARA 603; definition applied by art 2(1). A communication may be treated as directed only at persons outside the United Kingdom even if it is also directed at investment professionals or at high net worth persons: see art 8(5). Where a communication falls within art 8(5), the condition in head (a) above is to be construed as requiring an indication that the communication is directed only at persons outside the United Kingdom or persons having professional experience in matters relating to investments or high net worth persons (as the case may be); the condition in head (b) above is to be construed as requiring an indication that the communication must not be acted upon by persons in the United Kingdom or by persons who do not have professional experience in matters relating to investments or who are not high net worth persons (as the case may be): art 8(6). 'Close relative', in relation to a person, means: (A) his spouse or civil partner; (B) his children and step-children, his parents and step-parents, his brothers and sisters and his step-brothers and step-sisters; and (C) the spouse or civil partner of any person within head (B) above: art 2(1) (definition amended by SI 2005/2114). As to the degree of prominence to be given to the required indications see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 6.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 8(2). 'Overseas scheme' means an unregulated scheme which is operated and managed in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom: art 2(1). 'Unregulated scheme' means a collective investment scheme which is not an authorised unit trust scheme nor a scheme constituted by an authorised open-ended investment company nor a recognised scheme for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XVII (ss 235-284) (see PARA 603): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 2(1).

5 A real time communication is solicited where it is made in the course of a personal visit, telephone call or other interactive dialogue if that call, visit or dialogue: (1) was initiated by the recipient of the communication; or (2) takes place in response to an express request from the recipient of the communication: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 5(1). A real time communication is unsolicited where it is made otherwise than as described in art 5(1): art 5(2). A person is not to be treated as expressly requesting a call, visit or dialogue: (a) because he omits to indicate that he does not wish to receive any or any further visits or calls or to engage in any or any further dialogue; (b) because he agrees to standard terms that state that such visits, calls or dialogue will take place, unless he has signified clearly that, in addition to agreeing to the terms, he is willing for them to take place: art 5(3)(a). A communication is solicited only if it is clear from all the circumstances when the call, visit or dialogue is initiated or requested that during the course of the visit, call or dialogue communications will be made concerning the kind of activities or investments to which the communications in fact made relate: art 5(3)(b). It is immaterial whether the express request is made before or after the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060 came into force (ie 1 December 2001): art 5(3)(c). Where a real time communication is solicited by a recipient ('R'), it is treated as having also been solicited by any other person to whom it is made at the same time as it is made to R if that other recipient is a close relative of R, or expected to participate in the unregulated scheme jointly with R: art 5(4).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 9.

7 'Previously overseas customer' means a person with whom the authorised person has done business within the period of 12 months ending with the day on which the communication was made (the 'earlier business'), where: (1) at the time that the earlier business was done, the customer was neither resident in the United Kingdom nor had a place of business there; or (2) at the time the earlier business was done, the authorised person had on a former occasion done business with the customer, being business of the same description as the business to which the communication relates, and on that former occasion the customer was neither resident in the United Kingdom nor had a place of business there: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 10(2). An authorised person has done business with a customer if, in the course of his overseas business, he has: (a) effected a transaction, or arranged for a transaction to be effected, with the customer in respect of units in an overseas scheme; or (b) given, outside the United Kingdom, any advice on the merits of the customer buying or selling units in an overseas scheme: art 10(3).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 10(1).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 10A(1) (art 10A added by SI 2002/2157). This provision does not apply to certain advertisements or unsolicited communications made by electronic mail: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Promotion of Collective Investment Schemes) (Exemptions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1060, art 10A(2)-(4) (as so added; art 10A(3) amended by SI 2003/2067).

C. AUTHORISED UNIT TRUSTS

(A) AUTHORISATION

608. Applications for authorisation.

Any application for an order declaring a unit trust scheme<sup>1</sup> to be an authorised unit trust scheme<sup>2</sup> must be made to the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> by the manager and trustee<sup>4</sup>, or proposed manager and trustee, of the scheme<sup>5</sup>. The manager and trustee (or proposed manager and trustee) must be different persons<sup>6</sup>. The application must be made in such manner as the Authority may direct, and must contain or be accompanied by such information as the Authority may reasonably require for the purpose of determining the application<sup>7</sup>. At any time after receiving an application and before determining it, the Authority may require the applicants to provide it with such further information as it reasonably considers necessary to enable it to determine the application<sup>8</sup>. Different directions may be given, and different requirements imposed, in relation to different applications<sup>9</sup>. The Authority may require applicants to present information which they are required to give in such form, or to verify it in such a way, as the Authority may direct<sup>10</sup>.

If, on an application<sup>11</sup> in respect of a unit trust scheme, the Authority: (1) is satisfied that the scheme complies with the following requirements<sup>12</sup>; (2) is satisfied that the scheme complies with the requirements of the trust scheme rules<sup>13</sup>; and (3) has been provided with a copy of the trust deed and a certificate signed by a solicitor to the effect that it complies with such of the requirements mentioned in head (1) or head (2) above as relate to its contents, the Authority may make an order declaring the scheme to be an authorised unit trust scheme<sup>14</sup>. If the Authority makes such an order, it must give written notice of the order to the applicant<sup>15</sup>. The requirements are:

- 1450 (a) the manager and the trustee must be persons who are independent of each other<sup>16</sup>;
- 1451 (b) the manager and the trustee must each be a body corporate<sup>17</sup> incorporated in the United Kingdom<sup>18</sup> or another EEA state<sup>19</sup> and must have a place of business in the United Kingdom, and the affairs of each must be administered in the country in which it is incorporated<sup>20</sup>;
- 1452 (c) the manager and the trustee must each be an authorised person<sup>21</sup> and the manager must have permission to act as manager and the trustee must have permission to act as trustee<sup>22</sup>;
- 1453 (d) the name of the scheme must not be undesirable or misleading<sup>23</sup>;
- 1454 (e) the purposes of the scheme must be reasonably capable of being successfully carried into effect<sup>24</sup>;
- 1455 (f) the participants<sup>25</sup> must be entitled to have their units<sup>26</sup> redeemed in accordance with the scheme at a price: (i) related to the net value of the property to which the units relate; and (ii) determined in accordance with the scheme<sup>27</sup>.

An application<sup>28</sup> must be determined by the Authority before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which it receives the completed application<sup>29</sup>. The Authority may determine an incomplete application if it considers it appropriate to do so; and it must in any event determine such an application within 12 months beginning with the date on which it first receives the application<sup>30</sup>. The applicant may withdraw his application, by giving the Authority written notice, at any time before the Authority determines it<sup>31</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/C. AUTHORISED UNIT TRUSTS/(A) Authorisation/612. Alterations of schemes and changes of manager or trustee.

612. Alterations of schemes and changes of manager or trustee.

The manager of an authorised unit trust scheme<sup>1</sup> must give written notice to the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> of any proposal to alter the scheme or to replace its trustee<sup>3</sup>. Any notice given in respect of a proposal to alter the scheme involving a change in the trust deed must be accompanied by a certificate signed by a solicitor to the effect that the change will not affect the compliance of the deed with the trust scheme rules<sup>4</sup>. The trustee of an authorised unit trust scheme must give written notice to the Authority of any proposal to replace the manager of the scheme<sup>5</sup>.

Effect is not to be given to any proposal of which notice has been given<sup>6</sup> unless: (1) the Authority, by written notice, has given its approval to the proposal; or (2) one month, beginning with the date on which the notice was given, has expired without the manager or trustee having received from the Authority a warning notice<sup>7</sup> in respect of the proposal<sup>8</sup>. The Authority must not approve a proposal to replace the manager or the trustee of an authorised unit trust scheme unless it is satisfied that, if the proposed replacement is made, the scheme will continue to comply with the statutory requirements<sup>9</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to refuse approval of a proposal to replace the trustee or manager of an authorised unit trust scheme, it must give a warning notice to the person by whom notice of the proposal was given<sup>10</sup>. If the Authority proposes to refuse approval of a proposal to alter an authorised unit trust scheme, it must give separate warning notices to the manager and the trustee of the scheme<sup>11</sup>. To be valid the warning notice must be received by that person before the end of one month beginning with the date on which notice of the proposal was given<sup>12</sup>. If, having given a warning notice to a person, the Authority decides to refuse approval: (a) it must give him a decision notice; and (b) he may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>13</sup>.

613. Revocation of authorisation.

An authorisation order<sup>1</sup> may be revoked by an order made by the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> if it appears to the Authority that<sup>3</sup>:

- 1456 (1) one or more of the requirements for the making of the order are no longer satisfied<sup>4</sup>;
- 1457 (2) the manager or trustee<sup>5</sup> of the scheme concerned has contravened a requirement imposed on him by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>6</sup>;
- 1458 (3) the manager or trustee of the scheme has, in purported compliance with any such requirement, knowingly or recklessly given the Authority information which is false or misleading in a material particular<sup>7</sup>;
- 1459 (4) no regulated activity<sup>8</sup> is being carried on in relation to the scheme and the period of that inactivity began at least 12 months earlier<sup>9</sup>; or
- 1460 (5) none of heads (1) to (4) above applies, but it is desirable to revoke the authorisation order in order to protect the interests of participants<sup>10</sup> or potential participants in the scheme<sup>11</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to make an order<sup>12</sup> revoking an authorisation order (a 'revoking order'), it must give separate warning notices<sup>13</sup> to the manager and the trustee of the scheme<sup>14</sup>. If the Authority decides to make a revoking order, it must without delay give each of them a decision notice<sup>15</sup>; and either of them may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>16</sup>.

An authorisation order may be revoked by an order made by the Authority at the request of the manager or trustee of the scheme concerned<sup>17</sup>. If the Authority makes such an order, it must give written notice of the order to the manager and trustee of the scheme concerned<sup>18</sup>. The Authority may refuse a request to make such an order if it considers that: (a) the public interest requires that any matter concerning the scheme should be investigated before a decision is taken as to whether the authorisation order should be revoked; or (b) revocation would not be in the interests of the participants or would be incompatible with a European Community obligation<sup>19</sup>. If the Authority proposes to refuse a request, it must give separate warning notices to the manager and the trustee of the scheme<sup>20</sup>. If the Authority decides to refuse the request, it must without delay give each of them a decision notice; and either of them may refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>21</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/C. AUTHORISED UNIT TRUSTS/(B) Trust Scheme Rules/614. Trust scheme rules.

(B) TRUST SCHEME RULES

614. Trust scheme rules.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may make rules ('trust scheme rules') as to: (1) the constitution, management and operation of authorised unit trust schemes<sup>2</sup>; (2) the powers, duties, rights and liabilities of the manager and trustee<sup>3</sup> of any such scheme; (3) the rights and duties of the participants<sup>4</sup> in any such scheme; and (4) the winding up of any such scheme<sup>5</sup>. Trust scheme rules may, in particular, make provision:

- 1461 (a) as to the issue and redemption of the units<sup>6</sup> under the scheme<sup>7</sup>;
- 1462 (b) as to the expenses of the scheme and the means of meeting them<sup>8</sup>;
- 1463 (c) for the appointment, removal, powers and duties of an auditor for the scheme<sup>9</sup>;
- 1464 (d) for restricting or regulating the investment and borrowing powers exercisable in relation to the scheme<sup>10</sup>;
- 1465 (e) requiring the keeping of records with respect to the transactions and financial position of the scheme and for the inspection of those records<sup>11</sup>;
- 1466 (f) requiring the preparation of periodical reports with respect to the scheme and the provision of those reports to the participants and to the Authority<sup>12</sup>; and
- 1467 (g) with respect to the amendment of the scheme<sup>13</sup>.

Trust scheme rules may make provision as to the contents of the trust deed, including provision requiring any of the matters mentioned in heads (a) to (g) above to be dealt with in the deed<sup>14</sup>. However, trust scheme rules are binding on the manager, trustee and participants independently of the contents of the trust deed and, in the case of the participants, have effect as if contained in it<sup>15</sup>.

If (i) a modification is made of the statutory provisions in force in Great Britain or Northern Ireland relating to companies<sup>16</sup>; (ii) the modification relates to the rights and duties of persons who hold the beneficial title to any shares in a company without also holding the legal title; and (iii) it appears to the Treasury<sup>17</sup> that, for the purpose of assimilating the law relating to authorised unit trust schemes to the law relating to companies as so modified, it is expedient to modify the rule-making powers conferred on the Authority<sup>18</sup>, then the Treasury may by order make such modifications of those powers as it considers appropriate<sup>19</sup>.

615. Scheme particulars rules.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may make rules ('scheme particulars rules') requiring the manager of an authorised unit trust scheme<sup>2</sup>: (1) to submit scheme particulars<sup>3</sup> to the Authority; and (2) to publish scheme particulars or make them available to the public on request<sup>4</sup>.

Scheme particulars rules may require the manager of an authorised unit trust scheme to submit, and to publish or make available, revised or further scheme particulars if there is a significant change affecting any matter which is contained in scheme particulars previously published or made available, and whose inclusion in those particulars was required by the rules<sup>5</sup>. Scheme particulars rules may require the manager of an authorised unit trust scheme to submit, and to publish or make available, revised or further scheme particulars if a significant new matter arises, and the inclusion of information in respect of that matter would have been required in previous particulars if it had arisen when those particulars were prepared<sup>6</sup>.

Scheme particulars rules may provide for the payment, by the person or persons who in accordance with the rules are treated as responsible for any scheme particulars, of compensation to any qualifying person<sup>7</sup> who has suffered loss as a result of any untrue or misleading statement in the particulars, or the omission from them of any matter required by the rules to be included<sup>8</sup>.

Scheme particulars rules do not affect any liability which any person may incur apart from the rules<sup>9</sup>.

Disqualification of auditor for breach of trust scheme rules.

616. Disqualification of auditor for breach of trust scheme rules.

If it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> that an auditor has failed to comply with a duty imposed on him by trust scheme rules<sup>2</sup>, it may disqualify him from being the auditor for any authorised unit trust scheme<sup>3</sup> or authorised open-ended investment company<sup>4</sup>.

617. Modification or waiver of rules.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may, on the application or with the consent of any person to whom any rules<sup>2</sup> apply, direct that all or any of the rules: (1) are not to apply to him as respects a particular scheme; or (2) are to apply to him, as respects a particular scheme, with such modifications as may be specified in the direction<sup>3</sup>. The Authority may, on the application or with the consent of the manager and trustee<sup>4</sup> of a particular scheme acting jointly, direct that all or any of the rules: (a) are not to apply to the scheme; or (b) are to apply to the scheme with such modifications as may be specified in the direction<sup>5</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebook, Collective Investment Schemes (COLL). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 For these purposes, 'rules' means: (1) trust scheme rules (see PARA 614); or (2) scheme particulars rules (see PARA 615): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 250(1).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 250(2). The provisions of s 148(3)-(9), (11) (modification or waiver of rules) (see PARA 23) have effect in relation to a direction under s 250(2) as they have effect in relation to a direction under s 148(2) but with modifications: see s 250(4) (amended by SI 2007/1973).

(C) POWERS OF INTERVENTION

618. Directions.

1468 (1) one or more of the requirements for the making of an authorisation order<sup>4</sup> are no longer satisfied<sup>5</sup>;

1469 (2) the manager or trustee<sup>6</sup> of an authorised unit trust scheme<sup>7</sup> has contravened, or is likely to contravene, a requirement imposed on him by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>8</sup>;

1470 (3) the manager or trustee of such a scheme has, in purported compliance with any such requirement, knowingly or recklessly given the Authority information which is false or misleading in a material particular<sup>9</sup>; or

1471 (4) none of heads (1) to (3) above applies, but it is desirable to give a direction in order to protect the interests of participants<sup>10</sup> or potential participants in such a scheme<sup>11</sup>.

A direction may: (a) require the manager of the scheme to cease the issue or redemption, or both the issue and redemption, of units<sup>12</sup> under the scheme; (b) require the manager and trustee of the scheme to wind it up<sup>13</sup>.

If the authorisation order is revoked, the revocation does not affect any direction<sup>14</sup> which is then in force<sup>15</sup>. A direction may be given in relation to a scheme in the case of which the authorisation order has been revoked if a direction was already in force at the time of revocation<sup>16</sup>.

The Authority may, either on its own initiative or on the application of the manager or trustee of the scheme concerned, revoke or vary a direction given under the above provisions if it appears to the Authority: (i) in the case of revocation, that it is no longer necessary for the direction to take effect or continue in force; (ii) in the case of variation, that the direction should take effect or continue in force in a different form<sup>17</sup>.

If a person contravenes a direction, the statutory provisions relating to actions for damages<sup>18</sup> apply<sup>19</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/C. AUTHORISED UNIT TRUSTS/(C) Powers of Intervention/619. Procedure in relation to directions.

619. Procedure in relation to directions.

A direction<sup>1</sup> takes effect: (1) immediately, if the notice given<sup>2</sup> states that that is the case; (2) on such date as may be specified in the notice; or (3) if no date is specified in the notice, when the matter to which it relates is no longer open to review<sup>3</sup>. A direction may be expressed to take effect immediately (or on a specified date) only if the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup>, having regard to the ground on which it is exercising its power<sup>5</sup>, considers that it is necessary for the direction to take effect immediately (or on that date)<sup>6</sup>. If the Authority proposes to give a direction<sup>7</sup>, or gives such a direction with immediate effect, it must give separate written notice to the manager and the trustee<sup>8</sup> of the scheme concerned<sup>9</sup>. The notice must:

- 1472 (a) give details of the direction<sup>10</sup>;
- 1473 (b) inform the person to whom it is given of when the direction takes effect<sup>11</sup>;
- 1474 (c) state the Authority's reasons for giving the direction and for its determination as to when the direction takes effect<sup>12</sup>;
- 1475 (d) inform the person to whom it is given that he may make representations to the Authority within such period as may be specified in it (whether or not he has referred the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal)<sup>13</sup>; and
- 1476 (e) inform him of his right to refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>14</sup>.

If the direction imposes a requirement on the manager to cease the issue or redemption of units under the scheme<sup>15</sup>, the notice must state that the requirement has effect until a specified date, or a further direction<sup>16</sup>. If the direction imposes a requirement to wind the scheme up<sup>17</sup>, the scheme must be wound up by a date specified in the notice, or if no date is specified, as soon as practicable<sup>18</sup>.

If, having considered any representations made by a person to whom the notice was given, the Authority decides to give the direction in the way proposed, or if it decides, where a direction has been given, not to revoke the direction, it must give separate written notice to the manager and the trustee of the scheme concerned<sup>19</sup>. If, having considered any representations made by a person to whom the notice was given, the Authority decides: (i) not to give the direction in the way proposed; (ii) to give the direction in a way other than that proposed; or (iii) to revoke a direction which has effect, it must give separate written notice to the manager and the trustee of the scheme concerned<sup>20</sup>.

If a notice informs a person of his right to refer a matter to the Tribunal, it must give an indication of the procedure on such a reference<sup>21</sup>.

The provisions described above apply to the variation of a direction on the Authority's own initiative as they apply to the giving of a direction<sup>22</sup>.

If on an application for a direction to be revoked<sup>23</sup> or varied the Authority proposes to vary the direction otherwise than in accordance with the application, or to refuse to revoke or vary the direction, it must give the applicant a warning notice<sup>24</sup>. If the Authority decides to refuse to revoke or vary the direction, it must give the applicant a decision notice<sup>25</sup>; and the applicant may refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>26</sup>.

If the Authority decides on its own initiative to revoke a direction<sup>27</sup>, it must give separate written notices of its decision to the manager and trustee of the scheme<sup>28</sup>. If on an application for a direction to be revoked or varied<sup>29</sup> the Authority decides to revoke the direction or vary it in accordance with the application, it must give the applicant written notice of its decision<sup>30</sup>. The notice<sup>31</sup> must specify the date on which the decision takes effect<sup>32</sup>. The Authority may publish such information about the revocation or variation in such way as it considers appropriate<sup>33</sup>.

620. Applications to the court.

Where the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> is empowered to give a direction<sup>2</sup>, it may also apply to the High Court for an order: (1) removing the manager or the trustee<sup>3</sup>, or both the manager and the trustee, of the scheme; and (2) replacing the person or persons removed with a suitable person or persons nominated by the Authority<sup>4</sup>. If it appears to the Authority that there is no person it can nominate for the purposes of head (2) above, it may apply to the court for an order: (a) removing the manager or the trustee, or both the manager and the trustee, of the scheme; and (b) appointing an authorised person<sup>5</sup> to wind up the scheme<sup>6</sup>. On such an application the court may make such order as it thinks fit<sup>7</sup>. The Authority must give written notice of the making of an application to the manager and trustee of the scheme concerned<sup>8</sup>.

D. OPEN-ENDED INVESTMENT COMPANIES

(A) INTRODUCTION

621. Treasury power.

Part XVIII Chapter IV of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 relates to open-ended investment companies<sup>1</sup>.

The Treasury<sup>2</sup> may by regulations make provision for: (1) facilitating the carrying on of collective investment by means of open-ended investment companies<sup>3</sup>; (2) regulating such companies<sup>4</sup>.

The regulations may in particular make provision:

- 1477 (a) for the incorporation and registration in Great Britain of bodies corporate<sup>5</sup>;

- 1478 (b) for a body incorporated by virtue of the regulations to take such form as may be determined in accordance with the regulations<sup>6</sup>;
- 1479 (c) as to the purposes for which such a body may exist, the investments which it may issue and otherwise as to its constitution<sup>7</sup>;
- 1480 (d) as to the management and operation of such a body and the management of its property<sup>8</sup>;
- 1481 (e) as to the powers, duties, rights and liabilities of such a body and of other persons, including the directors or sole director of such a body<sup>9</sup>, its depositary (if any)<sup>10</sup>, its shareholders and persons who hold the beneficial title to shares in it without holding the legal title<sup>11</sup>, its auditor<sup>12</sup>, and any persons who act or purport to act on its behalf<sup>13</sup>;
- 1482 (f) as to the merger of one or more such bodies and the division of such a body<sup>14</sup>;
- 1483 (g) for the appointment and removal of an auditor for such a body<sup>15</sup>;
- 1484 (h) as to the winding up and dissolution of such a body<sup>16</sup>;
- 1485 (i) for such a body, or any director or depositary of such a body, to be required to comply with directions by the Financial Services Authority<sup>17</sup>;
- 1486 (j) enabling the Authority to apply to a court for an order removing and replacing any director or depositary of such a body<sup>18</sup>;
- 1487 (k) for the carrying out of investigations by persons appointed by the Authority or the Secretary of State<sup>19</sup>;
- 1488 (l) corresponding to any provision made in relation to unit trust schemes<sup>20</sup>.

Regulations may also:

- 1489 (i) impose criminal liability<sup>21</sup>;
- 1490 (ii) confer functions on the Authority<sup>22</sup>;
- 1491 (iii) in the case of a provision made by virtue of head (l) above, authorise the making of rules<sup>23</sup> by the Authority<sup>24</sup>;
- 1492 (iv) confer jurisdiction on any court or on the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>25</sup>;
- 1493 (v) provide for fees to be charged by the Authority in connection with the carrying out of any of its functions under the regulations (including fees payable on a periodical basis)<sup>26</sup>;
- 1494 (vi) modify, exclude or apply (with or without modifications) any primary or subordinate legislation (including any provision of, or made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000)<sup>27</sup>;
- 1495 (vii) make consequential amendments, repeals and revocations of any such legislation<sup>28</sup>;
- 1496 (viii) modify or exclude any rule of law<sup>29</sup>.

No regulations are to be made under the provisions described above unless a draft of the regulations has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House<sup>30</sup>.

In exercise of the power to make regulations the Treasury has made the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>31</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'open-ended investment company' see PARA 603. See also PARA 623 note 3.

2 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 262(1)(a). In exercise of the power under s 262(1), the Treasury has made the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228: see the text and note 31; and PARA 623 et seq. As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 see PARA 67 note 1.

26 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 262(3)(e).

27 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 262(3)(f). The provision that may be made by virtue of s 262(3)(f) includes provision extending or adapting any power to make subordinate legislation: s 262(4).

28 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 262(3)(g). Regulations under s 262 may, in particular revoke the Open-Ended Investment Companies (Investment Companies with Variable Capital) Regulations 1996, SI 1996/2827 (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 262(5)(a)), and provide for things done under or in accordance with those regulations to be treated as if they had been done under or in accordance with regulations under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 262 (s 262(5)(b)). The Open-Ended Investment Companies (Investment Companies with Variable Capital) Regulations 1996, SI 1996/2827, have been revoked (see the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 85(1)); and anything done under or in accordance with the Open-Ended Investment Companies (Investment Companies with Variable Capital) Regulations 1996, SI 1996/2827, has effect as if done under or in accordance with the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228 (see reg 85(2)). Without prejudice to the generality of reg 85(2), the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, provide that:

- 582 (1) a body incorporated by virtue of the Open-Ended Investment Companies (Investment Companies with Variable Capital) Regulations 1996, SI 1996/2827, reg 3(1) (revoked) is to be treated as if it had been incorporated by virtue of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 3(1) (see PARA 623) (reg 85(3)(a));
- 583 (2) where an application under the Open-Ended Investment Companies (Investment Companies with Variable Capital) Regulations 1996, SI 1996/2827, reg 7 (revoked) had not been determined by the Authority at the time when the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 85 came into force, it is to be treated as if it were an application made under reg 12 (see PARA 627) (reg 85(3)(b));
- 584 (3) the Authority's registration functions under the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Pt IV (regs 71-79) (see PARAS 668-670) apply to any documents or records delivered to the appropriate registrar pursuant to the Open-Ended Investment Companies (Investment Companies with Variable Capital) Regulations 1996, SI 1996/2827, reg 4 and Sch 1 (revoked) (Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 85(3)(c)).

29 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 262(3)(h).

31 See the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228; note 3; and PARA 622 et seq.

Certain provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 apply in relation to notices given under the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228:

- 585 (1) the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 387 (warning notices) (see PARA 769) applies to a warning notice given under any provision of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, in the same way as it applies to a warning notice given under any provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 8(a));
- 586 (2) the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 388 (decision notices) (see PARA 770) applies to a decision notice given under any provision of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, in the same way as it applies to a decision notice given under any provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 8(b));
- 587 (3) the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 389 (notices of discontinuance) (see PARA 771) applies to the discontinuance of the action proposed in a warning notice or the action to which a decision notice relates given under any provision of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, in the same way as it applies to a warning notice or decision notice given under any provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 8(c));
- 588 (4) the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 390 (final notices) (see PARA 772) applies to a decision notice given under any provision of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, in the same way as it applies to a decision notice given under any provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 8(d));
- 589 (5) the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 391 (publication) (see PARA 774) applies to the notices mentioned in the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 8 in the same way as it applies to any notice given under any provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 9);
- 590 (6) the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 395 (procedures of the Financial Services Authority) (see PARAS 773, 777) applies to the procedure relating to the Authority's functions in relation to supervisory notices, warning notices and decision notices given under any provision of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228 (reg 10).

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 133 (which makes general provision in relation to proceedings: see PARA 46), applies to any reference to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal under the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228 as it applies to any reference to the Tribunal under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000: Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 11. As to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARA 43 et seq.

622. Rules made by the Financial Services Authority.

The powers of the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> to make rules under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 in relation to authorised unit trust schemes<sup>2</sup> are, subject to the provisions of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>3</sup>, exercisable in relation to open-ended investment companies<sup>4</sup> for like purposes, and subject to the same conditions<sup>5</sup>.

The Authority may, on the application or with the consent of any person to whom any FSA rules<sup>6</sup> apply, direct that all or any of the FSA rules: (1) are not to apply to him as respects a particular open-ended investment company<sup>7</sup>; or (2) are to apply to him as respects such a company with such modifications as may be specified in the direction<sup>8</sup>.

On the application or with the consent of an open-ended investment company and its depositary<sup>9</sup> acting jointly, the Authority may direct that all or any of the FSA rules: (a) are not to apply to the company<sup>10</sup>; or (b) are to apply to the company with such modifications as may be specified in the direction<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebooks, Collective Investment Schemes (COLL). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

623. Incorporation and registration.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> makes an authorisation order<sup>2</sup> then, immediately upon the coming into effect of the order, the body to which the authorisation order relates is to be incorporated as an open-ended investment company<sup>3</sup> (notwithstanding that, at the point of such incorporation, the body will not have any shareholders or property)<sup>4</sup>. The name of an open-ended investment company is the name mentioned in the authorisation order made in respect of the company or, if it changes its name in accordance with the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>5</sup> and FSA rules<sup>6</sup>, its new name<sup>7</sup>.

Upon making an authorisation order, the Authority must forthwith register:

- 1497 (1) the instrument of incorporation of the company<sup>8</sup>;
- 1498 (2) a statement of the address of the company's head office<sup>9</sup>;
- 1499 (3) a statement, with respect to each person named in the application for authorisation as director of the company, of the required particulars<sup>10</sup>; and
- 1500 (4) a statement of the corporate name and registered or principal office of the person named in the application for authorisation as the depository<sup>11</sup> of the company<sup>12</sup>.

If an open-ended investment company which complies with the conditions necessary to enable it to enjoy the rights conferred by the UCITS Directive<sup>13</sup> so requests, the Authority may issue a certificate to the effect that the company complies with those conditions<sup>14</sup>. Such a certificate may be issued on the making of an authorisation order in respect of the company or at any subsequent time<sup>15</sup>.

623 Incorporation and registration

NOTE 13--Directive 85/611 replaced: see PARA 6.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/D. OPEN-ENDED INVESTMENT COMPANIES/(B) Formation, Supervision and Control/(a) In general/624. Instruments of incorporation.

624. Instruments of incorporation.

The instrument of incorporation of an open-ended investment company must contain the following statements<sup>3</sup>:

- 1501 (1) the head office of the company is situated in England, Wales or Scotland (as the case may be)<sup>4</sup>;
- 1502 (2) the company is an open-ended investment company with variable share capital<sup>5</sup>;
- 1503 (3) the shareholders<sup>6</sup> are not liable for the debts of the company<sup>7</sup>;
- 1504 (4) the scheme property<sup>8</sup> is entrusted to a depositary<sup>9</sup> for safekeeping (subject to any exceptions permitted by FSA rules)<sup>10</sup>; and
- 1505 (5) charges or expenses of the company may be taken out of the scheme property<sup>11</sup>.

The instrument of incorporation must contain provision as to the following matters<sup>12</sup>:

- 1506 (a) the object of the company<sup>13</sup>;
- 1507 (b) any matter relating to the procedure for the appointment, retirement and removal of any director of the company for which provision is not made in the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>14</sup> or FSA rules<sup>15</sup>; and
- 1508 (c) the currency in which the accounts of the company are to be prepared<sup>16</sup>.

The instrument of incorporation must also contain provision as to the following matters<sup>17</sup>:

- 1509 (i) the name of the company<sup>18</sup>;
- 1510 (ii) the category, as specified in FSA rules, to which the company belongs<sup>19</sup>;
- 1511 (iii) the maximum and minimum sizes of the company's capital<sup>20</sup>;
- 1512 (iv) in the case of an umbrella company<sup>21</sup>, the investment objectives applicable to each part of the scheme property that is pooled separately<sup>22</sup>;
- 1513 (v) the classes of shares that the company may issue indicating, in the case of an umbrella company, which class or classes of shares may be issued in respect of each part of the scheme property that is pooled separately<sup>23</sup>;
- 1514 (vi) the rights attaching to shares of each class (including any provision for the expression in two denominations of such rights)<sup>24</sup>;
- 1515 (vii) if the company is to be able to issue bearer shares, a statement to that effect together with details of any limitations on the classes of the company's shares which are to include bearer shares<sup>25</sup>;
- 1516 (viii) in the case of a company which is a participating issuer, a statement to that effect together with an indication of any class of shares in the company which is a class of participating securities<sup>26</sup>;
- 1517 (ix) if the company is to dispense with the requirements relating to share certificates<sup>27</sup>, the details of any substituted procedures for evidencing title to the company's shares<sup>28</sup>; and
- 1518 (x) the form, custody and use of the company's common seal (if any)<sup>29</sup>.

Once an authorisation order has been made in respect of a company, no amendment may be made to the statements contained in the company's instrument of incorporation which are required as set out in heads (1)-(5) above<sup>30</sup>. Subject to this and to any restriction imposed by FSA rules, a company may amend any provision which is contained in its instrument of incorporation<sup>31</sup>. No amendment to a provision which is contained in a company's instrument of incorporation by virtue of heads (a)-(c) above<sup>32</sup> may be made unless it has been approved by the shareholders of the company in general meeting<sup>33</sup>.

The provisions of a company's instrument of incorporation are binding on the officers<sup>34</sup> and depositary of the company and on each of its shareholders; and all such persons (but no others) are to be taken to have notice of the provisions of the instrument<sup>35</sup>.

625. Registrar's approval of names.

Where, in respect of a proposed open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup>, it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> that certain requirements for authorisation<sup>3</sup> are or will be met, the Authority must notify the appropriate registrar<sup>4</sup> of the name by which it is proposed that the company should be incorporated<sup>5</sup>.

Every open-ended investment company must obtain the Authority's approval to any proposed change in the name by which the company is incorporated and the Authority must notify the appropriate registrar of the proposed name<sup>6</sup>. If it appears to the appropriate registrar that the provisions in heads (1)-(3) below are not contravened in relation to the proposed name, he must notify the Authority to that effect<sup>7</sup>.

No open-ended investment company is to have a name that:

1519 (1) includes any of the following words or expressions: (a) limited, unlimited or public limited company, or their Welsh equivalents ('cyfyngedig', 'anghyfyngedig' and 'cwmni cyfyngedig cyhoeddus' respectively)<sup>8</sup>; or (b) European Economic Interest Grouping or any equivalent<sup>9</sup>;

1520 (2) includes an abbreviation of any of the words or expressions referred to in head (1)(a) above<sup>10</sup>; or

1521 (3) is the same as any other name appearing in the registrar's index of company names<sup>11</sup>.

Upon making an authorisation order in respect of an open-ended investment company or upon approving any change in the name of such a company, the Authority must notify the appropriate registrar of the name by which the company is incorporated or, as the case may be, of the company's new name<sup>12</sup>.

In determining for the purposes of reg 19(1)(c) whether one name is the same as another, there are to be disregarded:

- 591 (1) the definite article, where it is the first word of the name (reg 19(2)(a));
- 592 (2) the following word and expressions where they appear at the end of the name: (a) 'company' or its Welsh equivalent ('cwmni'); (b) 'and company' or its Welsh equivalent ('a'r cwmni'); (c) 'company limited' or its Welsh equivalent ('cwmni cyfyngedig'); (d) 'limited' or its Welsh equivalent ('cyfyngedig'); (e) 'unlimited' or its Welsh equivalent ('anghyfyngedig'); (f) 'public limited company' or its Welsh equivalent ('cwmni cyfyngedig cyhoeddus'); (g) 'European Economic Interest Grouping' or any equivalent set out in European Economic Interest Grouping Regulations 1989, SI 1989/638, Sch 3; (h) 'investment company with variable capital' or its Welsh equivalent ('cwmni buddsoddi â chyalaf newidiol'); (i) 'open-ended investment company' or its Welsh equivalent ('cwmni buddsoddiant penagored') (reg 19(2)(b));
- 593 (3) abbreviations of any of those words or expressions where they appear at the end of the name (reg 19(2)(c)); and
- 594 (4) type and case of letters, accents, spaces between letters and punctuation marks (reg 19(2)(d)), and 'and' and '&' are to be taken as the same (reg 19(2)).

UPDATE

625 Registrar's approval of names

NOTE 11--Repeal of Companies Act 1985 s 714 in force 1 October 2009: SI 2008/2860.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/D. OPEN-ENDED INVESTMENT COMPANIES/(B) Formation, Supervision and Control/(a) In general/626. Depositaries and safekeeping of property.

626. Depositaries and safekeeping of property.

All the scheme property<sup>1</sup> of an open-ended investment company<sup>2</sup> must be entrusted for safekeeping to a person appointed for the purpose (the 'depository')<sup>3</sup>. However, nothing in that requirement:

- 1522 (1) applies to any scheme property designated<sup>4</sup> by FSA rules<sup>5</sup>;
- 1523 (2) prevents a depository from entrusting to a third party all or some of the assets in its safekeeping<sup>6</sup> or, in such a case, authorising the third party to entrust all or some of those assets to other specified persons<sup>7</sup>.

On the coming into effect of an authorisation order<sup>8</sup> in respect of an open-ended investment company, the person named in the authorisation application<sup>9</sup> as depository of the company is deemed to be appointed as its first depository<sup>10</sup>. Any subsequent appointment of the depository of a company must be made by the directors of the company<sup>11</sup>.

Except upon the appointment of a new depository, the depository of a company may not retire voluntarily<sup>12</sup>.

The depository of a company has the following rights:

- 1524 (a) to receive all such notices of, and other communications relating to, any general meeting of the company as a shareholder of the company is entitled to receive<sup>13</sup>;
- 1525 (b) to attend any general meeting of the company<sup>14</sup>;
- 1526 (c) to be heard at any general meeting which it attends on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns it as depository<sup>15</sup>;
- 1527 (d) to convene a general meeting of the company when it sees fit<sup>16</sup>;
- 1528 (e) to require from the company's officers<sup>17</sup> such information and explanations as it thinks necessary for the performance of its functions as depository<sup>18</sup>; and
- 1529 (f) to have access, except in so far as they concern its appointment or removal, to any reports, statements or other papers which are to be considered at any meeting held by the directors of the company (when acting in their capacity as such), at any general meeting of the company or at any meeting of holders of shares of any particular class<sup>19</sup>.

Where the depository of a company ceases, for any reason other than by virtue of a court order<sup>20</sup>, to hold office, it may deposit at the head office of the company a statement of any circumstances connected with its ceasing to hold office which it considers should be brought to the attention of the shareholders or creditors of the company or, if it considers that there are no such circumstances, a statement that there are none<sup>21</sup>. If such a statement is of circumstances which the depository considers should be brought to the attention of the shareholders or creditors of the company, the company must, not later than 14 days after the deposit of the statement, either:

- 1530 (i) send a copy of the statement to each of the shareholders whose name appears on the register of shareholders<sup>22</sup> (other than the designated person) and take such steps as FSA rules<sup>23</sup> may require for the purpose of bringing the fact that the statement has been made to the attention of the holders of any bearer shares<sup>24</sup>; or
- 1531 (ii) apply to the court<sup>25</sup>.

Where an application is made under head (ii) above, the company must notify the depositary<sup>26</sup>. Unless the depositary receives notice of such application to the court before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which it deposited the statement, it must, not later than seven days after the end of that period, send a copy of the statement to the Financial Services Authority<sup>27</sup>.

If the court is satisfied that the depositary is using the statement to secure needless publicity for defamatory matter it must direct that copies of the statement need not be sent out and that the steps required by FSA rules need not be taken<sup>28</sup>. It may also order the company's costs on the application to be paid in whole or in part by the depositary notwithstanding that the depositary is not a party to the application<sup>29</sup>. The company must, not later than 14 days after the court's decision, take such steps in relation to a statement setting out the effect of the order as are required in head (i) above in relation to the statement deposited<sup>30</sup>.

If the court is not so satisfied, the company must, not later than 14 days after the court's decision, take the steps required by head (i) above and notify the depositary of the court's decision<sup>31</sup>. The depositary must, not later than seven days after receiving such a notice, send a copy of the statement to the Authority<sup>32</sup>.

The depositary who made the statement has, notwithstanding that it has ceased to hold office, the rights set out in heads (a) to (c) above<sup>33</sup> in relation to the general meeting of the company next following the date on which the copies were sent out<sup>34</sup>.

627. Applications for authorisation.

Any application for an authorisation order<sup>1</sup> in respect of a proposed open-ended investment company<sup>2</sup>:

- 1532 (1) must be made in such manner as the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> may direct<sup>4</sup>;
- 1533 (2) must state the required particulars with respect to each person proposed in the application as a director of the company<sup>5</sup>;
- 1534 (3) must state the corporate name and registered or principal office of the person proposed in the application as depositary<sup>6</sup> of the company<sup>7</sup>; and
- 1535 (4) must contain or be accompanied by such other information as the Authority may reasonably require for the purpose of determining the application<sup>8</sup>.

An application for an authorisation order must contain the following particulars with respect to each person proposed as a director of the company:

- 1536 (a) in the case of an individual, his present name<sup>9</sup>, any former name<sup>10</sup>, his usual residential address, his nationality, his business occupation (if any), particulars of any other directorships<sup>11</sup> held by him or which have been held by him and his date of birth<sup>12</sup>;
- 1537 (b) in the case of a body corporate or Scottish firm, its corporate or firm name and the address of its registered or principal office<sup>13</sup>.

At any time after receiving an application and before determining it the Authority may require the applicant to furnish additional information<sup>14</sup>.

A person commits an offence if, for the purposes of or in connection with any application for authorisation<sup>15</sup> or in purported compliance with any requirement imposed on him<sup>16</sup>, he furnishes information which he knows to be false or misleading in a material particular or recklessly furnishes information which is false or misleading in a material particular<sup>17</sup>.

1 As to authorisation orders see PARA 628.

2 As to the meaning of 'open-ended investment company' see PARA 623 note 3.

3 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebook, Collective Investment Schemes (COLL). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

4 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 12(1)(a).

5 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 12(1)(b).

6 As to the meaning of 'depositary' see PARA 626.

7 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 12(1)(c).

8 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 12(1)(d).

9 'Name' means a person's Christian name (or other forename) and surname, except that in the case of a peer, or an individual usually known by a title, the title may be stated instead of his Christian name (or other forename) and surname or in addition to either or both of them: Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 13(4)(a).

10 The reference to a former name does not include:

- 595 (1) in the case of a peer, or an individual normally known by a British title, the name by which he was known previous to the adoption of or succession to the title (Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 13(4)(b)(i));
- 596 (2) in the case of any person, a former name which was changed or disused before he attained the age of 18 years or which has been changed or disused for 20 years or more (reg 13(4)(b)(ii)); or
- 597 (3) in the case of a married woman, the name by which she was known previous to the marriage (reg 13(4)(b)(iii)).

11 The reference in the text to directorships is a reference to directorships in any body corporate whether or not incorporated in Great Britain: Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 13(4)(c). As to the meaning of 'Great Britain' see PARA 2 note 3.

The application need not contain particulars of a directorship:

- 598 (1) which has not been held by a director at any time during the five years preceding the date on which the application is delivered to the Authority (reg 13(2)(a));
- 599 (2) which is held by a director in a body corporate which is dormant and, if he also held that directorship for any period during those five years, which was dormant for the whole of that period (reg 13(2)(b)); or
- 600 (3) which was held by a director for any period during those five years in a body corporate which was dormant for the whole of that period (reg 13(2)(c)).

A body corporate is dormant during a period in which no significant transaction occurs, and it ceases to be dormant on the occurrence of such a transaction: reg 13(3). The reference to a significant transaction in reg 13(3) is, in relation to a company within the meaning of the Companies Act 1985 s 735(1) (prospectively repealed) (as to replacement provisions see the Companies Act 2006 ss 1, 1171) (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARAS 24, 32), a reference to a significant accounting transaction within the meaning of the Companies Act 2006 s 1169(2), other than a transaction to which s 1169(3) applies (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 28): Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 13(5) (amended by SI 2008/948).

14 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 12(2). Different directions may be given and different requirements imposed in relation to different applications: reg 12(3). Any information to be furnished to the Authority under reg 12 must be in such form or verified in such manner as it may specify: reg 12(4).

15 Ie any application under the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 12.

16 Ie imposed by or under the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 12.

17 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 12(5). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both (reg 12(6)(a)); and is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both (reg 12(6)(b)). As to the statutory maximum see PARA 56 note 24.

Authorisation orders.

628. Authorisation orders.

Where an application is duly made<sup>1</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> may make an authorisation order in respect of an open-ended investment company<sup>3</sup> if:

- 1538 (1) it is satisfied that the company will, on the coming into effect of the authorisation order, comply with the requirements for authorisation<sup>4</sup>;
- 1539 (2) it is satisfied that the company will, at that time, comply with the requirements of FSA rules<sup>5</sup>;
- 1540 (3) it has been provided with a copy of the proposed company's instrument of incorporation<sup>6</sup> and a certificate signed by a solicitor to the effect that the instrument of incorporation complies with the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>7</sup> and with such of the requirements of FSA rules as relate to the contents of that instrument of incorporation<sup>8</sup>; and
- 1541 (4) it has received a notification<sup>9</sup> from the appropriate registrar<sup>10</sup>.

If the Authority makes an authorisation order<sup>11</sup>, it must give written notice of the order to the applicant<sup>12</sup>.

An application must be determined by the Authority before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which it receives a completed application<sup>13</sup>. The Authority may determine an incomplete application if it considers it appropriate to do so and, if it does so, it must determine the application within the period of 12 months beginning with the date on which it first receives the application<sup>14</sup>.

The applicant may withdraw his application, by giving the Authority written notice, at any time before the Authority determines it<sup>15</sup>.

An authorisation order must specify the date on which it is to come into effect<sup>16</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/D. OPEN-ENDED INVESTMENT COMPANIES/(B) Formation, Supervision and Control/(b) Authorisation/629. Requirements for authorisation.

629. Requirements for authorisation.

There are several requirements under the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>1</sup> in regard to authorisation<sup>2</sup>. The company and its instrument of incorporation<sup>3</sup> must comply with the requirements of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001 and FSA rules<sup>4</sup>.

The head office of the company must be situated in England, Wales, or Scotland<sup>5</sup>. The company must have at least one director<sup>6</sup>. The directors of the company must be fit and proper persons to act as such<sup>7</sup>. If the company has only one director, that director must be a body corporate which is an authorised person<sup>8</sup> and which has permission under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>9</sup> to act as sole director of an open-ended investment company<sup>10</sup>. If the company has two or more directors, the combination of their experience and expertise must be such as is appropriate for the purposes of carrying on the business of the company<sup>11</sup>. The person appointed as the depositary<sup>12</sup> of the company:

- 1542 (1) must be a body corporate incorporated in the United Kingdom<sup>13</sup> or another EEA state<sup>14</sup>;
- 1543 (2) must have a place of business in the United Kingdom<sup>15</sup>;
- 1544 (3) must have its affairs administered in the country in which it is incorporated<sup>16</sup>;
- 1545 (4) must be an authorised person<sup>17</sup>;
- 1546 (5) must have permission under Part IV of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to act as the depositary of an open-ended investment company<sup>18</sup>; and
- 1547 (6) must be independent of the company and of the persons appointed as directors of the company<sup>19</sup>.

The name of the company must not be undesirable or misleading<sup>20</sup>, and the aims of the company must be reasonably capable of being achieved<sup>21</sup>.

The company must meet one or both of the following requirements:

- 1548 (a) shareholders<sup>22</sup> are entitled to have their shares redeemed or repurchased upon request at a price related to the net value of the scheme property<sup>23</sup> and determined in accordance with the company's instrument of incorporation and FSA rules<sup>24</sup>; or
- 1549 (b) shareholders are entitled to sell their shares on an investment exchange at a price not significantly different from that mentioned in head (a)<sup>25</sup>.

7 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 15(5). In determining whether the requirement referred to in reg 15(5) is satisfied in respect of any proposed director of a company, the Financial Services Authority may take into account:

601 (1) any matter relating to any person who is or will be employed by or associated with the proposed director, for the purposes of the business of the company (reg 14(3)(a));

602 (2) if the proposed director is a body corporate, any matter relating to any director or controller of the body, to any other body corporate in the same group, or to any director or controller of any such other body corporate (reg 14(3)(b));

603 (3) if the proposed director is a partnership, any matter relating to any of the partners (reg 14(3)(c)); and

604 (4) if the proposed director is an unincorporated association, any matter relating to any member of the governing body of the association or any officer or controller of the association (reg 14(3)(d)).

An open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> must give written notice to the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> of:

- 1550 (1) any proposed alteration to the company's instrument of incorporation<sup>3</sup>;
- 1551 (2) any proposed alteration to the company's prospectus<sup>4</sup> which, if made, would be significant<sup>5</sup>;
- 1552 (3) any proposed reconstruction or amalgamation involving the company<sup>6</sup>;
- 1553 (4) any proposal to wind up the affairs of the company otherwise than by the court<sup>7</sup>;
- 1554 (5) any proposal to replace a director of the company, to appoint any additional director, or to decrease the number of directors in post<sup>8</sup>; and
- 1555 (6) any proposal to replace the depositary<sup>9</sup> of the company<sup>10</sup>.

Any proposal falling within heads (1) to (6) above may not be give effect unless: (a) the Authority, by written notice, has given its approval to the proposal<sup>11</sup>; or (b) one month, beginning with the date on which notice of the proposal was given, has expired without the company or the depositary having received from the Authority a warning notice<sup>12</sup> in respect of the proposal<sup>13</sup>.

If the Financial Services Authority proposes to refuse approval of a proposal to replace the depositary or any director of an open-ended investment company, it must give a warning notice<sup>14</sup> to the company<sup>15</sup>. If the Authority proposes to refuse approval of any other proposal<sup>16</sup>, it must give separate warning notices to the company and its depositary<sup>17</sup>. In order to be valid, the warning notice must be received by that person before the end of one month beginning with the date on which notice of the proposal was given<sup>18</sup>.

If, having given a warning notice to a person, the Authority decides to refuse approval, it must give him a decision notice<sup>19</sup>; and he may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>20</sup>. If, having given a warning notice to a person, the Authority decides to approve the proposal, it must give him a written notice<sup>21</sup>.

632. Revocation.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may revoke an authorisation order<sup>2</sup> if it appears to it that:

- 1556 (1) any requirement for the making of the order is no longer satisfied<sup>3</sup>;
- 1557 (2) the company, any of its directors or its depositary<sup>4</sup> has contravened any relevant provision<sup>5</sup> or has, in purported compliance with any such provision, knowingly or recklessly given the Authority information which is false or misleading in a material particular<sup>6</sup>;
- 1558 (3) no regulated activity has been carried on in relation to the company for the previous 12 months<sup>7</sup>; or
- 1559 (4) it is desirable to revoke the authorisation order in order to protect the interests of shareholders<sup>8</sup> or potential shareholders in the company<sup>9</sup>.

For the purposes of head (4) above, the Authority may take into account any matter relating to:

- 1560 (a) the company or its depositary<sup>10</sup>;
- 1561 (b) any director or controller of the depositary<sup>11</sup>;
- 1562 (c) any person employed by or associated, for the purposes of the business of the company, with the company or its depositary<sup>12</sup>;
- 1563 (d) any director of the company<sup>13</sup>;
- 1564 (e) any person exercising influence over any director of the company or its depositary<sup>14</sup>;

- 1565 (f) any body corporate in the same group as any director of the company or its depositary<sup>15</sup>;
- 1566 (g) any director of any such body corporate<sup>16</sup>;
- 1567 (h) any person exercising influence over any such body corporate<sup>17</sup>;
- 1568 (i) any person who would be such a person as is mentioned in the 'fit and proper person' requirement<sup>18</sup> were it to apply to a director as it applies to a proposed director<sup>19</sup>.

Before revoking any authorisation order that has come into effect, the Authority must ensure that such steps as are necessary and appropriate to secure the winding up of the company (whether by the court<sup>20</sup> or otherwise) have been taken<sup>21</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to make an order revoking an authorisation order (a 'revoking order'), it must give separate warning notices<sup>22</sup> to the company and its depositary<sup>23</sup>. If, having given warning notices, the Authority decides to make a revoking order it must without delay give the company and its depositary a decision notice<sup>24</sup> and either of them may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>25</sup>.

Directions.

633. Directions.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may give a direction<sup>2</sup> if it appears to it that:

- 1569 (1) one or more requirements for the making of an authorisation order<sup>3</sup> are no longer satisfied<sup>4</sup>;
- 1570 (2) the company, any of its directors or its depository<sup>5</sup> has contravened or is likely to contravene any relevant provision<sup>6</sup>, or has, in purported compliance with any such provision, knowingly or recklessly given the Authority information which is false or misleading in a material particular<sup>7</sup>; or
- 1571 (3) it is desirable to give a direction in order to protect the interests of shareholders or potential shareholders in the company<sup>8</sup>.

A direction<sup>9</sup> may:

- 1572 (a) require the company to cease the issue or redemption, or both the issue and redemption, of shares or any class of shares in the company<sup>10</sup>;
- 1573 (b) in the case of a director of the company who is the designated person<sup>11</sup>, require that director to cease transfers to or from, or both to and from, his own holding of shares, or of any class of shares, in the company<sup>12</sup>;
- 1574 (c) in the case of an umbrella company<sup>13</sup>, require that investments made in respect of one or more parts of the scheme property<sup>14</sup> which are pooled separately be realised and, following the discharge of such liabilities of the company as are attributable to the relevant part or parts of the scheme property, that the resulting funds be distributed to shareholders<sup>15</sup> in accordance with FSA rules<sup>16</sup>;
- 1575 (d) require any director of the company to present a petition to the court<sup>17</sup> to wind up the company<sup>18</sup>; or
- 1576 (e) require that the affairs of the company be wound up otherwise than by the court<sup>19</sup>.

If the authorisation order is revoked, the revocation does not affect the operation of any direction<sup>20</sup> which is then in force; and a direction may be given in relation to a company in the case of which an authorisation order has been revoked if such a direction was already in force at the time of revocation<sup>21</sup>. However, where a winding-up order has been made by the court, no such direction is to have effect in relation to the company concerned<sup>22</sup>.

If a person contravenes a direction<sup>23</sup>, the provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 relating to actions for damages<sup>24</sup> applies to that contravention<sup>25</sup>.

The Authority may, on its own initiative or on the application of the company or its depositary, revoke or vary a direction<sup>26</sup> if it appears to the Authority, in the case of revocation, that it is no longer necessary for the direction to take effect or continue in force<sup>27</sup>, and, in the case of variation, that the direction should take effect or continue in force in a different form<sup>28</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/D. OPEN-ENDED INVESTMENT COMPANIES/(B) Formation, Supervision and Control/(c) Powers of Intervention/634. Procedure in regard to directions.

634. Procedure in regard to directions.

A direction<sup>1</sup> takes effect: (1) immediately, if the notice<sup>2</sup> states that that is the case<sup>3</sup>; (2) on such date as may be specified in the notice<sup>4</sup>; or (3) if no date is specified in the notice, when the matter to which it relates is no longer open to review<sup>5</sup>.

A direction may be expressed to take effect immediately (or on a specified date) only if the Financial Services Authority<sup>6</sup>, having regard to the ground on which it is exercising its power<sup>7</sup>, considers that it is necessary for the direction to take effect immediately (or on that date)<sup>8</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to give a direction<sup>9</sup>, or gives such a direction with immediate effect, it must give separate written notices to the company and its depositary<sup>10</sup>. The notice must:

- 1577   (a)    give details of the direction<sup>11</sup>;
- 1578   (b)    inform the person to whom it is given of when the direction takes effect<sup>12</sup>;
- 1579   (c)    state the Authority's reasons for giving the direction and for its determination as to when the direction takes effect<sup>13</sup>;
- 1580   (d)    inform the person to whom it is given that he may make representations to the Authority within such period as may be specified in it (whether or not he has referred the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal)<sup>14</sup>; and
- 1581   (e)    inform him of his right to refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>15</sup>.

If the direction imposes certain specific requirements in regard to the cessation of share issues and transfers<sup>16</sup>, the notice must state that the requirement has effect until either a specified date, or a further direction<sup>17</sup>.

If the direction imposes certain specific requirements in regard to the winding up of the company<sup>18</sup>, the petition must be presented (or, as the case may be, the company must be wound up) either by a date specified in the notice, or (if no date is specified) as soon as possible<sup>19</sup>.

The Authority may extend the period allowed under the notice for making representations<sup>20</sup>.

If, having considered any representations made by a person to whom the notice was given, the Authority decides to give the direction in the way proposed<sup>21</sup> or if it decides, where a direction has been given, not to revoke the direction<sup>22</sup>, the Authority must give separate written notices to the company and its depositary<sup>23</sup>.

If, having considered any representations made by a person to whom the notice was given, the Authority decides not to give the direction in the way proposed<sup>24</sup>, to give the direction in a way other than that proposed<sup>25</sup>, or to revoke a direction which has effect<sup>26</sup>, then it must give separate written notices to the company and its depository<sup>27</sup>. If a notice informs a person of his right to refer a matter to the Tribunal<sup>28</sup>, it must give an indication of the procedure on such a reference<sup>29</sup>.

The provisions described above<sup>30</sup> apply to the variation of a direction on the Authority's own initiative as they apply to the giving of a direction<sup>31</sup>.

If on an application<sup>32</sup> for a direction<sup>33</sup> to be revoked or varied the Authority proposes to vary the direction otherwise than in accordance with the application<sup>34</sup> or to refuse to revoke or vary the direction<sup>35</sup>, it must give the applicant a warning notice<sup>36</sup>. If the Authority decides to refuse to revoke or vary the direction, it must give the applicant a decision notice<sup>37</sup> and the applicant may refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>38</sup>. If the Authority decides on its own initiative to revoke a direction<sup>39</sup>, it must give separate written notices of its decision to the company and its depository<sup>40</sup>. If, on an application<sup>41</sup> for a direction to be revoked or varied, the Authority decides to revoke or vary it in accordance with the application, it must give the applicant written notice of its decision<sup>42</sup>. The notice<sup>43</sup> must specify the date on which the decision takes effect<sup>44</sup>.

The Authority may publish such information about the revocation or variation in such way as it considers appropriate<sup>45</sup>.

635. Applications to the High Court.

In situations where the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> could give a direction<sup>2</sup> in relation to an open-ended investment company<sup>3</sup>, it may apply to the High Court for an order removing the depositary<sup>4</sup> or any director of the company and replacing any such person with a person or persons nominated by the Authority<sup>5</sup>.

If it appears to the Authority that there is no person whom it may nominate for the above purposes<sup>6</sup>, it may apply to the court for an order removing the director in question or the depositary (or both) and appointing an authorised person<sup>7</sup> to wind up the company<sup>8</sup>. On such an application<sup>9</sup> the court may make such order as it thinks fit<sup>10</sup>.

The Authority must:

- 1582 (1) give written notice of the making of an application<sup>11</sup> to the company<sup>12</sup>, its depositary<sup>13</sup> and, where the application seeks the removal of any director of the company, that director<sup>14</sup>; and
- 1583 (2) take such steps as it considers appropriate for bringing the making of the application to the attention of the shareholders of the company<sup>15</sup>.

636. Winding up by the court.

Where an open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> is wound up as an unregistered company under Part V of the Insolvency Act 1986<sup>2</sup>, the provisions of that Act apply for the purposes of the winding up with a number of modifications<sup>3</sup>.

Where a petition for the winding up of an open-ended investment company is presented by a person other than the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup>: (1) that person must serve a copy of the petition on the Authority<sup>5</sup>; and (2) the Authority is entitled to be heard on the petition<sup>6</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'open-ended investment company' see PARA 623 note 3.

2 le the Insolvency Act 1986 Pt V (ss 220-229).

3 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 31(1). The modifications are as follows:

605 (1) a petition for the winding up of an open-ended investment company may be presented by the depositary of the company as well as by any person authorised under the Insolvency Act 1986 s 124 (application for winding up) (see COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY vol 7(3) (2004 Reissue) PARA 450 et seq) or s 124A (petition for winding up on grounds of public interest) (see COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY vol 7(3) (2004 Reissue) PARA 444), as those provisions apply by virtue of Pt V, to present a petition for the winding up of the company (Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 31(2));

606 (2) if, before the presentation of a petition for the winding up by the court of an open-ended investment company as an unregistered company under the Insolvency Act 1986 Pt V, the affairs of the company are being wound up otherwise than by the court:

73. (a) s 129(2) (commencement of winding up by the court) (see COMPANY AND PARTNERSHIP INSOLVENCY vol 7(3) (2004 Reissue) PARA 489) is not to apply (Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 31(4)(a)); and

74. (b) any winding up of the company by the court is to be deemed to have commenced at the time at which the Authority gave its approval to a proposal mentioned in reg 21(1)(d) (see PARA 631), or in a case falling within reg 21(3)(b) (see PARA 631), on the day following the end of the one-month period mentioned in reg 21(3)(b) (reg 31(4)(b)).

637. Dissolution on winding up by the court.

The provisions in Part V of the Insolvency Act 1986<sup>1</sup> in regard to the winding up of unregistered companies on the final meeting of creditors and vacation of office by the liquidator<sup>2</sup> have effect, in relation to open-ended investment companies<sup>3</sup>, as if the reference to the registrar of companies was a reference to the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup>.

Where, in respect of an open-ended investment company, the Authority receives:

- 1584 (1) a notice given for the purposes of the final meeting of creditors and vacation of office by the liquidator as described above<sup>5</sup>; or 1585 (2) a notice from the official receiver that the winding up, by the court, of the company is complete<sup>6</sup>, the Authority must, on receipt of the notice, forthwith register it and<sup>7</sup>, at the end of the period of three months beginning with the day of the registration of the notice, the company is to be dissolved<sup>8</sup>. The Secretary of State<sup>9</sup> may, on the application of the official receiver or any other person who appears to the Secretary of State to be interested, give a direction deferring the date at which the dissolution of the company is to take effect for such period as the Secretary of State thinks fit<sup>10</sup>. An appeal to the court lies from any decision of the Secretary of State on such an application for a direction<sup>11</sup>.

It is the duty of the person:

- 1586 (a) on whose application such a direction<sup>12</sup> is given<sup>13</sup>;
 1587 (b) in whose favour an appeal with respect to an application for such a direction is determined<sup>14</sup>; or 1588 (c) on whose application an order for deferral is made where the winding-up order was made by the court in Scotland<sup>15</sup>, not later than seven days after the giving of the direction, the determination of the appeal or the making of the order, to deliver to the Authority for registration a copy of the direction or determination or, in respect of an order under head (c) above, a certified copy of the interlocutor<sup>16</sup>. If a person without reasonable excuse fails to fulfil this duty to deliver a copy<sup>17</sup>, he is guilty of an offence<sup>18</sup>.

638. Dissolution in other circumstances.

Where the affairs of an open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> have been wound up otherwise than by the court, the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> must, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the winding up is complete, register that fact and<sup>3</sup>, at the end of the period of three months beginning with the day of the registration, the company is to be dissolved<sup>4</sup>.

The court may, on the application of the Authority or the company, make an order deferring the date at which the dissolution of the company is to take effect for such period as the court thinks fit<sup>5</sup>. It is the duty of the company, on whose application such an order of the court<sup>6</sup> is made, to deliver to the Authority, not later than seven days after the making of the order, a copy of the order for registration<sup>7</sup>.

Where any company, the head office of which is situated in England or Wales, is dissolved<sup>8</sup>, any sum of money (including unclaimed distributions) standing to the account of the company at the date of the dissolution must, on such date as is determined in accordance with FSA rules<sup>9</sup>, be paid into court<sup>10</sup>.

639. Directors.

On the coming into effect of an authorisation order<sup>1</sup> in respect of an open-ended investment company<sup>2</sup>, the persons proposed in the application for authorisation<sup>3</sup> as directors of the company are deemed to be appointed as its first directors<sup>4</sup>. Any subsequent appointment as a director of a company must be made by the company in general meeting, except that the directors of the company may appoint a person to act as director to fill any vacancy until such time as the next annual general meeting of the company takes place or, if the company does not hold annual general meetings, the directors of the company may appoint a person to act as director<sup>5</sup>.

Any act of a director is valid notwithstanding any defect that may thereafter be discovered in his appointment or qualifications<sup>6</sup> or that it is afterwards discovered that his appointment had terminated by virtue of any provision contained in FSA rules<sup>7</sup> which required a director to retire upon attaining a specified age<sup>8</sup>.

The business of a company must be managed: (1) where a company has only one director, by that director<sup>9</sup>; or (2) where a company has more than one director, by the directors but subject to any provision contained in FSA rules as to the allocation between the directors of responsibilities for the management of the company (including any provision there may be as to the allocation of such responsibility to one or more directors to the exclusion of others)<sup>10</sup>.

Subject to the provisions of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>11</sup>, FSA rules and the company's instrument of incorporation, the directors of a company may exercise all the powers of the company<sup>12</sup>.

The matters to which a director of an open-ended investment company must have regard in the performance of his functions include the interests of the company's employees in general, as well as the interests of its shareholders<sup>13</sup>. This duty<sup>14</sup> on a director is owed by him to the company (and the company alone) and is enforceable in the same way as any other fiduciary duty owed to a company by its directors<sup>15</sup>.

5 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 34(2) (substituted by SI 2005/923). The Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 34(2) is subject to reg 21 (see PARA 631) and reg 26 (see PARA 635).

The directors of an open-ended investment company must, on a members' requisition, forthwith proceed duly to convene an extraordinary general meeting of the company and this applies notwithstanding anything in the company's instrument of incorporation: reg 34A(1) (reg 34A added by SI 2005/923). A members' requisition is a requisition (1) by members of the company holding at the date of the deposit of the requisition not less than one-tenth of such of the paid-up capital of the company as at that date carries the right of voting at general meetings of the company; and (2) which states as the object of the meeting the removal of one or more directors appointed in accordance with the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 34(2) and which must be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the registered office of the company: reg 34A(2) (as so added). As to instruments of incorporation see PARA 624.

A company may by ordinary resolution at an extraordinary general meeting convened in accordance with reg 34A(1) remove any director or directors appointed in accordance with reg 34(2): reg 34A(3) (as so added). Regulation 34A is not to be treated as depriving a person removed under it of compensation or damages payable to him in respect of the termination of his appointment as director or as derogating from any power to remove a director which exists apart from that provision: reg 34A(4) (as so added).

640. Inspection of directors' service contracts.

Every open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> must keep at an appropriate place<sup>2</sup>: (1) in the case of each director whose contract of service with the company is in writing, a copy of that contract<sup>3</sup>; and (2) in the case of each director whose contract of service with the company is not in writing, a written memorandum setting out its terms<sup>4</sup>.

All copies and memoranda kept by a company in accordance with heads (1) and (2) above must be kept at the same place<sup>5</sup>. Every copy and memorandum required by heads (1) and (2) above to be kept must be open to the inspection of any shareholder<sup>6</sup> of the company<sup>7</sup>. If such an inspection is refused, the High Court may by order compel an immediate inspection of the copy or memorandum concerned<sup>8</sup>. Every copy and memorandum required to be kept by heads (1) and (2) above must be made available, for inspection, by the company at the company's annual general meeting<sup>9</sup> or, if the company does not hold annual general meetings, sent to any shareholder at his request within ten days of the company's receipt of such request by the company for inspection by any shareholder at the company's annual general meeting<sup>10</sup>.

641. General meetings.

Every open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> incorporated before 6 April 2005 must in each year hold a general meeting (the 'annual general meeting')<sup>2</sup> in addition to any other meetings, whether general or otherwise, it may hold in that year<sup>3</sup>. However, if a company holds its first annual general meeting within 18 months of the date on which the authorisation order made by the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup> in respect of the company comes into effect, the company is not required<sup>5</sup> to hold any other meeting as its annual general meeting in the year of its incorporation or in the following year<sup>6</sup>. In addition, the directors of an open-ended investment company may elect to dispense with the holding of an annual general meeting by giving 60 days' written notice to all the company's shareholders<sup>7</sup>.

Subject to the above<sup>8</sup>, not more than 15 months may elapse between the date of one annual general meeting of a company and the date of the next<sup>9</sup>.

- 1 As to the meaning of 'open-ended investment company' see PARA 623 note 3.
- 2 'Annual general meeting' means such a meeting: Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, regs 2(1), 37(1).

642. Name and particulars to be mentioned in documents.

Every open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> must have its name mentioned in legible characters in all letters of the company and in all other documents issued by the company in the course of business<sup>2</sup>.

If an officer<sup>3</sup> of a company or a person on the company's behalf signs or authorises to be signed on behalf of the company any cheque or order for money or goods in which the company's name is not mentioned as required above<sup>4</sup>, he is personally liable to the holder of the cheque or order for money or goods for the amount of it (unless it is duly paid by the company)<sup>5</sup>.

Every open-ended investment company must have the following particulars mentioned in legible characters in all letters of the company and in all other documents issued by the company in the course of business:

- 1589 (1) the company's place of registration<sup>6</sup>;
- 1590 (2) the number with which it is registered<sup>7</sup>;
- 1591 (3) the address of its head office<sup>8</sup>; and
- 1592 (4) the fact that it is an investment company with variable capital<sup>9</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/D. OPEN-ENDED INVESTMENT COMPANIES/(C) Corporate Code/(a) Administrative Provisions/643. Power and capacity of company, etc.

643. Power and capacity of company, etc.

An open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> has power to do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the carrying on of its business<sup>2</sup>.

The validity of an act done by an open-ended investment company cannot be called into question on the ground of lack of capacity by reason of anything in the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>3</sup>, FSA rules<sup>4</sup> or the company's instrument of incorporation<sup>5</sup>. However, this does not affect the duty of the directors to observe any limitation on their powers<sup>6</sup>.

In favour of a person dealing in good faith: (1) the power of the directors of an open-ended investment company (whether or not acting as a board) to bind the company, or authorise others to do so<sup>7</sup>; and (2) the power of such a company in general meeting to bind the company, or authorise others to do so<sup>8</sup>, are deemed to be free of any limitation under the company's constitution<sup>9</sup>. This does not affect any liability incurred by the directors or any other person by reason of the directors exceeding their powers<sup>10</sup>.

A party to a transaction with an open-ended investment company is not bound to inquire:

1593 (a) as to whether the transaction is permitted by the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>11</sup>, FSA rules or the company's instrument of incorporation<sup>12</sup>; or 1594 (b) as to any limitation on the powers referred to in head (1) or head (2) above<sup>13</sup>.

A person is not to be taken to have notice of any matter merely because of its being disclosed in any document made available by an open-ended investment company for inspection; but this does not affect the question whether a person is affected by notice of any matter by reason of a failure to make such inquiries as ought reasonably to be made<sup>14</sup>.

9 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 39(1). The reference in reg 39(1) to any limitation under the company's constitution on the powers therein set out includes any limitation deriving from the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, from FSA rules or from a resolution of the company in general meeting or of a meeting of any class of shareholders: reg 39(3). As to general meetings see PARA 641; and as to shareholders see PARA 624 note 6. As to the meaning of 'FSA rules' see PARA 622 note 6.

For the purposes of reg 39:

- 607 (1) a person deals with a company if he is party to any transaction or other act to which the company is a party (reg 39(2)(a));
- 608 (2) a person is not to be regarded as acting in bad faith by reason only of his knowing that, under the company's constitution, an act is beyond any of the powers referred to in reg 39(1)(a) or (b) (see heads (1) and (2) in the text) (reg 39(2)(b)); and
- 609 (3) a person is presumed to have acted in good faith unless the contrary is proved (reg 39(2)(c)).

Heads (2) and (3) above do not apply where:

- 610 (a) by virtue of a limitation deriving from the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, or from FSA rules, an act is beyond any of the powers referred to in reg 39(1)(a) or (b) (see heads (1) and (2) in the text) (reg 39(4)(a)); and
- 611 (b) the person in question has actual knowledge of that fact (reg 39(4)(b)(i)) or has deliberately failed to make inquiries in circumstances in which a reasonable and honest person would have done so (reg 39(4)(b)(ii)).

Restraint and ratification by shareholders.

644. Restraint and ratification by shareholders.

A shareholder<sup>1</sup> of an open-ended investment company<sup>2</sup> may bring proceedings to restrain the doing of an act which but for the statutory provisions relating to company capacity<sup>3</sup> would be beyond the company's capacity<sup>4</sup>. The provisions relating to the powers of directors and the general meeting to bind the company<sup>5</sup> do not affect any right of a shareholder of an open-ended investment company to bring proceedings to restrain the doing of an act which is beyond any of the powers referred to in those provisions<sup>6</sup>.

Any action by the directors of a company: (1) which, but for the provision on company capacity<sup>7</sup>, would be beyond the company's capacity<sup>8</sup>; or (2) which is within the company's capacity but beyond the powers of directors to bind the company<sup>9</sup>, may only be ratified by a resolution of the company in general meeting<sup>10</sup>. A resolution ratifying such an action does not affect any liability incurred by the directors or any other person, as relief from any such liability requires agreement by a separate resolution of the company in general meeting<sup>11</sup>.

Nothing in the provisions described above<sup>12</sup> affects any power or right conferred by or arising under the provisions in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 relating to actions for damages<sup>13</sup> or injunctions and restitution orders<sup>14</sup>.

645. Events affecting company status.

Where either of the conditions mentioned in heads (a) and (b) below<sup>1</sup> is satisfied, an open-ended investment company<sup>2</sup> is not entitled to rely against other persons on the happening of any of the following events:

- 1595 (1) any alteration of the company's instrument of incorporation<sup>3</sup>;
- 1596 (2) any change among the directors of the company<sup>4</sup>;
- 1597 (3) as regards service of any document on the company, any change in the situation of the head office of the company<sup>5</sup>; or
- 1598 (4) the making of a winding-up order in respect of the company or, in circumstances in which the affairs of a company are to be wound up otherwise than by the court, the commencement of the winding up<sup>6</sup>.

The conditions mentioned above are that:

- 1599 (a) the event in question had not been officially notified<sup>7</sup> at the material time and is not shown by the company to have been known at that time by the other person concerned<sup>8</sup>; and
- 1600 (b) if the material time fell on or before the fifteenth day after the date of official notification (or where the fifteenth day was a non-business day, on or before the next day that was a business day), it is shown that the other person concerned was unavoidably prevented from knowing of the event at that time<sup>9</sup>.

Contracts, execution of documents, etc.

647. Contracts, execution of documents, etc.

A contract may be made by an open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> by writing under its common seal<sup>2</sup> or on behalf of such a company, by any person acting under its authority (whether expressed or implied)<sup>3</sup>. Furthermore, any formalities required by law in the case of a contract made by an individual also apply, unless a contrary intention appears, to a contract made by or on behalf of such a company<sup>4</sup>.

In relation to the execution of documents by an open-ended investment company<sup>5</sup>:

- 1605 (1) a document is executed by a company by the affixing of its common seal<sup>6</sup>;
- 1606 (2) a company need not, however, have a common seal, and heads (3) to (5)<sup>7</sup> below apply whether it does or not<sup>8</sup>;
- 1607 (3) a document that is signed by at least one director<sup>9</sup> and expressed (in whatever form of words) to be executed by the company has the same effect as if executed under the common seal of the company<sup>10</sup>;
- 1608 (4) a document executed by a company which makes it clear on its face that it is intended by the person or persons making it to be a deed has effect, upon delivery, as a deed and it is to be presumed, unless a contrary intention is proved, to be delivered upon its being executed<sup>11</sup>;
- 1609 (5) in favour of a purchaser<sup>12</sup>, a document is deemed to have been duly executed by a company if it purports to be signed by at least one director or, in the case of a director which is a body corporate, it purports to be executed by that director; and, where it makes it clear on its face that it is intended by the person or persons making it to be a deed, it is deemed to have been delivered upon its being executed<sup>13</sup>.

An open-ended investment company may, by writing under its common seal, empower any person, either generally or in respect of any specified matters, as its attorney, to execute deeds on its behalf in any place elsewhere than in the United Kingdom<sup>14</sup>. A deed executed by such an attorney on behalf of the company has the same effect as if it were executed under the company's common seal<sup>15</sup>.

A document or proceeding requiring authentication by an open-ended investment company is sufficiently authenticated for the purposes of the law of England and Wales by the signature of a director or other authorised officer of the company<sup>16</sup> or, in the case of a director which is a body corporate, if it is executed by that director<sup>17</sup>.

An open-ended investment company which has a common seal may have, for use for sealing shares<sup>18</sup> issued by the company and for sealing documents creating or evidencing shares so issued, an official seal which is a facsimile of its common seal with the addition on its face of the word 'securities'<sup>19</sup>. The official seal when duly affixed to a document has the same effect as the company's common seal<sup>20</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/D. OPEN-ENDED INVESTMENT COMPANIES/(C) Corporate Code/(a) Administrative Provisions/648. Personal liability for contracts and deeds.

648. Personal liability for contracts and deeds.

A contract, which purports to be made by or on behalf of an open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> at a time before the coming into effect of an authorisation order<sup>2</sup> in relation to that company, has effect (subject to any agreement to the contrary) as a contract made with the person purporting to act for the company or as agent for it, and he is accordingly personally liable under the contract<sup>3</sup>. This applies to the making of a deed as it applies to the making of a contract<sup>4</sup>.

If a company enters into a transaction at any time after the authorisation order made in respect of the company has been revoked and the company fails to comply with its obligations in respect of that transaction within 21 days of being called upon to do so, the person who authorised the transaction is liable, and where the transaction was authorised by two or more persons they are jointly and severally liable, to indemnify the other party to the transaction in respect of any loss or damage suffered by him by reason of the company's failure to comply with those obligations<sup>5</sup>.

Any provision, whether contained in the instrument of incorporation<sup>6</sup> of an open-ended investment company or in any contract with the company or otherwise:

- 1610 (1) which exempts any officer<sup>7</sup> of the company or any person (whether or not an officer of the company) employed by the company as auditor<sup>8</sup> from, or indemnifies him against, any liability which by virtue of any rule of law would otherwise attach to him in respect of any negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust of which he may be guilty in relation to the company<sup>9</sup>; or
- 1611 (2) which exempts the depositary<sup>10</sup> of the company from, or indemnifies him against, any liability for any failure to exercise due care and diligence in the discharge of his functions in respect of the company<sup>11</sup>, is void<sup>12</sup>. However this does not prevent a company: (a) from purchasing and maintaining for any such officer, auditor or depositary insurance against any such liability<sup>13</sup>; or (b) from indemnifying any such officer, auditor or depositary against any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings (whether civil or criminal) in which judgment is given in his favour or he is acquitted<sup>14</sup> or in connection with any application<sup>15</sup> in which relief is granted to him by the court<sup>16</sup>.

649. Relief from liability.

The provisions described below<sup>1</sup> apply to: (1) any proceedings for negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust against an officer<sup>2</sup> of an open-ended investment company<sup>3</sup> or a person (whether or not an officer of the company) employed by the company as auditor<sup>4</sup>; or (2) any proceedings against the depository<sup>5</sup> of such a company for failure to exercise due care and diligence in the discharge of his functions in respect of the company<sup>6</sup>.

If, in any such proceedings<sup>7</sup>, it appears to the court hearing the case:

- 1612 (a) that the officer, auditor or depository is or may be liable in respect of the cause of action in question<sup>8</sup>;
- 1613 (b) that, nevertheless, he has acted honestly and reasonably<sup>9</sup>; and
- 1614 (c) that, having regard to all the circumstances of the case (including those connected with his appointment), he ought fairly to be excused from the liability sought to be enforced against him<sup>10</sup>, the court may relieve him, either wholly or partly, from his liability on such terms as it may think fit<sup>11</sup>.

If any such officer, auditor or depository has reason to apprehend that any claim will or might be made against him in proceedings to which these provisions apply, he may apply to the court for relief<sup>12</sup>. The court, on such an application<sup>13</sup>, has the same power to relieve the applicant as it would have had<sup>14</sup> if it had been a court before which the relevant proceedings against the applicant had been brought<sup>15</sup>.

651. Shares generally.

An open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> may issue more than one class of shares<sup>2</sup>. A shareholder<sup>3</sup> may not have any interest in the scheme property<sup>4</sup> of the company<sup>5</sup>.

The rights which attach to each share of any given class are:

- 1615 (1) the right, in accordance with the instrument of incorporation<sup>6</sup>, to participate in or receive profits or income arising from the acquisition, holding, management or disposal of the scheme property<sup>7</sup>;
- 1616 (2) the right, in accordance with the instrument of incorporation, to vote at any general meeting<sup>8</sup> of the company or at any relevant class meeting<sup>9</sup>; and
- 1617 (3) such other rights as may be provided for, in relation to shares of that class, in the instrument of incorporation of the company<sup>10</sup>.

In respect of any class of shares, the rights mentioned above<sup>11</sup> may, if the company's instrument of incorporation so provides, be expressed in two denominations; and in the case of any such class, one (the 'smaller') denomination is to be such proportion of the other (the 'larger') denomination as is fixed by the instrument of incorporation<sup>12</sup>. In respect of any class of shares thus expressed in two denominations<sup>13</sup>, any share to which rights expressed in the smaller denomination are attached is to be known as a 'smaller denomination share'; and any share to which rights expressed in the larger denomination are attached is to be known as a 'larger denomination share'<sup>14</sup>.

In respect of any class of shares, the rights which attach to each share of that class are:

- 1618 (a) except in respect of a class of shares expressed in two denominations<sup>15</sup>, equal to the rights that attach to each other share of that class<sup>16</sup>; and
- 1619 (b) in respect of a class of shares expressed in two denominations<sup>17</sup>, equal to the rights that attach to each other share of that class of the same denomination<sup>18</sup>.

5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/D. OPEN-ENDED INVESTMENT COMPANIES/(C) Corporate Code/(b) Shares/652. Share certificates.

652. Share certificates.

An open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> must prepare documentary evidence of title to its shares (known as 'share certificates'<sup>2</sup>) as follows:

- 1620 (1) in respect of any new shares issued by it<sup>3</sup>;
- 1621 (2) where a shareholder<sup>4</sup> has transferred part only of his holding back to the company, in respect of the remainder of that holding<sup>5</sup>;
- 1622 (3) where a shareholder has transferred part only of his holding to the designated person<sup>6</sup>, in respect of the remainder of that holding<sup>7</sup>;
- 1623 (4) where a company has registered a transfer of shares made to a person other than the company or a person designated as mentioned in head (3) above<sup>8</sup>, in respect of the shares transferred to the transferee<sup>9</sup> and in respect of any shares retained by the transferor which were evidenced by any certificate sent to the company for the purposes of registering the transfer<sup>10</sup>;
- 1624 (5) in respect of any holding of bearer shares for which a certificate evidencing title has already been issued but where the certificate has been surrendered to the company for the purpose of being replaced by two or more certificates which between them evidence title to the shares comprising that holding<sup>11</sup>; and
- 1625 (6) in respect of any shares for which a certificate has already been issued but where it appears to the company that the certificate needs to be replaced as a result of having been lost, stolen or destroyed or having become damaged or worn out<sup>12</sup>.

A company must exercise due diligence and take all reasonable steps to ensure that certificates prepared in accordance with heads (1) to (5) above<sup>13</sup> are ready for delivery as soon as reasonably practicable<sup>14</sup>. Certificates need be prepared in the circumstances referred to in heads (5) and (6) above<sup>15</sup> only if the company has received:

- 1626 (a) a request for a new certificate<sup>16</sup>;
- 1627 (b) the old certificate (if there is one)<sup>17</sup>;
- 1628 (c) such indemnity as the company may require<sup>18</sup>; and
- 1629 (d) such reasonable sum as the company may require in respect of the expenses incurred by it in complying with the request<sup>19</sup>.

A company is not required to prepare share certificates in the following cases<sup>20</sup>:

- 1630 (i) where the company's instrument of incorporation<sup>21</sup> states that share certificates will not be issued and contains provision as to other procedures for evidencing a person's entitlement to shares<sup>22</sup>;
- 1631 (ii) where a shareholder has indicated to the company in writing that he does not wish to receive a certificate<sup>23</sup>;
- 1632 (iii) where shares are issued or transferred to the designated person<sup>24</sup>;
- 1633 (iv) where shares are issued or transferred to a nominee of a recognised investment exchange<sup>25</sup> who is designated for these purposes<sup>26</sup>.

Each share certificate must state: (A) the number of shares the title to which is evidenced by the certificate<sup>27</sup>; (B) where the company has more than one class of shares, the class of shares title to which is evidenced by the certificate<sup>28</sup>; and (c) except in the case of bearer shares<sup>29</sup>, the name of the holder<sup>30</sup>.

A share certificate specifying any shares held by any person which is under the common seal of the company<sup>31</sup>, or authenticated in accordance with the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>32</sup>, is prima facie evidence of that person's title to the shares<sup>33</sup>.

Regulation 46(5) provides that where, in respect of any class of shares, the rights that attach to shares of that class are expressed in two denominations, the reference in reg 46(4)(a) (as it applies to shares of that class) to the number of shares is a reference to the total of:

where:

- 612 (1)  $N$  is the relevant number of the larger denomination shares of the class in question (reg 46(6)(a));
- 613 (2)  $n$  is the relevant number of the smaller denomination shares of that class (reg 46(6)(b)); and
- 614 (3)  $p$  is the number of smaller denomination shares of that class that are equivalent to one larger denomination share of that class (reg 46(6)(c)).

Nothing in the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, is to be taken as preventing the total arrived at under reg 46(5) being expressed on the certificate as a single entry representing the result derived from the formula set out above: reg 46(7).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/D. OPEN-ENDED INVESTMENT COMPANIES/(C) Corporate Code/(b) Shares/654. The register of shareholders.

654. The register of shareholders.

Every open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> must keep a register of persons who hold shares in the company<sup>2</sup>. The register of shareholders is prima facie evidence of any matters which are directed or authorised<sup>3</sup> to be contained in it<sup>4</sup>. In the case of companies registered in England and Wales, no notice of any trust, express, implied or constructive, is to be entered on the company's register or to be receivable by the company<sup>5</sup>. A company must exercise all due diligence and take all reasonable steps to ensure that the information contained in the register is at all times complete and up to date<sup>6</sup>.

The register of shareholders must contain an entry consisting of the name of the designated person<sup>7</sup>, and a statement of the aggregate number of all shares in the company held by that person<sup>8</sup>. Where a company issues a share to any person and the name of that person is not already entered on the register, the company must enter his name on the register<sup>9</sup>.

In respect of any person whose name is entered on the register under these provisions<sup>10</sup> or on the transfer of registered shares<sup>11</sup>, the register must contain an entry consisting of:

- 1634 (1) the address of the shareholder<sup>12</sup>;
- 1635 (2) the date on which the shareholder's name was entered on the register<sup>13</sup>;
- 1636 (3) a statement of the aggregate number of shares held by the shareholder, distinguishing each share by its number (if it has one) and, where the company has more than one class of shares, by its class<sup>14</sup>.

The register of shareholders must contain a monthly statement of the aggregate number of all the bearer shares in issue except for any bearer shares in issue which, at the time when the statement is made, are held by the designated person<sup>15</sup>.

Where the aggregate number of shares referred to above<sup>16</sup> includes any shares to which rights expressed in two denominations are attached<sup>17</sup>, in respect of each class of such shares<sup>18</sup>, the number of shares of that class held by any person<sup>19</sup>, or the number of bearer shares of that class<sup>20</sup>, is to be taken<sup>21</sup> to be the total of:

where:

- 1637 (a)  $N$  is the relevant number of larger denomination shares of that class<sup>22</sup>;
- 1638 (b)  $n$  is the relevant number of smaller denomination shares of that class<sup>23</sup>;
- and
- 1639 (c)  $p$  is the number of smaller denomination shares of that class that are equivalent to one larger denomination share of that class<sup>24</sup>.

The register of shareholders of a company must be kept at its head office, except that, if the work of making it up is done at another office of the company, it may be kept there<sup>25</sup> and, if the company arranges with some other person for the making up of the register to be undertaken on its behalf by that other person, it may be kept at the office of the other person at which the work is being done<sup>26</sup>.

Every company must keep an index of the names of the holders of its registered shares<sup>27</sup>. The index must contain, in respect of each shareholder, a sufficient indication to enable the account of that shareholder in the register to be readily found<sup>28</sup>. The index must be at all times kept at the same place as the register of shareholders<sup>29</sup>. Not later than 14 days after the date on which any alteration is made to the register of shareholders, the company must make any necessary alteration in the index<sup>30</sup>.

The register of shareholders and the index of names must be open to the inspection of any shareholder (including any holder of bearer shares) without charge<sup>31</sup>. Any shareholder may require a copy of the entries on the register relating to him and the company must cause any copy so required by a person to be sent to him free of charge<sup>32</sup>. If an inspection<sup>33</sup> is refused, or if a copy so required is not sent, the High Court may by order compel an immediate inspection of the register and index, or direct that the copy required be sent to the person requiring it<sup>34</sup>.

Where the register of shareholders is kept at the office of some person other than the company<sup>35</sup> and by reason of any default of his the company fails to comply with any of the requirements relating to the index or inspection<sup>36</sup>, the person at whose office the register of shareholders is kept is guilty of an offence if he knowingly or recklessly authorises or permits the default in question<sup>37</sup>.

The power of the court in regard to inspection of the register and index<sup>38</sup> extends to the making of orders directed to the person at whose office the register of shareholders is kept and to any officer or employee of his<sup>39</sup>.

2 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 3 para 1(1). This register is the 'register of shareholders': see PARA 626 note 22.

There is an exception to Sch 3 para 1(1) in that, to the extent that the aggregate numbers of shares mentioned in Sch 3 para 5(1)(b) and Sch 3 para 7 include bearer shares, nothing in Sch 3 requires any entry to be made in the register in respect of bearer shares: Sch 3 para 1(2). Closure and rectification of register of shareholders.

655. Closure and rectification of register of shareholders.

An open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> may, on giving notice by advertisement in a national newspaper circulating in all the countries in which shares in the company are sold, close the register of shareholders<sup>2</sup> for any time or times not exceeding, in the whole, 30 days in each year<sup>3</sup>. This is subject to any requirements contained in FSA rules<sup>4</sup>.

An application to the High Court to rectify the register of shareholders of an open-ended investment company may be made<sup>5</sup> if:

- 1640 (1) the name of any person is, without sufficient cause, entered in or omitted from the register<sup>6</sup>;
- 1641 (2) default is made as to the details contained in any entry on the register in respect of a person's holding of shares in the company<sup>7</sup>; or
- 1642 (3) default is made or unnecessary delay takes place in amending the register so as to reflect the fact of any person having ceased to be a shareholder<sup>8</sup>.

Such an application may be made by the person aggrieved, by any shareholder of the company or by the company itself<sup>9</sup>.

The court may refuse the application or may order rectification of the register of shareholders and payment by the company of any damages sustained by any party aggrieved<sup>10</sup>. On such an application the court may decide any question necessary or expedient to be decided for rectification of the register including, in particular, any question relating to the right of a person who is a party to the application to have his name entered in or omitted from the register (whether the question arises as between shareholders and alleged shareholders, or as between shareholders or alleged shareholders on the one hand and the company on the other hand)<sup>11</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/D. OPEN-ENDED INVESTMENT COMPANIES/(C) Corporate Code/(b) Shares/656. Share transfers.

656. Share transfers.

The instrument of incorporation<sup>1</sup> may contain provision as to share transfers for the transfer of registered and bearer shares<sup>2</sup> in an open-ended investment company<sup>3</sup> in respect of any matter for which provision is not made in the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>4</sup> or FSA rules<sup>5</sup>. Where any shares are transferred to the company, the company must cancel those shares<sup>6</sup>.

Where a transfer of shares is made by the person (if any) who is designated in the company's instrument of incorporation<sup>7</sup>, the company may not register the transfer unless such evidence as the company may require to prove that the transfer has taken place has been delivered to the company<sup>8</sup>.

Where for any reason a person ceases to be so designated<sup>9</sup>: (1) any shares held by that person which are not disposed of on or before his ceasing to be so designated are to be deemed to be the subject of a new transfer to him which takes effect immediately after he ceases to be so designated<sup>10</sup>; and (2) the company must make such adjustments to the register<sup>11</sup> as are necessary to reflect his change of circumstances<sup>12</sup>.

Except in the case of any transfer of shares mentioned above<sup>13</sup>, the company may not register any transfer unless the transfer documents<sup>14</sup> relating to that transfer have been delivered to the company<sup>15</sup>. In the case of any transfer of shares which meets the requirements described above<sup>16</sup>, the company must register the transfer<sup>17</sup> and, where the name of the transferee is not already entered on the register, enter that name on the register<sup>18</sup>.

A company may, before the end of the period of 21 days commencing with the date of receipt of the transfer documents relating to any transfer of shares, refuse to register the transfer if: (a) there exists a minimum requirement as to the number or value of shares that must be held by any shareholder<sup>19</sup> of the company and the transfer would result in either the transferor or transferee holding less than the required minimum<sup>20</sup>; or (b) the transfer would result in a contravention of any provision of the company's instrument of incorporation or would produce a result inconsistent with any provision of the company's prospectus<sup>21</sup>.

A company must give the transferee written notice of any refusal to register a transfer of shares<sup>22</sup>. Nothing in the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>23</sup> requires a company to register a transfer or give notice to any person of a refusal to register a transfer where registering the transfer or giving the notice would result in a contravention of any provision of law (including any law that is for the time being in force in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom)<sup>24</sup>.

Where, in respect of any transfer of shares, the company certifies that it has received the transfer documents consisting of a share certificate or such other evidence of title<sup>25</sup> (as the case may be), that certification is to be taken as a representation by the company to any person acting on the faith of the certification that there has been produced to the company such evidence as on its face shows a prima facie title to the shares in the transferor named in the instrument of transfer<sup>26</sup>.

Where a person acts on the faith of a false certification by a company which is made negligently or fraudulently, the company is liable to make a payment to that person for any damage sustained by him<sup>27</sup>.

A transfer of title to any bearer share in a company is effected by the transfer from one person to another of the relevant instrument<sup>28</sup> which relates to that share<sup>29</sup>. Where the holder of bearer shares proposes to transfer to another person a number of shares which is less than the number specified in the instrument relating to those shares, he may only do so if he surrenders the instrument to the company and obtains a new instrument specifying the number of shares to be transferred<sup>30</sup>.

Nothing in the provisions described above<sup>31</sup> prejudices any power of the company to register as shareholder any person to whom the right to any shares in the company has been transmitted by operation of law<sup>32</sup>.

A transfer of registered shares that are held by a deceased person at the time of his death which is made by his personal representative is as valid as if the personal representative had been the holder of the shares at the time of the execution of the instrument of transfer<sup>33</sup>. On the death of any one of the joint holders of any shares, the survivor is to be the only person recognised by the company as having any title to or any interest in those shares<sup>34</sup>.

14 For the purposes of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, 'transfer documents', in relation to any transfer of registered shares, means:

615 (1) a stock transfer within the meaning of the Stock Transfer Act 1963 (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 400) which complies with the requirements of that Act as to the execution and contents of a stock transfer or such other instrument of transfer as is authorised by, and completed and executed in accordance with any requirements in, the company's instrument of incorporation (Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 2(1), Sch 4 para 5(3)(a));

616 (2) except in a case falling within reg 47(3) or (4) (see PARA 652), a share certificate relating to the shares in question (reg 2(1), Sch 4 para 5(3)(b));

617 (3) in a case falling within reg 47(3) (see PARA 652), such other evidence of title to those shares as is required by the instrument of incorporation of the company (reg 2(1), Sch 4 para 5(3)(c)); and

618 (4) such other evidence (if any) as the company may require to prove the right of the transferor to transfer the shares in question (reg 2(1), Sch 4 para 5(3)(d)).

15 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 4 para 5(1). No share certificate has to be delivered by virtue of Sch 4 para 5(1) in any case where shares are transferred by a nominee of a recognised investment exchange who is designated for the purposes of reg 47(6) (see PARA 652) in the rules of the investment exchange in question: Sch 4 para 5(2).

657. Reports.

The directors of a company must lay copies of the annual report before the company in general meeting<sup>8</sup>. The annual report of an open-ended investment company must, in respect of the annual accounting period to which it relates, contain accounts of the company<sup>9</sup>. The company's auditors<sup>10</sup> must make a report to the company's shareholders in respect of the accounts of the company contained in its annual report<sup>11</sup>. A copy of the auditor's report must form part of the company's annual report<sup>12</sup>.

If it appears to the directors of an open-ended investment company that any annual report of the company did not comply with the requirements of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>13</sup> or FSA rules, they may prepare a revised annual report<sup>14</sup>. Where copies of the previous report have been laid before the company in general meeting or delivered to the Financial Services Authority, the revisions must be confined to the correction of anything in the previous report which did not comply with the requirements of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001 or FSA rules<sup>15</sup> and the making of any necessary consequential alterations<sup>16</sup>.

3 For the purposes of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 66, any reference to annual and half-yearly accounting periods of a company is a reference to those periods as determined in relation to that company in accordance with FSA rules: reg 66(5). Nothing in reg 66 or reg 67 prejudices the generality of reg 6(1) (see PARA 622) in relation to the powers of the Financial Services Authority as set out in that regulation: reg 66(4). ### 658. Eligibility of auditors.

No person is eligible for appointment as auditor of an open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> unless he is eligible under the Companies Act 2006<sup>2</sup> for appointment as a statutory auditor<sup>3</sup>. A person is ineligible for appointment as auditor of an open-ended investment company if he is an officer<sup>4</sup> or employee of the company<sup>5</sup> or a partner or employee of such a person, or a partnership of which such a person is a partner<sup>6</sup>.

A person is also ineligible for appointment if there exists between that person, or any associate<sup>7</sup> of that person, and the company a connection of any such description as may be specified by regulations made by the Secretary of State<sup>8</sup> under the Companies Act 2006<sup>9</sup>.

No person is to act as auditor of a company if he is ineligible for appointment to the office<sup>10</sup>. If during his term of office an auditor of a company becomes ineligible for appointment to the office, he must vacate office and give notice in writing to the company concerned that he has vacated it by reason of ineligibility<sup>11</sup>. A person who acts as auditor of a company in contravention of the requirements described above<sup>12</sup> is guilty of an offence<sup>13</sup>.

An auditor who has failed to comply with a duty imposed on him by trust scheme rules<sup>14</sup> may be disqualified from being the auditor for any authorised open-ended investment company<sup>15</sup>.

7 For these purposes, 'associate' has the same meaning as in the Companies Act 2006 Pt 42 (ss 1209-1264) (see s 1260) (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 971): Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 5 para 2(4) (Sch 5 para 2(3) substituted and Sch 5 para 2(4), (5) added by SI 2008/948).

The regulations are under the Companies Act 2006 s 1214(4): see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 971. The power of the Secretary of State to make regulations under s 1214(4) for the purposes of s 1214(1) in relation to statutory auditors is exercisable, subject to the same conditions, for the purposes of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 5 para 2(3) in relation to auditors of open-ended investment companies: Sch 5 para 2(5) (as added: see note 7).

11 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 5 para 3(2).

12 In contravention of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 5 para 3(1) or failure to give notice of vacating his office as required by Sch 5 para 3(2).

13 Such a person is liable, on conviction on indictment, to a fine (Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 5 para 3(3)(a)) or, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (Sch 5 para 3(3)(b)). As to the statutory maximum see PARA 56 note 24.

In the case of continued contravention he is liable on a second or subsequent summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £100 in respect of each day on which the contravention is continued (instead of the fine mentioned in Sch 5 para 3(3)(b)): Sch 5 para 3(4). In proceedings against a person for an offence under Sch 5 para 3, it is a defence for him to show that he did not know and had no reason to believe that he was, or had become, ineligible for appointment: Sch 5 para 3(5).

659. Appointment of auditors.

Every company must appoint an auditor or auditors<sup>1</sup>. A company must, at each general meeting<sup>2</sup> at which the company's annual report<sup>3</sup> is laid, appoint an auditor or auditors to hold office from the conclusion of that meeting until the conclusion of the next general meeting at which an annual report is laid<sup>4</sup>.

The first auditors of a company may be appointed by the directors<sup>5</sup> of the company at any time before the first general meeting of the company at which an annual report is laid; and auditors so appointed are to hold office until the conclusion of that meeting<sup>6</sup>. Where no such appointment is made<sup>7</sup>, the first auditors of any company may be appointed by the company in general meeting<sup>8</sup>.

No rules made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>9</sup> in regard to appointment of auditors apply in relation to open-ended investment companies<sup>10</sup>.

If, in any case, no auditors are appointed<sup>11</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>12</sup> may appoint a person to fill the vacancy<sup>13</sup>. The directors of a company, or the company in general meeting, may fill a casual vacancy in the office of auditor<sup>14</sup>. While such a vacancy continues, any surviving or continuing auditor or auditors may continue to act<sup>15</sup>.

Where a partnership constituted under the law of England and Wales or Northern Ireland, or under the law of any country or territory in which a partnership is not a legal person, is appointed as auditor of a company<sup>16</sup>:

1643 (1) the appointment is, unless the contrary intention appears, an appointment of the partnership as such and not of the partners<sup>17</sup>;

1644 (2) where the partnership ceases, the appointment is to be treated as extending to any partnership which succeeds to the practice of that partnership and is eligible for the appointment<sup>18</sup> and any person who succeeds to that practice having previously carried it on in partnership and is eligible for the appointment<sup>19</sup>;

1645 (3) where the partnership ceases and no person succeeds to the appointment under head (2) above<sup>20</sup>, the appointment may with the consent of the company be treated as extending to a partnership or other person eligible for the appointment who succeeds to the business of the former partnership or to such part of it as is agreed by the company to be treated as comprising the appointment<sup>21</sup>.

1 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 5 para 4(1). The appointment must be made in accordance with Sch 5 para 4.

2 As to general meetings see PARA 641.

3 As to the meaning of 'annual report' see PARA 657 note 4.

4 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 5 para 4(2) (amended by SI 2005/923). The Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 5 para 4(2) is subject to Sch 5 para 4(6), (7).

On the date on which the holding of an annual general meeting is dispensed with in accordance with reg 37A (see PARA 641), any auditor or auditors appointed in accordance with Sch 5 para 4(2) or Sch 5 para 4(3) (see the text to note 6) ceases to hold office and the directors must forthwith re-appoint the auditor or auditors or appoint a new auditor or auditors: Sch 5 para 4(6) (Sch 5 para 4(6), (7) added by SI 2005/923). The directors of any company which does not hold annual general meetings must appoint the auditor or auditors: Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 5 para 4(7) (as so added).

660. Rights of auditors.

The auditors of a company have a right of access at all times to the company's books, accounts and vouchers and are entitled to require from the company's officers<sup>1</sup> such information and explanations as they think necessary for the performance of their duties as auditors<sup>2</sup>.

An officer of a company commits an offence if he knowingly or recklessly makes to the company's auditors a statement (whether written or oral) which conveys or purports to convey any information or explanations which the auditors require, or are entitled to require, as auditors of the company<sup>3</sup> and which is misleading, false or deceptive in a material particular<sup>4</sup>.

The auditors of a company are entitled:

- 1646 (1) to receive all such notices of, and other communications relating to, any general meeting<sup>5</sup> of the company as a shareholder<sup>6</sup> of the company is entitled to receive<sup>7</sup>;
- 1647 (2) to attend any general meeting of the company<sup>8</sup>; and
- 1648 (3) to be heard at any general meeting which they attend on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns them as auditors<sup>9</sup>.

The right to attend and be heard at a meeting is exercisable in the case of a body corporate or partnership by an individual authorised by it in writing to act as its representative at the meeting<sup>10</sup>.

661. Remuneration of auditors.

The remuneration of auditors of a company who are appointed by the company in general meeting<sup>1</sup> must be fixed by the company in general meeting or in such manner as the company in general meeting may decide<sup>2</sup>.

The remuneration of auditors who are appointed by the directors<sup>3</sup> or the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup> must be fixed by the directors or the Authority, as the case may be (and is payable by the company even where it is fixed by the Authority)<sup>5</sup>.

The power of the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup> to make regulations under the Companies Act 2006<sup>7</sup> in regard to the remuneration of auditors or their associates for non-audit work in relation to company auditors is to be exercisable in relation to auditors of open-ended investment companies<sup>8</sup> for like purposes<sup>9</sup> and subject to the same conditions<sup>10</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/D. OPEN-ENDED INVESTMENT COMPANIES/(C) Corporate Code/(c) Reports and Auditors/662. Removal of auditors.

662. Removal of auditors.

A company may by resolution remove an auditor from office notwithstanding anything in any agreement between it and him<sup>1</sup>. Where a resolution removing an auditor is passed at a general meeting<sup>2</sup> of a company, the company must, not later than 14 days after the holding of the meeting, notify the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> of the passing of the resolution<sup>4</sup>.

A resolution at a general meeting of a company removing an auditor before the expiration of his period of office<sup>5</sup> or appointing as auditor a person other than the retiring auditor<sup>6</sup> is not effective unless notice of the intention to move it has been given to the open-ended investment company<sup>7</sup> at least 28 days before the meeting at which it is moved<sup>8</sup>. On receipt of notice of such an intended resolution, the company must forthwith send a copy to the person proposed to be removed or, as the case may be, to the person proposed to be appointed and to the retiring auditor<sup>9</sup>.

The auditor proposed to be removed or, as the case may be, the retiring auditor may make with respect to the intended resolution representations in writing to the company (not exceeding a reasonable length) and request their notification to the shareholders<sup>10</sup> of the company<sup>11</sup>.

The company must (unless the representations are received by the company too late for it to do so):

- 1649 (1) in any notice of the resolution given to the shareholders of the company, state the fact of the representations having been made<sup>12</sup>;
- 1650 (2) send a copy of the representations to each of the shareholders whose name appears on the register of shareholders<sup>13</sup> (other than the designated person) and to whom notice of the meeting is or has been sent<sup>14</sup>;
- 1651 (3) take such steps as FSA rules<sup>15</sup> may require for the purpose of bringing the fact that the representations have been made to the attention of the holders of any bearer shares<sup>16</sup>; and
- 1652 (4) at the request of any holder of bearer shares, provide a copy of the representations<sup>17</sup>.

If a copy of any such representations is not sent out as required because they were received too late or because of the company's default or if, for either of those reasons, any steps in head (3) or head (4) above<sup>18</sup> are not taken, the auditor may (without prejudice to his right to be heard orally) require that the representations be read out at the meeting<sup>19</sup>.

Copies of the representations need not be sent out, the steps in head (3) or head (4) above<sup>20</sup> need not be taken and the representations need not be read out at the meeting if, on the application of the company or any other person claiming to be aggrieved, the High Court is satisfied that the rights conferred<sup>21</sup> are being abused to secure needless publicity for defamatory matter; and the court may order the costs of the company on such an application to be paid in whole or in part by the auditor, notwithstanding that he is not a party to the application<sup>22</sup>.

An auditor who has been removed from office has, notwithstanding his removal, the various rights to receive notices, attend and be heard<sup>23</sup> in relation to any general meeting of the company at which his term of office would otherwise have expired or at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by his removal<sup>24</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/D. OPEN-ENDED INVESTMENT COMPANIES/(C) Corporate Code/(c) Reports and Auditors/663. Resignation of auditors.

663. Resignation of auditors.

An auditor of a company may resign his office by depositing a notice in writing to that effect at the company's head office<sup>1</sup>. Such a notice is not effective unless it is accompanied by the required statement<sup>2</sup>. An effective notice of resignation operates to bring the auditor's term of office to an end as of the date on which the notice is deposited or on such later date as may be specified in it<sup>3</sup>. The company must, not later than 14 days after the deposit of a notice of resignation, send a copy of the notice to the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup>.

Where a notice of resignation of an auditor is accompanied by a statement of circumstances which he considers ought to be brought to the attention of the shareholders or creditors of the company<sup>5</sup>, the auditor may deposit with the notice a signed requisition that a general meeting<sup>6</sup> of the company be convened forthwith for the purpose of receiving and considering such explanation of the circumstances connected with his resignation as he may wish to place before the meeting<sup>7</sup>.

The company must, not later than 21 days after the date of the deposit of such a requisition<sup>8</sup>, proceed to convene a meeting for a day not later than 28 days after the date on which the notice convening the meeting is given<sup>9</sup>.

The auditor may request the company to circulate a statement in writing (not exceeding a reasonable length) of the circumstances connected with his resignation to each of the shareholders of the company whose name appears on the register of shareholders<sup>10</sup> (other than the designated person): (1) before the meeting convened on his requisition<sup>11</sup>; or (2) before any general meeting at which his term of office would otherwise have expired or at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by his resignation<sup>12</sup>, and to take such steps as FSA rules<sup>13</sup> may require for the purpose of bringing the fact that the statement has been made to the attention of the holders of any bearer shares<sup>14</sup>.

The company must (unless the statement is received by it too late for it to do so):

- 1653 (a) in any notice or advertisement of the meeting given or made to shareholders of the company, state the fact of the statement having been made<sup>15</sup>;
- 1654 (b) send a copy of the statement to every shareholder of the company to whom notice of the meeting is or has been sent<sup>16</sup>; and
- 1655 (c) at the request of any holder of bearer shares, provide a copy of the statement<sup>17</sup>.

If a copy of the statement is not sent out or provided as required because it was received too late or because of the company's default, the auditor may (without prejudice to his right to be heard orally) require that the statement be read out at the meeting<sup>18</sup>.

Copies of a statement need not be sent out or provided and the statement need not be read out at the meeting if, on the application of the company or any other person claiming to be aggrieved, the High Court is satisfied that the rights conferred<sup>19</sup> are being abused to secure needless publicity for defamatory matter; and the court may order the costs of the company on such an application to be paid in whole or in part by the auditor, notwithstanding that he is not a party to the application<sup>20</sup>.

An auditor who has resigned has, notwithstanding his removal, the various rights to receive notices, attend and be heard<sup>21</sup> in relation to any such general meeting of the company as is mentioned in head (1) or head (2) above<sup>22</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/D. OPEN-ENDED INVESTMENT COMPANIES/(C) Corporate Code/(c) Reports and Auditors/664. Statement by auditor ceasing to hold office.

664. Statement by auditor ceasing to hold office.

Where an auditor ceases for any reason to hold office, he must deposit at the head office of the company a statement of any circumstances connected with his ceasing to hold office which he considers should be brought to the attention of the shareholders<sup>1</sup> or creditors of the company or, if he considers that there are no such circumstances, a statement that there are none<sup>2</sup>.

The statement must be deposited:

- 1656 (1) in the case of resignation, along with the notice of resignation<sup>3</sup>;
- 1657 (2) in the case of failure to seek re-appointment, not less than 14 days before the end of the time allowed for next appointing auditors<sup>4</sup>; and
- 1658 (3) in any other case, not later than the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the date on which he ceases to hold office<sup>5</sup>.

If the statement is of circumstances which the auditor considers should be brought to the attention of the shareholders or creditors of the company, the company must, not later than 14 days after the deposit of the statement, either: (a) send a copy of the statement to each of the shareholders whose name appears on the register of shareholders<sup>6</sup> (other than the designated person) and take such steps as FSA rules<sup>7</sup> may require for the purpose of bringing the fact that the statement has been made to the attention of the holders of any bearer shares<sup>8</sup>; or (b) apply to the court<sup>9</sup>. Where an application is made under head (b) above<sup>10</sup>, the company must notify the auditor<sup>11</sup>.

Unless the auditor receives notice of an application to the court before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the day on which he deposited the statement, he must, not later than seven days after the end of that period, send a copy of the statement to the Financial Services Authority<sup>12</sup>.

If the court is satisfied that the auditor is using the statement to secure needless publicity for defamatory matter it must direct that copies of the statement need not be sent out and that the steps required by FSA rules need not be taken<sup>13</sup> and it may further order the company's costs on the application to be paid in whole or in part by the auditor notwithstanding that he is not a party to the application<sup>14</sup>. In addition, the company must, not later than 14 days after the court's decision, take such steps in relation to a statement setting out the effect of the order as are required by head (a) above<sup>15</sup> in relation to the statement of circumstances deposited at the company's head office<sup>16</sup>.

If the court is not so satisfied, the company must, not later than 14 days after the court's decision, send to each of the shareholders a copy of the auditor's statement and notify the auditor of the court's decision<sup>17</sup>. The auditor must, not later than seven days after receiving such a notice, send a copy of the statement to the Authority<sup>18</sup>. Where notice of appeal is filed not later than 14 days after the court's decision, any reference to that decision<sup>19</sup> is to be construed as a reference to the final determination or withdrawal of that appeal, as the case may be<sup>20</sup>.

If a person ceasing to hold office as auditor fails to comply with the requirements described above<sup>21</sup>, he is guilty of an offence<sup>22</sup>.

665. Application to court.

An open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> may apply to the court under the Companies Act 2006<sup>2</sup> for an order in respect of a particular scheme<sup>3</sup> where:

- 1659 (1) the scheme in question involves a compromise or arrangement with its shareholders<sup>4</sup> or creditors or any class of its shareholders or creditors<sup>5</sup>; and
- 1660 (2) the consideration for the transfer or each of the transfers envisaged by the scheme is to be shares<sup>6</sup> in the transferee company receivable by shareholders of the transferor company<sup>7</sup> or, where there is more than one transferor company and any one or more of them is a public company, shares in the transferee company receivable by shareholders or members of the transferor companies (as the case may be)<sup>8</sup>, in each case with or without any cash payment to shareholders<sup>9</sup>.

A public company may apply to the court under the Companies Act 1985<sup>10</sup> for an order sanctioning a particular scheme<sup>11</sup> where:

- 1661 (a) the scheme in question involves a compromise or arrangement with its members or creditors or any class of its members or creditors<sup>12</sup>; and
- 1662 (b) the consideration for the transfer or each of the transfers envisaged by the scheme is to be shares in the transferee company receivable by members of the transferor company<sup>13</sup> or where there is more than one transferor company and any one or more of them is an open-ended investment company, shares in the transferee company receivable by shareholders or members of the transferor companies (as the case may be)<sup>14</sup>, in each case with or without any cash payment to shareholders<sup>15</sup>.

2 Ie the Companies Act 2006 s 896 or s 899 (power of company to compromise with creditors and members): see COMPANIES.

An application made by virtue of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 6 para 2 or Sch 6 para 3 (see the text and notes 3-15) is treated as one to which the Companies Act 2006 Pt 27 (ss 902-941) applies (mergers and divisions of public companies), and the provisions of Pt 27 and Pt 26 (ss 895-901) (see COMPANIES) have effect accordingly, subject to the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 6 para 6 (see below): Sch 6 para 5 (substituted by SI 2008/948). The provisions of the Companies Act 2006 have effect with such modifications as are necessary or appropriate for mergers and divisions involving open-ended investment companies: Sch 6 para 6(1) (amended by SI 2008/948). In particular, any reference in those provisions to a merger by absorption, a merger by formation of a new company or a division is to be taken to be a reference to a scheme falling within the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 6 para 4(1)(a), (b) or (c) (see PARA 666): Sch 6 para 6(2) (amended by SI 2008/948). Without prejudice to the generality of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 6 para 6(1), the following references in those provisions have effect as follows, unless the context otherwise requires:

- 619 (1) any reference to a scheme is to be taken to be a reference to a scheme falling within any of the provisions of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 6 para 4(1)(a), (b) or (c) (Sch 6 para 6(3)(a));
- 620 (2) any reference to a company is to be taken to be a reference to an open-ended investment company (Sch 6 para 6(3)(b));

- 621 (3) any reference to members is to be taken to be a reference to shareholders of an open-ended investment company (Sch 6 para 6(3)(c));
- 622 (4) any reference to the registered office of a company is to be taken to be a reference to the head office of an open-ended investment company (Sch 6 para 6(3)(d));
- 623 (5) any reference to the memorandum and articles of a company is to be taken to be a reference to the instrument of incorporation of an open-ended investment company (Sch 6 para 6(3)(e));
- 624 (6) any reference to a report under the Companies Act 1985 s 103 (prospectively repealed) (non-cash consideration to be valued before allotment) (as to replacement provisions see the Companies Act 2006 ss 593-595) (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARAS 1120-1121) is to be taken to be a reference to any report with respect to the valuation of any non-cash consideration given for shares in an open-ended investment company which may be required by FSA rules (Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 6 para 6(3)(f));
- 625 (7) any reference to annual accounts is to be taken to be a reference to the accounts contained in the annual report of an open-ended investment company (Sch 6 para 6(3)(g));
- 626 (8) any reference to the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 as to balance sheets forming part of a company's annual accounts is to be taken to be a reference to any requirements arising by virtue of FSA rules (see PARA 622 note 6) as to balance sheets drawn up for the purposes of the accounts contained in the annual report of an open-ended investment company (Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 6 para 6(3)(i) (amended by SI 2008/948));
- 627 (9) any reference to paid up capital is to be taken to be a reference to the share capital of an open-ended investment company (Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, Sch 6 para 6(3)(j)).

- 1663 (1) any scheme under which the undertaking, property and liabilities of an open-ended investment company<sup>2</sup> are to be transferred to another such company, other than one formed for the purpose of, or in connection with the scheme<sup>3</sup>;
- 1664 (2) any scheme under which the undertaking, property and liabilities of two or more bodies corporate, each of which is either an open-ended investment company<sup>4</sup> or a public company<sup>5</sup>, are to be transferred to an open-ended investment company formed for the purpose of, or in connection with, the scheme<sup>6</sup>;
- 1665 (3) any scheme under which the undertaking, property and liabilities of an open-ended investment company or a public company are to be divided among and transferred to two or more open-ended investment companies whether or not formed for the purpose of, or in connection with, the scheme<sup>7</sup>.

The court cannot sanction a scheme under which the whole or any part of the undertaking, property or liabilities of an open-ended investment company may be transferred to any person other than another such company<sup>8</sup>.

(e) Provision for Employees on Cessation or Transfer of Business

667. Power to provide for employees on cessation or transfer of business.

The powers of an open-ended investment company<sup>1</sup> include power to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by the company, that is to say, provision in connection with the cessation or the transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of the company<sup>2</sup>. This power<sup>3</sup> is exercisable notwithstanding that its exercise is not in the best interests of the company<sup>4</sup>.

The power which a company may exercise by virtue of the provisions described above<sup>5</sup> may only be exercised by the company:

- 1666 (1) in a case not falling within head (2) or head (3) below<sup>6</sup>, if sanctioned by a resolution of the company in general meeting<sup>7</sup>;
- 1667 (2) if so authorised by the instrument of incorporation<sup>8</sup>, in the case of a company that has only one director<sup>9</sup>, by a resolution of that director<sup>10</sup> and, in any other case, by such resolution of directors as is required by FSA rules<sup>11</sup>; or
- 1668 (3) if the instrument of incorporation requires the exercise of the power to be sanctioned by a resolution of the company in general meeting for which more than a simple majority of the shareholders<sup>12</sup> voting is necessary, by a resolution of that majority<sup>13</sup>.

In any case the power can only be exercised after compliance with any other requirements of the instrument of incorporation applicable to the exercise of the power<sup>14</sup>.

(D) THE REGISTER, RECORDS AND DOCUMENTS

668. Register of open-ended investment companies.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must maintain a register of open-ended investment companies<sup>2</sup>. The Authority may keep the register in any form it thinks fit provided that it is possible to inspect the information contained on it and to obtain a copy of that information (or any part of it) for inspection<sup>3</sup>.

The Authority must allocate to every open-ended investment company a number, which is to be known as the company's registered number<sup>4</sup>. Companies' registered numbers must be in such form, consisting of one or more sequences of figures or letters, as the Authority may from time to time determine<sup>5</sup>. The Authority may, upon adopting a new form of registered number, make such changes of existing registered numbers (including numbers allocated by the appropriate registrar) as appear to it to be necessary<sup>6</sup>. A change in a company's registered number has effect from the date on which the company is notified by the Authority of the change<sup>7</sup>.

Any document which is required by the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>8</sup> to be delivered to the Authority in order to be recorded on the register<sup>9</sup> must be delivered in such form as the Authority may from time to time specify<sup>10</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebooks, Collective Investment Schemes (COLL). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

3 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 71(2). Any requirement of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, as to the supply by the Authority of a document may, if the Authority thinks fit, be satisfied by the communication of the information in any non-legible form the Authority thinks appropriate: reg 76.

10 Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 73. Any document which is delivered to the Authority under the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, and relates to an open-ended investment company (whether already registered or to be registered) whose instrument of incorporation states that its head office is to be situated in Wales, may be in Welsh but must be accompanied by a certified translation into English: reg 77(1), (2). For the purposes of reg 77, 'certified translation' means a translation which is certified in the manner specified in FSA rules to be a correct translation: reg 77(5). As to the meaning of 'FSA rules' see PARA 622 note 6. As to instruments of incorporation see PARA 624. The requirement for a translation does not apply to documents of such description as may be specified in FSA rules (see reg 77(3)(a)) or to documents in a form prescribed by virtue of the Welsh Language Act 1993 s 26 (see COMPANIES vol 14 (2009) PARA 165) in Welsh, or partly in Welsh and partly in English (see the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 77(3)(b)). An open-ended investment company whose instrument of incorporation states that its head office is to be situated in Wales may deliver to the Authority a certified translation into Welsh of any document in English which relates to the company and which is or has been delivered to the Authority: reg 77(4).

669. Company records.

The information contained in a document delivered to the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> under any provision of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>2</sup> may be recorded and kept by the Authority in any form it thinks fit, provided that it is possible to inspect the information and produce a copy of it in legible form<sup>3</sup>.

The originals of documents delivered to the Authority<sup>4</sup> in legible form must be kept by it for ten years after which they may be destroyed<sup>5</sup>. Where a company has been dissolved, the Authority may, at any time after the expiration of two years from the date of the dissolution, direct that any records in its custody relating to the company may be removed to the Public Record Office; and records in respect of which such a direction is given must be disposed of in accordance with the enactments relating to the Public Record Office and the rules made under them<sup>6</sup>.

Any person may inspect any records kept by the Authority for the purposes of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>7</sup> and may require a copy, in such form as the Authority considers appropriate, of any information contained in those records<sup>8</sup> or a certified copy of, or extract from, any such record<sup>9</sup>. The right of inspection extends to the originals of documents delivered to the Authority in legible form only where the record kept by the Authority of the contents of the document is illegible or unavailable<sup>10</sup>.

A copy of or extract from a record kept by the Authority under the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>11</sup>, on which is indorsed a certificate signed by a member of the Authority's staff authorised by it for that purpose certifying that it is an accurate record of the contents of any document delivered to the Authority, is in all legal proceedings admissible in evidence as of equal validity with the original document and as evidence of any fact stated in it of which direct oral evidence would be admissible<sup>12</sup>.

No process for compelling the production of a document kept by the Authority under the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>13</sup> is to issue from any court except with the leave of the court; and any such process must bear on it a statement that it is issued with the leave of the court<sup>14</sup>.

Any of the following persons, that is to say: (1) a person who contravenes any provision of the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001<sup>1</sup>; and (2) an open-ended investment company<sup>2</sup> (including any director<sup>3</sup> or depositary<sup>4</sup> of such a company) which contravenes any provision of FSA rules<sup>5</sup>, is to be treated as having contravened rules made under the general rule-making power in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>6</sup>.

The provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 relating to offences by bodies corporate<sup>7</sup>, and those relating to jurisdiction and procedure in respect of offences<sup>8</sup>, apply to offences under the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001 as they apply to offences under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>9</sup>.

E. RECOGNISED OVERSEAS SCHEMES

(A) SCHEMES CONSTITUTED IN OTHER EEA STATES

672. Schemes constituted in other EEA states.

A collective investment scheme<sup>1</sup> constituted in another EEA state<sup>2</sup> is a recognised scheme<sup>3</sup> if: (1) it satisfies the prescribed<sup>4</sup> requirements<sup>5</sup>; and (2) not less than two months before inviting persons in the United Kingdom to become participants<sup>6</sup> in the scheme, the operator<sup>7</sup> of the scheme gives notice to the Financial Services Authority<sup>8</sup> of his intention to do so, specifying the way in which the invitation is to be made<sup>9</sup>. However, these provisions do not make the scheme a recognised scheme if within two months of receiving the notice<sup>10</sup> the Authority notifies: (a) the operator of the scheme; and (b) the authorities of the state in question who are responsible for the authorisation of collective investment schemes, that the way in which the invitation is to be made does not comply with the law in force in the United Kingdom<sup>11</sup>.

The notice to be given to the Authority<sup>12</sup> must: (i) be accompanied by a certificate from the authorities mentioned in head (b) above to the effect that the scheme complies with the conditions necessary for it to enjoy the rights conferred by any relevant Community instrument; (ii) contain the address of a place in the United Kingdom for the service on the operator of notices or other documents<sup>13</sup> required or authorised to be served on him under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000; and (iii) contain or be accompanied by such other information and documents as may be prescribed<sup>14</sup>.

The operator of a recognised scheme may give written notice to the Authority that he desires the scheme to be no longer recognised<sup>15</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'collective investment scheme' see PARA 603.

2 As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 264, a collective investment scheme is constituted in another EEA state if: (1) it is constituted under the law of that state by a contract or under a trust and is managed by a body corporate incorporated under that law; or (2) it takes the form of an open-ended investment company incorporated under that law: s 264(5). As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11. As to the meaning of 'open-ended investment company' see PARA 603.

3 As to the meaning of 'recognised scheme' see PARA 603.

4 'Prescribed' means prescribed in regulations made by the Treasury: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 417(1). As to the regulations made see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes Constituted in Other EEA States) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2383. As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 see PARA 67 note 1. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 264(1)(a). The requirements prescribed for the purposes of s 264 are that a collective investment scheme is one which, in accordance with the UCITS Directive (ie EEC Council Directive 85/611 (OJ L375, 31.12.85, p 3) on the coordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to undertakings for collective investment in transferable securities), is an undertaking for collective investment in transferable securities subject to that directive (the 'undertaking'): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes Constituted in Other EEA States) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2383, reg 3 (amended by SI 2003/2066).

6 As to the meaning of 'participants' see PARA 603.

7 As to the meaning of 'operator' see PARA 606 note 16.

8 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebooks, Collective Investment Schemes (COLL). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

10 Ie under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 264(1): see the text to notes 1-9.

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 264(2). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. A notice given by the Authority under s 264(2) must: (1) give the reasons for which the Authority considers that the law in force in the United Kingdom will not be complied with; and (2) specify a reasonable period (which may not be less than 28 days) within which any person to whom it is given may make representations to the Authority: s 264(4).

If any representations are made to the Authority, before the period for making representations has ended, by a person to whom a notice was given by the Authority under s 264(2), then the Authority must, within a reasonable period, decide in the light of those representations whether or not to withdraw its notice: s 265(1), (2). If the Authority withdraws its notice the scheme is a recognised scheme from the date on which the notice is withdrawn: s 265(3). If the Authority decides not to withdraw its notice, it must give a decision notice to each person to whom the notice under s 264(2) was given: s 265(4). As to decision notices see PARA 770. The operator of the scheme to whom the decision notice is given may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal: s 265(5). As to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARA 43 et seq.

13 As to the meaning of 'document' see PARA 10 note 10.

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 264(3). The notice to be given to the Authority under s 264(1) must contain or be accompanied by: (1) the fund rules or instrument of incorporation of the undertaking (see note 5); (2) its full and simplified prospectus within the meaning of the UCITS Directive (ie EEC Council Directive 85/611 (OJ L375, 31.12.85, p 3)) Section VI; and (3) where appropriate, its latest annual report and any subsequent half-yearly report: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Collective Investment Schemes Constituted in Other EEA States) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2383, reg 4 (amended by SI 2003/2066).

15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 264(6). On the giving of notice under s 264(6), the scheme ceases to be a recognised scheme: s 264(7).

673. Disapplication of certain rules.

Apart from: (1) financial promotion rules<sup>1</sup>; and (2) rules relating to facilities and information in the United Kingdom<sup>2</sup>, rules made by the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 do not apply to the operator<sup>4</sup>, trustee<sup>5</sup> or depositary<sup>6</sup> of a recognised scheme<sup>7</sup> in relation to the carrying on by him of regulated activities<sup>8</sup> for which he has permission in that capacity<sup>9</sup>.

1 As to financial promotion rules see PARA 29.

2 I.e. rules under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 283(1): see PARA 680. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

3 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebooks, Collective Investment Schemes (COLL). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

4 As to the meaning of 'operator' see PARA 606 note 16.

5 As to the meaning of 'trustee' see PARA 606 note 16.

6 As to the meaning of 'depositary' see PARA 606 note 18.

8 As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 266(1). However s 266(1) does not affect the application of rules to an operator of a scheme if the operator is an EEA firm falling within Sch 3 para 5(f) (ie a management company) (see PARA 315 note 1) who qualifies for authorisation under Sch 3: s 266(1A) (added by SI 2003/2066).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/E. RECOGNISED OVERSEAS SCHEMES/(A) Schemes Constituted in Other EEA States/674. Power to suspend promotion of scheme.

674. Power to suspend promotion of scheme.

If it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> that the operator<sup>2</sup> of a scheme<sup>3</sup> has communicated an invitation or inducement in relation to the scheme in a manner contrary to financial promotion rules<sup>4</sup>, the Authority may give a direction suspending promotion of the scheme<sup>5</sup>.

A direction<sup>6</sup> takes effect: (1) immediately, if the notice given under head (a) below states that that is the case; (2) on such date as may be specified in the notice; or (3) if no date is specified in the notice, when the matter to which it relates is no longer open to review<sup>7</sup>. A direction may be expressed to take effect immediately (or on a specified date) only if the Authority, having regard to its reasons for exercising its power<sup>8</sup>, considers that it is necessary for the direction to take effect immediately (or on that date)<sup>9</sup>. If the Authority proposes to give a direction, or gives such a direction with immediate effect, it must: (a) give the operator of the scheme concerned written notice; and (b) inform the competent authorities in the scheme's home state of its proposal or (as the case may be) of the direction<sup>10</sup>. The notice must:

- 1669 (i) give details of the direction<sup>11</sup>;
- 1670 (ii) inform the operator of when the direction takes effect<sup>12</sup>;
- 1671 (iii) state the Authority's reasons for giving the direction and for its determination as to when the direction takes effect<sup>13</sup>;
- 1672 (iv) inform the operator that he may make representations to the Authority within such period as may be specified in it (whether or not he has referred the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal)<sup>14</sup>; and
- 1673 (v) inform him of his right to refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>15</sup>.

If, having considered any representations made by the operator, the Authority decides to give the direction in the way proposed or if it decides, where a direction has been given, not to revoke the direction, the Authority must give the operator of the scheme concerned written notice, and inform the competent authorities in the scheme's home state of the direction<sup>16</sup>. If, having considered any representations made by a person to whom the notice was given, the Authority decides not to give the direction in the way proposed, to give the direction in a way other than that proposed, or to revoke a direction which has effect, the Authority must give the operator of the scheme concerned written notice, and inform the competent authorities in the scheme's home state of its decision<sup>17</sup>. The provisions described above<sup>18</sup> apply to the variation of a direction on the Authority's own initiative as they apply to the giving of a direction<sup>19</sup>.

If, on an application<sup>20</sup>, the Authority proposes to vary a direction otherwise than in accordance with the application, or to refuse the application, it must give the operator of the scheme concerned a warning notice<sup>21</sup>. If, on such an application, the Authority decides to vary a direction otherwise than in accordance with the application, or to refuse the application, it must give the operator of the scheme concerned a decision notice<sup>22</sup>. If the application is refused, the operator of the scheme may refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>23</sup>. If, on such an application, the Authority decides to grant the application it must give the operator of the scheme concerned written notice<sup>24</sup>. If the Authority decides on its own initiative to revoke a direction<sup>25</sup>, it must give the operator of the scheme concerned written notice<sup>26</sup>. The Authority must inform the competent authorities in the scheme's home state of any notice given<sup>27</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebooks, Collective Investment Schemes (COLL). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to the meaning of 'operator' see PARA 606 note 16.

3 'Scheme' means a scheme which is a recognised scheme by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 264 (see PARA 672): s 267(8).

4 As to financial promotion rules see PARA 29.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 267(1), (2). The Authority may direct: (1) that the exemption for a recognised scheme from the restriction on promotion in s 238(1) provided by s 238(4)(c) (see PARA 606) is not to apply in relation to the scheme; and (2) that s 238(5) (see PARA 606) is not to apply with respect to things done in relation to the scheme: s 267(2).

A direction under s 267(2) has effect: (a) for a specified period; (b) until the occurrence of a specified event; or (c) until specified conditions are complied with: s 267(3). 'Specified', in relation to a direction, means specified in it: s 267(9). The Authority may, either on its own initiative or on the application of the operator of the scheme concerned, vary a direction given under s 267(2) if it appears to the Authority that the direction should take effect or continue in force in a different form: s 267(4). The Authority may, either on its own initiative or on the application of the operator of the recognised scheme concerned, revoke a direction given under s 267(2) if it appears to the Authority that the conditions specified in the direction have been complied with, or that it is no longer necessary for the direction to take effect or continue in force: s 267(5). If an event is specified, the direction ceases to have effect (unless revoked earlier) on the occurrence of that event: s 267(6).

For the purposes of ss 267-269: (i) the scheme's home state is the EEA state in which the scheme is constituted (within the meaning given by s 264 (see PARA 672)); (ii) the competent authorities in the scheme's home state are the authorities in that state who are responsible for the authorisation of collective investment schemes: s 267(7). As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. As to the meaning of 'collective investment scheme' see PARA 603.

(B) SCHEMES AUTHORISED IN DESIGNATED COUNTRIES AND TERRITORIES, AND INDIVIDUALLY RECOGNISED SCHEMES

675. Schemes authorised in designated countries or territories.

A collective investment scheme<sup>1</sup> which is not a scheme constituted in another EEA state<sup>2</sup> but is managed in, and authorised under the law of, a country or territory outside the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup> is a recognised scheme<sup>4</sup> if<sup>5</sup>:

- 1674 (1) that country or territory is so designated<sup>6</sup> by an order made by the Treasury<sup>7</sup>;
- 1675 (2) the scheme is of a class specified by the order<sup>8</sup>;
- 1676 (3) the operator<sup>9</sup> of the scheme has given written notice to the Financial Services Authority<sup>10</sup> that he wishes it to be recognised<sup>11</sup>; and
- 1677 (4) either: (a) the Authority, by written notice, has given its approval to the scheme's being recognised; or (b) two months, beginning with the date on which notice was given under head (3) above, have expired without the operator receiving a warning notice from the Authority<sup>12</sup>.

The Treasury may not make an order designating any country or territory for the purposes of these provisions unless satisfied: (i) that the law and practice under which relevant collective investment schemes<sup>13</sup> are authorised and supervised in that country or territory affords to investors in the United Kingdom protection at least equivalent to that provided for them by or under Part XVII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>14</sup> in the case of comparable authorised schemes<sup>15</sup>; and (ii) that adequate arrangements exist, or will exist, for co-operation between the authorities of the country or territory responsible for the authorisation and supervision of relevant collective investment schemes and the Authority<sup>16</sup>. If the Treasury is considering whether to make an order designating a country or territory for the purposes of these provisions: (A) the Treasury must ask the Authority for a report on the law and practice of that country or territory in relation to the authorisation and supervision of relevant collective investment schemes and on any existing or proposed arrangements for co-operation between it and the authorities responsible in that country or territory for the authorisation and supervision of relevant collective investment schemes<sup>17</sup>; (B) the Authority must provide the Treasury with such a report<sup>18</sup>; and (c) the Treasury must have regard to it in deciding whether to make the order<sup>19</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to refuse approval of a scheme's being a recognised scheme<sup>20</sup>, it must give the operator of the scheme a warning notice<sup>21</sup>. In order to be valid, the warning notice must be received by the operator before the end of two months beginning with the date on which notice was given to the Authority requesting it to recognise the scheme<sup>22</sup>. If, having given a warning notice, the Authority decides to refuse approval, it must give the operator of the scheme a decision notice<sup>23</sup>; and the operator may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>24</sup>.

676. Individually recognised overseas schemes.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may, on the application of the operator<sup>2</sup> of a collective investment scheme<sup>3</sup> which: (1) is managed in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup>; (2) is not a scheme constituted in another EEA state<sup>5</sup>; (3) is not managed in a designated country or territory<sup>6</sup> or, if it is so managed, is of a class not specified by the designation order; and (4) appears to the Authority to satisfy the following requirements, make an order declaring the scheme to be a recognised scheme<sup>7</sup>. The requirements are that:

- 1678 (a) adequate protection must be afforded to participants<sup>8</sup> in the scheme<sup>9</sup>;
- 1679 (b) the arrangements for the scheme's constitution and management must be adequate<sup>10</sup>;
- 1680 (c) the powers and duties of the operator and, if the scheme has a trustee<sup>11</sup> or depositary<sup>12</sup>, of the trustee or depositary must be adequate<sup>13</sup>;
- 1681 (d) the scheme must take the form of an open-ended investment company or (if it does not take that form) the operator must be a body corporate<sup>14</sup>;
- 1682 (e) the operator of the scheme must: (i) if an authorised person<sup>15</sup>, have permission to act as operator; (ii) if not an authorised person, be a fit and proper person to act as operator<sup>16</sup>;
- 1683 (f) the trustee or depositary (if any) of the scheme must: (i) if an authorised person, have permission to act as trustee or depositary; (ii) if not an authorised person, be a fit and proper person to act as trustee or depositary<sup>17</sup>;
- 1684 (g) the operator and the trustee or depositary (if any) of the scheme must be able and willing to co-operate with the Authority by the sharing of information and in other ways<sup>18</sup>;
- 1685 (h) the name of the scheme must not be undesirable or misleading<sup>19</sup>;
- 1686 (i) the purposes of the scheme must be reasonably capable of being successfully carried into effect<sup>20</sup>;
- 1687 (j) the participants must be entitled to have their units<sup>21</sup> redeemed in accordance with the scheme at a price related to the net value of the property to which the units relate and determined in accordance with the scheme<sup>22</sup>.

677. Applications for recognition of individual schemes.

An application<sup>1</sup> for an order declaring a scheme to be a recognised scheme<sup>2</sup> must be made to the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> by the operator<sup>4</sup> of the scheme<sup>5</sup>. The application must: (1) be made in such manner as the Authority may direct; (2) contain the address of a place in the United Kingdom<sup>6</sup> for the service on the operator of notices or other documents<sup>7</sup> required or authorised to be served on him under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000; (3) contain or be accompanied by such information as the Authority may reasonably require for the purpose of determining the application<sup>8</sup>. At any time after receiving an application and before determining it, the Authority may require the applicant to provide it with such further information as it reasonably considers necessary to enable it to determine the application<sup>9</sup>. Different directions may be given, and different requirements imposed, in relation to different applications<sup>10</sup>. The Authority may require an applicant to present information which he is required to give under the provisions described above in such form, or to verify it in such a way, as the Authority may direct<sup>11</sup>.

An application<sup>12</sup> must be determined by the Authority before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which it receives the completed application<sup>13</sup>. The Authority may determine an incomplete application if it considers it appropriate to do so; and it must in any event determine such an application within 12 months beginning with the date on which it first receives the application<sup>14</sup>. If the Authority makes an order declaring a scheme to be a recognised scheme<sup>15</sup>, it must give written notice of the order to the applicant<sup>16</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to refuse an application<sup>17</sup> it must give the applicant a warning notice<sup>18</sup>. If the Authority decides to refuse the application it must give the applicant a decision notice<sup>19</sup>, and the applicant may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>20</sup>.

At least one month before any replacement of the operator, trustee<sup>7</sup> or depositary<sup>8</sup> of such a scheme, notice of the proposed replacement must be given to the Authority by the operator, trustee or depositary (as the case may be), or by the person who is to replace him<sup>9</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/E. RECOGNISED OVERSEAS SCHEMES/(B) Schemes Authorised in Designated Countries and Territories, and Individually Recognised Schemes/679. Requirements for schemes authorised in designated countries or territories and for individually recognised schemes.

679. Requirements for schemes authorised in designated countries or territories and for individually recognised schemes.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may make rules<sup>2</sup> imposing duties or liabilities on the operator<sup>3</sup> of a scheme authorised in a designated country or territory or an individually recognised scheme<sup>4</sup> for purposes corresponding to those for which rules may be made<sup>5</sup> in relation to authorised unit trust schemes<sup>6</sup>.

The Authority may direct that a scheme is to cease to be recognised<sup>7</sup> or revoke a recognition order<sup>8</sup> if it appears to the Authority<sup>9</sup>:

- 1688 (1) that the operator, trustee<sup>10</sup> or depositary<sup>11</sup> of the scheme has contravened a requirement imposed on him by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>12</sup>;
- 1689 (2) that the operator, trustee or depositary of the scheme has, in purported compliance with any such requirement, knowingly or recklessly given the Authority information which is false or misleading in a material particular<sup>13</sup>;
- 1690 (3) in the case of an order<sup>14</sup>, that one or more of the requirements for the making of the order are no longer satisfied<sup>15</sup>; or
- 1691 (4) that none of heads (1) to (3) above applies, but it is undesirable in the interests of the participants<sup>16</sup> or potential participants that the scheme should continue to be recognised<sup>17</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to give a direction<sup>18</sup> or to make an order<sup>19</sup> revoking a recognition order, it must give a warning notice to the operator and (if any) the trustee or depositary of the scheme<sup>20</sup>. If the Authority decides to give such a direction or make such an order it must without delay give a decision notice<sup>21</sup> to the operator and (if any) the trustee or depositary of the scheme; and the operator or the trustee or depositary may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>22</sup>.

If it appears to the Financial Services Authority that: (a) the operator, trustee or depositary of a relevant recognised scheme<sup>23</sup> has contravened, or is likely to contravene, a requirement imposed on him by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000; (b) the operator, trustee or depositary of such a scheme has, in purported compliance with any such requirement, knowingly or recklessly given the Authority information which is false or misleading in a material particular; (c) one or more of the requirements for the recognition of a scheme<sup>24</sup> are no longer satisfied; or (d) none of heads (a) to (c) above applies, but the exercise of the power to give directions<sup>25</sup> is desirable in order to protect the interests of participants or potential participants in a relevant recognised scheme who are in the United Kingdom, it may direct that the scheme is not to be a recognised scheme for a specified period or until the occurrence of a specified event or until specified conditions are complied with<sup>26</sup>.

A direction takes effect: (i) immediately, if the notice given by the Authority<sup>27</sup> states that that is the case; (ii) on such date as may be specified in the notice; or (iii) if no date is specified in the notice, when the matter to which it relates is no longer open to review<sup>28</sup>. A direction may be expressed to take effect immediately (or on a specified date) only if the Authority, having regard to the ground on which it is exercising its power<sup>29</sup>, considers that it is necessary for the direction to take effect immediately (or on that date)<sup>30</sup>. If the Authority proposes to give a direction<sup>31</sup>, or gives such a direction with immediate effect, it must give separate written notice to the operator and (if any) the trustee or depositary of the scheme concerned<sup>32</sup>. The notice must: (A) give details of the direction; (B) inform the person to whom it is given of when the direction takes effect; (C) state the Authority's reasons for giving the direction and for its determination as to when the direction takes effect; (D) inform the person to whom it is given that he may make representations to the Authority within such period as may be specified in it (whether or not he has referred the matter to the Tribunal); and (E) inform him of his right to refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>33</sup>. The Authority may extend the period allowed under the notice for making representations<sup>34</sup>. If, having considered any representations made by a person to whom the notice was given, the Authority decides to give the direction in the way proposed, or if it decides, where a direction has been given, not to revoke the direction, it must give separate written notice to the operator and (if any) the trustee or depositary of the scheme concerned<sup>35</sup>. If, having considered any representations made by a person to whom the notice was given, the Authority decides not to give the direction in the way proposed, to give the direction in a way other than that proposed, or to revoke a direction which has effect, it must give separate written notice to the operator and (if any) the trustee or depositary of the scheme concerned<sup>36</sup>. The provisions described above<sup>37</sup> apply to the variation of a direction on the Authority's own initiative as they apply to the giving of a direction<sup>38</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/F. POWER TO INVESTIGATE/682. The power to investigate in relation to open-ended investment companies.

F. POWER TO INVESTIGATE

682. The power to investigate in relation to open-ended investment companies.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> or the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> may appoint one or more competent persons to investigate and report on the affairs of, or of any director or depositary<sup>3</sup> of, an open-ended investment company<sup>4</sup> if it appears to either of them that it is in the interests of shareholders<sup>5</sup> or potential shareholders of the company to do so or that the matter is of public concern<sup>6</sup>.

A person so appointed<sup>7</sup> to investigate the affairs of, or of any director or depositary of, a company may also, if he thinks it necessary for the purposes of that investigation, investigate the affairs of (or of the directors, depositary, trustee or operator of):

- 1692 (1) an open-ended investment company, the directors of which include any of the directors of the company whose affairs are being investigated as described above<sup>8</sup>;
- 1693 (2) an open-ended investment company, the directors of which include any of the directors of the depositary whose affairs are being so investigated<sup>9</sup>;
- 1694 (3) an open-ended investment company, the depositary of which is: (a) the same as the depositary of the company whose affairs are being so investigated<sup>10</sup>; or (b) the depositary whose affairs are being so investigated<sup>11</sup>;
- 1695 (4) an open-ended investment company, the directors of which include: (a) the director whose affairs are being so investigated<sup>12</sup>; or (b) any director of a body corporate which is the director whose affairs are being so investigated<sup>13</sup>;
- 1696 (5) a collective investment scheme<sup>14</sup>, the manager, depositary or operator of which is a director of the company whose affairs are being so investigated<sup>15</sup>;
- 1697 (6) a collective investment scheme, the trustee of which is: (a) the same as the depositary of the company whose affairs are being so investigated<sup>16</sup>; or (b) the depositary whose affairs are being so investigated<sup>17</sup>; or
- 1698 (7) a collective investment scheme, the manager, depositary or operator of which is: (a) the director whose affairs are being so investigated<sup>18</sup>; or (b) a director of a body corporate which is the director whose affairs are being so investigated<sup>19</sup>.

If the person ('A') appointed to conduct an investigation<sup>20</sup> considers that a person ('B') is or may be able to give information which is relevant to the investigation, A may require B:

- 1699 (i) to produce to A any documents in B's possession or under his control which appear to A to be relevant to that investigation<sup>21</sup>;
- 1700 (ii) to attend before A<sup>22</sup>; and
- 1701 (iii) otherwise to give A all such assistance in connection with the investigation which B is reasonably able to give<sup>23</sup>.

It is B's duty to comply with that requirement<sup>24</sup>.

Certain provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 relating to investigations apply in certain circumstances<sup>25</sup>.

No person may be required<sup>26</sup> to disclose information or produce a document in respect of which he owes an obligation of confidence by virtue of carrying on a banking business unless:

- 1702 (A) the imposition of the requirement is authorised by the Authority or the Secretary of State (as the case may be) or the person to whom the obligation of confidence is owed<sup>27</sup>; or
- 1703 (B) the person to whom it is owed is a director or depositary of any open-ended investment company which is under investigation, or any other person whose own affairs are under investigation<sup>28</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(ii) Collective Investment Schemes/F. POWER TO INVESTIGATE/683. Power to investigate in relation to other collective investment schemes.

683. Power to investigate in relation to other collective investment schemes.

If it appears to an investigating authority<sup>1</sup> that it is in the interests of the participants<sup>2</sup> or potential participants to do so or that the matter is of public concern, the investigating authority may appoint one or more competent persons to investigate on its behalf<sup>3</sup>:

1704 (1) the affairs of, or of the manager or trustee<sup>4</sup> of, any authorised unit trust scheme<sup>5</sup>;

1705 (2) the affairs of, or of the operator<sup>6</sup>, trustee or depositary<sup>7</sup> of, any recognised scheme<sup>8</sup> so far as relating to activities carried on in the United Kingdom<sup>9</sup>; or

1706 (3) the affairs of, or of the operator, trustee or depositary of, any other collective investment scheme<sup>10</sup> except a body incorporated by virtue of regulations made in relation to open-ended investment companies<sup>11</sup>.

A person appointed<sup>12</sup> to investigate the affairs of, or of the manager, trustee, operator or depositary of, any scheme (scheme 'A'), may also, if he thinks it necessary for the purposes of that investigation, investigate: (a) the affairs of, or of the manager, trustee, operator or depositary of, any other such scheme<sup>13</sup> whose manager, trustee, operator or depositary is the same person as the manager, trustee, operator or depositary of scheme A; (b) the affairs of such other schemes and persons (including open-ended investment companies<sup>14</sup> and the directors<sup>15</sup> and depositaries of such bodies) as may be prescribed<sup>16</sup>.

If the person appointed to conduct an investigation under these provisions ('B') considers that a person ('C') is or may be able to give information which is relevant to the investigation, B may require C: (i) to produce to B any documents<sup>17</sup> in C's possession or under his control which appear to B to be relevant to the investigation; (ii) to attend before B; and (iii) otherwise to give B all assistance in connection with the investigation which C is reasonably able to give, and it is C's duty to comply with that requirement<sup>18</sup>.

AREAS/(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses/A. EXEMPTION/684. Exemption from the general prohibition.

(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses

A. EXEMPTION

684. Exemption from the general prohibition.

A recognised investment exchange<sup>1</sup> is exempt from the general prohibition<sup>2</sup> as respects any regulated activity<sup>3</sup> which is carried on as part of the exchange's business as an investment exchange<sup>4</sup> or which is carried on for the purposes of, or in connection with, the provision of clearing services by the exchange<sup>5</sup>.

A recognised clearing house<sup>6</sup> is exempt from the general prohibition as respects any regulated activity which is carried on for the purposes of, or in connection with, the provision of clearing services by the clearing house<sup>7</sup>.

1 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, 'recognised investment exchange' means an investment exchange in relation to which a recognition order is in force: ss 285(1)(a), 417(1). For the purposes of Pt XVIII (ss 285-313), 'recognition order' means an order made under s 290 (see PARA 709) or s 292 (see PARA 710): s 313(1).

2 As to the general prohibition see PARA 80.

3 As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 285(2)(a).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 285(2)(b).

6 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, 'recognised clearing house' means a clearing house in relation to which a recognition order is in force: ss 285(1)(b), 417(1).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 285(3).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses/B. RECOGNITION/(A) In general/685. Qualification for recognition.

B. RECOGNITION

(A) IN GENERAL

685. Qualification for recognition.

The Treasury<sup>1</sup> may make regulations<sup>2</sup> setting out the requirements: (1) which must be satisfied by an investment exchange or clearing house if it is to qualify as a body in respect of which the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> may make a recognition order<sup>4</sup> under Part XVIII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>5</sup>; and (2) which, if a recognition order is made, it must continue to satisfy if it is to remain a recognised body<sup>6</sup>.

However, if regulations contain provision as to the default rules<sup>7</sup> of an investment exchange or clearing house, or as to proceedings taken under such rules by such a body, they require the approval of the Secretary of State<sup>8</sup>.

In the case of an investment exchange, the above requirements<sup>9</sup> are in addition to requirements which must be satisfied by the exchange<sup>10</sup> before the Authority may make a recognition order declaring the exchange to be a recognised investment exchange<sup>11</sup>.

Requirements resulting from the provisions described above<sup>12</sup> are referred to in Part XVIII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as 'recognition requirements'<sup>13</sup>.

1 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

2 In exercise of this power the Treasury has made the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995: see also PARA 686 et seq. As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 see PARA 67 note 1.

Nothing in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, is to be construed as requiring a recognised investment exchange to limit dealings on the exchange to dealings in investments, or as requiring a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house to limit the provision of its clearing services to clearing services in respect of transactions in investments: reg 7. As to the meaning of 'recognised investment exchange' see PARA 684 note 1. As to references to dealings on an exchange see PARA 687 note 11. As to the meaning of 'investments' see PARA 688 note 6. As to the meaning of 'recognised clearing house' see PARA 684 note 6. See note 5.

3 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebooks, Recognised Investment Exchanges and Recognised Clearing Houses (REC). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

As to the power of the Authority to disallow excessive regulatory provision by recognised investment exchanges and clearing houses see PARA 721 et seq.

4 As to the meaning of 'recognition order' see PARA 684 note 1.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 286(1)(a). The reference in the text is a reference to Pt XVIII (ss 285-313).

If regulations under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 286(1) require an investment exchange to make information available to the public in accordance with (1) the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 29.1 and EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1); or (2) the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 44.1 and EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1), the regulations may authorise the Authority to waive the requirement in the circumstances specified in the relevant provisions: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 286(4A), (4E) (s 286(4A)-(4E) added by SI 2006/2975). For these purposes, the 'relevant provisions' are in a case falling within head (1) above, the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive art 29.2 and EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1); and in a case falling within head (2) above, the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 44.2 and EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 286(4B) (as so added).

If regulations under s 286(1) require an investment exchange to make information available to the public in accordance with (a) the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 30.1 and EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1); or (b) the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 45.1 and EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1), the regulations may authorise the Authority to defer the requirement in the circumstances specified, and subject to the requirements contained, in the relevant provisions: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 286(4A), (4E) (as so added). For these purposes the 'relevant provisions' are in a case falling within head (a) above, the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 30.2 and EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1); and in a case falling within head (b) above, the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 45.2 and EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 286(4E) (as so added).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 286(1)(b). See note 5. For the purposes of Pt XVIII, 'recognised body' means a recognised investment exchange or a recognised clearing house: s 313(1).

7 'Default rules' means rules of an investment exchange or clearing house which provide for the taking of action in the event of a person's appearing to be unable, or likely to become unable, to meet his obligations in respect of one or more market contracts connected with the exchange or clearing house: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 286(3).

References in Pt XVIII to rules of an investment exchange (or a clearing house) are to rules made, or conditions imposed, by the investment exchange (or the clearing house) with respect to: (1) recognition requirements (see the text to notes 12-13); (2) admission of persons to, or their exclusion from the use of, its facilities; or (3) matters relating to its constitution: s 313(2). 'Market contract' means: (a) a contract to which the Companies Act 1989 Pt VII (ss 154-191) (see PARA 509 et seq) applies as a result of s 155 or a contract to which the Companies (No 2) (Northern Ireland) Order 1990, SI 1990/1504 (NI 10) Pt V (arts 90-126) applies as a result of art 80; and (b) such other kind of contract as may be prescribed: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 286(4).

(B) RECOGNITION REQUIREMENTS

(a) Requirements for Investment Exchanges

686. Application for or by an investment exchange.

There are specific recognition requirements<sup>1</sup> for investment exchanges for or by whom applications have been made for recognition orders<sup>2</sup>.

<sup>2</sup> Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 4. The provisions of the Schedule Pt I (see PARAS 687-690) and Pt II (see PARAS 693-695) set out the requirements applying to bodies in respect of which a recognition order has been made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 290(1)(a) (see PARA 709) or which have applied for such an order under s 287 (see PARA 706). As to the meaning of 'recognition order' see PARA 684 note 1.

As to the method of satisfying recognition requirements see PARA 705.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses/B. RECOGNITION/(B) Recognition Requirements/(a) Requirements for Investment Exchanges/687. Financial resources, suitability, systems and controls.

687. Financial resources, suitability, systems and controls.

In order to qualify for recognition, an exchange must have financial resources sufficient for the proper performance of its functions as a recognised investment exchange<sup>1</sup>. In considering whether this requirement is satisfied, the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> must<sup>3</sup> take into account all the circumstances, including the exchange's connection with any person, and any activity carried on by the exchange, whether or not it is an exempt activity<sup>4</sup>.

The exchange must be a fit and proper person to perform the functions of a recognised investment exchange<sup>5</sup>. In considering whether this requirement is satisfied, the Authority may<sup>6</sup> take into account all the circumstances, including the exchange's connection with any person<sup>7</sup>.

The exchange must ensure that the systems and controls used in the performance of its functions are adequate, and appropriate for the scale and nature of its business<sup>8</sup>. This applies in particular to systems and controls concerning:

- 1707 (1) the transmission of information<sup>9</sup>;
- 1708 (2) the assessment, mitigation and management of risks to the performance of the exchange's functions<sup>10</sup>;
- 1709 (3) the effecting and monitoring of transactions on the exchange<sup>11</sup>;
- 1710 (4) the technical operation of the exchange, including contingency arrangements for disruption to its facilities<sup>12</sup>;
- 1711 (5) the operation of arrangements for the timely discharge of the rights and liabilities of the parties to the transactions effected on the exchange<sup>13</sup>; and
- 1712 (6) (where relevant) the safeguarding and administration of assets belonging to users of the exchange's facilities<sup>14</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 1(1). References in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, to the performance of the functions of a recognised body are references to the carrying on by it of exempt activities together with the performance of its regulatory functions: reg 3(3). As to the meaning of 'recognised body' see PARA 685 note 6.

2 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebooks, Recognised Investment Exchanges and Recognised Clearing Houses (REC). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

As to the power of the Authority to disallow excessive regulatory provision by recognised investment exchanges and clearing houses see PARA 721 et seq.

3 Ie without prejudice to the generality of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 6(1) (see PARA 705) in regard to the method of satisfying recognition requirements.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 1(2) (amended by SI 2006/3386). 'Exempt activities', in relation to a recognised body, means the regulated activities in respect of which the body is exempt as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 285(2) or (3) (see PARA 684): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 3(1).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 2(1).

6 See note 3.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 2(2). The persons who effectively direct the business and operations of the exchange must be of sufficiently good repute and sufficiently experienced to ensure the sound and prudent management and operation of the financial markets operated by it: Schedule para 2(3) (Schedule para 2(3), (4) added by SI 2006/338). The persons who are in a position to exercise significant influence over the management of the exchange, whether directly or indirectly, must be suitable: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 2(4) (as so added).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 3(1).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 3(2)(a).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 3(2)(b).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 3(2)(c). References in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, to dealings on an exchange, or transactions effected on an exchange, are references to dealings or transactions which are effected by means of the exchange's facilities or which are governed by the rules of the exchange; and references to the use of the facilities of an exchange include use which consists of any such dealings or entering into any such transactions: reg 3(2).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 3(2)(ca) (added by SI 2006/3386).

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 3(2)(e).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses/B. RECOGNITION/(B) Recognition Requirements/(a) Requirements for Investment Exchanges/688. Safeguards for investors.

688. Safeguards for investors.

In order to qualify for recognition, an exchange must ensure that business conducted by means of its facilities<sup>1</sup> is conducted in an orderly manner and so as to afford proper protection to investors<sup>2</sup>. Without prejudice to the generality of this, the exchange must ensure that:

1713 (1) access to the exchange's facilities is subject to criteria designed to protect the orderly functioning of the market and the interests of investors<sup>3</sup>;

1714 (2) it has transparent and non-discretionary rules and procedures (a) to provide for fair and orderly trading; and (b) to establish objective criteria for the efficient execution of orders<sup>4</sup>;

- 1715 (3) appropriate arrangements are made for relevant information<sup>5</sup> to be made available (whether by the exchange or, where appropriate, by issuers of the investments) to persons engaged in dealing in investments on the exchange<sup>6</sup>;
- 1716 (4) satisfactory arrangements<sup>7</sup> are made for securing the timely discharge (whether by performance, compromise or otherwise) of the rights and liabilities of the parties to transactions effected on the exchange (being rights and liabilities in relation to those transactions)<sup>8</sup>;
- 1717 (5) satisfactory arrangements are made for recording transactions effected on the exchange, and transactions (whether or not effected on the exchange) which are cleared or to be cleared by means of its facilities<sup>9</sup>;
- 1718 (6) appropriate arrangements are made to (a) identify conflicts between the interests of the exchange, its owners and operators and the interests of the persons who make use of its facilities or the interests of the financial markets operated by it; and (b) manage such conflicts so as to avoid adverse consequences for the operation of the financial markets operated by the exchange and for the persons who make use of its facilities<sup>10</sup>;
- 1719 (7) appropriate measures (including the monitoring of transactions effected on the exchange) are adopted to reduce the extent to which the exchange's facilities can be used for a purpose connected with market abuse<sup>11</sup> or financial crime<sup>12</sup>, and to facilitate their detection and monitor their incidence<sup>13</sup>; and
- 1720 (8) where the exchange's facilities include making provision for the safeguarding and administration of assets belonging to users of those facilities, satisfactory arrangements are made for that purpose<sup>14</sup>.

The exchange must make arrangements for (i) current bid and offer prices for shares<sup>15</sup>; and (ii) the depth of trading interest in shares at the prices which are advertised through its systems, to be made available to the public on reasonable commercial terms and on a continuous basis during normal trading hours, subject to certain requirements<sup>16</sup>.

The exchange must make arrangements for the price, volume and time of transactions executed in shares<sup>17</sup> to be made available to the public as soon as possible after the time of the transaction on reasonable commercial terms, subject to certain requirements<sup>18</sup>.

1 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, 'facilities', in relation to a recognised body, means the facilities and services it provides in the course of carrying on exempt activities; and references to the use of the facilities of an exchange are to be construed in accordance with reg 3(2) (see PARA 687): reg 3(1).

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4(1).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4(2)(a) (amended by SI 2006/3386). Such access must be in accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7B: see PARA 690.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4(2)(aa) (added by SI 2006/3386).

5 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4(2)(c), 'relevant information' means information which is relevant in determining the current value of the investments: Schedule para 4(3).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4(2)(c). For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, 'investments' means investments of a kind specified for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 22 (see PARA 85): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000

(Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 3(1).

7     le which comply with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7D: see PARA 690.

8     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4(2)(d) (amended by SI 2006/3386).

9     Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4(2)(e).

10    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4(2)(ea) (added by SI 2006/3386).

11    As to market abuse see PARA 437 et seq.

12    For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, 'financial crime' is to be construed in accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 6(3), (4) (see PARA 8): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 3(1).

13    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4(2)(f) (amended by SI 2006/3386).

14    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4(2)(g).

15    For these purposes, 'shares' means shares admitted to trading on a regulated market: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4A(4) (Schedule para 4A added by SI 2006/3386). 'Regulated market' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 4.1.18: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 3(1) (definition added by SI 2006/3386).

16    Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4A(1) (as added: see note 15). The requirements referred to are those contained in EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) Ch IV.

If an exchange decides to give investment firms and credit institutions required to publish their quotes in shares (1) in accordance with the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 27, or (2) by the Financial Services Authority, access to the arrangements referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4A(1), it must do so on reasonable commercial terms and on a non-discriminatory basis: Schedule para 4A(2) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'investment firm' see PARA 21 note 5. 'Credit institution' means (a) a credit institution authorised under the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions); or (b) an institution which would satisfy the requirements for authorisation as a credit institution under that directive if it had its registered office (or if it does not have a registered office, its head office) in an EEA state: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 3(1) (definition added by SI 2006/3386). As to the meaning of EEA state see PARA 315 note 1. As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

The Authority may waive the requirements of Schedule para 4A(1) in the circumstances specified: (i) in the case of shares to be traded on a multilateral trading facility operated by the exchange, in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 29.2 and EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) Ch IV; or (ii) in the case of shares to be traded on a regulated market operated by the exchange, in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 44.2 and EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) Ch IV: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4A(3) (as so added). 'Multilateral trading facility' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 4.1.15: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 3(1) (definition added by SI 2006/3386).

17 For these purposes, 'shares' means shares admitted to trading on a regulated market: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4B(5) (Schedule para 4B added by SI 2006/3386).

18 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4B(1) (as added: see note 17). The requirements referred to are those contained in EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) Ch IV.

If an exchange decides to give investment firms and credit institutions required to make public details of their transactions in shares (1) in accordance with the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 28; or (2) by the Authority, access to the arrangements referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4B(1), it must do so on reasonable commercial terms and on a non-discriminatory basis: Schedule para 4B(2) (as so added).

The Authority may permit exchanges to defer the publication required by Schedule para 4B(1) in the circumstances specified, and subject to the requirements contained: (a) in the case of shares traded on a multilateral trading facility operated by an exchange, in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 30.2 and EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) Ch IV; or (b) in the case of shares traded on a regulated market operated by an exchange, in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 45.2 and EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) Ch IV: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 4B(3) (as so added).

If the Authority permits exchanges to defer the publication required by Schedule para 4B(1), those exchanges must ensure that the existence of and the terms of the permission are disclosed to users and members of their facilities and to investors: Schedule para 4B(4) (as so added).

689. Promotion and maintenance of standards.

In order to qualify for recognition, an exchange must be able and willing to promote and maintain high standards of integrity and fair dealing in the carrying on of regulated activities<sup>1</sup> by persons in the course of using the facilities<sup>2</sup> provided by the exchange<sup>3</sup>.

The exchange must be able and willing to co-operate, by the sharing of information or otherwise, with the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup>, with any other authority, body or person having responsibility in the United Kingdom<sup>5</sup> for the supervision or regulation of any regulated activity or other financial service, or with an overseas regulator<sup>6</sup>.

1 As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

2 As to the meaning of 'facilities' see PARA 688 note 1.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 6(1).

4 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebooks, Recognised Investment Exchanges and Recognised Clearing Houses (REC). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

As to the power of the Authority to disallow excessive regulatory provision by recognised investment exchanges and clearing houses see PARA 721 et seq.

5 As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

Rules.

690. Rules.

In order to qualify for recognition, an exchange must ensure that appropriate procedures are adopted for it to make rules, for keeping its rules under review and for amending them<sup>1</sup>. The procedures must include procedures for consulting users of the exchange's facilities in appropriate cases<sup>2</sup>. The exchange must consult users of its facilities on any arrangements it proposes to make for dealing with penalty income<sup>3</sup> (or on any changes which it proposes to make to those arrangements)<sup>4</sup>.

The exchange must make clear and transparent rules concerning the admission of financial instruments<sup>5</sup> to trading on any financial market operated by it<sup>6</sup>.

The exchange must make transparent and non-discriminatory rules, based on objective criteria, governing access to, or membership of, its facilities<sup>7</sup>.

Where an exchange provides central counterparty, clearing or settlement facilities<sup>8</sup>, it must make transparent and non-discriminatory rules, based on objective criteria, governing access to those facilities<sup>9</sup>. The exchange may refuse access to those facilities on legitimate commercial grounds<sup>10</sup>.

The rules of the exchange must permit a user or member of a regulated market operated by it to use whatever settlement facility he chooses for a transaction<sup>11</sup>.

The rules of the exchange must provide that the exchange must not exercise its power to suspend or remove from trading on a regulated market operated by it any financial instrument which no longer complies with its rules, where such step would be likely to cause significant damage to the interests of investors or the orderly functioning of the financial markets<sup>12</sup>.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7(2).

3 In accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 8(3): see PARA 691.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7(3).

5 'Financial instrument' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 4.1.17: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 3(1) (definition added by SI 2006/3386).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7A(1) (Schedule para 7A added by SI 2006/3386). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7A is without prejudice to the generality of Schedule para 4 (see PARA 688): Schedule para 7A(11) (as so added).

The rules must ensure that all financial instruments admitted to trading on a regulated market operated by the exchange are capable of being traded in a fair, orderly and efficient manner (in accordance with EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) Ch V, where applicable): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7A(2) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'regulated market' see PARA 688 note 15.

The rules must ensure that (1) all transferable securities admitted to trading on a regulated market operated by the exchange are freely negotiable (in accordance with EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) Ch V, where applicable); and (2) all contracts for derivatives admitted to trading on a regulated market operated by the exchange are designed so as to allow for their orderly pricing as well as for the existence of effective settlement conditions: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7A(3) (as so added). 'Transferable securities' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 4.1.18: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 3(1) (definition added by SI 2006/3386). 'Derivatives' has the same meaning as in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7A(10) (as so added).

The exchange must maintain arrangements to provide sufficient publicly available information (or satisfy itself that sufficient information is publicly available) to enable the users of a multilateral trading facility operated by it to form investment judgments, taking into account both the nature of the users and the types of instrument traded: Schedule para 7A(4) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'multilateral trading facility' see PARA 688 note 16.

The exchange must maintain effective arrangements to verify that issuers of transferable securities admitted to trading on a regulated market operated by it comply with the disclosure obligations: Schedule para 7A(5) (as so added). 'Issuer' has the same meaning as in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7A(10) (as so added). The 'disclosure obligations' are the initial, ongoing and ad hoc disclosure requirements contained in the relevant articles and given effect (a) in the UK by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VI (ss 72-103) (see PARA 385 et seq) and Part VI rules (within the meaning of s 73A: see PARA 385); or (b) in another EEA state by legislation transposing the relevant articles in that state: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7A(10) (as so added). 'Relevant articles' means (i) European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/6 (OJ L96, 12.4.2003, p 16) on insider dealing and market manipulation arts 6.1-6.4; (ii) European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/71 (OJ L345, 31.12.2003, p 64) on the prospectuses to be published when securities are offered to the public or admitted to trading arts 3, 5, 7, 8, 10, 14, 16; (iii) European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/109 (OJ L390, 31.12.2004, p 38) relating to the harmonisation of transparency requirements in relation to information about issuers whose securities are admitted to trading on a regulated market arts 4-6, 14, 16-19, 30; and (iv) Community legislation made under the provisions mentioned in heads (i)-(iii) above: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7A(10) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1.

The exchange must maintain arrangements to assist users of a regulated market operated by it to obtain access to information made public under the disclosure obligations: Schedule para 7A(6) (as so added). The exchange must maintain arrangements regularly to review whether the financial instruments admitted to trading on a regulated market operated by it comply with the admission requirements for those instruments: Schedule para 7A(7) (as so added).

The rules must provide that where an exchange, without obtaining the consent of the issuer, admits to trading on a regulated market operated by it a transferable security which has been admitted to trading on another regulated market, the exchange (A) must inform the issuer of that security as soon as is reasonably practicable: and (B) may not require the issuer of that security to demonstrate compliance with the disclosure obligations: Schedule para 7A(8) (as so added).

The rules must provide that where an exchange, without obtaining the consent of the issuer, admits to trading on a multilateral trading facility operated by it a transferable security which has been admitted to trading on a regulated market, it may not require the issuer of that security to demonstrate compliance with the disclosure obligations: Schedule para 7A(9) (as so added).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7B(1) (Schedule para 7B added by SI 2006/3386). As to the meaning of 'facilities' see PARA 688 note 1. The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7B is without prejudice to the generality of Schedule para 4 (see PARA 688): Schedule para 7B(6) (as so added).

In particular those rules must specify the obligations for users or members of its facilities arising from: (1) the constitution and administration of the exchange; (2) rules relating to transactions on the market; (3) its professional standards for staff of any investment firm or credit institution having access to or membership of a financial market operated by the exchange; (4) conditions established under head (c) below for access to or membership of a financial market operated by the exchange by persons other than investment firms or credit institutions; and (5) the rules and procedures for clearing and settlement of transactions concluded on a financial market operated by the exchange: Schedule para 7B(2) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'investment firm' see PARA 21 note 5. As to the meaning of 'credit institution' see PARA 688 note 16.

Rules of the exchange about access to, or membership of, a financial market operated by it must permit the exchange to give access to or admit to membership (as the case may be) only: (a) an investment firm; (b) a credit institution; or (c) a person who (i) is fit and proper; (ii) has a sufficient level of trading ability and competence; (iii) where applicable, has adequate organisational arrangements; and (iv) has sufficient resources for the role he is to perform, taking account of the exchange's arrangements under Schedule para 4(2)(d) (see PARA 688 head (4)): Schedule para 7B(3) (as so added).

Rules under Schedule para 7B must enable (A) an investment firm authorised under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 5; or (B) a credit institution authorised under the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1) relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of credit institutions), by the competent authority of another EEA state (including a branch established in the United Kingdom of such a firm or institution) to have direct or remote access to, or membership of, any financial market operated by the exchange on the same terms as a UK firm: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7B(4) (as so added). 'Competent authority', in relation to an investment firm or credit institution, means the competent authority in relation to that firm or institution for the purposes of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 3(1) (definition added by SI 2006/3386). 'Branch' in relation to an investment firm has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1)) art 4.1.26 and in relation to a credit institution has the meaning given in the Banking Consolidation Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1)) art 4.3: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 3(1) (definition added by SI 2006/3386).

The exchange must make arrangements regularly to provide the Financial Services Authority with a list of the users or members of its facilities: Schedule para 7B(5) (as so added).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7C(1) (Schedule para 7C added by SI 2006/3386). 'Central counterparty', 'clearing' and 'settlement' have the same meanings as in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie EC Council Directive 2006/48 (OJ L177, 30.6.2006, p 1)): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 3(1) (definitions added by SI 2006/3386).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7C(2) (as added: see note 8). The rules under Schedule para 7C para 3(2) must enable an investment firm or a credit institution authorised by the competent authority of another EEA state (including a branch established in the United Kingdom of such a firm or institution) to have access to those facilities on the same terms as a UK firm for the purposes of finalising or arranging the finalisation of transactions in financial instruments: Schedule para 7C(3) (as so added). 'UK firm' means an investment firm or credit institution which has a Part IV permission (see PARA 348) to carry on one or more regulated activities: reg 3(1) (definition added by SI 2006/3386). As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7C(4) (as added: see note 8).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7D(1) (Schedule para 7D added by SI 2006/3386). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7D(1) only applies where (1) such links and arrangements exist between the chosen settlement facility and any other settlement facility as are necessary to ensure the efficient and economic settlement of the transaction; and (2) the exchange is satisfied that the smooth and orderly functioning of the financial markets will be maintained: Schedule para 7D(2) (as so added).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 7E (added by SI 2006/3386).

Discipline and complaints.

691. Discipline and complaints.

In order to qualify for recognition, the exchange must have (1) effective arrangements (which include the monitoring of transactions effected on the exchange) for monitoring and enforcing compliance with its rules, including rules in relation to the provision of clearing services in respect of transactions<sup>1</sup> other than transactions effected on the exchange;<sup>2</sup> (2) effective arrangements for monitoring and enforcing compliance with arrangements made by it in regard to the timely discharge of the rights and liabilities of the parties to transactions effected on the exchange<sup>3</sup>; and (3) effective arrangements for monitoring transactions effected on the exchange in order to identify disorderly trading conditions<sup>4</sup>.

The arrangements mentioned above<sup>5</sup> must include procedures for investigating complaints made to the exchange about the conduct of persons in the course of using the exchange's facilities<sup>6</sup> and the fair, independent and impartial resolution of appeals against decisions of the exchange<sup>7</sup>.

Where the arrangements mentioned above include provision for requiring the payment of financial penalties, they must include arrangements for ensuring that any amount so paid is applied only in one or more of the following ways:

- 1721 (a) towards meeting expenses incurred by the exchange in the course of the investigation of the breach in respect of which the penalty is paid, or in the course of any appeal against the decision of the exchange in relation to that breach<sup>8</sup>;
- 1722 (b) for the benefit of users of the exchange's facilities<sup>9</sup>;
- 1723 (c) for charitable purposes<sup>10</sup>.

The exchange must have effective arrangements for the investigation and resolution of complaints arising in connection with the performance of, or failure to perform, any of its regulatory functions<sup>11</sup>. The arrangements must include arrangements for a complaint to be fairly and impartially investigated by a person independent of the exchange, and for him to report on the result of his investigation to the exchange and to the complainant<sup>12</sup>.

The arrangements must also confer on the independent person mentioned above<sup>13</sup> the power to recommend, if he thinks it appropriate, that the exchange makes a compensatory payment to the complainant<sup>14</sup>, remedies the matter complained of<sup>15</sup> or takes both of those steps<sup>16</sup>.

1 As to references to dealings and transactions effected on the exchange see PARA 687 note 11.

692. Operation of a multilateral trading facility.

An exchange operating a multilateral trading facility<sup>1</sup> must also operate a regulated market<sup>2</sup>.

An exchange operating a multilateral trading facility must comply with those requirements<sup>3</sup> which are applicable to a market operator<sup>4</sup> operating such a facility<sup>5</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'multilateral trading facility' see PARA 688 note 16.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 9A(1) (Schedule para 9A added by SI 2006/3386). As to the meaning of 'regulated market' see PARA 688 note 15.

The requirements of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 9A do not apply for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 292(3)(a) (requirements for overseas investment exchanges and overseas clearing houses) (see PARA 710): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 9A(3) (as so added).

Default rules in respect of market contracts.

693. Default rules in respect of market contracts.

The exchange must have default rules<sup>1</sup> which, in the event of a member of the exchange being or appearing to be unable to meet his obligations in respect of one or more market contracts<sup>2</sup>, enable action to be taken in respect of unsettled market contracts to which he is a party<sup>3</sup>.

The rules may authorise the taking of the same or similar action in relation to a member who appears to be likely to become unable to meet his obligations in respect of one or more market contracts<sup>4</sup>. The rules must enable action to be taken in respect of all unsettled market contracts, other than those entered into for the purposes of or in connection with the provision of clearing services for the exchange<sup>5</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'default rules' see PARA 685 note 7. 'Defaulter' and 'default' are to be construed in accordance with the Companies Act 1989 s 188(2); and references to action taken under the default rules of an exchange or clearing house are to be construed in accordance with s 188(4) (see PARA 510): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 3(1).

2 'Market contract' has the meaning given in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 286(4) (see PARA 685 note 7) (with reference, in the case of a recognised investment exchange, to the Companies Act 1989 s 155(2) (see PARA 510) or the Companies (No 2) (Northern Ireland) Order 1990, SI 1990/1504 (NI 10) art 80(2) or, in the case of a recognised clearing house, to the Companies Act 1989 s 155(3) (see PARA 510) or the Companies (No 2) (Northern Ireland) Order 1990, SI 1990/1504 (NI 10) art 80(3)); and references to a party to a market contract are to be construed in accordance with the Companies Act 1989 s 187 (see PARA 509): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 3(1).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 10(1). Nothing in the Schedule Pt II (paras 10-15) is to be taken as requiring a recognised investment exchange which does not enter into such contracts as are mentioned in the Companies Act 1989 s 155(2)(b) (see PARA 510) to have default rules, or to make any arrangements, relating to such contracts: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 8.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 10(2).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 10(3) (amended by SI 2006/3386).

693 Default rules in respect of market contracts

TEXT AND NOTES 3-5--Where the exchange has arrangements for transacting business with, or in relation to common members of, a recognised clearing house or another recognised investment exchange, a recognised investment exchange must have default rules which in the event of the clearing house or the investment exchange being or appearing to be unable to meet its obligations in respect of one or more market contracts, enable action to be taken in respect of unsettled market contracts to which that person is a party: SI 2001/995 Schedule para 10(4), (5) (added by SI 2009/853).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses/B. RECOGNITION/(B) Recognition Requirements/(a) Requirements for Investment Exchanges/694. Content of default rules.

694. Content of default rules.

In relation to certain contracts entered into by a member or designated non-member of the exchange with a person other than the exchange<sup>1</sup>, the default rules<sup>2</sup> must provide:

- 1724 (1) for all rights and liabilities between those party as principal to unsettled market contracts<sup>3</sup> to which the defaulter<sup>4</sup> is party as principal to be discharged and for there to be paid by one party to the other such sum of money (if any) as may be determined in accordance with the rules<sup>5</sup>;
- 1725 (2) for the sums so payable in respect of different contracts between the same parties to be aggregated or set off so as to produce a net sum<sup>6</sup>; and
- 1726 (3) for the certification by or on behalf of the exchange of the net sum payable or, as the case may be, of the fact that no sum is payable<sup>7</sup>.

The rules may make the same or similar provision, in relation to non-members designated in accordance with the relevant procedures<sup>8</sup>, as in relation to members of the exchange<sup>9</sup>.

The procedures must be designed to secure that: (a) a person is not, or does not remain, designated if failure by him to meet his obligations in respect of one or more market contracts would be unlikely adversely to affect the operation of the market<sup>10</sup>; and (b) a description of persons is not, or does not remain, designated if failure by a person of that description to meet his obligations in respect of one or more market contracts would be unlikely adversely to affect the operation of the market<sup>11</sup>.

The exchange must have adequate arrangements for bringing a designation or withdrawal of designation to the attention of the person or description of persons concerned<sup>12</sup> and where a description of persons is designated, or the designation of a description of persons is withdrawn, for ascertaining which persons fall within that description<sup>13</sup>.

In relation to contracts entered into by the exchange with its members for the purpose of enabling the rights and liabilities of that member under transactions in investments to be settled<sup>14</sup>, the default rules<sup>15</sup> must provide:

- 1727 (i) for all rights and liabilities of the defaulter under or in respect of unsettled market contracts<sup>16</sup> to be discharged and for there to be paid by or to the defaulter such sum of money (if any) as may be determined in accordance with the rules<sup>17</sup>;
- 1728 (ii) for the sums so payable by or to the defaulter in respect of different contracts to be aggregated or set off so as to produce a net sum<sup>18</sup>;
- 1729 (iii) for that sum, if payable by the defaulter to the exchange, to be set off against any property provided by or on behalf of the defaulter as cover for margin (or the proceeds of realisation of such property) so as to produce a further net sum; and if payable by the exchange to the defaulter, to be aggregated with any property provided by or on behalf of the defaulter as cover for margin (or the proceeds of realisation of such property)<sup>19</sup>; and
- 1730 (iv) for the certification by or on behalf of the exchange of the sum finally payable or, as the case may be, of the fact that no sum is payable<sup>20</sup>.

Where the exchange provides clearing services, the rules of the exchange must provide that in the event of a default, margin provided by the defaulter for his own account is not to be applied to meet a shortfall on a client account<sup>21</sup>.

15 See note 2.

16 The reference in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 12(2) to the rights and liabilities of a defaulter under or in respect of an unsettled market contract includes (without prejudice to the generality of that provision) rights and liabilities arising in consequence of action taken under provisions of the rules authorising:

- 631 (1) the effecting by the exchange of corresponding contracts in relation to unsettled market contracts to which the defaulter is party (Schedule para 12(3)(a));
- 632 (2) the transfer of the defaulter's position under an unsettled market contract to another member of the exchange (Schedule para 12(3)(b));
- 633 (3) the exercise by the exchange of any option granted by an unsettled market contract (Schedule para 12(3)(c)).

'Corresponding contract' means a contract on the same terms (except as to price or premium) as the market contract but under which the person who is the buyer under the market contract agrees to sell and the person who is the seller under the market contract agrees to buy: Schedule para 12(4). The provisions of Schedule para 12(4) apply with any necessary modifications in relation to a market contract which is not an agreement to sell: Schedule para 12(5). The reference in Schedule para 12(2) to the rights and liabilities of a defaulter under or in respect of an unsettled market contract does not include, where he acts as agent, rights or liabilities of his arising out of the relationship of principal and agent: Schedule para 12(6).

694 Content of default rules

NOTE 14--The contracts referred to in the text are now those falling within the Companies Act 1989 s 155(2)(b) or (c): SI 2001/995 Schedule para 12(1) (amended by SI 2009/853).

TEXT AND NOTES 18, 19--After the words 'different contracts' add 'entered into by the defaulter in one capacity for the purposes of the Companies Act 1989 s 187': SI 2001/995 Schedule para 12(2)(b) (amended by SI 2009/853). Add head (iia) if relevant, for that sum to be aggregated with, or set off against, any sum owed by or to the investment exchange by or to AP under an indemnity given or reimbursement or similar obligation in respect of a margin set off agreement in which the defaulter chose to participate so as to produce a net sum: SI 2001/995 Schedule para 12(2)(bb) (added by SI 2009/853). Substitute head (iii) for the net sum referred to in head (ii) or, if relevant, the net sum referred to in head (iia) above (1) if payable by the defaulter to the exchange, to be set off against (a) any property provided by or on behalf of the defaulter as cover for margin (or the proceeds of realisation of such property); (b) to the extent (if any) that any sum remains after set off under head (a), any default fund contribution provided by the defaulter remaining after any application of such contribution; (2) to the extent (if any) that any sum remains after set off under head (1), to be paid from such other funds, including the default fund, or resources as the exchange may apply under its default rules; (3) if payable by the exchange to the defaulter, to be aggregated with (a) any property provided by or on behalf of the defaulter as cover for margin (or the proceeds of realisation of such property); (b) any default fund contribution provided by the defaulter remaining after any application of such contribution: SI 2001/995 Schedule para 12(2)(c) (substituted by SI 2009/853).

'Margin set off agreement' means an agreement between the exchange and AP permitting any eligible position to which the participant member is party with the exchange and any eligible position to which the participant member is party with AP to be taken into account in calculating a net sum owed by or to the participant member to either the exchange or AP and/or margin to be provided to, either or both, the exchange and AP: SI 2001/995 Schedule para 12(2A) (paras 12(2A)-(2C), 12A added by SI 2009/853). 'AP' means a recognised clearing house or another recognised investment exchange of whom a participant member is a member; 'eligible position' means any position which may be included in the set off calculation; 'participant member' means a person who (1) is a member of the exchange; (2) is a member or participant of AP; and (3) chooses to participate, in accordance with the rules of the exchange, in such agreement: para 12(2B). The property, contribution, funds or resources referred to in head (iii) above, against which the net sum is to be set off (or with which it is to be aggregated) are subject to any unsatisfied claims arising out of the default of a defaulter before the default in relation to which the calculation is being made: para 12(2C). The rules of the exchange must provide that, in the event of a default, any default fund contribution provided by the defaulter must only be used in accordance with head (iii)(1) or (2): para 12A. 'Default fund' means the sum of the default fund contributions by the members or designated non-members of a recognised investment exchange to that exchange or by one recognised investment exchange to another or by the members of a recognised clearing house to that clearing house or by one recognised clearing house to another to the extent those contributions have not been returned or otherwise applied: SI 2001/995 reg 3(1) (definition added by SI 2009/853). As to the meaning of 'default fund contribution' see Companies Act 1989 s 188(3A) (PARA 518).

TEXT AND NOTE 21--After the words 'shortfall on a client account' add 'other than a client account of the defaulter': SI 2001/995 Schedule para 15(1) (amended by SI 2009/853). 'Client account of the defaulter' means an account held by the exchange in the name of the defaulter in which relevant transactions (as to the meaning of which see Financial Markets and Insolvency Regulations 1991, SI 1991/880, reg 16(1)) effected by the defaulter have been recorded: SI 2001/995 Schedule para 15(3), (4) (added by SI 2009/853).

695. Default rules: notification and co-operation.

The exchange must have adequate arrangements for ensuring that: (1) in the case of unsettled market contracts<sup>1</sup> with a defaulter<sup>2</sup> acting as principal, parties to the contract are notified as soon as reasonably practicable of the default and of any decision taken under the rules in relation to contracts to which they are a party<sup>3</sup>; and (2) in the case of unsettled market contracts with a defaulter acting as agent, parties to the contract and the defaulter's principals are notified as soon as reasonably practicable of the default and of the identity of the other parties to the contract<sup>4</sup>.

The exchange must be able and willing to co-operate, by the sharing of information and otherwise, with the Secretary of State<sup>5</sup>, any relevant office-holder<sup>6</sup>, and any other authority or body having responsibility for any matter arising out of, or connected with, the default of a member of the exchange or any designated non-member<sup>7</sup>.

695 Default rules: notification and co-operation

TEXT AND NOTE 7--After the words 'any designated non-member' add 'or the default of a recognised clearing house or another recognised investment exchange': SI 2001/995 Schedule para 14 (amended by SI 2009/853).

696. Application for or by a clearing house.

In the same way as there are specific recognition requirements<sup>1</sup> for investment exchanges<sup>2</sup>, there are also specific recognition requirements for clearing houses for or by whom applications have been made for recognition orders<sup>3</sup>.

1 As to recognition requirements generally see PARA 685.

2 See PARA 686.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, reg 5. The provisions of the Schedule Pt III (see PARAS 697-700) and Pt IV (see PARAS 702-704) set out the requirements applying to bodies in respect of which a recognition order has been made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 290(1)(b) (see PARA 709) or which have applied for such an order under s 288 (see PARA 707). As to the meaning of 'recognition order' see PARA 684 note 1.

As to the method of satisfying recognition requirements see PARA 705.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. Financial resources, suitability, systems and controls.

697. Financial resources, suitability, systems and controls.

In order to qualify for recognition, a clearing house must have financial resources sufficient for the proper performance of its functions as a recognised clearing house<sup>1</sup>. In considering whether this requirement is satisfied, the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> may<sup>3</sup> take into account all the circumstances, including the clearing house's connection with any person, and any activity carried on by the clearing house, whether or not it is an exempt activity<sup>4</sup>.

The clearing house must be a fit and proper person to perform the functions of a recognised clearing house<sup>5</sup>. In considering whether this requirement is satisfied, the Authority may<sup>6</sup> take into account all the circumstances, including the clearing house's connection with any person<sup>7</sup>.

The clearing house must ensure that the systems and controls used in the performance of its functions are adequate, and appropriate for the scale and nature of its business<sup>8</sup>. This requirement applies in particular to systems and controls concerning:

- 1731 (1) the transmission of information<sup>9</sup>;
- 1732 (2) the assessment and management of risks to the performance of the clearing house's functions<sup>10</sup>;
- 1733 (3) the operation of its clearing services involving satisfactory arrangements for securing the timely discharge of the rights and liabilities of the parties to transactions in respect of which it provides such services<sup>11</sup>; and
- 1734 (4) (where relevant) the safeguarding and administration of assets belonging to users of the clearing house's facilities<sup>12</sup>.

698. Safeguards for investors.

In order to qualify for recognition, a clearing house must ensure that its facilities<sup>1</sup> are such as to afford proper protection to investors<sup>2</sup>. Without prejudice to the generality of this, the clearing house must ensure that:

- 1735 (1) access to the clearing house's facilities is subject to criteria designed to protect the orderly functioning of those facilities and the interests of investors<sup>3</sup>;
- 1736 (2) its clearing services involve satisfactory arrangements for securing the timely discharge (whether by performance, compromise or otherwise) of the rights and liabilities of the parties to transactions in respect of which it provides such services (being rights and liabilities in relation to those transactions)<sup>4</sup>;
- 1737 (3) satisfactory arrangements are made for recording transactions which are cleared or to be cleared by means of its facilities<sup>5</sup>;
- 1738 (4) appropriate measures are adopted to reduce the extent to which the clearing house's facilities can be used for a purpose connected with market abuse<sup>6</sup> or financial crime<sup>7</sup>, and to facilitate their detection and monitor their incidence<sup>8</sup>; and
- 1739 (5) where the clearing house's facilities include making provision for the safeguarding and administration of assets belonging to users of those facilities, satisfactory arrangements are made for that purpose<sup>9</sup>.

700. Rules.

In order to qualify for recognition, a clearing house must ensure that appropriate procedures are adopted for it to make rules, for keeping its rules under review and for amending them<sup>1</sup>. The procedures must include procedures for consulting users of the clearing house's facilities<sup>2</sup> in appropriate cases<sup>3</sup>. The clearing house must consult users of its facilities on any arrangements it proposes to make for dealing with penalty income<sup>4</sup> (or on any changes which it proposes to make to those arrangements)<sup>5</sup>.

The clearing house must make transparent and non-discriminatory rules, based on objective criteria, governing access to central counterparty, clearing or settlement<sup>6</sup> facilities provided by it<sup>7</sup>. The clearing house may refuse access to those facilities on legitimate commercial grounds<sup>8</sup>.

Discipline and complaints.

701. Discipline and complaints.

In order to qualify for recognition, the clearing house must have effective arrangements for monitoring and enforcing compliance with its rules<sup>1</sup>. The arrangements must include procedures for: (1) investigating complaints made to the clearing house about the conduct of persons in the course of using the clearing house's facilities<sup>2</sup>; and (2) the fair, independent and impartial resolution of appeals against decisions of the clearing house<sup>3</sup>.

Where the arrangements include provision for requiring the payment of financial penalties, they must include arrangements for ensuring that any amount so paid is applied only in one or more of the following ways:

- 1740 (a) towards meeting expenses incurred by the clearing house in the course of the investigation of the breach in respect of which the penalty is paid, or in the course of any appeal against the decision of the clearing house in relation to that breach<sup>4</sup>;
- 1741 (b) for the benefit of users of the clearing house's facilities<sup>5</sup>;
- 1742 (c) for charitable purposes<sup>6</sup>.

The clearing house must have effective arrangements for the investigation and resolution of complaints arising in connection with the performance of, or failure to perform, any of its regulatory functions<sup>7</sup>. The arrangements must include arrangements for a complaint to be fairly and impartially investigated by a person independent of the clearing house, and for him to report on the result of his investigation to the clearing house and to the complainant<sup>8</sup>. The arrangements must confer on that person<sup>9</sup> the power to recommend, if he thinks it appropriate, that the clearing house makes a compensatory payment to the complainant<sup>10</sup>, remedies the matter complained of<sup>11</sup> or takes both of those steps<sup>12</sup>.

702. Default rules in respect of market contracts.

The clearing house must have default rules<sup>1</sup> which, in the event of a member of the clearing house being or appearing to be unable to meet his obligations in respect of one or more market contracts<sup>2</sup>, enable action to be taken to close out his position in relation to all unsettled market contracts to which he is a party<sup>3</sup>.

The rules may authorise the taking of the same or similar action where a member appears to be likely to become unable to meet his obligations in respect of one or more market contracts<sup>4</sup>.

UPDATE

702 Default rules in respect of market contracts

TEXT AND NOTES--Where the clearing house has arrangements for transacting business with, or in relation to common members of, a recognised investment exchange or another recognised clearing house, a recognised clearing house must have default rules which in the event of the investment exchange or the clearing house being or appearing to be unable to meet its obligations in respect of one or more market contracts, enable action to be taken in respect of unsettled market contracts to which that person is a party: SI 2001/995 Schedule para 24(3), (4) (added by SI 2009/853).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. Content of default rules.

703. Content of default rules.

The default rules<sup>1</sup> must provide:

- 1743 (1) for all rights and liabilities of the defaulter<sup>2</sup> under or in respect of unsettled market contracts<sup>3</sup> to be discharged and for there to be paid by or to the defaulter such sum of money (if any) as may be determined in accordance with the rules<sup>4</sup>;
- 1744 (2) for the sums so payable by or to the defaulter in respect of different contracts to be aggregated or set off so as to produce a net sum<sup>5</sup>;
- 1745 (3) for that sum, if payable by the defaulter to the clearing house, to be set off against any property provided by or on behalf of the defaulter as cover for margin (or the proceeds of realisation of such property) so as to produce a further net sum<sup>6</sup> and, if payable by the clearing house to the defaulter, to be aggregated with any property provided by or on behalf of the defaulter as cover for margin (or the proceeds of realisation of such property); and
- 1746 (4) for the certification by or on behalf of the clearing house of the sum finally payable or, as the case may be, of the fact that no sum is payable<sup>8</sup>.

The rules of the clearing house must provide that in the event of a default, margin provided by the defaulter for his own account is not to be applied to meet a shortfall on a client account<sup>9</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'default rules' see PARA 685 note 7.

2 As to the meanings of 'defaulter' and 'default' see PARA 693 note 1.

3 As to the meaning of 'market contract' see PARA 693 note 2. The reference in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 25(1) to the rights and liabilities of a defaulter under or in respect of an unsettled market contract includes (without prejudice to the generality of that provision) rights and liabilities arising in consequence of action taken under provisions of the rules authorising:

634 (1) the effecting by the clearing house of corresponding contracts in relation to unsettled market contracts to which the defaulter is party (Schedule para 25(2)(a));

635 (2) the transfer of the defaulter's position under an unsettled market contract to another member of the clearing house (Schedule para 25(2)(b));

636 (3) the exercise by the clearing house of any option granted by an unsettled market contract (Schedule para 25(2)(c)).

'Corresponding contract' means a contract on the same terms (except as to price or premium) as the market contract but under which the person who is the buyer under the market contract agrees to sell and the person who is the seller under the market contract agrees to buy: Schedule para 25(3). The provisions of Schedule para 25(3) apply with any necessary modifications in relation to a market contract which is not an agreement to sell: Schedule para 25(4). The reference in Schedule para 25(1) to the rights and liabilities of a defaulter under or in respect of an unsettled market contract does not include, where he acts as agent, rights or liabilities of his arising out of the relationship of principal and agent: Schedule para 25(5).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 25(1)(d).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/995, Schedule para 28(1). The provisions of Schedule para 28 are without prejudice to the requirements of any rules relating to clients' money made by the Financial Services Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 138 (see PARA 21) and s 139 (see PARA 25): Schedule para 28(2). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

UPDATE

703 Content of default rules

TEXT AND NOTES 5-7--After the words 'different contracts' add 'entered into by the defaulter in one capacity for the purposes of the Companies Act 1989 s 187': SI 2001/995 Schedule para 25(1)(b) (amended by SI 2009/853). Add head (2a) if relevant, for that sum to be aggregated with, or set off against, any sum owed by or to the clearing house by or to AP under an indemnity given or reimbursement or similar obligation in respect of a margin set off agreement in which the defaulter chose to participate so as to produce a net sum: SI 2001/995 Schedule para 25(1)(bb) (added by SI 2009/853). Substitute head (3) for the net sum referred to in head (2) or, if relevant, the net sum referred to in head (2a) (a) if payable by the defaulter to the clearing house, to be set off against (i) any property provided by or on behalf of the defaulter as cover for margin (or the proceeds of realisation of such property); (ii) to the extent (if any) that any sum remains after set off under head (3)(a)(i), any default fund contribution provided by the defaulter remaining after any application of such contribution; (b) to the extent (if any) that any sum remains after set off under head (3), to be paid from such other funds, including the default fund, or resources as the clearing house may apply under its default rules; (c) if payable by the clearing house to the defaulter, to be aggregated with (i) any property provided by or on behalf of the defaulter as cover for margin (or the proceeds of realisation of such property); (ii) any default fund contribution provided by the defaulter remaining after any application of such contribution: SI 2001/995 Schedule para 25(1)(c) (substituted by SI 2009/853).

'Margin set off agreement' means an agreement between the clearing house and AP permitting any eligible position to which the participant member is party with the clearing house and any eligible position to which the participant member is party with AP to be taken into account in calculating a net sum owed by or to the participant member to or by either the clearing house or AP and/or margin to be provided to, either or both, the clearing house and AP: SI 2001/995 Schedule para 25(1A) (paras 25(1A)-(1C), 25A added by SI 2009/853). 'AP' means a recognised investment exchange or another recognised clearing house of whom a participant member is a member; 'eligible position' means any position which may be included in the set off calculation; 'participant member' means a person who (1) is a member of the clearing house; (2) is a member or participant of AP; and (3) chooses to participate, in accordance with the rules of the clearing house, in such agreement: para 25(1B). The property, contribution, funds or resources referred to in head (3), against which the net sum is to be set off (or with which it is to be aggregated) are subject to any unsatisfied claims arising out of the default of a defaulter before the default in relation to which the calculation is being made: para 25(1C). The rules of the clearing house must provide that in the event of a default, any default fund contribution provided by the defaulter must only be used in accordance with head (3)(a) or (b): para 25A.

TEXT AND NOTE 9--After the words 'shortfall on a client account' add 'other than a client account of the defaulter': SI 2001/995 Schedule para 28(1) (amended by SI 2009/853). 'Client account of the defaulter' means an account held by the exchange in the name of the defaulter in which relevant transactions (as to the meaning of which see Financial Markets and Insolvency Regulations 1991, SI 1991/880, reg 16(1)) effected by the defaulter have been recorded: SI 2001/995 Schedule para 28(3), (4) (added by SI 2009/853).

705. Method of satisfying recognition requirements.

In considering whether a recognised body<sup>1</sup> or applicant<sup>2</sup> satisfies recognition requirements<sup>3</sup> applying to it under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Recognition Requirements for Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations 2001<sup>4</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>5</sup> may take into account all relevant circumstances including the constitution of the person concerned and its regulatory provisions and practices<sup>6</sup>.

Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions described above<sup>7</sup>, a recognised body or applicant may satisfy recognition requirements applying to it by making arrangements for functions to be performed on its behalf by any other person<sup>8</sup>.

(C) APPLICATIONS FOR RECOGNITION

706. Application for recognition by an investment exchange.

Any body corporate<sup>1</sup> or unincorporated association may apply to the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> for an order declaring it to be a recognised investment exchange<sup>3</sup> for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>4</sup>.

The application<sup>5</sup> must be made in such manner as the Authority may direct and must be accompanied by:

- 1747 (1) a copy of the applicant's<sup>6</sup> rules<sup>7</sup>;
- 1748 (2) a copy of any guidance issued by the applicant<sup>8</sup>;
- 1749 (3) the required particulars<sup>9</sup>; and
- 1750 (4) such other information as the Authority may reasonably require for the purpose of determining the application<sup>10</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11.

2 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebooks, Recognised Investment Exchanges and Recognised Clearing Houses (REC). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 287(2)(b).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 287(2)(c). The required particulars are:

- 637 (1) particulars of any arrangements which the applicant has made, or proposes to make, for the provision of clearing services in respect of transactions effected on the exchange (s 287(3)(a));
- 638 (2) if the applicant proposes to provide clearing services in respect of transactions other than those effected on the exchange, particulars of the criteria which the applicant will apply when determining to whom it will provide those services (s 287(3)(b));
- 639 (3) a programme of operations which includes the types of business the applicant proposes to undertake and the applicant's proposed organisational structure (s 287(3)(c) (s 287(3)(c)-(e), (4) added by SI 2007/126);
- 640 (4) such particulars of the persons who effectively direct the business and operations of the exchange as the Authority may reasonably require (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 287(3)(d) (as so added));
- 641 (5) such particulars of the ownership of the exchange, and in particular of the identity and scale of interests of the persons who are in a position to exercise significant influence over the management of the exchange, whether directly or indirectly, as the Authority may reasonably require (s 287(3)(e) (as so added)).

Heads (3)-(5) above do not apply to an application by an overseas applicant: s 287(4) (as so added). For the purposes of Pt XVIII, 'overseas applicant' means a body corporate or association which has neither its head office nor registered office in the United Kingdom and in relation to which a recognition order is in force: s 313(1). ## 707. Application for recognition by a clearing house.

Any body corporate<sup>1</sup> or unincorporated association may apply to the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> for an order declaring it to be a recognised clearing house<sup>3</sup> for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>4</sup>.

The application<sup>5</sup> must be made in such manner as the Authority may direct and must be accompanied by:

- 1751 (1) a copy of the applicant's<sup>6</sup> rules<sup>7</sup>;
- 1752 (2) a copy of any guidance issued by the applicant<sup>8</sup>;
- 1753 (3) the required particulars<sup>9</sup>; and

1754 (4) such other information as the Authority may reasonably require for the purpose of determining the application<sup>10</sup>.

708. Requirement for further information.

At any time after receiving an application<sup>1</sup> and before determining it, the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> may require the applicant<sup>3</sup> to provide such further information as it reasonably considers necessary to enable it to determine the application<sup>4</sup>.

Information which the Authority requires in connection with an application must be provided in such form, or verified in such manner, as the Authority may direct<sup>5</sup>. Different directions may be given, or requirements imposed, by the Authority with respect to different applications<sup>6</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses/B. RECOGNITION/(C) Applications for Recognition/709. Recognition orders.

709. Recognition orders.

If it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> that the applicant<sup>2</sup> satisfies the recognition requirements<sup>3</sup> applicable in its case, the Authority may make a recognition order<sup>4</sup> declaring the applicant to be: (1) a recognised investment exchange<sup>5</sup>; (2) a recognised clearing house<sup>6</sup>.

The Treasury's<sup>7</sup> approval of the making of a recognition order is required<sup>8</sup>. In considering an application<sup>9</sup>, the Authority may have regard to any information which it considers is relevant to the application<sup>10</sup>. A recognition order must specify a date on which it is to take effect<sup>11</sup>.

The Authority must not make a recognition order if it appears to the Authority that an existing or proposed regulatory provision of the applicant in connection with the applicant's business as an investment exchange or the provision by the applicant of clearing services, imposes or will impose an excessive requirement on the persons affected (directly or indirectly) by it<sup>12</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebooks, Recognised Investment Exchanges and Recognised Clearing Houses (REC). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

As to the power of the Authority to disallow excessive regulatory provision by recognised investment exchanges and clearing houses see PARA 721 et seq.

2 As to the meaning of 'applicant' see PARA 706 note 6.

3 As to recognition requirements generally see PARA 685. See also notes 5, 12.

4 As to the meaning of 'recognition order' see PARA 684 note 1.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 290(1)(a). The application is made under s 287: see PARA 706. As to the meaning of 'recognised investment exchange' see PARA 684 note 1.

In the case of an application for an order declaring the applicant to be a recognised investment exchange, the reference in s 290(1) to the recognition requirements applicable in its case includes a reference to requirements contained in any directly applicable Community regulation made under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 290(1A) (s 290(1A)-(1C) added by SI 2007/126). In the case mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 290(1A), the application must be determined by the Authority before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which it receives the completed application: s 290(1B) (as so added). Section 290(1B) does not apply in the case of an application by an overseas applicant: s 290(1C) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'overseas applicant' see PARA 706 note 9.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 290(1)(b). The application is made under s 288: see PARA 707. As to the meaning of 'recognised clearing house' see PARA 684 note 6. See note 5.

7 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 290(2). As to the requirement for approval see s 307; and PARA 733.

9 As to the meaning of 'application' see PARA 706 note 5.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 290(3).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 290(4).

Section 298 (see PARA 716) has effect in relation to a decision to refuse to make a recognition order as it has effect in relation to a decision to revoke such an order (s 290(5)(a)) and as if references to a recognised body were references to the applicant (s 290(5)(b)). As to the meaning of 'recognised body' see PARA 685 note 6. Section 290(5) does not apply in a case in which the Treasury has failed to give its approval under s 307 (see PARA 733): s 290(6).

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 290A(1) (s 290A added by the Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses Act 2006 s 4).

The reference in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 290(1) (making of recognition order) (see the text to notes 1-6) to satisfying the applicable recognition requirements is read accordingly: s 290A(2) (as so added).

Expressions used in s 290A(1) that are defined for the purposes of s 300A (power of Authority to disallow excessive regulatory provision) (see PARA 721) have the same meaning as in that provision: s 290A(3) (as so added). The provisions of s 300A(3), (4) (determination whether regulatory provision excessive) (see PARA 721) apply for the purposes of s 290A as for the purposes of s 300A: s 290A(4) (as so added).

Section 298 (see PARA 716) has effect in relation to a decision under s 290A to refuse a recognition order (1) as it has effect in relation to a decision to revoke such an order; and (2) as if references to a recognised body were references to the applicant: s 290A(5) (as so added). Section 290A does not apply to an application for recognition as an overseas investment exchange or overseas clearing house: s 290A(6) (as so added). For the purposes of Pt XVIII (ss 285-313), 'overseas investment exchange' means a body corporate or association which has neither its head office nor its registered office in the United Kingdom and in relation to which a recognition order is in force: s 313(1). As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. 'Overseas clearing house' means a body corporate or association which has neither its head office nor its registered office in the United Kingdom and in relation to which a recognition order is in force: s 313(1).

710. Overseas investment exchanges and overseas clearing houses.

An application<sup>1</sup> by an overseas applicant<sup>2</sup> must contain the address of a place in the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup> for the service on the applicant<sup>4</sup> of notices or other documents<sup>5</sup> required or authorised to be served on it under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>6</sup>.

If it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>7</sup> that an overseas applicant satisfies the requirements mentioned below<sup>8</sup>, it may make a recognition order declaring the applicant to be: (1) a recognised investment exchange<sup>9</sup>; (2) a recognised clearing house<sup>10</sup>.

The requirements are that:

- 1755 (a) investors are afforded protection equivalent to that which they would be afforded if the body concerned were required to comply with certain recognition requirements<sup>11</sup>;

- 1756 (b) there are adequate procedures for dealing with a person who is unable, or likely to become unable, to meet his obligations in respect of one or more market contracts<sup>12</sup> connected with the investment exchange or clearing house<sup>13</sup>;
- 1757 (c) the applicant is able and willing to co-operate with the Authority by the sharing of information and in other ways<sup>14</sup>;
- 1758 (d) adequate arrangements exist for co-operation between the Authority and those responsible for the supervision of the applicant in the country or territory in which the applicant's head office is situated<sup>15</sup>.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 292(2)(a). As to the meaning of 'recognised investment exchange' see PARA 684 note 1.

In relation to an overseas applicant and a body or association declared to be a recognised investment exchange or recognised clearing house by a recognition order made by virtue of s 292(2):

644 (1) the reference in s 313(2) (see PARA 685) to recognition requirements is to be read as a reference to matters corresponding to the matters in respect of which provision is made in the recognition requirements (s 292(5)(a));

645 (2) s 296(1) (see PARA 714) and s 297(2) (see PARA 715) have effect as if the requirements mentioned in s 296(1)(a) and s 297(2)(a) were those of heads (a), (b), and (c) in the text (s 292(5)(b));

646 (3) s 297(2) has effect as if the grounds on which a recognition order may be revoked under that provision included the ground that in the opinion of the Authority arrangements of the kind mentioned in head (d) in the text no longer exist (s 292(5)(c)).

As to recognition requirements generally see PARA 685.

C. SUPERVISION

711. Notification requirements.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may make rules<sup>2</sup> requiring a recognised body<sup>3</sup> to give it: (1) notice of such events relating to the body as may be specified<sup>4</sup>; and (2) such information in respect of those events as may be specified<sup>5</sup>.

The rules may also require a recognised body to give the Authority, at such times or in respect of such periods as may be specified, such information relating to the body as may be specified<sup>6</sup>. An obligation imposed by the rules extends only to a notice or information which the Authority may reasonably require for the exercise of its functions under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>7</sup>. The rules may require information to be given in a specified form and to be verified in a specified manner<sup>8</sup>.

If a recognised body alters or revokes any of its rules or guidance<sup>9</sup> or makes new rules or issues new guidance<sup>10</sup>, it must give written notice to the Authority without delay<sup>11</sup>.

If a recognised investment exchange<sup>12</sup> makes a change in the arrangements it makes for the provision of clearing services in respect of transactions effected on the exchange<sup>13</sup> or in the criteria which it applies when determining to whom it will provide clearing services<sup>14</sup>, it must give written notice to the Authority without delay<sup>15</sup>. If a recognised clearing house<sup>16</sup> makes a change in the recognised investment exchanges for whom it provides clearing services<sup>17</sup> or in the criteria which it applies when determining to whom (other than recognised investment exchanges) it will provide clearing services<sup>18</sup>, it must give written notice to the Authority without delay<sup>19</sup>.

A recognised investment exchange must as soon as practicable after a recognition order<sup>20</sup> is made in respect of it publish such particulars of the ownership of the exchange as the Authority may reasonably require<sup>21</sup>. If an ownership transfer<sup>22</sup> takes place in relation to a recognised investment exchange, the exchange must as soon as practicable after becoming aware of the transfer publish such particulars relating to the transfer as the Authority may reasonably require<sup>23</sup>. A recognised investment exchange must publish such particulars of any decision it makes to suspend or remove a financial instrument from trading on a regulated market<sup>24</sup> operated by it as the Authority may reasonably require<sup>25</sup>. The Authority may determine the manner of publication under the above provisions<sup>26</sup> and the timing of such publication<sup>27</sup>.

The Authority may require a recognised investment exchange to give the Authority such information as it reasonably requires in order to satisfy itself that the exchange is complying with any directly applicable Community regulation made under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>28</sup>.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 294(1)(b). Section 294(4)-(6) applies to a direction given under s 294(1): s 294(3).

The Authority may not give a direction unless it is satisfied that: (1) compliance by the recognised body with the rules, or with the rules as unmodified, would be unduly burdensome or would not achieve the purpose for which the rules were made (s 294(4)(a)); and (2) the direction would not result in undue risk to persons whose interests the rules are intended to protect (s 294(4)(b)). A direction may be given subject to conditions: s 294(5). The Authority may revoke a direction (s 294(6)(a)) or vary it on the application, or with the consent, of the recognised body to which it relates (s 294(6)(b)).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses/C. SUPERVISION/714. The Financial Services Authority's power to give directions.

714. The Financial Services Authority's power to give directions.

If it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> that a recognised body<sup>2</sup> has failed, or is likely to fail, to satisfy the recognition requirements<sup>3</sup> or has failed to comply with any other obligation imposed on it by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>4</sup>, it may direct the body to take specified steps for the purpose of securing the body's compliance with (1) the recognition requirements<sup>5</sup>; or (2) any obligation of the kind in question<sup>6</sup>.

The above<sup>7</sup> also applies in the case of a recognised body which is a recognised investment exchange<sup>8</sup> if it appears to the Authority that the body has failed, or is likely to fail, to comply with any obligation imposed on it by any directly applicable Community regulation made under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>9</sup>. In the case of a recognised investment exchange other than an overseas investment exchange<sup>10</sup>, the steps referred to above may include: (a) the granting to the Authority of access to the premises of the exchange for the purpose of inspecting those premises; or any documents on the premises which appear to the Authority to be relevant for the purpose<sup>11</sup>; (b) the suspension of the carrying on of any regulated activity<sup>12</sup> by the exchange for the period specified in the direction<sup>13</sup>.

A direction under these provisions is enforceable, on the application of the Authority, by an injunction<sup>14</sup>. The fact that a rule made by a recognised body has been altered in response to a direction given by the Authority does not prevent it from being subsequently altered or revoked by the recognised body<sup>15</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses/C. SUPERVISION/715. Power of the Financial Services Authority to revoke recognition.

715. Power of the Financial Services Authority to revoke recognition.

A recognition order<sup>1</sup> may be revoked by an order made by the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> at the request, or with the consent, of the recognised body<sup>3</sup> concerned<sup>4</sup>.

If it appears to the Authority that a recognised body (1) is failing, or has failed, to satisfy the recognition requirements<sup>5</sup>; or (2) is failing, or has failed, to comply with any other obligation imposed on it by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>6</sup>, it may make an order revoking the recognition order for that body even though the body does not wish the order to be made<sup>7</sup>.

If it appears to the Authority that a recognised body which is a recognised investment exchange<sup>8</sup> (a) has not carried on the business of an investment exchange during the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which the recognition order took effect in relation to it<sup>9</sup>; (b) has not carried on the business of an investment exchange at any time during the period of six months ending with the relevant day<sup>10</sup>; or (c) has failed, or is likely to fail, to comply with any obligation imposed on it by a directly applicable Community regulation made under the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive<sup>11</sup>, it may make an order revoking the recognition order for that body even though the body does not wish the order to be made<sup>12</sup>.

Such an order (a 'revocation order') must specify the date on which it is to take effect<sup>13</sup>. A revocation order may contain such transitional provisions as the Authority thinks necessary or expedient<sup>14</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'recognition order' see PARA 684 note 1.

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 297(2A) (as added: see note 9). See note 9.

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 297(3). 'Revocation order' has the meaning described in the text: ss 297, 313(1). In the case of a revocation order made under s 297(2) or (2A), the specified date must not be earlier than the end of the period of three months beginning with the day on which the order is made: s 297(4) (amended by SI 2007/126).

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 297(5).

716. Procedure for directions and revocation orders.

Before giving a direction<sup>1</sup> or making a revocation order<sup>2</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> must:

- 1759 (1) give written notice of its intention to do so to the recognised body<sup>4</sup> concerned<sup>5</sup>;
- 1760 (2) take such steps as it considers reasonably practicable to bring the notice to the attention of members (if any) of that body<sup>6</sup>; and
- 1761 (3) publish the notice in such manner as it thinks appropriate for bringing it to the attention of other persons who are, in its opinion, likely to be affected<sup>7</sup>.

A notice<sup>8</sup> must state why the Authority intends to give the direction or make the order; and draw attention to the right to make representations<sup>9</sup>. Before the end of the period for making representations<sup>10</sup> the recognised body<sup>11</sup>, any member of that body<sup>12</sup>, and any other person who is likely to be affected by the proposed direction or revocation order<sup>13</sup>, may make representations to the Authority<sup>14</sup>.

When the Authority has decided whether to give a direction<sup>15</sup> or to make the proposed revocation order, it must: (a) give the recognised body written notice of its decision<sup>16</sup>; and (b) if it has decided to give a direction or make an order, take such steps as it considers reasonably practicable for bringing its decision to the attention of members of the body or of other persons who are, in the Authority's opinion, likely to be affected<sup>17</sup>.

If the Authority considers it essential to do so, it may give a direction<sup>18</sup> without following the procedure described above<sup>19</sup> or, if the Authority has begun to follow that procedure, regardless of whether the period for making representations has expired<sup>20</sup>.

Disciplinary proceedings before the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal.

718. Disciplinary proceedings before the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal.

The Treasury<sup>1</sup> has power, if it is satisfied that the condition mentioned below<sup>2</sup> is satisfied, to make an order conferring functions on the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>3</sup> with respect to disciplinary proceedings<sup>4</sup> of one or more investment exchanges in relation to which a recognition order<sup>5</sup> is in force or of such investment exchanges generally<sup>6</sup> or of one or more clearing houses in relation to which a recognition order<sup>7</sup> is in force or of such clearing houses generally<sup>8</sup>.

The condition is that it is desirable to exercise the power described above<sup>9</sup> with a view to ensuring that: (1) decisions taken in disciplinary proceedings with respect to which functions are to be conferred on the Tribunal are consistent with decisions of the Tribunal in cases arising under Part VIII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>10</sup> and decisions taken in other disciplinary proceedings with respect to which the Tribunal has functions as a result of an order made by the Treasury<sup>11</sup>; or (2) the disciplinary proceedings are in accordance with the Convention rights<sup>12</sup>.

An order may modify or exclude any provision made by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 with respect to proceedings before the Tribunal<sup>13</sup>.

1 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

719. Liability in relation to recognised body's regulatory functions.

A recognised body<sup>1</sup> and its officers and staff are not liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge of the recognised body's regulatory functions<sup>2</sup> unless it is shown that the act or omission was in bad faith<sup>3</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'recognised body' see PARA 685 note 6.

2 'Regulatory functions' means the functions of the recognised body so far as relating to, or to matters arising out of, the obligations to which the body is subject under or by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000: s 291(3).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 291(1). However, s 291(1) does not prevent an award of damages made in respect of an act or omission on the ground that the act or omission was unlawful as a result of the Human Rights Act 1998 s 6(1) (see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 291(2).

720. Supervision of certain contracts.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> and the Treasury<sup>2</sup>, acting jointly, may by regulations provide for certain provisions relating to safeguarding financial markets on an insolvency<sup>3</sup> to apply to relevant contracts as they apply to contracts connected with a recognised body<sup>4</sup>. 'Relevant contracts' means contracts of a prescribed<sup>5</sup> description in relation to which settlement arrangements are provided by a person for the time being included in a list (the 'list') maintained by the Financial Services Authority for these purposes<sup>6</sup>.

The approval of the Treasury is required for the conditions set by the Authority for admission to the list<sup>7</sup> and the arrangements for admission to, and removal from, the list<sup>8</sup>.

The Authority must publish the list as for the time being in force<sup>9</sup> and provide a certified copy of it to any person who wishes to refer to it in legal proceedings<sup>10</sup>. A certified copy of the list is evidence of the contents of the list<sup>11</sup>. A copy of the list which purports to be certified by or on behalf of the Authority is to be taken to have been duly certified unless the contrary is shown<sup>12</sup>.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 301(1). As to the meaning of 'recognised body' see PARA 685 note 6. Regulations may be made under s 301 only if the Secretary of State and the Treasury are satisfied, having regard to the extent to which the relevant contracts concerned are contracts of a kind dealt in by persons supervised by the Financial Services Authority, that it is appropriate for the arrangements mentioned in s 301(2) to be supervised by the Authority: s 301(3). At the date at which this volume states the law no such regulations had been made. As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 see PARA 67 note 1. However, if the Authority changes the conditions or arrangements (or both) (s 301(6)(a)) and the Treasury give a fresh approval under s 301(4) (s 301(6)(b)), the suspension of the regulations ends on such date as the Treasury may, in giving the fresh approval, specify (s 301(6)).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses/D. DISALLOWANCE OF EXCESSIVE REGULATORY PROVISION/721. Power of the Financial Services Authority to disallow excessive regulatory provision.

D. DISALLOWANCE OF EXCESSIVE REGULATORY PROVISION

721. Power of the Financial Services Authority to disallow excessive regulatory provision.

Where a recognised body<sup>1</sup> proposes to make any regulatory provision<sup>2</sup> in connection with its business as an investment exchange or the provision by it of clearing services<sup>3</sup>, if it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>4</sup> (1) that the proposed provision will impose a requirement<sup>5</sup> on persons affected (directly or indirectly) by it<sup>6</sup>; and (2) that the requirement is excessive<sup>7</sup>, the Authority may direct that the proposed provision must not be made<sup>8</sup>. A requirement is excessive if (a) it is not required under Community law or any enactment or rule of law in the United Kingdom<sup>9</sup>; and (b) either it is not justified as pursuing a reasonable regulatory objective, or it is disproportionate to the end to be achieved<sup>10</sup>. In considering whether a requirement is excessive the Authority must have regard to all the relevant circumstances, including: (i) the effect of existing legal and other requirements<sup>11</sup>; (ii) the global character of financial services and markets and the international mobility of activity<sup>12</sup>; (iii) the desirability of facilitating innovation<sup>13</sup>; and (iv) the impact of the proposed provision on market confidence<sup>14</sup>. Any provision made in contravention of a direction under the above provisions is of no effect<sup>15</sup>.

For the purposes of the above provisions a variation of a proposal is treated as a new proposal<sup>16</sup>.

- 1 As to the meaning of 'recognised body' see PARA 685 note 6.
- 2 'Regulatory provision' means any rule, guidance, arrangements, policy or practice, and references to making provision must be read accordingly as including, as the case may require, issuing guidance, entering into arrangements or adopting a policy or practice: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 300E(1) (s 300E added by Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses Act 2006 s 2).
- 3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 300A(1) (s 300A added by the Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses Act 2006 s 1). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 300A-300D do not apply to an overseas investment exchange or overseas clearing house: s 300E(3) (as added: see note 2). As to the meanings of 'overseas investment exchange' and 'overseas clearing house' see PARA 709 note 12.
- 4 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.
- 5 For these purposes, 'requirement' includes any obligation or burden: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 300A(5) (as added: see note 3).
- 6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 300A(2)(a) (as added: see note 3).
- 7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 300A(2)(b) (as added: see note 3).
- 8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 300A(2) (as added: see note 3).
- 9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 300A(3)(a) (as added: see note 3). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

722. Duty to notify proposal to make regulatory provision.

A recognised body<sup>1</sup> that proposes to make any regulatory provision<sup>2</sup> must give written notice of the proposal to the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> without delay<sup>4</sup>. The Authority may by rules<sup>5</sup> (1) specify descriptions of regulatory provision in relation to which, or circumstances in which, the above duty<sup>6</sup> does not apply<sup>7</sup>; or (2) provide that the duty applies only to specified descriptions of regulatory provision or in specified circumstances<sup>8</sup>. The Authority may also by rules<sup>9</sup> (a) make provision as to the form and contents of the notice required<sup>10</sup>; and (b) require the body to provide such information relating to the proposal as may be specified in the rules or as the Authority may reasonably require<sup>11</sup>.

For the purposes of the above provisions a variation of a proposal is treated as a new proposal<sup>12</sup>.

723. Restriction on making provision before the Financial Services Authority decides whether to act.

Where notice of a proposal to make regulatory provision<sup>1</sup> is required to be given to the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup>, the provision must not be made (1) before that notice is given<sup>3</sup>; or (2) subject to the following provisions<sup>4</sup>, before the end of the initial period<sup>5</sup>. If before the end of the initial period the Authority notifies the body that it is calling in the proposal, specified provisions<sup>6</sup> apply as to when the provision may be made<sup>7</sup>. If (a) before the end of the initial period the Authority notifies the body that it is not calling in the proposal<sup>8</sup>; or (b) the initial period ends without the Authority having notified the body that it is calling in the proposal<sup>9</sup>, the body may then make the proposed provision<sup>10</sup>. Any provision made in contravention of the above provisions is of no effect<sup>11</sup>.

For the purposes of the above provisions a variation of a proposal is treated as a new proposal<sup>12</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses/D. DISALLOWANCE OF EXCESSIVE REGULATORY PROVISION/724. Consideration by the Financial Services Authority whether to disallow proposed provision.

724. Consideration by the Financial Services Authority whether to disallow proposed provision.

Where the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> notifies a recognised body<sup>2</sup> that it is calling in a proposal to make regulatory provision<sup>3</sup>, the Authority must publish a notice (1) giving details of the proposed provision<sup>4</sup>; (2) stating that it has called in the proposal in order to consider whether to disallow it<sup>5</sup>; and (3) specifying a period during which representations with respect to that question may be made to it<sup>6</sup>. The Authority may extend the period for making representations<sup>7</sup>.

The Authority must notify the body of its decision whether to disallow the provision not later than 30 days after the end of the period for making representations, and must publish the decision and the reasons for it<sup>8</sup>. The body must not make the provision unless and until (a) the Authority notifies it of its decision not to disallow it<sup>9</sup>; or (b) the 30-day period<sup>10</sup> ends without the Authority having notified any decision<sup>11</sup>.

If the Authority notifies the body of its decision to disallow the provision and that decision is questioned in legal proceedings (i) the body must not make the provision until those proceedings, and any proceedings on appeal, are finally determined<sup>12</sup>; (ii) if the Authority's decision is quashed and the matter is remitted to it for reconsideration, the court may give directions as to the period within which the Authority is to complete its reconsideration<sup>13</sup>; and (iii) the body must not make the provision until (A) the Authority notifies it of its decision on reconsideration not to disallow the provision<sup>14</sup>; or (B) the period specified by the court ends without the Authority having notified any decision<sup>15</sup>.

For the purposes of the above provisions a variation of a proposal is treated as a new proposal<sup>16</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses/E. CONTROL OVER RECOGNISED INVESTMENT EXCHANGES/725. Acquiring or increasing control.

E. CONTROL OVER RECOGNISED INVESTMENT EXCHANGES

725. Acquiring or increasing control.

If a step which a person proposes to take would result in his acquiring<sup>1</sup> (1) control over a recognised investment exchange<sup>2</sup>; (2) an additional<sup>3</sup> kind of control<sup>4</sup> over an exchange; or (3) an increase<sup>5</sup> in a relevant kind of control which he already has<sup>6</sup> over an exchange, he must notify the Financial Services Authority<sup>7</sup> of his proposal<sup>8</sup>.

A person who, without himself taking any such step, acquires any such control or additional or increased control must notify the Authority before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which he first becomes aware that he has acquired it<sup>9</sup>. A person who is under the duty to notify the Authority imposed by heads (1) to (3) above<sup>10</sup> must also give notice to the Authority on acquiring, or increasing, the control in question<sup>11</sup>.

Such a notice<sup>12</sup> is referred to<sup>13</sup> as a 'notice of control'<sup>14</sup>.

1 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XVIII Ch IA (ss 301A-301G), a person (the 'acquirer') acquires control over a recognised investment exchange ('E') on first falling within any of the cases set out below: s 301B(1) (ss 301A, 301B, 301G added by SI 2007/126). As to the meaning of 'recognised investment exchange' see PARA 684 note 1.

The cases referred to above are where the acquirer:

- 647 (1) holds 20% or more of the shares in E (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 301B(2)(a) (as so added));
- 648 (2) is able to exercise significant influence over the management of E by virtue of his shareholding in E (s 301B(2)(b) (as so added));
- 649 (3) holds 20% or more shares in a parent undertaking ('P') of E (s 301B(2)(c) (as so added));
- 650 (4) is able to exercise significant influence over the management of P by virtue of his shareholding in P (s 301B(2)(d) (as so added));
- 651 (5) is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, 20% or more of the voting power in E (s 301B(2)(e) (as so added));
- 652 (6) is able to exercise significant influence over the management of E by virtue of his voting power in E (s 301B(2)(f) (as so added));
- 653 (7) is entitled to exercise, or to control the exercise of, 20% or more of the voting power in P (s 301B(2)(g) (as so added)); or
- 654 (8) is able to exercise significant influence over the management of P by virtue of his voting power in P (s 301B(2)(h) (as so added)).

In s 301B(2) 'acquirer' means (a) the acquirer; (b) any of his associates; or (c) the acquirer and any of his associates: s 301B(3) (as so added). As to the meanings of 'associate', 'shares' and 'voting power' see PARA 591 note 16; definitions applied by s 310G (as so added). 'Controller', in relation to a recognised investment exchange, means a person who falls within any of the cases in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 301B(2) (see heads (1)-(8) above): s 301G (as so added). As to the meaning of 'parent undertaking' see PARA 351 note 32.

In Pt XVIII Ch IA (other than s 301B) 'acquiring control' or 'having control' includes: (i) acquiring or having an additional kind of control; or (ii) acquiring an increase in a relevant kind of control, or having increased control of a relevant kind: s 301B(7) (as so added). See also notes 4, 5.

2 See note 1.

3 As to additional control see note 1.

4 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XVIII Ch IA, each of the following is to be regarded as a kind of control:

- 655 (1) control arising as a result of the holding of shares in E (s 301B(4)(a) (as added: see note 1));
- 656 (2) control arising as a result of the holding of shares in P (s 301B(4)(b) (as so added));
- 657 (3) control arising as a result of the entitlement to exercise, or control the exercise of, voting power in E (s 301B(4)(c) (as so added));
- 658 (4) control arising as a result of the entitlement to exercise, or control the exercise of, voting power in P (s 301B(4)(d) (as so added)).

5 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XVIII Ch IA, a controller of E increases his control over E if:

- 659 (1) the percentage of shares held by the controller in E increases by the step mentioned in s 301B(6) (see below) (s 301B(5)(a) (as added: see note 1));
- 660 (2) the percentage of shares held by the controller in P increases by the step mentioned in s 301B(6) (see below) (s 301(5)(b) (as so added));
- 661 (3) the percentage of voting power which the controller is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, in E increases by the step mentioned in s 301B(6) (see below) (s 301(5)(c) (as so added));
- 662 (4) the percentage of voting power which the controller is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, in P increases by the step mentioned in s 301B(6) (see below) (s 301(5)(d) (as so added)); or
- 663 (5) the controller becomes a parent undertaking of E (s 301(5)(e) (as so added)).

The step referred to above is from 20% or more (but less than 50%) to 50% or more: s 301B(6) (as so added).

6 As to having control see note 1.

7 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

As to the power of the Authority to disallow excessive regulatory provision by recognised investment exchanges and clearing houses see PARA 721 et seq.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 301A(1) (as added: see note 1). Nothing in Pt XVIII Ch IA applies to an overseas investment exchange: s 301A(6) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'overseas investment exchange' see PARA 709 note 12.

Duty of the Financial Services Authority in relation to notice of control.

726. Duty of the Financial Services Authority in relation to notice of control.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must, before the end of the period of three months beginning with the date on which it receives a notice of control<sup>2</sup>, determine whether (1) to approve of the person concerned having the control<sup>3</sup> to which the notice relates<sup>4</sup>; or (2) to give a warning notice<sup>5</sup>. If the Authority decides to approve of the person concerned having the control to which the notice relates it must notify that person of its approval in writing without delay<sup>6</sup>.

If the Authority fails to comply with making the above determination within the three month period<sup>7</sup> it is to be treated as having given its approval and notified the person concerned at the end of the period so fixed<sup>8</sup>.

The Authority's approval remains effective only if the person to whom it relates acquires the control<sup>9</sup> in question:

1762 (a) before the end of such period as may be specified in the notice of approval<sup>10</sup>; or

1763 (b) if no period is specified, before the end of the period of one year beginning with the date (i) of the notice of approval<sup>11</sup>; (ii) on which the Authority is treated as having given approval<sup>12</sup>; or (iii) of a decision on a reference to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>13</sup> which results in the person concerned receiving approval<sup>14</sup>.

The Authority may give a decision notice<sup>15</sup> unless it is satisfied that the approval requirement<sup>16</sup> is met<sup>17</sup>. If the Authority proposes to give the person concerned a decision notice<sup>18</sup>, it must give him a warning notice<sup>19</sup>. A person to whom a decision notice is given<sup>20</sup> may refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>21</sup>.

727. Objection to existing control.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> is not satisfied that the approval requirement<sup>2</sup> is met, it may give a decision notice<sup>3</sup> to a person if he has failed to comply with a duty to notify<sup>4</sup>. In regard to certain such failures<sup>5</sup>, the Authority may (instead of giving such a notice<sup>6</sup>) approve the acquisition of control<sup>7</sup> in question by the person concerned as if he had given it a notice of control<sup>8</sup>.

The Authority may also give a decision notice<sup>9</sup> to a person who is a controller<sup>10</sup> of a recognised investment exchange<sup>11</sup> if the Authority becomes aware of matters as a result of which it is satisfied that the approval requirement is not met with respect to the controller<sup>12</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to give a decision notice in the above two cases<sup>13</sup> to a person, it must give him a warning notice<sup>14</sup> before the end of the period of three months beginning (1) in the first case<sup>15</sup>, with the date on which it became aware of the failure to comply with the duty in question<sup>16</sup>; (2) in the second case<sup>17</sup>, with the date on which it became aware of the matters in question<sup>18</sup>.

A person to whom a decision notice is given<sup>19</sup> may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>20</sup>.

727 Objection to existing control

TEXT AND NOTES--2000 Act s 301D replaced: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 301I (substituted by SI 2009/534).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses/E. CONTROL OVER RECOGNISED INVESTMENT EXCHANGES/728. Improperly acquired shares.

728. Improperly acquired shares.

The powers<sup>1</sup> considered below are exercisable if a person has acquired, or has continued to hold, any shares in contravention of a decision notice<sup>2</sup>.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> may by notice in writing given to the person concerned (a 'restriction notice') direct that any such shares which are specified in the notice are, until further notice, subject to one or more of the following restrictions:

- 1764 (1) a transfer of (or agreement to transfer) those shares, or in the case of unissued shares any transfer of (or agreement to transfer) the right to be issued with them, is void<sup>4</sup>;
- 1765 (2) no voting rights are to be exercisable in respect of the shares<sup>5</sup>;
- 1766 (3) no further shares are to be issued in right of them or in pursuance of any offer made to their holder<sup>6</sup>;
- 1767 (4) except in a liquidation, no payment is to be made of any sums due from the body corporate<sup>7</sup> on the shares, whether in respect of capital or otherwise<sup>8</sup>.

The High Court may, on the application of the Authority, order the sale of any shares<sup>9</sup> and, if they are for the time being subject to any such restriction<sup>10</sup>, that they are to cease to be subject to that restriction<sup>11</sup>.

No such order may be made<sup>12</sup> (a) until the end of the period within which a reference may be made to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>13</sup> in respect of the decision notice in question<sup>14</sup>; and (b) if a reference is made, until the matter has been determined or the reference withdrawn<sup>15</sup>. If such an order has been made<sup>16</sup>, the court may, on the application of the Authority, make such further order relating to the sale or transfer of the shares as it thinks fit<sup>17</sup>.

If shares are sold in pursuance of such an order<sup>18</sup>, the proceeds of sale, less the costs of the sale, must be paid into court for the benefit of the persons beneficially interested in them; and any such person may apply to the court for the whole or part of the proceeds to be paid to him<sup>19</sup>.

A copy of the restriction notice must be given to (i) the recognised investment exchange to whose shares it relates<sup>20</sup>; and (ii) if it relates to shares held by an associate of that exchange, that associate<sup>21</sup>.

1 The powers conferred by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 301E.

Section 301E applies:

- 664 (1) in the case of an acquirer falling within s 301A(1) (see PARA 725), to all the shares (a) in the recognised investment exchange which the acquirer has acquired; (b) which are held by him or an associate of his; and (c) which were not so held immediately before he became a person having control over the exchange (s 301E(7)(a) (s 301E added by SI 2007/126));
- 665 (2) in the case of an acquirer falling within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 301A(2) (see PARA 725 note 1), to all the shares held by him or an associate of his at the time when he first became aware that he had acquired control over the exchange (s 301E(7)(b) (as so added)); and
- 666 (3) to all the shares in an undertaking ('C') (a) which are held by the acquirer or an associate of his; and (b) which were not so held before he became a person with control in relation to the exchange, where C is the undertaking in which shares were acquired by the acquirer (or an associate of his) and, as a result, he became a person with control in relation to that exchange (s 301E(7)(c) (as so added)).

As to the meanings of 'associate' and 'shares' see PARA 725 note 1. As to the meaning of 'recognised investment exchange' see PARA 684 note 1. As to acquiring control see PARA 725 note 1.

UPDATE

728 Improperly acquired shares

TEXT AND NOTES--2000 Act s 301E replaced: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 301J, 301K (substituted by SI 2009/534).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses/E. CONTROL OVER RECOGNISED INVESTMENT EXCHANGES/729. Offences in regard to acquisition of control.

729. Offences in regard to acquisition of control.

A person who fails to comply with certain duties to notify the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> imposed on him<sup>2</sup> is in each case guilty of an offence<sup>3</sup>.

If a person who has given a notice of control<sup>4</sup> to the Authority carries out the proposal to which the notice relates, he is guilty of an offence if (1) the period of three months beginning with the date on which the Authority received the notice is still running<sup>5</sup>; and (2) the Authority has not responded to the notice by either giving its approval or giving him a warning notice<sup>6</sup>.

A person to whom the Authority has given a warning notice<sup>7</sup> is guilty of an offence if he carries out the proposal to which the notice relates before the Authority has decided whether to give him a decision notice<sup>8</sup>.

A person guilty of the above offences<sup>9</sup> is liable on summary conviction to a fine<sup>10</sup>.

A person to whom a decision notice<sup>11</sup> has been given is guilty of an offence if he acquires<sup>12</sup> or retains the control to which the notice applies at a time when the notice is still in force<sup>13</sup>. A person guilty of such an offence<sup>14</sup> is liable on summary conviction to a fine, and on conviction on indictment to imprisonment or a fine or both<sup>15</sup>.

It is a defence for a person charged with the first of the offences in regard to failure to notify the Authority<sup>16</sup> to show that he had, at the time of the alleged offence, no knowledge of the act or circumstances by virtue of which the duty to notify the Authority arose<sup>17</sup>.

If a person (a) was under such a duty to notify the Authority<sup>18</sup> but had no knowledge of the act or circumstances by virtue of which that duty arose<sup>19</sup>; but (b) subsequently becomes aware of that act or those circumstances<sup>20</sup>, he must notify the Authority before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which he first became so aware<sup>21</sup>. Such a person<sup>22</sup> is guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction, to a fine<sup>23</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iii) Recognised Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses/F. COMPETITION SCRUTINY/(A) Fair Trading/730. Reports.

F. COMPETITION SCRUTINY

(A) FAIR TRADING

730. Reports.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must send to the Treasury<sup>2</sup> and to the Office of Fair Trading<sup>3</sup> a copy of any regulatory provisions<sup>4</sup> with which it is provided on an application for recognition<sup>5</sup>. The Authority must send to the Office of Fair Trading such information in its possession as a result of the application for recognition as it considers will assist it in discharging its functions in connection with the application<sup>6</sup>.

The Office of Fair Trading must issue a report as to whether: (1) a regulatory provision of which a copy has been sent to it<sup>7</sup> has a significantly adverse effect on competition<sup>8</sup>; or (2) a combination of regulatory provisions so copied to it have such an effect<sup>9</sup>. If the Office of Fair Trading's conclusion is that one or more provisions have a significantly adverse effect on competition, it must state its reasons for that conclusion<sup>10</sup>. The Office of Fair Trading must keep under review the regulatory provisions and practices of recognised bodies<sup>11</sup>.

If at any time the Office of Fair Trading considers that a regulatory provision or practice has a significantly adverse effect on competition<sup>12</sup> or regulatory provisions or practices, or a combination of regulating provisions and practices have such an effect<sup>13</sup>, it must make a report<sup>14</sup>. If at any time the Office of Fair Trading considers that a regulatory provision or practice does not have a significantly adverse effect on competition<sup>15</sup> or regulatory provisions or practices, or a combination of regulatory provisions and practices do not have any such effect<sup>16</sup>, it may make a report to that effect<sup>17</sup>.

For the purposes of the law of defamation, absolute privilege attaches to any such report of the Office of Fair Trading<sup>18</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebooks, Recognised Investment Exchanges and Recognised Clearing Houses (REC). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

3 As to the Office of Fair Trading see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 6 et seq.

4 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XVIII Ch II (ss 302-310) and Ch III (ss 311, 312), 'regulatory provisions' means: (1) the rules of an investment exchange or a clearing house; (2) any guidance issued by an investment exchange or clearing house; (3) in the case of an investment exchange, the arrangements and criteria mentioned in s 287(3)(a), (b) (see PARA 706); (4) in the case of a clearing house, the arrangements and criteria mentioned in s 288(3) (see PARA 707): s 302(1) (definition amended by SI 2007/126). As to rules of a clearing house and rules of an investment exchange see PARA 685 note 7.

References in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XVIII (ss 285-313) to guidance issued by an investment exchange are references to guidance issued, or any recommendation made, in writing or other legible form and intended to have continuing effect, by the investment exchange to all or any class of its members or users (s 313(3)(a)) or persons seeking to become members of the investment exchange or to use its facilities (s 313(3)(b)), with respect to any of the matters mentioned in s 313(2)(a)-(c) (see PARA 685) (s 313(3)).

References in Pt XVIII to guidance issued by a clearing house are to guidance issued, or any recommendation made, in writing or other legible form and intended to have continuing effect, by the clearing house to all or any class of its members (s 313(4)(a)) or persons using or seeking to use its services (s 313(4)(b)), with respect to the provision by it or its members of clearing services (s 313(4)).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 303(1) (s 303(1)-(5) amended by the Enterprise Act 2002 Sch 25 para 40(1), (10)). As to the application for recognition see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 287 (see PARA 706) or s 288 (see PARA 707).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 303(2) (as amended: see note 5).

7 Ie under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 303(1).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 303(3)(a) (as amended: see note 5). For the purposes of Pt XVIII Ch II, regulatory provisions or practices have a significantly adverse effect on competition if: (1) they have, or are intended or likely to have, that effect (s 302(2)(a)); or (2) the effect that they have, or are intended or likely to have, is to require or encourage behaviour which has, or is intended or likely to have, a significantly adverse effect on competition (s 302(2)(b)).

'Practices' means: (a) in relation to a recognised investment exchange, the practices of the exchange in its capacity as such; and (b) in relation to a recognised clearing house, the practices of the clearing house in respect of its clearing arrangements: s 302(1). As to the meaning of 'recognised investment exchange' see PARA 684 note 1; and as to the meaning of 'recognised clearing house' see PARA 684 note 6.

If regulatory provisions or practices have, or are intended or likely to have, the effect of requiring or encouraging exploitation of the strength of a market position they are to be taken, for the purposes of Pt XVIII Ch II, to have an adverse effect on competition: s 302(3). In determining under Pt XVIII Ch II whether any regulatory provisions have, or are intended or likely to have, a particular effect, it may be assumed that persons to whom the provisions concerned are addressed will act in accordance with them: s 302(4).

In the case of an application for recognition under s 287 (see PARA 706), the Office of Fair Trading must issue its report under s 303(3) before the end of the period of 12 weeks beginning with the date on which it receives the copy sent to it under s 303(1): s 303(6) (s 303(6), (7) added by SI 2007/126). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 303(6) does not apply if the application is made by an overseas investment exchange: s 303(7) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'overseas investment exchange' see PARA 709 note 12.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 303(3)(b) (as amended: see note 5). See note 8. When the Office of Fair Trading issues a report under s 303(3), it must send a copy of it to the Authority, the Competition

Commission and the Treasury: s 303(5) (as so amended). As to the Competition Commission see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 9.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 303(4) (as amended: see note 5).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 304(1) (s 304(1)-(10) amended by the Enterprise Act 2002 Sch 25 para 40(1), (11)). As to the meaning of 'recognised body' see PARA 685 note 6.

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 304(2)(a) (as amended: see note 11).

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 304(2)(b) (as amended: see note 11).

14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 304(2) (as amended: see note 11). A report under s 304(2) must contain details of the adverse effect on competition: s 304(4). If the Office of Fair Trading makes a report under s 304(2), it must send a copy of it to the Treasury, to the Competition Commission and to the Authority (s 304(5)(a) (as so amended)) and publish it in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public (s 304(5)(b) (as so amended)). See further note 17.

15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 304(3)(a) (as amended: see note 11).

16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 304(3)(b) (as amended: see note 11).

17 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 304(3) (as amended: see note 11). Before publishing a report under s 304, the Office of Fair Trading must, so far as practicable, exclude any matter which relates to the private affairs of a particular individual the publication of which, in the opinion of the Office, would or might seriously and prejudicially affect its interests: s 304(7) (as so amended). Before publishing such a report, the Office of Fair Trading must exclude any matter which relates to the affairs of a particular body the publication of which, in the opinion of the Office, would or might seriously and prejudicially affect its interests: s 304(8) (as so amended). The provisions of s 304(7), (8) do not apply to the copy of a report which the Office of Fair Trading is required to send to the Treasury, the Competition Commission and the Authority under s 304(5)(a) (see note 14) or s 304(6)(a) (see below): s 304(9) (as so amended).

If the Office of Fair Trading makes a report under s 304(3), it must send a copy of it to the Treasury, to the Competition Commission and to the Authority (s 304(6)(a) (as so amended)) and the Office may publish it (s 304(6)(b) (as so amended)).

731. Investigations.

For the purpose of investigating any matter<sup>1</sup>, the Office of Fair Trading<sup>2</sup> may exercise the powers conferred on it, which are described below<sup>3</sup>.

The Office of Fair Trading may by notice in writing require any person to produce to it or to a person appointed by it for the purpose, at a time and place specified in the notice, any document<sup>4</sup> which is specified or described in the notice<sup>5</sup> and is a document in that person's custody or under his control<sup>6</sup>.

The Office of Fair Trading may by notice in writing: (1) require any person carrying on any business to provide it with such information as may be specified or described in the notice<sup>7</sup>; and (2) specify the time within which, and the manner and form in which, any such information is to be provided<sup>8</sup>.

If a person (the 'defaulter') refuses, or otherwise fails, to comply with a notice under these provisions, the Office of Fair Trading may certify that fact in writing to the High Court and the court may inquire into the case<sup>9</sup>. If, after hearing any witness who may be produced against or on behalf of the defaulter and any statement which may be offered in defence, the court is satisfied that the defaulter did not have a reasonable excuse for refusing or otherwise failing to comply with the notice, the court may deal with the defaulter as if he were in contempt<sup>10</sup>.

732. Investigation and reports by the Competition Commission.

The Competition Commission<sup>1</sup> must investigate the matter which is the subject of the report by the Office of Fair Trading<sup>2</sup> if the Office sends to the Competition Commission a report<sup>3</sup> or if the Office asks the Commission to consider a report<sup>4</sup>. The Commission must then make its own report on the matter unless it considers that, as a result of a change of circumstances, no useful purpose would be served by a report<sup>5</sup>.

Such a report must state the Commission's conclusion as to whether: (1) the regulatory provision or practice<sup>6</sup> which is the subject of the report has a significantly adverse effect on competition<sup>7</sup>; or (2) the regulatory provisions or practices or combination of regulatory provisions and practices which are the subject of the report have such an effect<sup>8</sup>.

A report stating the Commission's conclusion that there is a significantly adverse effect on competition must also state whether the Commission considers that that effect is justified<sup>9</sup> and, if it states that the Commission considers that it is not justified, state its conclusion as to what action, if any, the Treasury ought to direct the Financial Services Authority to take<sup>10</sup>.

Whenever the Commission is considering, for these purposes, whether a particular adverse effect on competition is justified, the Commission must ensure, so far as that is reasonably possible, that the conclusion it reaches is compatible with the obligations imposed on the recognised body<sup>11</sup> concerned by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>12</sup>. Such a report must contain such an account of the Commission's reasons for its conclusions as is expedient, in the opinion of the Commission, for facilitating proper understanding of them<sup>13</sup>. If the Commission makes such a report it must send a copy to the Treasury, the Authority and the Office of Fair Trading<sup>14</sup>.

If the case relates to an application for recognition under s 287 (see PARA 706), other than an application by an overseas applicant and s 306(2)(a) or 306(3)(a) applies (ie if the Office of Fair Trading has asked the Commission to consider such a report under s 303(3)), the Commission must (1) make a report under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 306, or a statement under s 306(5) (see note 5), before the end of the period of 12 weeks beginning with the date on which it receives a copy of the Office's report under s 303(3); and (2) if it makes a statement under s 306(5), send a copy to the Financial Services Authority and the Treasury: s 306(13), (14) (added by SI 2007/126). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

734. Power of the Treasury to give directions.

The provisions described below<sup>1</sup> apply if the Competition Commission<sup>2</sup> makes a report<sup>3</sup> (other than a report on an application for a recognition order<sup>4</sup>) which states the Commission's conclusion that there is a significantly adverse effect on competition<sup>5</sup>.

If the Commission's conclusion, as stated in the report, is that the adverse effect on competition is not justified, the Treasury<sup>6</sup> must give a remedial direction<sup>7</sup> to the Financial Services Authority<sup>8</sup>. If the Commission's conclusion, as stated in its report, is that the adverse effect on competition is justified<sup>9</sup> but the Treasury considers that the exceptional circumstances of the case require it to act<sup>10</sup>, the Treasury may give a direction to the Authority requiring it to take such action as it considers to be necessary in the light of the exceptional circumstances of the case<sup>11</sup> and as may be specified in the direction<sup>12</sup>.

If<sup>13</sup> the Treasury declines to act<sup>14</sup>, it must make a statement to that effect, giving its reasons<sup>15</sup>. If the Treasury gives a direction<sup>16</sup>, it must make a statement giving details of the direction<sup>17</sup>.

The Treasury must: (1) publish any statement made in the way appearing to it best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>18</sup>; and (2) lay a copy of it before Parliament<sup>19</sup>.

7    'Remedial direction' means a direction requiring the Financial Services Authority: (1) to revoke the recognition order for the body concerned; or (2) to give such directions to the body concerned as may be specified in it: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 308(8). In considering the action to be specified in a remedial direction, the Treasury must have regard to any conclusion of the Commission included in the report because of s 306(7)(b) (see PARA 732): s 308(4).

(D) DISAPPLICATION OF PROVISIONS OF THE

736. Disapplication of the Chapter I prohibition.

The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XVIII Ch III<sup>1</sup> disapplies the general domestic competition law as it affects matters covered by the Act.

The prohibition on the restriction of competition affecting trade in the United Kingdom<sup>2</sup> imposed by the Competition Act 1998 (referred to as the 'Chapter I prohibition'<sup>3</sup>) does not apply to an agreement for the constitution of a recognised body<sup>4</sup> to the extent to which the agreement relates to the regulatory provisions<sup>5</sup> of that body<sup>6</sup>.

If the conditions below<sup>7</sup> are satisfied, the Chapter I prohibition does not apply to an agreement for the constitution of an investment exchange which is not a recognised investment exchange<sup>8</sup> or a clearing house which is not a recognised clearing house<sup>9</sup>, to the extent to which the agreement relates to the regulatory provisions of that body<sup>10</sup>. The conditions are that: (1) the body has applied for a recognition order<sup>11</sup> in accordance with the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>12</sup>; and (2) the application has not been determined<sup>13</sup>.

The Chapter I prohibition does not apply to a recognised body's regulatory provisions<sup>14</sup>, nor does it apply to a decision made by a recognised body to the extent to which the decision relates to any of that body's regulatory provisions or practices<sup>15</sup>. The prohibition does not apply to practices of a recognised body<sup>16</sup>. The Chapter I prohibition does not apply to an agreement the parties to which consist of or include a recognised body<sup>17</sup> or a person who is subject to the rules of a recognised body<sup>18</sup>, to the extent to which the agreement consists of provisions the inclusion of which is required or encouraged by any of the body's regulatory provisions or practices<sup>19</sup>.

If a recognised body's recognition order is revoked, the provisions described above<sup>20</sup> have effect as if that body had continued to be recognised until the end of the period of six months beginning with the day on which the revocation took effect<sup>21</sup>.

G. PASSPORT RIGHTS

(A) EEA MARKET OPERATORS IN THE UNITED KINGDOM

738. Exercise of passport rights by EEA market operator.

An EEA market operator<sup>1</sup> may, in pursuance of the right under the applicable provision<sup>2</sup>, make arrangements in the United Kingdom to facilitate access to, or use of, a specified<sup>3</sup> regulated market or specified multilateral trading facility operated by it if (1) the operator has given its home state regulator<sup>4</sup> notice of its intention to make such arrangements<sup>5</sup>; and (2) the home state regulator has given the Financial Services Authority<sup>6</sup> notice of the operator's intention<sup>7</sup>.

In making such arrangements<sup>8</sup>, the operator is exempt from the general prohibition<sup>9</sup> as respects any regulated activity<sup>10</sup> which is carried on as a part of its business of operating the market or facility in question, or in connection with, or for the purposes of, that business<sup>11</sup>.

1 'EEA market operator' means a person who is a market operator (within the meaning of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 4.1.13) whose home state is an EEA state other than the United Kingdom: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 312D (ss 312A, 312D added by SI 2007/126). 'Home state', in relation to an EEA market operator, means the EEA state in which it has its registered office, or if it has no registered office, its head office: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 312D (as so added). As to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1. As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

2 'Applicable provision' means (1) in the case of arrangements relating to a multilateral trading facility, the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 31.5; and (2) in the case of arrangements relating to a regulated market, the first subparagraph of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 42.6: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 312D (as added: see note 1). 'Multilateral trading facility' has the meaning given in the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 4.1.15: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 313(1) (definition added by SI 2007/126). As to the meaning of 'regulated market' see PARA 711 note 24. The exercise of EEA rights is known as 'passporting' or the exercise of 'passport' rights. As to the meaning of 'EEA right' see PARA 315 note 3.

3 'Specified' means specified in the notice referred to in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 312A(1)(a) (see head (1) in the text): s 312A(3) (as added: see note 1).

4 'Home state regulator' means the competent authority (within the meaning of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 4.1.22) of the EEA state which is the home state in relation to the EEA market operator concerned: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 312D (as added: see note 1).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 312A(1)(a) (as added: see note 1). Section 312A does not apply to an overseas investment exchange: s 312A(4) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'overseas investment exchange' see PARA 709 note 12.

6 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

Removal of passport rights from EEA market operator.

739. Removal of passport rights from EEA market operator.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may prohibit an EEA market operator<sup>2</sup> from making or, as the case may be, continuing arrangements in the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup>, in pursuance of the applicable provision<sup>4</sup>, to facilitate access to, or use of, a regulated market<sup>5</sup> or multilateral trading facility<sup>6</sup> operated by the operator if (1) the Authority has clear and demonstrable grounds for believing that the operator has contravened a relevant requirement<sup>7</sup>; and (2) the Authority has first complied with the requirements set out below<sup>8</sup> in subsections (3) to (9).

The first requirement is that the Authority must notify the operator and its home state regulator of its finding under head (1) above<sup>9</sup>.

The second requirements is that the Authority may not exercise the power under heads (1) and (2) above<sup>10</sup> unless satisfied (a) either that the home state regulator has failed or refused to take measures for the purpose<sup>11</sup>; or that the measures taken by the home state regulator have proved inadequate for that purpose<sup>12</sup>; and (b) that the operator is acting in a manner which is clearly prejudicial to the interests of investors in the United Kingdom or the orderly functioning of the financial markets<sup>13</sup>. If the Authority is so satisfied<sup>14</sup>, it must give written notice to the operator, and the home state regulator, of its intention to exercise the power<sup>15</sup>.

The third requirement is that if, having considered any representations<sup>16</sup> made by the operator, the Authority decides to exercise the power<sup>17</sup>, it must (i) notify the operator in writing that it will be prohibited from making or, as the case may be, continuing the arrangements<sup>18</sup> from the date specified in the notice<sup>19</sup>; and (ii) notify the home state regulator of the action to be taken in relation to the operator<sup>20</sup>.

If the Authority exercises the power under heads (1) and (2) above<sup>21</sup> it must at the earliest opportunity notify the European Commission of the action taken in relation to the operator<sup>22</sup>. The exemption from the general prohibition conferred on an operator<sup>23</sup> ceases to apply if the Authority exercises the power<sup>24</sup> in relation to the operator<sup>25</sup>.

The right to make the above arrangements<sup>26</sup> may be reinstated in relation to the operator (together with the above exemption<sup>27</sup>) if the Authority is satisfied that the contravention which led to the Authority exercising the power under heads (1) and (2) above has been remedied<sup>28</sup>.

(B) RECOGNISED INVESTMENT EXCHANGES OPERATING IN OTHER EEA STATES

740. Exercise of passport rights by recognised investment exchange.

A recognised investment exchange<sup>1</sup> may, in pursuance of the right under the applicable provision<sup>2</sup>, make arrangements in an EEA state<sup>3</sup> (other than the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup>) to facilitate access to, or use of, a regulated market<sup>5</sup> or multilateral trading facility<sup>6</sup> operated by the exchange (the 'relevant arrangements')<sup>7</sup>.

The exchange must give the Authority written notice of its intention to make the relevant arrangements which (1) describes the arrangements<sup>8</sup>; and (2) identifies the EEA state in which it intends to make them<sup>9</sup>. The Authority must, within one month of receiving such a notice<sup>10</sup>, send a copy of it to the host state regulator<sup>11</sup>. The exchange may not make the relevant arrangements until the Authority has complied with this obligation to send a copy of the notice to the host state regulator<sup>12</sup>.

If the Authority receives a request for information<sup>13</sup> from the host state regulator<sup>14</sup>, the Authority must, as soon as reasonably practicable, comply with the request<sup>15</sup>.

(iv) Lloyd's

741. In general.

Lloyd's is a society, incorporated by statute, which provides the facilities for the Lloyd's insurance underwriting market to carry on business<sup>1</sup>. Although supervised by the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup>, the Council of Lloyd's retains the capacity to make byelaws regulating the market and has responsibility for its functioning<sup>3</sup>.

1 As to Lloyd's generally see PARA 77; and INSURANCE.

2 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. As to the regulation of Lloyd's see PARA 742 et seq. In particular, the Financial Services Authority may make a direction applying certain provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to members of Lloyd's (see ss 316, 317; and PARA 743), and may give directions to the Council of Lloyd's, to the Society, or to both (see s 318; and PARA 745).

3 See the Lloyd's Act 1982; and INSURANCE. The Financial Services Authority must keep itself informed about the way in which the Council of Lloyd's supervises and regulates the Lloyd's market and the way in which regulated activities are being carried out: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 314; and PARA 742.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iv) Lloyd's/742. The general duty of the Financial Services Authority.

742. The general duty of the Financial Services Authority.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must keep itself informed about: (1) the way in which the Council of Lloyd's<sup>2</sup> supervises and regulates the market at Lloyd's; and (2) the way in which regulated activities<sup>3</sup> are being carried on in that market<sup>4</sup>. The Authority must keep under review the desirability of exercising: (a) any of its powers under Part XIX of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>5</sup>; (b) any powers which it has in relation to the Society of Lloyd's<sup>6</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to Lloyd's generally see PARA 77; and INSURANCE.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iv) Lloyd's/743. Application of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.

743. Application of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000.

The general prohibition<sup>1</sup> or (if the general prohibition is not applied under these provisions<sup>2</sup>) a core provision<sup>3</sup> applies to the carrying on of an insurance market activity<sup>4</sup> by: (1) a member of the Society of Lloyd's; or (2) the members of the Society taken together, only if the Financial Services Authority<sup>5</sup> so directs<sup>6</sup>. In deciding whether to give a direction<sup>7</sup>, the Authority must have particular regard to: (a) the interests of policyholders<sup>8</sup> and potential policyholders; (b) any failure by the Society to satisfy an obligation to which it is subject as a result of a provision of the law of another EEA state<sup>9</sup> which gives effect to any of the Insurance Directives<sup>10</sup>, and is applicable to an activity carried on in that state by a person to whom these provisions apply; (c) the need to ensure the effective exercise of the functions which the Authority has in relation to the Society<sup>11</sup>. A direction must be in writing<sup>12</sup>. A direction applying the general prohibition may apply it in relation to different classes of person<sup>13</sup>. An insurance market direction: (i) must specify each core provision, class of person and kind of activity to which it applies; (ii) may apply different provisions in relation to different classes of person and different kinds of activity<sup>14</sup>. A direction has effect from the date specified in it, which may not be earlier than the date on which it is made<sup>15</sup>. A direction must be published in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>16</sup>. The Authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of the direction<sup>17</sup>. The Authority must, without delay, give the Treasury<sup>18</sup> a copy of any direction which it gives<sup>19</sup>.

1 As to the general prohibition see PARA 80.

2 I.e. under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 316.

3 'Core provision' means a provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 mentioned in s 317: s 316(3). The core provisions are Pt V (ss 56-71) (see PARA 364 et seq), Pt X (ss 138-164) (see PARA 21 et seq), Pt XI (ss 165-177) (see PARA 447 et seq), Pt XII (ss 178-192) (see PARA 377 et seq), Pt XIV (ss 205-211) (see PARA 465), Pt XV (ss 212-224) (see PARA 575 et seq), Pt XVI (ss 225-234A) (see PARA 583 et seq), Pt XXII (ss 340-346) (see PARA 764 et seq), Pt XXIV (ss 355-379) (see PARA 490 et seq), ss 384-386 (see PARA 474), and Pt XXVI (ss 387-396) (see PARA 769 et seq): s 317(1). References in an applied core provision to an authorised person are (where necessary) to be read as references to a person in the class to which the insurance market direction (see note 6) applies: s 317(2). As to authorised persons see PARA 314. An insurance market direction may provide that a core provision is to have effect, in relation to persons to whom the provision is applied by the direction, with modifications: s 317(3).

4 'Insurance market activity' means a regulated activity relating to contracts of insurance written at Lloyd's: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 316(3). As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq. As to the meaning of 'contracts of insurance' see PARA 351 note 13. As to Lloyd's generally see PARA 77; and INSURANCE.

5 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 316(1). A direction given under s 316(1) which applies a core provision is referred to in Pt XIX (ss 314-324) as an 'insurance market direction': s 316(2).

7 le under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 316(1).

8 As to the meaning of 'policyholder' see PARA 591 note 15.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iv) Lloyd's/744. Authorisation and permission in relation to the Society of Lloyd's.

744. Authorisation and permission in relation to the Society of Lloyd's.

The Society of Lloyd's<sup>1</sup> is an authorised person<sup>2</sup>. The Society has permission to carry on a regulated activity<sup>3</sup> of any of the following kinds: (1) arranging deals<sup>4</sup> in contracts of insurance<sup>5</sup> written at Lloyd's (the 'basic market activity'); (2) arranging deals in participation in Lloyd's syndicates<sup>6</sup> (the 'secondary market activity'); and (3) an activity carried on in connection with, or for the purposes of, the basic or secondary market activity<sup>7</sup>. The power conferred on the Financial Services Authority<sup>8</sup> to vary or cancel a permission<sup>9</sup> may be exercised at any time<sup>10</sup>. The Society is not subject to any requirement of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 concerning the registered office of a body corporate<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to Lloyd's generally see PARA 77; and INSURANCE.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 315(1). As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

3 As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

4 'Arranging deals', in relation to the investments to which the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XIX (ss 314-324) applies, means the investment described in Sch 2 para 3 (see PARA 84): s 324(1).

5 As to the meaning of 'contracts of insurance' see PARA 351 note 13.

6 'Participation in Lloyd's syndicates', in relation to the secondary market activity, means the investment described in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 2 para 21(1) (see PARA 85): s 324(1).

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 315(2). For the purposes of Pt IV (ss 40-55) (permission to carry on regulated activities) (see PARA 348 et seq), the Society's permission is to be treated as if it had been given on an application for permission under Pt IV: s 315(3).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iv) Lloyd's/745. Exercise of powers through the Council of Lloyd's.

745. Exercise of powers through the Council of Lloyd's.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may give a direction<sup>2</sup> to the Council of Lloyd's<sup>3</sup> or to the Society of Lloyd's (acting through the Council) or to both<sup>4</sup>. The direction is given to the body concerned: (1) in relation to the exercise of its powers generally with a view to achieving, or in support of, a specified<sup>5</sup> objective; or (2) in relation to the exercise of a specified power which it has, whether in a specified manner or with a view to achieving, or in support of, a specified objective<sup>6</sup>. A direction does not, at any time, prevent the exercise by the Authority of any of its powers<sup>7</sup>. A direction must be in writing<sup>8</sup>, and must be published in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>9</sup>. The Authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of the direction<sup>10</sup>. The Authority must, without delay, give the Treasury<sup>11</sup> a copy of any direction which it gives<sup>12</sup>.

746. Consultation.

Before giving a direction<sup>1</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> must publish a draft of the proposed direction<sup>3</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by: (1) a cost benefit analysis<sup>4</sup>; and (2) notice that representations about the proposed direction may be made to the Authority within a specified time<sup>5</sup>. Before giving the proposed direction, the Authority must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with head (2) above<sup>6</sup>. If the Authority gives the proposed direction it must publish an account, in general terms, of: (a) the representations made to it in accordance with head (2) above; and (b) its response to them<sup>7</sup>. If the direction differs from the published draft in a way which is, in the opinion of the Authority, significant: (i) the Authority must<sup>8</sup> publish details of the difference; and (ii) those details must be accompanied by a cost benefit analysis<sup>9</sup>. The provisions described above<sup>10</sup> do not apply if the Authority considers that the delay involved in complying with them would be prejudicial to the interests of consumers<sup>11</sup>. When the Authority is required to publish a document<sup>12</sup>, it must do so in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>13</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(iv) Lloyd's/747. Former underwriting members.

747. Former underwriting members.

A former underwriting member<sup>1</sup> may carry out each contract of insurance<sup>2</sup> that he has underwritten at Lloyd's whether or not he is an authorised person<sup>3</sup>. If he is an authorised person, any Part IV permission<sup>4</sup> that he has does not extend to his activities in carrying out any of those contracts<sup>5</sup>. The Financial Services Authority<sup>6</sup> may impose on a former underwriting member such requirements as appear to it to be appropriate for the purpose of protecting policyholders<sup>7</sup> against the risk that he may not be able to meet his liabilities<sup>8</sup>. A person on whom a requirement is imposed may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>9</sup>.

A requirement<sup>10</sup> takes effect: (1) immediately, if the notice given by the Authority<sup>11</sup> states that that is the case; (2) in any other case, on such date as may be specified in that notice<sup>12</sup>. If the Authority proposes to impose a requirement on a former underwriting member ('A')<sup>13</sup>, or imposes such a requirement on him which takes effect immediately, it must give him written notice<sup>14</sup>. The notice must: (a) give details of the requirement; (b) state the Authority's reasons for imposing it; (c) inform A that he may make representations to the Authority within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not he has referred the matter to the Tribunal); (d) inform him of the date on which the requirement took effect or will take effect; and (e) inform him of his right to refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>15</sup>. If, having considered any representations made by A, the Authority decides to impose the proposed requirement, or if it decides, where the requirement has been imposed, not to revoke it, the Authority must give him written notice<sup>16</sup>. If the Authority decides not to impose a proposed requirement, or to revoke a requirement that has been imposed, it must give A written notice<sup>17</sup>. If the Authority decides to grant an application by A for the variation or revocation of a requirement, it must give him written notice of its decision<sup>18</sup>. If the Authority proposes to refuse an application by A for the variation or revocation of a requirement, it must give him a warning notice<sup>19</sup>. If the Authority, having considered any representations made in response to the warning notice, decides to refuse the application, it must give A a decision notice<sup>20</sup>. If the Authority decides to refuse an application for a variation or revocation of the requirement, the applicant may refer the matter to the Tribunal<sup>21</sup>. If a notice informs a person of his right to refer a matter to the Tribunal, it must give an indication of the procedure on such a reference<sup>22</sup>.

The Authority may make rules imposing such requirements on persons to whom the rules apply as appear to it to be appropriate for protecting policyholders against the risk that those persons may not be able to meet their liabilities<sup>23</sup>. The rules may apply to former underwriting members generally or to a class of former underwriting member specified in them<sup>24</sup>.

1 'Former underwriting member' means a person ceasing to be an underwriting member of the Society of Lloyd's on, or at any time after, 24 December 1996: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 324(1). As to Lloyd's generally see PARA 77; and INSURANCE.

748. Transfer schemes.

The Treasury<sup>1</sup> may by order provide for the application of any provision of Part VII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>2</sup> (with or without modification) in relation to schemes for the transfer of the whole or any part of the business carried on by one or more members of the Society of Lloyd's<sup>3</sup> or former underwriting members<sup>4</sup>.

1 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

2 I.e. the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VII (ss 104-117) (control of business transfers): see PARA 590 et seq.

3 As to Lloyd's generally see PARA 77; and INSURANCE.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 323. As to the meaning of 'former underwriting member' see PARA 747 note 1. As to orders made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 see PARA 67 note 1.

The Treasury has ordered that the following provisions, that is to say: (1) s 104 (see PARA 591), ss 107-114 (see PARAS 593-599); (2) any regulations made under s 108 (see PARA 593); and (3) Sch 12 Pt I (see PARA 595), are to apply in relation to schemes for the transfer of the whole or any part of the business carried on by one or more members of the Society or former underwriting members (the 'members concerned') in the same way as they apply in relation to insurance business transfer schemes, but only if certain conditions are satisfied: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Control of Transfers of Business Done at Lloyd's) Order 2001, SI 2001/3626, art 3. The conditions are: (a) that the scheme results in the business transferred being carried on from an establishment of the transferee in an EEA state; (b) that the Council of Lloyd's has by resolution authorised one person to act, in connection with the transfer for the members concerned, as transferor; and (c) that a copy of the resolution has been given to the Authority: art 4.

The provisions which apply by virtue of heads (1) and (2) above do so as if: (i) any reference to the authorised person concerned were a reference to the members concerned; and (ii) anything done in connection with the transfer by the person authorised in accordance with head (a) above had been done by the members concerned for whom he acted: art 5(1). In the application of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 12 Pt I to the members concerned, the conditions in Sch 12 para 1(2)(a), (3)(a), (4)(a) (see PARA 595) are treated as satisfied: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Control of Transfers of Business Done at Lloyd's) Order 2001, SI 2001/3626, art 5(2).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(v) Provision of Financial Services by Members of the Professions/749. Designation of professional bodies.

(v) Provision of Financial Services by Members of the Professions

749. Designation of professional bodies.

The Treasury<sup>1</sup> may by order designate professional bodies for the purposes of Part XX of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>2</sup>. The Treasury may designate a body only if it is satisfied that: (1) the basic condition; and (2) one or more of the additional conditions, are met in relation to it<sup>3</sup>.

The basic condition is that the body has rules applicable to the carrying on by members<sup>4</sup> of the profession in relation to which it is established of regulated activities<sup>5</sup> which, if the body were to be designated, would be exempt regulated activities<sup>6</sup>. The additional conditions are that:

- 1771 (a) the body has power under any enactment<sup>7</sup> to regulate the practice of the profession<sup>8</sup>;
- 1772 (b) being a member of the profession is a requirement under any enactment for the exercise of particular functions or the holding of a particular office<sup>9</sup>;
- 1773 (c) the body has been recognised<sup>10</sup> for the purpose of any enactment other than the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and the recognition has not been withdrawn<sup>11</sup>;
- 1774 (d) the body is established in an EEA state<sup>12</sup> other than the United Kingdom<sup>13</sup> and in that state: (i) the body has power corresponding to that mentioned in head (a) above; (ii) there is a requirement in relation to the body corresponding to that mentioned in head (b) above; or (iii) the body is recognised in a manner corresponding to that mentioned in head (c) above<sup>14</sup>.

The following bodies have been designated for the purposes of Part XX of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000:

- 1775 (A) the Law Society<sup>15</sup>;
- 1776 (B) the Law Society of Scotland<sup>16</sup>;
- 1777 (C) the Law Society of Northern Ireland<sup>17</sup>;
- 1778 (D) the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales<sup>18</sup>;
- 1779 (E) the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland<sup>19</sup>;
- 1780 (F) the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Ireland<sup>20</sup>;
- 1781 (G) the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants<sup>21</sup>;
- 1782 (H) the Institute of Actuaries<sup>22</sup>;
- 1783 (I) the Council for Licensed Conveyancers<sup>23</sup>;
- 1784 (J) the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors<sup>24</sup>.

1 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 326(1). A body designated under s 326(1) is referred to in Pt XX (ss 325-333) as a designated professional body: s 326(2). As to the bodies designated see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Designated Professional Bodies) Order 2001, SI 2001/1226; and heads (A)-(J) in the text. As to orders made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 see PARA 67 note 1.

An order containing a provision to which, if the order is made, s 429(7) (see below) will apply is not to be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House: s 429(6). Section 429(7) applies to a provision contained in an order if it is the first to be made in the exercise of the power conferred by s 326(1) or it removes a body from those for the time being designated under s 326(1): s 429(7)(a).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 326(3).

4 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XX (ss 325-333), 'members', in relation to a profession, means persons who are entitled to practise the profession in question and, in practising it, are subject to the rules of the body designated in relation to that profession, whether or not they are members of that body: s 325(2).

5 As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 326(4). For the purposes of Pt XX, 'exempt regulated activities' means regulated activities which may, as a result of Pt XX, be carried on by members of a profession which is supervised and regulated by a designated professional body without breaching the general prohibition: s 325(2). As to the general prohibition see PARA 80.

7 'Enactment' includes an Act of the Scottish Parliament, Northern Ireland legislation, and subordinate legislation (whether made under an Act, an Act of the Scottish Parliament or Northern Ireland legislation): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 326(6).

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 326(5)(a).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 326(5)(b).

10 'Recognised' means recognised by: (1) a Minister of the Crown; (2) the Scottish Ministers; (3) a Northern Ireland Minister; (4) a Northern Ireland department or its head: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 326(7). As to the meaning of 'Minister of the Crown' see PARA 67 note 1.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(v) Provision of Financial Services by Members of the Professions/750. The general duty of the Financial Services Authority.

750. The general duty of the Financial Services Authority.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must keep itself informed about: (1) the way in which designated professional bodies<sup>2</sup> supervise and regulate the carrying on of exempt regulated activities<sup>3</sup> by members of the professions in relation to which they are established; (2) the way in which such members are carrying on exempt regulated activities<sup>4</sup>. The Authority must keep under review the desirability of exercising any of its powers under Part XX of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>5</sup>. Each designated professional body must co-operate with the Authority, by the sharing of information and in other ways, in order to enable the Authority to perform its functions under Part XX<sup>6</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebooks, Professional Firms (PROF). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to designated professional bodies see PARA 749.

3 As to the meaning of 'exempt regulated activities' see PARA 749 note 6.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(9) SPECIALIST AREAS/(v) Provision of Financial Services by Members of the Professions/751. Exemption from the general prohibition.

751. Exemption from the general prohibition.

The general prohibition<sup>1</sup> does not apply to the carrying on of a regulated activity<sup>2</sup> by a person ('P') if: (1) the following conditions<sup>3</sup> are satisfied; and (2) there is not in force a direction<sup>4</sup> or an order<sup>5</sup> which prevents this provision from applying to the carrying on of that activity by him<sup>6</sup>. The conditions are that:

1785 (a) P must be a member<sup>7</sup> of a profession or must be controlled or managed by one or more such members<sup>8</sup>;

1786 (b) P must not receive from a person other than his client<sup>9</sup> any pecuniary reward or other advantage, for which he does not account to his client, arising out of his carrying on of any of the activities<sup>10</sup>;

1787 (c) the manner of the provision by P of any service in the course of carrying on the activities must be incidental to the provision by him of professional services<sup>11</sup>;

1788 (d) P must not carry on, or hold himself out as carrying on, a regulated activity<sup>12</sup> other than: (i) one which rules made by the professional body<sup>13</sup> allow him to carry on; or (ii) one in relation to which he is an exempt person<sup>14</sup>;

1789 (e) the activities must not be of a description, or relate to an investment of a description, specified in an order made by the Treasury<sup>15</sup> for these purposes<sup>16</sup>;

1790 (f) the activities must be the only regulated activities<sup>17</sup> carried on by P (other than regulated activities in relation to which he is an exempt person)<sup>18</sup>.

  - 7 As to the meaning of 'members' see PARA 749 note 4.
  - 8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 327(2).
  - 9 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt XX (ss 325-333), 'clients' means: (1) persons who use, have used or are or may be contemplating using, any of the services provided by a member of a profession in the course of carrying on exempt regulated activities; (2) persons who have rights or interests which are derived from, or otherwise attributable to, the use of any such services by other persons; or (3) persons who have rights or interests which may be adversely affected by the use of any such services by persons acting on their behalf or in a fiduciary capacity in relation to them: s 328(8). As to the meaning of 'exempt regulated activities' see PARA 749 note 6.
  - 10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 327(3).
  - 11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 327(4). 'Professional services' means services: (1) which do not constitute carrying on a regulated activity; and (2) the provision of which is supervised and regulated by a designated professional body: s 327(8). As to the designated professional bodies see PARA 749.
  - 12 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 327(5), (7), references to a 'regulated activity' and 'regulated activities' do not include:
    - 667 (1) any activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 10(1) or art 10(2) (see PARA 100), where P is a member of the Society (art 13(1)(a)(i)), and by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 316 (application of the Act to Lloyd's underwriting) (see PARA 743), the general prohibition does not apply to the carrying on by P of that activity (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 13(1)(a)(ii)); or
    - 668 (2) any activity of the kind specified by art 10(2), where P is a former underwriting member (art 13(1)(b)(i)) and the contract of insurance in question is one underwritten by P at Lloyd's (art 13(1)(b)(ii)).
- As to the meanings of 'member of the Society' and 'former underwriting member' see the Lloyd's Act 1982 (see INSURANCE vol 25 (2003 Reissue) PARAS 24, 25); definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 13(2).

  - 16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 327(6). An order containing a provision to which, if the order is made, s 429(7) (see below) will apply is not to be made unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House: s 429(6). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 429(7) applies to a provision contained in an order if it is the first to be made in the exercise of the power conferred by s 327(6) or it adds a description of regulated activity or investment to those for the time being specified for the purposes of s 327(6): s 429(7)(b). As to orders made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 see PARA 67 note 1.

The activities specified for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 327(6) are those mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, arts 4-8 (see below): art 3.

The activity mentioned in art 4 is an activity of the kind specified by any of the following provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544: art 5 (accepting deposits) (see PARA 89), art 9B (issuing electronic money) (see PARA 96), art 10 (effecting and carrying out contracts of insurance) (see PARA 100), art 14 (dealing in investments as principal) (see PARA 112), art 51 (establishing etc a collective investment scheme) (see PARA 171), art 52 (establishing etc a pension scheme) (see PARA 187), art 52B (providing basic advice on stakeholder products) (see PARA 188), art 57 (managing the underwriting capacity of a Lloyd's syndicate) (see PARA 198), art 59 (funeral plan contracts) (see PARA 200): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 4 (amended by SI 2001/3650; SI 2002/682; SI 2004/2737; SI 2006/1969).

The activity mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 4A is an activity kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 21 (dealing in investments as agent) (see PARA 126) or art 25 (arranging deals in investments) (see PARA 139) in so far as it relates to a transaction for the sale or purchase of rights under a contract of insurance, and is carried on by a person who is not included in the record of insurance intermediaries: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 4A (added by SI 2003/1476).

The activity mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 5 is an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 37 (managing investments) (see PARA 152) in so far as it consists of buying or subscribing for a security or contractually based investment: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 5(1) (amended by SI 2003/1476). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 5(1) does not apply: (1) if all routine or day to day decisions, so far as relating to that activity, are taken by an authorised person with permission to carry on that activity or by a person who is an exempt person in relation to such an activity; or (2) to an activity undertaken in accordance with the advice of an authorised person with permission to give advice in relation to such an activity or a person who is an exempt person in relation to the giving of such advice: art 5(2). As to the meaning of 'contractually based investment' see PARA 112 note 4; definition applied by art 2(1).

The activity mentioned in art 5A is an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 39A (assisting in the administration and performance of a contract of insurance) (see PARA 104) if it is carried on by a person who is not included in the record of insurance intermediaries: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 5A (added by SI 2003/1476). As to the meaning of 'contract of insurance' see PARA 90 note 3; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 2(1) (definition added by SI 2003/1476). 'Record of insurance intermediaries' means the record maintained by the Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 347 (the public record) (see PARA 475) by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 93 (recorded insurance intermediaries) (see PARA 476): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 2(1).

The activity mentioned in art 6 is an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53 (advising on investments) (see PARA 174) where the advice in question falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6(2), 6(3) or art 6(5) (see below): art 6(1) (amended by SI 2003/1476). Subject to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6(4), advice falls within art 6(2) in so far as: (a) it is given to an individual (or his agent) other than where the individual acts: (i) in connection with the carrying on of a business of any kind by himself or by an undertaking of which he is, or would become as a result of the transaction to which the advice relates, a controller; or (ii) in his capacity as a trustee of an occupational pension scheme; (b) it consists of a recommendation to buy or subscribe for a particular security or contractually based investment; and (c) the transaction to which the advice relates would be made: (i) with a person acting in the course of carrying on the business of buying, selling, subscribing for or underwriting the security or contractually based investment, whether as principal or agent; (ii) on an investment exchange or any other market to which that investment is admitted for dealing; or (iii) in response to an invitation to subscribe for such an investment which is, or is to be, admitted for dealing on an investment exchange or any other market: art 6(2) (amended by SI 2003/1476). Subject to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6(4), advice falls within art 6(3) in so far as it consists of a recommendation to a member of a personal pension scheme (or his agent) to dispose of any rights or interests which the member has in or under the scheme: art 6(3). Advice does not fall within art 6(2) or art 6(3) if it indorses a corresponding recommendation given to the individual (or, as the case may be, the member) by an authorised person with permission to give advice in relation to the proposed transaction or a person who is an exempt person in relation to the giving of such advice: art 6(4). Advice falls within art 6(5) in so far as it relates to a transaction for the sale or purchase of rights under a contract of insurance; and it is given by a person who is not included in the record of insurance intermediaries: art 6(5) (added by SI 2003/1476). 'Occupational pension scheme' and 'personal pension scheme' have the meanings given by the Pension Schemes Act 1993 s 1 (see SOCIAL SECURITY AND PENSIONS vol 44(2) (Reissue) PARAS 710, 741): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 2(1).

The activity mentioned in art 6A is an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53A (advising on regulated mortgage contracts) (see PARA 174) where the advice in question falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6A(2): art 6A(1) (art 6A added by SI 2003/1475). Subject to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6A(3), advice falls within art 6A(2) in so far as it consists of a recommendation, given to an individual, to enter as borrower into a regulated mortgage contract with a particular person; and in entering into a regulated mortgage contract that person would be carrying on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 61(1) (regulated mortgage contracts) (see PARA 203): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6A(2) (as so added). Advice does not fall within art 6A(2) if it endorses a corresponding recommendation given to the individual by an authorised person with permission to carry on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53A (see PARA 174) or a person who is an exempt person in relation to an activity of that kind: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6A(3) (as so added).

The activity mentioned in art 6B is an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 61(1) or (2) (regulated mortgage contracts) (see PARA 203): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6B(1) (art 6B added as art 6A by SI 2001/3650; and renumbered by SI 2003/1475). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6B(1) does not apply to an activity carried on by a person in his capacity as a trustee or personal representative where the borrower under the regulated mortgage contract in question is a beneficiary under the trust, will or intestacy: art 6B(2) (as so added and renumbered).

The activity mentioned in art 6C is an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53B (advising on regulated home reversion plans) (see PARA 174) where the advice in question falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6C(2): art 6C(1) (art 6C added by SI 2006/2383). Subject to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6C(3), advice falls within art 6C(2) in so far as it consists of a recommendation, given to an individual to enter as reversion seller or plan provider into a regulated home reversion plan with a particular person; and in entering into a regulated home reversion plan that person would be carrying on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63B(1) (regulated home reversion plans) (see PARA 209): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6C(2) (as so added). Advice does not fall within art 6C(2) if it endorses a corresponding recommendation given to the individual by an authorised person with permission to carry on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53B (see PARA 174) or a person who is an exempt person in relation to an activity of that kind: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6C(3) (as so added). As to the meanings of 'reversion seller' and 'plan provider' see PARA 209; definitions applied by art 2(1) (definitions added by SI 2006/2383).

The activity mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6D is an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63B(1) or (2) (regulated home reversion plans) (see PARA 209): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6D(1) (art 6D added by SI 2006/2383). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6D(1) does not apply to an activity carried on by a person in his capacity as a trustee or personal representative where the reversion seller under the regulated home reversion plan in question is a beneficiary under the trust, will or intestacy: art 6D(2) (as so added).

The activity mentioned in art 6E is an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53C (advising on regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 174) where the advice in question falls within the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6E(2): art 6E(1) (art 6E added by SI 2006/2383). Subject to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6E(3), advice falls within art 6E(2) in so far as it consists of a recommendation, given to an individual to enter as home purchaser into a regulated home purchase plan with a particular person; and in entering into a regulated home purchase plan that person would be carrying on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63F(1) (regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 215): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6E(2) (as so added). Advice does not fall within art 6E(2) if it endorses a corresponding recommendation given to the individual by an authorised person with permission to carry on an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 53C (see PARA 174) or a person who is an exempt person in relation to an activity of that kind: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6E(3) (as so added). As to the meanings of 'home purchaser' and 'regulated home purchase plan' see PARA 215; definitions applied by art 2(1) (definitions added by SI 2006/2383).

The activity mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6F is an activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 63F(1) or (2) (regulated home purchase plans) (see PARA 215): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6F(1) (art 6F added by SI 2006/2383). The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 6F(1) does not apply to an activity carried on by a person in his capacity as a trustee or personal representative where the home purchaser under the regulated home purchase plan in question is a beneficiary under the trust, will or intestacy: art 6F(2) (as so added).

The activity mentioned in art 7 is advising a person to become a member of a particular Lloyd's syndicate: art 7(1). As to the meaning of 'syndicate' see PARA 198 note 2; definition applied by art 2(1). Article 7(1) does not apply to advice which indorses that of an authorised person with permission to give such advice or a person who is an exempt person in relation to the giving of such advice: art 7(2).

The activity mentioned in art 8 is agreeing to carry on any of the activities mentioned in arts 4-7 other than the activities mentioned in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 5, art 9B, and arts 10, 51, 52: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Professions) (Non-Exempt Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/1227, art 8 (amended by SI 2002/682).

UPDATE

751 Exemption from the general prohibition

NOTE 16--SI 2001/1227 arts 6G, 6H added by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes. The activity mentioned in art 6G is of the kind specified by SI 2001/544 art 53D (advising on regulated sale and rent back agreements) (PARA 174) where the advice in question falls within SI 2001/1227 art 6G(2): SI 2001/1227 art 6G(1). Advice falls within art 6G(2) if it consists of a recommendation, given to an individual to enter as agreement seller or agreement provider into a regulated sale and rent back agreement with a particular person, and in entering into a regulated sale and rent back agreement that person would be carrying on an activity of the kind specified by SI 2001/544 art 63J(1) (regulated sale and rent back agreements) (PARA 220A): SI 2001/1227 art 6G(2). Advice does not fall within art 6G(2) if it indorses a corresponding recommendation given to the individual by an authorised person with permission to carry on an activity of the kind specified by SI 2001/544 art 53D or a person who is an exempt person in relation to an activity of that kind: SI 2001/1227 art 6G(3). 'Agreement provider' has the meaning given by SI 2001/544 art 63J(3), read with art 63J(6); 'agreement seller' and 'regulated sale and rent back agreement' have the meaning given by art 63J(3): SI 2001/1227 art 2(1) (definitions added by SI 2009/1342 with effect from 1 July 2009 for certain purposes and from 30 June 2010 for remaining purposes).

The activity mentioned in art 6H is of the kind specified by SI 2001/544 art 63J(1) or 63J(2): SI 2001/1227 art 6H(1). Article 6H(1) does not apply to an activity carried on by a person in his capacity as a trustee or personal representative where the agreement seller under the regulated sale and rent back agreement in question is a beneficiary under the trust, will or intestacy: SI 2001/1227 art 6H(2).

752. Directions in relation to the general prohibition.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may direct that the statutory provision relating to the exemption from the general prohibition<sup>2</sup> is not to apply to the extent specified in the direction<sup>3</sup>. Such a direction: (1) must be in writing; (2) may be given in relation to different classes of person or different descriptions of regulated activity<sup>4</sup>. A direction must be published in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>5</sup>. The Authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of the direction<sup>6</sup>. The Authority must, without delay, give the Treasury<sup>7</sup> a copy of any direction<sup>8</sup>.

The Authority may exercise its power to make a direction<sup>9</sup> only if it is satisfied either (a) that it is desirable in order to protect the interests of clients<sup>10</sup>; or (b) that it is necessary to do so in order to comply with a Community obligation imposed by the Insurance Mediation Directive<sup>11</sup>. In considering whether it is satisfied of the matter specified in head (a) above, the Authority must have regard amongst other things to the effectiveness of any arrangements made by any designated professional body<sup>12</sup>:

- 1791 (i) for securing compliance with rules<sup>13</sup>;
- 1792 (ii) for dealing with complaints against its members in relation to the carrying on by them of exempt regulated activities<sup>14</sup>;
- 1793 (iii) in order to offer redress to clients who suffer, or claim to have suffered, loss as a result of misconduct by its members in their carrying on of exempt regulated activities<sup>15</sup>;
- 1794 (iv) for co-operating with the Authority<sup>16</sup>.

753. Orders in relation to the general prohibition.

If it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> that a person to whom the general prohibition<sup>2</sup> does not apply<sup>3</sup> is not a fit and proper person to carry on regulated activities<sup>4</sup>, then the Authority may make an order disapplying the exemption from the general prohibition<sup>5</sup> in relation to that person to the extent specified<sup>6</sup> in the order<sup>7</sup>. The Authority may, on the application of the person named in such an order, vary or revoke it<sup>8</sup>. If a partnership<sup>9</sup> is named in an order, the order is not affected by any change in its membership<sup>10</sup>. If a partnership named in an order is dissolved, the order continues to have effect in relation to any partnership which succeeds to the business of the dissolved partnership<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebooks, Professional Firms (PROF). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to the general prohibition see PARA 80.

3 I.e. as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 327(1): see PARA 751.

4 I.e. in accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 327: see PARA 751. As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq.

5 I.e. the exemption set out in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 327(1): see PARA 751.

754. Consultation.

Before giving a direction<sup>1</sup>, the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup> must publish a draft of the proposed direction<sup>3</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by: (1) a cost benefit analysis<sup>4</sup>; and (2) notice that representations about the proposed direction may be made to the Authority within a specified time<sup>5</sup>. Before giving the proposed direction, the Authority must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with head (2) above<sup>6</sup>. If the Authority gives the proposed direction, it must publish an account, in general terms, of the representations made to it in accordance with head (2) above and its response to them<sup>7</sup>. If the direction differs from the draft in a way which is, in the opinion of the Authority, significant: (a) the Authority must<sup>8</sup> publish details of the difference; and (b) those details must be accompanied by a cost benefit analysis<sup>9</sup>. The provisions described above<sup>10</sup> do not apply if the Authority considers that the delay involved in complying with them would prejudice the interests of consumers<sup>11</sup>. When the Authority is required to publish a document<sup>12</sup>, it must do so in the way appearing to it to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>13</sup>.

755. Procedure on making or varying orders.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> proposes to make an order<sup>2</sup>, it must give the person concerned a warning notice<sup>3</sup>. The warning notice must set out the terms of the proposed order<sup>4</sup>. If the Authority decides to make an order<sup>5</sup>, it must give the person concerned a decision notice<sup>6</sup>. The decision notice must: (1) name the person to whom the order applies; (2) set out the terms of the order; and (3) be given to the person named in the order<sup>7</sup>. Where an application for the variation or revocation of an order is made<sup>8</sup>: (a) if the Authority decides to grant the application, it must give the applicant written notice of its decision<sup>9</sup>; (b) if the Authority proposes to refuse the application, it must give the applicant a warning notice<sup>10</sup>; (c) if the Authority decides to refuse the application, it must give the applicant a decision notice<sup>11</sup>.

A person against whom the Authority has decided to make an order<sup>12</sup>, or whose application for the variation or revocation of such an order the Authority has decided to refuse, may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>13</sup>.

The Authority may not make an order<sup>14</sup> unless: (i) the period within which the decision to make the order may be referred to the Tribunal has expired and no such reference has been made; or (ii) if such a reference has been made, the reference has been determined<sup>15</sup>.

756. Rules in relation to persons to whom the general prohibition does not apply.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> may make rules<sup>2</sup> applicable to persons to whom the general prohibition<sup>3</sup> does not apply<sup>4</sup>. This power is to be exercised for the purpose of ensuring that clients<sup>5</sup> are aware that such persons are not authorised persons<sup>6</sup>. A designated professional body<sup>7</sup> must make rules: (1) applicable to members<sup>8</sup> of the profession in relation to which it is established who are not authorised persons<sup>9</sup>; and (2) governing the carrying on by those members of regulated activities<sup>10</sup> (other than regulated activities in relation to which they are exempt persons)<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Specialist Sourcebooks, Professional Firms (PROF). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to the meaning of 'rule' see PARA 23 note 2.

3 As to the general prohibition see PARA 80.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 332(1). The general prohibition does not apply as a result of s 327(1): see PARA 751.

5 As to the meaning of 'clients' see PARA 751 note 9.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 332(2). As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

7 As to the designation of professional bodies see PARA 749.

8 As to the meaning of 'members' see PARA 749 note 4.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 332(3)(a). Rules made in compliance with s 332(3) must be designed to secure that, in providing a particular professional service to a particular client, the member carries on only regulated activities which arise out of, or are complementary to, the provision by him of that service to that client: s 332(4). Rules made by a designated professional body under s 332(3) require the approval of the Authority: s 332(5).

10 As to regulated activities see PARA 84 et seq. For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 332(3)(b), the reference to 'regulated activities' does not include:

669 (1) any activity of the kind specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 10(1) or art 10(2) (see PARA 100), where P is a member of the Society (art 13(1)(a)(i)) and, by virtue of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 316 (application of the Act to Lloyd's underwriting) (see PARA 743), the general prohibition does not apply to the carrying on by P of that activity (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 13(1)(a)(ii)); or

670 (2) any activity of the kind specified by art 10(2), where P is a former underwriting member (art 13(1)(b)(i)) and the contract of insurance in question is one underwritten by P at Lloyd's (art 13(1)(b)(ii)).

As to the meanings of 'member of the Society' and 'former underwriting member' see the Lloyd's Act 1982 (see INSURANCE vol 25 (2003 Reissue) PARAS 24, 25); definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 13(2).

757. False claims to be a person to whom the general prohibition does not apply.

A person who: (1) describes himself (in whatever terms) as a person to whom the general prohibition<sup>1</sup> does not apply, in relation to a particular regulated activity<sup>2</sup>, as a result of Part XX of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>3</sup>; or (2) behaves, or otherwise holds himself out, in a manner which indicates (or which is reasonably likely to be understood as indicating) that he is such a person, is guilty of an offence if he is not such a person<sup>4</sup>. In proceedings for such an offence, it is a defence for the accused to show that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence<sup>5</sup>. A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment or a fine or both<sup>6</sup>. However, where the conduct constituting the offence involved or included the public display of any material, the maximum fine for the offence is the fine multiplied by the number of days for which the display continued<sup>7</sup>.

763. Provisions that may be included in orders.

The additional powers conferred<sup>1</sup> on a person making an order under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 include power for the Treasury<sup>2</sup>, when making an order in relation to mutual societies<sup>3</sup> transferring functions, to include provision<sup>4</sup>:

- 1795 (1) for the transfer of any functions of a member of the body, or servant or agent of the body or person, whose functions are transferred by the order<sup>5</sup>;
- 1796 (2) for the transfer of any property, rights or liabilities held, enjoyed or incurred by any person in connection with transferred functions<sup>6</sup>;
- 1797 (3) for the carrying on and completion by or under the authority of the person to whom functions are transferred of any proceedings, investigations or other matters commenced, before the order takes effect, by or under the authority of the person from whom the functions are transferred<sup>7</sup>;

- 1798 (4) amending any enactment relating to transferred functions in connection with their exercise by, or under the authority of, the person to whom they are transferred<sup>8</sup>;
- 1799 (5) for the substitution of the person to whom functions are transferred for the person from whom they are transferred, in any instrument, contract or legal proceedings made or begun before the order takes effect<sup>9</sup>.

The additional powers conferred<sup>10</sup> on a person making an order under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 include power for the Treasury, when making an order dissolving a mutual society<sup>11</sup>, to include provision<sup>12</sup>:

- 1800 (a) for the transfer of any property, rights or liabilities held, enjoyed or incurred by any person in connection with the office or body which ceases to have effect as a result of the order<sup>13</sup>;
- 1801 (b) for the carrying on and completion by or under the authority of such person as may be specified in the order of any proceedings, investigations or other matters commenced, before the order takes effect, by or under the authority of the person whose office, or the body which, ceases to exist as a result of the order<sup>14</sup>;
- 1802 (c) amending any enactment which makes provision with respect to that office or body<sup>15</sup>;
- 1803 (d) for the substitution of the Financial Services Authority<sup>16</sup>, the Treasury or such other body as may be specified in the order in any instrument, contract or legal proceedings made or begun before the order takes effect<sup>17</sup>.

On or after the making of an order<sup>18</sup> (the 'original order'), the Treasury may by order make any incidental, supplemental, consequential or transitional provision which it had power to include in the original order<sup>19</sup>.

A certificate issued by the Treasury that property vested in a person immediately before an order under Part XXI of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>20</sup> took effect has been transferred as a result of the order is conclusive evidence of the transfer<sup>21</sup>.

(10) ACTUARIES AND AUDITORS

764. Appointment, resignation, etc.

Rules<sup>1</sup> may require an authorised person<sup>2</sup>, or an authorised person falling within a specified<sup>3</sup> class: (1) to appoint an auditor<sup>4</sup>; or (2) to appoint an actuary<sup>5</sup>, if he is not already under an obligation to do so imposed by another enactment<sup>6</sup>. Rules may require an authorised person, or an authorised person falling within a specified class, to produce periodic financial reports and to have them reported on by an auditor or an actuary<sup>7</sup>. Rules may impose such other duties on auditors of, or actuaries acting for, authorised persons as may be specified<sup>8</sup>. An auditor or actuary appointed as a result of rules<sup>9</sup>, or on whom duties are imposed by rules<sup>10</sup>, must act in accordance with such provision as may be made by the rules, and has such powers in connection with the discharge of his functions as may be provided by the rules<sup>11</sup>.

An auditor or actuary<sup>12</sup> must without delay notify the Financial Services Authority if he: (a) is removed from office by an authorised person<sup>13</sup>; (b) resigns before the expiry of his term of office with such a person<sup>14</sup>; or (c) is not re-appointed by such a person<sup>15</sup>. If he ceases to be an auditor of, or actuary acting for, such a person, he must without delay notify the Authority of any matter connected with his so ceasing which he thinks ought to be drawn to the Authority's attention, or notify it that there is no such matter<sup>16</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'rule' see PARA 23 note 2. 'Auditors and actuaries rules' means rules made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 340: s 417(1).

2 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

3 Ie specified in rules: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 340(7).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 340(1)(a). For the purposes of s 340(1)-(3), 'auditor' or 'actuary' means an auditor, or actuary, who satisfies such requirements as to qualifications, experience and other matters (if any) as may be specified: s 340(6).

Rules under s 340(1) may make provision: (1) specifying the manner in which and time within which an auditor or actuary is to be appointed; (2) requiring the Financial Services Authority to be notified of an appointment; (3) enabling the Authority to make an appointment if no appointment has been made or notified; (4) as to remuneration; (5) as to the term of office, removal and resignation of an auditor or actuary: s 340(4). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Supervision Manual (SUP) Chs 3-4. ## 765. Access to information.

An appointed<sup>1</sup> auditor of, or an appointed actuary acting for, an authorised person<sup>2</sup>: (1) has a right of access at all times to the authorised person's books, accounts and vouchers<sup>3</sup>; and (2) is entitled to require from the authorised person's officers such information and explanations as he reasonably considers necessary for the performance of his duties as auditor or actuary<sup>4</sup>.

1 'Appointed' means appointed under or as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000: s 341(2). As to the appointment of auditors and actuaries see PARA 764. See also the Financial Services Authority's

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(10) ACTUARIES AND AUDITORS/766. Disclosure of information to the Financial Services Authority.

766. Disclosure of information to the Financial Services Authority.

An auditor<sup>1</sup> or actuary<sup>2</sup> does not contravene any duty to which he is subject merely because he gives to the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup>: (1) information on a matter of which he has, or had, become aware in his capacity as auditor of, or actuary acting for, an authorised person or a person who has close links with an authorised person<sup>4</sup>; or (2) his opinion on such a matter, if he is acting in good faith and he reasonably believes that the information or opinion is relevant to any functions of the Authority<sup>5</sup>.

The Treasury<sup>6</sup> may make regulations prescribing circumstances in which an auditor or actuary must communicate matters to the Authority<sup>7</sup>. It is the duty of an auditor or actuary to whom any such regulations apply to communicate a matter to the Authority in the circumstances prescribed by the regulations<sup>8</sup>. The matters to be communicated to the Authority in accordance with the regulations may include matters relating to persons other than the authorised person concerned<sup>9</sup>.

1 These provisions apply: (1) to a person who is, or has been, an auditor of an authorised person appointed under or as a result of a statutory provision; and (2) to a person who: (a) is, or has been, an auditor of an authorised person appointed under or as a result of a statutory provision; and (b) is, or has been, an auditor of a person ('CL') who has close links with the authorised person: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 342(1), 343(1). As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

CL has close links with the authorised person concerned ('A') if CL is: (i) a parent undertaking of A; (ii) a subsidiary undertaking of A; (iii) a parent undertaking of a subsidiary undertaking of A; or (iv) a subsidiary undertaking of a parent undertaking of A: s 343(8). As to the meanings of 'parent undertaking' and 'subsidiary undertaking' see PARA 351 note 32. 'Subsidiary undertaking' includes all the instances mentioned in EC Seventh Council Directive 83/349 based on the article 54(3)(g) of the Treaty on Consolidated Accounts (OJ L193, 18.7.83, p 1) art 1(1), (2) in which an entity may be a subsidiary of an undertaking: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 343(9).

2 These provisions apply: (1) to a person who is, or has been, an actuary acting for an authorised person and appointed under or as a result of a statutory provision; and (2) to a person who: (a) is, or has been, an actuary acting for an authorised person and appointed under or as a result of a statutory provision; and (b) is, or has been, an actuary acting for a person ('CL') who has close links with the authorised person: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 342(2), 343(2).

3 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Supervision Manual (SUP) Chs 3-4. As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 342(3)(a), 343(3)(a). Sections 342(3), 343(3) apply whether or not the auditor or actuary is responding to a request from the Authority: ss 342(4), 343(4).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 342(3)(b), 343(3)(b). See note 4.

6 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 342(5), 343(5). Regulations have been made which provide that an auditor to whom s 342 or s 343 applies must communicate to the Authority information on, or his opinion on, matters mentioned in head (2) in the text in the following circumstances (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Communications by Auditors) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2587, reg 2(1)):

- 671 (1) the auditor reasonably believes that, as regards the person concerned there is or has been, or may be or may have been, a contravention of any relevant requirement that applies to the person concerned, and that contravention may be of material significance to the Authority in determining whether to exercise, in relation to the person concerned, any functions conferred on the Authority by or under any provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 other than Pt VI (ss 72-103) (official listing) (see PARA 385 et seq) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Communications by Auditors) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2587, reg 2(2)(a));
- 672 (2) the auditor reasonably believes that the information on, or his opinion on, those matters may be of material significance to the Authority in determining whether the person concerned satisfies and will continue to satisfy the threshold conditions (reg 2(2)(b));
- 673 (3) the auditor reasonably believes that the person concerned is not, may not be or may cease to be a going concern (reg 2(2)(c));
- 674 (4) the auditor is precluded from stating in his report that the annual accounts or, where they are required to be made by any of the following provisions, other financial reports of the person concerned: (a) have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 2006 or, where applicable, give a true and fair view of the matters referred to in s 495(3) (formerly the Companies Act 1985 s 235(2)) (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 924); (b) have been prepared so as to conform with the requirements of the Building Societies Act 1986 Pt VIII (ss 71-81B) and the regulations made under it or, where applicable, give a true and fair view of the matters referred to in s 78(4) or s 78(7) (see PARA 2003); (c) have been prepared so as to conform with the Friendly Societies Act 1992 and the regulations made under it or, where applicable, give a true and fair view of the matters referred to in s 73(5A)-(5D) (see PARA 2343); (d) have been prepared so as to conform with the requirements of the Friendly and Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1968 or, where applicable, give a true and fair view of the matters referred to in s 9(2), (3) (see PARA 2515); or (e) have been prepared so as to conform with the requirements of rules made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 where the auditor is, by rules made under s 340 (see PARA 764), required to make such a statement (see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Communications by Auditors) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2587, reg 2(2)(d)); or
- 675 (5) where applicable, the auditor is required to state in his report in relation to the person concerned any of the facts referred to in the Companies Act 2006 s 498 (formerly the Companies Act 1985 s 237(2), (3), (4A)) (see COMPANIES vol 15 (2009) PARA 928) (see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Communications by Auditors) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2587, reg 2(2)(e)).

'Person concerned' means in relation to an auditor of an authorised person, that authorised person; in relation to an auditor of a person who has close links (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 343: see note 1) with an authorised person, that authorised person: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Communications by Auditors) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2587, reg 1(2). 'Relevant requirement' means: a requirement which is imposed by or under any provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 other than Pt VI (listing) (see PARA 385 et seq) and which relates to authorisation under the Act (whether by way of permission under Pt IV (ss 40-55) (see PARA 348 et seq) or otherwise) or to the carrying on of any regulated activity; or a requirement which is imposed by or under any other Act and whose contravention constitutes an offence which the Authority has power to prosecute under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Communications by Auditors) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/2587, reg 1(2). As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 generally see PARA 67 note 1.

Regulations have also been made which apply to any person who is, or has been, an actuary acting for an authorised person ('A') and who is or was appointed under or as a result of rules made by the Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 340 (see PARA 764) or appointed under or as a result of any other statutory provision and subject to duties imposed by such rules (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Communications by Actuaries) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1294, reg 2(1)). Such an actuary and also an actuary acting for a person with close links with A (within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 343(8): see note 1) must communicate to the Authority information on, or his opinion on, matters mentioned in head (2) of the text in the following circumstances (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Communications by Actuaries) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1294, reg 2(2), (3)):

- 676 (i) as regards A the actuary reasonably believes that (A) there is or has been, or may be or may have been, a contravention of any relevant requirement that applies to A; and (b) that contravention may be of material significance to the Authority in determining whether to exercise, in relation to A, any functions conferred on the Authority by or under any provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 other than Pt VI (official listing) (see PARA 385 et seq) (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Communications by Actuaries) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1294, reg 2(4)(a));

- 677 (ii) the actuary reasonably believes that the information on, or his opinion on, those matters may be of material significance to the Authority in determining whether A satisfies and will continue to satisfy the threshold conditions (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Communications by Actuaries) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1294, reg 2(4)(b));
- 678 (iii) the actuary reasonably believes that, where applicable, there is a significant risk that assets representing a fund or funds maintained by A in respect of contracts of long-term insurance effected or carried out by him are or may be, or may become, insufficient to meet his liabilities attributable to such contracts (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Communications by Actuaries) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1294, reg 2(4)(c)); or
- 679 (iv) the actuary reasonably believes that, where applicable, there is a significant risk that A did not, does not or is unable to, or will not, may not or may become unable to, take into account in a reasonable and proportionate manner the interests of the policyholders of contracts of long-term insurance effected or carried out by him, and for these purposes the actuary may take into account: (A) the manner in which A exercises his discretion in relation to the operation of the fund or funds maintained by A in respect of contracts of long-term insurance effected or carried out by him, including the distribution and use of surplus assets; (B) the methodology used to determine bonuses; (C) the manner in which A takes into account the interests of different classes of policyholder; (D) the application of fixed or discretionary charges or benefits payable under such contracts; (E) representations made by A to policyholders or potential policyholders; and (F) any obligation (however phrased) imposed on A under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to treat policyholders fairly (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Communications by Actuaries) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1294, reg 2(4)(d), (5)).

'Relevant requirement' means a requirement which is imposed by or under any provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 other than Pt VI (official listing) (see PARA 385 et seq); or a requirement which is imposed by or under any other Act and whose contravention constitutes an offence which the Authority has power to prosecute under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Communications by Actuaries) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1294, reg 1(2). 'Contract of long-term insurance' has the same meaning as in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544 (see PARA 90 note 3): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Communications by Actuaries) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1294, reg 1(2).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(10) ACTUARIES AND AUDITORS/767. Disqualification for failure to comply with a duty.

767. Disqualification for failure to comply with a duty.

If it appears to the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> that an auditor or actuary<sup>2</sup> has failed to comply with a duty imposed on him under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, it may disqualify him from being the auditor of, or (as the case may be) from acting as an actuary for, any authorised person or any particular class of authorised person<sup>3</sup>. If the Authority proposes to disqualify a person in this way it must give him a warning notice<sup>4</sup>. If it decides to disqualify him it must give him a decision notice<sup>5</sup>. The Authority may remove any disqualification if satisfied that the disqualified person will in future comply with the duty in question<sup>6</sup>. A person who has been disqualified may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>7</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Supervision Manual (SUP) Chs 3-4, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 Is an auditor or actuary of an authorised person appointed under or as a result of a statutory provision: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 342(1), (2), 345(1). As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(10) ACTUARIES AND AUDITORS/768. Penalty for provision of false or misleading information.

768. Penalty for provision of false or misleading information.

An authorised person<sup>1</sup> who knowingly or recklessly gives an auditor or actuary appointed under or as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>2</sup> information which is false or misleading in a material particular is guilty of an offence and liable to imprisonment or a fine or both<sup>3</sup>.

1 As to authorised persons see PARA 314.

2 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 346(3). As to the appointment of auditors and actuaries see PARA 764.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 346(1). The authorised person is liable (1) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or both; (2) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine, or both: see s 346(1). As to the statutory maximum see PARA 56 note 24.

Section 346(1) applies equally to an officer, controller or manager of an authorised person: s 346(2). As to the meaning of 'controller' see PARA 591 note 16. As to the meaning of 'manager' see PARA 86 note 11.

(11) MISCELLANEOUS PROCEDURAL AND OTHER MATTERS

(i) Procedure for Notices given by the Financial Services Authority

769. Warning notices.

A warning notice must:

- 1804 (1) state the action which the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> proposes to take<sup>2</sup>;
- 1805 (2) be in writing<sup>3</sup>;
- 1806 (3) give reasons for the proposed action<sup>4</sup>;
- 1807 (4) state whether the statutory provision relating to access to Authority material<sup>5</sup> applies<sup>6</sup>; and
- 1808 (5) if that provision applies, describe its effect and state whether any secondary material exists to which the person concerned must be allowed access under it<sup>7</sup>.

The warning notice must specify a reasonable period (which may not be less than 28 days) within which the person to whom it is given may make representations to the Authority<sup>8</sup>. The Authority may extend the period specified in the notice<sup>9</sup>. The Authority must then decide, within a reasonable period, whether to give the person concerned a decision notice<sup>10</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(11) MISCELLANEOUS PROCEDURAL AND OTHER MATTERS/(i) Procedure for Notices given by the Financial Services Authority/770. Decision notices.

770. Decision notices.

A decision notice must:

- 1809 (1) be in writing<sup>1</sup>;
- 1810 (2) give the Financial Services Authority's<sup>2</sup> reasons for the decision to take the action to which the notice relates<sup>3</sup>;
- 1811 (3) state whether the statutory provision relating to access to Authority material<sup>4</sup> applies<sup>5</sup>;

- 1812 (4) if that provision applies, describe its effect and state whether any secondary material exists to which the person concerned must be allowed access under it<sup>6</sup>; and
- 1813 (5) give an indication of: (a) any right to have the matter referred to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>7</sup> which is given by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000; and (b) the procedure on such a reference<sup>8</sup>.

If the decision notice was preceded by a warning notice<sup>9</sup>, the action to which the decision notice relates must be action under the same Part of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 as the action proposed in the warning notice<sup>10</sup>. The Authority may, before it takes the action to which a decision notice (the 'original notice') relates, give the person concerned a further decision notice which relates to different action in respect of the same matter<sup>11</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(11) MISCELLANEOUS PROCEDURAL AND OTHER MATTERS/(i) Procedure for Notices given by the Financial Services Authority/771. Notices of discontinuance.

771. Notices of discontinuance.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> decides not to take: (1) the action proposed in a warning notice<sup>2</sup>; or (2) the action to which a decision notice relates<sup>3</sup>, it must give a notice of discontinuance to the person to whom the warning notice or decision notice was given<sup>4</sup>. This does not apply if the discontinuance of the proceedings concerned results in the granting of an application made by the person to whom the warning or decision notice was given<sup>5</sup>. A notice of discontinuance must identify the proceedings which are being discontinued<sup>6</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(11) MISCELLANEOUS PROCEDURAL AND OTHER MATTERS/(i) Procedure for Notices given by the Financial Services Authority/772. Final notices.

772. Final notices.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> has given a person a decision notice<sup>2</sup> and the matter was not referred to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>3</sup> within the 28-day period<sup>4</sup>, the Authority must, on taking the action to which the decision notice relates, give the person concerned and any person to whom the decision notice was copied a final notice<sup>5</sup>. If the Authority has given a person a decision notice and the matter was referred to the Tribunal, the Authority must, on taking action in accordance with any directions given by the Tribunal or the court<sup>6</sup>, give that person and any person to whom the decision notice was copied a final notice<sup>7</sup>.

A final notice about a statement must set out the terms of the statement and give details of the manner in which, and the date on which, the statement will be published<sup>8</sup>. A final notice about an order must set out the terms of the order and state the date from which the order has effect<sup>9</sup>. A final notice about a penalty must state the amount of the penalty, state the manner in which, and the period within which<sup>10</sup>, the penalty is to be paid and give details of the way in which the penalty will be recovered if it is not paid by the date stated in the notice<sup>11</sup>. A final notice about a requirement to make a payment or distribution<sup>12</sup> must state the persons to whom, the manner in which and the period within which<sup>13</sup>, it must be made<sup>14</sup>. In any other case, the final notice must give details of the action being taken and state the date on which the action is to be taken<sup>15</sup>.

If all or any of the amount of a penalty payable under a final notice is outstanding at the end of the period stated, the Authority may recover the outstanding amount as a debt due to it<sup>16</sup>. If all or any of a required payment or distribution has not been made at the end of a period stated in a final notice, the obligation to make the payment is enforceable, on the application of the Authority, by injunction<sup>17</sup>.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(11) MISCELLANEOUS PROCEDURAL AND OTHER MATTERS/(i) Procedure for Notices given by the Financial Services Authority/774. Publication.

774. Publication.

Neither the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> nor a person to whom a warning notice<sup>2</sup> or decision notice<sup>3</sup> is given or copied may publish the notice or any details concerning it<sup>4</sup>.

A notice of discontinuance<sup>5</sup> must state that, if the person to whom the notice is given consents, the Authority may publish such information as it considers appropriate about the matter to which the discontinued proceedings related<sup>6</sup>. A copy of a notice of discontinuance must be accompanied by a statement that, if the person to whom the notice is copied consents, the Authority may publish such information as it considers appropriate about the matter to which the discontinued proceedings related, so far as relevant to that person<sup>7</sup>.

The Authority must publish such information about the matter to which a final notice<sup>8</sup> relates as it considers appropriate<sup>9</sup>.

When a supervisory notice<sup>10</sup> takes effect, the Authority must publish such information about the matter to which the notice relates as it considers appropriate<sup>11</sup>.

The Authority may not publish information if publication of it would, in its opinion, be unfair to the person with respect to whom the action was taken or prejudicial to the interests of consumers<sup>12</sup>. Information is to be published in such manner as the Authority considers appropriate<sup>13</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 As to warning notices see PARA 769.

3 As to decision notices see PARA 770.

10 As to the meaning of 'supervisory notice' see PARA 773 note 2; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 391(10).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 391(5). For the purposes of determining when a supervisory notice takes effect, a matter to which the notice relates is open to review if: (1) the period during which any person may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal is still running; (2) the matter has been referred to the Tribunal but has not been dealt with; (3) the matter has been referred to the Tribunal and dealt with but the period during which an appeal may be brought against the Tribunal's decision is still running; or (4) such an appeal has been brought but has not been determined: s 391(8). As to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal see PARA 43 et seq.

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 391(6). 'Consumers' means persons who are consumers for the purposes of s 138 (see PARA 21 note 5): s 391(11).

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 391(7).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(11) MISCELLANEOUS PROCEDURAL AND OTHER MATTERS/(i) Procedure for Notices given by the Financial Services Authority/775. Third party rights.

775. Third party rights.

If any of the reasons contained in a warning notice<sup>1</sup> relates to a matter which identifies a person (the 'third party') other than the person to whom the notice is given, and, in the opinion of the Financial Services Authority<sup>2</sup>, is prejudicial to the third party, a copy of the notice must be given to the third party<sup>3</sup>. A copy does not need to be given to the third party if the Authority: (1) has given him a separate warning notice in relation to the same matter<sup>4</sup>; or (2) gives him such a notice at the same time as it gives the warning notice which identifies him<sup>5</sup>. The notice copied to a third party<sup>6</sup> must specify a reasonable period (which may not be less than 28 days) within which he may make representations to the Authority<sup>7</sup>.

If any of the reasons contained in a decision notice<sup>8</sup> relates to a matter which identifies a person (the 'third party') other than the person to whom the decision notice is given, and in the opinion of the Authority, is prejudicial to the third party, a copy of the notice must be given to the third party<sup>9</sup>. A copy does not need to be given to the third party if the Authority: (a) has given him a separate decision notice in relation to the same matter<sup>10</sup>; or (b) gives him such a notice at the same time as it gives the decision notice which identifies him<sup>11</sup>. If the person to whom a decision notice is given has a right to refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>12</sup>, then:

- 1823 (i) a person to whom a copy of the notice is given under these provisions may refer to the Tribunal the decision in question<sup>13</sup>, or any opinion expressed by the Authority in relation to him<sup>14</sup>;
- 1824 (ii) the copy must be accompanied by an indication of the third party's right to make a reference to the Tribunal<sup>15</sup> and of the procedure on such a reference<sup>16</sup>;
- 1825 (iii) a person who alleges that a copy of the notice should have been given to him, but was not, may refer to the Tribunal the alleged failure and the decision in question<sup>17</sup>, or any opinion expressed by the Authority in relation to him<sup>18</sup>.

The statutory provision relating to access to Authority material<sup>19</sup> applies to a third party as it applies to the person to whom the notice was given, in so far as the material which the Authority must disclose<sup>20</sup> relates to the matter which identifies the third party<sup>21</sup>.

Any person to whom a warning notice or decision notice was copied under the provisions described above must be given a copy of a notice of discontinuance<sup>22</sup> applicable to the proceedings to which the warning notice or decision notice related<sup>23</sup>.

1 As to warning notices see PARA 769. The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 393 applies to a warning notice given in accordance with s 54(1) (see PARA 357), s 57(1) (see PARA 365), s 63(3) (see PARA 371), s 67(1) (see PARA 374), s 88(4)(b) (see PARA 426), s 89(2) (see PARA 426), s 92(1) (see PARA 429), s 126(1) (see PARA 442), s 207(1) (see PARA 468), s 255(1) (see PARA 613), s 280(1) (see PARA 679), s 331(1) (see PARA 755), s 345(2) (see PARA 767) (whether as a result of s 345(1) or s 249(1) (see PARA 616)), s 385(1) (see PARA 474) or s 412B(4) or (8) (see PARA 783): s 392(a) (amended by SI 2007/126).

2 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 393(1). Section 393(1) does not require a copy of the notice to be given to a third party if the Authority considers it impracticable to do so: s 393(7).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(11) MISCELLANEOUS PROCEDURAL AND OTHER MATTERS/(i) Procedure for Notices given by the Financial Services Authority/776. Access to material.

776. Access to material.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> gives a person ('A') a notice<sup>2</sup>, it must: (1) allow him access to the material on which it relied in taking the decision which gave rise to the obligation to give the notice<sup>3</sup>; (2) allow him access to any secondary material<sup>4</sup> which, in the opinion of the Authority, might undermine that decision<sup>5</sup>. However, the Authority does not have to allow A access to material if the material is excluded material<sup>6</sup> or if it: (a) relates to a case involving a person other than A<sup>7</sup>; and (b) was taken into account by the Authority in A's case only for purposes of comparison with other cases<sup>8</sup>.

The Authority may refuse A access to particular material which it would otherwise have to allow him access to if, in its opinion, allowing him access to the material: (i) would not be in the public interest<sup>9</sup>; or (ii) would not be fair, having regard to the likely significance of the material to A in relation to the matter in respect of which he has been given a notice, and the potential prejudice to the commercial interests of a person other than A which would be caused by the material's disclosure<sup>10</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. See also the Authority's Handbook of Rules and Guidance, Regulatory Processes, Decision Procedure and Penalties Manual (DEPP). As to the Handbook generally see PARA 22.

2 The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 394 applies to a warning notice given in accordance with s 54(1) (see PARA 357), s 57(1) (see PARA 365), s 63(3) (see PARA 371), s 67(1) (see PARA 374), s 88(4)(b) (see PARA 426), s 89(2) (see PARA 426), s 92(1) (see PARA 429), s 126(1) (see PARA 442), s 207(1) (see PARA 468), s 255(1) (see PARA 613), s 280(1) (see PARA 679), s 331(1) (see PARA 755), s 345(2) (see PARA 767) (whether as a result of s 345(1) or s 249(1) (see PARA 616)), s 385(1) (see PARA 474) or s 412B(4) or (8) (see PARA 783): s 392(a) (amended by SI 2007/126). As to warning notices see PARA 769. The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 394 also applies to a decision notice given in accordance with s 54(2) (see PARA 357), s 57(3) (see PARA 365), s 63(4) (see PARA 371), s 67(4) (see PARA 374), s 88(6)(b) (see PARA 426), s 89(3) (see PARA 426), s 92(4) (see PARA 429), s 127(1) (see PARA 442), s 208(1) (see PARA 469), s 255(2) (see PARA 613), s 280(2) (see PARA 679), s 331(3) (see PARA 755), s 345(3) (see PARA 767) (whether as a result of s 345(1) or s 249(1) (see PARA 616)), s 386(1) (see PARA 474) or s 412B(5) or (9) (see PARA 783): s 392(b) (amended by SI 2007/126). As to decision notices see PARA 770.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 394(1)(a).

4 'Secondary material' means material, other than material falling within head (1) in the text which: (1) was considered by the Authority in reaching the decision mentioned in that head; or (2) was obtained by the Authority in connection with the matter to which the notice relates but which was not considered by it in reaching that decision: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 394(6).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 394(1)(b).

6 'Excluded material' means material which: (1) is material the disclosure of which for the purposes of or in connection with any legal proceedings is prohibited by the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 s 17 (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 519); or (2) is a protected item (as defined in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 413 (see PARA 784)): s 394(7) (amended by the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 Sch 4 para 11). See note 7.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 394(2)(a). If the Authority does not allow A access to material because it is excluded material consisting of a protected item, it must give A written notice of: (1) the existence of the protected item; and (2) the Authority's decision not to allow him access to it: s 394(4).

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(11) MISCELLANEOUS PROCEDURAL AND OTHER MATTERS/(i) Procedure for Notices given by the Financial Services Authority/777. Procedure for Financial Services Authority notices.

777. Procedure for Financial Services Authority notices.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must determine the procedure that it proposes to follow in relation to the giving of: (1) supervisory notices<sup>2</sup>; and (2) warning notices<sup>3</sup> and decision notices<sup>4</sup>. That procedure must be designed to secure, among other things, that the decision which gives rise to the obligation to give any such notice is taken by a person not directly involved in establishing the evidence on which that decision is based<sup>5</sup>. However, the procedure may permit a decision which gives rise to an obligation to give a supervisory notice to be taken by a person other than a person mentioned above<sup>6</sup> if: (a) the Authority considers that, in the particular case, it is necessary in order to protect the interests of consumers<sup>7</sup>; and (b) the person taking the decision is of a level of seniority laid down by the procedure<sup>8</sup>.

The Authority must issue a statement of the procedure<sup>9</sup>. The statement must be published in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>10</sup>. The Authority may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of the statement<sup>11</sup>. The Authority must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of any statement which it issues under these provisions<sup>12</sup>.

When giving a supervisory notice, or a warning notice or decision notice, the Authority must follow its stated procedure<sup>13</sup>. If the Authority changes the procedure in a material way, it must publish a revised statement<sup>14</sup>. The Authority's failure in a particular case to follow its procedure as set out in the latest published statement does not affect the validity of a notice given in that case<sup>15</sup>.

Before issuing a statement of procedure<sup>16</sup>, the Authority must publish a draft of the proposed statement in the way appearing to the Authority to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public<sup>17</sup>. The draft must be accompanied by notice that representations about the proposal may be made to the Authority within a specified time<sup>18</sup>. Before issuing the proposed statement of procedure, the Authority must have regard to any representations made to it<sup>19</sup>. If the Authority issues the proposed statement of procedure it must publish an account, in general terms, of: (i) the representations made to it<sup>20</sup>; and (ii) its response to them<sup>21</sup>. If the statement of procedure differs from the published draft in a way which is, in the opinion of the Authority, significant, the Authority must publish details of the difference<sup>22</sup>. These requirements<sup>23</sup> also apply to a proposal to revise a statement of policy<sup>24</sup>.

(ii) Miscellaneous Matters

A. REVIEW OF PAST BUSINESS

778. Schemes for reviewing past business.

If the Treasury<sup>1</sup> is satisfied that there is evidence suggesting: (1) that there has been a widespread or regular failure<sup>2</sup> on the part of authorised persons<sup>3</sup> to comply with rules<sup>4</sup> relating to a particular kind of activity; and (2) that, as a result, private persons<sup>5</sup> have suffered (or will suffer) loss in respect of which authorised persons are (or will be) liable to make payments ('compensation payments'), the Treasury may make a scheme order<sup>6</sup>. A scheme order authorises the Financial Services Authority<sup>7</sup> to establish and operate a scheme for: (a) determining the nature and extent of the failure<sup>8</sup>; (b) establishing the liability of authorised persons to make compensation payments<sup>9</sup>; and (c) determining the amounts payable by way of compensation payments<sup>10</sup>. An authorised scheme<sup>11</sup> must be made so as to comply with specified<sup>12</sup> requirements<sup>13</sup>. A scheme order may be made only if: (i) the Authority has given the Treasury a report about the alleged failure and asked it to make a scheme order<sup>14</sup>; (ii) the report contains details of the scheme which the Authority proposes to make<sup>15</sup>; and (iii) the Treasury is satisfied that the proposed scheme is an appropriate way of dealing with the failure<sup>16</sup>. A scheme order may provide for specified provisions of or made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to apply in relation to any provision of, or determination made under, the resulting authorised scheme subject to such modifications (if any) as may be specified<sup>17</sup>. For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, failure on the part of an authorised person to comply with any provision of an authorised scheme is to be treated (subject to any provision made by the scheme order concerned) as a failure on his part to comply with rules<sup>18</sup>. The Treasury may prescribe circumstances in which loss suffered by a person ('A') acting in a fiduciary or other prescribed capacity is to be treated, for the purposes of an authorised scheme, as suffered by a private person in relation to whom A was acting in that capacity<sup>19</sup>.

No order is to be made under the provisions described above<sup>20</sup> unless a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House<sup>21</sup>.

B. IMPLEMENTATION OF FOREIGN DECISIONS AND INTERNATIONAL OBLIGATIONS

779. Third countries.

For the purpose of implementing a third country decision<sup>1</sup>, the Treasury<sup>2</sup> may direct the Financial Services Authority<sup>3</sup> to: (1) refuse an application for permission to carry on regulated activities<sup>4</sup> made by a body incorporated in, or formed under the law of, any part of the United Kingdom<sup>5</sup>; (2) defer its decision on such an application either indefinitely or for such period as may be specified in the direction<sup>6</sup>; (3) give a notice of objection to a person who has served a notice of control<sup>7</sup> to the effect that he proposes to acquire a 50 per cent stake<sup>8</sup> in a UK authorised person<sup>9</sup>; or (4) give a notice of objection to a person who has acquired a 50 per cent stake in a UK authorised person without having served the required notice of control<sup>10</sup>. A direction may also be given in relation to: (a) any person falling within a class specified in the direction; (b) future applications, notices of control or acquisitions<sup>11</sup>. The Treasury may revoke a direction at any time<sup>12</sup>, but revocation does not affect anything done in accordance with the direction before it was revoked<sup>13</sup>.

If a third country decision<sup>14</sup> has been taken, the Treasury may make a determination<sup>15</sup> in relation to an EFTA firm<sup>16</sup> which is a subsidiary undertaking<sup>17</sup> of a parent undertaking<sup>18</sup> which is governed by the law of the country to which the decision relates<sup>19</sup>. A determination may also be made in relation to any firm falling within a class specified in the determination<sup>20</sup>. The Treasury may withdraw a determination at any time<sup>21</sup>, but withdrawal does not affect anything done in accordance with the determination before it was withdrawn<sup>22</sup>. If the Treasury makes a determination in respect of a particular firm, or withdraws such a determination, it must give written notice to that firm<sup>23</sup>. The Treasury must publish notice of any determination (or the withdrawal of any determination) in such a way as it thinks most suitable for bringing the determination (or withdrawal) to the attention of those likely to be affected by it, and on, or as soon as practicable after, the date of the determination (or withdrawal)<sup>24</sup>.

The Treasury may by order modify certain provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 in relation to firms which have their head office in Gibraltar or are otherwise connected with Gibraltar<sup>25</sup>.

1 'Third country decision' means a decision of the EC Council or the European Commission under: (1) the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 15(3); (2) the First Non-Life Insurance Directive (ie EEC Directive 73/239 (OJ L228, 16.8.73, p 3) on the co-ordination of laws, regulations and administrative provisions relating to the taking up and pursuit of the business of direct insurance other than life assurance) art 29b(4); or (3) the Life Assurance Consolidation Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2002/83 (OJ L345, 19.12. 2002, p 1) concerning life assurance) art 59(4): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 405(5) (amended by SI 2004/3379; SI 2006/3221; SI 2007/126).

2 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

3 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

4 Ie under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt IV (ss 40-55): see PARA 348 et seq.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 405(1)(a). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3. If the Authority refuses an application for permission as a result of a direction under s 405(1)(a), then: (1) s 52(7)-(9) (determination of applications) (see PARA 350) does not apply in relation to the refusal; but (2) the Authority must notify the applicant of the refusal and the reasons for it: s 407(1).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 405(1)(b). If the Authority defers its decision on an application for permission as a result of a direction under s 405(1)(b), then: (1) the time limit for determining the application mentioned in s 52(1) or (2) (determination of applications) (see PARA 350) stops running on the day of the deferral and starts running again (if at all) on the day the period specified in the direction (if any) ends or the day the direction is revoked; and (2) the Authority must notify the applicant of the deferral and the reasons for it: s 407(2).

7 As to the meaning of 'notice of control' see PARA 377 note 3.

8 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 405, a person (the 'acquirer') acquires a 50% stake in a UK authorised person ('A') on first falling within any of the cases mentioned in s 406(2) (see below): s 406(1). Those cases are where the acquirer: (1) holds 50% or more of the shares in A; (2) holds 50% or more of the shares in a parent undertaking ('P') of A; (3) is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, 50% or more of the voting power in A; or (4) is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, 50% or more of the voting power in P: s 406(2). For the purposes of s 406(2), 'acquirer' means: (a) the acquirer; (b) any of the acquirer's associates; or (c) the acquirer and any of his associates: s 406(3). As to the meaning of 'UK authorised person' see PARA 358 note 3. As to the meaning of 'parent undertaking' see PARA 351 note 32. As to the meanings of 'associate', 'shares' and 'voting power' see PARA 591 note 16.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 405(1)(c). If the Authority gives a notice of objection to a person as a result of a direction under s 405(1)(c) or s 405(1)(d) (see the text and note 10), then: (1) s 189 (improperly acquired shares) (see PARA 384) and s 191 (offences) (see PARA 377) have effect as if the notice was a notice of objection within the meaning of Pt XII (ss 178-192) (see PARA 383 note 9); and (2) the Authority must state in the notice the reasons for it: s 407(3).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 405(1)(d). See note 9.

12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 405(3).

13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 405(4).

14 See note 1; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 408(9).

15 'Determination' means a determination that the firm concerned does not qualify for authorisation under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 (see PARAS 314-318, 323-329) even if it satisfies the conditions in Sch 3 para 13 or Sch 3 para 14 (see PARA 315): s 408(2).

16 'EFTA firm' means a firm, institution or undertaking which: (1) is an EEA firm as a result of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Sch 3 para 5(a), (b) or (d) (see PARA 315); and (2) is incorporated in, or formed under the law of, an EEA state which is not a member state: s 408(8). As to the meaning of 'EEA firm' see PARA 315 note 1; and as to the meaning of 'EEA state' see PARA 315 note 1.

17 As to the meaning of 'subsidiary undertaking' see PARA 351 note 32.

18 As to the meaning of 'parent undertaking' see PARA 351 note 32.

23 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 408(6).

24 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 408(7).

25 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 409. The Treasury may by order: (1) modify Sch 3 (see PARA 315 et seq) so as to provide for Gibraltar firms of a description specified in the order to qualify for authorisation under that Schedule in circumstances specified in the order; (2) modify Sch 3 so as to make provision in relation to the exercise by UK firms of rights under the law of Gibraltar which correspond to EEA rights; (3) modify Sch 4 (treaty rights) (see PARA 319) so as to provide for Gibraltar firms of a description specified in the order to qualify for authorisation under that Schedule in circumstances specified in the order; (4) modify s 264 (see PARA 672) so as to make provision in relation to collective investment schemes constituted under the law of Gibraltar; (5) provide for the Financial Services Authority to be able to give notice under s 264(2) on grounds relating to the law of Gibraltar; (6) provide for the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to apply to a Gibraltar recognised scheme as if the scheme were a scheme recognised under s 264: s 409(1), (5). 'Gibraltar firm' means a firm which has its head office in Gibraltar or is otherwise connected with Gibraltar: s 409(3). As to the meaning of 'UK firm' see PARA 323 note 4; and as to the meaning of 'EEA right' see PARA 315 note 3; definitions applied by s 409(6). As to the meaning of 'collective investment scheme' see PARA 603. 'Gibraltar recognised scheme' means a collective investment scheme: (a) constituted in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom; and (b) recognised in Gibraltar under provisions which appear to the Treasury to give effect to the provisions of a relevant Community instrument: s 409(4). The fact that a firm may qualify for authorisation under Sch 3 as a result of an order under s 409(1) does not prevent it from applying for a Part IV permission: s 409(2). As to the meaning of 'Part IV permission' see PARA 348.

As to the order that has been made under s 409 see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Gibraltar) Order 2001, SI 2001/3084, which contains provisions relating to the exercise of deemed passport rights by Gibraltar-based firms (see art 2 (amended by SI 2005/1; SI 2006/1805; SI 2007/2932; SI 2007/3254)); EEA firms satisfying conditions under Gibraltar law (see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Gibraltar) Order 2001, SI 2001/3084, art 3 (amended by SI 2007/3254); and the exercise by UK firms of deemed passport rights in Gibraltar (see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Gibraltar) Order 2001, SI 2001/3084, art 4 (amended by SI 2006/3221)). If it appears to the Treasury<sup>1</sup> that any action proposed to be taken by a relevant person<sup>2</sup> would be incompatible with European Community obligations or any other international obligations of the United Kingdom<sup>3</sup>, they may direct that person not to take that action<sup>4</sup>. If it appears to the Treasury that any action which a relevant person has power to take is required for the purpose of implementing any such obligations, it may direct that person to take that action<sup>5</sup>. A direction: (1) may include such supplemental or incidental requirements as the Treasury considers necessary or expedient<sup>6</sup>; and (2) is enforceable, on an application made by the Treasury, by injunction<sup>7</sup>.

<sup>2</sup> 'Relevant person' means: (1) the Financial Services Authority (see PARAS 4, 6 et seq); (2) any person exercising functions conferred by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt VI (ss 72-103) (see PARA 385 et seq) on the competent authority; (3) any recognised investment exchange (other than one which is an overseas investment exchange); (4) any recognised clearing house (other than one which is an overseas clearing house); (5) a person included in the list maintained under s 301 (see PARA 720); or (6) the scheme operator of the ombudsman scheme: s 410(4). #### 781. Gaming contracts.

A contract is not void or unenforceable because of provisions of any applicable gaming legislation<sup>1</sup> if: (1) it is entered into by either or each party by way of business<sup>2</sup>; (2) the entering into or performance of it by either party constitutes an activity of a specified<sup>3</sup> kind or one which falls within a specified class of activity<sup>4</sup>; and (3) it relates to an investment<sup>5</sup> of a specified kind or one which falls within a specified class of investment<sup>6</sup>.

1 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 412(1) (amended by the Gaming Act 2005 Sch 17). See the Betting, Gaming, Lotteries and Amusements (Northern Ireland) Order 1985, SI 1985/1204 (NI 11), art 170 which is the only provision remaining in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 412(1).

2 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 412(2)(a).

3 It is specified in an order made by the Treasury: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 412(6). The activities specified are any activity of the kind: (1) specified by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, SI 2001/544, art 14 or art 21 (dealing in investments as principal or agent) (see PARAS 112, 126); (2) specified by art 64 (agreeing to carry on specified kinds of activity) (see PARA 221), so far as relevant to either of those provisions; or (3) which would be so specified apart from any exclusion from any of those provisions made by the order: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Gaming Contracts) Order 2001, SI 2001/2510, art 2(1). FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(11) MISCELLANEOUS PROCEDURAL AND OTHER MATTERS/(ii) Miscellaneous Matters/D. TRADE-MATCHING AND REPORTING SYSTEMS/782. Approval and monitoring of trade-matching and reporting systems.

D. TRADE-MATCHING AND REPORTING SYSTEMS

782. Approval and monitoring of trade-matching and reporting systems.

The Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> must approve a relevant system<sup>2</sup> if, on an application<sup>3</sup> by the operator of the system, it is satisfied that the arrangements established by the system for reporting transactions comply with the relevant Regulation<sup>4</sup>. If, at any time after approving a relevant system<sup>5</sup>, the Authority is not so satisfied, it may suspend or withdraw the approval<sup>6</sup>.

The operator of an approved relevant system must make reports to the Authority at specified<sup>7</sup> intervals containing specified information relating to the system, the reports made by the system<sup>8</sup> and the transactions to which those reports relate<sup>9</sup>. The Authority may by written notice require the operator of an approved relevant system to provide such additional information as may be specified in the notice, by such reasonable time as may be so specified, about any of the matters mentioned above<sup>10</sup>.

The Authority must keep under review the arrangements established by an approved relevant system for reporting transactions for the purpose of ensuring that the arrangements comply with the relevant Regulation<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

2 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 412A, 412B 'relevant system' means a trade-matching or reporting system of a kind described in EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) art 12: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 412A(9) (s 412A added by SI 2007/126). A relevant system is an approved relevant system if it is approved by the Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 412A(2) (see the text to note 4) for the purposes of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1) on markets in financial instruments) art 25.5; and references in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 ss 412A, 412B to an 'approved relevant system' are to be read accordingly: s 412A(1) (as so added).

3 The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 51(3), (4) (see PARA 349) applies to an application under s 412A as it applies to an application under Pt IV (ss 40-55) (see PARA 348 et seq): Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 412A(3) (as added: see note 2).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 412A(2) (as added: see note 2). The reference is to the EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1) art 12(1).

5 Ie under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 412A(2).

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 412A(4) (as added: see note 2).

7 Ie specified by the Authority: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 412A(6) (as added: see note 2).

8 Ie in accordance with the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive (ie European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2004/39 (OJ L145, 30.4.2004, p 1)) art 25 and EC Commission Regulation 1287/2006 (OJ L241, 2.9.2006, p 1).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 412A(6) (as added: see note 2).

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 412A(7) (as added: see note 2). The reference is to the matters mentioned in s 412A(6): see the text to notes 7-9. The recipient of a notice under s 412A(7) must provide the information by the time specified in the notice: s 412A(8) (as so added).

11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 412A(5) (as added: see note 2). For the purposes of s 412A(5), the Authority must have regard to information provided to it under s 412A(6), (7) (see the text to notes 7-10): see s 412A(5) (as so added).

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(11) MISCELLANEOUS PROCEDURAL AND OTHER MATTERS/(ii) Miscellaneous Matters/D. TRADE-MATCHING AND REPORTING SYSTEMS/783. Procedure for approval and suspension or withdrawal of approval.

783. Procedure for approval and suspension or withdrawal of approval.

If the Financial Services Authority<sup>1</sup> approves<sup>2</sup> a relevant system<sup>3</sup>, it must give the operator of the system written notice specifying the date from which the approval has effect<sup>4</sup>.

If the Authority proposes to refuse to approve a relevant system, it must give the operator of the system a warning notice<sup>5</sup>. If the Authority decides to refuse to approve a relevant system, it must give the operator of the system a decision notice<sup>6</sup>. If the Authority proposes to suspend or withdraw its approval in relation to an approved relevant system<sup>7</sup>, it must give the operator of the system a warning notice<sup>8</sup>. If the Authority decides to suspend or withdraw its approval in relation to an approved relevant system, it must give the operator of the system a decision notice specifying the date from which the suspension or withdrawal is to take effect<sup>9</sup>.

If the Authority has suspended its approval in relation to an approved relevant system, and the operator of the system has applied for the suspension to be cancelled<sup>10</sup>:

- 1826 (1) the Authority must grant the application if it is satisfied that the relevant arrangements for reporting transactions are in compliance<sup>11</sup>; and in such a case the Authority must give written notice to the operator that the suspension is to be cancelled from the date specified in the notice<sup>12</sup>;
- 1827 (2) if the Authority proposes to refuse the application, it must give the operator a warning notice<sup>13</sup>;
- 1828 (3) if the Authority decides to refuse the application, it must give the operator a decision notice<sup>14</sup>.

A person who receives a decision notice<sup>15</sup> may refer the matter to the Financial Services and Markets Tribunal<sup>16</sup>.

E. LIMITATION ON POWER TO REQUIRE DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED ITEMS

784. Protected items.

A person may not be required under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to produce, disclose or permit the inspection of protected items<sup>1</sup>. 'Protected items' means:

- 1829 (1) communications between a professional legal adviser and his client or any person representing his client which are made in connection with the giving of legal advice to the client, or in connection with, or in contemplation of, legal proceedings and for the purposes of those proceedings<sup>2</sup>;
- 1830 (2) communications between a professional legal adviser, his client or any person representing his client and any other person which are made in connection with, or in contemplation of, legal proceedings and for the purposes of those proceedings<sup>3</sup>;
- 1831 (3) items which: (a) are enclosed with, or referred to in, such communications; (b) are made in connection with the giving of legal advice to the client, or in connection with, or in contemplation of, legal proceedings and for the purposes of those proceedings; and (c) are in the possession of a person entitled to possession of them<sup>4</sup>.

A communication or item is not a protected item if it is held with the intention of furthering a criminal purpose<sup>5</sup>.

F. SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS

785. Power of the Treasury to make provision as to procedure.

The Treasury<sup>1</sup> may by regulations make provision with respect to the procedure to be followed, or rules to be applied, when a provision of or made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 requires a notice, direction or document<sup>2</sup> of any kind to be given or authorises the imposition of a requirement<sup>3</sup>.

The regulations may, in particular, make provision:

- 1832 (1) as to the manner in which a document must be given<sup>4</sup>;
- 1833 (2) as to the address to which a document must be sent<sup>5</sup>;
- 1834 (3) requiring, or allowing, a document to be sent electronically<sup>6</sup>;
- 1835 (4) for treating a document as having been given, or as having been received, on a date or at a time determined in accordance with the regulations<sup>7</sup>;
- 1836 (5) as to what must, or may, be done if the person to whom a document is required to be given is not an individual<sup>8</sup>;
- 1837 (6) as to what must, or may, be done if the intended recipient of a document is outside the United Kingdom<sup>9</sup>.

1 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

2 As to the meaning of 'document' see PARA 10 note 10.

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 414(1). As to the regulations made see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420; and PARAS 786-789. As to regulations made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 generally see PARA 67 note 1.

Section 414(1) applies however the obligation to give a document is expressed (and so, in particular, includes a provision which requires a document to be served or sent): s 414(3).

The Interpretation Act 1978 s 7 (service of notice by post) (see STATUTES vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1388) has effect in relation to provisions made by or under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 subject to any provision made by regulations under s 414: s 414(4).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 414(2)(a). As to methods of service see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, regs 2, 7; and PARA 786.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 414(2)(b). As to the proper address for service see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 4; and PARA 786.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 414(2)(c). As to service by electronic means of communication see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, regs 5, 8; and PARA 787.

7 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 414(2)(d). As to deemed service see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, regs 6, 9, 10, 11; and PARA 788.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 414(2)(e). As to the appropriate person to be served see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 3; and PARA 789.

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 414(2)(f). As to the proper address for service see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 4; and PARA 786.

Halsbury's Laws of England/FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS (VOLUME 48 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1-589; VOLUME 49 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 590-1619; VOLUME 50 (2008) 5TH EDITION, PARAS 1620-2586)/2. FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(11) MISCELLANEOUS PROCEDURAL AND OTHER MATTERS/(ii) Miscellaneous Matters/F. SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS/786. Methods of service, and proper address for service.

786. Methods of service, and proper address for service.

Any relevant document<sup>1</sup> must be given by a relevant authority<sup>2</sup> to any person (the 'recipient') by one of the following methods<sup>3</sup>:

- 1838 (1) by delivering it to the recipient, the recipient's nominee<sup>4</sup> or the appropriate person<sup>5</sup>;
- 1839 (2) by leaving it at the proper address of the recipient, the recipient's nominee or the appropriate person<sup>6</sup>;
- 1840 (3) by posting<sup>7</sup> it to that address<sup>8</sup>; or
- 1841 (4) by transmitting it by fax or other means of electronic communication to the recipient, the recipient's nominee or the appropriate person<sup>9</sup>.

A relevant document which is to be given to a relevant authority may be given by any method of serving or transmitting documents<sup>10</sup>. Where a relevant document is given by delivering it to the relevant authority, it must be delivered: (a) to the employee or other individual with responsibility for the matter to which the document relates, if the identity of that individual is known<sup>11</sup>; or (b) in any other case, to the published address of that authority<sup>12</sup>. Where a relevant document is given to a relevant authority by leaving it at, or posting<sup>13</sup> it to, the address of a relevant authority, it must be left at or posted to the published address of that authority<sup>14</sup>.

The proper address:

- 1842 (i) in the case of any person who is required by any provision of or made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to provide to the Financial Services Authority an address of a place in the United Kingdom for the service of documents, is the address so provided<sup>15</sup>; and
- 1843 (ii) in the case of a person to whom no such requirement applies, is any current address provided by that person as an address for service of relevant documents<sup>16</sup>.

In the case of any person who has not provided an address as mentioned in heads (i) and (ii) above, the proper address is the last known address of that person (whether of his residence, or of a place where he carries on business or is employed), or any address under such of the following as may be applicable:

- 1844 (A) in the case of a body corporate<sup>17</sup> (other than a limited liability partnership)<sup>18</sup>, its secretary or its clerk, the address of its registered or principal office in the United Kingdom<sup>19</sup>;
- 1845 (B) in the case of a limited liability partnership or any of its designated members, the address of its registered or principal office in the United Kingdom<sup>20</sup>;
- 1846 (C) in the case of a partnership<sup>21</sup> (other than a limited liability partnership) or any of its partners, the address of its principal office in the United Kingdom<sup>22</sup>;
- 1847 (D) in the case of an unincorporated association other than a partnership, or its governing body, the address of its principal office in the United Kingdom<sup>23</sup>;
- 1848 (E) in the case of a member of a designated professional body<sup>24</sup>, if the member does not have a place of business in the United Kingdom, the address of that body<sup>25</sup>.

1 'Relevant document' means:

680 (1) a document in relation to which a provision of or made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (other than a provision of or made under Pt IX (ss 132-137) (see PARAS 43, 45-46, 65-69) or Pt XXIV (ss 355-379) (see PARA 490 et seq)) requires a document of that kind to be given (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 1(2)); or

- 681 (2) where a provision of or made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (other than a provision of or made under Pt IX or Pt XXIV) authorises the imposition of a requirement, a document by which such a requirement is imposed (Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 1(2)).

For these purposes, 'document' means a notice, direction or document (as defined in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 417 (see PARA 10 note 10)) of any kind: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 1(2). In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, references to a requirement to give any document apply however the requirement is expressed (and so, in particular, include any requirement for a document to be served or sent): reg 1(4).

2 'Relevant authority' means: the Financial Services Authority, the Secretary of State, the Office of Fair Trading, an investigator, the scheme manager, the scheme operator, or an ombudsman: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 1(2) (definition amended by the Enterprise Act 2002 s 2). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 3. As to the Office of Fair Trading see COMPETITION vol 18 (2009) PARA 6 et seq. 'Investigator' means a person appointed by an investigating authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 97(2) (see PARA 434), s 167 (see PARA 449), s 168(3) or (5) (see PARA 449), s 169(1)(b) (see PARA 450) or s 284 (see PARA 683), or under regulations made under s 262 (see PARA 621), to carry out an investigation: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 1(2). 'Investigating authority' means the Financial Services Authority or the Secretary of State, as the case may be: reg 1(2). As to the meaning of 'scheme manager' see PARA 583. As to the meaning of 'scheme operator' see PARA 575. As to the meaning of 'ombudsman' see PARA 575 note 15; definition applied by reg 1(2). For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, the scheme operator and ombudsmen are treated as the same relevant authority (with the effect, in particular, that a document given to one is to be treated as also given to the other): reg 1(3).

3 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 2(1), (2). The provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, have effect subject to any contrary provision made by a relevant authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 with respect to the service of documents: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 1(6).

4 'Nominee', in relation to any person to whom a document is to be given ('A'), means a person ('B') who is authorised for the time being to receive relevant documents on behalf of A, to whom relevant documents may be given: (1) if A has notified the Financial Services Authority in writing that B is so authorised, by any relevant authority; or (2) if A has notified a relevant authority in writing that B is so authorised, by that relevant authority: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 1(2). For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, 'writing' includes any means of electronic communication which may be processed to produce a legible text: reg 1(5).

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 2(2)(a). 'Appropriate person' means: (1) an individual to whom a relevant document may be given, in accordance with reg 3(1) (see PARA 789), in order to give that document to a person who is not an individual; or (2) in the case of a relevant document given to an appointed representative, his principal: reg 1(2). As to appointed representatives see PARA 346.

6 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 2(2)(b). Such person is determined in accordance with reg 4 (see heads (i)-(ii), (A)-(E) in the text).

7 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 2, 'posting' a relevant document means sending that document pre-paid by a postal service which seeks to deliver documents by post within the United Kingdom no later than the next working day in all or the majority of cases, and to deliver by post outside the United Kingdom within such a period as is reasonable in all the circumstances: reg 2(3). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 2(2)(c).

9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 2(2)(d). As to such transmission see reg 5; and PARA 787.

10 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 7(1). This is subject to reg 7(2), (3) (see the text to notes 11, 12, 14), reg 8 (see PARA 787), and reg 10 (see PARA 789).

- 11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 7(2)(a).
- 12 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 7(2)(b).
- 13 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 7, 'posting' a document means sending it by a pre-paid postal service: reg 7(4).
- 14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 7(3).
- 15 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 4(1)(a).
- 16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 4(1)(b). However, where the address mentioned in reg 4(1)(b) is situated in a country or territory other than the United Kingdom, a relevant authority may give a relevant document by leaving it at, or posting it to, any applicable address of a place in the United Kingdom falling within reg 4(2) (see heads (A)-(E) in the text): reg 4(3).
- 17 As to the meaning of 'body corporate' see PARA 86 note 11. As to bodies corporate see generally COMPANIES.
- 18 As to limited liability partnerships see PARTNERSHIP vol 79 (2008) PARA 234 et seq.

FINANCIAL SERVICES REGULATION/(11) MISCELLANEOUS PROCEDURAL AND OTHER MATTERS/(ii) Miscellaneous Matters/F. SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS/787. Service by electronic means of communication.

787. Service by electronic means of communication.

A relevant authority<sup>1</sup> may give a relevant document<sup>2</sup> by fax only if the person to whom it is to be given has indicated in writing<sup>3</sup> to that authority (and has not withdrawn the indication): (1) that he is willing to receive relevant documents by fax<sup>4</sup>; and (2) the fax number to which such documents should be sent<sup>5</sup>. If a relevant authority gives a relevant document by fax it must, by the end of the business day<sup>6</sup> following the day on which it did so, send a copy of that document to the person to whom the document is to be given by any method specified<sup>7</sup> other than fax<sup>8</sup>.

A relevant authority may give a relevant document by any other electronic means of communication only if the person to whom it is to be given:

- 1849 (a) has indicated in writing to that authority (and has not withdrawn the indication) that he is willing to receive relevant documents by those means<sup>9</sup>; and
- 1850 (b) has provided, in writing to that authority for this purpose, an e-mail address, or other electronic identification such as an ISDN or other telephonic link number<sup>10</sup>.

Where a relevant document which is to be given to a relevant authority is given by fax or other electronic means, it must be sent to a fax number, e-mail address or other electronic identification:

- 1851 (i) which has been notified to the sender by the relevant authority as the appropriate number, address or other electronic identification for the purpose of receiving relevant documents of the kind in question<sup>11</sup>; or
- 1852 (ii) in all other cases, which has been published by the relevant authority for the purpose of receiving relevant documents<sup>12</sup>.

Where any provision of or made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 requires a person to give a relevant document to the Financial Services Authority before the end of a specified period, that person may give that document by fax only if by the end of the business day following the day on which he did so, he sends a copy of that document to the Authority by any method other than fax<sup>13</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'relevant authority' see PARA 786 note 2.

2 As to the meaning of 'relevant document' see PARA 786 note 1. In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, references to a requirement to give any document apply however the requirement is expressed (and so, in particular, include any requirement for a document to be served or sent): reg 1(4).

3 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, writing includes any means of electronic communication which may be processed to produce a legible text: reg 1(5).

4 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 5(1)(a). A fax number, e-mail address or other electronic identification provided to the Financial Services Authority for the purpose of accepting the service of relevant documents is sufficient indication, for any relevant authority, for the purposes of reg 5(1) or (3): reg 5(4). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.

5 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 5(1)(b). See note 4.

6 'Business day' means any day except Saturday, Sunday or a bank holiday, where 'bank holiday' includes Christmas Day and Good Friday: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 1(2).

7 As specified in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 2: see PARA 786.

8 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 5(2).

PROCEDURAL AND OTHER MATTERS/(ii) Miscellaneous Matters/F. SERVICE OF DOCUMENTS/788. Deemed service etc.

788. Deemed service etc.

A relevant document<sup>1</sup> which is given by a relevant authority<sup>2</sup> to any person in accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001<sup>3</sup> is, for each method of giving, to be treated as having been received on the days shown below<sup>4</sup>:

- 1853 (1) where the document is left at the proper address<sup>5</sup>, on the business day<sup>6</sup> after the day on which it is left at the proper address;
- 1854 (2) where the document is posted to an address in the United Kingdom<sup>7</sup>, on the second business day after posting;
- 1855 (3) where the document is posted to an address in any EEA state (other than the United Kingdom), on the fifth business day after posting;
- 1856 (4) where the document is sent by fax<sup>8</sup>, on the business day after the day on which the document is transmitted;
- 1857 (5) where the document is sent by other electronic means of communication, on the business day after the day on which the document is transmitted<sup>9</sup>.

Special provision is made for certain notices stated to take effect immediately<sup>10</sup>. No relevant document which is to be given to a relevant authority is to be treated as given until it is received by that authority in legible form; and for the purposes of any provision of or made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 which requires a relevant authority to take any action within a specified period beginning with the day on which a document was received by that authority, that day is the day on which the document is actually received in legible form<sup>11</sup>.

For the purposes of any provision of or made under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 which requires a person to give a document to the Financial Services Authority before the end of a specified period, that person is to be regarded as having complied with that requirement (irrespective of the day on which the document is in fact received by the Authority if it is sent by post, fax or other electronic means) if he sends the document to the Authority in accordance with any applicable directions<sup>12</sup> before the end of the specified period or, where no such directions apply, if he:

- 1858 (a) delivers the document to an employee of the Authority with responsibility for the matter to which the document relates before the end of the specified period<sup>13</sup>;
- 1859 (b) leaves the document at the Authority's address before the end of the specified period, and obtains a time stamped receipt<sup>14</sup>;
- 1860 (c) posts<sup>15</sup> the document to the Authority's address before the final day of the specified period<sup>16</sup>;
- 1861 (d) sends the document to the Authority by fax before the end of the specified period, provided that he has also sent or subsequently sends a copy of that document by any method other than fax<sup>17</sup>; or
- 1862 (e) sends the document to the Authority by other electronic means of communication before the end of the specified period, and obtains electronic confirmation of receipt<sup>18</sup>.

No relevant document is to be treated as given by a relevant authority to a host state regulator<sup>19</sup> until it is received by that regulator<sup>20</sup>.

- 1 As to the meaning of 'relevant document' see PARA 786 note 1.
- 2 As to the meaning of 'relevant authority' see PARA 786 note 2.
- 3 In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420.
- 4 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 6(1). This is subject to reg 11 (see the text to note 20). In the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, references to a requirement to give any document apply however the requirement is expressed (and so, in particular, include any requirement for a document to be served or sent): reg 1(4).
- 5 As to the proper address for service see PARA 786.
- 6 As to the meaning of 'business day' see PARA 787 note 6.
- 7 As to the meaning of the 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.
- 8 Where a relevant document is given by fax, that document is to be treated as having been received on the deemed day of receipt of the fax, determined in accordance with the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 6(1), regardless of whether a relevant authority has sent a copy of that document in accordance with reg 5(2) (see PARA 787): reg 6(2).
- 9 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 6(1).
- 10 See the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 6(3) (added by SI 2005/274). Where (1) a notice given under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 53(4) (see PARA 357) states that a variation of an authorised person's Part IV permission (see PARA 348) takes effect immediately; (2) a notice given under s 78(2) (see PARA 389) states that a discontinuance or suspension of the listing of any securities takes effect immediately; or (3) a notice given under s 259(3) (see PARA 619), or under the Open-Ended Investment Companies Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1228, reg 27 (see PARA 634) states that a direction to which it relates takes effect immediately, that notice is to be treated as having been received at the time it is in fact received if that is earlier than the day on which heads (1)-(5) of the text would otherwise require it to be treated as having been received: see the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 6(3) (as so added).
- 11 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 9(1). For the purposes of reg 9(1), where a relevant document is given by fax and a copy sent in accordance with reg 8(2) (see PARA 787), that document is to be treated as given to the Financial Services Authority on either the day on which the fax is actually received by the Authority or the day on which the copy is actually received by the Authority, whichever day is the earlier: reg 9(2). As to the Financial Services Authority see PARAS 4, 6 et seq.
- 12 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 10, 'applicable direction' means any direction given by the Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 which specifies the manner in which the relevant document in question is to be given: Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 10(2) (b).
- 13 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 10(1) (a).
- 14 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 10(1) (b).
- 15 For the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 10, 'posts' means:
  - 682 (1) where the person who is required to give a document is located in the United Kingdom, sending that document pre-paid by a postal service which seeks to deliver documents by post within the United Kingdom no later than the next working day in all or the majority of cases (reg 10(2)(a)(i)); and
  - 683 (2) where the person who is required to give a document is located outside the United Kingdom, sending that document pre-paid by a postal service which seeks to deliver documents by post in the fastest time which is reasonable in the circumstances (reg 10(2)(a)(ii)).
- 16 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 10(1) (c).

17 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 10(1) (d). As to the sending of the copy of the document see reg 8(2); and PARA 787.

18 Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 10(1) (e).

19 As to the meaning of 'host state regulator' see PARA 323 note 10; definition applied by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Service of Notices) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/1420, reg 1(2).

3. BANKING

(1) INTRODUCTION

(i) Legislation and Common Law

791. Introduction.

The statutory regulation of banking has changed considerably with the enactment of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000<sup>1</sup>. Prior to this, the regulation of banking was governed by the Banking Act 1987 which covered the regulation of deposit-taking business<sup>2</sup>, the deposit protection scheme<sup>3</sup>, banking names and descriptions<sup>4</sup>, overseas institutions with representative offices<sup>5</sup>, restriction on disclosure of information<sup>6</sup> and miscellaneous related matters<sup>7</sup>. The Banking Act 1987 also gave the Bank of England supervisory duties over the field of banking<sup>8</sup>. The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 takes away the distinction between banking and other forms of financial services and imposes a system to regulate all financial services<sup>9</sup>.

Although the statutory regulation of banking has been subsumed into that of financial services generally, there are a number of matters that remain distinctive to banks<sup>10</sup> and banking law. The Bank of England remains a powerful institution that has been granted new powers for the formulation of monetary policy under the Banking Act 1998<sup>11</sup>. The business of banking is primarily governed by the common law and covers such matters as the relation of banker and customer<sup>12</sup>, the payment of cheques and the protection and duties of the paying banker<sup>13</sup>, banker's lien<sup>14</sup>, the appropriation of payments<sup>15</sup>, statement of account<sup>16</sup>, the banker as bailee<sup>17</sup>, the collection of cheques and the protection and duties of the collecting banker<sup>18</sup>, electronic funds transfer<sup>19</sup>, bankers' books<sup>20</sup>, secrecy, references and advice<sup>21</sup>, letters of credit and performance bonds<sup>22</sup>, lending and security<sup>23</sup>, guarantees<sup>24</sup>, and freezing injunctions<sup>25</sup>. There are specific accounting requirements for banking companies and groups<sup>26</sup>.

One further statute that should be mentioned in this general context is the Banking (Special Provisions) Act 2008 which makes provision for the Treasury<sup>27</sup> in certain circumstances to make an order relating to the transfer of securities issued by, or of property, rights or liabilities belonging to, an authorised UK deposit-taker<sup>28</sup>.

27 As to the Treasury see PARA 3; and CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 512 et seq.

28 'Authorised UK deposit-taker' means a United Kingdom undertaking that under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt IV (ss 40-55) has permission (see PARA 348 et seq) to accept deposits (see PARA 89 et seq): Banking (Special Provisions) Act 2008 s 1(1). That expression does not, however, include such an undertaking with permission to accept deposits only for the purposes of, or in the course of, an activity other than accepting deposits: s 1(2). As to the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 2 note 3.

The Banking (Special Provisions) Act 2008 received Royal Assent on 21 February 2008 and was intended to enable the United Kingdom government to nationalise high-street banks under emergency circumstances by secondary legislation. Specifically the Act was introduced in order to nationalise the failing bank Northern Rock plc after a private-sector solution was deemed of insufficient value to the taxpayer, although the legislation is of potentially wider application. It also has provisions on the following matters: cases where the Treasury's powers are exercisable (s 2); transfer of securities (s 3); extinguishment of subscription rights (s 4); compensation etc for securities transferred etc (s 5); transfer of property, rights and liabilities (s 6); compensation etc for property etc transferred (s 7); further transfers following transfer to public sector (s 8); supplementary provision about compensation schemes etc (s 9); tax consequences (s 10); modification of legislation applying in relation to building societies) (s 11) (see also PARA 1856 note 4); consequential and supplementary provision (s 12); orders and regulations: general (s 13); orders and regulations: retrospective provisions (s 14); interpretation (s 15); financial provision (s 16); short title, commencement and extent (s 17); transfer orders under s 3 (Sch 1); transfer orders under s 6 (Sch 2). The Northern Rock plc Transfer Order 2008, SI 2008/432, was made in exercise of the powers conferred by the Banking (Special Provisions) Act 2008 ss 3, 4, 12 and 13 to protect the public interest, in circumstances where the Treasury has provided financial assistance to Northern Rock plc, being an authorised UK deposit-taker (see above), for the purpose of maintaining the stability of the UK financial system (see also PARA 807). The Northern Rock plc Compensation Scheme Order 2008, SI 2008/718, was made under the Banking (Special Provisions) Act 2008 ss 5, 9, 12, 13 and provides a scheme for determining the amount of compensation, if any, payable by the Treasury to those whose securities were transferred, or whose rights were extinguished, by the Northern Rock plc Transfer Order 2008, SI 2008/432 (see above).

791A. Special resolution regime.

1. Purpose of special resolution regime

The purpose of the special resolution regime for banks is to address the situation where all or part of the business of a bank has encountered, or is likely to encounter, financial difficulties: Banking Act 2009 s 1(1). The special resolution regime consists of the three stabilisation options, the bank insolvency procedure (see Pt 2 (ss 90-135)); and PARA 791B) and the bank administration procedure (see Pt 3 (ss 136-168); and PARA 791C). The three stabilisation options are (1) transfer to a private sector purchaser (see s 11); (2) transfer to a bridge bank (see s 12); and (3) transfer to temporary public ownership (see s 13): Banking Act 2009 s 1(2). Each of the stabilisation options is achieved through the exercise of one or more of the stabilisation powers, which are the share transfer powers (see ss 15, 16, 26-31, 85) and the property transfer powers (see ss 33, 42-46): s 1(4). For the purposes of Pt 1 (ss 1-89), 'bank' means a United Kingdom institution which has permission under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 Pt 4 (ss 40-55) (see PARAS 348-361) to carry on the regulated activity of accepting deposits within the meaning of s 22, but does not include a building society within the meaning of the Building Societies Act 1986 s 119 (see PARA 1906), a credit union within the meaning of the Credit Unions Act 1979 s 31, or any other class of institution excluded by an order made by the Treasury (Banking Act 2009 s 2(1), (2)), or any institution with permission under the Financial Services and Markets Act Pt IV (ss 40-55) to effect or carry out contracts of insurance as principal (Banking Act 2009 (Exclusion of Insurers) Order 2010, SI 2010/35). Subject to certain specified exceptions, the Banking Act 2009 Pt 1 applies to building societies as it applies to banks: Banking Act 2009 s 84. The Treasury may by order make provision about the distribution of surplus assets of a building society which is the subject of a property transfer instrument or order and is later wound up or dissolved by consent: Banking Act 2009 s 86(1). The Treasury may also provide for the application of Pt 1 to credit unions: see the Banking Act 2009 s 89.

2. Objectives and code

The Treasury, the Financial Services Authority and the Bank of England must have regard to the special resolution objectives in using, or considering the use of, the stabilisation powers, the bank insolvency procedure or the bank administration procedure: Banking Act 2009 s 4(2), (3). The special resolution objectives are (1) to protect and enhance the stability of the financial systems of the United Kingdom; (2) to protect and enhance public confidence in the stability of the banking systems of the United Kingdom; (3) to protect depositors; (4) to protect public funds; and (5) to avoid interfering with property rights in contravention of a right under the European Convention on Human Rights: s 4(4). The stability of the financial systems of the United Kingdom includes, in particular, a reference to the continuity of banking services: Banking Act 2009 s 4(5). The order in which the objectives are listed is not significant; they are to be balanced as appropriate in each case: s 4(6). The Treasury is required to issue a code of practice about the use of the stabilisation powers, the bank insolvency procedure and the bank administration procedure: see ss 5, 6.

3. Exercise of powers

A stabilisation power may be exercised in respect of a bank only if the Financial Services Authority is satisfied that (1) the bank is failing, or is likely to fail, to satisfy the threshold conditions within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 s 41(1) (permission to carry on regulated activities: see PARA 351); and (2) having regard to timing and other relevant circumstances it is not reasonably likely that, ignoring the stabilisation powers, action will be taken by or in respect of the bank that will enable the bank to satisfy the threshold conditions: Banking Act 2009 s 7(1)-(3). The Bank of England may exercise a stabilisation power in respect of a bank in accordance with s 11(2) or 12(2) only if satisfied that the exercise of the power is necessary, having regard to the public interest in the stability of the financial systems of the United Kingdom, the maintenance of public confidence in the stability of the banking systems of the United Kingdom, or the protection of depositors: Banking Act 2009 s 8(1), (2). Where the Treasury notifies the Bank of England that it has provided financial assistance in respect of a bank for the purpose of resolving or reducing a serious threat to the stability of the financial systems of the United Kingdom, the Bank may exercise a stabilisation power in respect of the bank in accordance with s 11(2) or 12(2) only if satisfied that the Treasury has recommended the Bank of England to exercise the power on the ground that it is necessary to protect the public interest, and, in the Bank's opinion, exercise of the power is an appropriate way to provide that protection: s 8(4), (5). The Treasury may exercise a stabilisation power in respect of a bank in accordance with s 13(2) (see PARA 791A.4) only if satisfied that either (a) the exercise of the power is necessary to resolve or reduce a serious threat to the stability of the financial systems of the United Kingdom; or (b) exercise of the power is necessary to protect the public interest, where the Treasury has provided financial assistance in respect of the bank for the purpose of resolving or reducing a serious threat to the stability of the financial systems of the United Kingdom: Banking Act 2009 s 9(1)-(3). The Treasury must make arrangements for a panel to advise it about the effect of the special resolution regime on banks, persons with whom banks do business, and the financial markets: Banking Act 2009 s 10(1), (2). As to the composition of the panel see s 10(3).

4. The stabilisation options

The first stabilisation option is to sell all or part of the business of the bank to a commercial purchaser: Banking Act 2009 s 11(1). For that purpose the Bank of England may make one or more share transfer instruments and one or more property transfer instruments: s 11(2). The second stabilisation option is to transfer all or part of the business of the bank to a company which is wholly owned by the Bank of England (a 'bridge bank'): Banking Act 2009 s 12(1). For that purpose the Bank of England may make one or more property transfer instruments: s 12(2). The third stabilisation option is to take the bank into temporary public ownership: Banking Act 2009 s 13(1). For that purpose the Treasury may make one or more share transfer orders in which the transferee is either a nominee of the Treasury or a company wholly owned by the Treasury: s 13(2). For the purpose of exercising the third stabilisation option in respect of a building society the Treasury may make one or more orders for the purposes of (1) arranging for deferred shares of a building society to be publicly owned; (2) cancelling private membership rights in the building society; (3) allowing the building society to continue in business while in public ownership; and (4) eventually either winding up or dissolving the building society: Banking Act 2009 s 85(1). See further s 85(2)-(8).

5. Transfer of securities

A share transfer instrument is an instrument which provides for securities issued by a specified bank to be transferred, and makes other provision for the purposes of, or in connection with, the transfer of securities issued by a specified bank: Banking Act 2009 s 15(1). For the purposes of Pt 1 (ss 1-89), 'securities' includes (1) shares and stock (Class 1); (2) debentures, including debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, certificates of deposit, and any other instrument creating or acknowledging a debt (Class 2); (3) warrants or other instruments that entitle the holder to acquire anything in Class 1 or 2 (Class 3); and (4) rights which are granted by a deposit-taker, and form part of the deposit-taker's own funds (Class 4): Banking Act 2009 s 14. A share transfer instrument may relate to specified securities or securities of a specified description: s 15(2). A share transfer order is an order which provides for securities issued by a specified bank to be transferred, and makes other provision for the purposes of, or in connection with, the transfer of securities issued by a specified bank: Banking Act 2009 s 16(1). A share transfer order may relate to specified securities or securities of a specified description: Banking Act 2009 s 16(2). As to the taking of effect of a transfer provided for by a share transfer instrument or order see the Banking Act 2009 s 17. A share transfer instrument or order may provide for securities to be converted from one form or class to another: Banking Act 2009 s 19(1). A share transfer instrument and a share transfer order may give the Bank of England or the Treasury, as the case may be, various powers over the appointment and removal of the directors of a bank: Banking Act 2009 s 20. A share transfer instrument or order may permit or require the execution, issue or delivery of an instrument: Banking Act 2009 s 21(1). As to provision for the termination of rights see the Banking Act 2009 s 22, and as to procedural provision related to the making of share transfer instruments see the Banking Act 2009 ss 23-25.

6. Supplemental and reverse orders

Where the Bank of England or Treasury, as the case may be, has made a share transfer instrument or order, it may make one or more supplemental share transfer instruments or supplemental share transfer orders: Banking Act 2009 ss 26(1), (2), 27(1), (2). A supplemental share transfer instrument or order is a share transfer instrument or order, as the case may be, which provides for the transfer of securities which were issued by the bank before the original instrument or order and have not been transferred by the original instrument or order or another supplemental share transfer instrument or order, and makes provision of a kind that a share transfer instrument or order may make under s 15(1)(b) or s 16(1)(b), as the case may be: ss 26(3), 27(3). Where the Treasury has made a share transfer order in respect of securities issued by a bank, it may make one or more onward share transfer orders, which are share transfer orders which (1) provide for the transfer of securities which were issued by the bank before the original order and have been transferred by the original order or a supplemental share transfer order, or securities which were issued by the bank after the original order; and

(2) makes other provision for the purposes of, or in connection with, the transfer of securities issued by the bank: Banking Act 2009 s 28(1)-(3). An onward share transfer order may not transfer securities to the transferor under the original order: s 28(4). Where the Treasury has made a share transfer order providing for the transfer of securities issued by a bank to a person, it may make one or more reverse share transfer orders in respect of securities issued by the bank and held by the original transferee: Banking Act 2009 s 29(1), (2). If the Treasury makes an onward share transfer order in respect of securities transferred by the original order, it may make one or more reverse share transfer orders in respect of securities issued by the bank and held by a transferee under the onward share transfer order of a company wholly owned by the Bank of England, a company wholly owned by the Treasury, or a nominee of the Treasury: s 29(3). A reverse share transfer order is a share transfer order which (a) provides for transfer to the transferor under the original order; (b) provides for transfer to the original transferee; and (c) makes other provision for the purposes of, or in connection with, the transfer of securities which are, could be or could have been so transferred: s 29(4). Where the Bank of England has made a property transfer instrument in respect of a bridge bank in accordance with s 12(2) (see PARA 791A.4), it may make one or more bridge bank share transfer instruments, which are share transfer instruments that provide for securities issued by the bridge bank to be transferred, and makes other provision for the purposes of, or in connection with, the transfer of securities issued by the bridge bank: Banking Act 2009 s 30(1)-(3). Where the Bank of England has made a bridge bank share transfer instrument providing for the transfer of securities to a company wholly owned by the Bank of England, a company wholly owned by the Treasury, or a nominee of the Treasury, it may make one or more bridge bank reverse share transfer instruments in respect of securities issued by the bridge bank and held by such a person: Banking Act 2009 s 31(1), (2). A bridge bank reverse share transfer instrument is a share transfer instrument which provides for transfer to the transferor under the original instrument, and makes other provision for the purposes of, or in connection with, the transfer of securities which are, could be or could have been so transferred: s 31(3).

7. Transfer of property
